Field Marshal Wilson Assassinated

HARMONY IS RESTORED IN MUNICIPAL CIRCLES OVER UTILITIES

EDITORIAL

WHY AN ELEVATOR AT PRINCE RUPERT?

There is prospect of an abundant crop on the prairies this year and much of that crop will come westward if there are facilities for handling it. In any case the shipments west will be large. Of last year's shipments through Vancouver half the amount went to the Orient, and the Orient will be in the market for grain again this year. The amount they buy will be larger than ever for the increase is steady.

Vancouver has an elevator which was worked to the limit last year. The Vancouver railway yards were blocked with grain cars at least part of the time last year. This year increased facilities will have to be provided because the acreage under crop on the prairies is larger than ever before.

Where will the facilities be provided? The choice lies between the two ports, Vancouver and Prince Rupert. Prince Rupert is the logical place for a government owned elevator because the railroad is owned by the government and the grain could be handled in government steamers. The yardage facilities are already here and there is a fine dock. All that is needed is an elevator.

Advantages Here

It seems perhaps insane to keep repeating the reasons why shipping should go by way of Prince Rupert. The port is almost two days voyage nearer the Orient than any other Canadian or American port and the grade on the railway is the best there is. An elevator here would mean bringing all the grain to it over the Canadian National lines instead of sharing the business with other lines. That is the argument for the Oriental trade.

In regard to business through the Panama Canal to the Eastern States or Europe, it is not generally known that Prince Rupert is practically the same distance from Panama as Vancouver. The difference is negligible. In addition, there is a much safer outlet to the sea here and for that reason pilots need take the ships only five or six miles instead of eighty. Insurance from this port should be less as well as pilotage charges and this would make transportation rates from Prince Rupert to the U.K. at least equal to those from Vancouver.

Immediate Action

In view of these facts, it is clear that Prince Rupert should have an elevator and should get it this autumn. The government wishes to make this section of the road pay and has promised that it will implement the promises made by the Laurier government to the people here.

It seems to us that it would be wise while Parliament is still in session to again urge through our board of trade and city council that the elevator be erected at once and that the new dock here be completed without any delay, so that it may be available for shipping grain.

When the people here elected Fred Stork as their member to support the Mackenzie King government it was on the understanding that this port was to be developed. The people here did their part and they now expect the government to do its.

Chief of British Imperial Staff and Former Military Advisor to Ulster Murdered

LONDON, June 22.—Field Marshal Sir Henry Hughes Wilson, chief of the British Imperial General Staff, and lately military adviser to the Ulster government, was assassinated today near the door of his home at Eaton Place, London. Two men came upon the Field Marshal as he was alighting from his automobile after attending a war memorial unveiling where he delivered an address. Struck by two bullets, he staggered and fell, dying almost immediately.

The two assailants fled, closely followed by the police who had been guarding Field Marshal Wilson after information had been received that an attempt would likely be made on his life.

Both men were captured, one of the murderers, it is reported having endeavored to commit suicide. They gave the names of James Connelly and James O'Brien with no occupations. They are also being accused with an attempt made a few days ago against Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, when an attack was made on the official residence, Stormont Castle.

Both British and Ulster Houses of Parliament adjourned on receipt of word of the assassination. The news created a sensation in Belfast.

VICTORY FOR TREATY DECLARED COMPLETE

LONDON, June 22.—The success of the Treaty Coalitionists in the Irish elections is now declared incontrovertible and the common-sense of the Irish people in their approval of the treaty is the cause of much praise and enthusiasm here. Although some people claim that the victory of the Laborites and the Independents goes in favor of the treaty others are inclined to wait for future events before definitely accepting such a view.

Fifteen Thousand Northern Troops Burn Property and Slay Residents.

QUELLED BY GUNBOAT. President Sun Yat Sen and Wife Are Reported to Have Been Captured.

SHANGHAI, June 22.—Fifteen thousand northern Chinese forces mutined at Kiangsi. They burned much property and killed thousands of residents before gunboat fire quelled them.

British and American gunboats are being rushed to the spot and will stand by in case of further trouble.

Sun Yat Sen, president of Southern China whose forces were recently defeated, is reported captured and his wife is also taken.

HALF BILLION SPENT ON SOLDIERS BY THE OTTAWA GOVERNMENT

OTTAWA, June 22.—The final report of the committee on pensions and re-establishment was adopted without a division by the House of Commons after Herbert Marler, the chairman, had outlined the work of the committee and the figures of expenditure which totalled $487,162,558 on soldiers benefits to date.

PRINCE RUPERT PULP COMPANY AFFAIRS AT IMPASSE, IT SEEMS

VANCOUVER, June 22.—The annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Co. has again been adjourned for two weeks because A. F. Sutherland, chairman, is the only man who is willing to assume the responsibility of being a director after the withdrawal of the Emerson interests. In order to protect their status as first mortgage holders, John Emerson, retiring president, says that $300,000 must be raised this year to keep the company going.

FISHERY COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE THE B.C. SITUATION

OTTAWA, June 22.—A recommendation that a committee, composed of such members of the committee as the Minister of Marine and Fisheries may deem advisable, be appointed to investigate the British Columbia fisheries situation is contained in a report of the standing committee on fisheries which has been adopted for presentation to the House of Commons.

HIS ARREST KILLED POPE

Another Insane Statement Credited to Father Delorme.

MONTREAL, June 22.—Further evidence of the insanity of Father Adelard Delorme, charged with the murder of his wealthy half brother, Raoul Delorme last winter, is being adduced as the trial proceeds. A witness at the trial yesterday intimated that Delorme had told him that Pope Benedict had died in a fit when he had heard of his arrest.

Illinois Labor Dispute Causes Acts of Horror; Thirty Deaths Already

HERRIN, Illinois, June 22.—A check at noon today showed that 26 are known to be dead and indications are that the total will be more than 30 in the hostilities between striking Union miners and non-Union employees of the Strip Mines of Southern Illinois Coal Company here. The bodies are spread over an area of fifteen miles square. Some are riddled with bullets, others are beaten to death and some hang from trees.

In a road near the mine, six men, tied together and terribly mangled by bullets and clubs, lie scorching in the sun while hundreds of men and women pass and laugh at their pleas for water in the name of God. When an Associated Press correspondent rushed to a nearby house to get water for the dying men he was stopped with a sword and pistols and told to keep away. A young woman with an infant in her arms placed her foot on the mangled body of a man and said, "I'll see you in Hell before you get any water." The men were apparently dragged down a rock behind automobiles. Their clothes were torn to pieces and pieces of gravel were embedded in their mangled flesh.

CAPTAIN PILOTED SHIP ALL ALONE WHILE CREW SICK

MONTREAL, June 22.—Captain Deslauriers of the steamer Glen Allan bound from Walkerville to St. Pierre, Miquelon, had to navigate the ship alone for 26 hours following the seizure of the entire crew with ptomaine poisoning from eating canned tomatoes. Fourteen men who were very ill were rushed to the hospital here when the ship docked.

ROBERT KELLY OF VANCOUVER PASSED AWAY

Head of Prominent Wholesale Firm Expires After Very Brief Illness.

VANCOUVER, June 22.—Robert Kelly, president and managing director of Kelly, Douglas & Co., Ltd., wholesalers and one of Vancouver's most prominent and earliest business men, passed away here this morning after a week's illness.

"Bob" Kelly, as he was familiarly called by his many friends throughout the province was born in 1862 at Russell, Ontario. At the age of 18 he entered a general store in the town of his birth and came to California in 1888, the next year moving to Vancouver where he became a traveller for Oppenheimer Bros., later opening a store of his own. His present wholesale business was established in 1896 and, from a humble beginning, it has become one of the largest and best known companies in Canada. Mr. Kelly was also president of the Canadian Cedar Lumber Co., vice president of Wm. Hickey & Co., director of the Dominion Fire Insurance Co., and the Securities Corporation of British Columbia.

Prominent Liberal. Besides his numerous business activities, Mr. Kelly also took an active part in politics and was a prominent Liberal. At one time he held the office of Honorary President of the Vancouver Liberal Association and in 1906 was recommended for the Senate. He also held the office of Vice President of the Dominion Wholesalers' Guild.

The late Mr. Kelly was married and had two children. He belonged to the city's leading clubs and was an Anglean. He resided at 1106 Nicola Street.

Great Reception to Prince of Wales on Return From India

LONDON, June 22.—There was a great public demonstration yesterday when the Prince of Wales landed at Paddington station and drove through the decorated streets to Buckingham Palace. Endless great ovals along the route brought the Prince to his feet in the royal landau, acknowledging the expressions of affection and loyalty of the crowd while his eyes shone with tears of joy.

King George, the Queen, Princess Mary, the Duke of York, Prince Henry and Queen Mother Alexandra met him at the station. Also Viscount Lascelles was there to meet the Prince for the first time. Princess Mary hugged the Prince with gay disregard of conventions and the King grasped both his hands and shouted a welcome home.

Premier Lloyd George and many other statesmen were at the station and expressed appreciation of the Prince's missionary work in India.

There was a big reception at Buckingham Palace from which the King issued a manifesto thanking the people for their affectionate welcome to "our dear son."

At the Philippine Island port Mr. Huston will leave the Mojave and will go on through the Suez canal through to Washington, thus making the globe circuit on official business. He does not expect to be back in Washington until January next year.

RATES REPORT DISPLEASING

Premier Oliver Urges Members For B.C. at Ottawa to Unite Forces

PRESS FOR EQUITY

VICTORIA, June 22.—The decision of the select committee of the House of Commons on transportation does not please British Columbia. It looks as if the plea of this province for the removal of discriminatory freight rates had fallen on deaf ears. Premier Oliver said today he hoped when the question came before Parliament, the British Columbia members would unite in pressing for the removal of all discriminatory rates and for equity of treatment.

MASONIC BALL
 GRAND SUCCESS

Visiting Delegates Were Entertained Royally at Splendid Affair in Auditorium—420 Present

The grand ball, the first of the big social events given by Tye and Tsimpsean Lodges, A.F. & A.M., in honor of the visiting delegates to the annual communication, was held last night in the Auditorium and was a splendid success. There were 420 persons present, this number including most of the visitors. The big hall was crowded to capacity with the dancers who enjoyed the event to the utmost from the opening shortly after 9 o'clock until the early hours of the morning.

The decorative effect of the hall was a feature. The scheme radiated from a large eight foot illuminated square and compass symbol suspended from the ceiling in the centre of the hall and an abundance of evergreens and craft colors and insignia produced a very pleasing effect.

Refreshments, both dainty and abundant, were served to five sittings in the upstairs balcony. Balagno's Orchestra provided the music. A. E. Bassett-Jones was master of ceremonies, and Harry Birch, assisted by A. W. Healy and John McTae, received the guests at the door.

There were about forty local members present and the balance of the number consisted of visitors to the city. A splendid luncheon of various varieties of Prince Rupert product served with all the accompanying delicacies was provided and the affair proved a delightful punctuation to the day's business of annual chapter communication. E. Valentine, principal of Kaien Chapter, presided.

Was Troubled
 With Her Stomach
 For Five Years

Mrs. Samuel Ward, Millersdale, Sask., writes: "I feel that I must write to you before another day passes. I am so happy and so grateful to your splendid medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, for after an illness of five years I am better."

"I had stomach trouble so bad, I could not bear the smell or taste of food of any kind, and got so thin and weak I could not work. I had four doctors attend me, but they did me no good. I was in no pain, but felt so ill, at times, I thought I would die. In fact, all my friends were sure I could not live many months."

"This time last year I saw where a man was relieved of stomach trouble by Burdock Blood Bitters, so my husband got me two bottles, but I had no faith in it after all the different medicines I had taken, however he insisted, and after the first two days I must say I began to feel better, and after the first bottle I felt so much better I went out a little every day, but could not go alone I was so weak, but I soon got so I could walk and eat, and have got quite stout."

"I am nearly seventy years of age and I feel better than I have for years, and can do all my household work."

"You may make use of this letter if you wish, as it may be the means of making others as well and as happy as I am."

RUPERT LIQUOR IS CAPTURED

Ketchikan News Tells of Seizure of Scotch Consigned From This Port.

The capture of three rum-runners before breakfast is some record, but Federal agents, S. B. Van Zandt and Lonnie McIntosh, with night patrolman, Hallison, pulled off this stunt early Sunday morning, says the Ketchikan Daily News. Two of the boats had forty cases of the very best brands of Scotch aboard between them, while the other it is believed had unloaded part of her cargo before being caught, and all that was found was about 400 bottles of beer.

At 1:30 yesterday morning Chas. Pratt, aboard the Helen D. was arrested and nineteen sacks of beer were found aboard the vessel. The Helen D. was lying at the Heckman dock at the time and it is believed that a quantity of the cargo had already been removed.

Forty Sacks.

About five o'clock two other boats, Italian models, were seen to pull into Jordan's dock, New-town. The officers were right on the job and boarding the two boats found twenty-one sacks of Scotch on one and nineteen sacks on the other boat. Four men, Peter Olsen, Alfred Nelson, Mike Alverson and Peter Nedman composed the crew of these two boats.

The men were placed under arrest and taken to the city jail. The booze was also taken along. The whole forty cases of whisky was consigned from the Northern Liquor Company, Ltd., of Prince Rupert, to John Nelson, Hyder.

The three vessels are being held by Federal Agents Van Zandt and McIntosh. The estimated value of the boats is $8,000 and of the liquor about $1,000.

On Lookout.
 Officer Van Zandt and McIntosh have been on the lookout for the past ten days and nights for a cargo of booze which was reported to have left Prince Rupert.

MASSETT SETTLERS

Letter Sent to Vancouver Newspaper by One of the New Arrivals.

The following letter published in Vancouver is from one of the new settlers at Massett.

Sir—My attention has been drawn to an agitation directed by the G. W. V. A. of Vancouver I believe, against part of Canada, an agitation based on a letter of complaint written by a member of a party of settlers who came here recently.

It seems strange to me that so much notice should have been taken of the complaining letter before investigation had been made based on the following points, viz:

- (1) Did the party complaining have the capital he professed to have when in England.
- (2) Did he make the slightest attempt to secure land here.
- (3) Were conditions here misrepresented to him when in England.
- (4) Did he see literature and photographs in England showing the heavily timbered land here.
- (5) Did he (a) accept or refuse any employment here at his trade or otherwise? (b) If so what were the wages offered?
- (6) The opinions and experiences of the other members of the party concerning present conditions and prospects here.
- (7) Whether or no any of them have written to England advising relations or friends to come, or not to come here.

The G. W. V. A. could have been informed on these points, and any other, through the A. W. A. here, and if they had done so would have saved themselves and others some unnecessary concern.

The present understanding here is that Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for the district, accompanied by Hon. Hebdon, hospital nurses, who are just closing a three weeks holiday at the camp near the soft lakes, loaned them by Norman Brodhurst. A fine photograph picture of a mountain scene on the Skeena River appears in the illustrated supplement of a recent number of the New York Tribune. With it are scenes from Vancouver, Victoria, and different parts of Washington and Oregon.

PRESIDENT OF NAVY LEAGUE FOR B.C. IS VISITING CITY

Major W. H. Langley, president of the B. C. Division of the Navy League of Canada, is in the city today on his return to Victoria from Montreal where he attended the annual meeting of the Dominion Council of the Navy League. In view of the fact that Prince Rupert was looked upon as an important point by the Navy League, Mr. Langley decided to return this way. He said that a renewal of the activities of the league here with increased vigor was something which the council was very desirous of seeing.

"The prospects for Navy League and boys' brigades throughout Canada are much more hopeful for the reason that it is likely that their scope will be widened and grants are practically assured by the new government," said Major Langley. He had interviews in Ottawa with Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of militia and defence, Premier King, Hon. Hewitt Bostock and Capt. Hogg, director of naval service, and co-operation between the government and the Navy League was assured. The government was taking up the matter of naval defence in a sensible and effective manner and if present plans carried out at the end of ten years there should be ready for naval services of any kind several thousand well trained men.

Utilities and Finance Dispute of City Settled; Agreed That No Rate Reduction is Possible

Differences between the utilities and finance departments of the city which have existed for some time were settled and a mutual agreement was reached yesterday afternoon at a special meeting called by the mayor for the purpose of going into the whole situation. A full review of the utilities, bylaws and financing was made from 1910 to the present date and it was shown to the agreement of Ald. Perry, chairman of the utilities committee, who has taken the leading part of late towards getting a full explanation of the situation, that the utilities department was really indebted to general fund of the city in the sum of about $3,000 and, under the circumstances, there was absolutely no chance of a reduction of light rates at the present time, especially in view of the expenditures which will be required to fulfill the requirements of the recent fire marshal and inspector of electric apparatus together with the program of construction which is planned by the department.

The postponed baseball game between Gil's and the Grotto in the Intermediate League is scheduled to take place tonight at the Acropolis Hill Grounds. This will be the replay of the game which was thrown out by the League recently in account of Gil's aggregation playing an unregistered man. The Intermediate League has been having difficulty in getting the season started properly and there is still another game besides this one that has been postponed, between the Sons of Canada and the Grotto. Arrangements will likely be made in the near future to have this game also played off. So far in the running with only two games played Gil's have won both; the Sons of Canada and Grotto each having a lost officially chalked down against them.

against the association building without authority. There was quite a stormy time for a while but in the end it was decided that as the fence was there it might as well stay until the council decided it should be taken down. It will remain until after the summer sports are over.

Open air boxing classes are to be carried on again by the Vancouver Island Athletic Association in Victoria. The classes will be conducted in an 18-foot ring which has been specially constructed in the open air. This will enable the pupils to familiarize themselves with the fine points of the boxing game and incidentally acquire ring generalship which will prove to be very useful knowledge in the event of their taking up the sport in a competitive manner. The executive of the association is anxious to bring back the game in Victoria and the intention is to fall in line with other coast cities and arrange to stage home and home meets during the winter months. The classes are open to all whether they intend to take the sport in a competitive manner or not.

In the other Northwestern cities the amateur boxing game has begun to come back, while in Victoria it is dead, which is due to the fact that nearly all of the boxers who were developed have been scattered through war conditions. Several of the old-time favorites have been killed and others received injuries which have necessitated their giving up the sport, so, in order to once more foster this sport, it means that a new crop of boxers will have to be developed and this is one of the chief objects in view in starting this free boxing class, as the pupils will have the benefit of receiving instructions from a man (Billie Davis) who has had over 20 years' experience in the game, and who is considered by virtue of the performance of his pupils in the past to be one of the best instructors on the continent.

Further advice received by Chief Minty from Khyex River yesterday indicates that the family of four children of the Staffords family have been found in good health in a cabin ten miles up the river. The officers have proceeded to the upper reaches of the river in search of the parents who are believed to have perished. They are accompanied by the 14-year old son of the Staffords and are not expected out for some time now.

CAPTURE OF MOONSHINERS

Had Large Still on Small Island and Well Camouflaged

EXCITING CHASE

Revenue Officers Secured Large Wagon Load of Apparatus

Alberta's largest commercial moonshine distillery now reposes in the Royal Canadian Mounted police barracks, and one J. W. Brown, alias Wood, etc., is held in the provincial police cells awaiting trial. This is the result of a raid made by H. Fidler of the inland revenue department, Ernest Fidler of the customs and excise branch, and Constable Moon of the R.C.M.P., between one and two a.m. on a farm lying between Ucas and Ardrossan.

On Tuesday evening the officers proceeded to the farm and knowing that the house was tenanted, concealed themselves and waited patiently, being rewarded at midnight by seeing the men come out, hitch up their team to a loaded wagon and proceed about their scientific researches.

Religious Atmosphere
 Immediately the wagon had gone, a hurried search of the cabin was made, but nothing was revealed except the fact that the inmates were apparently of a religious turn of mind, a book entitled the "Heavenly Way" being discovered on the door sill, where its owner had apparently been recently improving his mind.

Following the creaking wagon, the officers came to a large wet slough, into the centre of which the team was driven, presently disappearing into a dense clump of willow brush. It was moonlight and between one and two in the morning as the officers commenced to cross the slough, jumping from one swaying tussock of grass to another, bent double and proceeding with caution. Nearing the willows, from whence low voices could be heard, the trackers saw three men on the wagon engaged in putting off sacks of grain, barrels and other materials necessary to the manufacture of home brew. Closer the officers crept, when suddenly through the midnight air came a sudden yapping from a dog belonging to the brewers, and the game was up.

Threw Overboard
 In less time than it takes to tell it, the three men frantically threw the remainder of the cargo overboard, the horses were belabored and the wagon plunged across the slough for the solid ground. Though out of breath from previous exertions, the officers raced after the runaway, and gaining terra firma charged madly through the poplar and willow bush, guided by the noise of the retreating wheels, and various sacks of sugar, grain and other materials thrown out of the wagon as the men drove at headlong speed through the dark woods.

Suddenly the officers came on one of the men, endeavoring to unhitch the team, with the intention of abandoning the wagon, and using the horses for flight. Immediately he saw his pursuers he faded into the bush however and disappeared, to be captured later.

Amid Willows
 The horses were promptly hitched up again, and the party returned to investigate the still. This proved to be most cunningly devised. Placed in the centre of the slough on a small island of dry ground, it was protected on three sides by dense willows; on the fourth it was more open but skillfully camouflaged, the main tank being painted green and so closely resembling the surrounding bush that it would be impossible to detect it. Close to the location was a nice little spring of clear water, and in general the conditions were ideal for the manufacture of firewater, had it not been for the interference of the revenue men.

The plant itself was built on a commercial basis, and is the largest yet captured, the tank in which the mash was simmering being four feet wide, four deep and twelve long, which would hold possibly 1,000 gallons. The brewers had no intention of giving away the location by a tell-tale column of smoke and had several heaters fed with coal oil through piping, one of which was home made, the other apparently being the work of a foundry.

Horses Nearly Mired
 Not including the tank and sundry barrels, the apparatus, when loaded, made a large sized wagon load and the officers had considerable difficulty in getting it to dry land; the whole turned turtle once, and the horses in drawing went to their bellies in the slough and nearly got mired. Amongst other exhibits in connection with the case are a neatly soldered coil of sectional square piping of copper, a copper boiler the size of a barrel, a .41 Colts revolver, and sundry screens, shovels and other necessities. Sugar amounting to 500 pounds, and 600 pounds of wheat were also brought along. The still itself had a capacity of about 60 gallons; everything about the place exhibited care and mechanical ingenuity, and from the general layout it was apparent that the proprietors intended to turn out "good stuff" and in quantities.

Plenty of Sugar
 During the past week 800 pounds of sugar had been used in the mash, and Mr. Fidler states that when the case comes to court it will be proved that the company's purchases of sugar ran into three figures. The brewer was provided with a lumber floor, wooden chutes led off into the slough for carrying away the waste materials, and corrugated iron was also found which was evidently to be used for a roof. Taken all round the plant was one of the most complete yet found in Alberta, and but for the inquisitive disposition of the inland revenue department would have been one of the premier manufacturing plants in the west.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

The attire of some of the New York ladies who were here with the Rotarians yesterday excited a good deal of admiration.

It is expected that local ladies will be out in travelling suits with skirts omitted.

NO one minds a lady powdering her face, but it should be put on smoothly and not in chunks.

"THE Lord loveth a cheerful giver," says the good book and "the world loves a cheerful liar," say I. That is why politicians succeed.

THE Rotary girls carried off most of the pretty hats worn by the local Rotarians but it is not reported whether the Masonettes have yet stolen the aprons of the Masons.

A GIRL can steal anything, even a man's heart, so the novelists say.

AND when a girl has stolen something she soon sends it into the discard.

JINKS wishes to know who with all their faculties about them would wish to take a Rotarian's hat?

THE difficulty about drinking coffee for lunch is that it is likely to keep one awake all the afternoon.

Talking about June reminding me that while the showers are for the bride, it is the groom who catches thunder after the wedding.

Heart Would Beat like a TRIP HAMMER

Heart trouble has of late years become very prevalent. Sometimes a pain catches you in the region of the heart, now and then your heart skips beats, palpitates, throbs, or beats with such rapidity and violence you think it is going to burst.

You have weak and dizzy spells, sinking sensations, are nervous, irritable and depressed, and if you attempt to walk upstairs or any distance you get all out of breath.

We know of no remedy that will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy normal condition as will

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS
 Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes:—"I had palpitation of the heart, and the worst exercise, such as going upstairs or up a hill, my heart would beat like a trip-hammer and at times I was dizzy-headed and had a sinking sensation as if my time were near."

A friend suggested I try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, so I procured three boxes, and by the time the first one was used I began to improve. In all I took six boxes, and now although in my 66th year I feel like a young girl; no dizziness or heart-thumping, and can walk miles without fatigue. At time of my sickness I weighed 120 pounds, now I weigh 150!"

Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
