BIG SLIDE ON RAILWAY

Line Covered For Length of 100 Feet and Depth of Fifteen Near Amsbury

Railway traffic on this line of the Canadian National Railways was interfered with for a few hours, by a slide of rock and trees which came down during the night just west of Amsbury station, covering the track for a length of about one hundred feet and depth of about fifteen feet. The train, which arrived here from the east last evening, got through before the slide came down but the train, leaving here today for the east, was held until 3 o'clock this afternoon, the expectation being that the line would be cleared by the time it reaches Amsbury this evening.

Immediately after word was received this morning of the slide, a work train and steam shovel was dispatched to the scene and is now working on the obstruction.

Pattullo Urges Pledging Credit Of Country to Provide Money For Public Works to Keep Men Busy

In addressing the Rotary Club at its luncheon yesterday afternoon T. D. Pattullo, leader of the Liberal opposition for British Columbia and member for Prince Rupert in the Legislature, strongly urged that the federal government should meet the present emergency by using the public credit to inaugurate a system of public works construction, such as building and improvement of highways for the purpose of providing temporarily for the unemployed and giving them such purchasing power that the whole country as well as they would benefit. This would be a purely temporary measure just as would be the borrowing of money for war purposes.

The whole country was suffering from fear, Mr. Pattullo said. People looked to the business world to meet the situation but business did not respond. It was then the duty of the government to intervene.

Mr. Pattullo said the country benefitted a great deal from the tourist business but the present condition of the highways in Canada was such that tourists would not come. The roads were worse than mud lanes to the south, something which the average tourist tries to avoid. If men were put to work to improve these it would bring good returns in tourist traffic and Canada would benefit.

In a land of plenty, Mr. Pattullo said, it was a crime that there should be thousands of people unemployed, dependent on the dole for subsistence.

DAILY EDITION

Friday, November 18, 1932

PUT EVERYBODY TO WORK

We wish to draw particular attention to the report of the address of T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert, in this issue. He urges that the federal government should stake the credit of the country in order to secure money to start up some large construction works that would find employment for everyone. He draws attention to the fact that in time of war the last dollar would be expended in order to secure victory. Today there is an emergency and a few million dollars would provide for the necessary outlay. This would bring prosperity to everyone for it would give the men who are now unemployed a purchasing power which they do not at present possess.

This is a policy advocated by the Daily News for some time. We have taken the view that it is the duty of the federal government to provide employment as it is the only one with the necessary resources.

If the seven hundred men now idle in Prince Rupert were all employed there would be a payroll that would at once cause activity. Instead of empty buildings being seen here and there, we should see construction of new buildings proceeding and this would add to the employment. Instead of meetings of protest and mutterings against the state, there would be a contented people, prosperous and happy and loyal. It would be the beginning of the new era which we are all expecting.

EFFECT OF KIDD REPORT

Gradually we are being informed of the injury done to the province by the publication in London of a summary of the Kidd report, particularly of a column article in the Times. One writer from London says:

"It is no exaggeration to say that the effect of this column-long indictment of the province was most disastrous, and brought to the Agent-General a host of enquiries from anxious investors. The credit of a country is as easily open to attack as is the credit of an individual, and is just as easily disturbed. One wonders, therefore, if the business men who composed the committee ever paused to reflect that, in their passion for plain speaking, they might bring down upon their own industries, no less than on other enterprises in the province, all sorts of unforeseen reactions. In point of fact, one of the most urgent enquirers at British Columbia House was a shareholder in the British Columbia Power Corporation, who only recovered his confidence when he read the Agent General's subsequent letter in the Times."

Bill Bacon Wakes London Up;
City Working Nine Day Week
To Keep Pace With His Calls

(By Sid Webb)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Wherever one goes in London nowadays everyone is talking Prince Rupert and its fish products as the result of the tremendous heralding broadcast by Bill Bacon, the great little representative for Great Britain of the Bacon Fisheries, who arrived in London recently. The question is—where can one get Prince Rupert fish products in London? By the time Bill has burned up the sidewalks in the big city a little more I guess we'll be able to get them delivered with the milk. Canned prawns and milk will then become the national breakfast food of the English, Irish, Scotch and Welsh and Jews.

The writer was nearly struck a pale green hue one day last week, when the lady reception clerk brought him a business card announcing that Bill Bacon had arrived. And what a Bill it has grown to in the past six years—five feet nothing of real Canadian manhood bubbling over the top with supreme confidence and the spirit to "get there," and the glasses he wears—well, he might be Harold Lloyd's younger brother but he isn't.

Well, folks, after the usual "Howdy" formalities Bill suggested something about going out and "having one." The writer hated to disappoint him upon such an auspicious occasion so duly donned his lid and piloted Bill into the turmoil of traffic in Fleet Street. Soon the welcome doors of a pub admitted us and Bill, with both hands in his pockets to see that no one else put theirs in, strolled up to the palatial bar and ordered two bitters. None of this, "What'll you have? stuff" about Bill in case one lost their memory and ordered a double Scotch.

No, Bill has got on to the London ropes in fast shape so instead of a 35c drink, as had been anticipated, the writer had to be content with a 9c drink, hence the reason for Bill making his pile. After some eats and "one more" for luck we hit for St. Paul's Cathedral just to show Bill that we did have a church in London. When we got inside the writer inquired "Well, Bill, how does this strike you for a place of worship?" "Not much," says Bill. "I've seen as good in Metlakatla." No fazing Bill about the sights of the Northern Pacific terminus! But he had to admit that we possessed a few more historic statues than they did in Metlakatla, although not quite agreeing with the looks of some of them. Bill can find fault with most things but thinks the English beer is good enough for a hair wash.

The writer left Bill, after coming out, to go into the city and see a few of the "knobs" on business. Did he know his way? Did he know the names of the men to see? He sure did know and what's more he saw them—trust it to Bill. Oh, yes, the underground railways have appealed to Bill's imagination but he can't quite figure how the L. the trains see to go along in the dark. He already thinks the English girls are wonderful and the policemen marvellous—in common with most of the celebrities who are asked questions about their first visit to the great metropolis.

Has Bill got any orders for Prince Rupert fish products? The writer understands he has already filled up five order books and is now ordering them by the gross, so you'll soon be needing a few traffic cops on the waterfront to say nothing of a street car track, so get busy folks.

Entertaining Each Other

During the past week-end the writer has been endeavoring to entertain Bill but is afraid that Bill did all the entertaining. We went down the West End on Saturday night just to show Bill what London's theatreland looked like but the trip proved a failure. Bill thought it looked very pretty but didn't like the color of the lights which, he said, were far prettier outside the Prince Rupert Capitol. Then we hiked down Shaftesbury Avenue just as the crowds were going into the theatres but Bill had seen more people line up for their pay at the Cold Storage layout. No, folks, London's sights mean nothing to Bill—the greatest publicity merchant for Canada and the Northern Pacific Coast ever to hit these shores.

Then we went down the Piccadilly Tube Station, a station handling more passengers per day than any other station in the world. It was no good telling the wandering boy that—he'd handled as many passengers in the good old launch "22" over to the Salt Lakes on a fine Saturday and Sunday.

However, after a few more calls for "light" refreshment, we eventually got back home, safe if not sound. Bill had at least seen the West End of London, and had not been kidnapped. The writer is thinking of taking him to the zoo for a little bear hunting just to put him in his natural environment.

Tonight, Monday, we're going to a vaudeville show together but the writer will bet a steam roller to a loaf of second hand bread that Bill has seen a better show in the little old town for nothing.

Anyway, dear folks, the city is keeping a watchful eye on Bill's movements in case he robs the country of all the fish business, and the writer is keeping a watchful eye on him too in case he "horns in" on his preserves. One never knows where Bill will stop.

I must end now by saying that the great little Bill thinks the rain over here is a bit wetter than it is at home, otherwise there isn't much to this side to him. Cheerio!

Quitting Public Life

Vice-President Charles Curtis, who announces he will be through with public life when his term ends.

FOUNDATION OF CATTLE

Charles Morris of Smithers Imports Twenty-Five Head of Heifers

SMITHERS, Nov. 18.—Charles E. Morris, Smithers, is establishing the foundation for the raising of high class commercial cattle through the recent importation of 25 head of typey grade Hereford heifers from Alberta.

These heifers were specially selected in Edmonton and shipped in under the Dominion government free freight policy. The heifers are of exceptional quality, type and uniformity. This shipment of breeding heifers is the first introduction of new blood into the Smithers district for several years and will be a great asset in establishing the area as a district where good beef stock is produced.

The Smithers district and Bulkley Valley is well suited to ranching on a limited scale. Vast areas of excellent summer grazing are available and climate is particularly suited to the raising of livestock. Farmers in the central interior along the line of the Canadian National Railways have made great strides in improving the quality of their livestock during the past 14 months. A total of approximately 500 head of breeding heifers has been distributed between McBride and Smithers. Thirty-two pure bred bulls have been placed with farmers in this area under Dominion government bull loaning policy and several good bulls have been purchased by settlers.

Central British Columbia has proven its ability to produce lumber and minerals in abundance during the past years. It is now demonstrating its adaptability to mixed farming and the raising of high quality commercial livestock.

Baptist Ladies' Aid Tea-Sale Is Very Successful

In spite of unfavorable weather, many ladies called at the Baptist Church Parlors yesterday afternoon to lend their patronage to the tea and sale of sewing and home cooking held there by the Ladies' Aid and the affair proved quite successful.

Mrs. Charles Larkin and Mrs. Norman Fraser were conveners and were responsible for the attractive decorations with chrysanthemums and fall foliage.

The guests were received by Mrs. James Hampton, president of the Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. C. O. Campbell and Mrs. H. M. Daggett were in charge of the sewing table while Mrs. A. Iverson and Mrs. Vic Houston were in charge of the home cooking. Mrs. W. W. Wrathall and Mrs. James Morrison were in charge in the kitchen and serviteurs were Mrs. G. Stromdahl, Mrs. D. Orchard McLeod and Mrs. P. H. Linzey. Cashier was Mrs. G. T. Hibbard.

During the afternoon there was a very acceptable musical program which included vocal solos by Mrs. F. W. Allen, accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Cullin, and violin solos by Misses Edith Johnstone and Phyllis Hamblin, who were accompanied by Misses Catherine Watson and Aileen Hamblin respectively.

LACROSSE IS OPENED

Proved Lively Sport Which Bids Fair to Become Very Popular in Prince Rupert

The Prince Rupert Indoor Box Lacrosse League opened its season's schedule in the Exhibition Hall last night when two games were played, this new local line of sport proving quite as fast and exciting as had been predicted for it. The small area on which the game is played is conducive to plenty of action and there was an abundance of this last night even though the boys have yet to trim off some of the rough edges before they become real experts at the game. It is expected that, as the season advances, the game of box lacrosse will become very popular in Prince Rupert.

In the senior game last night, Grotto defeated Kaiens by a score of 15 to 12 while, in the junior game, Kaiens and Grotto were unable to break a nine-all tie.

Charlie Sunberg refereed both games and Ernie Webster acted as timekeeper and scorekeeper.

- Swift's 5, Oddfellows 4.

Fish Packers	3	2	3

OTTAWA IS LOOKING UP

General Business Reported Much Improved in Dominion Capital

A local business man hears in a letter from a relative in Ottawa that a considerable improvement in business generally is being experienced in the Dominion capital just now. Stores are crowded with buyers and welfare organizations have a good deal less distress on their hands. Winter buying is very active and the "buyers' strike" appears to be ending.

SPORT NOTES

Mrs. Bill Dickey, wife of the famous catcher of the world champion New York Yankees, is a good shot. She has maintained that she could shoot as well as the men. Recently matters came to a head when Mrs. Dickey accompanied by her husband, Bing Miller and Jack Hays motored out to Hastings Lake near Edmonton. Handing his pump gun to his bride, while Bing placed a couple of sticks in the ground 15 yards away, Bill told Mrs. Dickey to show what she could do in the way of shooting.

Mrs. Dickey aimed, fired, and the first stick was blown to bits. She did the same to the second. A foolish rabbit was the next target, and a bird standing on the ground was the next victim. "Let's see what you can do with a moving target," said Bill. Bing Miller then walked 15 yards away and tossed his hunting cap in the air. The gun banged and when Bing picked up his cap it resembled a sponge. Mr. Dickey's cap, thrown in the air, followed suit, and the two men retired to settle the damages.

Because it was Sunday and there were two ferocious bears in the vicinity, Garfield Dauphinee of Halifax had to leave the carcass of a bull moose to rot in the woods. He was out shooting on Friday. Two bears hove in sight and he banged away at them. The bears escaped, however, because his range was too high. Ten minutes later he brought down a big moose. Saturday was too stormy to even think of entering the woods, he said. Early Sunday morning he applied to the forest ranger for permission to carry a gun, as protection against the bears, on his trip for the carcass. The ranger refused, and Dauphinee applied to the chief forest ranger who refused too, adding that he shouldn't be afraid to go into the woods where there were two bears. Dauphinee spent the Sabbath at home, nursing his wrath. By Monday the carcass was not worth taking home.

WEST HAD TURNOVER

Astonishing Switch From Hoover to Roosevelt Shown in Election Check-Up

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—A check-up of last week's presidential election results reveals a surprising turnover from Republicanism to Democracy in the Middle West.

Whereas Illinois gave Hoover a majority of 456,000 in 1928, it gave Roosevelt a plurality of 460,000 last week. Indiana turned a majority of 286,000 for Hoover in 1928 to 185,000 for Roosevelt this year. Iowa converted a lead of 245,000 for Hoover to 183,000 for Roosevelt while Nebraska, which favored Hoover by 148,000 in 1928, gave Roosevelt a majority of 143,000 last week.

Would Make Los Angeles Drier In Spite of Vote

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18.—Dr. Samuel Montgomery, president of the Los Angeles Prohibition League, and delegation consisting of other prominent driers appeared before the Los Angeles city council yesterday with the request that a local prohibition ordinance be enacted to replace the Wright Act, state bone-dry law, which was repudiated at the polls last week, and "make Los Angeles drier than ever before."

Some of the members of the council did not take favorably to the proposal which they felt would be in contravention of the expressed wishes of the voters.

Eskimo Traders Honor Henry Ford

WHEN AN ESKIMO family which has been trading along the shores of the Arctic Ocean for generations sought a name for their new schooner, they chose to honor Henry Ford, the pioneer automobile manufacturer. The two photos show the trading schooner, which was built in Edmonton, and the Eskimo summer camp near Aklavik, on the Arctic Ocean, at the mouth of the McKenzie River. The schooner has an auxiliary Ford engine for use in backing adverse winds. According to R. W. Hale, district superintendent of the Postal Service at Edmonton, who took these pictures and who has driven Ford cars for 13 years, the owners of the schooner represent the best of western Eskimos which trade along the western shores of the Arctic Ocean sending their catch of white fish through the Behring Straits to Seattle, Washington and San Francisco, Cal. Many of them are well off. A great part of their diet consists of fish dipped in seal oil to give internal warmth to withstand the intense cold. Unlike the Indians, these Eskimo copy the white man only in the things which will improve them. They cling to their native dress, including parkas and mukluks, which are so well adapted to the climate that white men, including the pilots traveling in the country, have adopted it.

Twenty Years Ago

In Prince Rupert

November 18, 1912

The wedding of Miss Margaret Agnes Moore of Bangor, Maine, and Henry G. Helgeson of Prince Rupert took place recently in Bangor, Maine. The couple are expected in Prince Rupert soon to take up residence.

Ralph Smith and Duncan Ross were the principal speakers at a great Liberal rally held before a crowded audience in the Westholme Theatre.

There was considerable excitement in Prince Rupert's wholesale section shortly before noon today as a result of an unusually heavy blast which was set off in the excavation next to the warehouse of Kelly, Douglas Co. One rock crashed through the roof of the Kelly, Douglas warehouse and landed only a few feet from where Mr. Jardine, the manager, was standing. Another large rock went through the roof of the G. T. P. freight shed.

NO TRACE IS FOUND

Police Back After Another Search For Napoleon Labelle

After putting in another four days of investigation of the disappearance of Napoleon Labelle, who has been missing for the past few weeks from Georgetown, Staff Sergeant Alex McNeill and party of provincial police officers returned to the city last evening on the police boat P. M. L. 3 from Port Simpson. There are no new developments in the case although there is reason to suppose that there may be before long.

Meantime, reports current in the city that the body had been found shot to death were stated by the police to be without truth or foundation.

Son of Former Local Couple Dies in South

Friends in this city will sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. The lad passed away only a few days after his father had left hospital in Vancouver where he had undergone two serious operations. The father, indeed, is still in a very weak condition. The funeral took place in Vancouver on Wednesday.

Mr. Fleming was formerly a member of the crew of the lighthouse tender Birnie and also was lighthouse keeper at Triple Island for four years.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Young People Are Organized

Group in Connection With United Church at Hazelton is Being Formed

HAZELTON, Nov. 18.—Where shall we go and what shall we do after church? To find a solution to this perplexing problem fourteen young people met at the Hazelton parsonage after church on Sunday evening. A suggestion to organize a club or society to provide entertainment on Sunday evening which will be of a social and moral uplifting character as well as being educational met with unanimous approval.

A committee consisting of Marjorie Sutherland, Louisa Russell and Vern Hawken was appointed to gather ideas and suggestions to present at the next meeting and also to select a name for the organization. This committee will also arrange a program for next Sunday evening.

After a pleasant half hour of singing old time favorites with Mr. Redman at the piano, Mrs. Redman gave a violin solo "In a Monastery Garden," by request. A number of pianoforte solos by Mr. Redman and a vocal solo by Miss Jean Burns, all request numbers, were also enjoyed by the group.

MEETING OF P. T. ASS'N

D. B. Finn Was Speaker at Gathering Last Night

The Prince Rupert Parent Teachers' Association meeting in Borden Street School was well attended. Mrs. S. V. Cox, president, was in the chair.

The treasurer reported a donation of $10 from the Japanese Ladies' Association. The secretary was instructed to express the appreciation of the association for this donation.

The forthcoming election of school trustees was discussed and the executive was empowered to further discuss the question.

There being no meeting of the association in December nomination of officers for next year followed.

After the business session, Miss M. McCaffery delighted her listeners with two beautifully rendered piano solos.

D. B. Finn, director of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, addressed the audience on "Contrasts of England's Social, Political and Industrial Conditions with Those of Canada." This was so clearly and interestingly portrayed that one's thoughts were sharpened considerably on these matters.

A hearty vote of thanks was proposed by Inspector T. W. Hall.

Auto Association Being Planned For Queen Charlottes

QUEEN CHARLOTTE CITY, B.C., Nov. 18.—There is a movement afoot to form an automobile association on Graham Island, primarily for the purpose of trying to interest the authorities in the condition of the highway between Queen Charlotte City and Port Clements. With the advent of bad weather the road north of Skidegate is well nigh impassable and the islanders feel that they have some relief due them.

ZANE GREY TALE HERE

"Heritage of The Desert" at Capitol Theatre is Exciting Western Picture

Zane Grey's story "Heritage of the Desert," portrayed by a cast headed by Randolph Scott, Sally Blane and J. Farrell MacDonald, will be the week-end feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here.

The picture, which follows the novel closely, is the story of a battle between a group of western ranchers and a band of outlaws who have covetous eyes on the rich territory held by the former. Into this battle comes a young surveyor, brought by the ranchmen to check the boundaries of their land. He allies himself with his employers in the battle and so distinguishes himself that, when the feud is finally settled, he has won a permanent place not only in the hearts of the ranchmen in general but the daughter of the ranch in particular.

Scott is cast as the surveyor. Miss Blane as the girl and MacDonald as the patriarchal old ranchman who leads his forces against the outlaw. David Landau, arch movie villain, plays the role of the bandit leader.

The story is said to be based on actual experiences of Zane Grey himself in the west.

MANY BULLS ARE LOANED

Government Policy Still in Effect But Applications Must Be Made Soon

PRINCE GEORGE, Nov. 18.—Over forty pure bred bulls, owned by the Dominion government and loaned free to farmers under the bull loaning policy, have been placed in the central interior of British Columbia during the past two years. Thirty-one bulls were distributed during 1932. These bulls were all of outstanding merit and will greatly improve the quality of stock offered on the market.

The bull loaning policy is still in effect and applications for bulls to be delivered next spring must be completed and in the hands of Dominion government officials before January 1.

SPEND WISELY this Winter

12 BIG BISCUITS IN EVERY PACKAGE

HERE'S a sensible winter-time meal. Just pour good hot milk over two Shredded Wheat biscuits. For breakfast, or between meals. Delicious! Money-saving! And a boost for Canada's greatest product—wheat!

Shredded Wheat is 100% Canadian whole wheat. Nothing is added, nothing taken away. All the vital body-building energy elements that children and grown-ups need. And the exact proportion of bran that Nature intended you to have.

Remember, every bite is a boost for Canada! And every bite helps you keep that "on your toes" feeling. Treat yourself to Shredded Wheat at least once a day!
