Irish Situation Said to be Improving HON. ARTHUR BALFOUR WELCOMED HOME AND ACCLAIMED HERO

Commission to Investigate Boundary Trouble Between North and South of Ireland

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The British Government announces in both Houses of Parliament that the Irish situation is improving and that a joint commission has been appointed to investigate the border fighting. This arrangement has been accepted by both the North and South.

Most of the kidnapped Ulstermen were released last night and Ulster has been quietly informed in the House that if they would release the southern footballers who were arrested on the charge of carrying arms the rest of the kidnapped Ulsterites would probably be released.

Shooting continued in Belfast today, the deaths now numbering more than one hundred.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The London issue of the Irish Bulletin asserts that the British Government intends to release half the Irish political prisoners and says Ireland will intensify the campaign of protest against the haggling methods of the British Government.

Belfast Sniping Continues.

BELFAST, Feb. 16.—The authorities have commandeered Ulster Hall for the use of troops now combating the disorders here. Up to 10 o'clock this morning the casualties totalled 113, with deaths numbering 34.

The day opened with the death of a five-year-old child, who was struck by a bullet yesterday while playing in the streets.

A workman who was proceeding along the street was shot dead at 8 o'clock this morning.

Some youthful gunmen held up a number of workmen and wounded one of them.

ESTIMATES OF SCHOOL BOARD

Will Be Considered at Joint Meeting With Council Tomorrow Evening.

The city council and the school board will meet in special session tomorrow evening to go into the estimates for the year. The school authorities have to present a budget calling for a total expenditure of $85,215 divided into $76,330 ordinary expenditure and $8,885 extraordinary, the latter being mainly in connection with the Booth Memorial School. The ordinary estimates are presented merely as a matter of form and their passing is practically automatic. The extraordinary estimates may, however, be pruned or turned out altogether. If the school board is not satisfied with the manner in which they are dealt with by the council they may call for a money-by-law to be submitted to the people.

The ordinary estimates include running operations of the various schools, such as expenditure for supplies, coal, floor oil, light telephone, water, janitors, contingencies and insurance, salaries and sundries. The list of these which will be presented tomorrow night follows:

High School	$ 3,600
Booth Memorial School	6,650
Seal Cove School	1,030
Westview School	660
Domestic Science School	690
Manual Training School	1,200
Salaries	53,000
Sundries	6,100

Total $76,330

The Province provides $14,000

The extraordinary estimates comprise the following items:

Playgrounds, swimming pool and apparatus for play shed	$1,000
Fire escapes (Booth School)	1,000
Composition floors (Booth School)	800
Steen & Longwill (Booth School)	105
Waterproofing (Booth School)	700
Architect's fees (Booth School)	750
Sundry (Booth School)	1,000

Total $8,885

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British delegation to the Washington disarmament conference, on being welcomed home after having spent three months in America in connection with the business of the arms parley, is acclaimed the hero of the hour.

Today the famous statesman of the "eternal smile" was welcomed home at a luncheon tendered in his honor by the government and the coalition members of parliament. Will Ask Premier King to Incorporate P.G.E. with Canadian National.

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—Premier Oliver in an interview yesterday said if the British Columbia application for lower freight rates failed before the Board of Railway Commissioners the Province would carry the question to the Imperial Government.

Mr. Oliver also said he would ask Premier King in an interview today to make the Pacific Great Eastern a part of the Canadian National Railways.

Asked if he expected to succeed in his application the British Columbia Premier replied: "A man in a good suit of clothes and with a little gall can do much."

LIBERALS ARE SUSTAINED BY BIG MAJORITY

Manitoba Legislature Defeats
Want of Confidence
Resolution.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 16.—The Morris Government has been sustained by the legislature by a big majority on its policy of foreclosure on provincial lands on which more than six months arrears are hoped. This is a distinctive victory for the Liberals and has dampened the ardor of those who would have liked to oust them from office and put a farmer government in its place. The Government is supported largely by the farmers, there being less than a majority of straight Liberal supporters of the Government in the Legislature.

All amendments to the proposed law, including one of censure of the Government, were defeated.

C. P. R. SIDE OF FREIGHT CONTROVERSY

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—The opening day of the freight rates hearing before the Board of Railway Commissioners brought a denial from W. B. Lanigan of the Canadian Pacific Railway that the mountain rates were higher than the cost of operation demanded. The rates were lower in nearly every case than the rates to and from Seattle on the American side.

The examination of Mr. Lanigan was resumed this morning. He quoted figures showing the rates on American lines in order to show that prairie grain shipments were not diverted from the Pacific Coast ports because of unduly high rates.

Cultivation of Memory.

Attention is drawn to the report of a lecture by Archbishop Du Vernot, an eminent psychologist, published in this issue. The lecture was delivered last evening in the Anglican Church to a large audience and was generally appreciated.

The cultivation of the memory is one of the most important factors making for success. Some have good memories naturally, others have to develop them. The great feature of the art is to look carefully at objects and note them particularly and think of remembering them. Perception and auto-suggestion with practice in recognition are the main features of the natural system.

Some business men make a practice of remembering the names of every man who comes into the store, and all about him. One case in point was that of a traveller who called on a merchant and did not return for three years. He called at a shop where he had spent only two or three minutes on the former visit and where he had done no business. He was greeted with: "Good morning, Mr. Jones. How is Chicago? I should like to have a look at your leather samples."

This was a case where the man, although seemingly of no particular importance, had been remembered by the storekeeper, and his place of residence and line of business had also been noted. Business men should always remember customers, clergymen the members of the congregation, teachers their pupils, and newspaper men everybody. Memory is one of the factors of success.

Freight Rates to the West.

Owing to the difficulty of hauling freight over the mountains the C. P. R. was granted a higher freight rate from the prairies to the west coast than from the prairies to the east coast. The cost was higher and they were to some extent justified in their demands. Since that time other railroads have been built where the cost of hauling is not any greater westward than eastward. The Grand Trunk Pacific has as low a grade through the mountains as the C. P. R. has on the prairies, or nearly so. The road west is just as good as the road east. Yet because the C. P. R. would not be able to compete on an even basis, the rates to this coast have to be kept high. The C. P. R. has so far controlled the situation.

For the past year the provincial government has had a man working up the case for this coast. Premier Oliver appointed G. G. McGeer to go thoroughly into the matter and the question is now being argued at Ottawa. Naturally the C. P. R. is opposing any reduction. The people on the coast do not see why they should have to pay higher rates than the people in the east. If wheat is to be shipped this way we must have as good a rate as the eastern route. If we are to live as cheaply as they do in the east we must have as good freight rates.

Premier Oliver is now in Ottawa in connection with the case and he will be heard by the Railway Commission. With a new government in power the commission should be in a position to listen to the demands of the west. If they fail to give us justice it will be for the west to consider what her next move will be.

Why Not Erect Elevators Here?

If the C. P. R. can not haul wheat to the coast at as cheap a rate as to the east, why not erect elevators here and have the wheat brought to Prince Rupert and shipped from here? We have the harbor and the railway and the dock. It may or may not be practical to ship wheat right away from this port but if the C. P. R. can not haul it at a cheap rate the G. T. P. ought to be able to do it. There is no reason why the whole coast should be held up because the C. P. R. grade is not a good one.

Irish Condition Much Improved.

Many people will feel relieved at the news that the Irish situation is improving. There has probably been some plain talking among the leaders and strenuous efforts to bring order out of what seemed almost like chaos. With the government of the south making an earnest effort to improve conditions, there should be no real difficulty in straightening out the tangles.

In the Letter Box

OPENING OF SEVENTH STREET TO WATERFRONT

Editor Daily News:—

According to the newspaper reports of last Monday night's council meeting, at which the petition of the residents of the western end of the city for the opening of Seventh Street was discussed, the city engineer stated that "there was something wrong if any man thought of heavy traffic being carried over a five per cent grade" and that "Seventh Street involved a seven per cent grade which would make it prohibitive for teaming."

Some Much Nigher.

Now as regards grades generally—there are cities having grades as high as fifteen per cent, while some cities impose a limit of seven per cent as a reasonable maximum, a grade of five or six per cent not being considered by any means "out of the way."

And as regards the grades in this city, which the new city engineer may not perhaps have had time yet to look into closely, the following are some of those at present existing:

First Avenue, at Manson Way, six per cent.

Second Avenue between first and Second Streets, six and one-half per cent.

Third Avenue, between Second and Third Streets, six per cent, at eastern end six and one-half per cent, and between Fifth and Sixth Streets seven per cent.

Styles Place, six and three-quarters per cent.

Fifth Street, nine per cent.

The G. T. P. Company's approach to their wharf has an eight per cent grade and the Government wharf a five per cent grade.

These grades are all in the heart of the city where the traffic is heaviest. Of course it would be an advantage if they were easier, but there they are, and such grades would never keep this or any other city from growing. The city engineer's expressed opinion, if correctly reported, does not appear to be borne out by the actual facts.

Original Intention.

Those who planned the city and the railway evidently recognized the necessity for a connection between them at Seventh as well as at Second Street, hence those two streets were made very much wider than any of the other streets, and there are letters and other documentary proofs in existence showing that this was the original intention. The connection was made at Second Street, but that via Seventh Street has still to be made, and the petitioners contend that it has now become necessary. Their proposal is that a solid roadway should be built from Seventh Street curving at that point toward the railway station on the land side of the tracks and then running parallel to the present line of excavation till the tracks are reached at the station, at which point only two lines of rails have to be crossed to reach the docks, both new and old.

Needs It Most.

Following this route the distance from the end of Seventh Street to the station would be approximately eleven hundred feet and a grade of about five and one-half per cent could be secured. The bulk of the material for the construction of this roadway is at hand in the bluff, so that the cost should be about the minimum, and no bridge would be required. This connection with trains and steamers would serve Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Streets about equally well, and also the Avenues between them, and this area constitutes the business section requiring most urgently the improved accommodation asked for.

The mayor and city engineer recommend connecting Seventh or Eleventh Street in some way with the waterfront, but that would be impossible save by constructing a roadway from there to the vicinity of the station, a distance of about half a dozen blocks. At Tenth and Eleventh Streets fifteen or more lines of rails have to be crossed to reach the water, and at that point no roadway of any kind could be constructed at the water side of the tracks. Furthermore, that point is altogether outside the business district and ninety per cent of all freight and passengers brought out there from train or boat would have to come back against a distance of several

St. Charles-more than a name!

Most everybody knows that milk branded with the name St. Charles has "the cream left in", that it contains a minimum of 7.8 per cent. butter fat, that it is properly sterilized, that it is always of the highest pure rich quality, and always fresh.

It is the finest milk obtainable!

But St. Charles stands for more than a name. It is your unqualified guarantee of complete satisfaction, it is your assurance that your purchase will never disappoint, it removes "doubt" from your milk buying.

Why be satisfied with any other milk but St. Charles—particularly as it costs no more?

Use it for cooking and table use. St. Charles answers every milk purpose—better—and more economically. "A size for every need." Order a supply from your grocer to-day!

AGENT AT SMITHERS CAPTURED MURDERER

Visit of S. H. Hoskins to Victoria Recalls Memories of His Police Work.

On the evening of November 15, 1900, the people of Victoria and Esquimalt were startled by news of a murder on the Esquimalt Road—a sequel to jealousy and drink—when Thomas Connell shot William Astley in the boiler house of the greenhouse then owned by Mrs. Connell, aunt of Astley. Connell ran away after the murder. A posse of police from the provincial police and the city police spent the night searching the vicinity.

Stephen H. Hoskins, then a police officer in the provincial force, and now government agent at Smithers, who is visiting Victoria, was the man who captured Connell. He told a reporter of the Victoria Colonist about it recently. From a haystack Connell fired in vain at the policeman. Connell emptied the last shell into his own brain, and died later at the Jubilee Hospital.

Mr. Hoskins owes to the incidents leading up to the capture of the desperado the reasons for his leaving Victoria. He became seriously ill from exposure, and eventually had to go up to the Kootenay, where he was in police and later government service work. Eventually he was transferred to Smithers, and has grown up with the town, which has the honor of being the first place in British Columbia incorporated as a village. Smithers, says Mr. Hoskins, has a population of 700 persons, full of optimism and confidence in the agricultural and mining possibilities of the district. The vicinity is rapidly developing as a mixed farming area, with some mining in progress in the Babine district and Hudson's Bay Mountain.

No Appetite

Nervous exhaustion leads to distaste for food. The nerves of the stomach are weak, digestion fails and you become generally upset and out of sorts.

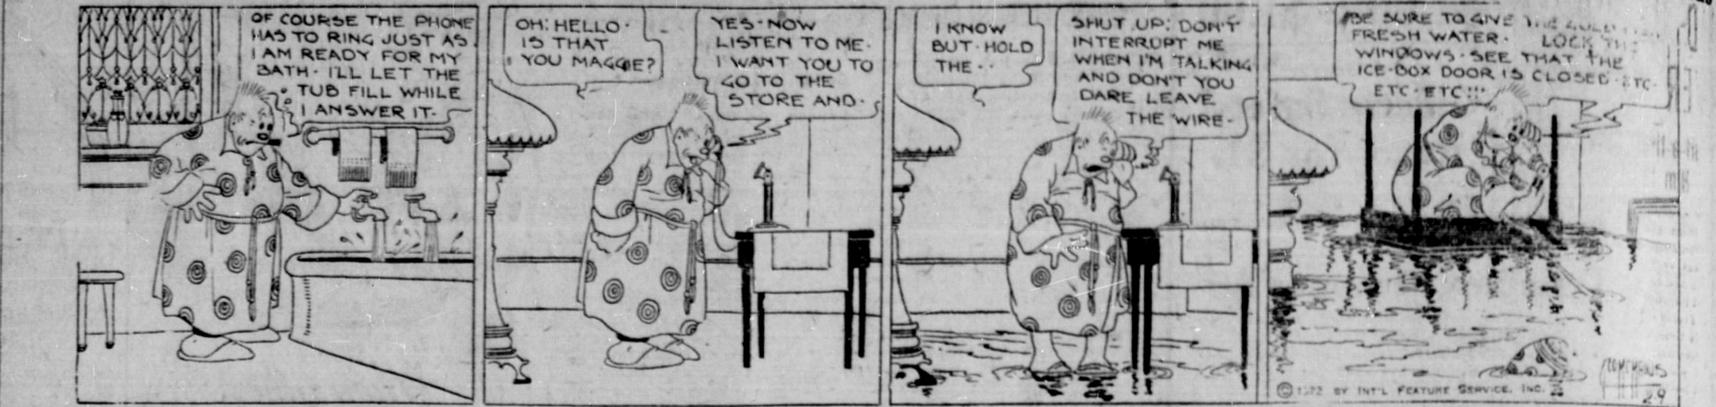

The secret of complete restoration is in getting the nervous system fully built up.

Mrs. R. Cheney, 208 Richmond St., Chatham, Ont., writes:

"I was troubled with indigestion, which caused me many sleepless nights. I would be in terrible distress at times, and would get no relief for two or three hours. For sixteen months I ate nothing but Shredded Wheat biscuits, as I dare not eat anything else. I did not know what to do, as I had tried so many different remedies, as well as doctors' medicines, without gaining permanent relief. Finally I got some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and while on the second box noticed that I was improving. I continued the treatment until I am now fully restored, and have returned to my regular diet. My husband has also taken Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results, so we are glad to recommend it to others."

UNITED STATES THIRD PARTY

Agricultural Bloc in Senate and House of Representatives Upsets Politicians.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—(By Canadian Press)—Scarcely any phase of the legislative and political situation in the United States at present is causing more comment and discussion than the agricultural bloc and its activities. The bloc is made up of a vigorous group of senators and representatives from the agricultural states, operating without regard to party lines. It has become a force in both houses of Congress and has succeeded in driving through a number of important bills and is preparing to drive through more.

Aroused Antagonism.
The activity of the agricultural bloc, it is claimed, has aroused much antagonism from certain powerful interests which fear too much organized effort among the farmers. It has also aroused the antagonism of the political leaders who are fearful that party lines will be crushed if this sort of manifestation continues. The Republican organization leaders, inasmuch as they are in power, have been the ones to show this antagonism, although it is a fact, too, that Democratic leaders who are wedded to hard and fast party lines are also perturbed by it. President Harding himself in two speeches has indicated his opposition to the bloc and Secretary of War Weeks has openly attacked it. The recent national conference on agriculture, it is freely alleged, was called with the object of crippling the bloc but it did not have that effect for the reason the conference went on record as giving strong endorsement to the farmer group.

Rid of Kenyon.
Senator Kenyon of Iowa, chairman of the bloc in the Senate has been appointed a federal judge of the circuit court of appeals, an important judicial post. He will quit the Senate and this will be a blow to the bloc. At the same time, it will by no means stop its activities for the reason the bloc is backed by powerful sentiment in the farming areas of the country. Senator Capper of Kansas is the logical successor of Senator Kenyon as chairman of the Senate bloc. The charge is made that the tender of judgeship was hung temptingly before the eyes of Senator Kenyon in order to get rid of him and help break down the bloc. This is denied by Senator Kenyon, and there is no doubt that he really got the office because he had ambition for it and sought it. But there are other versions current in political quarters.

The bloc right now is urging co-operative marketing legislation and a new rural credits system with credits based on crops and livestock. Both these propositions will be enacted into law. It is generally conceded that the bloc cannot be crushed so long as the present distressing conditions in the agricultural states continue and the farmers continue in their present dissatisfied state of mind. One of the effects of the bloc's activity is the certain continuation of high tariffs on agricultural products, aimed in large part, though not wholly at Canadian grains and Canadian livestock. It is often said the bloc will be the centre of a new third party in the United States but this is not probable although there is a certain remote possibility of it.

JOHN KYLE, ORGANIZER TECHNICAL EDUCATION, IS VISITING IN NORTH

DO YOU SMOKE TOO MUCH

There are many men on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, causes shortness of breath and loss of sleep.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy so equal

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS
They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco.

Mr. Frank Lutes, 71 Terrace Hill St., Bradford, Ont., writes:—"I had been troubled with palpitation of the heart for a number of years, and by spells it would bother me a lot. The doctor told me it would stop on the same time if I did not quit tobacco. When I would get a spell my heart would pound, and I would break out in a perspiration, and get so weak I would have to sit right down and quit my work; also in the night I would wake up and my heart would be going. I should say about 120 beats a minute. About three years ago I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, took them, and found that they did the job. I am feeling fine and have gained over 20 pounds in weight."

Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Sport Chat

Interest continues to be taken in the elimination billiard handicap at the Prince Rupert Pool Room and the first round is now well on to completion. Tuesday night's games resulted as follows: D. Brown beat W. Balagno; C. Balagno beat S. Suga; Col. McMorde beat E. Fenelon; D. Wiggins beat G. Mansell.

Junior Basketball League scoring records—G. Blythe (DD), 60; M. Budenich (TT), 53; J. Kelly (TT), 51; W. Lambie (D), 44; W. Cavalier (KE), 31; R. Little (KE), 21; D. Frizzell (KE), 21; W. Kergin (TT), 20; A. Mitchell (KE), 19; G. Clapp (TT), 17; F. Kergin (TT), 12; F. Fraser (DD), 7; E. McLean (KE), 4; J. Martin (TT), 3; Jacobson (DD), G. Hill (DD), D. Gurvich (DD), 2; J. McNulty, (KE), 1.

Hockey has been going strong in Alice Arm all this winter, due probably to the fact that that town has about the best skating rink to be found in the district. If an inter-town game is not played with Anyox, every Sunday at least sees a local game. Last week the ladies had a game, the single ones played the married. The result was a draw 2 to 2 but the single ladies were not satisfied and are determined that if there is another meeting their opponents will not have a "look in."

Anyox has been playing basketball just as energetically as Prince Rupert this winter. Girls, ladies, boys and men have leagues as here and play regular fixtures. The men's senior there is said to be a husky aggregation and are in a position to give Prince Rupert all she wants if a meeting can be arranged. That the games played in the smelter town are no gentle affairs was proved last week when Fred Brown lost a gold tooth after having come in contact with a head, the hardness of which he will vouch for.

150 AVENUE PINE IX, MONTREAL

"For three years, I was a terrible sufferer from dyspepsia and my general health was very bad. I consulted a physician and took his medicine but did not improve, and finally he told me that I could not be cured.

At this time, a friend advised me to try "Fruit-a-lives". After taking two boxes, I was greatly relieved; and my fruit medicine made me completely well. My digestion and general health are now splendid!"

SWANSON BAY MILL CLOSED

Expected to Shut Down Indefinitely on Account of Frost Affecting Water Supply.

The mill of the Whalen Pulp and Paper Company at Swanson Bay closed down about February 10 and will remain closed for an indefinite period until such time as a thaw comes. At the present time there is not water enough to run the plant on account of the recent severe frosts which have caused the water in the mountains to recede to a low level. There is approximately 100 feet of snow in the vicinity of Swanson Bay. There is not much right in the bay as there is in surrounding inlets.

Archbishop Du Vernet in Lecture on Psychology of Memory to Large Audience

"The law of the subconscious mind is suggestion," declared Archbishop Du Vernet in a lecture on "The Psychology of Memory" to a large gathering at the Anglican Church last night. "If we would bring out the buried memory," he said, "we must obey the law of the subconscious mind. Practice auto-suggestion in connection with memory. Suggest to yourself that at a certain time tomorrow you will do a certain thing and the probability is you will do it. Nothing is more sensitive than the subconscious mind. Many would rather trust it to wake them in the morning than an alarm clock. None of the artificial memory systems are equal to that of auto-suggestion.

In opening the Archbishop explained that this was one of four lectures he hoped to deliver. Three weeks from that night he proposed to speak on the "Psychology of Imagination and Dreams."

Spending of the Psychology of Memory the speaker suggested that while a man might be able to drive a car if he did not understand its mechanism, he would not be able to make adjustments to the machinery. So it was with memory. If a person did not understand the mechanism he could not get full power from it. If he understood the mechanism of the mind he would have a mastery over memory.

Mind and Brain.

The Archbishop said he wished them to distinguish between mind and brain. The brain was the physical instrument but the spiritual mind overflowed the physical brain. While the brain occupied limited space the mind was not bounded but radiated far and wide. Just at that time he hoped his mind was penetrating that of the audience and stirring them to mental energy.

The electric fan was given as an illustration. It may be right to speak of it as a machine but it would not be right to say the energy was confined to that machine. The part was not larger than the whole. The physical brain corresponds to the machine and the mind to the electrical energy, it was a part of the "infinite energy which we call God. The electric energy is not dead when the power is switched off the machine. When we die the brain ceases to throb and the body crumbles into dust but the mind is not ever dead.

"But white brain and mind are distinct they are closely related. The brain is a marvellously delicate instrument. Possibly in the higher plane of the future life there will be an organ just as well adapted for the spirit sphere as the brain is for the life here. The only way in which the mind can work here is through the brain."

Three Processes.

In order that memory be effective there were three distinct processes involved. The impression must be retained, reproduced and recognized. An article may be reflected in a mirror but it cannot there be touched, handled or felt. It was not the real thing but represented the real thing.

The speaker said there must be a perception in the mind, a memory image for future use. This was the first act in the drama of memory. The impression must be retained as the first step in the process.

The speaker went on to tell of three kinds of memory, physical, subconscious and conscious. The first was illustrated by the fossilized markings in the rocks, the reproduction of the photograph, the impression left on the finger of a string which had bound it and which yet had been removed. These were examples of physical memory. In each of these cases the mental process of recognition was necessary to make the operation complete. There must be a conscious mind to recognize.

Physical Basis.

The physical basis of memory was the brain. On this organ impressions were made but they were too minute to be seen with a microscope. They were probably nerve cells, negative electrons revolving around positive electrons, and the impression was recorded by modifications of certain vibrations. Every thought had its own rhythm, which causes to spring up in the mind memory of a past event. This marvellous adjustment was the nearest they could come to the solution of the mystery of memory.

The lecturer spoke of psycho-

Was Troubled With Her Stomach For Five Years

Mrs. Samuel Ward, Millersdale, Sask., writes:—"I feel that I must write to you and so grateful to your splendid medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, for after an illness of five years I am better.

I had stomach trouble so bad, I could not bear the smell or taste of food of any kind, and got so thin and weak I could not work. I had four doctors attend me, but they did me no good. I was in no pain, but felt so ill, at times, I thought I would die, in fact, all my friends were sure I could not live many months. This time last year I saw where a man was relieved of stomach trouble by Burdock Blood Bitters, so my husband got me two bottles, but I had no faith in it after all the different medicines I had taken, however he insisted, and after the first two days I must say I began to feel better, and after the first bottle I felt so much better I went out a little every day, but could not go alone I was so weak, but I soon got so I could walk and eat, and have got quite stout.

I am nearly seventy years of age and I feel better than I have for years, and can do all my household work.

You may make use of this letter if you wish, as it may be the means of making others as well and as happy as I am."

MAY HAVE MURDERED HIS HALF BROTHER

More Particulars of Sensational Case at Montreal When Student Was Shot.

The Raoul Delorme murder case for which a coroner's jury at Montreal held Father Adelard Delorme responsible, has been attracting widespread interest throughout Eastern Canada for the past few weeks since the murder took place on the morning of January 6. Detectives, employed by the crown and Father Delorme himself, have been working on the case and a combination of clues involving the facts that the deceased had left $25,000 insurance to Father Delorme and that the automobile of the latter was found to have blood stains believed to be the blood of the murdered man led up to the decision made yesterday by the jury.

According to the evidence at the inquest Father Delorme was the administrator of the estate of the young student who was murdered. When the father of Father Adelard Delorme died in 1915, Father Delorme was appointed administrator of the estate. He testified before the coroner's court that when the father died in 1916 the estate had been assessed as valued at $165,000. As the bulk of it comprises dwelling houses, and in view of the increase in rentals and property valuation, the estate is now considered to be worth nearly three times that of the original assessment.

From the estate Father Delorme stated he would receive in the neighborhood of $7000 annually. Raoul, the murdered man, would receive about $10,000, as his share was greater than that of his half-brother.

Books kept by Father Delorme in connection with the estate of Raoul Delorme were far from being perfect, in the opinion of the auditors engaged on the work. Only a journal recording payments of rents and interest and receipts for money paid out were found in the possession of the priest. In order that a perfect audit of the estate for the past two years could be made it was necessary for auditors to verify every entry made in the journal. They also had to verify every receipt.

been in the Franklin brougham car of Father Delorme, was made by Dr. Wilfred Delorme. The report stated that the stains were caused by blood and oil.

In a statement Father Delorme explained these stains by saying that possibly while making repairs to a tire he had cut his finger and that these were the blood stains found on the cushion.

CENTRAL HEATING PLANT PROPOSED MANITOBA CAPITAL

WINNIPEG, Feb. 16.—The establishment of central heating plants, under civic ownership and control, is believed by S. C. Oxon, deputy minister of public works in the provincial government, to be a solution of the problem of heating Winnipeg buildings. Mr. Oxon bases his opinion on the record of the provincial government's central heating plant. This plant heats the parliament buildings, court house, land titles office, jail and university buildings. The cost of heating is away below what it would be with a separate plant in each building.

Mr. Oxon believes it would be much cheaper for householders to pay their share for a central heating plant than to provide and maintain their own plants. He said to establish a central heating system the limit of radiation would have to be arrived at. Once established such a system would free householders from furnace worries.
