Genoa Economic Conference Fails

CONSERVATIVES WILL SHARPLY OPPOSE CUTTING DOWN NAVY

Russian Question Adjourned From Genoa to Hague: Lloyd George Returning to London

GENOA, May 15.—The economic conference, long heralded as the meeting of minds out of which would arise a rejuvenated Europe and a new international concord and peace, today stands a desolate hulk in the vision of an expectant world. Out of the weeks of negotiations has come nothing more than the Rapallo Treaty signed between the Russians and the Germans at Easter. Treaty re-establishing the old order and the balance of power and the decision to continue at the Hague the discussion of Russian rehabilitation without Russian representation. The sub-committee on Russian affairs to-day unanimously approved the agreement reached yesterday among the convening powers to hold another meeting at the Hague on June 5 to further examine the Russian question. It is hoped that on that occasion, without the Russians being present, the irreconcilable differences between Britain and France will be somewhat ameliorated and that a means of Russian restoration may be found.

While adjournment of the Genoa gathering is not yet definitely announced the return of Premier Lloyd George, the leading spirit, to London at the end of the week was made known. The non-aggression pact proposed by Lloyd George is now the only important matter remaining to be discussed here.

Russia's Wish.
GENEVA, May 15.—The Soviet delegates at Genoa have informed the League of Nations that the experts there desire Russia to co-operate with the League and become full-fledged members within a reasonable time provided the economic conference succeeds from the Soviet viewpoint.

THINKS GIRLS
UNDER THIRTY
NOT RELIABLE
Judgment Not Mature Enough to Vote, Says Senator David

OTTAWA, May 15.—Senator David's resolution to restrict the women's franchise was defeated in the senate by 33 to 19. Senator David proposed that unmarried women must be at least 30 years of age before being entitled to vote. Girls between 20 and 30 were not mature in judgment, he declared. Electoral lists under the present law were loaded with an unintelligent vote. Thousands of girls had voted last election without knowledge of either the party leaders or their platforms. The English law was less objectionable. The resolution went down in a non-party vote.

WHEAT FIELDS IN MANITOBA FLOODED
BY RISING RIVERS
WINNIPEG, May 15.—One thousand acres of land sown in wheat belonging to the sect known as the Hutterites near Irberville, Manitoba, has been flooded by the rising waters of the rivers of Manitoba owing to the continuous rains. The Hutterites will lose much money as a result.

KING MANIFESTS MUCH INTEREST IN GENOA CONFERENCE

LONDON, May 15.—While resting at Windsor Castle, King George manifested great interest in the Genoa Conference and special arrangements were made to keep him fully posted with all that was happening there.

Foreign office messengers are kept busy between Genoa and Downing Street while a special staff of telephone and telegraph officials have been installed at the castle to deal with news from the Foreign office.

The King and Queen spent last week in Paris and returned to England on Saturday. They were accompanied by Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig and Hon. P. C. Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner, on their visit to the battlefields of the Great War.

GENERAL MANAGER OF RAILWAY WILL ARRIVE THIS WEEK

A. E. Warren and Party of Officials is Making Close Hand Inspection of C. N. R. Western Lines

A. E. Warren, general manager of the Canadian National Railway western lines, will arrive in the city by the Prince George on Wednesday morning in the course of a general inspection trip of the road. He is accompanied by W. G. Manders, assistant freight traffic manager of Western lines; Howard Dixon, chief engineer; T. J. Lowe, fuel agent, and F. Simpson, Mr. Warren's private secretary. They are at present in Vancouver and will leave that city for the north tonight.

The officials are making their tour of the line by motor speeder which consists of an automobile chassis mounted on steel wheels which runs on orders in a similar manner to trains. It has been sent back by the overland route from Vancouver to Prince Rupert and the party will take it out from here on their return journey over the G. T. P. tracks.

BANK ROBBERY IN VANCOUVER

Grandview Branch of Royal Bank Held up by Daylight Today.

VANCOUVER, May 15.—Three armed men held up the Grandview branch of the Royal Bank at the corner of Napier Street and Commercial Drive at noon today. Two of the men covered the teller and the clerk with guns while the third snatched a package containing from $1000 to $1500. The three men escaped in a high powered automobile.

According to the reports made to the police, the three men, after they had secured the money continued to cover the clerk with guns and backed out of the office. They jumped into the automobile which was waiting for them with the driver at the wheel, and dashed off at high speed towards the business section of the city.

FEW VISITORS AT HOSPITAL SUNDAY

Hospital Sunday was duly observed at the General Hospital yesterday. The Hospital Board paid a visit in the afternoon, but public visitors were conspicuous by their absence doubtless due to the extraordinarily inclement weather which prevailed. A number of the relatives and friends of patients duly carried out their errands of mercy.

LOCAL OPTION IS FAVORED IN GREAT BRITAIN

Convention of Church Organizations Decided on This Policy in London on Saturday.

LONDON, May 15.—The Anglican and Baptist Churches, the Salvation Army and other religious bodies were represented in a convention which considered prohibition measures in Great Britain on Saturday. It was decided that local option rather than prohibition should be the policy of the party but emphasis was laid on the forbidding of the sale of intoxicants to persons under eighteen years of age.

The Bishop of London asserted that many people on the side of temperance were opposed to any sort of propagandists and a trade official suggested that prohibitions were as dangerous as social revolutionists.

W. H. Tobey, divisional engineer for the C.N.R. left for the East on this morning's train on an inspection trip.

Liberals And Progressives Will Vote In Commons For Reduction of Canadian Navy

OTTAWA, May 15.—It is expected that the Progressives will support the government in its proposal for the reduced naval force. This will mean that the naval policy as outlined in the House last Saturday will be carried.

The proposal to reduce the Canadian navy to one small ship and two trawlers on each coast involving the laying up of the present fleet will meet with sharp Conservative opposition was indicated in official circles this morning.

The Conservatives will base their opposition on the following grounds:

- (1) That Canada's responsibility in sharing the defence of the Empire with the Mother Country and other Dominions is not being met.
- (2) That it is wholly unfair to leave the burden of the naval defence of the Dominion on the shoulders of the British taxpayers.
- (3) That the proposal for a volunteer naval force will not produce the required efficiency to justify the expense.

Bad Blow For Lord's Day Act

When the people of sedate old Victoria turn down the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act by a vote of practically 8 to 1, the unpopularity of such a measure in the province as a whole may be pretty safely assumed. The city of Victoria is generally looked upon as a city that might lead in British Columbia in the enforcement of such measures as this and is inclined perhaps more to "pure" laws than any other in the province. Other cities have not called for the strict enforcement of the Act and the adoption of it at Victoria by the police commission has now been repudiated by the people. By the vote in the capital, the Lord's Day Act, as far as the province is concerned, may be said to have been practically dealt a death blow. While the Act will probably remain on the statutes it will continue to be one of those rules that were made to be broken.

Methods For High School Promotion.

The Prince Rupert School Board, after an experience of five years or so with promotion to the High School by recommendation of the principals, has deemed that plan unsatisfactory and has decided to revert to the old system of government set examinations as the test of qualification. There is much to be said in favor of either plan—and at the same time either plan may be severely criticized. Much depends on individual cases. One pupil, whose general fitness judged by the teacher on the term, as a whole to be good or excellent, may not be able to make a showing at a government test on account of nervousness, excitement or other reasons. On the other hand, a student whose classroom work may not be so satisfactory may excel on a written test. Thus neither plan is fully satisfactory. It seems that a combination of the two might more fully and fairly fill the bill. That is the plan that will probably be adopted after both plans separately have been further experimented with.

Advertising Dentist Mayor of Seattle.

It must have been a terrible shock to some of the very "ethical" dentists of Seattle, not to mention the rest of the country, to see an advertising dentist elected mayor of the Puget Sound city. What a despicable thing, in their opinion, an advertising dentist—and yet he received a majority of more than 11,000 votes in the city election.

Possibly it will awaken some of the moss backed gentlemen who are still living in the age of the civil war. And yet, while it is possible, it is more probable that the majority of them, self satisfied and bumptious, will continue on as they have in the past, observing the "professional ethics" and playing the hypocrite.

It is a well known fact that in every city in the country professional men and women who are loudest in their cry for "professional ethics," chief of which that they shall not advertise, are always attempting to get cheap advertising. They are the worst pests of the city editor's room, attempting to break into print about this, that and the other thing; that they delivered an address before the Nobody At Home Club and said so and so, and so and so; that they have discovered a new cure for leprosy, cancer and a few other things.

How It Pays To Advertise.

Like E. J. Brown, 99 44-100ths per cent of the dentists, doctors and lawyers and everybody else start into anything because they hope to make money out of it. Dr. Brown pursued one method and others pursued the other, and if the latter hold the other in contempt they may now see through the Seattle election that the public do not have the same views. Admitted by dentists to be a high class workman, Dr. Brown succeeded, and because he told the people through his advertising columns what he had to offer. He accomplished that which he started to do, to make money and lots of it, until today he is one of the wealthy men of his city. He not only made money but now he wins honors for himself, such honors as practically any dentist, any "ethical" dentist or other professional men of Seattle, would be glad to have.

Imagine what the situation would have been if Dr. Brown had never advertised. Instead of having a big suite of offices with many "ethical" gentlemen in his employ, he would probably have a back room somewhere with a straggling patient or two daily and would not only not be mayor but in fact would be unknown to the majority of people.

The day of the mossback is over and the sooner the ethical gentlemen throughout the whole country learn this, the better it will be for them and for the public, and the sooner will the quack be driven out.

Dr. E. J. Brown, financially, politically, and professionally is the personification of the maxim: "It Pays to Advertise."

Three years ago, I consulted one of the best specialists in Montreal. He said I must go to the hospital, have an Ulcer cut out of my stomach and gall stones removed. I was then 74 years old. I said "NO."

Then, I began to take "Fruit-a-tives". I found they helped me a lot, and I still take them occasionally, and I am so much better that my old friends often ask me what I have done to myself to look so well. I am gaining in weight and enjoying life very much."

MAURICE SHOCKLEY GETS HIS DEGREE WITH HIGH HONORS

Local Boy Makes Envious Record at University of Toronto —Is B. Sc.

Maurice Shockley, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shockley, of this city had graduated from the University of Toronto with honors as Bachelor of Applied Science, word to this effect having been received by his parents last night.

This year the percentage in the examinations was raised and only four out of the class of 40 received honors, the local boy being one of the four. This together with the fact that he passed last year with honors in a class of 12 has entitled him to his degree with honors.

In the whole year out of a class of 151, 38 passed with honors or twenty-five percent. In Maurice's class, the honor list was only ten percent.

Mr. and Mrs. Shockley do not know definitely yet whether or not Maurice will be returning home this year. He may take up practical work now with some electrical firm in the East.

Maurice passed with honors in his first year at the University of B.C. and in the second year won a scholarship.

FRED STORK SPEAKS IN PARLIAMENT ON ORIENTAL QUESTION

Fred Stork (Liberal, Skeena) in speaking in the debate on the Oriental question in the House of Commons last week, traced the history of the spread of Oriental immigration over this continent since 1849, when they first came to California at the time of the gold rush, and the legislative enactments to curb their spread, beginning as far back as 1872. Ever since the agitation against them had been increasing, but the matter had never been dealt with in a comprehensive way. He believed it was good policy to settle the question with the Oriental while the white population was still in possession of the province of British Columbia, rather than to defer it until the time when the Oriental himself was in possession. Indifference to the claims of the Pacific Coast was at the root of the matter as it had been of so many other problems in which British Columbia had suffered, including the Oregon and Alaskan boundary matters.

In every industry the Japanese were working up from mental positions to control. They were rolling up the map of Western Canada so that one day the summit of the Rocky Mountains would be the western boundary for the white people, and the Oriental, "the human torpedo," would own the California of Canada.

This is Our Country
The people of British Columbia, he said, regarded this as our country and the Commons as the proper tribunal in which to state the case. The remedy they asked was the absolute exclusion of all Orientals.

LIGHTHOUSE KEEPER WHO DIED LAST WEEK IN VANCOUVER CITY

Going to Vancouver for medical attention after being alone with his wife for three years at Cape St. James, "Bob" Smith died suddenly in St. Paul's Hospital early Wednesday morning. His wife is alone, tending the beacon of the Oddenbrooke light, 275 miles from Vancouver, to which they have been transferred recently.

Four hundred miles from Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Smith nearly four years ago established a little colony of their own at the light. Although they got mail only once in six months, they found entertainment in their family of four Spitz dogs, two billy goats, and some chickens. They made a garden at the foot of the ledge of rock on which the lighthouse is built, but a 90-mile gale swept it away, gouging out the soil to a depth of a foot. After that "Bob" rigged up a hothouse.

In the fall of 1918, "Bob" found three bodies from the wreck of the ill-fated government steamer Galiano, and on another occasion they sheltered 15 Japanese fishermen whose boat had been wrecked off the Cape.

BRINGING UP FATHER

In the Letter Box

NO, IT ISN'T THE END.

Editor Daily News:—
Now that we are getting down to business, let us consider some of the absurdities that have been perpetrated by ourselves to our own detriment, purely with an idea to showing how conditions can be made better.

Our waterfront consisting of over one hundred miles is all idle except 1 1/2 per cent for the reason that the officers of the G.T.P. wanted it that way. They could not or would not do anything with it so no one else can be permitted to do so. There is no reason why our entire waterfront along the present cleared townsite should not be in use.

Every boat builder who has undertaken to do anything has felt the handicap and when the war began we were not prepared to do any part of the Government work. When outsiders saw the conditions we allowed them to come in and do us up the ship conditions.

Liquor Business.
We gave a monopoly of the liquor trade to the hotels through their licenses, and after they had established themselves on this basis we deliberately and dishonestly robbed them of their business.

The loggers and ranchers and trappers as well as the fishermen have been the mainstay of our country through the perilous times just past. Instead of recognizing the value of these little businesses and trying to make conditions better we have deliberately hampered them in every way.

In all private business we have assumed that all our customers were decent and honorable. In all government business we have assumed that our Canadian citizens were either fools or scoundrels and applied laws whereby we have to apply for permission to work and pay a license fee for the privilege of serving our customers.

One top of that we have made rules and regulations, and appointed sometimes incompetent men to enforce these regulations, thus making it a crime for an honorable man to engage in any business.

Honesty Loses Out.
Our laws are so complex that a person trying to be law abiding is at such a disadvantage that he loses out and the person of criminal tendencies wins. There is no reason except in the minds of incompetent or dishonest people why any person a citizen of our country should not engage in any business. If he offers a service people are willing to pay for that should be no crime. If the service is not what people want they will not purchase it. No Canadian is so good or bad until he injures some one else that he is entitled to a better or worse deal than any other.

All Canadians should be free and equal. One is entitled to as much consideration as another and no man has any right to say yes or no except when one injures some one else.

Minority Government.
The mere breaking of some foolish regulation is no crime, unless it can be proven that in breaking such regulation he injures some one else. Our laws have become autocratic and our Government has become a minority Government of busybodies who want to regulate all our lives upon their own absurd bases. This minority uses factions to work its will. Our people have lost their respect for law, because our laws are disrespectful of the average Canadian's rights.

Punish only the individual who injures some one else and all of them and we will have fewer laws and lawyers and a happier people and more prosperous. HOOMES K. FREEMAN.

IMMIGRATION QUESTION.

Editor, Daily News:—
It seems quite time that both the Provincial and Dominion government authorities get down to brass tacks on the immigration policy. The system at present in vogue, is to say the least, criminal folly if we are to build our country up with the right type of immigrant. The present idea of taking people from their homeland, often under a false misrepresentation of facts, and landing them in some God forsaken part of the Dominion just to satisfy the craving for the dollar of a bunch of financial sharks, is not going to advertise our country in the best way or will it be the means of inducing honest people to come out here. What we have to do is get down to an immigration policy with honesty of purpose, giving those who throw in their lot with us nothing but a square deal, instead of trying to pry the few dollars they have got out of them when they land.

Like a Business.
Building up a country is similar to building up a business, you must be honest. The best advertisement Canada can get is from the good expressions of the people who are induced to come out, and the only way to get that sort of advertising is to make them glad that they came. People from the Old Country naturally migrate to the colonies to better their lot but it is a matter of grave question whether the majority of them coming to Canada today accomplish this all important purpose. To make men and women glad that they took the name of Canadians by adoption the government must give them something to be glad about, whether it be in the nature of land, implements of agriculture, seed, food or what not. It is one thing to take a chance with the betting in strong favor of making good and entirely another thing to take a chance with hopeless defeat staring one in the face from the start.

While not professing to know it all, it would seem to me to be quite possible to establish honest Canadian immigration departments throughout the Old Country with some set government policy and line of action putting men in the positions of responsibility who have the welfare of the British race at heart and who would not only hand pick immigrants but who would know just what the people would be coming to. First hand and reliable information at the source would seem to be what is needed with a definite Dominion government policy of placing the arrivals in Canada. Satisfied customers, is what counts in any business and satisfied immigrants is what counts in any country.

ONE WHO CAME.

THE ASS' CHOICE.
William Jennings Bryan would never tell this story. It's on a "Pussfoot" lecturer who was talking in a certain hall one evening on the drink question. "Now, supposing I had a pail of water and a pail of beer on this platform, and then brought on a donkey; which of the two would he take?"
"He'd take the water," came a voice from the gallery.
"And why should he take the water?" asked the lecturer.
"Because he's an ass," came the reply.—Book of Smiles.

The fine not being forthcoming they are serving their 30 day term under the supervision of the city police.

WOMAN TRIES ON SILK STOCKINGS IN WINDOW OF STORE

LONDON, May 15.—The unusual sight of a masked woman being fitted with silk stockings in the window of an Oxford Street shop attracted such crowds that Samuel Harris and Sydney Samuel Walters were summoned for obstruction.

"The exhibition brought large crowds to the window of the shop," said counsel prosecuting. "One woman, wearing a mask, tried on silk stockings which were handed to her by a woman dressed as a lady's maid. The crowds so completely obstructed the pavement that a policeman was unable to make his way through."

Counsel for the defence said the stockings were put on over other stockings.

The magistrate remarked that no decent woman would lend herself to this.

Mr. Harris and Mr. Walters were each fined.

Two Men in a Car

A short account of a Trip to California in a Ford Flivver
By H. F. Pullen

A BIG NEWSPAPER.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Last night we spent an hour or two going through the plant of the San Francisco Chronicle and hearing the city editor tell of the organization of the paper and the wonders of San Francisco. What struck me most was to notice the marked resemblance between making the Chronicle and making the Prince Rupert Daily News. The work at the Chronicle office seemed to go a little easier with less fuss and worry than our home paper, and of course the processes were perfected to a great extent. They have 43 reporters where we have one. They employ six girls permanently on their elaborate filing system for the morgue. In that room they have information instantly available on every conceivable subject and the life histories of every important person. They have immense presses with stereotyping plant and their battery of about fifty linotype machines looks large against out battery of two. These differences are chiefly differences of degree. Our paper is made up in a similar way. We have the same keen desire to give the people all the news available and if possible to beat the other paper. There is the same constant stream of events, one following the other or sometimes all crowding in together, and the same enjoyment over a bit of work well done.

Joy of the Profession.
It is this constant change with the tension at which we work that makes newspaper making enjoyable. There is a gamble in the receiving a hand of cards and trying to make the most of it. There is always the uncertainty of what may be happening and what the other fellow may have. The same is evident in every well conducted paper.

We met the managing news editor and the city editor. The latter showed us around and explained things we did not know. I spent an hour or more doing the honors to two perfect strangers from Canada whom he never met again, and we appreciated it. Mr. Cromwell is the man of his paper and his city editor may well be of both. He cannot say too much of San Francisco and he will not hear a word of disparagement. It is of course the greatest commercial city on the coast, its climate is the best and its people are the most progressive. We all know that, even if Mr. Cromwell had not told us about it.

Pride in Everything.
Mr. Cromwell took as much

BOAT SEIZURES ARE PROTESTED

Fishing Vessel Association of Seattle Says Canada Does Not Show Courtesy.

SEATTLE, May 15.—Recent seizures of American fishing vessels by Canadian patrol cruisers on charges of violating or of poaching inside the three-mile limit has brought from members of the Fishing Vessel Owners' Association of Seattle the complaint that Canada does not reciprocate courtesy on this coast.

They are withholding comment on the recent seizures until the details are ascertained, but they declare that as a general thing, the Canadian authorities interpret their rules with great severity.

The Clarion, a Seattle salmon buying boat operating on the west coast of Vancouver Island, was seized two weeks ago by the Canadian patrol cruiser Thiopval, and towed into Victoria. She is charged with some violation of the Canadian regulations. The halibut schooner Johanna, which was being purchased from Severin Olson of Poulsbo, by two Prince Rupert men, was seized in Northern waters by the Canadian patrol cruiser Malaspina a few days ago and towed into Prince Rupert on a charge of poaching inside the three-mile limit. According to word received yesterday she is to be confiscated. The new owners had not completed payment for the vessel.

Severe Treatment.
Under the laws of both countries a foreign vessel can stay indefinitely in port if she enters at the custom house. Otherwise she can stay only 24 hours. When an American fishing vessel takes refuge in a British Columbia harbor as a result of violent weather and is observed by a Canadian patrol cruiser, she is ordered to put to sea at the end of the 24-hour period regardless of storm or gale, the Seattle halibut men assert.

Yet they declare Canadian fishing vessels are allowed to lie for weeks in Yakutat Bay, Alaska, when storms rage on the northern banks. It is never even hinted to the Canadians that they move on at the end of the 24-hour period, according to the Seattle vessel owners. They are allowed to stay in the place of refuge until fair weather returns.

As regards the confiscation of Seattle fishing vessels on this coast Seattle men point out that America could seize and confiscate the Canadian booze runners that invade the three-mile limit on the Atlantic coast, but that no such confiscation has been reported so far.

GOLF SEASON OPENS TODAY

With the Playing of the Women's Open Golf Championship of Great Britain

NEW YORK, May 15.—With the playing of the Women's Open Golf Championship of Great Britain beginning today a remarkable season of golf tournaments will open both abroad and in this country. Between the middle of May and the middle of October there are scheduled more than 100 international, national, inter-sectional and sectional tournaments of outstanding caliber to be played in the United States, Europe and Canada. Many of these events will attract international entries with the trend during 1922 in the direction of this country.

While it is doubtful if the American golfer, either as an individual or in team combination, will invade England or the continent to the extent that prevailed a year ago it is expected that the British player will figure prominently in the titular tournaments of the United States and Canada. Leading figures among the amateur, women and professional golfers of England have already signified their intention of competing in America and there is a possibility that the international season will close with the initial contest for the Walker Cup, donated two years ago as a perpetual team golf championship trophy.

The Maple Leafs have finished all their games in the Junior Billiard League series and have clinched the season's championship for none of the other teams in the competition can now catch up to them even if they made perfect scores in the one or two games they have yet to play. In fact the ranking of the teams will probably remain as it is at present. The St. Andrew's Excelsiors, Grotto and Elks have each one more game to play and the Beavers, two. The standing to date is as follows:

	G.	Tl.	Av.
Maple Leafs	10	8599	860
St. Andrews	9	7415	824
Excelsiors	9	7265	807
Grotto	9	7011	779
Beavers	8	6004	751
Elks	9	6504	723

Arrangements have been made by the Elks' Empire Day Sports Committee for two baseball games on May 24. Both the intermediate and the senior games will be played between the Elks' and the Sons of Canada teams of either league. A senior football game has also been arranged between select teams representing the British Isles and the personnel of the teams are yet to be chosen. The sports for the kiddies will be held in the morning between 9 and 11 o'clock. The Greenville native band has also been engaged for the entire day.

CHINA REALLY IS AWAKENING

Great Enmity Against Japan Being Manifested, Bishop Asserts—No Boxer War.

CHICAGO, May, 15.—China is becoming more self-assertive and self-dependent since the early days of the Washington Conference, says Bishop Francis J. McConnell, resident Bishop of Pittsburgh of the Methodist Episcopal Church who has been visiting in China recently.

Bishop McConnell is a member of the Educational Commission of the Missions Board of America and Great Britain who were sent to China six months ago. His statement was made public by a Committee on Conservation and Advance of the Methodist Church here.

"There are sure signs of the stirring of a Chinese public opinion and of Chinese national sentiment in advance of anything yet observed there," the Bishop said.

Speaking of the relations of the Japanese and Chinese, Bishop McConnell said: "The Japanese have made one notable failure and that is they have failed to make a friend of China. One does not have to be in a Chinese city long to note the intensity of the enmity of the Chinese toward the Japanese. He is utterly blind who rates this enmity as of no practical consequence in view of Japanese superiority in arms."

Boycott Weapon.

"The Chinese have found in the boycott a powerful weapon. With consummate genius for non-cooperation and passive resistance, China can free herself from all outside influence which she chooses to ban—when the time comes. And the time is coming soon in the years just ahead when China will inevitably come to a self-assertive, self-respecting independence of foreign nations. This is a plain-as-day fact that a stroller on Chinese streets cannot miss."

"I do not think there is danger of another Boxer uprising. At least if there is such a rising the weapons used will not be swords and guns."

Bishop McConnell said that the presence of an ever growing liberal sentiment—not necessarily a liberal party—in Japan is not a myth. "If Japan does not embark upon a career of imperialistic conquest of China in the next ten years it is not likely that she ever will," he declared. "By 1932 the democratic forces will probably be, if not

LIVER TROUBLE Bad Bilious Attacks

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach full and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS
They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the gripping, weakening and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Donavon, Sask., writes:—"I was troubled with my liver, and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two vials and I have had no more attacks."

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS
are 25¢ a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

irresistible at least so effective as to make it impossible for war plans to be carried through in the old high handed fashion.

RUSSIANS WILL NOT EAT CROWS

Famine Sections Infested With Big Black Scavenger Birds.

BUZLUK, Samara Province, Russia, May 15.—(The Associated Press.)—Eating crow seems literally to have been the one thing the famine-stricken peasants of the Volga have refused to do. During the worst periods of the hunger suffering, when cats, dogs, clay and even more ghastly food substitutes have been greedily devoured, the country has been full of big, black and gray crows.

So bold are these scavenger birds and apparently so unmolested by even the hungriest peasants, that some of them even perch upon and peck at meat supplies laden in sleds for transport from the railway stations to the villages.

Fattest in Country.

Some of them may have been eaten, but the correspondent saw literally hundreds of them at every place his train stopped from Samara on the way to Orenburg.

They were the fattest creatures in the famine area. Peasants with whom the correspondent talked on this apparent anomalous condition, in a region where one instance of cannibalism had been reported, admitted that crows might be as good to eat as dogs or cats, but advanced various vague reasons as to why these birds had not been slaughtered for food.

Some said there were no guns or ammunition to shoot them and that they were extremely hard to trap or catch. Others said they were "unclean."

AFFECTION OF SWEDES SHOWN FOR MONARCH

STOCKHOLM, May 15.—The slight but painful injury sustained by King Gustave of Sweden in an automobile accident near Nice on the French Riviera has revealed more the affection for their monarch. The accident caused great anxiety throughout Sweden, even after it was officially announced that the King's hurts were not serious, for the King is rather frail and nearly 64 years of age.

King Gustave has chosen Nice as his favorite haunt and playground when he seeks relaxation and recuperation from the cares of state and he is one of the most popular and welcome guests of the resort. His amusements there included playing bridge with friends and tennis with Mlle Lenglen, the French champion, and Earl Balfour.

A Great Sport.

In spite of his age, King Gustave still plays a brilliant tennis game and is looked upon as one of the best amateur players of Sweden. A stiff game of tennis or bridge always puts him in good humor and his witticisms on these occasions are quoted throughout the Riviera.

The French newspapers have been publishing a story of a little incident that occurred at Nice to illustrate his wit. The King had Mlle. Lenglen a shis tennis partner and she was playing on the right hand side of the court. The King frequently encroached on her territory in his zeal to return the ball, whereupon Mlle. Lenglen admonished him to "keep to the left, Your Majesty," and once gave him a gentle push.

At the end of the game the King is reported to have said to his partner: "You remind me of my premier for you are always telling me to keep to the left."

Premier Branting of Sweden is head of the Socialist Party, which in parliamentary language is called "the left."

AUTO FIRE

The fire brigade answered a call at 11 o'clock this morning to extinguish a slight blaze which had broken out in an automobile owned by Jack Ross, taxi 75, standing outside the Empress Theatre. Upon arrival it was found that the carburetor had in some way become ignited. The flames were quickly subdued before any serious damage was done.

The Grand Trunk Pacific steamer Prince John, Captain Nadden, sailed on Saturday night with a good list of passengers and cargo of freight for the Queen Charlotte Islands. The vessel will go on to Vancouver, returning here by the same route about the middle of next week.

E. J. Skinner, who has been here with the Universal Trading Company for the last two weeks, left today on the eastbound train for Prince George.

If you wish to make yourself heard, do it through the newspaper with the guaranteed circulation. It is instantly audible.

FALSE ECONOMY

The family that does not provide for laundry service in the weekly budget is practicing false economy. Under our new plan, Laundry work by the pound, practically the entire family bundle washed and returned, damp almost ready for ironing, for $1.25.

This is the cheapest Laundry Service ever offered locally, and the husband who has the welfare of his family at heart cannot afford to pass this service up without serious consideration.

We have also our Soft Finish Service, where for a small additional charge, everything is dried and all flat pieces ironed and folded.

To those who can afford the small additional cost, this is the most complete service possible, without finishing the entire bundle. The cost will be found to be considerably below the prevailing price.

A trial will convince you of the merits of this service.
