An air of optimism pervaded and the conviction was expressed that Prince Rupert and district was about to come into its own and better things were in store. The dinner was a great success and the hospitality extended by the citizens was given a large measure of cordial response by the visitors.

COW BAY TO GET WATER

Minister Informs Mayor That Full Sized Main Will be Put in at Once

Cow Bay fishermen are soon to get their long desired water supply and fire protection. On Saturday afternoon Dr. W. H. Sutherland, minister of public works, piloted by Mayor Rochester and President Orme, of the Board of Trade, paid a visit to the bay and the situation was pointed out to him. The minister immediately assured the mayor that a full sized main would be laid right away from Manson Way to the corner near the Georgetown sawmill warehouse. The city will put in a hydrant at this point.

The matter of securing one of the present provincial government buildings on Second Avenue for library purposes was also taken up with the minister by members of the library commission. Dr. Sutherland made no definite promise, but requested that the matter be put officially before him on his return to Victoria so that he could give it consideration.

Bolshevism Cannot Flourish While Country Remains British.

"It used to be that British Columbia House was something of a white elephant. If it is a white elephant I should like to have a whole zoo full of them and that quick," declared F. C. Wade, K. C., agent general for British Columbia in London and the present occupant of British Columbia House.

"In this country we want British settlers, and British capital. It is customary to hear reflections on British idiosyncracies but Canadian peculiarities are just as much open to laugh and jest. The world is better for the existence of the British nation, more than for all influences besides," continued the speaker. A good deal of work had to be done to undermine Bolshevik tendencies. #### NOTED AUTHORESS IS INVESTIGATING HERE

H. Glyn-Ward, Author of "The Handwriting on the Wall" at Skeena Canneries Today

Mrs. Howard, otherwise known as H. Glyn-Ward, author of the problem novel, "The Writing on the Wall," who arrived on Saturday and went to Stewart on the steamer Saturday night, arrived back last evening and this afternoon is visiting the canneries on the Skeena River. While here she visited the cold storage plant and this morning attended the fish auction.

"The Handwriting on the Wall" deals largely with the Oriental question as it affects Canada. Several attempts have been made to suppress it and it has been quoted on the floor of the Houses of Parliament and is becoming already a classic on the matter of Oriental relations.

While here Mrs. Howard is representing the Dominion Government and the Canadian National Railways and is doing magazine work for British publications as well as getting atmosphere or her next book.

Sixty-five persons were rendered homeless by the fire which destroyed the camp comprising the headquarters of fourteen residences.

MAKE SURVEYS INTERIOR ROAD

Hon. Dr. Sutherland Says He Believes Highway up Skeena Feasible.

AN IMMENSE PROBLEM

First Effort Devoted to Giving Access to Farms of the Province.

"The route from Prince Rupert along the Skeena River was in the original plans of the provincial trunk road system when the scheme of federal aid was instituted," stated Hon. Dr. W. H. Sutherland, provincial minister of public works at the Board of Trade dinner on Saturday evening. "I and the chief engineer of the department of public works are now here to look into the matter of an outlet from the interior of the province to this city. Hardly a week goes by in Victoria that your member insists that some action be taken. No survey or estimate of the cost has yet been made. Our aim is to ascertain if the road is possible and, if so, what it is going to cost.

Will Look to North.

"There is no question that British Columbia will look in the future to the northern part of the province. One important way to help the settler is to build roads so that the country may be opened up and developed. I believe a road from Prince Rupert to the interior is feasible but first surveys will have to be made and estimates submitted. Dr. Sutherland stated that, having lived on the main line of the C. P. R., he had always wished to come north, the claims of which portion of the province had been so advocated and drummed into him by Mr. Pattullo and Mr. Manson. They were two very persistent members and from their descriptions he believed there must be a magnificent country here, especially when the immense possibilities of the lumber and pulp industries which were sufficient to keep the mills running and entire capital were realized.

An Immense Problem.

The minister said he had travelled considerably in the last two or three months to study the aims, objects and difficulties of the people. When one realized the area of the province was as large as Oregon, Washington and California put together with enough to spare to take in England, and the population not much more than that of Seattle, it could be understood that the public department presented serious problems. In the province there were nearly 15,000 miles of trunk roads, fifteen to sixteen thousand miles of trails and 60 miles of wooden bridges. It was the endeavor of the department to open up and give access to the great sections of the country. There had been a drive, especially in the south for permanent roads but it was realized that the settlers also had considerable claim. For 90,000 settlers this year there was to be spent $198,000 on trunk roads. The department had applications which would involve the expenditure of five or six million dollars and was spending on new roads, $1,500,000 in addition to federal aid.

To Meet People.

In the places he visited, the minister said, it was his custom to ask the residents to do the talking and he the listening. By

All Logging Closed in South Until Fires are Better Under Control

VICTORIA, July 10.—The forest fire situation on the lower mainland and Vancouver Island is still critical but the wind has died down and it is hoped there will be rain within 36 hours which will check the flames. Already the fire has destroyed approximately $1,500,000 worth of valuable timber.

To lessen the fire hazard, the Lieutenant-Governor has issued a proclamation forbidding logging operations on Vancouver Island and the lower mainland until the menace is checked. The shut down may last for some time unless the dry spell which has continued for an unprecedented stretch of two months is broken by heavy rains.

Many of the settlers from the fire swept region at Merrville are now in Courtenay where tents have been erected and a relief station established.

Premier Oliver returned from the fire zone and has appealed to the public for aid for the destitute. He said the government will co-operate in the restoration of the Soldier Settlement at Merrville.

The situation at Nanaimo has improved, all fires being under control.

NOMINATIONS FOR MANITOBA ELECTION

No Acclamations are Recorded—Elections Will Take Place Next Saturday.

WINNIPEG, July 10.—Returning officers from 53 Manitoba constituencies have collected deposits from 151 citizens and have declared one hundred and forty-six men and women officially nominated as candidates for the legislature in the elections which will take place on July 18, next Saturday. There were no acclamations. The Farmers have forty candidates, Progressives, eight, Government party, 37; Conservatives 26 and Labor 20.

VICTORIA, July 10.—An interesting municipal case is before the city here just now. that means he could find out what was wanted and could then do as much as was possible towards carrying out their desires. What he wanted to do was to meet the people personally and find out exactly what was wanted.

So far he had enjoyed his trip north very much and the only missing feature was that he had been called upon to speak on this occasion.

TRADE BOARD OF VANCOUVER HERE JULY 26

Itinerary of Central B.C. Tour is Received—Various Stops in Interior

The itinerary of the Vancouver Board of Trade excursion, which will pass through this city towards the end of the month, has been received by C. V. Eviit, secretary of the local board. It is not known definitely yet how many will be making the tour but it is likely that the party will be quite as large as that which was here a year ago.

The excursionists will leave Vancouver on the steamer Prince George Monday, July 24, arriving here on July 26. Two special sleeping cars and a special diner will be attached to the outgoing passenger train on the evening of that day and the first stop after Prince Rupert will be Smithers for a day on July 27. A stop of one day will also be made at Vanderhoof, July 28, and three days from July 29 to August 1 will be spent at Prince George. Two special launches will take the tourists down to Quesnel where another day will be spent going from there in automobiles down the Cariboo road to Clinton and Lillooet, at each of which places visits of one day will be made. At Lillooet, the Pacific Great Eastern Railway will take over the party and a stop will be made at Squamish before arriving at Vancouver on August 4.

PROVINCIAL MINISTERS GIVE INTERESTING ADDRESS AT DINNER AT ST. REGIS CAFE

given him. Great was his delight at being able to pilot such a party through this part of the province. Mr. Pattullo, Prince Rupert's own member, had expected to come and had even purchased his ticket and made preparations for the trip. However, at the last minute, he had been prevented from leaving and he had asked him (Mr. Manson) to express his regrets and disappointment at not being able to visit Prince Rupert on this occasion.

Manson's Opening Speech.

"Let me say," said Mr. Manson, "I do not think there is anything more auspicious for Prince Rupert and district than the fact that so many men from all parts of the province are coming with a view to seeing the country and opening it up. We have Mrs. Glynn-Ward, correspondent for journals in the Old Country to which British Columbia looks so much for its capital and settlers. Her presence here is auspicious. Then there is Mr. Stewart, inspector of factories, Col. Davies, director of the Land Settlement Board, Mr. Phillip, chief engineer of the public works department, all of whom are here on departmental business. Mr. Buckley and Col. Baker, whose project on the Queen Charlotte Islands will mean so much to the district, would have been here but for the early departure of their boat. Mr. MacDonald is a private visitor. To Dr. Sutherland I would refer you for the road around the Island and to Mr. Barrow for your agricultural needs. Mr. Wade, the agent general for B. C. in London is also here and he also holds an important office. There are two things that British Columbia needs, capital and agricultural settlers. Mr. Wade was sent to London in 1918 and some had expressed the opinion at that time that he might not be able to fill the position efficiently. However, he has proved himself and has gained the commendation of all, filling his post acceptably to everyone in the province. He has made the province stand out in the Old Country as any other might not have done. He will show you how British Columbia is coming into prominence over there and the splendid and important work that is being done. The presence of these visitors means much for they are here to see the country at first hand. We have the natural wealth and all that is needed is capital and people to make B. C. the banner province of Canada."

Capt. MacKenzie.

Capt. MacKenzie, the next speaker, delivered a short speech tinged slightly with the Scottish accent in his own eloquent manner. The soldier member extended fraternal greetings of the city of Vancouver, which he represented, to the city of Prince Rupert. This was his first visit to Prince Rupert although he had read about it with interest ever since he was fifteen years of age. It had been necessary for him to see it, however, to understand what a tremendous amount of toil and energy was necessary in building the city. It reminded him of the Highlands of Scotland. Prince Rupert citizens had proven themselves hospitable and also aggressive as was indicated by the way in which they had entered in the work of the provincial and Dominion legislative bodies.

"I see a vision of what some day Prince Rupert will be—a city blossoming with prosperity, of great size and beautiful, with ships plying to the Orient and the suburbs stretching to Digby Island. This is not impossible. The day of co-operation both in business and politics is here. Let us sink all our tendencies here tonight and work together towards our development so that we may make the imprint of our province deep and wide in the Empire and our citizens admired from shore to shore."

Hon. E. D. Barrow

Mr. Barrow stated that this was about the first time he had the privilege of addressing a Prince Rupert audience. The city was not famed for its agricultural production but he realized that any city was helped by the production within a reasonable distance of its boundaries. He had been interested in looking over the city and noting the development since 1917. The flourishing gardens of the city had been pointed out to him but he could not help but notice that the best gardens were in the hands of Orientals. Perhaps that was because horticulture seemed onerous to the people here where the harvest of the sea was so large and so profitable. He had been interested in the fish cold storage plant, the largest of its kind in the world, and realized that the fisheries was one of the greatest assets to the city. Prince Rupert had, to a certain extent, been vilified and it was said that there was an unusual rainfall but he had noticed one of those Chinese gardeners using a watering can. This was conclusive evidence that there was not an over supply of rainfall. The large number of schools in the city and been pointed out to him and he had come to the

MADAM SLOAT

PRINCE JUNCTION, N.B., Jan. 22nd, 1920

"For many years, I was a great sufferer from Indigestion, Constipation and Rheumatism. My Stomach was weak and gave me constant distress, while Rheumatism in my joints made me almost a cripple. Was treated by two different doctors but their medicine did me no good.

Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and at once that fruit medicine helped me. Soon the Constipation and Indigestion were relieved and the Rheumatism began to go away, and in a few months entirely disappeared. conclusion that the city must have a large proportion of children for its population.

On Sound Basis.

"East of this city along the line of the G. T. P. lies one of the largest agricultural districts in the province," continued Mr. Barrow. "It is still in an undeveloped state although it is true that considerable strides have been made. The settlement has not been as rapid as many might have wished but it is being carried out on a sound basis. Big colonization schemes have been suggested but as far as my information goes, from what I have read and heard there has been no big scheme carried out except at considerable expense and the country had to be reimbursed by charging the settlers an extra price for the land. I am satisfied that our policy is a really sound and practical one.

"Our scheme for the settlement of the Bulkley, Nechako and Francois Lake valleys is the most practical one we know of. What is holding us back now is the lack of the right kind of settlers. We have no use for settlers with no capital for that class would be too much of a charge on the country. Therefore what we require is the practical experienced farmer with a certain amount of capital. The northern interior offers opportunities that were not offered to the early settlers of the lower mainland. If I were a young man again I would not hesitate to take a chance on the Bulkley or Nechako valleys. I know that the opportunities there are better than were offered in the Fraser Valley in the early days. Mr. Wade has already done considerable publicity work in the Old Country and it has been of value. It is proper that he should make a first hand inspection of the country, as he is doing now, so that he will be better able to give publicity towards getting a proper class of settlers who will make good and increase the production so that we will not have to send large sums of money outside the province and the Dominion for our foodstuffs.

Lumber Stands First.

"Figures for agricultural production in the province, which you do not get through the usual news channels, might surprise you. Last year the value of lumber production was $68,600,000 and agricultural over $60,000,000. Although the lumber figure is the largest now I have no doubt that in two years the value of agricultural production will be the greatest of any industry in the province. In proportion to the development of agriculture in a country is measured by its progress on sound and economic lines. Lumbering and mining industries are more or less temporary while agriculture is permanent and basic. The more we impress that fact, the more interest and the more support the industry will get. I have every confidence in the agricultural industry in this province. We should bend every effort towards increasing our production of foodstuffs.

Fred Stork, M. P.

Fred Stork, M.P., the last speaker, said that it was a great pleasure for him to be back home again. The session at Ottawa had been interesting and, he trusted, a profitable one to B. C. and the north particularly. In his opinion things were on the upgrade as was evidenced by the long list of visitors present. This would be supplemented by visits from Ottawa ministers who would be here in the course of four weeks time. There were many problems facing the country and one of the greatest was that of railway deficit. He had reason to believe, however, that a change in policy was coming whereby deficits would be changed into surpluses and Prince Rupert would come into its own. Whatever we had here we possessed because we had fought for it. Right in Prince Rupert a wilderness had been transformed into the greatest fishing port on the Pacific Coast. Just today we had seen the blow aimed at Prince Rupert as a fish port turned down by the United States congress so the city would remain the permanent and supreme fishing port of the Pacific Ocean.

President Expresses Appreciation

President Orme extended the appreciation of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade to the visitors. It had been more than a pleasure to have them. It was only through such visits that they would become acquainted and he hoped that great good would come as a result.

The banquet closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the giving of cheers for the visitors.

CO-OPERATION FOR KEEPING SETTLERS HERE

Dominion Will Do Its Part And Expects Provinces to do Theirs

EDMONTON, July 10.—Let us keep the settlers after we have them. That is what Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of immigration has to say in regard to efforts about to be made by the various governments concerned.

Mr. Stewart intends to confer with the governments of the four Western provinces to ascertain if the immigration policy of the Dominion cannot be founded upon mutually agreed principles; be operated along lines least conducive to overlapping costs and energies, and have its result insured by making it so worth the while of the settled immigrants that they will not quit the provinces of their choice for other countries.

Special Gathering

While in the West—Mr. Stewart expects to arrange for the first annual gathering of specially qualified and endowed provincial immigration officials at Ottawa he stated. At the annual conferences at Ottawa the entire immigration program for the year will be submitted by the Dominion to the provincial representatives, amended or enlarged, according to the requirements and circumstances of the times.

"The function of the Dominion will almost solely be limited to the securing of the immigrant," Mr. Stewart declared. "Once landed in Canada, the Dominion immigration branches will see to his safe arrival at his chosen destination. Arrived there, he must become the charge of the province."

RUSSIAN GRAIN YIELD HALF OF PREVIOUS YEAR

Tax on Farmers in That Country is About 19 per cent of Production.

MOSCOW, July 10.—Russia's total grain yield for 1922 will be only about one-half the average before the war, the Commissar of Agriculture estimates. He forecasts the total as 2,000,000,000 poods (of about 36 pounds each). This would allow only a little more than one and one-third pounds of bread a day for each inhabitant. To make such an equal distribution, however, would be impossible with Russia's disorganized railways.

The 1922 crop will be small, it is estimated, principally because of the failure of the seeding campaign. Some of the seed purchased in America for the government may arrive in time for use but, up to the present, out of the 19,000,000 poods of seed grain which the government hoped to furnish, only 7,000,000 poods have been received. Much of this, according to the State Plan Commission, which was charged with its gathering, is of poor quality and some absolutely useless.

The unexpected famine in the Ukraine also contributed to the lack of seed and grain.

Tax Heavy.
The government has decided it is said, to fix the natural tax levy this year at 380,000,000 poods, or about 19 per cent as compared with 200,000,000 poods requested but not all secured last year.

The 1922 tax is to be based solely upon rye yield, eliminating special taxes on vegetables, hay, etc., but assessing these products upon a basis of their equivalent value in rye. The produce secured by the tax would be used for government rations feeding the Red Army.

LONDON IS CLOSING ITS PUBLIC HOUSES

Crown on Fleet Street is Largest to Be Removed—Historic Tavern.

LONDON, July 10.—The city justices have scheduled for compensation the Crown publichouse in Crown Court, Fleet Street. It will be closed on the ground of redundancy. The Crown is half-way down a narrow court leading from Fleet Street to Whitefriars Street, and would not be seen by the passer-by if it were not for the sign in the street. It is one of the old taverns where the bullies of Whitefriars, known as "Alsatians," spent their time in the days of the Stuarts, and came forth when called on to resist the arrest of one of their comrades or to fight their neighbors living in the Temple. Sir Walter Scott, in his "Fortunes of Nigel," depicts the bullies rushing from their secret hiding places in the taverns to rescue their leader. The Crown is a noted house for printers, and for over 200 years the license has been renewed without a complaint against it. Another well-known tavern to be closed is the Ben Jonson in Houndsditch, a house that must have been frequented by the dramatist and his friends the Burbages and Shakespeare.

BASEBALL HITS FOR HOME FANS

Stories That Will Make Uncle Abner Say "Holy Hemlock."

The baseball season is in full swing with players alert and fans enthusiastic. Is it a popular sport? Ask Dad, he knows. Baseball has been the American national game ever since 1845 when the Knickerbocker Club of New York City started the world's first organized baseball club. Six years previous, the diamond had been mapped out on paper by one Abner Doubleday. If Uncle Abner could only see the modern evolution of his diamond by visiting a big league park, he would exclaim, "Gosh Darn," or "Holy Hemlock." And, he'd get another thrill, or two or three when he heard the fans encourage the players with their lingo of latest baseball parlance. With the popularity of baseball in the sporting columns of newspapers it is only natural that jokes on the national game should be a hit. Perhaps you can not always get time off to attend the game but you can enjoy a few minutes of baseball fun right here in this column.

Why the Rush?
Fan (arriving late and out of breath)—What's the score?
Friend—Nothing to nothing.
Fan—Good game, eh?
Friend—I don't know; it hasn't started yet.—Boys' Life.
All Balled Up.
May—(watching the game)—Where do they keep the extra bases?
Ray—What for?
May—Well, that man just stole third base.—Topics of the Day" Films.
Fifty-Fifty.
Two girls unfamiliar with baseball were watching the local nine play a visiting team Saturday.

"Isn't that fine?" remarked one girl, "we have a man on every base."
"Why, that's nothing," said the other, "so have they"—Boston Transcript.

Right Isn't Left.
Team Manager Murphy (to raw recruit)—Go out and play right field.
Recruit—(returning, a few minutes later)—By the way, Murphy, I don't know these grounds, where's right field?
"Topics of the Day" Films.
Appearances Deceive.
The biggest baseball star of all is sometimes figured cheesy. And that's because he always makes.

The hardest plays look easy.—Little Rock Daily Times.
Rather Homely!
He—I took in the ball game today and I saw Ruth.
She—Really! What had she on?
He—Four sacks.—Judge.
Ask Doc Maybe He Knows.
May—There seems to be something contagious about baseball.
Ray—Yes — catching.—"Topics of the Day" Films.
For Base Hit.
The woman with a baseball bat advanced ominously.
"Are you the teacher that tore Henry's shirt?"
"Yes."

The woman swung the bat towards the teacher—"Next time he don't behave," she said, "you hit him with this."—Newark News.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gratton and daughter, Agnes, sailed last night on the Prince Albert for Massett where they will spend a fortnight's holiday.

Sport Chat

Related reports from the Interior indicate that Dominion Day was celebrated in fitting style at many of the towns prominent among them being Prince George and Smithers. The streets of the latter place were beautifully decorated and the excellent program attracted many visitors from the outside. The baseball game between Smithers and Telkwa, which was the feature of the day, was won by Smithers by a score of 4 to 3. It was the best game played yet this season between the two towns. Les Lane, formerly of Prince Rupert, pitched part of the game for Smithers.

There was also a large quota of out-of-town visitors in Prince George for the day. The football game in the morning between the Prince George Vets and McBride resulted in easy victory for the former 3 to 0. In a sensational and close lacrosse game, Quesnel won over Prince George 8 to 7. The Brule baseball game failed to fill its engagement and the meeting was cancelled altogether, a mixed team of outsiders meeting Prince George and losing 10 to 0. The parade of floats, field events and horse racing rounded out a splendid and complete program.

Water sports will have a prominent place in the second annual outing of Bulkley Valley people which will take place on Thursday at Round Lake near Telkwa. There will be swimming, diving and boat races and a polo game between Telkwa and Smithers. An auto race and field events will make an attractive list of land sports. Further interest will be added to the picnic in the presence of Hon. Alex. Manson, Hon. Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Hon. E. D. Barrow, F. C. Wade, K. C.; Capt. Ian MacKenzie and other provincial government officials who are to be there.

At the meeting of the Lacrosse players tonight in the Sons of Canada rooms, officers will be elected and a schedule of games drawn up with a view to giving a match every Wednesday evening. All lacrosse players and fans are asked to attend the meeting.

The Sons of England lineup for the football game tomorrow night against the Sons of Canada will be as follows: Stockdale, Lambe, Jack, Ed. Craggs, A. Craggs, Kelsey, Hodgson, Wiggins, Tinker, Mansell, Farquhar, Lewis and Shaw.

MORTE CRAIG BACK AFTER LONG TRIP

Spent Five Months in South and Travelled Over 7,000 Miles—Many Interesting Points Visited

His health completely restored after a trip of some seven or eight thousand miles through the Western States, Morte Craig returned to the city on the Prince Rupert Saturday morning. Mr. Craig is feeling in fine form and says that his severe attack of rheumatism has practically disappeared except in his feet which are still giving him trouble.

Mr. Craig's trip of five months took him to California, Lower California, Mexico, Arizona, Texas, Missouri and other states. He crossed the border to Mexico but did not remain there long. He visited the various springs and watering places of the southwestern states including the famous Excelsior Springs, the home of Jesse James, near Kansas City. Mr. Craig also made a long visit at his old home, St. Joseph, and came direct West from there, spending a fortnight at Seattle and a month at Victoria before returning to Prince Rupert.

Mr. Craig's first work will be to prepare a scroll for presentation to Lord Byng on his arrival in the city.

EDUCATED.

The wife of an army officer was very particular about the looks of her household. It was almost impossible for her to keep a maid in her service more than a few days. Finally she employed a young colored girl, who was very industrious, but had a habit of forgetting certain duties about the house. The mistress believed that she could stop this by a few gentle reminders, and one day, finding a coat of dust on the parlor furniture, called the girl to her. "Annie," she said, "look here. I can write my name in the dust on this table."

RAIN NEEDED AT ONCE IF TERRACE CROPS TO BE SAVED THIS YEAR

F. W. Bohler, Kitsumkalum Rancher, Says Failure Already Apparent on the Uplands

Unless there is rain within the next ten days there will be general crop failure in the Terrace district, says F. W. Bohler, the well known Kitsumkalum farmer, who is spending the day in the city. It is already too late for the farms on the benches but if the much needed moisture comes soon the crops in the river bottoms may yet be saved. Already grain on the higher levels is heading out at 4 inches and the potatoes are hardly coming up at all. On Mr. Bohler's ranch, which is situated north of the railway in the Kitsumkalum River valley, the grain and potatoes are doing well although rain is needed there as well as elsewhere. Three quarters of the hay crop in the district is already in, potatoes and vegetables are depending on the advent of rain but the strawberry crop has practically been a complete failure. Only three or four ranchers in the entire district are having any strawberries to speak of and the most of these are at Kitsumkalum.

Mr. Bohler intends to send his seal exhibit to the exhibition this year and Mrs. Bohler will come down in September to look after it, after it arrived in the city on last night's train and will return tonight.

SMITHERS

Jack Joseph, who purchased a Ford last week, has the distinction of being the first Indian in the district to own an automobile.

A congregational reception was held on Thursday night in the Smithers Methodist Church in honor of the new pastor. Short addresses were given by Rev. W. C. Mawhinney, of Telkwa, J. B. Cousins, of Bonstun, Rev. M. W. Lees and Dr. J. H. White.

The second annual picnic for the Bulkley Valley hospital will be held on July 30 at Lake Kathleen. A big program is being prepared and a great attendance is expected.

It is now too late to save the hay crop in the Bulkley Valley and estimates of the production here this year run about a third of the normal crops. In several places there will be a better yield but, as a whole, the crop will be light and short while many fields will not be cut on account of the poor growth. The drought of several weeks is the cause.

Charles Black, an old timer of the district, returned last week from Oklahoma to look over his property here. He is accompanied by Mrs. Black.

Charles Reid, J. H. Hetherington, T. A. McMartin and L. B. Warner made the 140-mile trip to Old Woman Lake last week on a fishing expedition. In Bulkley Lake they had a fair measure of success but low water was a disadvantage.

Phil Hoskins has returned to Fort Saskatchewan after having spent a brief holiday here with his parents.

od is reached, she stands on the threshold of marital happiness, convinced that life is well worth the struggle after all. Unique in theme, the picture has many little ironical twists that lay bare the sham of society and arouse sympathy for the girl who is thrust out into the world to battle alone against its vicious elements. Every advantage has been given the production in the way of sets and photography, and it is evident that both the director and the cast worked diligently and sincerely to keep the play true to life in every detail.

RAN TO MEET WIFE BUT MET WITH SHOCK

One of Wonderful Scenes in "The Lotus Eaters" Gives Idea of Play

Jacques Lenoi ran rapidly up the stairs of his villa on the shores of the Mediterranean. He had been cruising in search of his health, but now joy was uttermost to him. There was not only his wife to see; there was the little stranger who appeared since his departure and of whose event he had been informed by wireless. He had not sent word that he was returning, for he wanted to surprise his wife.

His appearance shocked the maid, who turned involuntarily toward a closed door. Lenoi walked toward it eagerly, but the maid sprang in front of him as if to prevent him from entering the other room.

He thrust her aside, but at that moment the door opened and Lenoi's wife, carrying a tray, backed out of the room, banter on her lips. Lenoi stood as if petrified at the sight he beheld within the room.

As his wife turned and saw him the smile froze on her face, the tray dropped to the floor and she shrieked. Lenoi sprang toward her with clenched fists, but his arms dropped impotently to his sides. Sudden determination clouded his face and, seizing a pistol, he aimed it at the persons in the other room.

Galvanized into action, his wife sprang in front of him.

"I love him; don't shoot," she pleaded.

There was agony on Lenoi's face as he lowered the pistol. Then he hurled the weapon upon the floor, brushed his wife aside, and seizing his young son, hurried to his yacht. Then began one of the strangest cruises in history, for it was twenty-five years before his son left the vessel or beheld the sight of a woman.

Thrilling incidents, like this crowd "The Lotus Eater," starring John Barrymore and personally directed by Marshall Neilan, which is to be seen here this week.

Neverwéd—So you've named your little boy after yourself? How can you tell which one your wife is addressing?

Longwood—You heard her call "Peter, darling"? Well, wait till you hear her yell for me.—Pontiac Daily News.

NEW FERRY FOR VICTORIA ROUTE

Travel from Washington to Vancouver Island necessitates Improved Service.

VICTORIA, July 10.—So great has been the travel between Vancouver Island and the mainland by way of the new automobile ferry which was started this year, that it has been decided to operate the ferry all winter and to have a fine new fast ferry boat built for next year that will carry forty cars at one time.

The ferry was put on at the instance of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and Development League, arrangements being made through the secretary, George I. Warren. The Victoria people paid the cost of advertising the route. They put up signs painted on circular saws every mile between Vancouver and Seattle along the highway. On Saturday last one ferry boat handled 40 cars and 310 passengers and the following day 33 cars and 293 passengers and the smaller ferry carried 24 cars on Saturday and 34 on Sunday.

The ferry lands the passengers from Anacortes at Sidney, about twenty miles from Victoria. Formerly the business was handled only by the C. P. R. boats and the Port Angeles steamer with the result that hundreds were disappointed at not being able to cross to the Island.

MINISTERS VISITING NORTH MINING CAMPS

Were at Stewart Yesterday and at Anyox and Alice Arm Today

After having spent the day in the city, the provincial government ministerial party, joined by Fred Stork, M.P. for Skeena, sailed Saturday evening by the Prince Rupert for Stewart. At Point Ramsden, where Observatory Inlet and Portland Canal meet, the launch "Awake," belonging to H. F. Kergin, M.L.A., was awaiting, and the member for Atlin joined the party and proceeded with it to Stewart. Returning yesterday afternoon to the "Awake," the whole party disembarked from the Prince Rupert and were taken to Anyox and Alice Arm, which points are being visited today. It is expected the party will return to Prince Rupert tomorrow from the north by the Chelohsin, leaving on the evening train for the interior.

Bolshevism was that something would happen which would lead to the destruction of the British race. They knew as long as the British race was to the fore Bolshevism could not succeed. None of the reptilian influences would succeed.

Source of Revenue. Mr. Wade went on to tell of British Columbia House, which he took hold, the rents amounted to $30,000 a year. Now the rental values had doubled, and the rent was paying the sinking fund and interest and was furnishing the Canadian representative and his staff for the country free of cost. When the sinking fund was paid off, the building would be a source of revenue.

The speaker told of the work done by the institution in interesting capital, emigration and settlement. One of the most important was getting British firms to do business with Canada direct instead of through American firms. Transfer of the Admiralty orders to Canada was also important work. There was yet the mercantile marine, however, that was buying United States timber when it should be buying Canadian.

Appreciative of Rupert. After telling of all the work they were doing, Mr. Wade spoke appreciatively of Prince Rupert, "The Gateway by the Sea," which was unequalled anywhere in the world. The driveway to Prince Rupert's palace was bordered by a chain of mountains, making a most stately gateway. There was no such water passage anywhere in the world and it should be a material asset. There was an unequalled pass through the mountains, while the twentieth century was for the Pacific Coast and especially SANTAL MIDY Easy to Take—Quick to Relieve CATARRH of the BLADDER Each Capsule bears name MIDY. Beware of counterfeits.

Canada, it was peculiarly for the Pacific Coast of British Columbia. Nine-tenths of the British possessions were on the Pacific. Development was pending greater than any ever known in the history of the world. In this development British Columbia must take a seat at the table while the game was being played. With her waterpower, fuel, and iron, B. C. had all the cards to back everybody off the map when the betting was raised to the chandlery. The question was had we the sinew, the brains, the intelligence and the energy to develop the country?

Need of Immigration. Mr. Wade went on to tell of the redistribution of population that was going on. The war had saved the empire but it had not saved the people. While Great Britain had the people, Canada had the resources. Until a few years ago the Imperial Government refused to do anything to aid emigration. Today they were offering to pay fifty per cent of the cost. Immigration to Canada meant success. The latest proposal of the minister of immigration for the Dominion was that the Dominion Government should get the people into the country and the provinces should care for them on their arrival. He urged that steps along this line be taken. Dissatisfied immigrants did a lot of harm. He told how settlers were looked after in Australia.

In conclusion Mr. Wade said it was necessary to have immigration as a matter of protection. They wanted to keep this a white man's country but this could not be done unless white people were brought in. At the present time Americans were financing the industries and American immigrants were overflowing the border. If British Columbia was to remain British and Canadian the time had arrived to realize that danger menaced and the country could not afford to ignore it.

PRINCE GEORGE Lieut. A. M. Blackburn, of Winnipeg, who is taking part as a member of Canada's team in the Bixley Shoot this year, is a brother of R. J. Blackburn, the well known local rancher. Miss Evelyn Moffatt, of Kuesnel, is here visiting her brother, Alec Moffatt. Mrs. R. A. Renwick and daughter arrived last week from Victoria and will spend the summer here with Mr. Renwick. Their new house has just been completed. Mrs. John Bronzger and daughter have left for Vancouver where they will visit with Mrs. Bronzger's mother, Mrs. Dryden. Jack Wilson, son of City Solicitor Wilson, has been successful in passing his law examinations and will be called to the bar in October. Rev. Arthur Barner, superintendent of missions for Canada, preached in the morning at the Methodist Church yesterday and Rev. J. H. White, superintendent of missions for B. C., in the evening. There was an especially good attendance at the latter service. Mr. Barner sailed last night on the Prince Albert for the Queen Charlotte Islands and Dr. White on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver.

Forty persons went out with a Girl Guides' camping party, under Mrs. Robertson, this morning to Warner Bay, Digby Island where a fortnight will be spent.

ALL HE SAW. A sharp-tongued, red-faced lawyer was cross-examining a witness as to his sobriety. "You were seen," he began, "entering the Spread Eagle as soon as the doors were open or soon afterwards?" "Yes," replied the witness, "but not to drink." "What object had you in view then?" asked the lawyer. "The only object I had to view, sir, as I went in was yourself coming out."—Houston Post.

BULGARIA MUST HAVE A REAL DEMOCRACY That is the Advice Given the King by Premier Stamboulsky

SOFIA, Bulgaria, July 6.—"The people of Bulgaria do all the work, and therefore they should have the dominant voice in its government," Premier Alexander Stamboulsky said to the correspondent of the Associated Press who questioned him as to Bulgaria's future. The occasion followed the recent peasants' congress, when Stamboulsky warned King Boris he could reign but not govern, and that if the intellectuals secured control of the government a republic would be declared. "The present tendency of the world," continued the leader of the Agrarian party, "is toward democracy and rule by the people, as you have it in America. Old Bulgaria with its tyrants and oppressors is dead. The people now rule. It may be that Bulgaria one day will have a republic, and if so we shall make King Boris its first president. He is a very democratic, modest and earnest young man, and I think he would like the job. He is held in great affection and esteem by the people and would have their entire support."
