TURKS NOW DEMAND EVACUATION BY ALLIES REPUBLICANS LIKELY TO RETAIN SLENDER CONTROL OF REPRESENTATIVES

Serious Crisis Still Exists in Near East; Said to be Easing Up

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The situation between the Kemalists and the Allies at Constantinople continues to be very serious but without new developments according to the latest messages received by the Foreign Office from the Near East. The attitude of the Angora government has been growing steadily stiffer of late. It is said to depend largely on whether the Lausanne Peace Conference is to be held as originally scheduled or postponed. French observers fear hostile moves by the Turks and disaster if there is a delay in holding it. Such a delay, they aver, would be interpreted by the Angora assembly and the Kemalist army as a sign of hostility against the Turks and an indication that the Allies did not intend to live up to the Mudania armistice conditions.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The situation in Constantinople is described as "somewhat easier" in a message received today by the War Office.

The only official reference to the Near East crisis today was made by Lord Curzon, speaking in London. He said that Britain would not purchase peace with Turkey at the cost of humiliation and disgrace. He said that he, as Foreign Secretary, had warned the Kemalists that they were headed for disaster by following their present course.

Italian Standpoint

ROME, Nov. 9.—Premier Mussolini has telegraphed the Italian High Commissioner in Constantinople stating that he favored a united front by the Allies regarding Turkey. The premier announced the sending of a message to this effect at a cabinet meeting. "Turkey has beaten Greece but she cannot claim to have defeated the Entente," he declared.

Demand Evacuation

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 9.—The Turks have cut the cables on the Turkish side of Chang and refuse to permit a British company to repair them.

Meagre details getting through show that a very real crisis exists between the Turks and the Allies. The Kemalists are insisting on the evacuation by the Allies of the peninsula as far as police, customs and censorship are concerned.

It is expected that the Allies will declare martial law.

STUART DOLLAR LOSES RUDDER

SEATTLE, Nov. 9.—The freighter Stuart Dollar, enroute from Vancouver to Yokohama, lost her rudder 1500 miles out and is now proceeding slowly back to Seattle rigged with a jury rudder. She carries some of the lumber which was sent out recently on the Empress of Australia and which was brought back to Vancouver when that vessel became disabled in mid-Pacific.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Home Office has intimated to the promoters of the Siki-Beckett fight scheduled for December 7 that the contest will not be allowed to take place. The agreement calls for twenty rounds for the European heavyweight championship. The Home Office believes that a match between the white and colored man is against national interest and would tend to rouse passions which it is undesirable to stimulate.

CENSURE WAS VOTED DOWN

Bowser's Obstructive Tactics
in Legislature Failed
Late Last Night

VICTORIA, Nov. 9.—With a large majority of 13 to 25 the legislature last night voted down what was intended for a vote of censure on the government in regard to its land settlement policy particularly in its relation to the soldier settlements of Merville and Camp Lister. An amendment to the address was sprung late last night by J. A. Catherwood, member for Dewdney, as an obstructive measure engineered by Hon. W. J. Bowser, leader of the opposition. It was debated at length and the division took place at 2:15. Independent members having in the meantime gone home and the press gallery being almost deserted.

The Attorney-General already has 20 bills before the House.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, and H. F. Kergin, M.P. for Atlin, are speaking this afternoon.

MAN CRAZY TO SELL LIQUOR

Says Fred Dubord in Course of His Trial for Selling Through Servant

A man is crazy to chance a six month's sentence in selling liquor to make fifty cents. Fred Dubord, manager of the Commercial Hotel declared in the police court this morning while he was being examined by the crown counsel on a charge of unlawfully selling liquor through his servant at the hotel on October 12, to two constables.

M. Gonzales, appearing for the defence, after the evidence had been given, asked for a dismissal of the case on the grounds that his client was not responsible for the action of his employee while he himself was out of the city. On the motion of T. B. Hooper appearing for the crown, argument was reserved till Saturday morning.

During the trial which took place before Magistrate McGlynn, both counsel indulged in considerable cross-fire. Mr. Hooper contended that the defence had much the easier time in attending to such cases while Mr. Gonzales looked at the matter from an entirely different angle. The crown contended that the defence was a "einch" at which Mr. Gonzales retorted that the crown counsel's job was "apple pie."

The chief evidence centered around Ernest Colombe who was arrested and convicted for selling liquor to Constables Dixon and Harrison of the Provincial Police at the Commercial Hotel on October 12 last. The crown contended that Fred Dubord was liable for this offence inasmuch as he was proprietor of the hotel and Colombe was working for him.

Chief of Police Vickers on the stand stated that he had seen Colombe in the hotel working around but could not swear that he was employed by Dubord. Constables Dixon and Harrison told of buying the liquor from Colombe for which they paid 50 cents each.

When Dubord was ordered on the stand by Magistrate McGlynn, he stated that he was in Terrace from October 7 to 18, and that he had not left any liquor in his room which Colombe occupied during his absence.

PRINCE GEORGE, Nov. 9.—The Aleza Lake mill was destroyed by fire at noon on Friday. University Buildings Are to be Erected at No Charge to Province

Minister of Legislature Deals with Educational Matters in Speech Before Legislature

VICTORIA, Nov. 9.—Hon. J. D. McLean, minister of education, yesterday explained in the Legislature that the University buildings which it was proposed to erect at Point Grey, Vancouver, would cost the people of British Columbia nothing, but would be financed from the sale of lands from the university section at Point Grey. Dr. McLean's speech followed an announcement made earlier in the day by the Premier that the University buildings would be erected.

The minister of education defended the University and spoke of its high standing. He told also of the poor condition under which its 1200 students had been carrying on.

Dr. McLean also defended the school system of the province and its cost. He objected to any plan for centralisation as being contrary to the spirit of the times. It would be dangerous to place in the hands of any government the control of appointment of school teachers and their payment. There was no place he knew of where the school boards were committees of the city councils. He did not propose to experiment along this line. The municipal councils had not conducted affairs in such a way as to give confidence in their ability to have charge of the schools. Many public utilities were not paying their way, sinking funds had been tampered with and debts were increasing. The cost of the schools did not amount to as large a sum as the interest on the debts of many cities. If the province took over the schools and operated them and the cities kept their present revenue more taxes would have to be levied. The suggestion came from those who did not understand or appreciate the problems of taxation. The schools of British Columbia cost less than the most of others in Canada.

The Jamieson logging camp, situated at the head of Massett Inlet, has commenced operations and is at present employing some fifteen men which number will be augmented as the season advances. The logs which this camp are taking out are for the Massett Timber Company. Between seventy-five and a hundred men are working at the Massett Timber Co.'s plant, which is managed by F. L. Bekley, in preparation for lumber cutting operations. Representatives of the company are visiting lumber mills in Alaska with a view to procuring additional lumber cargoes for the schooners which will ply between Massett and Los Angeles.

Mr. Deasy says the crossing from the islands was exceptionally fine, the weather being particularly clear. He will leave for Victoria on a business trip by the Prince George tonight.

TWO MINUTES SILENCE ON ARMISTICE DAY IS REQUESTED BY MAYOR

The acting mayor requests that all business as far as possible be suspended for the stated period to give solemn observance to the occasion.

COMPLETION OF P. G. E.

Also Its Extension Into Peace River Urged by Perry, Member for Prince George

VICTORIA, Nov. 9.—H. G. Perry, member for Fort George, made a telling two-hour speech in the legislature yesterday urging the continued operation of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and the extension of the line to Prince George. He went into the matter in detail and produced arguments to show the economy and desirability of completing and operating the line to connect with the Grand Trunk Pacific. He told of the tourist attractions of the lower section and the agricultural and timber resources of the other sections. Only forty-five miles had to be completed including the Cottonwood River bridge which would cost $500,000. If the line were abandoned the interest on $1,800,000 would have to be paid annually with no returns.

Mr. Perry also urged the extension of the line into the Peace River Valley to relieve the settlers already there. If the railway were not built the question of compensating settlers should be considered.

Effect Of Collapse Of Mark On France.

It is already becoming evident that the next reparations crisis will occur before the Allies have matured their plans for dealing with it, says the Manchester Guardian. In fact, the trouble has already begun. The further collapse of the mark has dismayed not only the German government, which has passed an emergency decree in order to arrest it, but the Reparation Commission and the Paris press. Every fresh fall in the mark has its repercussion on the franc, makes the ultimate receipt of indemnities more shadowy and remote, and gives further unwelcome evidence of the necessity for a prolonged moratorium. None of these things would be bettered by an invasion of the Ruhr or by any other measure of coercion. On the contrary, the mark would be driven down still faster. But they are all damaging to France, and the demand that she should retaliate forcibly gives natural outlet to resentment which is all the keener for the belief, almost universally held by Frenchmen, that the depreciation of the mark is a matter of deliberate German policy. The danger is that if France should be driven to despair of getting substantial money payments out of Germany her advocates of military aggression will have things all their own way. But that danger is probably not imminent. The French government is committed to the holding of an inter-Allied conference, and, a semi-official statement shows she still adheres to that policy. This conference will not take place for over a month, but whatever happens to the mark in the meantime the French government is unlikely to take the bit between its teeth.

New York Paper Eulogizes Canadian Business.

The New York Herald, commenting on the fact that "the Canadian dollar is taller now by a fraction of a cent's width than the dollar of Uncle Sam," declares it is natural that Canada should be proud of this fact as it is only a short time since Canadian currency was at a discount of 16 or 17 per cent. in United States money.

"The change registers a story of prosperity and sound business conditions of which any country would have a right to be proud," continues the Herald. "Several things have combined to bring about this happy state of affairs.

"In the first place Canada has turned an adverse balance on international trade into a favorable balance, and, of course, the very foundation stone of foreign exchange is imbedded in foreign trade balances.

"Again, Canadian Government and industrial loans have met very hospitable receptions in American money markets, with the resultant flow of large sums across the border.

"Large amounts of money have been spent in Canada by boot-legging outlaws. A substantial boost to Canadian prosperity came from these two sources.

"American motor car tourists have contributed to it importantly. In the last twelve months 600,000 American motor cars crossed the border into Canada. On the basis of an assumed seven day trip and the expenditure of $25 a day for each car it is computed by Canadian statisticians that the total of American money thus left with our neighbor reached upward of $100,000,000. This is not a staggering amount, to be sure, in these billion dollar days, but it is a tidy sum.

"Canada may well be exultant over the recovery of her currency."

"I Was Terribly Weak After Baby Was Born"

Mrs. H. McClure, Norwood, Ont., writes:

"After my baby was born, I was terribly weak and run down, with pains across my back. I had heard so much of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that I decided to try it. Three boxes proved enough to make me quite strong and well again. I also used Dr. Chase's Ointment for a rash which broke out on the baby, and the rash disappeared completely in a short time."

GOVERNMENT IS QUITE STRONG

Review of First Week of Session
Indicates Solidarity of Party

LITTLE REAL OPPOSITION

Conservatives Not Behind Their Leader in Policy of Petty Bickering

By H. F. Pullen.

VICTORIA, Nov. 5.—The general impression obtained of the first week of the session from those who attended and listened to the proceedings was that the Government is today stronger than it has been since the last election. There was an absence of that cross purpose bickering among supporters of the Government which marred the effectiveness of the Government during last session. All are in one accord in matters of policy and it looks as if the Government was good for another three years, also there is evident here a feeling of optimism in regard to the by-election to be brought on before very long in Vancouver.

There has been a great parade of opposition on the part of W. J. Bowser, but the rank and file of the opposition has not shown any of that hostility which has characterized the attitude of the leader. Any opposition has been of a constructive nature rather than destructive.

At the opening of the session Premier Oliver asked that the old custom be adopted, the same as that in the Dominion House where the mover and seconder of the address in reply to the speech from the throne spoke first and they were then followed by the leader of the opposition and the Premier answered. This proposal was refused by Mr. Bowser, so Government members refused to speak and the opposition members had it all their own way.

Tiring of this Mr. Bowser delivered his address and the Premier followed and then came the Attorney General. At the time of writing it was expected that the debate would last until about Wednesday of this week and that the budget speech would follow close after.

A number of bills have been introduced, mostly by the Attorney General, and some of them advanced to the second reading. The plan adopted this year is to bring down all the bills and let them lie on the table long enough to be considered by the people in every part of the province so that suggestions may be made in regard to possible amendments. This gets away altogether from the rush system in vogue a few years ago under which the most important bills were brought down in the dying days of the session and speeded through with scant consideration.

Bowser Ineffective
The speech of Mr. Bowser seems to have had little effect on his followers. None of them followed his lead. In fact there is a feeling that all is not well within the opposition ranks. There is a lack of that solidarity that is necessary to success. One thing lack of that solidarity that is necessary to success. One thing the Conservative party must learn before it can hope to succeed and that is to agree upon a policy and stick to it. There must be unity of purpose in the party, else the people will never have confidence in it.

John Oliver's reply was not by any means a masterpiece, but the evident reason was that there was so little in the speech of the leader of the opposition to which to reply. It is impossible to reply to aimless innuendo and street gossip.

GRANBY COMPANY HAS REDUCED ITS COSTS MATERIALLY

Year's Operations Showed Profit
As Against Deficit of 1920

Granby Consolidated has materially cut its operating cost and the outlook for this property is bright, says the Financial Post. Present costs for copper run 9.50 cents per pound as compared with 11.63 cents in 1921 and 15.94 cents in 1920. Last year a profit of $12,838 replaced a deficit of $687,000 in 1920. Production last year totalled 29,967,051 pounds of copper. Production in the first half of 1922 was at the annual rate of 25,000,000 pounds. Production through the latter half of this year will probably total 15,000,000 pounds, as the company does not intend to increase output before completion of the new dam unless there is a material increase in price of copper. With present equipment Granby could produce about 50,000,000 pounds of copper annually.

Granby is mining from 15,000 to 85,000 tons of ore monthly at Anyox, where it is employing about 1,500 men doing considerable construction work in connection with Hydro-Electric installation. New storage dam for impounding water should be completed in three months. The use of Hydro-Electric power will enable the company to decrease the cost of producing copper one-half to one-third of a cent a pound. Diamond drill work is meeting with good results, and ore in sight is fully as large as at the first of the year. At that time estimate reserves of high-grade ore in sight were 10,181,527 tons of 2.34 per cent copper.

Will Sell Coal

Granby produces its own coal, mining about 25,000 tons monthly from its property on Vancouver Island. Most of this is used in supplying the Anyox smelter and mill. Some is sold commercially. After the completion of the Hydro-Electric plant Granby's coal will be used for making coke for the company's blast furnaces, and the surplus sold. The Granby have bonded the George Copper property, which consists of 20 claims situated on the south side of the Bear River, some 20 miles from tidewater at Stewart; extensive diamond drilling is planned.

There are three veins on the property traceable for a thousand feet or more; the veins, aggregating 10 ft. of ore, average gold $1.00, silver 30c. per ton, copper 3 per cent.

Canada and United States Asked to Join in Norwegian Project

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—(By Canadian Press)—Canada is to be asked to participate in an international project for the establishment of a chain of weather stations along the Arctic circle. The scheme has been launched by Prof. Eckerold, one of the foremost weather-experts in Norway, who is now in Washington interesting the U. S. Weather Bureau in his plan. The Arctic stations, experts say, would increase the period for making accurate forecasts from one week to two—in other words, double the efficiency of the weather service.

G. V. Eville, secretary of the Board of Trade this morning received a letter from Hon. Dr. J. H. Sutherland, minister of public works at Victoria in connection with the Board's resolution for a highway around Kaien Island. OXFORD CONSIDERING COURSES FOR MIDDLE AGED STUDENTS NOW

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Jolly old chappies of four-score years and ten, frolicing on the Oxford playing fields, and dodging septuagenarians lolling in cushioned punts on the upper reaches of the Thames, may become realities if the plan for the entry of the old as well as the young to the famous English university is carried out.

The suggestion is that a college be established for adults, as Ruskin College was established for the education of men from trades unions. Such a college, it is pointed out, would be a haven of refuge for extra mural activities of the university, and would enable many adults to carry on studies which they started under the extension course idea, and which they have been unable to complete.

SETTLERS FROM INDIAN FORCES

Major F. Yeats Brown Touring Canada Looking for Opportunities—Will Write

To gain first hand information to be used in connection with a series of articles which he is to write on Empire settlement, Major F. Yeats Brown, of the 17th Indian Cavalry, Indian Army, who passed through the city yesterday is making an extended tour of Canada. In conversation yesterday afternoon with Daily News representative, Major Yeats Brown made some interesting explanations in connection with the actual purposes of his tour and the results which he hopes may accrue from it.

"Canada is indeed a land of opportunity and it is my opinion that any man with a little capital and energy should make a success of some line here," declared the major. He was quite taken up with the possibilities of entering the fishing industry in Prince Rupert and had many inquiries to make regarding it.

Major Yeats Brown has been 17 years in the service of the British Army in India and expects to be discharged from the permanent staff next year. Then he will be looking for opportunities himself. He returns from Canada to England and hopes that he will not have to go back to India. "I would like a white man's country and Canada looks good to me. It is better than South Africa where one has to wear a helmet on account of the heat and Australia which, while being a land of opportunity, is rather far detached from the centres of culture and education."

In the course of his military career Major Yeats Brown saw service in Europe in the Great War and was for two years a prisoner of the Turks. Speaking of the Near East situation, he said that if war did break out with Turkey, it would likely be not so much a war of actual battles as gradual starving out of Turkey and Allies and the process would likely be long—not less than five years. Canada, set back much already on account of the Great War, would suffer tremendously from such a war as the one impending. The major expressed the feeling that Britain would have to bear the brunt of such a war without France or the United States while Turkey would have allied with her Russia and Austria.

"For my own part, I am hoping that war does not break out till spring. This tour is a fine one and I would not like to have it interrupted."

BRINGING UP FATHER

Basketball and How to Play It
By Observer

TRAINING CLUBS

Regular Habits

The first and most important basketball training rule should be the observance of regular habits. Eat heartily, but eat at regular hours. If you have a game in the evening, eat the heartiest meal of the day at noon. If not, have your dinner at night. Lunching between meals should be strictly avoided. Plenty of sleep is required, bedtime being rarely ever later than 10 o'clock. There must be no dissipation.

Regular exercise, including runs, swinging clubs, dumbbells, work with pulley weights, setting up exercises that require co-ordination of hands and feet, will be a big factor in helping you not only to keep fit but to develop speed and endurance.

Players usually enter the season with plenty of enthusiasm and determination to make the team. A wise captain will make use of this enthusiasm and never let his men go stale. Plenty of short, snappy practices are O.K. but never let your men waste their time on the floor. Never let them stay out so long that they get careless. Nothing kills energy and enthusiasm so quickly as living in the gym. Pull them into the showers while they are still keen to play.

The first two weeks should be spent in drill work, ending with light practice. Throwing, catching and shooting should be thoroughly mastered by every member of the squad first of all.

Should a player go stale during the season, take him out of the game for a week or more. Even though you feel that you can not afford to have him on the bench, it is better to use a substitute for one or two games than to have a regular who has lost his enthusiasm. This rest will be like a tonic to him and he will return to the game with renewed vigor—and with the experience of having watched the team play from the outside point of view. Watch, however, that he does not overdo it on his return.

Sport Chat

The Prince George city council is preparing a toboggan slide for the use of the kiddies this winter. At a meeting last week the Fabie: Once upon a time an editor said to a poet offering a little poem: "Give it to me immediately. I'll pay you five dollars a line" for it. Thank you very much for bringing it in. Send us all you can write."—Aesop's Fables.

city fathers of the town approved the use of Connaught Hill for the purpose and decided to give assistance in putting it in shape. The west side of the hill will be used and the sleds will run down the hill and out on to the slough. Action was taken by the council following representations made by a committee consisting of G. W. Ferry, F. Saunders and D. G. Fraser. Ald. Bunton was named as a member of the committee which will have charge of the slide during the winter.

Vanderhoof is to have a new skating rink this winter. The matter was the main topic of discussion at a meeting of the Athletic Association of that town last week. J. N. Dezell is to build the rink with the financial assistance of the Association. Arrangements are being made to secure a central location and the work of construction will start almost immediately.

Hockey is now being taken up actively by various towns in the interior this winter. The proposal of Prince George that a league comprising several of the towns up the line be formed has been received with general support. While the difficulties of transportation caused by the distances between the towns may make a hardship and prevent regular games it is likely, however, that there will be a goodly number of inter-town games in the course of the season, anyway. Prince George, Vanderhoof, Smithers and Hazelton will be the principal points of competition.

ALICE ARM

Mrs. Chas. Gustafson left on Monday last for a holiday trip to Seattle.

Angus McLeod has been spending a few days in Prince Rupert.

Constable A. Dryden, of Anwoy, spent a day in town last week.

Elmer Ness returned on Monday from Hyder, Alaska, where he has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bunting. While in Hyder, Mr. Ness met a lot of friends of former days.

The snow fall during the week has stopped all government trail work and the boys are all in town.

Fred Miller, who has been logging down the inlet all summer, has secured a contract from Tretheway Bros. for two million feet. The logs are to be in the water by June 1.

A number of energetic citizens have been busy digging the skating rink pipeline ditch. They have also built a box to carry the pipe across a depression.

Mining engineers have been exceptionally busy in the hills during the past few weeks. The results of their work will be apparent next summer.

J. Murdoch, who had his leg crushed at the Esperanza mine last January, has returned home from Anwoy hospital quite recovered.

Frank Hicks, of Port Clements, arrived on the Prince John this morning on a business trip.

PRETTY WEDDING TOOK PLACE LAST EVENING

Miss Viola Maud Becker becomes the bride of Sydney James
Fraser

A pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. G. G. Hacker at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Bayne, Biggar Place, at 8:30 last evening when Miss Viola Maud Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Becker, Seventh Avenue, West, was united in marriage to Sydney James Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus John Fraser, Stratford, Ontario. The residence was prettily decorated for the occasion and there was quite an assembly of friends of the contracting couple present to witness the ceremony and attend the reception which followed.

In giving evidence accused said that Blackie Taylor, Clarence King, Jim Gurvich and herself were at the house on the morning of October 9. In reply to questions put by Mr. Patmore, accused stated that Taylor came to her house between 10 and 11 a.m. and had been in the house about half an hour when Gurvich came. They were all in the kitchen. Accused was cooking a meal. The boys were talking about different things. Taylor had called to see King about a logging contract and wanted some money to enable him to go ahead but she did not pay much attention to the conversation.

At this juncture, on the request of Mr. Patmore, accused pointed on the rough plan of the premises showing exact places at which the three men sat. The kitchen door had been open with a chunk of wood. While the accused was busy in the kitchen someone knocked at the door and she opened it. Two strangers then walked in and asked if they could get a drink to which she replied that she did not keep any booze there. One of the men had leaned over and said: "You can give us a drink anyway." They afterwards went out. Accused said the two men were Constable Dixon and Harrison.

Denies Allegations
Mr. Patmore—"You heard what these two men said that you went into the kitchen at least three different times and brought out liquor."

Accused—"I had the fry pan on the stove and went back to it Bond, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fraser, and we had something to eat afterwards."

Mr. Patmore—"You heard M. Remillard, Mr. and Mrs. W. what the two 'stools' said this morning about you going into the kitchen and bringing in a tray with liquor on it. It that true?"

Witness—"No, sir."

Witness continuing said that she did not know much about whiskey and did not remember the brand Ushers although she took beer with all her meals. She remembered the day was Monday, October 9, particularly because the stores were closed on Sunday and extra men having come in to eat, she found it necessary to go out early in the morning and get some more food in.

Never Seen Whiskey

Cross examined by Mr. Hooper accused said that upon hearing the knock at the door she had gone and opened it admitting the two strangers.

Mr. Hooper—"Have you seen any Usher's whiskey?"

Witness—"Not to my memory."

Mr. Hooper—"You do drink whisky now?"

Witness—"No."

Continuing in reply to questions put by Mr. Hooper accused said that the men had taken something to drink that morning having helped themselves. The whisky stood on an open shelf covered by a curtain. As she had not been watching them she could not say how many drinks the men had. Accused had never been in the habit of turning strangers away and generally listened to what they had to say. They had asked for a drink but were told that she was not in the booze business.

Mr. Hooper—"Why did you not send them out? Was it a common occurrence to have strangers in the house?"

Witness in reply said the two men had followed her up to the table.

Liquor Vendor
The next witness called was W. Miller, government liquor vendor. He said he knew Clarence King. From business documents in his hands witness said that King had bought whisky on October 9, but he could not swear whether it had been in the morning or the afternoon of Oct.

ALEXANDER CASE HEARD

Judgement Will be Given by Magistrate on Monday

The hearing of evidence in the case against June Alexander, charged with selling Scotch whisky, was continued in the police court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate McDermott. Evidence was given by the accused and by W. Miller, Government liquor vendor, as to the quantity and name of liquor purchased between September 19 and October 9. The case was adjourned until Monday morning when judgment will be given.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding dress of white satin with an overdress of pale blue georgette and veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Mary G. Reid, who was bridesmaid, was charming in blue georgette with a bouquet of pink carnations. The two pretty little flower girls, Miss Janie Becker and Miss Marjorie Bayne, wore white frocks and carried baskets of white baby chrysanthemums. W. E. Becker, brother of the bride, was groomsman.

After the marriage ceremony had been performed, there was a reception. Refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in, the entire evening being one of much pleasure and enjoyment to the thirty or forty friends who were present. Many presents testified to the esteem in which the contracting couple are held.

Mrs. Fraser is well known in the city having resided here for some time and having spent the past three or four months with Mrs. Bayne at the Lakeida Lake camp. The groom is a mechanic and has resided in Terrace and Prince Rupert. The couple intend to take up their residence in the city and in the meantime, are staying at the Prince Rupert Hotel.

The guests at the wedding reception included Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Bayne, Miss May Reid, E. W. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. G. Westaway, H. Walburg, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eastman, Mrs. and Mrs. R. J. Duncan, Miss Mamie Dohm, Miss Bond, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fraser, Miss Verna Becker, David Eastman, Mrs. A. Greenman, Miss E. O. Fulton, Miss Luu J. Montgomery, Miss Elsie Kenney, Mrs. R. M. Bond, Miss Edith Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Becker, W. G. Watson, Reginald and Robert Bayne.

TERRACE WELFARE LEAGUE REGULAR MEETING TUESDAY

TERRACE, Nov. 9.—The Terrace Welfare League held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. The topic of Bible study for the devotional period was "The Baptism of Jesus." Later in the evening a very amusing series of impromptu speeches was given on a wide range of subjects drawn by lot. It was interesting to hear a benedict speak on the joys of Bachelor Life and a young bachelor give a sage address on Matrimony.

Later all joined in singing a number of popular songs and Mrs. Sundal gave one of her popular recitations.

The meeting closed with the singing of "The Maple Leaf."

Others in the cast are Henry Barrows, Gertrude Short, Lillian Leighton, Clarence Geldart,
