PREMIER FORECASTS LIQUOR LEGISLATION

IRISH BILL HAS PASSED COMMONS AND IS SENT ON TO HOUSE OF LORDS

EDITORIAL

NEED OF A ROAD AT PRINCE RUPERT.

A few days ago the member for Fernie made a great play in the Legislature about the need of a road in his district. Probably he is correct about the need, but is he aware that there is a town of six thousand inhabitants, the distributing centre for Northern British Columbia and the centre of the British Columbia fishing interests as well as the mining centre for the north country that has never yet had a dollar spent on its roads by the provincial government and that is unable to drive a car one foot beyond the city limits? If Corbin needs a road, surely Prince Rupert needs one and needs it badly.

There never was a city the size of Prince Rupert treated so badly as it is in the matter of roads. The McBride Government commenced work on one just before the election on which it went down to defeat, but it commenced miles from nowhere and today it is almost impossible to find the place where a huge sum of money was spent—it was in fact a scenic highway and was not designed for utility purposes, such as is the road now being asked.

Good Work Done

While recognizing the good work being done by the Oliver Government in opening up roads in the interior for the benefit of the farmers, part of which will be a section of the Skeena River Highway and also recognizing the great need of the farmers and the settlers in the outlying parts of the district, there comes a time when Prince Rupert must look after her own interests and that time has now arrived. She must have a road. The owners of automobiles have been paying out large sums annually for auto tax yet there is not a foot of road over which they drive except that which is made and kept up by the city. It is an anomalous position and one which we feel sure will be rectified.

Prince Rupert has been very patient. There has never been any desire on the part of the citizens to embarrass the Government or to try to take precedence in public works when they saw the need of the settlers in the farming communities. Northern members are fully aware of the situation and will back Prince Rupert's request. Now that the Legislature is in session is a good time to draw attention to the need and to ask that work be commenced on the road this winter at a time unemployed are seeking work. Kain Island is not held in the grip of the frost at this time of year as is the interior and men can work in the open quite well. The work being part of the main transcontinental highway may well be aided by the Dominion Government. It is badly needed and we look to see justice done in this regard.

THOSE WHO CARRY ARMS TO SUFFER PENALTY OF DEATH

DUBLIN, Nov. 30.—The Free State government is continuing its policy of carrying out the death sentence on rebels who are captured while bearing arms. Three men were executed today, one for the possession of a revolver and the other for carrying bombs.

Expected That Treaty Provision for Ireland will Proceed Smoothly

LONDON, Nov. 30.—Irish bills providing for the ratification of the Anglo-Irish treaty were given their third and final readings and passed unanimously by the House of Commons yesterday after a brief debate. Last night they were sent to the House of Lords where they received their first reading. No obstacles are expected in the higher chamber and it is expected they will pass next week without amendment.

Laborites took the stand in the discussion that this was the government's chance to atone to Ireland for wrongs done in the past.

DE VALERA ATTEMPTS AN ESCAPE

According to Despatch From Dublin in London Evening News

LONDON, Nov. 30.—It is reported that Eamonn de Valera is attempting to leave Ireland for America. A despatch to this effect from Belfast is contained in the Evening News. The leader of the Republicans is reported to be in hiding in the Carlingford mountains overlooking Greenore from which point there is a daily boat service to Holyhead. An attack by the Republicans was planned to attract the attention of the Free State authorities and allow De Valera to slip out of Greenore.

ESLING CHARGE IS SERIOUS ONE

Premier Oliver Says it Will be up to Legislature to Judge on Rossland Member

VICTORIA, Nov. 30.—Premier Oliver said in the legislature yesterday that the charges laid by W. K. Esling, member for Rossland, were very serious. He stated that he himself had been charged with collusion in robbing the people of the province in connection with the letting of contracts by the Northern Construction Co. on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. If the member for Rossland could not substantiate the charges it would be for the House to say whether he would remain member.

+ GASOLINE TAX MOOTED AGAIN
+ VICTORIA, Nov. 30.—A delegation is urging on the municipal committee of the legislature the adoption of the three cent gasoline tax, one cent to go to the city. It is not likely, however, that the suggestion will be adopted. Such a tax would injure the Prince Rupert fishing business.

DEAD MAN FROM PRINCE RUPERT

Mutilated Remains Found on Track Near Rose Lake Believed Those of N. Tarvainen

SMITHERS, Nov. 30.—The engine crew of the eastbound passenger train last Sunday morning made a distressing discovery when they found the badly mutilated remains of a man on the track about four miles west of Rose Lake. There was nothing more to identify the deceased than a Prince Rupert club card found on the body bearing the name of N. Tarvainen.

An inquest was held at Smithers on Monday by Coroner S. H. Hoskins and, in the absence of witnesses to the accident, a verdict was returned to the effect that the unfortunate man had come to his death while stealing a ride on the westbound train. The train crews were fully exonerated from all blame.

GRANBY CO. MUST KEEP ITS SHARE REGISTER IN B.C.

Important Judgment Affecting Many Companies Made by Mr. Justice Murphy

A judgment affecting British Columbia companies whose register of shareholders is kept outside of the province was rendered last week in Vancouver by Mr. Justice Murphy when His Lordship decided that the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co. must keep its share register in B.C. and not in New York. The case arose some months ago when the Granby Co. refused to change the registration of shares bought by G. M. Oliver Co. Ltd. The shares in question were bought by the Oliver Co. at sheriff's sale following a judgment obtained by R. P. Williams against M. K. Rodgers, the original owner of the shares.

C. J. Benson Passed Away at General Hospital in Southern City Last Saturday

SMITHERS, Nov. 30.—Much regret is expressed at the sudden death in the Vancouver General Hospital last Saturday of C. J. Benson, of Smithers. Mr. Benson was a well known resident of this district and left Smithers only a few weeks ago to attend the mining convention as the representative of the Smithers' Mining Association.

Mrs. G. W. Cole, of the Drum Lummin Mine at Hartley Bay, left here last night for Brockville, Ont., to visit her parents.

KING GEORGE IS PRISONER

Situation in Greece is Perilous—Allies Make Further Protests

PARIS, Nov. 30.—King George, of Greece, is practically a prisoner in the palace at Athens following his desperate efforts to prevent the execution of ex-ministers on Tuesday. The trial of Prince Andrew, the King's brother, on a charge of disobeying the orders of the General Staff, begins soon. The safety of the Royal Princess is insecure.

The British admiral in charge of the Greek situation and Italian diplomats, possessing decorations given by Greece, have returned these from Rome stating their abhorrence of the execution of the ex-ministers.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—An Athens despatch says that Generals Papoulias, Doumanis and Valtetas have been arrested.

No Beer Clause nor Plebiscite this Session but Many Changes in Liquor Act to be Introduced

VICTORIA, Nov. 30.—Premier Oliver has definitely announced that there will be no beer clause this session and neither will there be a plebiscite.

Amendments to the Liquor Act by the attorney general, if expected, will lower the price of liquor permits from $5 to $2, and beer permits from $2 to $1.

The government will also be given power to reduce the number of members on the Liquor Board.

Another amendment is designed to make warehouses illegal and increase the cost of export licenses to $10,000.

Grants to hospitals will be made direct to the hospitals on the basis of number of patients treated.

Interdicted persons must also have no liquor in their possession.

Terrace was Visited with Two Fires on Tuesday Last; Three Houses Destroyed in Flames

TERRACE, Nov. 30.—The houses occupied by A. L. Yargeau and Robert Donald were destroyed by fire on Tuesday afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock and the residence of W. F. Lindsay had a narrow escape. All three houses were owned by Mr. Yargeau.

The fire broke out in Mr. Yargeau's house and quickly spread to the one adjoining occupied by Mr. Donald and his family. From the first it was apparent that neither of the two houses could be saved and all the efforts of the fire fighters were concentrated on saving the house fifteen feet distant occupied by Mr. Lindsay. After an hour's fighting the blaze was brought under control.

Mr. Yargeau lost everything including all his cash and over $200 worth of tools. The Donalds were able to save all their furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay, who removed all their effects to safety, decided to move immediately to the house recently built by Mr. Gordon which they had already rented. Mr. and Mrs. Donald moved into the vacant house.

Kilmartin Fire

The fire, which destroyed Paddy Kilmartin's buildings, broke out about 3:30 Tuesday morning. The alarm was given a few minutes after the fire commenced and the town turned out to fight it. Owing to the efforts of the fighters, the blaze was prevented from spreading though the neighboring buildings had a very close call. A cabin owned by O. T. Sundal and occupied by Mr. Lawrence was also burned.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The building was unoccupied, Mr. and Mrs. Kilmartin having left for Prince Rupert on Monday's train.

DAWSON MATTER IN LEGISLATURE

Attorney General Tables Correspondence and Asks Mr. Stevens to Correct Injustice

VICTORIA, Nov. 30.—Attorney General Manson has tabled correspondence in the legislature between himself and Hon. H. H. Stevens relative to the Liquor Board and the Dawson beer charges. Mr. Manson, in a letter, states that Mr. Dawson's integrity is beyond reproach and that even Mr. Bowser is satisfied that Mr. Stevens was wrong. Mr. Manson further said that he had offered Mr. Stevens complete reports with a view to having him correct the injustice done Mr. Dawson.

One Hundred and Fifty Fine Specimens Placed Temporarily in McClymont Park

On the recommendation of the City Engineer, the board of works in the early part of this year decided to purchase some ornamental trees for planting on the boulevards of certain streets in the city and in McClymont Park. Owing to the order being late, shipment could not be made from Victoria until the present date. The shipment came through the City of Victoria parks' nursery and comprise horse-chestnut, mountain ash, elms, catalpas, kauriains, hydrangeas and pillar roses, 150 fine specimens in all. They will be transferred to the cemetery and planted in a nursery ground until spring when they will be permanently set in their proper location.

Democracy Not Yet A Success.

Democracy is not yet a success. It is so new that success can hardly be expected. It is evolving but evolving slowly. Here in this city we have a city council which no one would venture to suggest had been wholly a success. We have a school board which has not been wholly above reproach. Down at Victoria they have a Legislature which is, with all due respect to it, not the wisest body that could be imagined. Across the ocean we look at the mother of parliaments and we find there, too, that things are said and done which do not always seem to be in the best interests of the country. A good king or governor or manager could administer the affairs of the respective areas with much greater economy, efficiency and general success. Yet we do not want to return to absolute rule of any kind. It is not democratic.

Just Learning Science Of Government.

We are just learning the science of government, and we are all novices. Now and then we think we see some better method and get out after it, and very soon we find it is not any better than the one we discarded. The human equation comes in every time. The Government is as good as those who govern and no better. Those who govern are about as good as the people who elect them, little better.

Just a few years ago in Russia the people thought they could solve all the ills of mankind by instituting a soviet government or government by committees and this soviet was to be made up of workingmen only. Others were discarded. Very soon it was found that this would never work. In place of it was established a bureaucracy which carried on by means of the sword and this is the form of government still in force in Russia. Practically all the fine theories have been discarded and there is a gradual return to individualism going on there.

We move in circles or perhaps it would be safe to say in a spiral for with each change there is improvement. Government as a whole today is much better than was governmental fifty years ago, and we expect great improvements in future.

Power Of Money In Any Administration.

Money talks today as it always did. That is one reason why certain groups of workingmen would eliminate money altogether, imagining, poor fools, that, if currency were abolished, the ills which money seems to bring would also disappear. The power of money is seen in the efforts made by chiropractors to secure recognition at Victoria. These men have been earning good money for some years and they are willing to spend some of it to secure for themselves a position which they think is their's. They have made a good showing but without money they could have done very little.

We see the same in the liquor and beer agitations. Money has been talked. The big profits of the beer and liquor business are coveted by those anxious to carry on the business. The big interests never sleep and never stop working for their own ends. Those reformers and others who have the public weal at heart work spasmodically. They tire. They are influenced by all sorts of motives and eventually the power of money is seen in city councils, in legislatures and in parliaments.

Futile Efforts At Economic Changes.

There used to be a great many revolutionary socialists whose theory of economic determination led them astray. None of these took account of the human factor. There are still a few, but as people become educated they realize that economic changes have to be gradual if they are to be effective. They also realize that no one country could have a socialist system of government and at the same time hold its own in the competition of nations. Most people today, too, are realizing that until people change a great deal the financial impetus is necessary in order to make us work. So many of us are just as lazy as we dare be. It is only when we are working to get something or to secure some position that the majority of us do any work, yet without work we should deteriorate.

Development lies in steady improvement of legislative systems and gradual education of the mass of the people. It is going on all the time. When we get a condition under which any man is ashamed to be idle and sponge on his neighbor, then we can expect better conditions of government.

"When I began taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I was so nervous that when I picked up a cup of tea my hand would tremble like a leaf. I could not sleep well, could not remember things, and there were neuralgic pains through my body. After taking seven boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am in perfect health."

INDEPENDENTS SCORE BOWSER

Menzie and Burde Object to Falsifications for Political Advantage

VICTORIA, Nov. 30.—The independents had their day at the close of the debate on the budget. They sat silent throughout the debate until almost the end and then they opened out on W. J. Bowser and the other critics and let them see what attempts to make party capital at the expense of truth would not be to the advantage of their cause.

Thomas Menzie, of Comox, was the first. He had received a copy of the Comox Argus with the report of the speeches at Courtenay of W. J. Bowser and J. W. Jones in which the condition at Merville had been criticized and misrepresented. He also told of another Conservative speaker who had misrepresented the condition in the interior in regard to roads.

The member for Comox told the House of the work the Premier had done in connection with the fire at Merville after which an address of thanks had been sent him from the Merville relief committee. Mr. Menzie stated that a serious injustice had been done the Premier by the opposition members.

Mr. Bowser had also attacked the Government and stated that liquor had been purchased by the Vancouver whiskey ring at twenty shillings and sold to the Government at forty shillings. He asked sarcastically that this scandal be cleaned up and also at the same time that wicked place, Vancouver.

Burde Removes Gloves

R. J. Burde, the popular and spectacular member for Alberni, went for the leader of the opposition without gloves over the criticism of the Industries department. This was a department with which Mr. Burde was thoroughly familiar. He told of the work of the advisory council and showed that in every case the people who borrowed came to them because they could not borrow at the bank. No one could consider the risks commercially sound. He scored Mr. Flumerfelt for resigning his position on the council and said that while there had been some failures there were a great many successes. He would like the leader of the opposition to commend the returned men for their executive ability and hard work instead of indulging in petty criticism. Opposition had come from others who were financially interested in the future of the scheme.

The department was created at a time when there was need of doing something to allay the returned soldier unrest and if this had been done at a cost of a million dollars the money was well spent. It was like the leader of the opposition to send out misleading reports and try to injure the credit of the province.

Although Mr. Bowser had been disappointed in his political career he owed it to the people of the province to keep its credit good even if doing so meant saying something good of the government.

SKEENA SALMON PACK LARGEST

Outclassed All Other Districts in 1922 and More Than Doubled Fraser

Skeena River outclassed all other districts for the quantity of fish packed this year, more than doubling the Fraser River and being nearly fifteen times greater than the pink pack on that river.

The total pack of sockeyes in all districts ran to 290,423 cases for the year 1922, according to official figures issued by W. D. Burdis, secretary of the B. C. Cannery Association at Vancouver.

Of this quantity the Skeena River canned 100,667 cases; Fraser River, 48,744 cases; Rivers Inlet, 60,509 cases; Nass River, 31,277 cases; Vancouver Island, 18,235 cases, and outlying districts, 39,991 cases.

In other fish Skeena river districts packed fancy springs, 7,080 cases; standard springs, 5,591 cases; white springs, 1,805 cases; steel heads, 1,050 cases; cohucks,

Specialist Said ECZEMA Was Incurable

but he reckoned without Zam-Buk

Writing from Sweetwater, Tenn., U.S. Capt. Oscar V. Petty, says:—"For four years I had an obstinate dry eczema. My skin peeled off, and disfiguring splotches of the eruption appeared on my face and head. A well known skin specialist said the eruption could not be cured, but friends out in Maine got me to try some Zam-Buk. To my great delight I soon saw an improvement.

The peeling skin stopped within a week. At the time I started with Zam-Buk the eczema had spread all over my body, so that it took reasonable perseverance for the balm to be thoroughly effective. However I am delighted to inform you, that now, by the use of Zam-Buk, my skin has been restored to normal healthy condition." "I have a friend who also suffered from a similar distressing skin affection. In his case, too, within a few days Zam-Buk was acting splendidly. He tells me that Zam-Buk beats anything he has ever known."

Zam-Buk cannot be equated for sores, boils, abscesses, piles, ringworm, furuncles, warts, and all sorts of warts and cutaneous parasites, etc. Price, $1.25. FOR TRIAL SAMPLE mention paper and postage to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

Turnbull's PERFECT FITTING RIBBED UNDERWEAR

"The Ghost Breaker," which was shown at the Westholme Theatre last evening, with Wallace Reid as star, proved to be a genuinely entertaining picture. The story starts off with a succession of thrills, the action moving from feuds in Kentucky to castles in Spain, with a joyous, happy-go-lucky interlude in New York city. The sequence of ghost episodes, which occur in the Spanish castle, are one size-alternation of laughter and thrills and the ending, as happy as it is sudden, will send you home in an amiable frame of mind.

Lila Lee is charming as the Spanish señorita. Walter Hiers, playing his first black-face role, has nothing better to his credit than his interpretation of Rusty Snow, the negro valet. There are other popular players in the cast, all of whom acquitted themselves with credit. The picture will be shown again tonight.

Sport Chat

"Many hunters returned unsuccessful," says a news report commenting on the hunting season, though in this district good bags have been obtained. No real hunter ever is unsuccessful. He may not bring game back to the city, but he returns a better man physically for his outing. There is more to hunting than the killing of game, just as there is more in fishing than catching fish. The stay-at-homes giggles insanely when he sees an angler or hunter trudging home at twilight with empty creel or bag, but the laugh is really on him.

The true sportsman delights in the game rather than in the score.

A full creel or a well-filled bag is his trophy of success. But he knows that no man can hope to win all the time and he is quite content when he returns empty-handed, for he has had healthful recreation and has communed with nature in a manner that only the outdoors man knows. He has learned new lessons from creek and trees, from fish in the streams, from animals in woods; he has smelled the sweet odors of the forests. He has found:

"Books in the running brooks,

Sermons in stones,

And good in everything."

There is no such thing as an unsuccessful hunting trip.

Hockey clubs are being organized for the winter in the interior and preparations are being made for an active season at the popular sport.

"I Was Run Down"

"Body was completely covered with Boils"

"If you have ever had boils, you know how painful and annoying even one or two can be. But imagine having your whole body almost entirely covered with them! I am a watchmaker by trade, making a specialty of repairing the highest grade movements. This is probably the most trying of any mechanical work, particularly for a nervous individual like me. Working under great strain both day and night for three months, brought me almost to state of collapse. I was so irritable and nervous that the slightest thing would send me up in the air! If I managed to get a few hours of sleep at night I was lucky. I had no appetite for food. I certainly was miserable. During this time boils began to appear on different parts of my body and the pain from them made life a misery. My suffering was so great at times that I felt there was nothing left for me to do but to end it all. I consulted doctors but they all told me that if I didn't give up my work and live out of doors, I would go into decline. As I had no money I couldn't do this. In fact paying doctors' bills and buying medicines used up all the money I made. Finally in desperation, I decided that I would either kill or cure myself, so I began to study my case. I realized that I was a complete run down as any one could possibly be with a bad case of nerves. What I needed was building up. After reading descriptions of different preparations, the one which appeared to be the best for me was Carnol. It has simply performed miracles for me. Four bottles have done more than months of travel abroad. I feel like a two-year old. I sleep eight hours every night and eat three good meals a day. My skin is like a baby's, free from blemishes of any kind and I have now almost forgotten that I have ever had such things as nerves. I want everybody who is ailing to know about Carnol, because I have such faith in it I believe it will cure any human ill."

Mr. J. H. Mc. C. Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money."

It is far better to be turning over a new leaf financially than to be turning over new collateral.

MORE EVIDENCE ASSAULT CASE

Hearing of Witnesses in Flewin and Kevis Preliminary Hearing Continues

More evidence in the case of Clarence Flewin and Raymond Kevis, charged with attempted murder of R. Boyd Young at Port Simpson on September 11, was heard by Magistrate McMullin in the county court yesterday afternoon and this morning.

Mr. Young was put on the stand again yesterday afternoon after testifying in the morning. The first thing Mr. Patmore, counsel for the defence, asked for was the statement made by the witness to police officers shortly after the crime. Mr. Hooper, for the crown, demurred in giving it to Mr. Patmore but said he would on the understanding that it would be put in as evidence.

"Nonsense! A man does not have to put in as evidence everything that he sees," reported Mr. Patmore.

"I do not want to give an undue advantage to the defence," remarked the crown. Mr. Patmore then asked the witness if he had given a signed statement to the police.

"I just put a cross to a statement which was dictated by me to Corporal Newnham in the hospital. I was blind at the time," he replied.

"Were you in your right senses at the time?"

"I was."

Statement Produced

Mr. Patmore said to the court: "Now I want to see that statement."

"I don't want to block the wheels of progress and I want to give the prisoners the benefit of a doubt but the question is to me whether I should let the defence see it if it is not put in as evidence," Mr. Hooper replied.

Magistrate McMullin then said that the only way would be to put it in as evidence. Mr. Hooper maintained it was the property of the crown but handed it over to the defence adding that he would reserve the right to persist in his statement later if he saw fit. The statement was put in as an exhibit.

Reading from the statement Mr. Patmore asked the witness why he had said the last thing he remembered was somebody feeling in his pockets. Witness stated that it was the last thing of the assault he remembered. He felt somebody going into his pockets of his vest. He added that he always carried his wallet in his coat pocket but this time he had put it in his hip pocket because he had been working in the store previous and had wanted to keep it on his person.

There was $200 in cash and some cheques in it at the time. The defence then questioned him again about his final recognition of Flewin and was informed that he was lying in the ditch at the time kicking at him.

William Tait

William Tait, an Indian of Port Simpson, was called next. He said he went to Ryan's store about 9 p.m. and remained there for about three-quarters of an hour. On his way home he passed near Young's store and saw two men 100 feet away from him. One was talking and the recognized Flewin's voice. He said he had known Flewin for a long time. He also recognized the other man pointing to Kevis in the prisoner's box. In answer to a question from Mr. Patmore, witness stated he had no doubt it was Kevis because he had been going around with Flewin all the time.

The next witness called was Joshua Ryan. He told of Tait coming in and staying about five minutes. At ten he locked the store and stopped to talk to Wilfred Booch outside. He saw two people coming across the bridge toward the mainland about 15 feet away and recognized one as Flewin. Mr. Patmore questioned him strongly on the point of telling Bert Flewin that he might have been mistaken but the witness said another man had said it was not Flewin but he was satisfied in his own mind that it was. He also stated he had heard shouting but thought it was the Indians from Naas River.

Sure of Flewin

"You were not sure it was Clarence?" repeated Mr. Patmore.

"I was sure," I said," replied the witness stoutly.

SIMPSON CASE IS CONTINUING

Several More Crown Witnesses Were Examined in Court Today

More evidence from prosecution witnesses in the case of Clarence Flewin and Raymond Kevis charged with the attempted murder of R. Boyd Young, was heard in the provincial police court this morning before Magistrate McIsaac.

Clarence Watson, fifteen years old and a school companion of Flewin, told of a threat made by the accused Flewin two years ago in connection with Boyd Young. The witness and accused were standing outside the postoffice at Port Simpson in February, 1920, when Flewin said he would "beat up" Boyd Young if Bert Flewin would pay his fine.

Mr. Hooper, for the crown, asked Watson if he had ever had any conversation with the accused in which Young's name was mentioned. L. W. Patmore, for the defence interjected, to ask if the witness knew the meaning of an oath.

"Do you understand what it means?" queried Mr. Hooper.
"Not to tell lies" came the reply.

"If you do tell lies what happens?"

"I will go to jail." "What other punishment have you heard of in church if you tell lies?"

"I will go to H——," responded the witness.

Doctor's Evidence

Dr. A. E. Friend, who examined Mr. Boyd Young after the assault, told of finding that his skull was fractured and that he had a hemorrhage. Young was in very decided danger for two months, witness said and there would be a risk for some time to come.

Miss Winifred E. Jennings told of leaving the Boys' Home
