DELEGATE RETURNS FROM CAPITAL

Olof Hanson Tells of Fine Reception at Ottawa; Good Result Expected From Trip

"There is a possibility of coal bunkers, grain elevator, daily train service, assembly wharf and harbor improvements being started here before very long," declared Olof Hanson, a member of the Prince Rupert delegation to interview the Dominion cabinet ministers, who returned to the city on last night's train. "The delegation was given a good reception and although the cabinet ministers, all of whom were interviewed personally, were non-committal and would make no promises, we could read between the lines that they were favorably inclined towards Prince Rupert and Skeena district, and especially towards the requests for projects that are really needed. There is no doubt that some good will come out of the mission."

Mr. Hanson, who was in Ottawa for ten days himself, said

Stewart Will Be Lively Place.

Captain Anderson confirms other information received recently to the effect that Stewart is likely to be a lively place this season. There are a great many properties changing hands, much development work is to be done and, what is better still, there are several mines that will ship ore steadily in addition to the Premier. In view of these developments it will be well for Prince Rupert to keep her eye on Stewart and to aid her in any way possible in attaining that degree of prosperity her resources demand.

Interest in Sport Is Taken Here.

It is wonderful what a lot of interest is taken here in the sport of the world and especially in the hockey games now being played. The Daily News makes an endeavor to provide the news along this line, getting special telegraphic despatches every day in regard to sport events in order that local readers may keep right up to date. While these despatches must necessarily be brief, there are few outlying points that get as good a news service in the matter of sport as that supplied here. Whenever there is a big event on, the telephone brings many queries as to the result of the matches.

Speech From Throne Is Comprehensive.

The speech from the Throne delivered at the opening of Parliament yesterday indicates that the new Government at Ottawa intends to grapple with some of the big questions of the day this session. Such matters as the extension of Canadian markets, reduction of railway rates, co-ordination of the national railway system, immigration, re-establishment of returned men, reorganization of the militia and naval departments by the formation of a department of defense, tariff revision and the appointment of representatives to the Genoa conference are all matters in which the people are interested. They provide plenty of scope for the activities of this Parliament and another to follow.

This first session under the Mackenzie King administration will be watched with particular interest for the progress of the country, the future of the nation and the standing of Canada in the eyes of the world will be largely affected by the result of this first session of Parliament under the new administration.

Canadian Eggs for Canadian People.

The new minister of agriculture is taking an interest in eggs. Representations have been made to him in regard to the importation of Chinese and American eggs. The matter has been brought to Mr. Motherwell's attention by the Ottawa Poultry Association, and after investigation Mr. Motherwell has issued the following statement:

"With respect to the importation of foreign ungraded eggs, more particularly of Chinese repute and origin, and of which we have heard well-founded complaints recently, it is freely admitted that our present regulations governing the admission of these goods into Canada fall far short of maintaining the high reputation and public faith that has gradually been built up in the growing quality of our egg trade.

"Having regard to the fact that uniformity and quality more than ever, especially in respect to such food products as eggs and butter, will be the determining factor in the securing and retention of the most lucrative markets, not only the interests of the Canadian producers but consumers also must be properly safeguarded in the purchase and importation of goods capable of much deception and of such variable quality and healthfulness as eggs admittedly are.

"Before putting the amended regulations into force the produce trade has asked for an opportunity to be heard, and this, properly enough, has been granted. In the last analysis, however, it is the man who produces the egg, and the man or woman who eats it, who are the chief parties concerned, and when these new anticipated regulations go into effect it is not expected that any further complaints will be heard of Chinese eggs invading our market places and houses under the guise of something else."

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

SPRING is often slushy but think of spring poetry and you forget it.

AMONG the things that get me riled is being called up on the telephone to discuss what the Man in the Moon forgot to say last week.

TALK is cheap everywhere except at Ottawa. Now the talk fest is about to begin.

THE young lady who remarked "I have flu" was corrected by the man who always declares schoolteachers know no grammar. "I have flown" is the correct expression my dear."

THE price of beef is said to be stiffening and yet the board bills keep as low as ever. The injustice of the thing!

THE man who believes the world is flat also should hold that things are on the level.

ACCORDING to Captain Jimmie Stewart is the real bit of gold just now. They say that is where the Cap. is usually found, around where the gold is.

THERE is one thing about that speech from the throne made yesterday at Ottawa: it conveys about as much information as is usual on such occasions, perhaps more.

ONE informative item in the speech was to the effect that Canada had not escaped the world-wide industrial depression. It was good of the Governor to tell us that else we might not have known it.

JIMMIE GALBRAITH LIKED AUSTRALIA

Writes Two Interesting Letters to His Mother, Mrs. J. Galbraith, This City.

Mrs. J. Galbraith, of this city, mother of Jimmie Galbraith, who sailed from here as deck boy on the Canadian Britisher, has received a couple of interesting letters from her son. The letters were sent from Sydney and Melbourne and tell that Jimmie is enjoying the life of a sailor immensely and finds that it was of great benefit to have been connected with the Naval Brigade here. Australia is a fine country and the lad has seen many interesting things there. From Australia the ship went to Japan.

There was a strike of the crew at Melbourne for money and they were kept without food until they came to this. Of course, did not affect the cadets or the officers.

THREE SPOKE ROTARY CLUB

Hotel Keeper, Contractor and Banker Address Weekly Gathering.

There were three interesting addresses at the Rotary Club Luncheon yesterday, the speakers being Mayor Rochester, S. P. MacMordie and S. J. McLeod of the Royal Bank. Each spoke along the line of his own particular work.

Mayor Rochester said the hotel keeper used to be looked up to generally with respect. Then came the legislation which made all bars out in hotel rooms and this lowered the tone of them all. For this the Government of the day was responsible. A good hotel he considered was the best and best asset a city could have.

To operate a hotel successfully required a great deal of experience. Many started well but later went to the wall. Leaks occurred. One of the most important features was to keep a place clean. With cleanliness people were willing to overlook a great many things.

A hotel keeper learned to judge people, the mayor said. He told of guessing that some girls who were strangers here were school teachers because a telegram they sent showed they were unable to spell.

Mr. Rochester told of the manner in which guests made off with towels and various furnishings of the rooms including occasionally a comforter. People who were usually honest seemed to think it was all right to steal from a hotel.

Colonel McMorde.

Colonel McMorde told of railway construction in France during the war. He said it was still true that an army travelled on its stomach, more true than it was 100 years ago when Napoleon had remarked it. Out of an army of a million, there would be only two or three hundred thousand fighting men, the rest were engaged in feeding the others and getting them supplies of various kinds.

Railway construction was a big problem in France during the war. The railroad was built to within from 6 to 15 miles of the line of trenches and beyond that light railways were employed. These had to carry food and supplies, take back the wounded and bring up reinforcement and also to be used in moving troops from one point to another parallel with the front line.

The first light railway had been built in the Ypres salient by an officer detailed from his battalion. This was successful and as a result hundreds of others were built like it, even sometimes right to the front line trenches. The splendid roads in Europe did not stand the strain of heavy military traffic.

Among the railway troops the casualties were only from three to four per cent a month and everybody kept in good humor. In double tracking they could build about four miles a day. When the railways were built the operating companies kept them going. The grades varied up to six or seven per cent. The Colonel spoke highly of the efficiency of the railway troops and said if men in civil life would do as much work as they did, it would be easy to make a fortune. He had seen a 1,000 foot trestle built in ten days.

Civilian contracting was a different thing. It today was usually conducted by an engineer instead of as formerly by an aggressive foreman. Machinery was used wherever possible.

Banking.

S. J. McLeod, manager of the Royal Bank told of the difficulties of banking. He spoke of the importance of care in making loans. Bank managers learned to put their fingers on the weak spots in a business. Applications for loans were usually referred to the head office if they were large. They had to keep in mind first the honesty of the applicant, next the ability to make good and the statement of affairs of the prospective borrower. He gave instances of difficulties encountered in the business.

THE COUGH with that Ticklish Sensation

A little tickling in the throat; now and then a dry, hacking cough; you think it is not bad enough to bother about, but every hack makes a breach in the system, strains the lungs and prepares the way for more serious trouble.

How many people have lost a good night's rest by that nasty, tickling, irritating sensation in the throat? The dry, harsh cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all.

DR. WOOD'S
NORWAY PINE SYRUP is just the remedy you require to stop that irritating, tickling cough on account of its soothing, healing and expectorant properties.

Mrs. P. Johnson, Port Alberni, B. C., writes: "I have suffered for years, off and on, with a tickling cough. I could not sleep nights and had to sit up in bed to get relief. In fact, I coughed so I used to vomit. I tried different doctors' prescriptions until I heard of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I tried it and found great relief after I had taken the first bottle and have not been troubled since. I shall always keep it in the house."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Price, 35c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dr. W. T. The satchel had been cut open and all the contents were intact with the exception of a small supply of drugs which had been removed.

The police suspect that the theft was committed by a drug addict and a man was arrested yesterday in connection with it.

FIXING RESPONSIBILITY

Nothing escapes the scientists of the Mellon Institute when they analyze the cause of wear on laundered fabric. Even the unsuspected clothes line is questioned as to its responsibility.

Here, as is often the case, that supposed friend of the housewife, is found to be quite culpable.

Expert tests have shown that clothing exposed for 24 hours on the clothesline, has suffered a loss of 2 per cent.

This explains in no small measure the almost universal failure of lace curtains just below the line of the opened window sash.

By this test, the laundry industry is vindicated, and we are shown that after all, even the home laundry process has its imperfections.

We do not use clothes lines in our process, your clothing is thus saved this 2 per cent loss, which may be even greater here when such high winds prevail. This service is at your disposal.

Canadian National Railway New Ocean Dock at This Port Will be Finished by End This Month

The contract for the building of the superstructure on the new Canadian National Railway ocean dock here, the biggest single dock of its kind on the Canadian Pacific coast, will be entirely finished by the Simmons Construction Company of Winnipeg by April 1. The work is now being rapidly pushed to completion and there only remains to be done the placing of sashes and doors, the putting on of the roofing and the finishing of painting and glazing. In fact, the glazing work is already about three-quarters finished and the painting has commenced. The staff of workmen engaged on the job has been reduced from as high as 50 at one time to 25, this number including painters, glaziers, plumbers and carpenters.

The contract of the Simmons Company includes all the superstructure work. After they are finished the fire protection system and the iron work, such as travelling cranes and elevators, will have to be put in. The Canadian National Railway will also repair the west end of the old wharf and join it up with the new dock. However, this work will not require a great length of time.

Million Feet Lumber.

In the 850 by 150 foot superstructure one million feet of lumber and 27,000 square feet of glass will have been used. The most of the lumber, including the heavy carrying timbers, has been of fir. Spruce has been used for the sidings and hemlock for the light dimension woodwork inside.

The enormous size of the building, which is by far the biggest one in the city, can best be realized by visiting the place and standing inside it. From the door to the highest peak of the roof is 32 feet. It has a practically flat roof with a 3/4-inch pitch per foot. In the centre of the roof an 8-foot cupola top runs from end to end of the building. This cupola is 50 feet wide and runs to a peak in the centre, with the same pitch as the main roof. The building being 150 feet wide, there is 50 feet of flat roof on either side of the cupola.

Doors and Windows.

On the track side of the building are continuous doors down the entire length and at the water side and at the ends are 9-foot double doors every 40 feet. Above the doors on either side are continuous windows 8 feet in height. On the sides of the cupola are also continuous windows 5 feet in height.

On each side of the building are eaves which are drained by 80 cast iron pipes in four rows of 20 each. The water, running from the roof through these pipes, is carried through the floor into the harbor beneath.

The contract for the supplying of felt composition roofing has been let to the Pacific Roofing Co. of Vancouver and the work of putting it on will be started immediately.

The painting has just commenced. The exterior will be yellow with brown trimmings and the entire interior will be white-washed.

Tracks Already Built.

The railway company already has its tracks in and there remains to be done by them the setting up of the two elevators on the water side and the travelling crane, as well as the installation of the sprinkling system and repairs to the old wharf connecting with the new.

In the interior of the dock the offices are being overhead.

The cost of labor on the building has been $38,000. J. A. Simmons, brother of J. H. Simmons and superintendent of works for the Simmons Construction Co., power to sanction or disapprove of proposed bouts or, if they wish, to also promote bouts and to appoint a reputable matchmaker.

It is stated that clubs are being formed with the intention of putting on boxing exhibitions, and the public is bound to be stung and the game brought into disrepute if they were allowed to go on indiscriminately.

In regard to the request it added that at the present time the city has the power to appoint a boxing commission, and the by-law under which such appointment can be made is still active.

When authority to appoint a commission was first given persons were selected to fill the office. But the commission never functioned, and during the last two years no appointments have been made.

BOXING COMMISSION ASKED IN EDMONTON TO REGULATE GAME

EDMONTON, Mar. 10.—That an active boxing commission be appointed for the city is the suggestion made to the city council by Louis (Kid) Sealer.

He makes the request, as he sets out, "in the interests of the boxing game," and so that the public may be protected from fake bouts and matches.

His proposal is that a commission of five be appointed by council and that they be given full authority.

Was Troubled With Her Liver for over 4 months

When the liver becomes slow, sluggish and torpid it is not working properly and does not supply sufficient bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products of the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in and liver troubles follow, among which are sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, water brash, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, pain under the right shoulder, coated tongue, bad breath, yellow eyes, etc.

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS quickly remove the secretions, clear away the effete and waste matter by acting directly on the liver, and making the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood.

Mrs. Alice McMillan, Nanaimo, Ont., writes:—"I was very badly run down for over four months. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. One day my husband brought me home a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and before I had used half of it I was much better. I only used two vials and I am a different person today."

"I can safely recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to anyone troubled with liver trouble."

Price, 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The postponed billiard game in the Trail Club Shield competition between Tom (Silver) Sides (Sons of England) and Jack Suden (Trail) has been forfeited to the latter player. This was announced by W. Barbour, Trail captain, yesterday. It means that the former player loses the points and the latter gets the 200 credit. Records for the year may now be compiled on this basis. With the setting of this one match the series is now formally concluded with the Trail Club in possession of the shield which they now hold for the second consecutive year.

An analysis of the individual standings for the season, computing only players who have taken part in seven or more games, shows that W. Barbour and W. Blythe, of Trail, lead the league and their team with perfect averages of 200 for ten games. Jack Suden, with an average of 180, leads the Trail roster. Leading the Wanderers and in third place in the league is Fred Stephens with an average of 195 in ten games. Col. McMorris, with an average of 180, is low man for the Wanderers. Bert McEvoy is best man in the Elks' team with 192 and E. Green, with 177, is at the bottom of their list. Other high and low men in the respective teams are: St. Andrew's, high, A. Kinghorn, 188; low, Andrew's, 177; Great War Veterans, high, W. F. Roberge, 172; low, W. Goodrick, 155; Sons of England, high, George Hill, 180; low, Mansell, 145. Fifty-two players appeared in the league in the course of the season and 20 played the full quota of ten games. The Trail played seven men; Wanderers, 8; Elks, 10; St. Andrew's 9; Sons of England, 8; Great War Veterans, 10.

The Grotto Cigar Store has now organized a football team to take part in Intermediate League games this season if such a league is established in the city. In case there is no Intermediate League, the team will likely be put into the Senior League. A feature of the team is that it is comprised almost altogether of new blood and players who have never yet appeared on the local field. There have been some practice games already. On Wednesday night of next week a dance will be held the funds to be used in buying uniforms and equipment. The activities of other prospective football teams in the city seem to be, so far, somewhat in the dark and it is difficult to ascertain exactly what is being done and what the prospects are. By the time the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Football Association is held early next month things should be pretty well lined up.

HON. J. MURDOCK GIVES ADDRESS

Speaks to Unemployed and Is Subject to Heckling, but States Position.

TORONTO, Mar. 10. — Hon. James Murdock, federal minister of labor, faced a turbulent audience of unemployed in the Labor Temple to explain to them what the federal government had done and was willing to do to relieve unemployment in Toronto and other centres. The meeting, which was arranged by the unemployment council of the District Trades and Labor Council, was larger than any meeting held in the Labor Temple in many months.

Mr. Murdock was subjected to heckling and attacks which were usual to a meeting of this description. The storm arose when allanyone interrupted a Miss Mahay, who was making an address, to inform her that neither Mr. Murdock, who had left by this time, nor himself had come to be criticized. The shouting and jeering lasted for several minutes.

Opening his address with the remark "Gentlemen and friends," Mr. Murdock was received with a chorus of laughter.

"I ask those who can't give a hearing to the speakers of the afternoon to retire," was the order of Chairman Doggett.

Obligation to Meet Men.

Mr. Murdock said he regarded it as an obligation to meet and discuss with individuals the problems which were affecting them. He stated that he could have headed the pressure of public business and refused to appear before the meeting if he did not hold the view that men in public life should at all times discuss the problems of the times with those who were interested in them.

"I hope no one who knows me as a labor man will fail to realize that my sympathies are with labor and with the unemployed, and that it is unfortunate that such a meeting as this should have to be held in a country possessing the vast natural resources that Canada does," said Mr. Murdock.

Mr. Murdock stated he had found 20,000 men out of work when he assumed office, and his first task was to take into consideration what the government could consistently do to relieve the conditions existing in Toronto and other centres. The government was told that unemployment relief was purely a federal problem.

Found Distress.

"You know you could not console this right to the federal government," declared the minister of labor, after referring to the authority of the federal government and explaining the danger of conflicting with provincial rights. "Therefore, the only thing we could do was to strengthen the hands of provincial and municipal authorities. In certain provinces we have been given to understand that we had no business interfering in the situation, and have been told that the prov-

BOARD FAVORS SCHOOL MOVIES

Matter Brought Forward by Superintendent Campbell—Full Details to Be Obtained.

Harold Campbell, superintendent of the city schools, has suggested to the School Board that educational moving picture shows be established in connection with the schools. At the meeting of the board last night the proposition received the support of the trustees present and the matter has been left with Mr. Campbell to secure further data in regard to costs and methods of conducting the shows with a view to reporting back to the council who may then take it up intelligently.

In speaking before the board on the subject, Mr. Campbell stated that film companies were getting out films especially for children and these might be run in the Booth School auditorium. He has already gathered some data but did not have all the details. A portable machine would cost in the neighborhood of $200 and an organization had offered to purchase one for the schools, the cost to be paid back as the schools were able. Shows could be put on Friday evenings and Saturday afternoons and evenings. Grown-ups could be admitted and a small admission fee could be charged to make the proposition self-supporting. The expense of obtaining the films would be the greatest difficulty and would necessitate the holding of two shows.

The matter of holding the shows in one of the local theatres was taken up also and it was left in Mr. Campbell's hands to go into the whole matter thoroughly and report the best plan.

Trustees Patmore, McLennan and McMeekin each favored the idea and thought that educational films presented in the theatres were hardly of a suitable nature for children to see.

INFLUENZA AFFECTS SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Monthly Reports Presented to School Board by Principals
Brady and Campbell.

The prevalence of the influenza complaint during the month of February had a serious effect on school attendance according to reports for the month submitted to the school board last night by Principals J. C. Brady and H. Campbell.

The total attendance for the four public schools for the month was 140, a decrease of 14 as compared with January. Per school the attendance was: Booth Memorial, 385; Borden Street, 270; Seal Cove, 72; Westview, 13. Miss Munns, who had a month's sick leave, is returning to duty next week. The playshed at the Booth Memorial School is now completed and there will be no necessity for continuing the renting of the Methodist Church gymnasium. Mr. Campbell also reported that the basketball season was about over and that, in the spring, football and baseball leagues are to be started.

Principal Brady reported that, on account of the influenza, there had been average of 25 pupils absent from High School during the past week. The worst seemed to be over, however, and he hoped the attendance would be nearly back to normal next week. Mr. Brady said that repairs to the heating system and the walls in the King Edward School were necessary. This matter will be taken up just before the holidays.

JOHN KYLE REPORTS ON TECHNICAL WORK

The report of John Kyle, technical training inspector of schools, on the local manual training and domestic science schools was received by the school board last night.

The report said that the order and health of classes, equipment and quarters were good but that there might be improvement in the manner of conducting the work. Individuality of work in the manual training classes should be given more chance and the domestic science work might be made more interesting.

The reports are to be shown to the teachers concerned.

BOOTH SCHOOL IS AGAIN DISCUSSED

Trustee Patmore Thinks Council Taking Matter Up in Irritating Manner.

The school board is awaiting a report from City Engineer Whittaker before it takes any further action in the matter of making repairs at the Booth Memorial School. Hugh Whittaker, the provincial government architect, is to be asked to make an investigation, as well. This was decided at the meeting of the board last night.

Letters from the city council in this connection were read at the meeting. Trustee Patmore felt that the council was taking the matter up in an irritating manner and was making a determined effort to make capital of the condition of the school. "It seems to me that it is none of the council's business," said Mr. Patmore. "We have the matter in hand and have to wait for dry weather before anything can be done. It was clearly decided at our joint meeting with the council that when the weather was propitious Mr. Whittaker could make an examination and report to us as to whether he considered an outside opinion should be obtained. There is nothing for us to do until Mr. Whittaker makes his report."

Mr. Patmore suggested that Hugh Whittaker, who was in the city, might be consulted and it was decided on motion to do this.

In the Letter Box

OPPOSES BYLAW.

The Bylaw re Grand Trunk Pacific Railway taxation is now published and becomes public property. What are we going to do about it? To our ratepayers it is an offense, from the first line of its preamble to the last letter in "City Clerk." How was this $15,000.00 sum arrived at? Has it been fixed pro rata to the value of the adjacent abutting property? If not, why not? What do the pioneers that built this city and kept it operating owe to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company or to their Steamship Company, that we should go down in our pockets annually to find taxes to promote the character and credit of our city, to enhance the value of the unsold property of the railway company, to establish and maintain commerce for these money making systems, and receive nothing in return—not even the paltry patronage of their boats and trains? Why should we hand them over a bonus of alarmingly reduced taxation in view of the past record of this company in redeeming its pledges to the City.

Every man and woman with a vote in the city should vote against this bylaw. Why? For various reasons two will suffice for the present.

No Discrimination.

First—There should be no discrimination in taxation of revenue producing property that stands like and like in par business value. Waterfront property from the eastern line of the Dry Dock property to the western line of the Swanson Bay ferry slip should bear a pro rata value to the upland lots of First, Second and Third Avenues, abutting on the eastern and western sections of these lines set out—a like pro rata value should be borne by the waterfront property as that in the uplands of sections two, seven and eight.

Prove Position.

Second—We should vote down the bylaw and force the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company into law that they may prove themselves to be the rightful owners of the property and not the Dominion Government. That fact established the City of Prince Rupert should at once proceed to bring an action of damages against the Railway Company for non-fulfillment of their former agreement. It is being said that there are holes in that agreement so large that the dry dock could pass through; that I do not believe. The late lamented Fred Peters, who was our city solicitor at the time that agreement was entered into has heretofore defended our Empire in one of the most important lawsuits that Canada was ever interested in, and that with some of the most eminent counsel of the United States, Russia and Japan opposing, and to his glory he won out. He framed no document for the city that he loved; in any such slushy manner. Let the city council employ such legal talent as the City of Vancouver did when they wrung justice from the Canadian Northern Railway when they refused to fulfill their promises. Citizens rise in your might, get all your fighting armour on, and when the bylaw is defeated call a mass meeting, and by moral force demand of the city council the enforcement of all our claims, past and present, against the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company, and then you will be doing business.

ANGELS AFFECT THE WILL OF DEAD LADY

LONDON, March 9.—A will case in which the lady who made it was a spiritualist and was said to have been of unsound mind and subject to undue influence from members of the spiritualistic cult, is attracting much attention in England. It is that of Emily Lucy Carruthers Wilson, a widow who died last month. She was supposed to receive angelic messages by way of mediums. The later will that she made was disallowed by the court and a former will, before she took up with the angels, was declared to be the one valid.

ALIFORD BAY CANNERY WILL OPERATE AGAIN

A. B. Bruhm Arrives in City
From Queen Charlotte Islands
Crossing in His Own Boat.

A. B. Bruhm arrived in the city last night from Queen Charlotte City on his own gasboat. He will be here about a month and will then return to the Islands to start salmon fishing. Mr. Bruhm said that the cannery at Aliford Bay, which was recently purchased by Sir Thomas Lipton, is to be operated again this season and there will be a number of fishermen there. T. A. Sandison, the manager, is at present in England conferring with the principals of the plant.

Mr. Bruhm reports that there is little going on at the Islands at the present time. Instead of coming in people are leaving. Transportation services are both scarce and unsatisfactory and the Islands are practically cut off from the rest of the world only having one boat every fortnight and sometimes not that.

There are no oil companies operating at present. Some of the representatives of development companies have left leaving accounts unpaid. Some of them have even been lost track of and the settlers, to whom they owe money, are taking steps to locate them.

RYLEY, ALBERTA, VISITED BY FIRE

Fire practically destroyed the entire business section of the town of Ryley situated east of Edmonton on the Grand Trunk Railway, Saturday morning, says the Edmonton Bulletin. The cause, presumably the ignition of matches which had been chewed by mice in a general store.

The fire is supposed to have had its origin in the general store of Hall & Bougan, which building was completely destroyed, also the residence of R. A. Archer, which was in the overhead rooms. The office of the Ryley Times was also destroyed and all its presses and linotype and its job printing works, calculated to have been one of the best outfits of the small towns on the Grand Trunk line.

The Humphrey tenement house was badly burned and the pool-room also gutted, and to save the fire from spreading in its wave of destruction, the old barber shop next to the Humphrey building was blown up by the fire department.

The intelligent, shrewd attention which is given to selling should include advertising.
