Irish Election Delayed Three Months GIANT AIRSHIP VICTIMS RECOVERED; MANY UNRECOGNIZABLE

Unity of South Ireland is Sought by Leaders of both Factions in big Convention

DUBLIN, Feb. 22.—The first day's debate at the Sinn Fein convention featured speeches by Griffith, Collins and De Valera for and against the Anglo-Irish treaty, but all agreed that a split in Sinn Fein should be avoided if possible.

Tentative offers were made by both sides to postpone the Irish elections several months to enable the Irish people to study all phases of the Anglo-Irish treaty.

De Valera agreed not to use in minority in Dail Eireann against the provisional government so long as definite adoption of the treaty was not pressed in the Irish parliament.

Arthur Griffith said he was willing to postpone the elections if the De Valera faction avoided a deliberate boycott of the Griffith party, which has a majority of only three or four in the house.

The debate was adjourned until today to permit the leaders to foregather last night in an attempt to find common ground for the unity of the South Ireland party.

DUBLIN, Feb. 22.—(Noon).—An agreement to adjourn the Sinn Fein convention for three months was decided upon by the convention leaders at their meeting last night. The agreement provides that no vote taken in the Dail Eireann shall require the resignation of the provisional government and that there shall be an election meanwhile.

When the election is held it is stipulated that the new constitution under the Anglo-Irish treaty be submitted to the country.

INTEREST IN FIGHT

Canadian Middleweight to Box Young Fisher of Syracuse.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—There will be considerable interest taken in sporting circles in today's match between Mike McFigue, claimant of the Canadian middleweight championship and Young Fisher of Syracuse.

There is the possibility of the bout leading to a championship affair with Johnny Wilson and this has given rise to much speculation as to the outcome.

ANNUAL MEETING OF YACHT CLUB

Record Attendance Last Night—Dr. W. T. Kergin Is Elected President for 1922.

Due probably to the fact that there had been advertised a proposed increase in dues, there was a record attendance of members at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club, which was held last evening at the court house. Thirty persons were present, the largest number for seven years.

It was decided, after considerable discussion, to make certain improvements at the club quarters at Gow Bay. The matter of raising the dues came up but no action was taken on it and the fees will remain the same as at present. The election of officers for 1922 resulted as follows:

President, Dr. W. T. Kergin. Vice-president, M. M. Stephens. Secretary - Treasurer, Alex. McRae. Directors, Rev. Canon G. A. Rix, N. M. McLean, Dr. J. P. Cade and the officers.

MORTE CRAIG TELLS OF HIS TRIP SOUTH

At Present in Tucson, Arizona—Weather Hot and Sultry—Expects to Home Next Month.

Morte Craig of the Arctic Studio is at present visiting in Tucson, Arizona, and in writing home here says that his health is much improved. The weather in Tucson is very hot and sultry and differed much from that which he experienced in Los Angeles, where it was cold and wet. Mr. Craig speaks highly of Tucson as a city and is very interested in the mines there, for he is a mining engineer himself and still has properties in Colorado.

Of the 25,000 people in the Arizona city 15,000 are Spanish, and Mr. Craig has found his knowledge of the Spanish language very useful there. He expects to return to Prince Rupert some time in March and will return by way of the Canadian National Railway, visiting first Denver, Arkansas Springs, St. Joseph, Missouri, his old home, and Kansas City.

JACK BEATTIE SAYS REMAINING IN EAST CRUISING TIMBER

A letter received this morning from Jack Beattie, formerly of this city, orders The Daily News for another six months and states that Mr. Beattie is intending to remain in the east longer than he had expected. He says he is getting an outfit together to cruise some limits near Cochrane in Northern Ontario and that will take a little time.

NEARLY 400 BOOKS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED FOR NEW LIBRARY

Close to 400 books have been received so far by G. V. Wilkinson, who is collecting and cataloguing them as they come in. Books are coming faster now than they have yet since the campaign began, and it keeps Mr. Wilkinson busy looking after them. At the present rate there should be a good collection by the time the library is ready to open.

LUMBER EXPORT ON INCREASE

Merchant Marine and Exporters' Association Aided in Giving Impetus.

VICTORIA, Feb. 22.—Waterborne export lumber trade of British Columbia increased from 116,624,269 feet exported from British Columbia in 1920 to 188,733,299 in 1921, according to a report given out by the Minister of Lands yesterday.

Last year's exports were eighty million feet more than in 1919 when they totalled 108,872,266 feet.

The Canadian Merchant Marine and the organization of the Associated Timber exporters of British Columbia were largely responsible for the increase in shipments, the former providing space and developing foreign markets; the latter bringing the foreign market in direct contact with the provincial exporters.

CANADIAN CLUB 113 MEMBERS

Expected That 150 Will Join Before Campaign Is Complete.

Directors of the Canadian Club have been giving the business section of the city a "once over" with a view to securing members. Up to the present 113 have joined and are paid up and in good standing for a year. A small section of the city has still to be covered.

As the leisure time at the disposal of the directors of the club is limited, those who have been missed are asked to pay their membership fee to the secretary, Walter Gale, at the Government Agent's office or to any of the directors. Those not members will very likely find it impossible to get tickets for the luncheons.

The directors got a very good reception from citizens and the result of the canvass is most encouraging for the success of the club this year. It is expected that close to 150 members will be secured before the campaign is complete.

FRESH OUTBREAK

BELFAST, Feb. 22.—Several persons were wounded today in a fresh outbreak of firing on the east side, which is said to have resulted from a vendetta against saloonkeepers of that district having Sinn Fein sympathies.

TAKE DRASTIC ACTION WITH DOUKHOBORS

Mounties Will Interfere—Peter Veregin Confirms Statement Issued to Paper.

OTTAWA, Feb. 22.—Commissioner Perry of the Mounted Police believes that Peter Veregin was not serious in his threat to drown the children and infirm Doukhobors in protest against taxation, but the commissioner also announces that the mounties will take drastic action if the law is not respected by the Doukhobors.

VANCOUVER, Feb. 22.—Peter Veregin, Doukhobor leader, telegraphs from Brilliant, B. C. to the Canadian Press, that the article published in the Canadian newspapers and signed by M. M. Koffinoff had his sanction.

The article complains of the unfair taxation of the Doukhobors by the governments here and threatens to institute a policy either of killing off the children and infirm of the Doukhobor colony or to deliberately sterilize the women to prevent propagation, the Doukhobors to become a wandering tribe protesting against taxation.

PRINCE ALBERT REPAIRS DONE

Canadian National Steamer Will Leave Local Dry Dock Tomorrow.

CAPTAIN NICHOLSON ARRIVES HERE TODAY

The Canadian National steamer Prince Albert will leave the local dry dock tomorrow after having an extensive overhaul to put her under the classification as required by Lloyd's Underwriters and as a result of the stranding at Queen Charlotte Islands recently. The Lorne is now in the dock for repairs. Whether the Albert will be put into operation immediately is uncertain but Captain Nicholson, manager of the fleet, will arrive this afternoon from Vancouver and some announcement may be made by him.

There are about 100 men employed at the shipyard at present. Besides the repairs to the Lorne the building of the Francois Lake ferry is going ahead steadily and there are a few fish boats in for minor repairs.

Koppe, a murderer, and then announced that it would have to reconsider the verdict on account of an error, Koppe became so frightened over the possibility of the death sentence that he suffered an attack of heart failure and died within a few hours.

ALL BODIES RECOVERED FROM ROMA

Three Uninjured After Fatal Fall—Many Burned Beyond Recognition.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 22.—Thirty bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the airship Roma and three or four bodies remain in the wreckage. Eleven men were rescued and some of them will probably die.

NORFOLK, Feb. 22.—(Noon).—Completely wrecked by fire and explosion the Roma, the world's largest semi-rigid airship, the pride of the American air service, has yielded up today the last of the dead following the disaster which overtook her yesterday.

The recovery of the last body fixed the toll of the disaster, the greatest in the history of American aeronautics, at 34 dead, eight injured and three practically unhurt.

Of the dead 33 have been identified, although many of the bodies were burned, blackened and charred beyond recognition. The dead include Major John Thornell, commander of the ship at her christening last December and Capt. Dale Mabry, commander during yesterday's ill fated flight.

BALFOUR REFUSES PEERAGE AND ALSO KNIGHT OF GARTER

EXCHANGE RATE GOES VERY LOW

Many Reasons are Assigned for Change in Canadian Money Value.

The exchange rate today is so low that it is quite a negligible quantity. It is quoted at less than three and a half per cent, a considerable drop from the time it reached seventeen and a half per cent, making importations from the United States very difficult.

Various reasons are assigned for the change to a more normal condition. One is said to be the election of a Government that will not countenance extravagance of any kind and that will also refuse to erect a higher tariff wall.

The illicit liquor business with the United States and the exportation of wheat to that country all tend to equalize the money value.

During the period of high exchange rates many people in the United States bought Canadian securities and American business men opened accounts in Canadian banks and kept their funds there until there should be a lower rate.

American financial journals prophesy that during the present year the exchange rate will disappear and the Canadian dollar will be worth its face value in American dollars.

Another Airship

Crashes to Ground.

The crashing of the airship Roma with the consequent fatalities seems to indicate that the aircraft of the future will be of the heavier than air type such as the aeroplane. The dangers of using an explosive gas and of making a big buoyant sac strong enough and yet light enough have yet to be overcome in connection with the construction of airships. The airship has to contend with wind and air pockets, with immense variations of temperature and density of atmosphere. The ordinary airplane finds little difficulty in this, no more than does the ordinary ship on the sea, perhaps less. The airship is different. It is also very expensive, and its future as a method of air navigation does not look very promising.

Wave of Sobriety

Sweeps Over England.

Press despatches tell us that a wave of sobriety is sweeping over England following the wave of dissipation which followed the war. Canterbury in Kent, with a population of 24,000, reports only seven convictions for drunkenness during the year, and four of the seven were visitors to the town. The town of Bletchley in Buckinghamshire, population 6000, had no convictions for drunkenness registered. Hartlepool had convictions against four women. The whole country is coming under the spell of a better condition or of hard times compelling better conditions.

Even in this country there is an improvement in the condition. In our own town there is not the open evidence of heavy drinking. Considerable bootlegging goes on here and that somewhat brazenly, but on the whole people seem to be settling down to live a sober life.

Eighteen-year-old Rouses, Nineteen-year-old Vamps.

George Ade, the American humorist, writes a semi-serious article for the March American Magazine in which he rather condemns the upbringing of the young people of today and compares the boys and girls with the boys and girls of half a century ago. He also compares the youth of America unfavorably with the youth of the Old Country. He says:

"As a novel international sporting proposition, why not have a bench show and exhibit the swankiest products of the two English-speaking nations? We didn't make much of a showing at golf, but when it comes to matching up eighteen-year-old rouses and nineteen-year-old vamps, the odds will be three to one that our beloved country will make a clean sweep of the blue ribbons."

In spite of George Ade and his philosophy, the young people of today are miles ahead of the young people of half a century ago. They certainly know more, develop earlier, and get more out of life. Also they put more into life. Many of the young people of today know more at fifteen than their grandparents did at twenty-five. They sometimes get a little ahead of the old fogies who are always harking back and bemoaning the tendencies of the age, but they do not all get their whole education at the movies nor do they all think of nothing but silk socks and cigarettes. There are fine young men among the youth of today who will yet make history, and the page will not be less dim than the page written by our ancestors.

War Memorial for Fallen Soldiers.

Mrs. R. L. McIntosh in a letter published in this issue suggests a memorial for fallen soldiers who fought in the Great War. Prince Rupert people have held back awaiting the outcome of the proposals of the War Veterans. Now it is beginning to dawn on the people here that it is the work of the civilians and not of the war veterans to see that a proper memorial is erected. The first step would be to form a committee to have charge of the plans and to make a definite proposal with an estimate of cost, and then when the time is quite ripe for the move the money could be raised by public subscription. Prince Rupert should certainly do something to commemorate the services of the men who gave their lives for their country.

ERECT SHRINE WAR MEMORIAL

Mrs. R. L. McIntosh Suggests
Memorial Shrine on the New Court House Grounds.

The following letter has been received from Mrs. R. L. McIntosh proposing the erection of a memorial shrine on the grounds of the new government buildings to commemorate the loss of the Prince Rupert men who died on the battlefield:

Now that the court house and grounds are an assured thing for Prince Rupert, would it not be a fitting time to think of a memorial?

If permission could be obtained from the provincial government a monument or broken shaft could be erected on which the names of our men could be engraved—a memorial that all could have a share in.

The third Christmas has come and gone since Armistice Day, and still nothing has been done to commemorate the memory of those men who set forth on the great adventure so gladly and who have made it possible for us to "carry on as usual."

To most of us since the war Christmas is not as it was. As we look at the empty chair and think of the once happy guest, now lying so quietly in his last sleep in France, we do not forget.

And because those beloved men then walked the streets, watched the glorious sunsets and made plans for the future and lived in the hope of better things to come, even as we do, should not we who are left to enjoy this great heritage see to it that their memory lives on?

Matter of Pride.
This is not a proposal for any one society or person to deal with, but it should be a matter of pride to the whole city.

And so, Mr. Editor, if you think well of this suggestion will you publish this letter in the hope that someone in authority may take the matter up, and that as another Armistice Day dawns we may have a tangible remembrance of the men who counted their lives (so full of promise and hope) of so little worth that they sacrificed them so willingly for us.

The people here made a splendid response to any appeal for help during the dark days of the war, and do not let it be said now that Prince Rupert has forgotten her dead, but let her be able to point to the splendid record of her men and tell visitors with pride that here, on the outposts of Empire, far from the glamour of battle and cheering crowds, this fair city of the North was not found wanting in the day of need but did her part nobly and well in the crisis of the Great War.

Erect a shrine where tired hearts could be eased by remembrance.

A COMPROMISE.

Wife—But why don't you want me to buy your neckties any more?

Hub—Well, er—I'd rather buy them myself than have you go to all that trouble.

Wife—But I like to do things for you.

Hub—Oh, in that case, I'll let you look after the furnace this winter.—Boston Transcript.

PAYS TRIBUTE
THIS DISTRICT

Hon. Wm. Sloan Says Possibilities of Portland Canal Not Yet Realized Fully.

"Within the last few years there has been developed in British Columbia a mining district the potentialities of which we are only beginning to grasp," said Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, addressing the convention of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy in Vancouver last week. "I don't think, however, that any of us yet have an adequate conception of the possibilities of the Portland Canal and the mineral bearing zone of that and adjacent areas. If the next decade were to give birth in this part of our northwest to one or two more properties such as that of the Premier Gold Mining Company we would quickly take a first place among the gold and silver producing countries. There is no reason why this should not happen. Reports indicate that it is well within the bounds of possibility. Operators and prospectors from this part tell us that there is nothing more certain. Of course they are so proverbially optimistic that their statements sometimes need amendment. In this case, however, there is support from geologists and mining engineers of repute and there is the indisputable evidence of the production of a wonderful mine.

"The Northwestern Mineral Survey District, within which is the Portland Canal Division, is estimated to have turned out 75,000 tons more ore in 1921 than in 1920. The gold output, exclusive of placer, which was about the same as in 1920, showed an increase of approximately 30,000 ounces, some 60 per cent. greater than the figures of the previous year. The silver yield for 1921 is reported to be about 1,500,000 ounces, an improvement of about 125,000 ounces. Both the gold and silver outputs are due, almost entirely, to the Premier Gold Mining Company, that company's production of silver alone approximating over 1,000,000 ounces."

Mining Man No Quitter.

"There is nothing to show that the mining industry throughout the world has had a bad year. No seriously despondent voice has reached my ears from among the miners of British Columbia. We will criticize, grumble at bad luck and hard times, but the mining man is no quitter. There is no place in the business for the man who lives in the past. Mining is pre-eminently an occupation for the 'live one.' So it is not difficult to understand the spirit I find here tonight. Through no fault of ours, but because of generally unsatisfactory industrial conditions, 1921 was not a good year, speaking broadly, for mining in British Columbia, but we are looking ahead and imagination does not need to be overworked to see the silvery linings to the fast disappearing clouds.

Comparisons Favorable.

"I have made reference to the copper market of 1921 and to British Columbia's success in the active maintenance of the industry, notwithstanding that elsewhere on the continent great plants found it necessary to cease operation. Statistics now available strikingly tell the story. The copper output of the United States declined 60 per cent., while in this province the drop was but 18 per cent. These percentages are remarkable, but how much more remarkable it is to find that, in spite of the weakness of the world market and in the face of costs still high, although admittedly on the down grade, the Northwest Mineral Survey District shows an increase in copper output of nearly 9,000,000 pounds, or 33 per cent. In this district are located the Hidden Creek mines and the Anyox smelting plant, and it is chiefly, if not entirely, due to the activities at these centres that it is possible to make so gratifying an announcement.

"The perseverance and the confidence of the independent operators, the smelter companies and the prospectors in all sections of the province are to be commended and should be encouraged. The provincial government has spent substantial sums in the past six years in the construction and the maintenance of roads, trails and bridges to mining properties. Miners have been given the benefit of the advice of qualified mining engineers and the mines department has endeavored to keep in close touch with such organizations as the Canadian Mining Institute and the Prospectors' Protective Association in order that the needs of those identified with the industry might be clearly understood and everything possible done to meet requirements, always having in mind financial limitations by reason of the heavy demands on the provincial treasury from many other sources."

NOVA SCOTIA HAS ITS MUNICIPAL PROBLEMS

Claims Made by Cities that Province is Hogging all the Principle Revenues.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 22.—The Nova Scotia Government is being confronted by a demand for more "home rule" from from towns and municipalities throughout the Province. The Provincial Government, they say has been encroaching upon sources of revenue which the towns and municipalities believe they should be free to exploit for their own purposes. The Pictou County Council recently refused to obey the Provincial law requiring an assessment for highway purposes, and the town Council recently refused to obey the Provincial law requiring an assessment for highway purposes. The town Council of Kentville is protesting against the tax on their general assessment to assist the Provincial Government to maintain "not the roads in the town, but the highways in the country."

Freddie Jacks to Fight Jimmy Goodrich on Friday Night.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Freddie Jacks, former English featherweight champion, who is to fight Jimmy Goodrich in Toronto Friday night for the right to meet Johnny Dundee, has challenged the featherweight champion, Johnny Kilbane.

IN GREAT LUCK.

"Mister," began the seedy-looking man, "I haven't got no home and—"

"No taxes to pay," interrupted the man addressed, "no coal bills, no worry lest the landlord raise your rent. Permit me to congratulate you."

"I have no job and—"

"Lucky chap! No danger of getting fired."

"But I'm serious, mister. I have no money and—"

"No temptation to spend it foolishly on able-bodied beggars. Why, you're the very child of fortune. Good day!" Boston Transcript.

STEWART

From all indications the Portland Canal will this year witness the biggest mining movement ever experienced in any one section of Western Canada. Many deals are pending and an oil boom is predicted for the Naas Valley.

The Stewart Citizens' Association will hold a meeting on Friday night to discuss the advisability and possibility of incorporating the town under the Villages' Act.

One is now coming down the Premier tramline faster than the steamers can carry it away. The steamers Tartar, Amur and Anyox have all been here in the past week each taking away a full cargo.

Harry Zeifert has gone south to Vancouver on a business trip.

The mineral exhibit sent from the Portland Canal district to the American Mining Congress exhibition at Chicago is to be forwarded to London.

A. B. Armstrong, formerly of Alice Arm, and Miss Agnes Sullivan, formerly of Boston, were married recently at Hyder.

Steps are being taken towards the formation of an Intermediate football league in the city for the coming season. There are many players left who are beyond the junior class and still hardly consider themselves proficient enough for the senior league...

There would seem to be considerable possibilities for an intermediate football league in this city. In its lineup would likely be found some of the seniors of former years as well as some of the juniors who will have advanced somewhat beyond that class...

It is expected that the junior leaguers will be out in force at football again this season competing for the Rochester Shield which was put up last year by the mayor and which is now held by the Dry Dock Juniors.

Indoor Life

Spending more time indoors makes women far more subject to constipation than men.

The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated and the system poisoned by impurities.

If you would get away from the myriads of pills which result from constipation, it is only necessary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The benefits from their use are as lasting as they are prompt and certain.

Mrs. John Barry, 18 St. Annable Street, Quebec, Que., writes:

"This is to certify that I was troubled for years with constipation and tried all kinds of medicines without relief. At last my husband suggested that I try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than all the medicine I have taken during the last fifteen years. I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."

DINNER GIVEN HONOR VISITOR

Staff of Anvox Polytechnic Guests of Organizer in Honor of John Kyle.

ANYOX, Feb. 22.—An enjoyable evening was spent at the Anvox Hotel on Sunday, Feb. 19, when the staff of the Granby Bay Polytechnic were the dinner guests of Organizer and Mrs. John Pinder-Moss.

Covers were laid for twenty-four and an excellent repast was spread, the caterers being the Anvox Pioneer Mess.

The guest of honor was John Kyle, organizer of technical education for British Columbia, who had been in town for several days, officially inspecting the work of the Polytechnic.

The time went rapidly and a spirit of good fellowship was evoked by all many good stories being told across the table.

During the course of the repast, the instructors were again introduced to Mr. Kyle by the chairman, after which Harold King, chairman of the school board, made a short and interesting speech giving the history of continuation school work in Anyox since its inception, and culminating in the establishment of the present institution.

Far Sighted Policy. Robert Armour, head of the engineering department of the school, proposed the toast to the school board, in which he praised the far-sighted policy of the board in the establishment of this work in Anyox; to which Trustee J. Haslett suitably replied.

Miss Fletcher rendered a song "Until" in a rich contralto voice which was much appreciated; H. Southern ably accompanying.

Mr. Pinder-Moss proposed the toast to "Our Guest" to which Mr. Kyle replied with an excellent speech outlining the history of Technical Education in the Province up to the present time.

The singing of Auld Lang Syne and The King brought a pleasant evening to a close.

Guests Present. The guests were as follows: John Kyle, Harold King, J. Haslett, J. G. Ellis, J. E. C. Stroud, Mrs. L. M. Wager, Wade Wetmore, Mrs. M. G. Bromley, Dr. P. Whelan, J. Hill, Miss A. McMillan, L. A. Dobbin, W. Lambert, Mrs. J. Pinder-Moss, Mrs. Davis, F. Rice, Mrs. Jones, R. Armour, Mrs. M. Stewart, H. D. Southern, Miss Fletcher and Mr. Erdman.

To expect a single advertisement to pay is as foolish as to hope to grow fat from the effect of one meal.

Sir Arthur Currie Gives Wonderful Address before Pennsylvania University

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—(By Canadian Press.)—"There are problems still to be solved and in meeting them the Anglo-Saxon ideals of Washington must not be forgotten or ignored. Let me tell you in all earnestness, in the words of a Canadian statesman who himself always advocated unity and tolerance and friendship, that in the solution of these problems we have a safe guide, an unflinching light, if we always remember that faith is better than doubt and love is better than hate."

This was a potent thought in the Washington's Birthday address at the University of Pennsylvania today by General Sir Arthur Currie, principal of McGill University, Montreal, and commander of the Canadian forces in France and Belgium during the latter part of the Great War. Sir Arthur received the degree of Doctor of Laws from the seat of learning here this afternoon.

"It is indeed a privilege to speak to this assembly on a subject suggested by the life and work of the illustrious statesman whose birthday you commemorate," said Sir Arthur. "It is particularly interesting to me to speak in this city of brotherhood, hallowed as it is by the memories of the immortal men and by the glorious incidents connected inseparably with your Nation's birth. It is an honor too not unfeared to appear as a successor to the many distinguished men who have spoken on a similar occasion in this place. This honor, I assure you, I deeply appreciate on behalf of myself, my university and my country."

Hopeful Tendencies. "Celebrations, such as these, of the birthdays of our former national leaders are hopeful tendencies of the present. In the rush of modern life, with its fever and its fret, its widespread selfishness and enervating idleness, its vulgar ostentation and its fruitless chasing after shadows, it is well to hark back, if only indeed for a brief period, to those who preached a purer gospel and lived and died for the higher things of life. We are sometimes told today that the age of ideals, like the old age of chivalry is forever gone; that the present age is an age of expediency in church, in state and in society, and that on the whole we are today indifferent to ethical and moral standards. There are those of us who do not join in that despairing lamentation, and who still believe that the stars of faith are set high and eternal in the heavens, but in times of discouragement and of faltering feet even we need strength and stimulus for our belief. We find that necessary strength always in a backward glance at the ideals and sacrifices of those lives from whose effort our nations sprang.

Example Cannot Die. "For national heroes are the best possessions of a people. Their example cannot die. Their spirits are forever by our side to guide, to lead and to inspire. They were the leaders of men, these great ones," said Carlyle, "the moulders, patterners, and in a wide sense creators, of whatsoever the general mass of men continued to do or to attain; all things that we see standing accomplished in the world are properly the outer material result, the practical realization and embodiment of thoughts that dwell in the great men sent into the world; the soul of the whole world's history, it may be justly considered, were the history of these great men, taken up in any way, are profitable company. We cannot look, however imperfectly, upon a great man without gaining something from him. He is the living light-fountain, which is good and pleasant to be near. The light which enlightens the darkness of the world; and this not as a kindled lamp only, but rather as a national luminary shining by the gift of Heaven; a flowing light-fountain, as I say, of native original insight, of manhood and heroic nobleness;—in whose radiance all souls feel that it is well with them. On any terms whatsoever you will not grudge to wander in such a neighborhood for a while. It is therefore but fitting that on this, the anniversary of his birth, we should pause if only for a brief period to consider a few thoughts suggested by the ideals of one of your great national heroes, and one of the great heroes of the world,—your immortal and revered stem. Thus distinct, and yet united, let us live and flourish. Why should we not? For nearly two thousand years we were one family. Our fathers fought side by side at Hastings and heard the curfew toll. They fought in the same ranks for the sepulchre of our Savior—in the earlier and later civil wars. We can wear our white and red roses without a blush, and glory in the principles these conflicts established. Our common ancestors won the Great Charter and the Bill of Rights—established Free Parliaments, the Habeas Corpus and Trial by Jury. Our jurisprudence comes down from Coke and Mansfield to Marshall and Story, rich in knowledge and experience which no man can divide. From Chaucer to Shakespeare our literature is a common inheritance; Tennyson and Longfellow write in one language which is enriched by the genius on either side of the Atlantic. In the great navigators from Gulliver to Hudson, and in all the moving accident by flood and field we have a common interest."

EMPLOYMENT AGENT GOING TO VICTORIA

J. M. Campbell Will Attend Conference of Employment Service of Canada.

James M. Campbell, provincial government employment agent here, will sail tomorrow night for Victoria to attend a conference of the western officials of the employment service of Canada. The convention will take place on March 1 and 2 in the parliament buildings at Victoria and there will be present the employment agents from all the important centres in British Columbia, as well as delegates from the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Matters affecting employment generally will be taken up at the conference. During Mr. Campbell's absence, H. F. Wearmouth will be in charge of the local office.

Speaking of conditions in the city, Mr. Campbell stated that he had 250 unemployed men registered at his office. Of this number 175 are being employed on city relief work, showing that the municipality, with the co-operation of the federal and provincial governments, is taking an active part in the alleviation of unemployment conditions. Work is being carried out in various parts of the city. There is no new or outside employment in sight yet.

OCEAN FALLS IS VERY BUSY PLACE

Much Freight Is Being Handled Into and Out of Paper Port Down the Coast.

The Grand Trunk Pacific steamer Prince Rupert, Captain Morehouse, is not due to arrive until 3 o'clock this afternoon. The recent delays in the passages north have been caused on account of the heavy amount of cargo that is being handled for Ocean Falls, where operations are going on full blast in the paper mill. The Prince John, which sailed south on Monday, spent 14 hours at the paper town loading paper, which took up all her available space. Canadian Government Merchant Marine vessels are also making regular calls for cargoes consigned abroad.

Head and Nostrils Clogged Up.

Could Hardly Breathe

When you become all choked up and stuck up with a cold your head becomes thick, the nostrils become so clogged up you can hardly breathe, a feeling of weight or oppression in the chest and the cough ruses and tears your lungs and bronchial tubes.

This is the time to take DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP before things get to be too serious. There is no remedy to equal it for clearing up the cold, making the breathing easy, loosening the phlegm and soothing and heating the lungs and bronchial tubes.

Mrs. Edward Kincaid, 60 Bryden St., St. John, N. B., writes:—"I wish to express my hearty thanks to your valuable remedy Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and what good it did me. Last Fall I contracted a severe cold, the like I never had, my head and nostrils were so clogged up I could get no vent, and could scarcely get my breath. I tried remedy after remedy until at last I thought I would try 'Dr. Wood's.' After the first dose I felt relief, and by the time the bottle was finished I was all better. I will always keep it in the house."

RETAIL MERCHANTS AND SUNDAY CLOSING

Matter Being Taken Up at Victoria Since Pronouncement by Mayor.

VICTORIA, Feb. 22.—The Retail Merchants' Association are interesting themselves in the matter of the enforcement of the Sunday closing proposals, and are taking a census of the forces here with a view to finding out just how many stores and employees of stores will be affected by such a strict enforcement of the Lord's Day Act in Victoria. The bureau of statistics of the association is preparing a statement of the number of owners and tenants of stores who are open on Sundays and the number of employees and what their hours per week are.

It is pointed out by the officials of the association that the stores which are open on Sunday are not all run by Orientals, but a large proportion of them are run by white men. Most of these stores are small retailers and do not employ any hired help whatever.

Working Hours. The officials of the Retail Merchants' Association state that the average hours per week which shop assistants have to work in this city do not exceed forty-eight, and that in every case where work is done on Sunday these employees are given a day off in the middle of the week. They are in agreement with the city officials in the matter of giving one day's rest a week to all employees, but consider there is no violation of this rule in Victoria at present.

So far it has been ascertained that seventy per cent of the stores which would be affected by the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act in this city are owned and operated by small dealers who have no employees. These stores find Sunday one of their best business days, and depend largely on the business done on that day to provide their rent and enable them to stay in business during the rest of the week.

Fear Loss. It is argued also that the success of these storekeepers largely contributes to the finances of the city by enabling the landlords to pay their taxes. There is fear that serious loss will accrue to these small dealers if a strict enforcement of the provisions of the Lord's Day Act takes place.

MADAME FAHEY WAS ACCLAIMED IN TORONTO

Toronto Globe Speaks Most Highly of Her Grand Opera Singing.

The success of Mme. Lugrin-Fahy, formerly of Victoria, in grand opera is commented upon in recent press criticisms of the production of Verdi's "Aida" by the Toronto Operatic Chorus, an aggregation of more than 100 voices.

The Toronto Globe says: "The principal honors of the evening were won by Mme. Lugrin-Fahy as Aida. She had the advantage of the title role, but her success was achieved by the distinction of her voice and interpretation. Her singing of her

Gives Cakes Better Flavor.

Mrs. M. Webb prefers Pacific Milk for cooking because she can count on its being the same every time. She says that she has always been able to make cakes which were "good enough," but since she has been using Pacific Milk they are of a much finer texture and seem to have a better flavor, and she gives the full credit to the milk.
