LONDON, April 5.—The employers' lockout affecting 47 engineering unions apart from the Amalgamated Engineering Union, which was to have become effective at midnight, has been suspended pending negotiations between employers and representatives of the unions on Monday. The new turn is said to be largely due to the mediation of Lloyd George. The amalgamated union refused to negotiate on the basis accepted by the other unions and will fight the industrial battle alone.

HARDING MAY COME HERE

Reply Received by Consul General at Ottawa to Canadian Club Invitation.

A reply to an invitation sent by President L. W. Patmore and Secretary Gale of the Canadian Club to address them at a luncheon here on the occasion of his contemplated visit to Alaska has been received by United States Consul Wakefield. The invitation was sent through Mr. Wakefield and the Consul General at Ottawa. The reply says: "I am in receipt of an instruction from the Department of State acknowledging the receipt of copy of your letter of the 6th instant and also the letter from your secretary of the Canadian Club of Prince Rupert, inviting the President to be the guest of the Canadian Club at luncheon should he visit Alaska during the coming summer."

"I am directed by the Department of State to say that the President desires that an expression of his appreciation be conveyed to the Canadian Club of Prince Rupert for its courteous invitation to which he cannot at this time give a definite reply as no arrangements have yet been made for a visit to Alaska this summer. I am further directed to instruct the Consul at Prince Rupert to say to the Club that the President will bear its invitation in mind should his official duties permit him to make such a trip to Alaska."

LADY DID NOT ROB S. WINSBY

Had Nothing to Do With Getting Money from Former Prince Rupert Bank Man.

EDMONTON, April 5.—Criminal proceedings against Mrs. Eva Love, the First street barber, who was alleged to have been an accomplice of James E. Crawford in the recent bank robbery when S. J. Winsby, formerly of Prince Rupert, was held up, have been dropped by the crown. She has been freed from all blame in connection with the affair, the prosecution taking the stand that she was entirely innocent of the unlawful acts of Crawford.

Entirely Innocent

This is the definite announcement made by Crown Prosecutor E. B. Cogswell, K.C., in an interview with the press. He indicated that the woman appeared to have been entirely unaware that there was anything wrong when she came by the money quite legitimately and the crown could find no evidence to show any guilty knowledge on her part or to accuse her as an accessory after the fact.

Crawford himself when in the police court confessed to the crime and is now serving three years for it, put a strong plea for the woman and declared that she was entirely innocent, had no lot or part in the crime and did not know that she was in the possession of stolen property.

Mr. Myers says English settlers should be well distributed and mixed with Canadians and others so as to be able to drop English habits and viewpoints and to learn to do things as done in Canada.

BETRAYER OF EDITH CAVELL FOUND GUILTY

Armand Jeaness Condemned to Die for Treason and Espionage

MONS, April 5.—Armand Jeaness was condemned to death for treason and espionage against Belgium and the Allies during the war. He had boasted that he was instrumental in bringing about the arrest and execution by the Germans of Edith Cavell, the British war nurse, but this charge was not mentioned against him in the course of the trial.

When the sentence was announced there was an outburst of applause in court and the great crowd outside jeered Jeaness as he was taken to the death cell.

ALICE ARM MAN IS ARRESTED IN CITY

Oliver Walker in Custody Following Receipt of Telegram from Constable Cameron, Alice Arm

Oliver Walker of Alice Arm, on arriving here on the Chelobsin yesterday afternoon, was placed under arrest by the provincial police and will tonight be returned to Anox to face a charge of having stolen goods in possession.

The arrest followed receipt of a wire from Constable D. S. Cameron, of Alice Arm, stating that a Seth Thomas watch and some clothing had been stolen from a man named Angus McLean and that Walker, who was on the southbound boat, was suspected. Accordingly Constables Saint and Martin met the boat on arrival here and, finding the watch on Walker when he was searched, arrested him. A later wire received from Constable Cameron this morning stated that other charges might be preferred against Walker.

OTTAWA CITIZENS PROTEST INCREASE ALDERMEN'S SALARY

Declare Advance From $300 a Year to $500 a Year Ill-advised and Reckless.

OTTAWA, April 5.—Ottawa citizens are much incensed at the action of the city council in increasing the salary of each alderman $200. The vote was put through with great secrecy or there would have been emphatic protests. Since the action was taken protests have been many and continuous. The advance in indemnity is from $300 a year to $500 a year and the vote is characterized as ill-advised and reckless. The tax rate in Ottawa is set at 28 mills on the dollar.

S. Wahlstrom, of Smithers, was among the arrivals in the city on last night's train.

Spring Is Here
So Paint Up Houses.

In a good many communities they have a clean-up and paint-up week. All the efforts of the community are then devoted to improving their houses and gardens, cleaning up their back yards and making the town more attractive to the visitor.
 Painting has to be done with some degree of regularity if places are to be kept in good condition. Lumber deteriorates very quickly if not properly protected. That is one reason for painting. The other reason is that the painted premises indicate the live merchant, the progressive householder. Keep the town looking fresh even if there is no rush of business. Nothing brings business to a town or to a store like keeping up a good appearance.
 Whether a clean-up week would be effective here it is difficult to say. At any rate it might be effective in drawing attention to a condition and in suggesting improvement.

Must Co-operate With Outside Points.

It is natural that we should all look out for ourselves. That is the primitive instinct of the race. Self-preservation makes us do many things we would otherwise leave undone and makes us leave undone many things which our finer instincts tell us we should do. There is always a contest between the crude instincts and the fine instincts. We must make a living; we like to make progress, but at the same time we must be considerate of our neighbor.

As with people, so with communities. We each want to grab everything within our reach. Yet there comes a time when we begin to consider whether our neighboring community might not also be considered.

In the north we are one big community and the good of one part is the large extent the good of all. If one section of the community is injured, all suffer. Prince Rupert is the central point in this large community and if one place suffers Prince Rupert is the first place outside of the one directly affected to feel the effects. While we as a city have to fight our way in competition with our larger neighbors, yet at the same time we have to cultivate the goodwill of the whole northern community. It is our business to aid them whenever possible, for in doing so we are helping ourselves.

Just now there is a movement started to take settlers to Queen Charlotte Islands. They are going of their own initiative and are paying their way and have some money in their pockets. If we can help them to get established we shall at the same time be helping ourselves. It is not for us to criticize their judgment in making their home on the Islands. Many settlers go to the interior and do well, but all do not like that kind of climate. Some prefer the coast. Prince Rupert people prefer it or they would not be here. So these people who are going to the Islands have made their choice, and if we can help them to make good it is not only a duty but a benefit to ourselves.

Soaking the Cities Saving the Country.

An article reprinted from the Toronto Globe taking exception to the present movement to "soak" the cities for all the taxes and let the farmers go almost tax free brought forth an interesting remark from a Prince Rupert citizen yesterday. He said:
 "I am heartily in favor of soaking the cities. There are too many people in the cities and they should be in the country. The more cities are soaked the more the tendency will be for the people to live in the country. It suits me. I am with that policy. Soak the cities, I say, and drive the people into the country."

English People And Coast Climate.

In considering the migration of people from the British Isles it must be remembered that they have been accustomed to a mild, moist climate and often prefer that sort of climate to the rigorous, clear, cold and dry climate of the interior. Everything depends on individual taste. Many people would not live in a place where there is a heavy rainfall. On the other hand many will not live where the thermometer goes below zero and where the summer are hot and mosquitoes active. While one man will choose the prairies, another will look to the wooded valleys of British Columbia, and yet others will want to be near the sea. English, Scottish and Irish people have all lived near the sea. They have a seaboard climate in those islands, and if they happen to choose a similar climate when they come to this country we in Prince Rupert, at any rate, will not take exception to their judgment.

PROMINENT ANYOX MAN HAS PASSED

W. K. MacDonald, Pioneer Citizen, Succumbs to Pneumonia.

Anyox lost one of its best known and most esteemed citizens of long standing when the death occurred on Sunday last, after a brief illness, of W. K. MacDonald, head powderman at the mine and a prominent figure in all departments of community life. The late Mr. MacDonald was stricken down on Thursday with what was at first believed to be influenza. He was taken to the hospital and the case was later diagnosed as pneumonia. He expired on Sunday.
 Deceased was a native of Granby, Quebec, and was about 55 years of age. He came west in 1899 and was connected with the Granby Company, Phoenix, B. C., until September, 1911, when he came to Anyox shortly after the company opened operations. Besides being well known and popular socially, Mr. MacDonald, as a strong Conservative, always took an active part in politics and in 1916 opposed the late Frank Mobley in the provincial election. Although not elected, he polled a strong vote on this occasion. He was a prominent Elk in the smelter town lodge and at the last election of officers was chosen esteemed leading knight. In religion he was a Catholic.
 Mr. MacDonald was a single man and is survived by two brothers in the east. The remains will arrive here by the Prince Rupert tomorrow night en route to Granby, Quebec, where interment will take place.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

FOLLOWING the spring break-up, suckers are running up the streams and being caught by millions in eastern Canada. In the west there is an open season for suckers all the time.

NOW that spring is here and the trout are sending out wireless messages to the local anglers, what about offering a prize for the longest imagination in town.

MANITOBA is the place for optimists. Last week when there was a snowfall everybody was happy because they said it would be good for the crops.

STARS get big salaries. That is the reason we look up to them.

DON'T be a woodpecker. Quit yer knocking.

I WONDER how it feels to be Lloyd George. In England when they want a big job done they just say "Let George do it."

IT is something like being office boy in a newspaper shop.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

April 5, 1912.

The Hospital Board in Session yesterday afternoon approved the appointment of Misses Campbell, McLeod and Walker as probationers. They are the first nurses-in-training in the local institution.

The police commission has granted two weeks' leave to Chief W. H. Vickers who has gone south to attend the assizes. Sergeant Merritt is acting chief.

"Six months ago, Terrace was but a wilderness; now it has bloomed into the most promising town between Prince Rupert and Hazelton," says Dr. Trayner, of that town, who is visiting the city. "There is a hotel, sawmill, drug store, blacksmith shop, general store, real estate office and over twenty-five private residences. Real estate is selling like the proverbial hot cakes."

KETCHIKAN MERCHANT

Louis Hanson of the Bon Marche Goes East on the Train

Among the arrivals yesterday on the Princess Mary was Louis Hanson of Ketchikan, owner of the Bon Marche at that town, and a property owner here. He went east on the train and will be away two or three weeks.

Mr. Hanson says Ketchikan has been prospering. He thinks the cost of transportation between his city and this is too high. Having to pay exchange on his Canadian money also worries him. However he sees better things coming.

MOUNTED POLICE ANNUAL REPORT

Provides Interesting Statistics and General Information—Local Work.

Some interesting statistics and general information is contained in the annual report of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for the year ended September 30, 1921, which has just been issued from Ottawa.

The report shows that on September 30, 1921, there were 70 officers, 1610 non-commissioned officers and constables and 795 horses in the Dominion. This showed a slight decrease in officers from the year preceding, a slight increase in the ranks and a decrease of 200 horses. In the province of B. C. there were 19 officers, 255 non-commissioned officers and constables and 165 horses.

During the year covered, the mounted police in this province handled 954 cases under federal statutes, four under the criminal code and made 502 investigations at the instance of other departments. The number of cases dealt with in this province under federal statutes constituted about one-quarter of the total for the whole Dominion.

Chief Police Work.

As is known, the chief work of the mounted police is the policing of the outlying posts of the Dominion. Thus the main activity in handling criminal cases has not been in the cities and organized districts but in the far northern expanses, where perhaps the most active work of the department has been carried on. In the province of British Columbia the principal duties of the department have been in dealing with the drug cases under Dominion statutes. In Vancouver the mounted police were called upon in the year covered in the report to prevent disorders in the way of riots which threatened on one oc-

of Quality

In all cities in the province where the police were stationed their attention has been directed more particularly of late to the drug end.

The report records that a duty was performed during the year to assist the department of Indian Affairs in this district in the complicated difficulties which centre in the Indian claim to the ownership of the Kitwanoon Valley north of Kitwanoon on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. This involved a visit to the Indian village by the officer commanding the Prince Rupert detachment in company with the Indian agent.

Garrison Points.

Of the nineteen garrison points in British Columbia, five are in the Prince Rupert district: Prince Rupert, Ocean Falls, Telkwa, Stewart and Prince George. Prince Rupert, on September 30, 1921, had one inspector, one staff sergeant, two corporals and two constables; Ocean Falls, one corporal; Telkwa, one corporal and two constables; Stewart, one constable, and Prince George, one staff sergeant and three constables. Vancouver, Esquimalt and Grand Forks are the only points in the province where there are larger garrisons than at Prince Rupert.

BE THANKFUL

A political rally was being held in a large hall in London. The speaker was a man who had rather a weak voice and similar political policies.

A cockney up in the gallery cupped his hands behind his ears in a vain effort to hear, then shouted, "Oi cawn't hear! Oi cawn't hear!"

Another cockney down in front of the platform rose to his feet and shouted back:
 "Ya cawn't hear? Well, thank Gawd, and sit down."

PRESENTATION WHIST TROPHY

Enthusiastic and Enjoyable Social Marked Occasion Last Evening.

The presentation of the Dybhavn Cup to the champion city whist team, the Valhalla Ladies, was made the occasion for a delightful social evening in the Metropole Hall last night. The entertainment took the form of a whist drive and dance which was enjoyed to the fullest degree by 150 persons who filled the hall to its capacity. The decorating of the place with cut flowers on the tables and flags, shields and hunting on the walls was a feature. The refreshments served were also par excellence and everything went to make the evening one of the most successful and delightful of the season. The hosts were the ladies of the Valhalla men's and ladies' team who were in charge of all arrangements.

There were 23 tables of whist and the prize winners were Mrs. A. Akerberg, a member of the champion whist team, and F. W. Moersch. The latter tied with T. Barnes and won on the cut. Consolation awards were taken by Mrs. F. Dobb and H. E. Glassey. Following the cards, refreshments were served before the dance. Arthur's orchestra provided the music and A. Akerberg was master of ceremonies.

Cup Presentation

The cup presentation was made by S. M. Newton, vice president of the Fraternal Whist League, in the absence of John Dybhavn, the president and donor of the trophy. Mr. Newton made a neat speech and Mrs. Olof Hanson, replying suitably, accepted the cup on behalf of the Valhalla Ladies.

The cups for high ladies' and gentlemen's averages throughout the season were presented respectively to Mrs. Ben Self and C. T. Quinn.

Another pleasing presentation was the giving of a set of handsome pipes to George W. Johnstone as a mark of appreciation of his services as secretary of the league.

Olof Hanson was called upon for a speech which he delivered in a humorous vein commending the friendly spirit which was being developed through the medium of the Whist League meetings.

Votes of Thanks

E. A. Donohoe moved a vote of thanks to John Dybhavn and F. W. Moersch to the Valhalla Ladies. Each was passed enthusiastically with cheers and applause.

Mr. Dybhavn was not present as he sailed for Vancouver yesterday afternoon on the Princess Mary.

LEST WE FORGET

Editor Daily News: With great difficulty, we as citizens of a great empire realize that it is only four years ago since the greatest onslaught in human history took place on the La Fière—St. Quentin—Cambrai—Arras front, when millions of men were launched to destroy our great empire. These were fateful days, and many men now in our city have participated in this terrible struggle in order that justice and right might live, and must reflect with pride on their incomparable valor and heroic resistance against such terrible odds, when every conceivable instrument for the destruction of life was used against them in order that force might succeed over justice.

Those who live in comparative luxury and possess health and strength may well pause and take off their hats to the men who fought and won during the black days in March and April 1918, and to the countless number who fell in the great struggle who now rest in the soil of France and Flanders.

We as citizens should look on those days with great pride when a few citizens could go and crush the greatest army assembled in history and gain for themselves immortal glory, when their cry "to hell with surrender" came forth, and stood by their ground to win or fall surrounded by hundreds of field grey corpses.

Four years ago were days of incessant battle and of terrible anxiety to all, but more so to the folks left at home, mothers, wives, brothers, sisters and sweethearts, who looked from day to day to hear news of their loved ones who were there.

We remember well when the German command sent over a message to our citizen army, that only one ship would be required to take the few that would be left home. This was only a tonic for their spirit, as the Canadian Citizen Army has gained immortal glory on many battle fronts, and stood as the pride of the British Army and the terror of the whole world.

Now that we have laid aside our instruments of war and have taken on our civilian aspect again we are liable to forget the past and also forget the men who were fortunate enough to return from such a carnage with a very small margin and who are unable to enter the civilian field with all their faculties. They are the men to whom the country owes a great debt, and pledges which have been made should not be forgotten. The small pensions allotted by the Government are not sufficient to carry on. A lot of them are unable to obtain employment, or have wives and families to keep. They are the men who are Canada's greatest asset, and surely when they have fought and won for their country they should be given every chance to make good. I have no doubt that the most of them will endeavor to make Canada a place worthy for them to live in.

The Great War Veterans' Association of Canada has been formed for the purpose of creating unity among returned men, and every effort is being made by this association to establish these men and place all their claims before the powers that be. It's up to the returned men to unite into one body so that their just claims will be allowed as it is only the duty of the country to do so.

HEARTBURN

A SEVERE CASE

Many people are troubled with heartburn who really do not realize just what it is. In cases of this trouble there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by disturbed appetite. It is generally caused by great acidity of the stomach, and whenever too much food is taken, is liable to ferment, and becomes extremely sour, causing heartburn. In such cases vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up is sour and sometimes bitter.

The one way to get rid of heartburn is to keep your liver active by using MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles such as constipation, jaundice, water brash, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath, etc. Miss Edith Cutting, Shallow Lake, Ont., writes:—I have had heartburn for a long time. There were gnawing and burning pains in my stomach, and then when I vomited there was a sour and bitter taste. I used two vials of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of my heartburn. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine.

Price, 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ation a great many returned men have received relief during the past winter, regardless of whether they belonged to the Association or not. Claims have also been forwarded and have been settled. Claims for pensions have been made and also a great number of other claims which the returned man should have forwarded through the G. W.V.A. clean sweep campaign.

Tonight

Tonight the Great War Veterans' association will give a smoker to all returned men, who are all cordially invited to come and be comrades and show that the spirit and good fellowship which we had four years ago is still living and is going to live, for we are a long time dead.

A. MACKENZIE, Sec. G.W.V.A.

OBJECTS TO LICENSE TAX

Canada is today topheavy with big business. We are riding for a fall unless we take the lessons learned by the development of the States to heart. We have granted subsidies on one hand and appointed 82,500 clerks on the other to first get big business started and then graft off them and interfere with them.

We have now a national railway and steamship combine. We have also a lot of privately owned railways and steamships. Instead of finding some means of furnishing goods to transport our efforts are apparently turned toward preventing or prohibiting transportation.

The best illustration occurs in town. Three of our doctors own motorboats and all of them own cars. Neither one of these Canadian-owned means of transportation can be used legally for the purpose of performing a service; they have a tax to pay, but those cars or boats which are frankly used for the performance of service have to pay at least twice as much. Why should a Canadian have to pay for working more than a privately owned car or boat? Why punish the man who performs a public service?

There is today a hubblebub over the freight rates on rail and steamship lines. My contention is that if the people of our country object to the methods of the companies now in existence they have the right either to purchase or parallel the lines of these companies, but they have no right to interfere in any way with private business. Such interference costs the transportation companies too much, and the people have to pay for it.

There is too much of a tendency to give subsidies to induce business and too much regulation which is graft on the other. 30,000 Launches.

Here along the British Columbia coast we have large isolated settlements. We subsidize steamers to get a partial service to these settlements. We have 30,000 launches of all sizes in British Columbia. Of these there are perhaps 100 which can legally perform a service for the public. Those of us who attempt to do so are regulated and interfered with. The result is we have no service, and the settlement of the country is being prohibited. The best governed country is the least governed. HOOMES K. FREEMAN.

CUTTING DOWN ON U. S. NAVY

American Ratio May Be Even Lower Than Treaty Allowance.

WASHINGTON, April 5. (By Canadian Press)—Friends of a large navy in the United States or, as they are generally called, the "big navy" men, are much concerned over the trend of things with respect to the naval appropriations.

The House committee on appropriations, in formulating the naval appropriations bill for the next fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1922, reduced the personnel to 65,000 and otherwise made heavy reductions. While this has been expected for some time, by those in intimate touch with the situation, Secretary of the Navy Denby and other advocates of a large navy had hoped to induce the committee to content itself with a smaller reduction.

The Washington armament conference agreed on a naval ratio as among the United States, Great Britain and Japan of 5-5-3. Now, the indications are the United States will be compelled to get along with a 1 over ratio. Senator Poindexter, who frequently acts as chairman of the Senate naval committee, and who is a large navy man, warned the Senate recently that if the program now talked of in the House went through this country would find its part of the ratio forced down to 2 instead of 5.

HARD TIMES DANCE ANYOX

Well Known and Respected Citizens as Tramps and Rogues.

ANYOX, April 5.—The hard times dance given by the Community League seemed to have attracted the largest collection of rascals that could possibly be gathered within the precincts of the Recreation Hall on Friday last. The league must have lost heavily by the entertainment, as not more than 10 per cent. of the 500 people present could possibly have possessed the price of admission. An exciting rumor went round the hall that the doors had been rushed and the ticket-sellers overpowered. This was later apparently confirmed by the appearance of the corresponding secretary, Joe Lowry, who was seen snobbling about the floor, his face badly disfigured and clothes almost torn to shreds. Jack Sherman was little better, the crowd having apparently ripped the shirt from his back.

To save the financial situation, a hasty meeting of the council was called and it was decided to economize wherever possible, which was done by serving to such a ruffianly crowd only such sustenance as could be obtained from one cup of coffee and one doughnut, the prizes for the evening having already been purchased.

Carried Off Swag.
The trembling judges, Mr. and Mrs. Gribbs and Fred Miller, were in fear of their lives owing to the roughneck crowd prowling around and muttering threats about "getting the swag." Their fears were somewhat realized when the roughnecks suddenly pounced upon them and demanded the "bookie." This priceless gang, who assumed the names of "Scotty" Mahoney, "Joek" Munroe, Mrs. H. Jones, "Viv" Rashleigh and "Howy" Champion, got away with valuable articles which had been bought for first and second gentlemen's and first, second and third ladies' prizes respectively. Much indignation was felt by the few respectable people present, but as they were in the minority they were compelled to be silent.

The police took the names of the hardest-looking customers, who are to be arraigned before the magistrate for battery and assault. There seems to be a conspiracy among the underworld in these days to drag the names of respectable people in the mire and this reprehensible tendency was again exhibited by the thugs present at this raid who, without exception, took to themselves the names of well known and respected citizens of Anyox. In order that drastic action may be taken by self-respecting people against this misuse of their good birthrights, the following list is appended:

Those Present.

CASH PRIZES FOR CARDS OBJECTED TO CITY OF WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, April 5.—Is a cash prize for cards a camouflaged "kitty"? City salons are in doubt. If a legal diagnosis shows a "kitty," and a cash prize are "sisters in crime," then the old whist game is to be classified as a gambling game, the promoters and players are gamblers, and the criminal code will be brought to bear on the subject.

It happened thus: Members of a civic committee were inspired with a general clean-up and keep-it-up objective. Ald. Shore found whist games being held in conjunction with dances. There were cash prizes offered amounting to $100 or even more. The friend to the right played a good game. His neighbor to the left lost consistently. Result: One got the prize and the other two players split. Ald. Shore alleged this was the logical development of a cash prize bait, that the practice was pernicious and was nothing short of gambling. Other aldermen begged to differ. A sub-committee is to pass judgment and the city solicitor, the license inspector and Ald. Shore now are conducting an investigation.

FARMER CANDIDATES MANITOBA ELECTION

WINNIPEG, April 5.—The Independent-Farmer group will not go to the country this summer as a party. William Robson, leader, announced. Following the session, the group which has been in existence since the general elections of 1920, will disband.

As leader of the Independent-Farmer group in the legislature, Mr. Robson was invited to address meetings of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association, along with other group leaders, but he declined, and C. H. Burnell, president of the U. F. M., was asked to present the farmers' case before the credit men.

Speaking of the stand which members of his group would take in the election campaign, Mr. Robson said that the majority of them would not oppose U. F. M. candidates. Unless he was chosen on the Farmer ticket, Mr. Robson announced he would not be a candidate in the general elections.

Donald A. Ross, former member for St. Clements, has announced he will be a candidate in the campaign.

WINNIPEG'S CHEAP POWER RATE CAUSES SURPRISE IN SOUTH

WINNIPEG, April 5.—Winnipeg's cheap electrical power and free use of the Hydro-Electric, said today on his return from a trip to the southern states and the Gulf of Mexico.

"In New Orleans there is a scheme under way to replace the coal burners in the power plant by the Diesel oil-burning engines. Citizens are paying 10 cents per kilowatt hour, and the change will bring the price down to 7 1/2 c. The officials and citizens I talked to could hardly believe it when I quoted our prices of nine-tenths of a cent for domestic power for ranges and 3 cents for light. I saw no electric ranges there."

JUSTIFIED.

KEEP OUT OF CANADA HAS BEEN SLOGAN

OTTAWA, April 5.—"Keep out of Canada" seems to have been the slogan of the Canadian Government and Canadian officials during the past year or two. Absolutely no encouragement has been given to prospective immigrants, but quite the opposite. British settlers have been discouraged in every possible manner. As compared with Australia and New Zealand the Dominion Government would appear to have been asleep in the matter of developing immigration. No effort apparently has been made to work in conjunction with the British Government in its offer to finance 50 per cent. of the cost of helping emigrants to various parts of the Empire to make permanent arrangements and maintain themselves.

Hopes that some definite plan covering all the overseas dominions would have developed at the last Empire conference were not encouraged by Mr. Meighen, and a resolution approving of securing as many as possible of the emigrants from England to go to the other parts of the Empire was passed without further action to follow this up.

100,000 for Australia.

Meanwhile Australia and New Zealand have been active in co-operating with the British Government and in a recent article the London Evening News intimates that nearly 100,000 British emigrants will reach Australia this year. It declares that Australia House is almost besieged with would-be settlers, sometimes 1900 daily. It adds that postal enquiries average 1200 and at present 2000 people are awaiting embarkation. There are still 15,000 men, women and children awaiting shipment under the British Government's scheme for former service men, and an unlimited number of assisted passages is offered by settlers of the right type.

DIE NATURAL DEATH

The Canadian Fisherman says: Again we are impelled to ask: Are the sockeye salmon and the halibut to be slaughtered ruthlessly for another year before action is taken to protect the species by international understanding? Or is it the intention to let these most lucrative branches of the industry die a natural death?

McTIGUE PROMISES TO BE A FIGHTER

Irish-Canadian Has Stamina and Courage as Well as Youth.

TORONTO, Apr. 5.—(By Canadian Press.)—The possibility that Canada may soon possess a World's champion professional fighter looms large on the boxing horizon. Canada has had amateur champions in boxing, but the records do not contain many names in the professional championship ranks. Tommy Burns was, of course, a Canadian and a sterling fighter, but since his day the Dominion has supplied few fighters of championship qualifications.

However, now that Mike McTigue, the Irish-Canadian middleweight, has fought his way to the forefront of his division, Canadian boxing fans will follow his career with interest and will hope that he will develop into a real champion with careful handling.

Although, technically speaking, Johnny Wilson, the Boston Italian, retains the middleweight title, there is really no recognized champion among the boxing fans as a result of the Cleveland fiasco, when Bryan Downey received the verdict over Wilson at the end of a very unsatisfactory contest. Wilson's conduct then and subsequently brought him under the ban of several of the state boxing commissions, and rightly so, for he is undoubtedly the poorest titleholder the boxing game has seen in many moons.

Ever since he received a very favorable decision over Mike O'Dowd, which gave him the championship, Wilson has been mighty careful in his selection of opponents and in paying particular attention to the end that his title was not placed in jeopardy, and he exhibits a healthy regard for men like Mike Gibbons and Mike McTigue.

It is very unlikely that Gibbons will make another effort for the championship, but McTigue is a strong aspirant, and it is safe betting that if ever the Irish-Canadian champion succeeds in luring the Boston Italian into the roped arena there is going to be a new star in the fistie firmament. McTigue has earned himself a right to a fight for the championship, and while the critics were not greatly impressed with his last fight with Young Fisher, they concede that he has the makings of a champion. Jeff Smith of course still looms forth, but he is a veteran, and he is not considered a serious contender.

Stamina and Courage.

McTigue is not a finished boxer, but what he lacks in the finer points of the game is counterbalanced by his fighting ability, stamina, courage and his faculty in assimilating punishment. He also has youth on his side, being a comparatively short time in the game, but long enough to defeat men who were considered the forefront of his class. What he knows was learned in Canada, where he soon cleared up all opposition that stood in the way of his march to being a headliner and the championship.

With careful handling and the accumulation of ring generalship which will come with experience, there is no reason why McTigue should not soon bring the middleweight championship to Canada if Arrangements for a basketball series this week between Anyox and Prince Rupert have been cancelled. The Anyox management wanted the game staged there on Friday and said that was the only possible date for them. As it would have been necessary for the local team to leave here tonight, the players were desirous of playing the games tomorrow night so they could be home by Friday. In fact, that was the only arrangement that could be suitable to the locals with a limited time at their disposal. Accordingly the series has been called off, transportation conditions again the sole cause in preventing the meeting. Although, for the present, there series is off there is still a possibility that an Anyox team may come down here for the Elks' Carnival on May 24. An invitation is to be sent north challenging the smelter boys to a game or series of games at that time.

W. J. Hemmings was successful over Steve King in the final of the Wanderers' Club billiard handicap which was concluded recently, so he may be described as the club champion. The tournament, in which most of the members of the club were originally entered, took a little less than a month to play and was followed with a good deal of interest. In the two semi-final games W. J. Hemmings beat S. N. Wilson and Steve King beat Douglas Stork.

A house snooker tournament, open to all members of the lodge, is to be played at the Elks Home and will commence at the end of this week or early next. It will be an elimination series and the winner will be awarded a prize of his own choice, the limit being that it cost no more than ten dollars. The first entries for the tournament were received yesterday.

Scores in Lepine Cup billiard tournament at Elks' Home: Blythe, 200; Day Bell, 105. C. Balagno, 193; La Casse, 200. Hooper, 102; McMorde, 200. Bulger, 125; McEvoy, 200. McEvoy, 426; Blythe, 200. JURYWOMAN DISLIKES JOB

Gives Reason Why She Would Not Like to Serve Again.

TRENTON, N.J., April 5.—Judge Marshal in the Mercer circuit of the Common Pleas has excused Mrs. Anna Cunningham from further jury service after hearing that her experiences on two mixed juries within a week had convinced her women were not fitted for such duties.

During this time she was locked for all-night deliberation and, she declares, she has not yet recovered from a threatened nervous prostration. Her views are endorsed by her husband, James.

"The present illness of Mrs. Cunningham is the first at all serious in 16 years," he said, "I attribute it solely to the mental and nervous strain to which she has been subjected."

Referring to her services on two juries each comprised of six men and six women, Mrs. Cunningham cited numerous reasons for reluctance further to participate in the administration of justice. Among these reasons are six which she considers the best in the world, five children and a husband. The children range in age from three to fourteen years.

Made a Mistake

"My selection as a juror was unsolicited and I accepted only after considerable hesitation," Mrs. Cunningham declares. "I was actuated by the fact that I had lost a little boy early this year and thought that participation in court work would tend to occupy my mind and in a sense relieve my grief."

"My first night away from home confirmed the already half-formed opinion that I had made a mistake. Imagine my feelings. My husband is employed at night. There were my five children at home alone.

"The second experience was altogether needless to convince me that a woman's place is not in a court room, particularly if she is married and a mother. By some I may be termed old-fashioned in my views. To those who deem it a woman's duty to insist upon each and all of her recently acquired rights I have nothing to say other than to advise that they carefully consider all of the responsibilities that accompany the privilege. In other words look before you leap.

Temperamentally Unfitted

"I might add my personal opinion that the majority of women are temperamentally unfitted to pass judgment upon others. Many I have found addicted to preconceived verdicts, which argument or logic failed to change. Sympathy, doubtless, was a factor with some, with others it seemed a reluctance to be guilty of changing their mind or appearing to admit that they might be wrong in their first view.

"In a sense, I also consider that jury duty is an assault upon woman's natural modesty, refinement and reserve. Some cases which she is called upon to consider are of a nature so delicate that she shrinks from a frank discussion of evidence, and a just verdict is impossible otherwise. I am speaking for the first time since I accepted duty on a jury and am doing so that others may know what to expect if they accept the obligation."

TWO GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Youths Sent to Penitentiary for Ten Years for Brutal Assault.

EDMONTON, April 5.—The Supreme Criminal Court jury hearing the evidence in the trial of the three men charged with the murder of George Popovich at Smoky Lake on February 9 last, brought in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the case of George Worochuk and Harry Droniuk and a verdict of not guilty in the case of Fred Boychuk.

Boychuk, the man who was alleged to have driven the other accused to the scene of the crime and was held culpable was, upon the verdict of the jury, immediately discharged by Mr. Justice Walsh, who told him that the jury might easily have brought in a different verdict, but they had taken the merciful view of the case. He told him that it was moonshine whisky that got him mixed up in the tragedy and warned him to give up the use of it. He had had his lesson, and if he did not profit by it he was not worth much.

Passing Sentence.

In the case of the other two men the jury in reducing the charge from murder to manslaughter, made a strong recommendation for mercy in the matter of sentence. On the request of the presiding justice they disclosed their reason for their plea on behalf of Worochuk and Droniuk. They said they took into consideration the youth of the men, their previous good character and the fact that they were intoxicated with moonshine whisky.

Mr. Justice Walsh, taking into account these recommendations for mercy, sentenced the two young men to a term of ten years each in the penitentiary, and in passing this sentence, said that he thoroughly agreed with the verdict of the jury. He would have been sorry if they had brought in a verdict of guilty of murder. He believed that the men knew what they were doing when they attacked Popovich, but being drunk with moonshine they did not mean to kill. But a man had been killed, and it was cowardly, brutal and a dastardly crime and they had to be punished for their deeds and as a warning to others.

Broke Down Under Sentence

The sentence was announced to a crowded court. There were present in the front benches the young wives of the accused Worochuk and Droniuk, and were attended by their nurse. They broke out into violent sobs when the verdict was given, and it was with difficulty that they were separated from their husbands when they were being led away to the cells. The two youths broke down completely when the sentence was pronounced.

The Judge's Charge.

In summing up the case for the jury Mr. Justice Walsh said that it was one of more than ordinary importance and was one of the most terrible tragedies to come before him in his judicial experience. A cowardly and brutal attack, he said, had been made on Popovich by his assailants, who had quickly fled from the scene, leaving their victim half dead, with his wife and her babe afraid, alone and unaided in their dire distress.
