German Proposals not in Order Until France is Officially Notified

Any attempt of a third party to intervene to provoke discussion on the terms under which a settlement might be reached with Germany, will be regarded by France as an unfriendly act, it is added.

Buckley is at Massett Mill

Arrived There on John Yesterday—Material Arrives for Plant—Schooners Loading

Frank L. Buckley, head of the Massett Timber Co., Ltd., arrived yesterday morning on the steamer Prince John at Buckley Bay on his first trip of inspection since the big mill there started cutting cuts for re-manufacture at Los Angeles. He will spend a few days at the mill and expects to return to Vancouver on the John early next week.

George P. Hale, second to Mr. Buckley in the management of the mill, arrived in the city this morning by the Prince John and expects to leave here for Vancouver on the next steamer.

There also arrived at Buckley Bay on the Prince John this week a large shipment of cement and bricks which is to be used in improving and extending the boiler plant at the Buckley mill.

Thirty-five more men will be employed in sawmill and logging operations also arrived on the steamer.

The Massett Timber Co.'s steam schooner El Cedro is still at Buckley Bay loading for Los Angeles and also a sailing schooner taking on old spruce stock for Seattle.

TACOMA, Mar. 17.—Two of three men who held up the Northern Pacific train at South Prairie this morning were captured badly wounded. An automobile used by the bandits was riddled with shots from revolvers and rifles by the citizens of Buckley, as the car passed through that town.

There was a $15,000 express package on the train which the bandits were after but the messenger, hearing the firing, hid the parcel and the bandits were unable to find it.

Premier Owners Buy Claims Salmon River

Reaching out still further in its policy of acquiring as much of the great mineralized zone in the Salmon River section of the Portland Canal as it can, the Guggenheim interest, now in control of the Premier mine and other large properties, has purchased the Mineral Basin group of claims, says the Vancouver World. This property adjoins the Northern Light group, control of which is held by the B.C. Silver Corporation, backed by English capital. The Guggenheims hold a one-third interest in the B.C. Silver.

Bill McGraw and associates were the original owners of Mineral Basin. While the surface showings here are not especially attractive, it is said that the group lies on the main strike of the ore, therefore is attractive to the big company.

Farmer Went Crazy

TOPEKA, Kansas, Mar. 17.—John Mottague went crazy and under the influence of the mania shot and killed his wife and daughter and shot and injured himself.

Strict Censorship in Dublin over Despatches: Even News of Siki Fight Tonight is Barred

LONDON, March 17.—The reason for the rigid censorship imposed in Dublin yesterday preventing the use of the telegraph and telephone lines except for brief messages approved by the authorities, is not known here. London morning papers have scarcely anything from Dublin. Even late items of the Siki-Me-Tigue fight were not allowed through except what reached Belfast through travellers. The fight takes place at eight o'clock this evening under a strong guard of Free State troops, it is said.

Right of Canada to Act Alone in Canadian Affairs is Fought to Finish in Fisheries Treaty

OTTAWA, March 17.—Correspondence tabled in the House of commons indicates the Canadian government had difficulty in arranging that the halibut fisheries treaty between Canada and the United States should be signed by the Canadian minister of fisheries as the sole representative of the King, without the British ambassador subscribing to the treaty.

Three months ago Baron Byng cabled to London asking that full powers be conferred on Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of marine and fisheries. On February 28 another cable from Baron Byng to the British Colonial secretary expressed surprise that British Ambassador Geddes at Washington had been instructed to sign on behalf of the King, considering the belief that Canada's signature was sufficient and the matter being solely one of concern to Canada. Baron Byng asked that Sir Auckland Geddes be instructed to stay out.

Four days later the treaty was signed at Washington by Mr. Lapointe alone.

Girl Saved Irish Train

Flagged it to Prevent Destruction at Risk of Incurring Revenge

DUBLIN, March 17.—Defying probable revenge of the irregular organization for the frustration of their plans, a farmer's daughter near Ballina flagged the hospital train of the Free State troops and stopped it within a yard or two of a ditch dug by the irregulars where the rails were also torn up.

Victim of Sea Massett Inlet

Young Indian Boy Lost and Remains of George Doughty Discovered

MASSETT, Mar. 17.—The search for the body of a young Indian, named David Bell, of the Massett Band, has been carried on by his brother tribesmen, for over a week, without result. The man went across Massett inlet, in his launch, to obtain a number of logs. Later in the day his launch was seen floating with the tide. Some other Indians boarded the vessel and found the engine running, but Bell was missing and has not been heard of since the 3rd instant. His small boat was also missing and it is presumed that the wind and tide carried the man out to sea. Search parties covered the whole of the north coast of Graham Island, from Rose Spit to Langara Island. The only result of the search was to discover the remains of the late George Doughty, which were imbedded in the sand on the beach near the place where the remains of Mrs. Doughty were discovered, shortly after the wreck of their launch last summer.

Much Activity

Buckley Bay, on Massett Inlet, was the scene of a great deal of activity during the past week. Two large motor-driven boats were loading lumber for the Los Angeles Products Limited, while a large schooner was also loaded with timber for Seattle. A number of logging camps were started, with the prospects of a busy season for all concerned.

The body never came up and was not recovered.

Sense of Nationalism Strong in Irish.

The Irish have a strong sense of nationalism, much stronger than people from larger countries. It is usually the sign of a small and struggling country that it shows a very keen sense of nationalism. Yet the Irish people are not a small people, neither is their influence small. Irish people are found everywhere. While in their home land they behave in rather an odd manner, but when they come to Canada or the United States they are among the very best citizens.

It is because of the strong sense of nationalism that the Irish people every year celebrate St. Patrick's Day with such enthusiasm. Today we all unite with them in their celebration, for everybody loves the Irish.

Dressing Up Story For Public Consumption.

The wolf story published yesterday which came to us on the wire from the Canadian Press had all the earmarks of a nicely written imaginary yarn. It caused a good deal of talk around town yesterday, especially in view of the fact that only the previous day a story had been published in which an opinion was expressed by a missionary that wolves never attacked men.

The story as it came through yesterday was most improbable. All there was to it, was that a hunter found a gun and near the gun a few scraps of clothing, both supposed to be those of a well known hunter. Also close by he found the bones of six animals, probably wolves. The story said the carcasses of wolves, but that does not seem reasonable for the same wolves that would eat the man would also eat the carcasses of their fellows. On their return to civilization the two hunters told some enterprising reporter of the find and he dressed it up with such expressions as "mute and ghastly evidence," "hunger crazed wolves," "desperate battle." The whole thing was set out as a word picture of an imaginary and possibly a true event.

University Charges Have Gone Higher.

The board of governors of the University of British Columbia have decided to raise the students' fees from $50 as at present to $75 for arts and $100 for agriculture. Taken as a general principle, there should be no objection to that. It will tend to change the institution from a glorified Vancouver High School to a real university.

This is an opportune time to renew the suggestion which has been made before. Where the students live a long way from the university and the transportation fare is high, the fare should be deducted from the university fees as an incentive to other than Vancouver students to attend. Prince Rupert pays as much as does Vancouver, comparatively, for the university upkeep. The cost comes out of the provincial taxes. Yet because of the distance from here and the consequent expense of travel it is difficult for students to attend. A remission of the travelling expenses as part of the fees would tend to equalize things to a small degree.

Another suggestion made here, although we should hardly like to agree with it, is that the number of Vancouver students attending the University should be restricted to the same proportion as those from the outside districts according to population. It is true that it would deplete the institution, but why should we pay heavy taxes to educate the young people of Vancouver when we get little or no benefit from it ourselves and when the Vancouver people are so much richer than ourselves? If there were an organized campaign along these lines, the University would find it difficult to get the support of the people of the whole province.

Again, it has been decided to raise the fees for students in agriculture higher than the fees for arts. This on the face of it looks very foolish. What we want in British Columbia is agriculturists. Back to the land is no new cry here. We have arts students galore, too many by half. What we need is men and women who will do things rather than go in for strictly cultural subjects. Even if the cost of the course in agriculture is high, the tendency will be to make it more difficult to learn scientific agriculture, and that in a day when the efforts of both the province and the Dominion is set on bringing people from abroad to settle on the land, people who will need instruction in the latest methods of agriculture. The University, if it is to fill the needs of the people, should cater particularly to the students who wish to take up technical subjects and discourage the purely cultural subjects until the day when the problems of life here have been solved.

ROUTINE MATTERS MEETING OF ANYOX COMMUNITY LEAGUE

Preparations Being Made For Big Dance on Easter Monday

ANYOX, March 17.—At the first meeting of the council of the Community League on Wednesday, George Lewis was chosen president, Mr. Callahan vice-president, and Mr. Townshend, secretary-treasurer. There was no second nomination for president or secretary, but for vice-president Messrs. Noel and Simpson's names were presented but they declined. Those present at the meeting were Messrs. Callahan, Lewis, Blaney, Noel, Harper, Townshend, Simpson, Jones and Steele.

The secretary's report dealt with the meeting calling for nominations to the vacant seat on the hospital board, a meeting of the committee to amend the constitution and requested that the council take some steps to join with the Elks' organization in the entertainment of the Rupert basketball players after the games were finished on Thursday night. The council authorized the secretary to go ahead and make the necessary arrangements. In the matter of a representative from the Mine on the Community League council, it was decided by the council that the secretary should ascertain the wishes of the league members in that section of the community and be advised by them.

At the annual general meeting of the league, Mr. Rowley, who is leaving Anyox, tendered his resignation as a member of the council. This had not been accepted at that meeting, so the matter was brought up again and disposed of by a motion to the effect that the resignation of Mr. Rowley be accepted.

Matter of Cost
A discussion on whether the Community League should pay the transportation of the basketball teams to and from the Mine lasted some time, and was finally disposed of by the whole matter being left to the secretary's discretion. In this connection the secretary told of the great expense the league was under in keeping the gymnasium running. How it supplied the building, heating, lighting, services of an instructor, as well as shower baths, basketballs and all equipment, and with these thought that he outlay was sufficient.

Some talk took place in connection with the Easter dance of the league. After a lot of discussion as to whether it would be a hard times dance or beggar's ball or a masquerade, it was agreed that it would be held on Easter Monday, the nature of the dance to be determined later, and all the council were made into a committee to see that this dance would be a worthy of former efforts of the league.

Meeting Times
It was suggested that the league council would function successfully if the meeting nights were cut down to two nights a month in the winter and during the summer to one night only each month. It was presumed that this could be embodied in the amended constitution when it came before the special general meeting to be called in the near future to endorse the action of the committee. It was suggested also that the weekly meeting night of the council be changed from Wednesday to Friday night, because it would permit certain desirable citizens who were otherwise engaged on Wednesdays to serve the community on the council.

On the meeting being thrown open for general discussion, Mr. McAllister took occasion to congratulate the council on their choice of officers, referring particularly to the president, and predicted that the Community League would do good work during the year 1923.

TAYLOR MINING STOCK HELD IN ALICE ARM

Residents Look Forward to More Stable Conditions in Future

ALICE ARM, March 17.—Several holders of Taylor Mining Co. stock in Alice Arm will be hard hit if the recent order made in Vancouver giving over possession of all the Dolly Varden interests including the interests of the Taylor Engineering Co. and Taylor Mining Co. and those of the shareholders of the old Dolly Varden Co. and the creditors of the Taylor Mining Co., goes into effect. Such a development would make private stock issued by the Taylor Mining Co., of which there is a good deal in Alice Arm, valueless. This week, in view of recent events, a $500 lot of the stock was offered for 50c by a local citizen.

Whatever may happen, it is hoped here that under the new management the operation of the property may proceed on a new basis of stability which, heretofore, seems to have been lacking.

It is said in Vancouver that Mr. Wingfield, the mortgagee who now comes into control of the Dolly Varden mine, has given the Taylor Co. every opportunity to take redemption of its liabilities to him and that if he takes over the mine, it will be because there is no other course open to him to recover his investment.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

James Hunter, rancher of Sandspit, Q.C.I., died in the General Hospital yesterday afternoon. He was a native of Scotland and was 64 years of age.

The steamer Spokane was in port yesterday afternoon crowded with gold seekers bound for Teslin Lake. Several prospectors also took passage from here.

The interior district is in the grip of a severe blizzard, over a foot and a half of snow having fallen at many points along the line of the G.T.P. yesterday.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

ONE way for a girl to save her face is to marry a druggist.

IT may be complimentary and it may not, to be called a "nice old man."

THE people who mostly are not interested in the power of mind over matter are the people who have no mind.

ONE thing about a town where people do not drive autos, there is an absence of people who boast about the number of miles they can get from a gallon.

SOME of the modern cars seem to see how much smell they can get from a gallon and it is wonderful what splendid success they attain.

When Patrick banished all the snakes Took each one by the tail And Yanked it out of Ireland far It proved of no avail For very soon the Irish went Also across the sea And lived out there among the snakes As happy as could be.

Then here's a lesson from this tale I want you all to know, 'Tis better 'mong the snakes to live Than hate each other so.

"THE advantage of a small boat is you can hug the shore," remarked the young man with Scottish tendency.

"If that's all there is to hug, give me a big boat," retorted the young man who likes girls.

THE present business condition is that in the morning things are quiet and in the afternoon the rush falls off.

A GREEPY book is suited to a hookworm.

Should a woman endure this?

Is it fair to ask a woman to bear more than a man—to submit to the heavy drudgery of washday and the unwise exposure to cold and chilling winds?

Certainly it is no longer necessary. For a very nominal charge—less than it would cost you at home when you count your own time—we will call for your bundle and do your entire washing, and any part or all of the ironing.

A phone call will bring our representative who will explain in detail our many washday helps.

LITTLE BOY WAS RUN OVER BY BIG TRUCK

Tommy Smith Owes His Life to Presence of Mind of Canadian Express Co.'s Driver

Tommy Smith, 9-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, is in the General Hospital as a result of an accident on Third Avenue near Third Street yesterday afternoon when he was run over by the Canadian National Express Co.'s delivery truck driven by George Derrington. Although both wheels of the heavy truck passed over the boy it is believed that his injuries are not very serious and that he will soon recover from the accident.

Apparently the lad had been riding on a pile of lumber being carried on a Pacific Cartage truck driven by Vic Menzies. Jumping suddenly from the truck, he stopped in front of the express motor giving the driver no chance to stop although much presence of mind was exercised by Mr. Derrington in the way he handled the car when the lad was under it. To this the boy probably owes his life.

Young Smith was run over by a car a short time ago and at that time had his leg broken.

SUFFERED SO FROM HEART AND NERVES LIFE WAS A BURDEN

Mr. A. H. Lee, Beamsville, Ont., writes: "I am delighted to let you know what I have to say regarding the good Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did me. A short time ago I suffered with heart and nerve trouble, and was so bad I could not sleep, only about two hours each night. My heart was so bad I had spots when driving on the road and would faint away, and neighbors would carry me in from my wagon. I also took these pills in the night and during my daily work on the farm. My nerves were so bad I would jump out of bed, and was then compelled to walk the floor before I could settle down again, but after taking a few boxes of

The population of Hazelton district turned out en masse to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. H. C. Wrinch which took place at Hazelton on Thursday afternoon. There were also representatives from Kispiox, Terrace, Smithers, and Telkwa, and six tribes of Indians from different parts of the district were present, including the bands of the Church Army and Salvation Army. Six clergymen participated in the obsequies. Rev. J. B. Hewitt, Hazelton pastor, preached the sermon and paid a fine tribute to the life and service of Mrs. Wrinch. Rev. W. Mawhinney, of Telkwa, and Rev. T. E. Ferrier, of Brandon, Man., head of the Indian Mission department of the Methodist Church, also spoke feelingly in memory of deceased. Other clergymen taking part were: Rev. J. H. Young, of Terrace; Rev. Proctor of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Hazelton, and Rev. M. W. Lees, of Smithers. At the graveside Robert Tomlinson spoke to the Indians in their native tongue. The Church Army choir and the Salvation Army choir sang, and the Church Army band rendered a selection. The pallbearers were H. H. Little, E. R. Cox, C. H. Sawle, W. S. Harris, R. S. Sargent and S. H. Hoskins. Funeral arrangements were in the hands of the B.C. Undertakers, of Prince Rupert.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

Admiral of the fleet, who returned to port from a long cruise of inspection, reports that the fish arrivals this week are to the old stride and that the landings have been made, in fact he can now tell the difference between a cat skin and a buffalo hide. Among other things Cap got a Catawampus skin, one of the finest species of the feline tribe only found in Dead Man's Hollow. The Catawampus hide measures some 12 feet by 6 feet beam and is valued at well it doesn't matter.

The skipper reports having met with all kinds of different weather while on the trip. At one time the wind would be so rough that it would blow his whiskers into his face thus saving the shaving process while at other times it would be so calm that it was possible to signal with cigarette papers from the masthead.

Albert-McCaffery Arrivals

The Union steamer Chitkok, Capt. Georgeon, arrived in port on Wednesday from the south with a cargo of 300 tons of Nanaimo-Wellington coal. The Prince John, Capt. Neddien, arrived on Thursday with 20,000 feet of double dressed lumber for local stock, while a consignment of doors was discharged by the Princess Mary on Monday last.

Flewin Purchases Boat

C. Flewin and Geo. Brown, of Port Simpson, have purchased a very fine trolling boat from the Sura Yards. The boat measures 25 ft. long with a 9 ft. beam and will be fitted with a 16 h.p. Eastern Standard engine. When completed the new craft will be put into commission in the fish packing business.

Torburg Arrives With Fur

The power boat Torburg, with Capt. Nels Robinson on the bridge, arrived in port during the week from the south with a fine cargo of furs. The cargo included mink, otter and martin of excellent quality which found a ready local purchaser.

Captain Freeman is Back

Captain Hoopes K. Freeman of the launch Narbethong returned to port early in the week after an extended bartering and sailing trip in southern waters. Cap went as far south as Ocean Falls and reports finding everybody in an optimistic mood at his ports of call. Hoopes K. has been acting as purchasing agent for W. Goldbloom, the fur trader, and returned with a good the hands of Capt. Kort. Considerable work is to be done on this old timer and it will be some days before she is again fit for the high spots.

Paddy Raymond Fishing

The dear old Irish colony around Lookout Point is looking forlorn and hopeless these days, and the natives wear an air of dejection. This is put down to the fact that the king of the colony, Paddy Raymond, has hiked out of port on the Couple of Dollars to see what's doing on the deep sea grounds. It is understood that Jack Poner has been left in charge of the Point during Paddy's absence and if anyone gets fresh around there, or tries to take undue advantages, they are liable to see the point very porceily.

Louis Locker, with his power boat Lewis Island, arrived in port during the week from his logging camp situated at Pitt Island, near Captain's Cove. Louis is in the city for supplies and incidentally to do a little personal business.

Real Diamond Hunt

The boys around the government dock have been out this week on a real diamond hunt right at their own door. It appears that a passenger on disembarking from the Princess Mary on Monday lost a 8000 diamond ring while pulling off his glove. A frantic search was made by the unfortunate one in the hope of recovery while the boys around prayed that he wouldn't be successful. Needless to add he was not successful and since then the local gang have been employing their spare time in searching the limbers. Among the most ardent searchers was Doc Clapperton, who hates football and bagpipes. Doc has been sitting on the edge of the wharf every evening catching cod fish which he has opened very carefully in the expectation that a cod had swallowed the ring. To date he has not caught the right fish.

Fish Business

During the week 581,000 lbs. of fish has been marketed through the Fish Exchange. The highest price prevailing was 17.4c and 19.5c, and the lowest 13.5c and 8c. The arrivals were: Evolution, President, Imperial, Star, Carole, Wilson, Brothers, Scout, Adelaide, National Myra, Augusta, Johanna, Nornen, Livingstone, Rosepitt, Maude, Athi, Ruth, Alliance, Skandia, Mildred, Wabash, Graling, Pelican, Tatoosh, Ramona, Valorous, Restitution, Norma, Tino, Crescent, Nuba, Presho, Goney, Cora, Teddy J., Chancelor, Fremont, 1165, Hippo, Toddie, Westerner, Alice M., Pioneer III, Anna J., Sirius, Viking, Arcade, D.C.E., Selma, Imperieuse, Sherman, W. & F., Cape Clear, Lillian M., Caygeon, Marguerite, Scrub, H. & R.

What A Different Home

(Dedicated to a Waterfront Celebrity. You can guess who it is.) Here's a little story, 'tis very true, though old. It's all about a baby boy and what his coming had. Before the little stranger came to make this house his home, everybody had a chair could call his life his own. The house was always nifty, the kettles on the boil, and one could find his slippers without a night of toil. The chairs were always in their place, and all the cushions, too. A man could well enjoy his pipe when the workaday was through. The meals were always punctual and Ma would cut the cake. The food was quite a pleasure with no fear of tummy ache. A guy could get up when he liked and stroll to "bis" at noon. At night could see the picture show, in fact life was a noon. But best of all, at midnight, a guy could go to bed, not waking up to awful yells enough to wake the dead. The beds were always spotless white, the bath taps shone like sun. But here we'll switch the story to a house quite on the bum. Since the little stranger came to town there's a different tale, we'll say, for the life of ease and comfort has now vanished quite away. No more is everything in place or the meals served up on time. The day is spent in washing clothes and pinning on the line. Pa cannot find his slippers, while his pipe has gone before, and Ma is smiling happily for nothing makes her sore. No more can Pa get restful sleep, as in the days of yore, but paces like a sentry up and down the bedroom floor. And that is just the reason why he's early on the job, he never sleeps at all at night but listens to the sob. But with all his little worries and annoyances galore, he wouldn't change his place in life with the King of Singapore. While Ma is just as happy as ever she can be, and worries over nothing, even milk for Harry's tea.

The N. M. & R., Capt. J. Neville, arrived in port on Thursday morning after a prolonged herzog-hunt. Bad storms greatly interfered with successful seining and the herring are, as yet, conspicuous by their absence. However, Cap intends to make another trip over the week end when it is hoped his luck will change for the better.

Never Buy Tobacco I love my little pipe, boys, which holds a lot of weed. In fact would sooner smoke it. Than spend a nickel on a feed.

It's forty years today, boys, since I started in to smoke. While I've never bought tobacco, it's not been because I'm broke. Some guys are sort of careless, with their weed and matches too. That is why I smoke so much. I don't mind telling you.

Why spend your cash so reckless, when the banks are so near by. If you can get a fill of baby. From the other careless guy.

I'll tell you just in private That I am a monied man, And I've saved up every nickel filling from another can. J. E. D.

The government lighthouse tender Newington, Capt. Ormiston, was in port for three days this week and cleared on Thursday morning on a tour of light-house inspection to Ivory Island.

BOILS Made Him Sick and Miserable. Mr. Richard Zelenoski, McLean, Sask., writes: "I had been suffering continuously with boils for three years, and during that time I tried many different remedies without any success whatever. In spite of all my efforts I was compelled to go to the hospital. This was in the fall of the year, and right in the busiest time of the season. Upon my return home it just took about two weeks until my neck and arms were again occupied by the boils which made me feel very sick and miserable. One day one of my friends advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had used less than two bottles I was very much surprised at the result. It is now over two years since I got in touch with B. B. B., and I have had no bother with boils since. I will recommend it to all persons suffering from any defect in the blood." B. B. death has reached here, was well known to the whole community through his connection with Geo. Little's store and later in the mill office. He came here first during construction days, coming in 1909. During the war, he enlisted from Prince George as a private and rose rapidly from the ranks till at the time of demobilization he held the rank of major. Mrs. McGregor is at present in England, where she went last fall for medical treatment. The funeral which will take place here will be attended by the G.W.V.A. and Oddfellows. Sport Chat

While the champion Intermediate and Ladies' basketball teams of this city has demonstrated their superiority in the hoop game over corresponding Anyox select aggregations, the Seniors are now even up on the two games played. Local fans are thus looking forward with keen anticipation to a return Senior game in this city and it is to be hoped that such may be arranged. In view of the fact that Prince Rupert has paid two visits to Anyox this season, a return match is coming to local fans. The managers may expect general support for such an affair and the visitors will be assured of a welcome equalling that accorded to Prince Rupert teams on their recent visits.

The closing games of the Men's Section of the Fraternal Whist League are set for next Thursday night. The championship is now between the Oddfellows and the St. Andrew's teams who are level at the top of the standing with twelve wins and five defeats each. Both teams are up against stiff opponents for their finals, the Oddfellows against the Knights of Columbus and the St. Andrew's against the Valhalla. The fact that there is nothing cinchy about the chances of either will make the finals as interesting as any of the games so far this season. If both teams win or lose, a play-off will be necessary to decide the championship. The play-off for the city championship between the winning Men's team and the Pythian Sisters, champions of the Ladies' Section, will be arranged to take place shortly after the Men's championship is settled.

The boxing tournament to be held Friday next, under the auspices of the Grotto Athletic Association, should prove of particular interest to local sport fans. The main bout between M. Roy and Eddie Craig will be the tit-bit in local sporting events. It will consist of six three-minute rounds to a decision. Both boys are taking the coming fight encounter seriously and are at present in strict training under capable trainers. They are both sure of winning. In addition to the main bout there will be five good preliminaries so that boxing fans will have plenty of variety in their entertainment. As to who will be the referee in the main contest has not yet been decided.

SERIOUS DISEASES SPRING FROM COLDS
Prompt Attention Necessary to Avoid Lung Trouble

Just as "fall oaks from little acorns grow," so is a common cold often the seed from which spring serious diseases, such as pleurisy, pneumonia and other lung troubles. Taken at the start, a cold yields to proper treatment. Neglect it and it not only causes serious inconvenience, but is very liable to develop into diseases which are rightly dreaded by all.

That cold can be relieved in a single night by starting to take Grip-Fix as soon as the trouble strikes.

This remedy strikes right at the root of the complaint. It keeps the system open. It relieves the muscular pain. It relieves the feverish conditions. It comes in capsule form and acts promptly. Two capsules taken three hours apart give wonderful results, and one capsule at two-hour intervals thereafter finishes the work.

Have a box of Grip-Fix in the house. Never be without it these days. On sale at Ormes Drug Store Ltd. 35c per box.
