Gold Medal Contest Brings out Much Splendid Talent for Public Speaking at Booth School Event

Two girls, Rosario Soriano and Jean McKay won the Rotary gold medals at the Oratorical contest at the High School last night. Running them close for honors were Margaret Casey and Lee Gordon who tied for third place while next them in the order of merit and with little to choose in regard to excellence of their efforts were Roth Gordon, Jack Stevens, Sudao Suga and Hazel Beadellstone. All acquitted themselves wonderfully well, so well that the judges, W. E. Williams, Thomas McClymont and H. F. Pullen, found it difficult to decide the winners.

T. H. Johnson, president of the Rotary Club, presided while the arrangements were under the general supervision of H. E. Campbell, supervising principal of the schools and chairman of the committee of the Rotary Club having the matter in hand. Each pupil was limited to about fifteen minutes and they drew for reference to them handicapped those using them. The judges sat apart and marks were awarded to each independently and the average taken at the close. In marking, forty per cent was given for subject matter, ten per cent for enunciation, ten for emphasis, ten for attitude on the platform, ten for fluency, ten for sequence of thought, and ten for general atmosphere. The subjects chosen were discussed well and all spoke plainly and freely, having evidently memorized their speeches.

Reduction of Over One Million Dollars in Assessment of City Will Mean Higher Millage Rate

The city of Prince Rupert will levy taxes this year on taxable property, valued at $1,949,240, as against $6,072,354 last year. In bringing down his assessment for 1923, Assessor J. C. McLennan made reductions from last year totalling $1,023,379 and the court of revision, which closed yesterday afternoon, made further reductions totalling $99,735.

With the assessment down by over a million dollars, there appears to be little doubt that there will be an increase in the rate in 1923 in spite of the most stringent economy that may be practised in the city's business.

Colonel McMullin Will Be Missed.

Prince Rupert people will be sorry to lose Colonel McMullin, who, on account of his ability and careful attention to duty has proved himself capable of engaging in more important work. In looking around for a suitable person to have charge of the reorganization of the provincial police force, Attorney General Manson could see no fitter person for the position than the government agent of this city. Accordingly Colonel McMullin was given the appointment. We congratulate him on the promotion. It will give him opportunities for much good work in the interests of the whole province. There is need for the overhauling which the attorney general proposes to give the provincial system.

One move in connection with the process of reorganization is the cancellation of all the old appointments as justices of the peace. Those who are considered capable of carrying on will get new appointments while others will be dropped. Also it is announced a number of new men will be appointed.

Reorganization Bound To Prove Hardship.

All reorganization moves prove a hardship to someone. In the city this has been the case and so it will be on the railway. Prince Rupert will suffer to some small extent from the reduction in the number of local officials but it would be foolish for the people here to object to the railway company cutting down the expenses of operation or maintenance. No improvements are ever made without hurting somebody. What we expect is to get compensating advantages.

Just now the railway company is using its own dock, very much to the advantage of this city. It is what we expected, but we expect so much that we never get that, sometimes we become sceptical and give up expecting and then we lose power.

Use Latent Power To Cure Disease.

Throughout the world today there is great interest taken in mental cures. Some of the churches are leading and combining the religious motif with the mental with good results. While Gouge is telling people to heal themselves and is helping them to do it, there are clergy all over the country helping people to heal themselves. Healing is the great feature of Christian science and they are not alone in the prominence given this feature of religious work.

This mental healing is no new thing. It was practiced thousands of years ago. At some of the churches and shrines in Europe people are carried or come limping as cripples and go away leaving their crutches behind them. The mind is very powerful and the promise is that its power will be used more and more as time goes on.

ANYOX LEAGUE HOLDS SESSION

Routine Business at Meeting of Community League Executive

ANYOX, Feb. 24.—At the regular weekly meeting of the Community League Council held in Recreation Hall on Wednesday night, February 21, the following councillors were present: Sec., Treas., Lowry, Mrs. McKay, Messrs. Noel, Rowley, Seidelman and Murdoch.

The secretary reported on the arrangements made with Dick Greenwell, of Prince Rupert, for a game of basketball on Thursday night, February 22, in the new gymnasium. The boys were to arrive on the Grand Trunk boat, play the game and return to Rupert the same evening. The visiting team was to get the total receipts taken, the league to furnish the hall free and do what advertising was necessary in the limited time before the night of the game. In connection with this match and in order to accommodate the crowd expected, it was suggested that spectators be permitted to stand along the gym walls outside the side lines. It was reported that advertising was out for the annual meeting of the league when nominations for the new council would be in order, while advertising for the barn dance which it was proposed to hold on the night of March 9 had been ordered. He is now three years old, and has had no return of the trouble since."

LOG EXPORT IS BEFORE BOARD

Committee Will Report at Full Meeting of the Board of Trade Friday

The board of trade yesterday decided to refer to the monthly meeting of the board of trade any action on representations made by J. R. Morgan Co. to the council of the board at its meeting yesterday afternoon asking that they take action to try to insure the Forestry Department to give some measure of relief in regard to export of logs until such time as there is a local market for the product. The lumber committee was asked to bring in a report to the meeting next week and in the meantime to secure the fullest possible information in regard to the matter. With this in view the committee has telegraphed Hon. T. D. Pattullo stating the request and asking what attitude the department is taking in regard to it.

W. E. Williams appeared before the council of the board yesterday and went thoroughly into the question. He told of the placing of the embargo a number of years ago to protect the saw mill interests of the south. Prior to that a good business had been done in exporting logs. The present policy of the department was not to permit the export of logs unless there was no market for them and they were likely to spoil. An advisory committee sitting in Vancouver passed upon all applications, and advised the government what action to take. Last year when his firm had unsaleable cedar they recommended against export and the result was it had to be ground into pulp at Ocean Falls at $13.50 a thousand and when they were offered $20 a thousand for export.

Beneficial Law

Mr. Williams admitted that the law had been a beneficial one and that it was beneficial in its intention. In so large a province, however, laws were often beneficial in one place and not in another. While the price of logs was high, the people here were unable to take advantage of the fact and could sell only to the Pacific mills, practically at the cost of production. The mills to the south were on the highway of the world and could sell every grade of lumber. This side of Queen Charlotte Sound things were different. The result was they had been shut down or operating in a small way for several years. The handicaps were the long tow, the cost of rafting and the sealing disabilities. Pulp timber was a cheaper grade than saw log timber. Hand loggers were paid $9 and $9.50 last year and donkey loggers got $15.50 against $22 being paid in Vancouver.

Refused Cedar

In their contract with the Pacific Mills last year the company agreed to take the camp run all except cedar. It was only when representations were made to them by the department that they agreed to take the cedar. They did not want it. It was useful score board had been placed in the gymnasium.

Roller Skates

A letter from the Chicago Roller Skate Company was read. This letter was in reply to an inquiry from the league for two-wheeled rubber-tired skates, and quoted price on a four-wheeled rubber-tired ball-bearing roller skate. It was decided on a motion by Mr. Rowley, which was seconded by Mr. Seidelman that two pairs of these skates be ordered as samples.

In connection with the officials for Thursday's basketball match between the Anyox All Stars and the Prince Rupert Colts, Mr. Seidelman wanted to know what had been done regarding their selection. The chair replied that he understood Messrs. Whitaker and Oleson would be the referee and linesman respectively.

Mr. Noel wanted to know what had been done in connection with the cloak room alterations in Recreation Hall, and which had been authorized by the council some time ago, the chair replied that the work was being done in the carpenter shop, and would be installed when completed.

Mr. Murdoch wanted to know when the picture show screen had been painted last and suggested that it be done in the near future. Some discussion took place on matters connected with the annual meeting after which the council adjourned.

CURE FOR COLDS PUT IN PRACTICAL FORM

This formula, as every druggist knows, is composed of aspirin, phenacetin, quinine, salicylic acid, caffeine, citric acid, cascara and capnosulphonate, a combination of drugs particularly efficacious for reducing the fever, allaying the pain in muscles and conditioning the system.

With Grip Fix, the capsule preparation, you can use this remedy with most convenience and least expense, and with decidedly quicker results. A case of cold can be cured in a night with Grip Fix, while that of gripe is mastered in forty-eight hours.

Make sure you get the genuine Grip Fix, which has the formula printed on the box, on sale at Orme's Drug Store Ltd. 256 a box.

Lumber Committee

The lumber committee to which the matter is referred consists of W. G. Nickerson, J. Scott Jr., and W. E. Williams, but Mr. Williams announced that he had already given his opinion and would not act on committee. They will report to the full meeting of the board next Friday.

REVISION COURT FINISHES WORK

Reductions in Valuation Totalling $99,735 Were Made on Assessable Land in City

Valuation, reductions on assessable land totalling $99,735 were made by the municipal court of revision which closed its sessions for the year yesterday afternoon. Some of the appeals were met with reductions but others rejected. Changes made on account of appeals made other changes necessary in the case of unappealed properties and every lot on the townsite was checked over by the court.

GOLD MEDAL CONTEST BRINGS OUT MUCH SPLENDID TALENT FOR PUBLIC SPEAKING AT BOOTH SCHOOL EVENT.

It is said that at one time people thought science contrary to God and the Bible. She spoke of the various scientific discoveries such as the steam engine, telegraph, telephones, wireless, telescopes, photography, airplanes and war inventions.

Roth Gordon, who spoke on Canadianism compared Canadianism with Americanism and explained that the development of a national spirit was in progress. There was a distinction between patriotism and Canadianism. While the former was usually associated with times of conflict there were no such limitations to the latter. It meant living for Canada in times of peace or war. He urged the struggle against unjust privileges, the support of worthy causes such as religion and education and respect for the rights of others. In this way they could make Canada a powerful factor in the world of affairs. They all had power to help make or mar her future.

Philosophy and Science

Margaret Casey discussed "The Progress of Science from a different angle. She explained that nature forms, transforms and re-transforms. People perished for lack of knowledge. Only scientific knowledge was of benefit to mankind. In the old days liberty was despised and superstition rampant. Scientific study was changing this. One of the large factors in the spread of scientific knowledge was the invention of the printing press. Other inventions contributed, all the improvements being missionaries for science. She emphasized the value of great men to the world, mentioning particularly the philosophy of Karl Marx which had never been excelled or refuted. The end was not yet, however. Improved man would be in favor of universal liberty and would neither bow or cringe but would be the enemy of all castes.

Among the numerous philosophical quotations given was "Blessed is he who is afraid of no man and of whom no man is afraid." She urged that people use their senses in the search for truth.

Jack Stevens speaking of "The Power of the Press" mentioned its influence in moulding thought for good or evil. Outlining the development of the art of printing and the hard fight the press had in getting its present degree of liberty with special reference to John Hampton and the right of free speech, he referred to "bloodless victories which had brought about present day conditions.

Yellow Journalism

In criticizing the press Jack mentioned the follies of yellow journalism and the fact that circulation was looked upon as an evidence of success. The yellow press said low and foolish things about low and foolish people. It thrived on sensationalism. On the other hand there was the good influence of a sane editorial policy. The press represented the public and expressed public opinion better than any other agency. It taught good citizenship. It was in the vanguard of progressive action. It marshalled the people during the late war. If Canada was to be a great nation it would be through the power of the press.

Jean McKay spoke of "Immigration." She said it was the most serious subject troubling Canada today. She spoke of the area of the Dominion and the population it might support. She mentioned its resources and the want of citizenship of a high order. What they needed was good settlers to develop the resources.

She thought the Irish made the best settlers, and next to them, came the Scotch, Scandinavians, Germans and Austrians. The difficulty with the Germans and Austrians was that it had been proved Canada was only their second choice. Italians seldom became citizens of the community. Welsh were good settlers. The English on the other hand were rejected more than any other nationality. The difficulty with them was that so many came from the poorer city districts. Orientals were seldom citizens of the community but she did not favor them. She said that if capital came to develop the industries and immigrants were carefully selected the name "Canadian" would become a passport to eternal bliss.

Oriental View

Sudao Soga in speaking of "Trade with the Orient," said those nations traded most who got on well with each other. The primary basis was peace, friendship and good understanding. The movement against the Orientals in Canada was largely due to ignorance, but justice and right always won out in the end. Canada's statesmen sat side by side with those from Japan at the Peace Conference. Canadian trade was not very great today but there were great prospects for trade in the Orient. In Japan they were worried with financial and labor troubles but these would soon be settled. Undoubtedly the best customer for Canada with her unlimited potentialities was the Orient. Canada could not do without international trade. In the promotion of this trade suitable trade routes must be found and Prince Rupert was one of the ports through which trade would flow. Canada had unlimited resources but she must have markets. There must be an outlet for her goods. He urged fair play, freedom and justice under the old British flag.

Rosario Soriano, the third speaker on "Progress of Science" and the winner of the first prize, said that as yet we were only beginning to solve the mysteries of nature. One of the first great steps in scientific progress was the discovery of the year and the sequence of time. Man's work was to describe sequences in nature. She spoke of the many wonderful inventions the result of scientific investigation of the mechanical sciences, or the study of life, astronomical study, psychic processes and radio. The road science trod was long and laborious and involved long nights of study.

Northern B.C.

Lee Gordon, the final speaker, chose "Northern B.C." as his subject. He told of its resources of the immense areas of timber lands, the mines, fish and fur. The province had continental possibilities. At one time it was a wild and unproductive country and the first investigators spoke of the trackless wilderness. There had come, however, the building of railways. Half the province was tributary to the Canadian National Railway, a country far richer than the southern part of the province. Development was in its infancy. The future held much in store for it. Its small towns would become cities. Money would be taken from the re-

FATHERS AND SONS AT BANQUET IN SMITHERS
Interesting Event in Connection With Young People's Societies

SMITHERS, Feb. 24.—Under the able direction of Revs. R. E. W. Biddell and M. W. Lees, exceptional progress is being made with the various societies conducted in the interests of the young people of this locality. This was pleasingly manifested at the banquet held on Wednesday evening last when some seventy "Fathers and Sons" attended in force.

A bounteous repast was provided to which full justice was done by young and old.

In proposing a toast to the King, Rev. R. E. W. Biddell spoke of the far-flung Empire over which King George holds sway honored by all.

Master D. Clavering in a neat little speech proposed "Our Dads," and this was responded to by J. Roberts.

Rev. W. E. Galloway of Calgary delivered an address in which humorous stories and sound advice were blended in a masterly way to the appreciation of all.

After a lantern exhibition of the flags and emblems of various nations, games were indulged in with the utmost zest, rounding off a memorable evening in a most enjoyable way.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

Tough Going

Admiral of the Mosquito Fleet reports that the crews experienced some tough going lately, and the unfavourable winds have cast a general gloom over the waterfront.

The winter hardships of the boats were forcibly brought home to all on Wednesday when the Seattle liner Lincoln, Capt. J. Lindgren, arrived in port and reported the loss of two of her crew, E. and Olaf Bru, off Hazy Island, last Sunday evening. The vessel encountered a terrific sea and a heavy wave swept the men off the deck into the water. At the same moment a considerable gear was swept off the boat which fouled the propeller and made rapid navigation of the vessel impossible. Although kegs were thrown overboard immediately nothing could be done in the way of rescue work in face of the rough difficulties.

The nautical boys were shocked Tuesday last to hear of the suicide of John Wanner, of Hazy Island, who shot himself Monday afternoon, as the result of falling eyesight. It was a couple of weeks ago that John Wanner came into the city to get his eyes fixed up. Arrangements had been made for expert medical attention.

The deceased was one of the old timers along the waterfront and his visits to town were a feature. He was of a cheerful disposition although his eyes were aware that his eyesight was a constant menace to him of late. His loss is deeply felt.

In spite of the tragic occurrence, the business of bringing in the harvest of the deep has continued as usual and the fish arrivals during the week have been well up to the average.

Ben Boliver, who has been spending a week in the south on business, returned on the steamer Prince George on Wednesday last. It is understood that Mr. Boliver was in the south in connection with logging contracts.

Tame Wild Ducks

A flock of wild ducks can be seen any day around the boats in Cow Bay, which have become a great deal tamer than many of the domestic species. These little fellows swim right up to the boats and pick up the scraps of food thrown overboard. Some of them even perch on the decks of the boats and a person can catch them within almost arms length.

before they care to move away. It seems an unwritten law among the boat owners that their feathery friends shall not be molested.

Fur Arrivals

The power boat Irish Belle, Capt. Bergman, arrived in port during the week with a good catch of beaver and mink. The successful trapping had been done on Porcher Island, and the cargo found a ready local market. The J. & N., Capt. J. Nelson, arrived at the same time with a fair catch of mink.

The launch Skeena City, Capt. George, arrived in port from Oonah River on Tuesday last. It is Capt's intention to rebuild the launch here preparatory to engaging in the spring salmon fishing.

The tow boat Tide Rip, of the Rupert Marine Products, Ltd. has been busy hauling scow loads of fish heads to the reduction plant at Tucks Inlet. With the continued good supply of fresh fish offal it is hoped that the plant will be able to keep up to full working capacity.

Quite a Blow

A heavy south-west gale struck the waterfront on Thursday morning accompanied with a heavy fall of hail and considerable fog. While the wind was full of pep, and blew for about half an hour, the boats at anchor weathered it well.

Some Life Says Bill

Somebody has upset life's outlook for poor old Bill Knight, the nicker juggler at the Booth Fisheries. Bill says that life is just one round of fish and fury. Summing up life on this mortal coil Bill says "Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth his time is spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings. In infancy he is an angel, in boyhood he is a devil. In manhood he is anything from a skunk up. When he is small the big girls kiss him and when he is big only the little girls kiss him. In his work he is a damned fool. If he raises a family he is crazy. If he raises a cheque he is a thief, and then the law raises hell with him. If he takes a drink he is a drunkard. If he is a teetotaler he is a misery to himself and everybody else. If he spends his money freely folks say he must have robbed a bank and if he doesn't spend any money he must be Scotch. If he is in politics he is a grafter, if he is out of politics he cannot be placed as he is an infidel. When he goes to church he is a hypocrite, if he stays away he is an infidel. When he is born everybody wants to kiss him, before he dies everybody wants to kick him. If he dies in infancy there was a great future before him, and if he lives to be old he is only in the way and living to save funeral expenses. If he eats too much he is a glutton and if he doesn't eat at all people say he is malingering. If he falls in love some say his hatch is leaking if he doesn't fall in love he is a woman hater. If he has a good time he is dissipating and if he mopes he's sickening for the mumps." Well all we can say is that Bill is having a pretty hard time of it and must be sickening for the mumps.

Ethel June Away

The old reliable shrimp catcher and halibut chaser Ethel June, Capt. Dave Ritchie, which has been engaged in the shrimp and crab catching in local waters during the past few months, hit out for the bigger game on the high spots early in the week. Can. got 600 pounds of halibut on the first set and things looked rosy for an excellent haul. However luck was not with the skipper and the engine developed serious internal trouble which forced her to return to port. After completing repairs Ethel struck out again to see what was doing.

Fish Business

During the past week 540,500 pounds of halibut has been marketed through the Fish Exchange.

The highest price paid was 47.3c, and 10c, and the lowest 12.7c, and 8c.

The arrivals were: Brothers, Rolance, Wabash, Vansee, Ruth, Daisy, Guilford, Glacier, Mermaid, Uranus, M. M. Christopher, Ingred H., Mars, Hilda, Valorous, Grayling, Pelican, Oonah, Yellowstone, Teddy J. Happy, Resurrection, Cape Spencer, W. & T., Ringleader, Koyasu, Helgiand, Rosana, Lincoln, Fortuna, Fairway, G. E. Foster, Hippo, W. & F., Commonwealth, Westford, Fremont, Ahi, Trio, Gony, Jas. Carruthers and Maude.

Caught Good Breakfast

Yes sir, he sure is some fisherman alright, alright. Left port some three weeks ago, local lugs expecting S.O.S. to help him haul in the big catch, but nothing doing, and eventually he lands home with a measly little plateful of 400 pounds, or enough for a good sized man's breakfast. However, as the official inquiry into the matter has not been completed the Admiral of the fleet has no report to make yet, but we have been promised a copy when it is finished. Watch these columns, no use to mention names.

Skipper Louis Sears, of the logging boat Blue Jay, expects to have his new engine installed and everything ready for leaving for Swanson Bay in about ten days time. Louis is contemplating engaging in the hand-logging game in the south.

Wake Overdue

The tug Wake of Georgetown met with engine trouble, while en route north to her home port early in the week, which delayed her considerably in her time of arrival. However, the skipper was able to get things going smoothly and a safe landing was eventually made.

The hand logging boat Ruby Mae, owned by Abd. Currie, was over to Lewis Island during the week on a logging prospecting cruise.

The launch Glide left for Banks Island on Wednesday.

Bill Rufus' Rats

There is a real live rat farm situated on Rat Island some mile distant from Mile 7, which is owned by Bill Rufus, an old timer in these parts. It appears that Mr. Rufus is troubled with a lot of rats and mice around his abode, and they came in such numbers that he conceived the idea of putting them to some commercial value. The idea is working fine to date. The rats and mice are caught in wire traps, which do not injure the hides in any way, and they are then transported to Rat Island, some half mile distant from the beach, and there put at liberty. You might think that such a business would give one the rats but Mr. Rufus considers it a great hobby and one that has wonderful possibilities. He says that while the rats will answer to their names the mice are more difficult to handle and seem to have less horse sense. A couple of special rats have been trained to notice the other members of the family into the cages, and in this way considerable money is saved yearly in cheese and other kinds of bait. The owner of this rat ranch has met with considerable success in fanning and curing the hides, and has several fine specimens of rat and mice fur in domestic use including fur bed quilt, table cloth and curtains. To those interested in rats and mice Mr. Rufus extends a hearty welcome and all the tricks of the trade will be gladly explained to visitors.

The power boat Spey, Capt. Lambie arrived from Porcher Island on Tuesday with a load of hen fruit fresh from the Lambie ranch.

Coal Cargo Expected

The Canadian National coast-wise steamer Prince John is expected to arrive in port on Wednesday next with a cargo of 500 tons of coal and 50,000 feet of finishing lumber for Albert & McCaffery's local stock.

The native power boat Mark Well came in from Hartley Bay on Wednesday last. The natives unloaded a nice catch of fur, consisting of mink and otter, which were sold to the trapper's friend, W. Goldbloom.

H. E. Poole, superintendent at the Atlin Fisheries, left on the steamer Venture last Tuesday evening on a holiday trip to Vancouver, Seattle and other southern Pacific cities. As this is the first holiday Mr. Poole has had in three years we trust that the excitement will not upset his equilibrium.

The halibut boat W. & F., Capt. Gen. Cook, is on the N. M. McLean ways undergoing a general overhaul in readiness for the spring fishing season. The hull is to be recaulked and painted and the engine will be thoroughly gone over.

MAPLE LEAFS ARE CHAMPIONS

Beat Adanacs in Interesting Match Last Night by Score of 17 to 11

Defeating the Adanacs by a score of 17 to 11 in a good snappy game which was a fitting final to the many interesting and well contested matches that have been staged during the season between the two teams, the Maple Leafs last night won the Benson Cup and the championship of the Ladies' Basketball League. The Adanacs had as many scoring chances as the Leafs but they fell down in basket shooting and this was largely responsible for their loss at the crucial time. The various players performed equally well in their respective positions and there was little to choose between the members of the two teams.

E. A. Mann was referee and the line-ups and scoring were as follows:

Maple Leafs—Miss M. Graham, 4; Miss S. Calderone, 5; Miss A. Stephens, 9; Miss Louie Fisher, 9; Miss Myra Harvey, 9. Total, 17.

Adanacs—Miss A. Kelly, 2; Miss Nan Biggie, 8; Miss C. Mitchell, 1; Miss Pete Tremayne, 0; Miss Vera Shooklev, 0; Miss H. Hibbard, 0. Total 11.

Intermediate Game

The Colts won the intermediate game from the Grotto by a score of 34 to 16. Leo Dell refereed and the line-ups and scoring were as follows:

Colts—R. Smith, 6; J. Kelly, 12; M. Budenich, 0; D. Frizzell, 3; G. Blyth, 13. Total, 34.

Grotto—P. McGowan, 0; D. Graham, 4; A. Roy, 0; W. Wrathall, 10; G. Hill, 0; D. Gurvich, 2. Total 16.

The Tiny Tims won by 23 to 18 over the White Sox in the Junior League.

ANYOX VIEWS OF GAME AGAINST LOCAL COLTS

Home Team Heavier But Visitors Had the Speed, They Say

ANYOX, Feb. 24.—Flaunting their colors of red and white ribbons when they entered the hall, the Prince Rupert Colts basketball team were carrying them in the same way when they boarded the boat for the return to Rupert. Nobody objected to this, nor to their yells of victory when the whistle blew finale on Thursday night in the Anyox Gymnasium, closing as clean and fast a game as one would wish to see. They were entitled to exult, for they had a hard-going team to defeat in the Anyox All Stars, who would have done a whole lot better if a little practice had been indulged in prior to the game. The passing of the local boys was not at all up to their usual form, although hard work was the middle name of the team all throughout the game. A heavier team, they were not nearly so fast as the visitors from Rupert, being out-classed in speed, effective passing and shooting. Anderson and Williams were the best of the Anyox pack, while there seemed to be little choice in the members of the Prince Rupert aggregation. The score about represents the play. Quite a large crowd turned out for the game, which was refereed by Geo. Lee, with B. Whitteker as linesman, J. Sherman as timekeeper, and P. Ryan at the score board.

GREAT INTEREST TAKEN BASKETBALL AT ANYOX

Games Every Evening in Athletic Hall With Excellent Results

ANYOX, Feb. 24.—From the outset, the success of the new gymnasium was never in doubt, but it was not anticipated that the enthusiasm for basketball would develop as quickly as it has gone. Three nights a week the league games are played, and as there are three leagues each night sees a trio of games contested, which keeps the fans on their toes the full time. Seating capacity is the only drawback now, and this will be remedied in plenty of time for the indoor activities of next fall and winter.

During the last two nights of play the two games of the Intermediate League were won by the High School lads and the office quill pushers, the Coke Plant team being the victims in each instance. The High School beat them by seventeen to eleven, and the Office, nineteen to fifteen.

In the Ladies' League the Blue Birds won over the Blues by the small margin of eleven to ten, while the Browns revenged the defeat of the Blues by downing the Blue Birds with five points to four.

In the Senior arguments, the Catholic Men's Club was beaten by the Smelter team with a score of twenty-six to twenty, the Catholic Men's Club defeating the Mine aggregation with a difference of twenty to thirteen. This was an excellent game, one of the most open and cleanest of the series, in fact, to date. It was the second game of the Senior League to be refereed by B. Whitteker, who has already found great favor as an arbiter with the fans and will no doubt soon find himself attached to a regular berth.

HIGHER PRICES FOR TEA

The unsettled state of affairs all over the world has penetrated even to the remotest tea gardens in India. Labor trouble have occurred in the form of riots; dock strikes in Calcutta have delayed shipping and the gardens have had great difficulty in securing sufficient number of coolies to pluck all the tea that could be obtained from the plants. This year 80,000,000 lbs. less tea has been produced than will be consumed, which has resulted in the price of tea rising steadily, as the effect of this tremendous shortage is being felt.

GASSED OVERSEAS SHELL SHOCKED and RHEUMATISM

Mr. F. M. Blaquiere, Morinville, Alta. writes:—"After three years' service overseas I returned to Canada almost a complete wreck. I had been gassed, and was suffering from shell shock and rheumatism, and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. I tried many medicines and doctors, but none of them did me any good for any length of time. I got so bad, in the Fall of 1919, my hands were so shaky I could scarcely hold anything, and it seemed as if I had a steel band pressing on my head. The least excitement would almost drive me into fits, and my whole system seemed to be in disorder. I had cramps in my legs nearly every night, and hot and cold chills running up and down my back nearly all the time. One day I decided to try Millburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I had taken six boxes I began to feel better. I kept on using them and after a while I was completely relieved."
