PEACE RIVER TO GET ROADS

Plans Being Made For Well Organized System Under Public Works Department

Halibut landings continue to be light and prices are still rising both for Canadian and American catches. This morning yesterday's prices, themselves unusually high, were bettered by several points. The schooner Reliance topped the American list with 48.7c and 44.5c while the Toodie received the best Canadian price, 46.6c and 41c. A total of 47,100 pounds was marketed, three American boats having 39,000 pounds and three Canadians, 8,100 pounds.

Arrivals Are Still Light and Bidders Reach Higher Point at Fish Exchange

Reliance's catch was followed by the return of Hon. W. J. Sutherland from a tour of that country.

At the meeting of the hospital women's auxiliary held yesterday, arrangements were made for two big events in connection with that organization, the annual ball which takes place on Hallow E'en and the tag day which takes place a week from next Saturday.

As the auxiliary is taking an active part in the furnishing of the Nurses Home they will need a good deal of money and they are planning to make the two events even larger than in previous years.

At the monthly meeting a plant donated by Mrs. Galland was raffled and won by Mrs. Skinner.

Ladies especially invited to be present.

BUFFALO FOR THIS PROVINCE

Chairman of Game Board Announces Herd Will be Placed This Side Rockies

MAKING INVESTIGATION

VICTORIA, Sept. 26.—British Columbia will soon have its own herd of wild buffalo, if plans now being worked upon by the Game Conservation Board under chairman M. B. Jackson are carried out.

According to Mr. Jackson, the Dominion Government is willing to send three or four hundred buffalo to this province from the famous park at Wainwright, Alta., where the herd has increased so rapidly that scores of animals have had to be slaughtered annually.

Agents of the provincial government are making an investigation into the location and extent of suitable feeding grounds for the buffalo and when these arrangements have been made a transfer of the herd west of the Rockies will be carried out.

FARMER JOHN HERE TONIGHT

Premier Oliver Will Speak at Empress Theatre Commencing Sharp at 8

John Oliver, British Columbia's farmer premier, is coming this afternoon, and this evening, sharp at eight o'clock, he will address a public meeting in the Empress Theatre. It is expected that there will be a goodly number out to hear him for he is an able speaker and deals with the public questions of the day in a fearless manner. The fact that he was preceded here by W. J. Bowser, leader of the opposition, adds piquancy to the meeting and Mr. Bowser said certain things which it is understood the premier considers were not quite according to Hoyle.

Farmer John has an incisive way of putting things and he will doubtless sum up in an interesting way the activities of the opposition and of the McRae sniping.

Political Campaign Opens Here Tonight.

Judging from the political activity of all parties throughout the country it looks as if there might be an election next spring or summer and the meeting tonight will therefore be the first of the campaign on the government side. Not only will the Premier answer charges made by W. J. Bowser and R. H. Pooley but is understood he will enunciate the policy of the government on most questions of public concern. He has stated that he will do it and for that reason his address to the people of Prince Rupert tonight becomes of great interest, both to those who are supporters of the government and to those who are opposed to its policy or personnel.

It is announced by those arranging the meeting that there will be only one speaker and he will commence at eight o'clock in order to get the Anwoy boat at ten. That means the meeting will commence early and close early. Those who wish to secure a seat should get there in good time as it is very probable a good many may not be able to gain admission to the hall.

Encourage Sport
Says Dr. Grant.

Rev. Hugh Grant urges the advantage of engaging in healthy sport. He gave an address on the subject at a banquet Monday night. He took a very prominent part in sports himself when a young man, and in his position as a clergyman he has had every opportunity of noting its effect on the young men and women whom he has met.

This paper has always advocated the advantages of healthy games, especially those played outdoors. In a city which is rather isolated and where the outside interests are perhaps not as many as in other places, the value of sport is accentuated. We need games here more than they do on the prairies where the air is light and dry. Young people must have some outlet for their natural animal energies and if it is not provided through healthy games it is likely to find a vent in some other way.

Sport For Girls
Also Advocated.

Under the heading of "Healthier Women" the London Times of recent date says:

"The remarkable change in the health of young women which has come about since girls took up games and outdoor recreation is referred to by Dr. J. M. N. Campbell, of Guy's Hospital. Chlorosis, the anaemia of young women, was for a long time prevalent in this and other countries. The interesting fact is adduced that this disease is rapidly disappearing both from Europe and America. The phenomenon has much more than a medical interest, for it is the opinion of Dr. Campbell that the greater amount of exercise and the more ready access to fresh air enjoyed by women today are largely responsible for the diminution of this malady. What used to be known as "the green sickness" in fact is yielding to rational methods of life. It is pointed out that a similar fall has been observed in Sweden, in France, in Vienna, and in America. In Sweden and Finland, the disease diminished rapidly and suddenly some time between 1892 and 1902, since when it has diminished more slowly. It has now almost disappeared. In America the change for the better took place about 1900-1902. In England it was rather later. That was the time when the first insistent demands for an outdoor life and regular exercise for school girls and even for grown women began to be made."

Look For Announcement
Regarding Local Road.

It is to be hoped that tonight Premier Oliver will make an announcement regarding a road to the Skeena River from this city. It has been promised by the local member that this road will be commenced just as soon as negotiations are complete with the Land Development Company. As these negotiations may possibly be prolonged, it is to be hoped that the Premier will make some definite statement that will indicate the roads is to be commenced soon. We have been a long suffering community in so far as road construction is concerned. One of the most forceful advocates of the road building scheme was Hon. T. D. Pattullo, before he became a minister, and it is understood he has followed it up in his recommendations to the cabinet. He cannot now get out and do so in public owing to the position he holds. It is understood that the matter will be brought to the attention of Premier Oliver while he is here and people tonight will be looking for a definite statement from him as to what is to be done.

TERRACE GIRL'S FOREST ESSAY IMPROVEMENTS HALIBUT BOATS

Ella Hughson, Aged 12, Was Year's Activities Featured by Number of New Boats and Several Changes of Motor Installation

Forests are absolutely necessary to a nation because they are a great help in industry, science and art. In history we find that when the forests of a nation become destroyed the nation fails in most branches of industry, science and art.

The forests of Canada are very important on account of the lumber they produce. Spruce, balsam fir, hemlock and cedar are used for parts of buildings, but oak and maple are preferred for floors and furniture-making while spruce and some other soft woods are used for the manufacture of paper. Thousands of square miles of Canada are covered with these kinds of woods particularly in the northern part. Many kinds of timber are used for fire-wood, the hard varieties being preferred. The forests of Canada are a great asset and furnish employment for a great many men.

Our province of British Columbia has large forests. The total forest resources of British Columbia are estimated at three hundred, fifty billions of feet at present. At one time there was three times as much as that and at least six hundred, fifty billions of feet have been destroyed by fire. The forests of British Columbia constitutes one of our greatest natural resources and our timber industries have been developed until they are greater in importance than any other of our industries.

At the yards of Sagstad and Moberg, Seattle, there are two boats under construction, one for H. Thompson, the other for Nels Rorvik. The former when completed will be 64'x15'x7'6", equipped with a semi-diesel of 60 h.p. The latter, to be ready in November, with a capacity of 50,000 pounds and measuring 67'x16'4"x8", will have an 80 h.p. semi-diesel. A third boat at these yards, the keel of which has not been laid, will be 66'x16'4"x8", and will be ready for Capt. Eliason in January.

Rete Vold is just getting a 67-foot, the Kanata, into commission, and has equipped it with a diesel of 90 h.p.

Bernard Hansen and Ole Knutson are building one 62'x15'x7' at Poulsbo, which will have a 65 h.p. airless-injection Enterprise for power. The Prosperity, owned by the Molvik brothers, is a 58'x14' long-liner built at Poulsbo, and equipped with a 50 h.p. 2-cyl. Bolinder.

An unusual engine for these waters will be installed in a boat that E. Rolie of Ketchikan is building at Poulsbo, to be 40'x12'. The engine will be a single-cylinder 30 h.p. Bolinder, similar to those that are used in the fisheries of Norway. The construction of other boats is contemplated.

There are about two billion feet of timber cut from the forests of British Columbia each year, which is worth about ninety million dollars in actual value.

Some Pictures

It would require one million wagons each with two thousand feet of lumber to carry the amount of timber which is cut each year in British Columbia. If these wagons were all loaded at one time they would stretch across Canada twice. A solid train six hundred miles long containing eighty thousand cars would be necessary to ship one year's cut of lumber out of the province. If we shipped one entire year's production of timber by ocean routes over six hundred and sixty large ships would be required to carry it. The production of timber is continually increasing and within the next ten years will probably equal twice our present output.

If fire is kept out of our forests we could, with safety, cut three times our present amount without injury to them, providing of course that proper systems of cutting and management were followed. Nearly all forest fires start from human carelessness of one form or another and each year fire destroys large quantities of merchantable timber, as well as young and growing forests.

There's time in the package

Time to do the many things ordinarily put off on wash-day. For Rinso does not keep you standing over the wash-tub, rubbing until your back aches and your hands are red and sore.

Rinso, an entirely different kind of soap, soaks clothes clean. Rubbing and boiling are unnecessary. The big soapy Rinso suds gently loosen the most ground-in dirt without weakening a single thread.

NOTE. In hard water it takes from 1 to 1 package of Rinso to a tub to make good suds. In very hard water you will need from 1½ to 2 packages to a tub to get the big lasting suds that loosen all the dirt.

Motorship Bellingham, Capt. Len Williams, was in port from 11 yesterday morning to 9 in the evening unloading 823 cases of salmon and 695 barrels of herring oil from Ketchikan for transshipment East over the Canadian National Railway.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. A. E. Dickson, southbound from Anyox and Stewart to Vancouver, was in port from 3:45 to 5:30 yesterday afternoon. The vessel loaded a shipment of fresh halibut at the Atlin Fisheries wharf for Vancouver. She had a large through passenger list going south.

A re-draw was made at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night for a fishing rod donated by Fred Stork, M.P. Ticket No. 146 was drawn. If the holder of this ticket does not call for the rod within a week, the next choice will be announced at the office of the secretary, T. Ross Mackay.

With 218 passengers on board, several of them Yukoners on their way south to spend the winter, the C.P.R. steamer Princess Alice, Capt. Ormiston, was in port from Skagway between 8 and 9 o'clock last evening. One of the through passengers who went up to town was delayed in returning to the vessel and when he reached the government wharf had pulled into the stream. Lantern signals were made and the steamer waited for a few minutes while the belated passenger was taken out to the boat in the launch "23."

ELEVEN MILLION MARKS FOR MEAL

Former Prince Rupert Man Tells of Prices in Germany; Celebrations in Holland

In a single month the postage on a letter in Germany advanced from 3,000 marks to 200,000 marks says Gaston Benguerel, formerly of Prince Rupert, in a letter written at The Hague, Holland.

In the Ruhr on August 30, Mr. Benguerel writes, a pound of potatoes cost 180,000 marks; one litre of milk, 280,000 marks; one egg, 300,000 marks; meat per pound, six million marks. On the same day a French journalist had a meal in a restaurant and paid 14,750,000 marks for it plus 1,250,000 marks for one cup of coffee and one cigarette. In the theatres provisions are taken instead of money for admission and recently a seat in a cinema house cost 1,500,000 marks. An ordinary school teacher receives a salary of 200 million marks a month. A workman in a mine receives seven million marks a day for being on hand a few hours without doing any work. Now they are striking for 10 million marks a day.

Not only is the government printing money but it is also being turned out by towns and factories. Old bills and stamps are being overprinted.

In his letter, Mr. Benguerel describes the ceremonies of splendor in Holland which accompanied the 25th anniversary of the coronation of Queen Wilhelmina on September 6. The celebration at The Hague started on August 31 and continued until September 10. The whole country was in holiday garb and over every house floated the national colors with the royal color, orange.

A good deal of interest was taken in London recently in a walking match between Capt. G. Ainsworth, Conservative member of the House of Commons for Bury and Frank Gray, Labor M.P. for Oxford, which resulted in a win for the Labor representative after a punishing contest. The walk was between Banbury Cross and Oxford, a distance of 23 miles. Gray, who averaged 3.83 miles an hour during the contest and collapsed at its conclusion, is 12 years of age. Ainsworth is in his fiftieth year. He suffered so much from foot trouble that, when about two miles from his goal, he fell to his knees and was forced to give up. Both men served during the war and both showed considerable pluck in continuing the grilling contest when virtually exhausted. The match was the outcome of a half serious challenge which Gray made at a dinner in London that he could walk any man of his own age over the distance between Banbury Cross and Oxford, carrying a full infantryman's pack. HAZARDOUS TRIP OF A RUSSIAN DOCTOR

Fate Favored Hardy Adventurer on Massett Inlet; Located on Island

MASSETT, Sept. 26.—Some weeks ago a novel craft left Massett Inlet in charge of a Russian doctor, who appeared to understand little of the modern construction of sea-going vessels or concerning the waters of Heceta Straits.

With a couple of logs, some boards and outriggers the daring navigator rowed away on a five mile tide, heading for Naden Harbor, over a course which has been the scene of numerous wrecks of small boats during recent years.

His outfit consisted of a pair of blankets, a sack of flour, with two pounds of sugar. Through good fortune the sailor reached his destination after camping for days along the beach. On the journey he found a row boat which had been cast upon the shore which he repaired, and is using in his peregrinations.

It was fortunate that the weather has been favorable and the forest safe from fire of large dimensions. On two occasions he started fires which died out before doing a great deal of damage.

During his stay at Naden Harbor he was provided with two plugs of tobacco. After viewing conditions in that neighborhood he again set sail and was reported by the natives to be occupying an island outside of Massett Inlet.

TELKWA

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Owens were weekend visitors to Hazelton.

Mrs. Jones left for the south on Thursday to undergo treatment at Soap Lake, Washington. Mrs. Jones has the good wishes of the community who hope she may be greatly benefited.

Wm. Boyle of the Government Telegraphs has gone south. Until relief is sent Mr. McIntosh is operating here. Little Miss Muriel Boyle is at present residing with Mrs. Jack Tiehurst.

J. P. Wheeler left on Saturday for the coast where he will attend a convention of the S.S.B. He will also visit his parents while away.

A Deleo plant is being installed by Broughton & McNeil which will give that firm the benefit of electric light.

A joint meeting of the St. Stephen's Guild and the Union Church W.A. was held on Tuesday last in the Union Church. It was decided to hold a harvest supper and service on Thursday, Oct. 4.

Miss Gladys McDonald is spending the week end with her parents, having come up from Hazelton on Saturday morning.

E. W. Davies returned on Thursday after a couple of weeks at the coast. He is glad to be back and realizes that there are a lot of places far away worse than the Bulkley Valley.

Heavy rains fell on Saturday afternoon and during the night. Although rain is not needed for the crops now, it was very welcome as a dust dampener.

Telkwaites in plenty visited the Smithers Fair and were well pleased. A great many prizes for various entries found their way back to Telkwa. Telkwa was also lucky in winning the third yearly football game of the cup series.

Everyone is looking forward to the dance to be held at the Round Lake Community Hall on Friday next.

The Northern Polytechnic expects to open classes here early in October.

DOUBLE HEADER GAME AT ANYOX

Final Baseball of Season Ends in Mine Team Winning the Cup

ANYOX, Sept. 26.—The Anyox sport season was wound up over the week end, when the baseball went into a double-header by the Elks upsetting the dope and winning the game scheduled to take place. This tied the series, making the Post Season Series for the Anyox cup two games all. In the deciding game both teams did their best to win, but the Mine played slightly better baseball and won the cup for the season of 1923. Both games were splendidly contested, there were no arguments, and the losers freely admitted that they beaten by a team that played better baseball than they did. The first game was the better exhibition of the two and gave the fans some thrills, the features of it being a sensational one-hand catch by Campbell, Elks centre fielder, of Halverson's difficult fly, after a hard run, and the winning of the game, after the score had been tied by the Mine, through Downs stealing home in the seventh after two men had been retired and two strikes had been counted on the batter. It was a great finish to a good ball game. In the second game, the Mine played header ball, and the bad base-running of the Elks was responsible for their loss, as they did better with the willow than their opponents. The same batters worked both games. G. Ferguson and Mealey handled the ball for the Mine and Fitzpatrick and Cody hurled and received for the Elks. Ferguson had a total of sixteen strike-outs for both games, and Fitzpatrick just half that number. Eight errors were chalked up against the "Brother Bills" and five against the "Muckers." In hits the Elks got seventeen while the Mine connected for fourteen safeties. Elks finding the ball for base hits in the first game were Downs three singles, Cody two, Thorley, Auterson and Fitzpatrick, one each. For the Mine, J. Ferguson had a two-bagger and two singles, Mealey a two-bagger and Allan, Pynne and Deane each a single. In the second game, the Mine batters were Stewart with two two-base hits, Anderson a two-base safety and a single, while J. Ferguson, Halverson and Ployart got singles. The Elks connecting in this game were Cody, who got two two-baggers, Brentzen one of a like kind, Downs, two singles, Greenwell two of the same denomination, and Campbell and Thorley one each. The arbitrator of balls and strikes was W. Olsen, while A. Sinclair looked after the bases. The line-up:

Elks: Downs, Campbell, Cody, Auterson, Greenwell, Fitzpatrick, Brentzen, Thorley and Auterson. Mine—Mealey, J. Ferguson, C. Ferguson, Stewart, Anderson, Halverson, Allan, Pynne and Deane.

In the second game, Ployart took Pynne's place.

The Anyox dam is the seventeenth of its kind to be constructed, and Mr. Leastwood stated he had a number more in different stages of development.

A worth-while Reputation

The head of one of this country's great manufacturing institutions says:

"The Man who builds and the man who buys are both beneficiaries of reputation. To the one it is a continuous spur and incentive--to the other, the strongest of all guarantees that what he buys is worthy."

Patronize the manufacturer or merchant who has a reputation for honesty and fair dealing. Such motives must actuate the consistent advertiser. The man who invests real money in building a reputation for himself and his merchandise cannot afford to risk any of it by taking unfair advantage of his customers. He must retain the good-will of the buying public. Without this, his business cannot succeed.

Every time he advertises he puts his reputation in your hands. His products or the wares he has for sale must make good. His service must be as advertised.

That is why it pays to read advertisements, to deal with advertisers and to buy advertised goods.

LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Editor Daily News.
We have heard a great deal and read more, about the condition of affairs generally throughout this sphere, on which we temporarily exist.

Things certainly look out of place, so far as the world of our day is concerned; but we are all in "one boat," struggling against the tide of life, and must make the best of what we find in our own lives and in the condition of those surrounding us.

It must be evident to the ordinary human being that trafficking in intoxicants is not the best means of governing a country.
When we sell a man something which is detrimental to his well-being and send him to jail for imbibing too freely in what we hand over to him, we must most assuredly be conniving in a criminal offence and are as much responsible as the unfortunate individual who succumbs under the effects of what we give him.

One hundred and ten millions of people consider it unwise to deal in intoxicants. They "cut it out," at one "fell swoop." One hundred thousand people in an adjacent country made themselves "bar-keepers," and engaged in trafficking within their own borders and outside. Are they right or are we? In my opinion a drunkard is not a criminal. He should have medical treatment instead of sending him to jail.

We may change the individuals conducting the government of the country but what benefit will be derived therefrom? No government—either Liberal or Conservative can engage in the liquor traffic and make a success of the undertaking. A government is elected to uplift men and not to demoralize. A government is elected to formulate measures for the benefit of all concerned,
