VANCOUVER MAYORALTY CLOSE CONTEST

REMAINS OF MAN FROM EAST FOUND NEAR RAILWAY TRACK BY PASSERBY

First Election Count Gives Ald. Owen Lead of 33 over Ex-Mayor

VANCOUVER, Dec. 13.—Subject to a recount, which has been conceded by the two candidates most concerned, Ald. William R. Owen has been elected mayor of Vancouver with a majority of 33 over the runner-up, Ex-Mayor Louis D. Taylor, in a total vote of 13,726. The recount was asked for this morning when Returning Officer William McQueen made his official report. The unofficial count last night stood:

Ald. W. R. Owen . . . . .	5,656
Ex-Mayor L. D. Taylor . . . . .	5,623
Ald. R. P. Pettipiece . . . . .	2,447

The following aldermen were apparently elected:
Ward One—Ald. Tracey.
Ward Two—Ald. H. E. Almond (acclamation).
Ward Three—Ald. P. G. Gibbons.
Ward Four—John Bennett (acclamation).
Ward Five—John Garbutt.
Ward Six—Dr. Worthington.
Ward Seven—Frank Woodside.
Ward Eight—Ald. Fred Rogers.

Nearly Won Again

The defeat of Ex-Mayor L. D. Taylor again is by a very narrow margin. Last year, running engaged in selling narcotics was against Mayor C. E. Tisdall, he described by George S. Harrison, manager of the Union Bank here, cornered contest. This year's before the Royal Commission inquiring into the charges of Attorney General Manson against the drug squad of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

A "flash roll" of $1,000, he said, was deposited in a box in the vault. It was arranged, Harrison explained, when Sergeant Mundy sought co-operation in rounding up "the big fellows in the dope ring" for he wanted more funds at his call than the department could provide in order to impress the gang. The police were to pose as buyers for a syndicate of underworld traffickers of narcotics in Winnipeg. The suspects were to be accompanied to the box to see the money after which it would be returned to its proper place in the bank. The plan worked and the witness later received a letter from Inspector Wroughton, officer commanding the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, thanking him for assisting in obtaining the conviction of two men.

ECCLES BAILED BY GOVERNMENT

Department of Justice Offers to put up Bonds for Accused R.C.M.P. Member

VICTORIA, Dec. 13.—When the charge against F. W. Eccles, secret service agent of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, of having committed perjury at the trial of himself and two members of the drug investigation squad on November 27 was called in the police court here today, J. A. Russell, counsel for Eccles, announced he had received word from the Department of Justice at Ottawa to the effect that the federal government would go bail for the accused. Russell said he had wired the department that Eccles had been arrested on a charge of perjury while before the Royal Commission inquiring into the charges of Attorney General Manson against the force.

The court ruled that the trial would proceed on December 19 and that accused would have to provide bail of $3,000.

SCHOOLBOARD RESIGNATIONS

Dr. W. T. Kergin and W. H. Montgomery Both Retire and Regrets Expressed

LAST ELECTION IRREGULAR

One Trustee Would Have Reforms in Schools and Objects to Being Voted Down

Most unexpectedly both Dr. W. T. Kergin and W. H. Montgomery tendered their resignations from the school board last night at the regular meeting of the board and the resignations were accepted. This will mean that three trustees will be chosen at the forthcoming election as Trustee McLennan also retires, his term of office having expired.

The resignations followed the reading of a letter from the city solicitor in which it was pointed out that the election last year had been irregular in that Dr. Kergin should have been elected for a one year term instead of two. This would make two vacancies this year. The solicitor suggested that in order to set matters right, one of the trustees should retire.

Dr. Kergin said he considered it his duty to accept the suggestion as he was the one who should have had the one year term. He accordingly tendered his resignation.

Trustee Montgomery in tendering his resignation said he thought they should all resign in view of the egotism of the city council and have members of the school board who were also members of the council. He felt he was of no service to the city except as an automatic dummy.

Trustee Parker did not agree with Trustee Montgomery. He thought when they had been elected they should serve their terms.

Criticizes System

Trustee Montgomery went on to criticize the system of teaching which he said was purely mechanical. There was no chance for a bright pupil to get promotion except with the others and no chance of educating for their vocation in life. There were so many subjects on the curriculum that pupils got only a smattering of each. Also there was too much home work. Too much time was given to rehearsals.

Mr. Montgomery said he was opposed to the time pupils had to get out these wet mornings. There were other things to which he wished to express opposition such as the proposed religious instruction in the schools from a text book of selections from scripture. He felt that they could not protest too strongly against this. It would bring discontent and disruption. He felt that he would have more power in resigning than by remaining as a trustee. He might run again, however, and then he could explain these subjects.

Should Join Association

Trustee Casey said the points mentioned by Trustee Montgomery should receive the earnest consideration of the board. The board should join the Trustee Association and send a delegate with instructions. Many of the things carried at those meetings did not suit his views. Conventions had a good deal of weight with the minister of education.

A change might be brought about by getting into the convention. However, he thought Trustee Montgomery could better serve the community by staying with the board. He personally, did not intend to resign though he had sympathy with the views expressed by Trustee Montgomery. The present system had grown up through the years and changes could not bring about suddenly. He also protested against the proposed text book of selections from the Bible.

London's armistice day parade had in its lines "Ole Bill" the motor bus which is famous for the service it did during the war. Photo shows "the old veteran," headed by ex-service men, passing the cenotaph.

Dr. Kergin said he was sorry to see Trustee Montgomery take the step.

Should Visit Schools

Later in the evening Principal Brady of the High School suggested that the trustees should visit the schools and make inquiries into the course of studies. In regard to home work, he expressed the opinion that if there were no home studies, only the brightest pupils would get through the prescribed course in the time. It was necessary to require from two to three hours a night of study. If the school board joined in and presented their case they might get the number of subjects on the curriculum reduced and he would like to see the course extended to four years. If the trustees would visit the schools they would get a better idea of the condition of affairs. He also urged that more money be spent to provide recreation facilities for the pupils. The teachers, he said, would like the trustees to know more about what was being done in the schools.

Dr. Kergin concurred in the idea that the members of the board and the teachers' association could well get together occasionally in a round table conference. Trustee Montgomery's remarks might indicate he had been fighting the board during the year but his opinion was the meetings had been most harmonious.

Trustee Montgomery enumerated several matters in which he had been voted down, particularly in the appointment of a supervising principal and in the hours the schools were to be open. He again elaborated his views on these subjects.

Trustee Parker said these were just differences of opinion.

POWELL RIVER MAN COMITS SUICIDE

N. Whitley Drowns Himself on Account of Poor Health—Left Note

VANCOUVER, Dec. 13.—N. Whitley, aged 67, of Stillwater, near Powell River, was found drowned in a pool of water. He left a note saying he was ending his life on account of poor health.

Phillip Welker Was Apparently Drowned Some Time Ago; Body Washed Up This Side Seal Cove

Lying on the rocks about three feet above low water mark at the foot of one of the railway retaining walls about 300 yards this side of the old Pacific Sea Products fish plant, the body of Phillip Welker, who arrived in the city from Saskatchewan early in November and who was missed from the Empress Hotel on November 20, was found this morning at 9 o'clock by John Schoonderwood, fish packer for the Canadian Fish & Gold Storage Co., who was on his way to the city from Seal Cove. It is assumed that deceased was drowned and that his body floated on to the shore. The face was badly decomposed and indications were that the corpse had been in the water for three or four weeks.

Mr. Schoonderwood had taken the morning off from his work and was on his way to town following the railway track. Walking along the outside of the track, he noticed the body and went to investigate. He notified his partner, A. Erickson, who tied the body so it would not float away. The police were then apprised of the discovery and Sergeant Bailey was despatched to take charge.

A search of the clothes was made and a white handled pocket knife was found bearing the name of Phillip Welker. Mrs. H. E. Ross of the Empress Hotel had reported on November 23 that man of this name who had arrived there on November 12 had not been seen since November 20. Her description of the missing man's clothes also tallied with those found on the body.

Identity was thus clearly established. Deceased, who was well dressed in blue suit, black shoes and striped white shirt, had left his suit case at the hotel.

Few details as to who the man was and where he came from could be obtained although it is understood that a relative named John Welker lives at Jensen, Saskatchewan. He was about 30 years old and was a Scandinavian, it is understood. Other papers found on the body indicated that deceased has been in Toronto.

The remains were taken to the B.C. Undertakers' Parlors and the coroner was notified.

Movement of GRAIN HEAVY

Nearly

90,000 Cars Handled by
C.N.R. Western Lines This Season

WINNIPEG, Dec. 13.—Nearly 90,000 cars of grain will have been loaded over the Canadian National Railway lines in the West by tonight when navigation on the Great Lakes officially closes. Up to midnight last night, the total loadings since September 1 were 88,882 cars containing 116,287,000 bushels of grain. Approximately 985 cars are being loaded daily throughout the western lines at the present time.

In the period from September 1 to December 11 last year, a total of 79,595 cars with 102,475,000 bushels had been loaded.

John Conway, government agent at Anyox, returned north yesterday having spent a couple of days in the city.

Railway President
On Abuse Of Privilege.

For a change the President of the C.P.R. is writing the editorial article for this paper. Here is what he says:

"How many an illness is due to selfish excess? How often the decay of a once powerful company is due to its abuse of privilege and disregard of the interests and opinion of the community it ought to serve? The company or business enterprise that lives for itself and is not conducted ultimately with an eye to its usefulness to the community is an unhealthy business and a source of instability. It incorporates a wrong ideal of conduct, and, sooner or later, is bound to come in conflict with public opinion, to its own ultimate ruin. That business which desires a good old age must be conducted in a spirit of service to the community, and service to the public. It will be conducted all the better if it is virile and progressive, full of initiative and new ideas, free from red tape, official rules, cast-iron precedents and regulations, but it ought always to be conducted in the spirit of good citizenship."

State Ownership
Simply Medicine.

The tendency toward state ownership and control which is now happily passing away, was the aftermath of a too reckless and selfish individualism, both in the Old World and the New, during the first stages of industrial growth. The so-called Manchester School policy of "laissez faire" or "devil take the hindmost" was carried to excess and resulted in hardship to large masses of the people, and so in an unhealthy situation in the body politic. In England, for instance, at the end of the nineteenth century it was calculated that one-third of the families did not have enough to eat. Such a condition could only arise in a community where the desire for individual profit had outrun the interest in the prosperity of the community. It resulted in a not unnatural reaction in favor of state regulation, control and even operation of the major industries. The body politic was sick and state socialism was advocated as a medicine.

"Whether the medicine would kill the patient was something these political doctors did not stop to consider. The argument for and against state operation of industry was vaguely theoretical. There was no direct experience to which an appeal could be made to determine the probability as to whether such schemes would or would not succeed.

"In the largest company or in the most complex corporation the driving power of the individual is the keynote of progress. If the history of the last century and a half has recorded greater material progress than half a dozen centuries before, is it not largely due to the fact that in this period the individual was permitted to enter into his own by the breaking down of the fetters which had previously bound him to his class?"

Unrestricted Individualism
Is Also A Danger.

"There is, however, a danger to the human race in unrestricted individualism. Every man for himself is not only a selfish policy; it may imperil the harmony, indeed, the safety, of the community. Man as a social animal has a duty, not only to himself, but also to his neighbors. The business man or business company in a complex community or state has a similar duty to the public. The work of that man or company is ultimately for the preservation and benefit of his community, and while that work is most energetically prosecuted, if done in the spirit of the individual, it fails of its purpose if it is prosecuted to the detriment of the community or race as a whole."

"That is where the state may be called upon to interfere as a regulating factor in the world of business. Where individual activity is carried on to the obvious detriment of the public, the state, representing the interests of the community at large, is justified in exercising restraints. The individual must above all be a good citizen. But it does not follow that to make him a good citizen he must be first of all transformed into a state official. The exercise of state interference can be just as excessive as business enterprise. It is, as it were, a corrective medicine."

Nerves So Bad That
She Would Sit and Cry

Mrs. Mary Hocking, Madoc, Ont., writes:-

"Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a wonderful lot of good. I suffered from general weakness and was so run down and my heart and nerves were in such bad shape that I would sit down and cry and not know what I was crying about. I also used to have weak spells. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am real well now. I shall always keep a box of the Nerve Food in the house, and recommend them to my friends; they are a wonderful medicine."

(Mr. J. W. Vince, Druggist, of Madoc, Ont., says: "I have sold Mrs. Hocking your Nerve Food, and the medicine has done her much good.")

George V. Wilkinson was elected to membership in the club.

COMPULSORY TO PAY POLL TAX

This Levy Due from all Male Persons Over 18 Years of Age with Certain Exceptions

Apart from the questioned necessity of the payment of the tax in order to qualify as a householder at the municipal election, payment of $5 poll tax yearly is compulsory for all male persons over the age of 18, resident in the province for one month, with the exception of persons over the age of 60 whose last yearly income was less than $700, persons adjudged medically unfit or invalidated on account of military service persons engaged in military or naval service, persons who have been enrolled in an active militia corps for six months preceding registration or persons who have paid assessed taxation to the city of $5 or over.

As far as can be learned at the city hall, no active steps were taken this year to collect the $5 poll tax other than having larger industrial concerns such as the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., Canadian National Railways and Canadian National Dry Dock deduct same from the wages of their employees.

In connection with the list of those who registered as householders on the municipal voters list, city officials are not certain as to how many persons registered without paying the poll tax although paying the $2 road tax. It would be necessary to check over the list of declarations to obtain this information and this has not yet been done. It was at first intended to keep a supplementary list of those who paid only $2 but, owing to congestion of work during the absence of the city clerk in Victoria recently, it was impossible to do so.

The $5 poll tax, originally a provincial government levy, now goes to the municipality in which it is collected.

T. Ross Mackay Returns from Vancouver West Enthusiastic as to Outlook for Provincial

T. Ross Mackay, who returned yesterday from the Provincial Party convention at Vancouver, says he is convinced that there is a tremendous force behind the newly formed political organization and that there is no doubt of its being the next governing party in the province.

This impression he gathered partly through conversation with business men in the south whom, he declares, are behind the movement. Mr. Mackay also says that General McRae made it clear that he would not be the leader of the party either before or after the next election. The name of John Nelson seems to be much in favor at the present time.

It was a most harmonious convention, Mr. Mackay states, and over 300 of the 326 delegates were present most all the time. All sessions were very orderly and the business was conducted in a very sensible manner. General McRae was a marvel in controlling the gathering and showed himself to be a very fair-minded man. He was unanimously desired as leader but remained adamant in his decision not to take the post.

Vice Chairman

Mr. Mackay was elected second vice-chairman of the convention and was a member of the nominating committee. He also served on two special resolution committees.

Robert Mackay, the other delegate from this city, proceeded from Vancouver to Chilliwack and Lumby Island. He is securing two car loads of cattle which he will bring by rail to the Woodcock dairy farm, which he recently purchased. C. R. Gilbert, who was elected a district vice-president, returned with Mr. Mackay yesterday and proceeded by train to his home in Terrace.

Mr. Mackay saw many old acquaintances in Vancouver and he says they are all wishing they were back in this city. There was more sunshine in Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon after three o'clock than there was in Vancouver the six days he was there, Mr. Mackay says.

MISS STONE RESIGNS FROM CITY SCHOOLS

Is Leaving For England and Will Also Visit New Zealand Very Soon

At the schoolboard meeting last night Miss Stone, a teacher in the Booth School, tendered her resignation which was accepted with regret. Miss Stone, who was present at the meeting said it was her wish to return to her home in England and also to visit New Zealand. Her sudden decision to tender her resignation was influenced by a letter she had just received.

Trustee Parker suggested that she remain until a satisfactory teacher was secured to take her place.

Secretary Vance, in reply to a question, stated that the accounts were all correct.

For nearly three years I was very badly run down, had a weak heart, and was so nervous that sometimes I would almost faint away.

I heard of many people who had recommended your Heart and Nerve Pills, so I decided to give them a trial. After I had used two boxes I found they had done me good, and after having taken five boxes I was completely relieved.

I cannot recommend your Pills enough, and I would advise anyone having a weak heart or troubled with nervousness to use them."

SCIENCE OF MIND VERSUS CREDAL BELIEF

Editor, Daily News.

A good illustration of Mortal Mind versus Divine Intelligence, is like a man satisfied with an artificial pool, when the mighty ocean waits issue.

Like the fish in the sea, we live and move and have our being in an inexhaustible ocean of "Divine Ether," "Divine Mind" or if you will "Divine Intelligence."

And it is the recognition of this truth alone that makes free.

Pilot of old asked: What is Truth? And the Master of all Great Masters, who by the way alone could answer this question.

"I am the truth!"

It is the Christ and not the created. The truth in word and deed, "Credo," I believe, "Scio." I know. This is life Eternal that they might know Thee, the only true God and Jesus, the Christ, whom Thou hast sent."

My worthy friend, who addresses his letter "Impotence of Science," if he would permit me to remind him that it is not the Impotence of Science that is at fault, but rather the Impotence of Mortal Mind or Intellect, failing to be guided by Divine Intelligence.

"If any man is willing (that is the correct rendering), he shall know of the Doctrine" or rather, which is more correct, "The Truth," "Divine Principle." This comes not by human reason but by "Intuition," or if you will, "Inspiration," to sum up: The two redeeming factors in the regenerating of our brother man are Intuition and Divine Love.

POINT WILL BE TAKEN COURT

Municipal Court of Revision Adjudges Pending Test Being Made of Householders' Qualifications

For the purpose of testing in the County Court whether or not the names of those who paid $2 road tax without $5 poll tax should be retained as householders on the civic voters' list, the municipal court of revision yesterday afternoon tentatively struck the name of D. S. Cameron off the list and adjourned until next Monday by which time it is expected the point will be cleared up. A motion taking this course was passed after being moved by Ald. Collart and seconded by Ald. Perry. Mr. Cameron appeared before the court protesting against his name being taken off, and stating that, if such were done, he would appeal to the County Court.

Mayor Newton was opposed to striking off the names of those who had registered after paying the road tax and not the poll tax. Their names should be left on and theonus of following up the matter should be left to those who were opposed to such a course. He felt that the tendency of the age was to enfranchise rather than disfranchise and if the court did not confirm the list as it stood the city would be taking a step backwards in this respect.

Test in Courts

Ald. Collart, while not wishing to see names unnecessarily struck off, feared the effects of the forthcoming election being set aside as might be done if the names were retained. Besides putting the city to the cost of another election the work of the city council would be delayed. He favored having the list tested in court and the easiest means of doing so would be by striking off a name and having the party affected appeal. City Solicitor Jones was also in favor of such a course.

Mayor Newton felt if the names were struck off there would be just as great a chance of having the election upset as there would be if they were retained. Even at the risk of time and expense to the city, he was in favor of broadening the franchise.

Ald. Collart deemed that the city should take no chances. If the point were tested, the matter would be settled safely once and for all. He was not in favor of sacrificing any person's right but he merely wished to test them. Neither did he wish to oppose the opinion of the city solicitor who had ruled that the names should be struck off. Moreover, the process of testing should satisfy the mayor's view.

Without Cost

City Solicitor Jones felt that the point should be tested in justice to himself and his opinion.

Ald. Perry was in favor of "cheap guys" the interview ended.

INDIGESTION GAS ON STOMACH PAINS AFTER MEALS

First Part of Program Devoted to "Tannhauser" Opera — Second to Southern Darkie Music

Many people suffer terribly from gas and pains in the stomach after every meal, and are kept in constant misery. For the past 44 years Burdock Blood Sitter has been bringing hope and joy to thousands suffering from various forms of stomach trouble, helping them to eat these square meals a day, helping them to eat anything they wish without having to suffer for it after.

Mr. Fred Nelson, Moose Jaw, Sask., writes: "All last summer I was troubled with stomach trouble and indigestion, and also gas on the stomach. I could not eat anything except some light food and even then I would be bothered with pains after each meal. I could not work a whole day without being done out. I had tried everything: doctors, medicines and pills. I have taken four bottles and it has nearly, if not completely, restored me to health again."

testing the matter, though he did not desire to have any rights removed.

Finally the decision was taken to make the test. The city solicitor will draw up Mr. Cameron's papers without cost.

It was also decided by the court, in view of the uncertainty that existed at the time of registration, to have Judge Young rule on the point of whether or not $5 poll tax should be accepted for enfranchisement at this time. This will, of course, only come up in case an adverse judgment is given with regard to those persons who paid only the $2 road tax.

SCHOOLBOARD REFUSE PAY FOR EXPERT ON BORDEN ST. SCHOOL

Tony Christian Falls to Collect Account for $25 and Expresses Opinion

Tony Christian has not a good opinion of the members of the school board and he so expressed himself in rather broken English at the meeting of the school board last night. He had presented an account to the board for expert services in examining and reporting on the condition of Borden St. School. He stated that he had been instructed by Trustee McLennan to visit the school and give a report. He left his work at the Nurses' Home where he was badly needed just then and also attended the meeting of the board and answered questions. He thought the board should pay his bill as he could not afford to work for nothing.

None of the members of the board were in favor of paying the bill as, according to them, it was not authorized by the board.

Trustee Montgomery said Trustee McLennan was to blame. Trustee McLennan had also given his services and had not been paid for it.

Trustee Parker said P. W. Anderson also gave his services.

With the final remarks that the members of the board were

"cheap guys" the interview ended.

The French Olympic committee, directors of sporting federations, clubs and close followers of athletics in France are bending every effort towards making a creditable showing at the 1924 Olympic games but are under no misapprehension as to the prospects of French athletes winning the games and readily admit that France will not finish first. In the winter sports which are to be held at Chamonix from January 20 to February 5, the opinion is general that France will only place behind the Canadians, Scandinavians and Americans in hockey, skiing, bob-sleigh and curling. They are outclassed in speed skating. French rugby experts are sanguine of winning, especially if Great Britain maintains her present decision of not being represented. In association football everybody admits that England stands alone and France has no show. England and South Americans are regarded as finalists in polo and in the track and field events France is not expected to total up many points.

LADIES' MUSIC CLUB YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. Darton, 41 Green Street, the first part of the program of the Ladies' Musical Club was devoted to Wagner's opera "Tannhauser." The story of the opera was read by Mrs. Darton after which the symphony orchestra of the club played several selections from the work. Mrs. P. S. Bonney sang two Indian love lyrics — "Kashmiri Song" and "Till I Awake." Mrs. Hubert Ward played a delightful piano-forte selection.

The second part of the program was on Southern Darkie music. There was a selection by the orchestra, "Darky's Cradle Song" and Mrs. R. Blance, Mrs. S. Darton and Mrs. J. P. McMillan sang a melodious trio "Swanee River."

There was a very good attendance at the meeting.

Sport Chat

The open season for the hunting of deer closes on December 15, or Saturday of this week, so there are but two days left for those nimrods who wish to bag one more of the fleet footed animals this year. The season for geese and ducks closes on December 23, or a week from next Sunday leaving two more week-ends for the bird hunters to pursue their favorite diversion, winding up a couple of days before Christmas and permitting the opportunity to get the flying game to round off the bill-of-fare for the Yuletide festivities. Many local hunters are planning to get out on their final trips of the season.

While the life of the late Lord Shaughnessy was a very busy one, he knew the value of relaxation to be found in sport and he was fond of a game of golf. His experiences as an owner of blooded stock, however, were not altogether happy. When racing was being banned in Montreal, he imported a fashionably bred mare — Silk Hose, by name. She invariably finished last. Finally, Silk Hose died but she left colt — Silk Bird. Silk Bird turned out to be one of the best thoroughbreds ever produced in the province of Quebec and won practically all the races in which he was entered including the King's Plate in 1916. Lord Shaughnessy did not bet and donated all his winnings at racing to charity. He ultimately gave the colt, Silk Bird, away.

At the End of a Day

As the roll unwinds, music works its magic. Gone are the cares of a work-a-day world. A dear old tune touches the chords of tender memory—brings back boyish dreams—stirs the fires of inspiration.

Whatever your mood as you sit down before the Guiberson registering piano you find it sympathetic, responsive. For it is as ready to reflect the exuberance of youth in the latest and gayest of popular tunes as it is to free the majestic music imprisoned in the score of a composer's masterwork.

We invite you to our store today and try the Guiberson registering piano. A few moments will reveal the pleasures it offers. We will gladly explain the advantages of its many exclusive features.

mately 150,000. The material losses are estimated at anywhere from four billion to ten billion yen. The cost of reconstruction cannot be accurately estimated, as government decision is awaited on plans under consideration.

Meanwhile 40,000,000 yen (about $20,000,000) has been spent in relief work, and the quakes continue. According to the meteorological bureau there have been 4,370 quakes since the big one which occurred at exactly 11:58 o'clock on the morning of September 1. Of that number 356 occurred on September 1 and 2. The number continued at a decreasing rate daily thereafter.

No two authorities agree on the extent of the material losses. K. Kodama, president of the Yokohama Specie Bank places the "direct losses" of the government and private concerns at 1,000,000,000 yen, while Cho-kiroku Kadono, chief director of Messrs. Okura and Company, one of the largest concerns in Japan, say the losses will reach 10,000,000,000.

Small buildings are springing up everywhere. There is neither money nor material enough at hand or obtainable at present to start reconstruction on a grand scale. Permits are not being issued for buildings that are to stand for more than five years and both foreign and Japanese companies that wish to rebuild are being told they must await the final decision of the government on plans for rebuilding the devastated cities.

The bazaar under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist Church proved a most successful event yesterday afternoon. A goodly sum was realized from the sale of articles and serving tea, the sum of $225 in all being netted.
