FORMER MINE MANAGER LET OUT ON BAIL

LOCAL MAN BONDS BIG MINING PROPERTY AT STEWART FOR BELGIANS

Bond on Spider Group of Mining Claims Taken by Alderman T. Collart

On behalf of himself and other Belgian interests, Alderman T. Collart has bonded the Spider group of mining claims at Stewart and active development will commence as soon as the new two million dollar company which is to be formed has been incorporated. The people who are interested in the property along with Mr. Collart are the same who control the Jualin Alaska Mines Co. at Berner's Bay near Juneau, on Lynn Canal. The spider group, which consists of three claims, was formerly under bond to the Algumium Company, a Belgian concern, but they dropped a good deal of money on the property. They drove a tunnel 500 feet long in low grade ore and they also struck some high grade, going in one case as high as 157 ounces of silver to the ton and at another place 86 ounces.

Specialist Resolution Will be Further Discussed by British House After Easter

LONDON, March 21.—A test between Labor and the Government over Philip Snowden's motion for legislation designed to supersede the capitalist system by a socialist order, has been postponed to follow another debate after Easter recess. Last night's discussion found the government solidly supported by all parties in the House except the Laborites. The debate was largely academic and there was no unusual incident in connection with it.

PIONEER DIES AT VICTORIA

Joseph Boscowitz Was Prominent Sealing and Shipping Man in Early Days

VICTORIA, March 21.—Joseph Boscowitz died here aged 88 after being fifty years in the sealing and shipping business of the Pacific coast. He organized what is now the Union Steamship Company. Mr. Boscowitz started the Alaska Commercial Company with headquarters at San Francisco, got a lease of the Pribiloff Islands in 1887 and seven of his steamers were seized by the United States on the grounds that Behring Sea was closed to sealing. An arbitration board awarded the decision to Boscowitz and the owners of thirteen other vessels with compensation. Boscowitz formed the Victoria Sealing Company and after the Pelagic Sealing Treaty came into force he retired, bought a valuable Victoria city property and lived here ever since until his death.

SLOW PROGRESS IMMIGRATION

Estimates For Department Before House For Fourth Time and Not Passed

OTTAWA, March 21.—The immigration estimates were before the House of Commons for the fourth time yesterday without being passed. Bitter criticism of the government's policy hinged this time chiefly on criticism of the Canadian colonization scheme. Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of immigration, said the man who could evolve an immigration scheme satisfactory to members of the House of Commons would be a second Moses.

G.T.P. APPEAL IS BEING HEARD

G. H. Arnold, Expert Witness, Testifies That City's Valuations are Too High

The Grand Trunk Pacific Development Co.'s appeal against the assessments placed on its properties on the townsite by Assessor McLennan and ratified by the court of revision opened in the county court this morning before Judge Young. The evidence of G. H. Arnold, expert witness for the company, was the first to be heard. Examined by L. W. Patmore, counsel for the company, he described the holdings of the company and stated that the valuations made by the city were too high. Section 3 lots, assessed at an average of $51.77, were worth only $7 each; Section 4 lots, assessed an average of at $277.85; Section 9 lots, assessed at an average of $100, $15; Parcel 2a, assessed at $150, $50; Parcel 30, assessed at $1000 an acre, $100; and Parcel 19, assessed at $500, $100. City Solicitor E. F. Jones, appearing for the city, in his cross-examination, sought to show that the values placed by Mr. Arnold were biased since witness had been retained to give evidence for the company. He attempted to show that the evidence was inconsistent and only guesswork. Mr. Arnold maintained that his evidence was more than conjecture for he had based his forecasts for the future on the events of the past. Evidence will be given for the company by W. McLarnon, G.T.P. assistant tax commissioner, W. H. Tobey and others. Ald. M. M. Stephens, chairman of the court of revision, Ald. J. A. Smith, secretary, Assessor J. C. McLennan, and E. S. Allistone, tax clerk, will testify for the city.

GERMAN DEFICIT ALMOST TOO GREAT SHOW IN FIGURES

BERLIN, Mar. 21.—It is difficult to find figures enough to write the estimated deficit in German finances this year. The budget just brought down by the chancellor estimates the 1923 deficit at 7,100,000,000 marks and he explains that the immense national loss is occasioned by depreciation of the German mark and by the French and Belgian occupation of the Ruhr.

Most Important Books in World.

H. G. Wells, who not long ago wrote a history of the world, has just published in the American Magazine an article on the ten most important books in the world, and the list is a most interesting one. We wonder how many readers of the Daily News have read the ten. We venture to suggest that very few have read even half of them.

Wells refuses to consider the Bible as one book or Shakespeare's works. He says it would be reasonable to include "Half Hours with the Best Authors" or the "Masterpiece Library." So he chooses his list and includes in it nothing ultra modern, the most modern of all being one of Darwin's works. Here is the list:

- "The Prophet Isaiah," a Jewish inspiration.
- "Gospel according to St. Mark," Christian inspiration.
- "The Great Learning," on Confucianism.
- "The Koran," the Mohammedan's book of inspiration.
- Plato's "Republic."
- "History of Animals," by Aristotle.
- "Travels of Marco Polo."
- "The Revolutions of the Heavens," by Copernicus.
- "The New Atlantis," by Lord Verulam.
- "Origin of Species," by Darwin.

Mr. Wells explains that he is not naming the most beautiful books or the most perfect or the most moving, but only the most important. He was thinking not of delights but of powers. For that reason he set aside Shakespeare, Rig Veda, Goethe, Euripides and Virgil. He mentions Carl Marx on "Capital," Herbert Spencer's works, Kant, Adam Smith and numerous others, only to set them aside. He does not even suggest that it would be well to read all the important books.

The article will prove of special interest to bookish people and should not be missed.

Loyalty Begins In Our Home Town.

Here is an article handed in by a Daily News reader that just touches the spot. Read it:

Are you loyal to the town you live in?
Never thought much about it perhaps. If not, it's about time you started to do a bit of thinking along that line. Just about here some one will chime in, "Bah! I don't believe in this petty parish patriotism. It's all bunk. This home-town stuff gets my goat. I don't owe the place anything, except it's last year's taxes, and I've never seen anything for the taxes I've paid in any case. This burg's half dead, and if the Ku Klux Kluxers were to make a bonfire of it tonight, the country would be just as rich tomorrow."

The fellow that talks like that, and acts in accordance, is just the kind of fellow that helps to make a town a poor place to live. Your town just consists of you and your neighbors, your homes and your business enterprises. If you're a live, progressive crowd, you'll build a live and progressive municipality. But if you're half asleep, the town will naturally be half dead.

And did you ever think that a place that's good enough to live in is good enough to stick up for? If you don't like it, why you have the simple remedy of moving away, but if you're going to stay, it's up to you to be loyal.

Spend Your Money In Your Own Town.

That doesn't mean that you must necessarily take to speech-making and hire a brass band to advertise the fact that Hamtown is your home-town when you roam abroad. The first, and best, way of proving your loyalty is by spending your money in your own town. You know very well that there are honest merchants from whom you can buy the goods you require just as satisfactorily, and more so, than you can elsewhere. Do you realize that when you spend your money outside, the town loses that much business and is thereby that much poorer? And when the town suffers you suffer too. The mail order prices look low and the catalogue illustrations are very attractive—but remember that the merchandise isn't always just as pretty as the picture nor as high in quality as the descriptions would make it appear to be. And isn't it worth something to see the goods before you buy them, to try the fit and make sure they suit you before you pay your money. Isn't the service of the salesman worth something and the guarantee of the retailer who stands behind the merchandise he sells?

Remember, too, that the mail order house doesn't contribute to the municipal tax bill. Who bears the brunt of the burden? Your leading merchants. If they suffer, if some of them fail and have to shut shop, don't you think it may have some effect on your own prosperity? And will it avail anything to know that the mail order house paid 12 1/2 per cent dividends for the current year?

Think it over, and get this thought into your head—The best way to demonstrate your loyalty to your town is by spending your money in it.

COMPLETES ALL NEW STEAMER ELECTRIC WORK SCHEDULE OUT

C. E. Long Left This Morning For Smithers and Then Goes to Jasper. C.N.R. Steamers Will Arrive Here From South in Summer on Wednesdays, Fridays and Mondays

Having practically completed the present necessary electrical work required by the Canadian National Railways at this point, C. E. Long, the district electrician for the company, left the city with his staff today for Smithers, where some minor repair work will be carried out. Then they will move to Jasper, where a large amount of work will have to be done in connection with the re-opening of Jasper Lodge this year, which will be on June 1.

At the Lodge, many new cottages and a large main building is being added to last year's accommodation, and some eighty men are now rushing this work to completion. The electrical specifications call for, besides the regular lighting and wiring, the installation of two complete generating units, so no interruption of service may occur. These will be installed at Jasper round-house, and a transmission line will be built from there to the Lodge, which lies some three miles from Jasper townsite by road.

Cost Large Sum

During the past few months the C.N.R. electrical department has expended over $30,000 in Prince Rupert, the entire yards having been practically rewired, and all current supplied by the city to the company, with one exception, is now delivered and metered at one point, according to an agreement concluded with the city by the company last spring. The car ferry slip is necessarily supplied locally owing to its remoteness from the yards.

At the drydock, which is carried on a separate account, a 450 K.V.A. transformer bank has also been installed by Mr. Long, though owing to some delay in delivery of certain apparatus which the city has to install, it is not yet in operation. Here the city will not only benefit from the increased sale of current, but by agreement will have the large steam generating units of the drydock as a standby to the extent of 150 K.V.A., in the event of the Shawatkins plants failing for any reason.

Local Men Go

During the progress of his work here, Mr. Long has made it a point to employ local men as much as possible, and he is taking out of town with him, W. D. Smith, E. Jacobs, G. Anderson, E. Mackintosh, and J. Clapperton. Geo. Waddell and W. N. Allan, Mr. Long has had at Wainwright and Mirror, Alta., for the past three months where a minor installation and small steam unit is being installed.

As soon as the new temporary engine shed and machine shop are complete, Mr. Long will be returning to the city to install the necessary lighting and some 90 h.p. in motors for operating the machine shop machinery.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills The Great Liver Regulators

The duty of the liver is to prepare and secrete bile and serve as a filter to the blood, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons.

Therefore when the liver is inactive and failing to secrete bile in sufficient quantity constipation and other liver troubles soon follow.

Mrs. H. D. Hutchinson, Peterborough, Ont., writes:—"I have been using your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and they have done me a lot of good."

My liver bothered me a great deal; I was drowsy and tired all the time and didn't feel like doing anything, let alone my housework. I tried everything, but your Pills seemed to do the work far better than anything I had ever taken."

The Easter Breakfast

Premium Ham or Bacon

THAT breakfast on Easter Morning should consist of Bacon and Eggs has become almost as honored a national institution as Turkey for Thanksgiving.

But on this Easter Morning, bright with the promise of Springtime—vigor—and joy—the Bacon certainly should be "Premium"—the world's standard—as befitting the occasion. Substitute ordinary Bacon or Ham for Swift's "Premium" and you dull the joy of the meal.

For Swift's "Premium" Bacon is of characteristic and distinctive quality. Firstly, by its choice selection—for "Premium" Brand—and must have just the right proportion of fat and lean. Then next it possesses an unmatched succulence and savoriness due to the exclusive Swift process of curing and smoking.

Be careful to get Swift's "Premium" when you buy Bacon or Ham—make sure of it this coming Easter Morning. Order from your Butcher or Grocer.

150 SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED IN MANITOBA

Resolution Introduced to Shut Down on Higher Education Until Lower Schools Open

WINNIPEG, Mar. 20.--In view of the number of rural schools in the province closed through the lack of finances, Joseph Hamelin, member for St. Rose, has given notice of a resolution which, if endorsed by the legislature, will mean that the government must discontinue all expenditures for secondary and university education until the needs of the elementary schools are satisfied.

The opening clauses of the resolution point out that education is of the highest importance; that 150 schools are closed at the present time; and that it was the first duty of the government to see that all children obtained an education to grade 8. The resolution concludes: "That in the opinion of this house the government should regard elementary education as of greater importance than secondary or university education, and should curtail or discontinue financial aid for secondary and university education until adequate funds are provided for the operation of every elementary school in Manitoba."

PRAIRIE NEWSPAPER FAVOR OF MOUNTIES

Editorial in Edmonton Bulletin Says Bolshevik System Not Wanted

J. S. Woodsworth, M.P., failed in his attempt to get Parliament to chase the Mounted Police out of the prairie provinces says the Edmonton Bulletin. It is to the credit of the Winnipeg member that he made no pretense about the reason why he wanted the force restricted to the regulations of trappers and Indians in unorganized territories. The Mounties he said, quite truthfully, are obnoxious to the particular brand of "labor" which he represents. But that, of course, is also the reason why people who are not "red" require and want the protection of some such body against the plans of Mr. Woodsworth and his associates to set up a bolshevik system of government on the prairies. As the non-reds happen to be more numerous than the reds, the Police are to remain and the dawn of the Soviet era is postponed.

KETCHIKAN IS RIPPED UP BY OWN CITIZEN

Rev. C. M. Van Marter Tells of Evils of Red Light District and Other Joins

CONTEMPT AND RIDICULE

Defends Fishermen From Implications Upon Them; Urges Boat to Prince Rupert

The following is the report of an address given in Ketchikan by the Methodist minister of that place as reported in a Ketchikan paper:

"I offer no apology for my discussion of this theme tonight. The public is now asked to take its stand as to whether it believes in law, order and common decency. If I, as a minister in a church that stands for the highest, kept silence, I ought to be held up to public scorn and contempt." The Rev. C. M. Van Marter declared last night, speaking on the subject, "Shall the Law be Enforced, or Shall the United States Attorney be Fired?" to an audience that filled the main floor of the church, the balcony and even the stairway. He took as his text, "Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

Referring to "the stand taken by some well meaning people," that of two evils one should choose the least, Mr. Van Marter pointed out how an evil that was endorsed and condoned soon became a public sore and proved that the federal law for the abatement of the red light district had "teeth" in it by reading the text of that law passed in 1919. Why then the "howl and roar" in Ketchikan when the matter of its enforcement was taken up by the assistant U. S. attorney? "Are we, as American citizens, going to throw it over and continue to go to our lodges and salute old glory?" Van Marter demanded.

Pathetic Phase
"This subject has many phases, some pathetic, some contemptible, while others are ridiculous," Mr. Van Marter continued. "The pathetic phase is that woman who is supposed to stand for all that is purest and loveliest in life should sink to such depths as to be placed in the spotlight of public investigation. But I am not going to arraign the women of the underworld and hold them up to public scorn and contempt, many of whom have been forced into a life of shame.

"For the contemptible feature of this evil is that one cannot turn the osarehlight of public investigation upon the men who uphold, support, patronize and make the existence of such places possible; men that live and prey off the products of this sin and evil life; pimps so low and vile as to live on the money of fallen women and then beat them up as happened here recently.

Ketchikan's 'Wall Street'
"A man once pointed out to me our restricted district and said, 'This is Ketchikan's Wall Street,'" Mr. Van Marter told his audience. "I thought it was a joke, but since the furor caused in this city since the assistant U.S. attorney dropped a wet blanket over Ketchikan's 'Wall Street,' causing a panic in some circles, I am reminded of Wall Street, where fluctuations in the stock market so often throw a panic in the financial world.

"I thought the future of Alaska depended upon her fishing industry, her mining, her great forests, her fur industry and hence steps have been taken to insure their future, but as I listen to some of the arguments put forth, it would seem that her future rests upon a row of assignation houses filled with prostitutes. Is it possible that the financial basis of this town rests upon such a flimsy basis, when every time the grand jury meets, the underworld denizens are thrown into a panic or get out of town? That which is outlawed has no standing in court and nothing logical or decent can be said about it. If fish are caught illegally, every canneryman wants the law enforced. Why all this fuss and commotion? This disturbance in the financial and industrial world appears almost like the breaking up of homes, the severing of family relations.

Urged by Wife
"When this question came up, my wife said to me, 'If you don't lift your voice and take a stand on this matter, I will think you have some financial, political or private reason for not doing so.' This cry of 'it will ruin our town,' send it on 'the financial rocks,' is an echo of the cry when the gambling halls and dance halls on Front Street were closed. The places were rented for twice as much almost before the inmates were kicked out.

"A man said to me the other day, 'Well, if they close the red light district, we will have no new school building.'

"Now," vehemently declared Mr. Van Marter, "if this restricted district is allowed to remain and your boys are allowed to visit them and our youth to go on slumming parties, you won't need a school house; what you will need is a home for the feeble minded. Government statistics show that 96 per cent of the prostitutes in the United States have venereal diseases. The greatest percentage of deaths result from such diseases. The hospitals are filled with men, women and children suffering from some form of them. Yet there are mothers who wish to keep these sources of disease and death.

Medical Graft
"As to the argument that prostitutes should be segregated where they can have medical inspection and police supervision, Medical inspection is nothing but a monumental farce and medical graft" went on Mr. Van Marter. "For years the English army carried such women in camp, until it was proved that it made them physically unfit for duty. The majority of the progressive states have abolished these districts. They are not allowed in the vicinity of the U.S. army or navy camps. It is a great pity that the war department and General Pershing did not appoint a delegation to visit Ketchikan and get some ideas before taking such drastic measures.

"As to segregating them so that they will not be all over town, they are already all over the city. What reputation has the place known as the Bath House? The Rex rooming house? Pig Tail alley? Rooms over certain stores in the heart of the city? Places in Newtown? At Charcoal Point? What about the bootlegging joints? The open gambling all night?

"If the laws were enforced and every disreputable place in town cleaned up and abatement proceedings enforced for a year, owners of the buildings would be more careful in future about renting them to people of such character.

Why Laws Are Broken
"The reason why the present condition of affairs exists in this town today is one of four things; either there is no law or ordinance governing it; incompetent officers, too weak or cowardly to enforce the law; protection paid in direct violation of law; or failure on the part of the mayor and council to back up the officers. The public, not I, must be judge and jury of them.

"I am confident, however, that competent officers, backed by the mayor and city council and police committee, could clean the town of its tenderloin district, bootleggers and gamblers. Many would leave town without standing trial.

Is Line a Necessity.
"What does the 'line' produce? A row of bootleggers, the headquarters of the dope ring of Ketchikan who are in league with San Francisco agents, and robbers without arrests or convictions. Last Christmas a young man on the way south to a waiting bride was relieved of most of his money. In that case the ring of the underworld played a part. I won't describe him. Will only say he is an ex-convict. The man was glad to get back $150 of his $380. What would happen if a bank clerk or grocery clerk short changed?

"The city election is coming and now is a good time to make law and order a campaign issue and elect the right men to office.

Fishermen Made the Goat
"Another objection is that the fishermen will not sell their fish here. If I were a fisherman and you said that about me, I would not come. What a slander on their name to class them with the under-world! Bait and traps are used to catch fish. The fisherman is baited with the court-izian with her painted face, trapped in our protected houses of ill-fame, put to sleep with knock-out drops and relieved of his money. As high as $2,000 are lost in a day or two, going to bootleggers, pimps and prostitutes.

Banner Year
"The consensus of opinion has been that this was going to be a banner year," Mr. Van Marter went on, "but suddenly we find

Thomas dock, make a breakwater, dredge it and make a harbor where boats could be left safely. Charge a small fee and have a watchman. Find a place where the fishermen can paint and repair their boats. Give them fair prices on gear and bait. Get behind the plan to offer boat service to Prince Rupert and for a time forget red lights and look at the white lights of purity and decency. If the tenderloin district is necessary for our prosperity, put a big red light on a flag pole so tall that it can be seen for twenty miles to welcome the fishermen—and President Harding when he visits us next summer.

EDMONTON FIGHT OVER ESTIMATES FOR SCHOOL

EDMONTON, Mar. 20. — Reduction of the school board estimates by $27,000 to bring the total down to the same figure as last year as was recommended by council was passed by the vote of the four labor members of the board at the regular meeting after a stormy session that lasted until well after midnight.

Emphatic opposition was offered to the motion by chairman of the finance committee Trustee Bellamy, Trustee Dr. Alexander and chairman Mrs. Bishop, who argued that in view of the fact that the requirements of the board had been increased by $15,000 for free school books which were not necessary under present conditions, reductions were not warranted. It was the contention of these three members of the board that should the motion for the $15,000 for free school books be rescinded it might be possible to make arrangements to raise the other $12,000 required to make up the total amount required.

The estimates which were submitted to council called for $1,075,000 or an increase of $27,000 over last year. This increase if approved by council would result in increasing the mill rate to 10.5 mills or half a mill more than last year.

ANYOX BASKETBALLERS ARRIVED YESTERDAY

Last Night Their Opponents of Tonight Gave a Dance in Their Honor at Elks' Home

The Anyox All Star basketball team, which will play a select local aggregation tonight, arrived yesterday afternoon from the North. The party consists of H. Wooster, B. Fitzpatrick, C. Greenwell, Fred Whitteker, Harry Downs, George Willscroft and Wallace Anderson from whom the team will be selected. The visitors came as far as one of the Skeena River canneries on the Chelohst, and arrived in town on a train from there thus beating the steamer in by two or three hours.

Last night in the Elks' Home, the local Senior team, with whom the visitors will play, entertained the Anyox boys at a dance which was attended by some 75 couples. The affair proved quite enjoyable and successful. Music was provided by Billy Martin's Orchestra and refreshments were served at midnight by the Intermediate Colts, R. Smith and J. Kelly being in charge. George Frizzell was floor manager and P. Laporte presided at the door.

The local line-up for the game tonight has been selected as follows: Centre, H. Menzies; forwards, Art Eason and W. Mitchell; guards, V. Menzies and J. Mitchell; spares, G. Mitchell, E. Smith, R. Bartlett and H. Frizzell.

Besides the Anyox-Prince Rupert Senior game there will be a match between the Maple Leafs, champions of the Ladies League, and an All Star girls' team.

With the arrival of the Anyox all-star basketball team from the north yesterday afternoon, the stage is now all set for the big Prince Rupert-Anyox basketball play-off which will take place tonight in the Exhibition Hall. This, the basketball tit-bit of the season and the first meeting this year of a local team with an outside aggregation, is expected to draw forth a record crowd of fans and it bids fair to do so. The Prince Rupert all-star team will be selected from the following list of players: Harry Menzies, Vic Menzies, James Mitchell, Willie Mitchell, Art Eason, Ed. Smith, Eric Macintosh, George Mitchell, Ralph Smith and Jack Kelly. Lee Dell will act as manager of the local team and Ed. Mason will likely be the referee.

With assiduous training going on, preparations of the principals in the big boxing tournament which is to take place next Friday are taking on the air of a real championship bout. Both boys, Eddie Craggs and Alex. Roy, are in real earnest about it and the result is that there is likely to be some fireworks with both boxers out to win. Both are sure of their chances and they seem to have plenty of backers. Quite a lot of cash has already been put up on the match which promises to be one of the best expositions of the manly art of self defence ever put on by local adepts of the fistie game. The advent this week of a son and heir in the Roy family is considered as a lucky omen for that side of the argument.

Thomas Ogg, one of the most popular skiers in the Prince George Curling Club, surprised all his friends last week by coming up from behind in the McCullagh Shield competition and carrying off the honors. The competition was played on very heavy ice but the winners made a walk-a-way with the trophy. The Ogg team consisted of Thomson Ogg, C. Dupre, Herb Porter and J. Ferguson. The McCullagh is one of the most important trophies in the Prince George bonspiel.

PRINCE GEORGE

Prince George still has hopes of becoming the milling center for the American capitalists who are negotiating for the purchase of the Giscome mill and timber limits. Following a conference with H. G. Perry, M.L.A., the principals in the deal decided to reconsider their decision of abandoning the enterprise on account of royalty charges. The party composed of D. J. Winton and D. A. Winton, of Minneapolis; John F. Ross, of Wausau, Wisconsin and K. K. Nichols, of Spokane, have returned East but will be back shortly when they will go to Victoria with Mr. Perry to interview the minister of lands. Mr. Perry gave assurance that the royalties would be amended at the next session of the Legislature. In the meantime the cruisers in the field under option are continuing their work of investigation.

The provincial government will sell 27 lots on the Prince George townsite by auction on March 22. At McBride the government is also offering 200 lots and 100 blocks of acreage, the sale to take place on March 26.

ELEVATOR COMPANY MUST NOT MIX WITH INSTRUCTED AGAINST

WINNIPEG, Mar. 20.—An elevator company renting special bins for storage purposes is bound to keep contents of such bins free from grains belonging to other persons, according to a ruling given out by the Manitoba court of appeal today in the case of Hogg v. Benito Farmers Elevator Company. Plaintiff had a good quality of barley which he wished to keep clear of other grains for the good price it would bring. Notwithstanding his instructions to this effect, the elevator officials mixed his grain with others and shipped them out together. He sued and obtained judgment for $2,150.93, and the appeal court today upheld the judgment of the trial judge.
