Eight boats, marketed a total of 209,000 pounds, four American boats having 186,000 pounds and four Canadian, 23,000 pounds. Two Cent Duty is Charged American Halibut as Well as that Caught by Canadians

A. D. Gillies, local agent of the Canadian National Express Co., was advised this morning by the superintendent at Winnipeg that an amended ruling had been made by the United States Treasury department coming into effect yesterday whereby all fresh halibut, Canadian or American, landed at a Canadian port would be liable to a duty of 2c a pound on entering the United States. This advice, in view of its importance to this port, came as a bolt out of the blue to the local halibut industry today.

Doubting the validity of the measure and having been advised that a charge such as this on fresh American halibut would be absolutely illegal, fish companies and others interested in the industry requested A. E. Wakefield, United States consul, this morning to telegraph to Washington for confirmation.

In the meantime, buying of halibut at the Fish Exchange was somewhat of a gamble and the prices paid for American halibut dropped two cents evening up with the Canadian fish. As far as the latter is concerned, the advice received today has no new application for Canadian halibut for the past several months has been paying the 2c tariff on entering the United States.

Pending a reply being received by the United States consul to his despatch, local fish interests this morning declined to comment on the measure and the effect that it would have on this port. The belief was gathered, however, that if the measure were actually a fact, it would not be effective for the end to which it is apparently designed—namely to put Prince Rupert out of business as a halibut shipping centre. It is firmly believed here that even such adverse legislation will not eclipse the geographical advantage of the port and that the American fish will still have to come here for shipment.

Canadian Freighter Arrives Completing First Round Trip Between this Port and Orient

With the arrival here yesterday afternoon from Japan of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine steamer Canadian Freighter, Capt. C. R. Bissett, a voyage of particular interest to the port of Prince Rupert is completed. The Freighter has the distinction of being the first vessel ever to sail direct from this port for Japan and return direct. This round voyage took two months and one day. The steamer left Prince Rupert on August 2, laden with a cargo of lumber, a portion of which was taken on here. A good voyage across the Pacific was experienced and the vessel reached Yokohama in sixteen days. On her return voyage she left Shanghai on October 4 and the passage was very narrow.

On the return voyage from Shanghai to Prince Rupert, the Freighter ran into a typhoon during the first week out and the terrible destruction that was wrought in Yokohama by the ally. After that week, however, earthquake states Capt. Bissett, typical mid-Pacific weather was experienced and for the few days after the quake and before reaching Prince Rupert it rained there three days. The people were still staggered with the catastrophe. The Freighter had received meagre reports of the disaster by wireless but no idea of its extent and horrors morning proceeded to the dry dock where she will undergo general overhaul. This completed, she will start the loading of her cargo of 600,000 feet of lumber to discharge her cargo here and will then go on to Vancouver Island to complete. She will be here the best part of the next week. The vessel brought 309 tons of general cargo from the Orient to be discharged at Vancouver.

One has to see to realize the terrible destruction that was wrought in Yokohama by the ally. After that week, however, earthquake states Capt. GIANT TIDES WEST ALASKA

Japanese Earthquake Tidal Waves Swept In From Sea and Injured Cannery

SEATTLE, Oct. 27.—Giant tides, described as the highest ever experienced in western Canada, followed the earthquake and tidal wave in Japan doing considerable damage at Kodiak, Uyak and Chignik, according to Capt. O. A. Johansen of the steamer Starr which arrived yesterday from Seward, Alaska.

"The tide at Kodiak, following the earthquake in Japan, was six feet higher than any in the memory of the oldest inhabitant," Capt. Johansen said. "At Uyak Bay a giant tide swept in from the sea and came up through the floor of the cannery with such force that windows of the building were broken. At Chignik the foundations were washed from beneath the warehouses and other damage done."

Tax Reductions and Increases.

It is possible that as well as the redistribution of provincial constituencies the Legislature, which meets next week, will also deal with redistribution of taxes. Some interests are asking that taxes be reduced or removed while others are asking to have them imposed. The money has to be raised and the people must pay it, for there is a debt which has to be met. The only question is as to how the money shall be collected.

Perhaps the most discussed tax is that known as the personal property tax. If a factory is making a good profit, the income is assessed by the government but if the factory makes a heavy loss, instead of paying income tax it is asked to pay a personal property tax based on the valuation of the plant and stock. A merchant has to pay on the stock he carries whether he makes money or not, but if the income tax is higher than the personal property tax, he pays that only.

The argument in favor of the personal property tax is that the government must have money all the time to meet its fixed charges and other obligations, no matter whether the merchants and manufacturers make money or not. That however is no consolation to the person who has to add to his operating loss the tax demanded by the government from an industry which makes no profit. It works on the principle of the Biblical maxim: "From him that hath nothing shall be taken away even that which he hath."

Big Producing Mine at Maple Bay.

It seems as if there was likely to be a big producing mine at Maple Bay which will be one of the big factors in the copper mining industry of this part of the country. The mine is not far from the smelter at Anyox with good sheltered water connection so that cheap transportation is assured. Diamond drill tests have proved the mine to be rich enough to enable the company to make a profit on handling.

There has been mention of a possible danger of the Hidden Creek mine not standing the present heavy drain for many years. Efforts are being made by the company to secure properties that will provide business for the smelter and this is the first of any size that has been secured and put in shape for operating.

Two Cent Duty Aimed at Rupert.

The two cent duty imposed on all halibut shipped through Canada, whether American or Canadian, is aimed at Prince Rupert and the Canadian National Railway. It is one of the efforts of the United States big interests to divert business from this country to their own. What the effect will be can scarcely be surmised yet. It is part of a fiscal war going on in which the big moneyed interests of each country are seeking advantage.

Mother and Her Baby Are Relieved of Eczema

Mrs. Peter A. Palmer, Salt Burn, Sask., writes: "Dr. Chase's Ointment has completely relieved me of eczema and piles. I also used this Ointment for my baby, who broke out in eczema. A few applications were all that was necessary in her case. Dr. Chase's Ointment has been worth a hundred dollars to me—before using it I had spent a great deal more than that in unsuccessful treatment from doctors. We have also used Dr. Chase's other medicines, the Nerve Food having restored my health after suffering from severe nerve trouble when a girl."

LEGISLATURE OPENS MONDAY

Redistribution of Constituencies and Tax Legislation to be Chief Business

LIQUOR AND LABOR

VICTORIA, Oct. 27.—Re-distribution of British Columbia electoral districts will be considered by the British Columbia legislature, which opens its sessions here Monday afternoon. Premier Oliver, it is intimated, will introduce a bill for this purpose but just how the government proposes to redistribute the provincial constituencies has not yet been made known.

Legislation bringing into effect a tax on gasoline may be introduced. It is expected that the speech from the throne on Monday will give an intimation that such a measure is to be brought down. The tax is advocated by municipalities and good roads enthusiasts.

Important decisions are to be made affecting the future of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. This has been the one big problem with which the government has had to deal, overshadowing even the liquor administration in importance to the province.

The business interests are expected to renew their efforts to bring about the repeal of the personal property tax or to have it so modified that it will not bear so heavily as at present. This has been a live political question for many years past and may possibly be dealt with by the government.

Theatre owners have been very active of late in bringing pressure on the government to modify the amusement tax. A fifty per cent reduction in the present ten per cent tax is asked.

The eight hour day question is discussed for more than eight hours each session. It comes up every year and the labor members find an able champion in the House in the member for Alberni. The question is one on which all the groups except the labor group are divided and the house has so far refused to pass any legislation making the law applicable to all businesses. It is already in force in the mines.

Liquor will be discussed as usual. The beer advocates will be out strong for sale in clubs and restaurants and hotels but the opposition to it is very strong. It is expected, however, that some steps may be taken to strengthen the law in order to make it more effective than at present.

SMITHERS

S. A. Hoskins, government agent, is on holidays and J. E. Kirby, mining recorder, is relieving him.

J. F. Duthie, Seattle capitalist, who is here in connection with his mining interests, will visit the Cariboo country before he returns to Seattle.

J. T. Phelan, superintendent of Dominion Telegraphs, visited Smithers at the first of the week.

The Bulkley Valley branch of the Great War Veterans' Association has been reorganized with the following officers: President, R. L. Gale; first vice-president, N. G. Smith; second vice-president, W. J. Finnegan; secretary-treasurer, George Hefferman.

Wednesday afternoon will be observed as the weekly half holiday for stores in Smithers after November 1.

A board of trade for the district with headquarters at Smithers is being established. L. S. McGill is secretary pro. tem.

Miss Constance Goddard of New Hazelton, and Al Falconer were married last week at St. Stephen's Church, Telkwa, by Rev. J. S. Brayfield.

Mrs. J. C. K. Sealy of Hazelton has been awarded the Union Bank trophy for winning the most prizes of any Hazelton exhibitor at the Smithers Fair.

J. O. Trelhaway, head of the Abbotsford Logging Co., which is operating extensively at Alice Arm this year, returned to the city by last night's train from New Hazelton where he made an inspection of development work done this summer on the Sunrise mine in which he is interested.

ANYOX WILL CARRY ON POLYTECHNIC CLASSES

Will be Carried on Under Direct Control of School Board With R. Armour in Charge

ANYOX, Oct. 27.—The announcement that the government had decided to discontinue the Northern British Columbia Polytechnic Institute, was received with considerable disappointment on the part of those who had enrolled in the various classes here. The Anyox school board, in conjunction with the Granby Company, has decided to carry on the classes, however, and at a cost that will cover the salaries of instructors. There are classes already enrolled in steam engineering, electricity, mechanical drawing, smelting and flotation and matriculation. Within a few days it is expected a large class will be formed in practical mineralogy and geology.

A first aid class will also be formed with branches at the Beach and the Mine. The company doctors will have charge of these classes and instruction will be without charge.

R. Armour, who was organizing the classes here for the Polytechnic, will have charge of the work under the school board, and will undoubtedly meet with considerable success.

ANYOX PREPARING FOR WINTER ACTIVITIES

Gymnasium to be Ready in November; Banquet to be Given Players of Games

ANYOX, Sept. 27.—At the meeting of the Community League council in recreation hall the secretary reported that the gymnasium would be available for use about the middle of November.

It was decided by the council to hold the annual Christmas treat and dance on Friday, Dec. 21, and the council appointed a committee consisting of Mrs. Dwyer and Mrs. Cloke to act with the secretary and decide on the decorations and other matters. The council endorsed the plans for a banquet to be given to the players of baseball and football who participated actively in those sports during the season.

It was arranged that the Moose order were to get the use of recreation hall free of rent similar to other organizations in town.

Plans are being prepared and estimates of cost in connection with a scheme for utilizing the tennis courts in winter as a skating rink.

Those present at the meeting were President Harper, Vice-president Jones, Secretary-treasurer Townsend, Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. Cloke, and Mr. Ingram.

Building of Fishing Boats
Here, He Says

O. Tellefsen, a naval architect with experience at Christiania, Norway, Germany, France, and England, has decided to establish himself in business in this port. He has been up and down the coast to look over the ground and has decided that Prince Rupert is the most likely looking place there is just now.

Mr. Tellefsen says there are a number of fishermen and others who are proposing to go south to build their boats but whom he expects to persuade to remain and build them here.

David Johnston, Toronto mining engineer, who has been spending the past ten months in the Stewart and Kitsumluk mining districts, left by last night's train on his return East.

ENTERTAINED BY TEACHERS

Trustees and Members of Rotary Club Guests at Hallow E'en Party

It would be difficult to conceive of a more enjoyable hallowe'en party than that given last night in the Booth School where the president and members of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association entertained the school trustees and members of the Rotary Club. Not only was the assembly hall decorated, becomingly with the emblems of the season but the diningroom, the halls and everywhere about the buildings had an air of mystery. Witches pervaded the very air, black cats were everywhere, and fairies were seen by many of the visitors.

On arrival visitors were conducted to the dressing rooms by members of the witch's band and marched upstairs to the big assembly hall where they were received by the President and vice-president of the association, Misses Macdonald and Stone. The guests were then each presented with a sheet of greepe paper, a packet of pins and suitable hat trimmings and told it was the first duty to make the hat to be worn throughout the evening. Needless to say, some wonderful creations resulted. This was followed by an 'auto-graph contest.

When all had arrived, the guests were divided into five groups according to the color of their hats and each group was assigned a duty. One was given a bundle of clothes and was told to prepare a charade while each of the other four was given a song to write which had to be sung by them when completed. The results were very wonderful. The charade was the piece of resistance. Each of the group was rigged out as a school pupil and they showed marvellous histrionic powers in the three impromptu sketches they put on. At the close S. J. McLeod, was awarded the prize for the best sustained character. The group was captained by W. E. Williams.

The other groups composed their songs well and sang them with much expression. One produced a delightful ballad entitled "Lizzie Ford" and sang it to the tune of Yankee Doodle, another composed an ode entitled "Jiggs and Maggie" and this sung to the tune of "Sweet and Low" was "just too sweet for anything." The pathetic ballad "Sea Sickness" made a hit because of its realistic production to the mellow tones of "Old Black Joe," sung with appropriate action. This was the prize winner. "Deer Hunting" to the tune of "Sweet by and by" was the only encore of the evening and it is thought it was due to the soaring tenor.

A sketch entitled "The Wrong Flat" showed a jealous lover shooting his rival and after he had killed him discovering that he had entered the wrong flat and shot the wrong person.

One of the exciting parts of the entertainment was a balloon race in which representatives of the schoolboard, the teachers and the Rotary Club took part. The race was won by the trustees and some of the spectators were unkind enough to remark that it was because they were politicians. It was a race in which the participants had to blow a colored balloon along a copper wire.

Supper was announced, but before reaching the supper room the visitors were conducted through the dark halls where were weird visions, vanishing ghosts, screaming sprites, rattling skulls and similar horrors but all passed the test without any casualties and the scene that awaited them in the supper hall was ample reward for any of the trials and tribulations experienced in getting there. The tables were appropriately decorated and at each place was a magic candle from which the guest was to tell his own fortune. Six high schools girls dressed in white acted as waitresses and the dainty delicacies served were an indication that some of the teachers, at any rate, have missed their calling. It was suggested by the visitors that there might be raids on the ranks before long if the abilities of the teachers along this line became generally known.

Prizes Presented
After showing the men the petrified mummy all assembled once more in the hall where the prizes were presented, community singing was led by Jimmie Mitchell and addresses were given. Principal Brady of the high school extended the welcome to the teachers to the visitors and replies were made by Dr. Kergin and Dr. Grant on behalf of the Trustees and the Rotary Club respectively.

The prize winners in the various events were:
Best trimmed men's hat, Sid Johnson.
Best trimmed ladies' hat, Mrs. S. E. Parker.
Best group song, group led by Fred Stork.
Best actor, S. J. McLeod.
Throughout the evening there were many comments on the good taste and ability shown in the decorations and the excellence of the supper and general arrangements.

After the singing of the national anthem the guests regretfully dispersed.

SAVED FROM PNEUMONIA BY VICKS

Manitoba Mother Renders Unusual Tribute

Mrs. A. J. Jenner, 629 9th Street, Brandon, Manitoba, writes: "I cannot say enough for Vicks VapoRub. It saved my little boy from pneumonia and my husband from a reaction of pleurisy. I was with a friend of mine one evening and she put Vicks VapoRub on her six-months' old baby and it saved its life after all other things had failed. Believe me, I never want to be without Vicks in my house. I have five children and am always needing it."

Dr. Osler says pneumonia has taken the place of tuberculosis as "Captain of the Men of Death," to use a phrase coined by old John Bunyan. And influenza is not far behind. The germs of both diseases are constantly with us. The only reliable protection against them comes from good health. To avoid these dangerous diseases in winter, don't let yourself get run down and above all never neglect a cold. Break it up in its early stages with Vicks VapoRub, the external vaporizing treatment for colds.

Will you be One of the 2,000,000?

Ten years ago almost every woman baked her own bread. Today, in most of the United States, the majority patronize the baker.

Five years ago almost all washing was done in the home. Today almost 2,000,000 send their entire family bundle to the laundry.

And nowhere is this modern method more popular than right here in our own city. If you were to call any day at our laundry, we could show you proof.

Why? Because the service we offer takes all the washing completely out of your home.

Think of it—no laundress to bother with; no water, tubs, and soiled clothes to struggle with. Just a minute at the phone, and your washing is taken off your hands.

We have a number of services for you to select from—telephone and have us explain all about them. Regardless of whether you employ a laundress or do your own washing, you will find this service will save you time, and money, too.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

The Admiral of the Mosquito fleet reports that the business along the waterfront during the past week has shown a slight improvement over the preceding week. The bad weather, which had been a serious drawback to the fishing, abated considerably over last week end and assisted the schooners in bringing in slightly heavier catches. With heavier landings of halibut the prices offered on the Fish Exchange took a slightly downward course although on the whole they have remained very steady around the 19c and 18c mark for first class fish. The bait shortage on the northern grounds is now a thing of the past and it is not thought likely that there will be any further trouble in this connection. It is anticipated in nautical circles that with better weather prevailing and the bait shortage taken care of halibut arrivals will steadily increase from now on. Although the catches have been light for the past few weeks, the good prices offered have offset this phase of the fishing business and skippers and crews generally are nursing no grouch.

Boat Building

There is considerable boat building and repair work under way along the waterfront. The new slips and shed recently erected by N. M. McLean are nearing completion and already several big jobs are in the yards. The Doreen Brothers have commenced laying the keel of a new halibut boat at the McLean slips. The boat will be 57 feet long by a 14 foot beam and will probably be fitted with a full Diesel engine. The Canadian halibut schooner Lillian M. Capt. Croll, is to be taken on the ways shortly to undergo extensive repairs and overhaul. A new pilot house will be erected and a new deck laid, among other repair work. Capt. Jim Morrison is contemplating the building of another halibut boat, Cayceon II, at these yards but details are not yet forthcoming as to dimensions, power, etc. In addition to this work several boats of the trolling fleet are to be put through a thorough overhaul preparatory to the activities of the coming winter season.

Scandia's New Engine

The American halibut schooner Scandia, Capt. Olof Iyatum, which has been in the south for the past few months undergoing new engine installation, recently called into Ketchikan en route to the high spots from Salmon Bay. While at Salmon Bay the Scandia underwent overhaul and the installation of a 160 horse power Bolinder heavy oil engine. Before leaving the south the vessel was taken for a trial trip on Lake Washington by her skipper who expressed himself as quite satisfied with the behaviour of the new box of tricks. The Pacific Fisherman recently published a story on the Scandia and the new engine in which it said that on the trial trip the big 2-cylinder Bolinder took the schooner over a measured course at a speed of 9.75 knots. It is direct reversible and is equipped with electric starting plugs, making handling on the fishing grounds or in close quarters very simple. With a 66 by 64 inch propeller, the normal speed is 235 revolutions per minute. The Scandia is 104 feet long, 19 feet beam, with a draft of 11 feet and a carrying capacity of 140,000 pounds. The Scandia is expected to make port during the coming week.

The native power boat Catherine, Capt. H. Collison, arrived in port from Kikatha early in the week. Her skipper is busy purchasing supplies preparatory to going out on a trapping expedition.

Albert-McCaffery Busy

A shipment of 2,300 sacks of cement arrived in port during the week for the Albert-McCaffery interests from the south. The entire shipment left over the Canadian National railways for Terrace for use in connection with the Terrace bridge building. Another shipment consisting of 4,000 sacks of cement will arrive on the steamer Prince John early in the week for the same destination.

Ruby Mae Held Up

The power boat Ruby Mae, owned by J. & C. Currie, the well known logging men, broke her carnsiaft while coming in from Haysport on Monday. This has held her up. The broken part is being welded at the Dry Dock, and it is expected the lithe old machine will again be in running order early next week.

Thurber Fleet Tied Up

The halibut schooners Mayflower and Muirneag, owned by the renowned Capt. Jud Thurber, have tied up for the winter. With flags at half mast, the skippers in tears, and the boats touching noses, the ceremony was performed with due ritual on Thursday morning from the Hunt dock. A big crowd was on hand to witness the doings, in fact before Jud finally got on deck after floundering around in a sea of sop he shook hands with both the onlookers. It had been cap's intention to take a little trip to Halifax for the purpose of witnessing the great international fishing schooner race between the Canadian contender Bluenose and the American contender Columbia, and incidentally to renew acquaintance with some of his folks back east. However, fleet details detained him and he has been unable to get away up to date. It is probable that the skipper of the Columbia knew of this delay on Jud's part and conveniently ran the Columbia upon a rock to defer the race for his benefit. Even at that it is very improbable that Jud will be able to get away for a few days yet.

The Crazy Poet

Ships may come and ships may go
Heated sunbeams melt the snow,
Hear the shout above the fire
Skipper yells "You are a (falsehood)."
Days may break and nights may fall,
Women weep and babies bawl,
Faltering men may pay their bills,
Cure methods cure all ills.
Men may love and women curse,
Lose a bottle—that is worse,
Now the dawn is dawning bright,
Guards are yelling "He's not right."

See the faces at the door.

No one asks for any more,
I'm so lonely in this cell,
Fact, quite Crazy—go to HELIOTROPE.

The native power boat Balaco arrived in port from Port Simpson on Wednesday for the purpose of doing mechanical repairs.

Fish Day Oct. 31

The one day of the year of particular interest to all those engaged in the fishing industry is the day set apart throughout the Dominion of Canada, by the Dominion government, as Fish Day. This year the day has been set for Wednesday next, October 31, and on that day every man, woman and child in the whole Dominion is asked to encourage, and in a slight degree show their appreciation of the valiant efforts of those employed in the dangerous calling of fishing, by eating fish at least at one meal. Scientists have said that fish is good for the brain, and if for no other reason it is up to those of us who realise that we don't know it all to give the top storey a chance to grow. The Admiral of the fleet has decreed that two eyed steaks, meaning kippers, shall be served on every boat of the fleet on Wednesday next and it is on the cards that the old man will give a fish banquet aboard the flagship of the fleet on that day.

Fish Business

During the week 497,800 lbs. of halibut has been marketed through the Fish Exchange. Americans were high at 19.9c and 12.5c and low at 18.4c and 10c. Canadians were high at 18.5 and 11c, and low at 17c and 10c. Arrivals were: Rolfe, Anna J., Democrat, America, Tahoma, Forward, Panama, Seattle, W.T., Rennell, Gladstone, Sumner, Crescent, Muirneag, Mab, Marguerite, Atlantic, Alten, Kanatak, Inez H., Washington, Atlas, Defense, Reveille, White Lilly, Iris.

Crib Going Strong

The waterfront crib tournament for the Thanksgiving turkey is going strong and strong words have been used by the losers according to accounts. The first round went off without any very serious damage being done although many diabolical threats were made during the play. The most outstanding was when Doc Clapperton threatened to make Steve Carter drink a whole bottle of milk without taking a breath. Steve would have suitably replied but one of the fleet marines diplomatically handed him a hot dog at the crucial moment and thus closed the argumentative apparatus. Winners in the first round were Lance Styles, J. McIntosh, E. Shrubbsall, Steve Carter, W. C. Hughes, P. Lorenzen, J. M. Murray, W. Shrubbsall, H. Menzies, H. Lipsitt, Geo. Woodland, Doc Clapperton and A. Saxton. The vanquished were Frank Davis, J. Potterton, A. R. Hunter, A. G. Gillies, W. Shubbs, Pete Solem, Harry Daggelt, J. Donnelly, Brandy Newell, Bob Shrubbsall, W. Watts and John Dybhavn. The line up for the second round is: Croll vs. Woodland; Murray vs. G. Starr or Putnam; Saxton vs. McIntosh; H. Menzies vs. H. Lipsitt; Lance Styles vs. B. Shrubbsall; P. Lorenzen vs. W. G. Hughes; E. Shrubbsall vs. J. Lee or C. W. Kirkendall; S. Carter vs. Doc Clapperton. The last mentioned game will probably end in a scrap but necessary precautions are being taken and the referee of the play will be well armed with rubber bands.

The power boat Mary D. skippered by R. Durdward arrived from Port Simpson during the week to undergo engine overhaul.

The power boat Pachena, Capt. A. Swanson returned Wednesday night from Ketchikan to which point she had taken a party of business men.
