BRITISH WORRIED OVER GERMAN SITUATION

NEW OFFICIALS TO BE APPOINTED AS HEADS OF ALL CIVIC DEPARTMENTS

British Opinion is That France Would Withdraw from Germany if She Could do so with Prestige

LONDON, Jan. 22.—The critical situation in the Ruhr is the subject of much anxious comment by morning newspapers, which regard the outlook to be so dangerous that it is imperative there should be some way of relieving the deadlock. The fear expressed in some quarters lest Britain should be forced into some active form of intervention against her will.

Some circles are also fearful that if France pursues the present line, she will be obliged to increase her forces greatly in the occupied district with the result that Germany may follow with military action, which would mean war. There is already a report from Germany that the country is arranging to reinstate conscription but of this there is no official confirmation.

Some commentators believe France is convinced she has mis-calculated the German temper and, finding the results of occupation not what was expected, seeks means of withdrawing, if possible without loss of prestige. At this end it is stated here that France is re-examining the British and Italian proposals which were rejected at the Paris conference.

Meanwhile developments in the Ruhr are awaited in Britain with much anxiety.

DUBLIN, Jan. 22.—Irregulars with explosives destroyed the fine railway viaduct spanning the arm of the sea at Malahide near Dublin. STRIKES ARE IN PROGRESS RUHR TODAY

Most of the Miners Refuse to Work After Directors are Arrested

BRUSSELS, Jan. 22.—Strikes, either partial or complete, are in progress today in all the Ruhr mines whose directors have been arrested by the French. The strikes resumed operations, the troops having been removed. Wagned by Berlin that they might be imprisoned if they sought coal to the surface. The miners added their contribution to the nation's passive resistance policy by putting down their picks. Their railway comrades meet today to decide whether they too should refuse to assist in transporting German coal to France. The railway men are already on strike in Bochum and Dortmund.

VANCOUVER HAS 31 DAYS RAIN; THEN IT STARTS TO SNOW

Anyone who has been inclined to become disgusted at Prince Rupert's weather may take heart anew after reading the following item which is chronicled on the front page of the Vancouver World referring to weather conditions in the southern city.

After raining for 31 days, it commenced to snow at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon and Mr. E. B. Shearman, weather man, reports that he would not be surprised if the snowfall continued for two or three days.

"Starting to snow about Dec. 15, it continued for three days and then commenced to rain and, with calm interludes of a few hours, it has rained ever since. In this period of one month, 16.15 inches of rain was precipitated on Vancouver. Since the first of the month the fall has been about 10 inches, as compared with the average fall for January of eight inches."

BIG CATCH WOLF SKINS

Emil Quist Brings Seven Big Hides to Town and Receives $310 for Them

Three hundred and ten dollars were the proceeds to one visit made to his trapline on the south end of Banks Island by Emil Quist, an Ogonah River trapper, who is in the city today. Mr. Quist this morning presented seven black wolf skins to Government Agent McMullin's office for bounty payment and received $25 each for them. Subsequently he had sold the seven skins to Joseph Rogers, local fur buyer, for $20 each.

The skins average about seven feet in length and were trapped in one bunch on January 10. Mr. Quist says that the wolves are thick down the coast and they are killing all the deer. These seven he says killed at least 50 deer apiece this season.

Government Agent McMullin says that this is the biggest lot of wolf skins that have been brought in here for several years at one time. Four is considered a big catch at one time and it is not often that more are presented at once.

BELFAST, Jan. 22.—A laborer recently sold a litter of pigs in Portlanna for £30 and the same night a group of masked men rushed his home and demanded the forty pounds on the peril of his life. The men got the money but, as they were leaving, the young son of the laborer swung an axe and killed one of the masked men. The others escaped. When the face of the victim was uncovered it proved to be the laborer's own son.

Beatrice Struck Camosun at Right Angles Glancing Blow; Stem Twisted off

With her stem twisted off, her planks open and water leaking through her seams, the C.P.R. steamer Princess Beatrice, Capt. C. C. Saintley, arrived in port at 2:45 on Saturday afternoon rather badly shaken up after her collision with the Union steamer Camosun in McKay Beach, just north of Princess Royal Island, about midnight Saturday morning. The vessel discharged her 36 passengers and 23 tons of freight for this port immediately after arrival and a survey was then made to ascertain the extent of damages. It was decided to make temporary repairs here and as soon as these are completed, probably about the middle of this week, she will leave for Victoria under ballast with no passengers or freight all bookings being now cancelled.

At Right Angles

When the collision occurred the Princess Beatrice and the Camosun were almost at right angles. The Camosun was coming around the head of Princess Royal Island from Surf Inlet and the Beatrice was proceeding north, just having got out of Finlayson Channel. The Camosun was about to cross the Beatrice's bows from port to starboard. When it was seen that a collision was imminent both ships rang in full speed astern but it was too late to avoid the impact. The Camosun veered to port but was struck a glancing blow by the Beatrice amidships just abaft the bridge. The Beatrice's stern post was off and, according to passengers, there was quite a shock. Down in the dining saloon of the C.P.R. boat, where the night steward was piling up dishes, there was a great smash when the collision occurred.

Immediately after the collision, both ships stopped to ascertain the extent of the damages. The

DRYDOCK REMOVAL BEING CONSIDERED

Railway Head Says Matter is Being Investigated by Engineers

In the report of an interview given a representative of the Vancouver Sun in Vancouver is the following:

"The question of removing the Prince Rupert drydock to Vancouver is receiving the attention of the Canadian National railway directorate. Sir Henry announced to the Vancouver Sun.

"It is not a matter to be lightly determined," he said. "In connection with the drydock there are also a power plant and shipbuilding and ship-repairing machinery. The question involves more than the mere towing of the drydock to Vancouver. The other equipment must be considered also and that means reports by engineers. The matter is being investigated at present, however, so that the directors may make a decision."

Criticisms Of New President.

Newspapers at some points where President Sir Henry Thornton has visited but not remained long or at points which he has had to pass owing to lack of time, have criticised the new official for the luxurious manner in which he and the leading officials travel. Such criticisms, when honestly offered, originate in the conviction that waste does not belong in any plan to reduce deficits on a publicly-owned enterprise. The fact is that all capable officers of a railway believe that waste is inexcusable under any condition, and govern themselves accordingly. Were critical newspapers aware of all the facts connected with an inspection trip over railways, under circumstances such as those ruling the continent-wide journeys of the new C.N.R. head, it is safe to say that no criticism would be offered at all.

Has Big Job In Welding Systems.

President Thornton is new to the country as well as to the National lines. He has been entrusted with a really big job of welding three groups of lines and three groups of employees into one system of 22,000 miles, having more than 100,000 workers on the payrolls. He has to pick his official staff to run the lines under his direction, choose the centres and define the limits where men with authority are to be located. To him falls the duty of determining what the service ought to be, in all parts of Canada, and his appraisal must be made of the condition of roadbed, bridges, stations, and of all the property and equipment the road has available to furnish such a service.

Reasoning men know that if he journeyed over the lines alone, his work would likely be futile. He would be observing conditions without having an understanding of why they should be so. Any decisions he might make would probably be altered when he secured the governing facts on return to headquarters. Moreover, such a trip would be more in the nature of a "leave-of-absence" than an official inspection. And men with the capacity for work Sir Henry Thornton evidences, are not prone to anything but work. Officers on the National lines are discovering that their new head gets through a tremendous amount of work in a day.

Must Have Heads Departments With Him.

Obviously then, the C.N.R. president and chairman, as he views the property over which he has to preside would, of necessity, wish the heads of the great departments of the road—finance, operating, traffic, and construction—with him for consultation, as the train moves over the country. And general managers, assistant general managers, general superintendents, superintendents, engineers, traffic men, and all classes of railway supervisory forces, are called upon, division by division, district by district, to explain the whys and wherefores of everything. The railway is being run from that train as actually as if the president were at headquarters, and could call the self-same colleagues from adjoining offices. Decisions are made, and work set in motion, under a proper understanding of the objects to be accomplished, and, instead of waste, a great deal of labor, time, and possibly injudiciously spent money, is saved to the stockholders, who are, in this case, all Canadians, from Atlantic to Pacific.

Work Must Go On As Usual.

There is still another fact about which the public should be informed. Work on the administration of a railway cannot be allowed to pile up. Therefore, the head of the road, and the heads of departments who are on the train, have the departmental mail, that would ordinarily require their attention, delivered to them each day. The mail comes in and goes out almost as usual, and operations do not halt in any part of the system. Each officer is reachable day or night, and his labors, generally, which perhaps the public does not appreciate, are on a twenty-four hour basis. Such a man is available at all times, and important matters always override his personal convenience—at least so it is on the Canadian National.

One result of such a system, naturally, was the "official" car. The name was not aptly chosen. It is a work car, and might be more exactly designated "office of the superintendent," "office of the president," or "office" of whichever official happens to be working in it at the time. Secretaries of officers with large responsibilities have no easy task on such inspection trips. Facilities are not as elastic, and duties are almost as heavy as around the office at headquarters. With other assistants it is much the same. The work car is a necessity to the officer, and extra labor a certainty for the personal assistants.

FINAL REPORT ON EXHIBITION

J. F. Venables Tells of New Features of Last Fair and Gives Valuable Advice

WORK ON BUILDING

Many Hints for Improvement of Exhibition During the Coming Year

In his report to the Board of Directors of the Agricultural and Industrial Association, J. F. Venables, manager, showed that there were a number of new features introduced last year and he points out a great many improvements that might be made as a result of past experience.

New features included the Better Babies contest, in which there were 64 entries. In connection with this he says: "Due credit should be given to Doctors Cade and Tremayne and acting supervising nurse Donaldson who devoted hours of toil to the examination of the babies without charge; also to Mrs. Blaine, Mrs. McMullin and the ladies of the L.O.D.E. under whose auspices the contest was held, and to the Prince Rupert General Hospital, which so kindly gave the use of the hospital for the examinations. In this contest each child received a thorough examination, also a score card showing in points the baby's medical condition, and each child was presented with a diploma."

Baby Picture

He also reports that the making of the big picture which R. E. Benson was to present to the Board has been delayed owing to several of the pictures of babies not yet having been taken.

Another new feature was the dog show in which there were 23 entries. Mr. Venables suggests giving ribbons in this class next year instead of money prizes.

The sealplane, rock drilling contest, wood chopping and lacrosse were all features which were not put on the previous year.

Special comment was made on the showing of poultry which was twice as large as on previous years. Assistance in this department was given by John Davie and W. J. Kirkpatrick and the Poultryman's Association, under whose suggestion alterations in the chicken house were made. The visiting judges commented very favorably on this department.

Special comment is made in the report on each class and especially on the district exhibits which were more numerous and finer than had been shown hitherto.

Should Visit Districts

In connection with the mining exhibit, the manager recommends that a representative of the Board visit each mining district and induce the people to send specimens as was done with the district exhibits last year.

Comment is made on the absence of a fishery exhibit. With the canneries, the cold storage, the fish hatchery, the fish oil company and other organizations close at hand, Mr. Venables thinks there should have been some effort to stage an exhibit in this class.

In photography Mr. Venables suggests that more attention be given the class for those amateurs who do only part of the work but who get their printing and possibly their developing done by a professional.

Work of Schools

In connection with the schools exhibit, the report says: "Our school exhibit was both extensive and elaborate, having 515 entries, which was the greatest number of entries in any one class. This was made possible through the courtesy and splendid efforts of Superintendent H. L. Campbell, the whole arrangements being in his hands and under his special supervision. All the schools gave their loyal support, which enabled him to produce, without a doubt, the most wonderful display ever exhibited. This is a department that every individual should be interested in, and in passing through the many aisles of the exhibits one cannot but admire the artistic skill of the coming generation and to give due credit to those patient teachers who prepare them for their different walks of life."

Permanent Improvements

In connection with the work done on the building this year the report mentions that 580 feet of new sewer had been installed and this was boxed and covered. All outside water pipes have been changed to an inside location to prevent freezing, and those under the building have been lowered. The drains in the building have been cleaned, tarred and repaired and a number of new drops put in to take care of the overflow. A big tank stove has been placed on the floor of the building and a smaller stove in the ladies' room downstairs. Four new booths were added to the carnival grounds. A new dog house was erected and equipped to accommodate 25 dogs. A corral was built in the rear of the carnival grounds to take care of a car of cattle but unfortunately this was not used. Three outside toilets were erected. Inside the building so far as possible all work done was of a permanent nature in order to save expense another year. A new handstand was erected and made permanent. The capacity of the chicken house was doubled and the old pens rebuilt. Windows were constructed on three sides of this building.

An important piece of work was the laying of the new floor and the lining of the walls downstairs. This helps to make the floor a revenue producer. The total money spent on improvements in 1922 was $3,521.56.

Receipts Large

The cash receipts at the exhibition building were larger than ever before even though tickets had been sold in large numbers through the popularity contest. The total gate receipts for the building amounted to $1,135.35, outdoor sports $2,638.15, popularity contest receipts $3,751.50. Mr. Venables recommends that this year a man be sent to interest exhibitors not only in agricultural exhibits but in the products of the fisheries, the mines, the lumber mills and other industries.

The monies received in the membership drive are devoted to the financing of the coming year.

The concluding paragraph of the report reads: "In conclusion I wish to thank the officers and members of the board for their hearty support and co-operation, and wish to say that only through the untiring efforts of our able president, F. G. Dawson and the invaluable assistance of his fellow officers and members of the board was the success of the 1922 exhibition made possible."

Says Pressure of Eastern Engagements Makes Prince Rupert Visit Impossible at this Time

In reply to the telegram sent to Sir Henry Thornton pressing upon him the invitation to visit Prince Rupert on his present tour of the West, Mayor Newton received the following message:

"Your message received and I much regret that, owing to important engagements at Ottawa on the week commencing January 28, I am obliged to return East direct from Vancouver. My reason for the present time was to see as quickly as possible as much of our property and to meet as many citizens as I could but I find it impossible to do all this at once in view of the extensive territory to be covered. It is only a pressure of time that prevents me going over the northern line on the present tour and I assure you that I am looking forward to seeing you and meeting yourself and the citizens of Prince Rupert at the earliest possible opportunity."

BUSINESS DEPRESSION IS AFFECTING JAPAN

General Trend in That Country is Toward Improvement

TOKIO, Jan. 22—Business and finance are still suffering depression in Japan, although there has been a noticeable upturn in the general trend since November. The fight for lower bank rate on credit is being carried on actively by business interests and the fact that the move is winning political support as well as the endorsement of the most influential commercial business houses in the country is taken as an indication that something will be done.

Advocates of a reduction in bank rates argue that business is handicapped by lack of capital; that ruling high rates drain the resources of private enterprise, transferring cost of capital to the consumer and thus increasing the cost of living. The government is expected to release considerable capital within the next five weeks in the form of maturing issues, and the fact that the efflux of gold has been stopped for sometime is a sign that the credit situation is improving.

Markets for coal, rubber, edible and drying oils, secondary metals, including tin, lead and zinc and petroleum are growing stronger, but against them are many products that have slumped, such as heavy chemicals, dyes, paints, lumber, iron, steel, fertilizer. Steel registered a series of declines and the outlook is anything but bright. The Yokohama raw silk market has registered important advances recently. The rice and wheat markets are dull.

A real whole wheat porridge

Children like a whole wheat porridge better than any other porridge—and it is so easy to make it, hot and tasty, out of Shredded Wheat.

Place the Biscuits in a small saucepan, add salt and enough water to cover the bottom of the pan; stir and boil until it thickens. Serve with milk or cream.

A hot dish for those who do not like porridge is made by simply pouring hot milk over the Biscuits, adding a little cream and a little salt. Nothing so good for youngsters as these little loaves of crisp, oven-baked shreds of the whole wheat.

Shredded Wheat contains all the bran you need to stimulate bowel movement.

WEEK AT THEATRE

Monday and Tuesday, Ben Mix in "The Fighting Streak." Sunshine Comedy and News Gazette.

Tuesday and Thursday Mack Sennett presents the Five Part Feature Comedy "Home Talent," a case of Comedians starring Ben Turpin and Charles Murray also Phyllis Haver and the famous Mack Sennett Beauty Girls. Comedy and Scenic.

Friday and Saturday and Sunday-Matinee at 3 p.m. Ethel Clayton in "For the Defence." Comedy and Scenic.

Tom Mix tonight in "The Fighting Streak." The corking good actor and athlete that he is, Tom Mix, the star, never fails to resort to what is known in the prize ring and on the baseball field as "a change of pace" to make sure of the success of every one of his pictures. This pleasant and necessary change of pace is especially noticeable in his latest Fox production, "The Fighting Streak," which opens at the Westholme tonight and is to be found not only in his own characterization and acting, but in the thread of the story itself and in the locale. Nevertheless, it is a Western picture in every part of it—refreshing and new, yet containing all of typical speed and daredevil action, thrills and stunts for which Mix is famous.

In "The Fighting Streak" splendid use is made of the peaks and plateaus of the Rocky Mountains. To make sure that he is abiding by his creed of "give them something new all the time," Mix even goes so far as to stage one of the big minutes of the picture in a barber shop. The story is worked up in steady crescendo to a smashing good climax with a new and surprising twist to it that cannot but please everybody.

ART OF COMEDIAN BEAUTY OF WOMAN COMBINED IN FILM

Mack Sennett's latest and greatest multiple reel comedy "Home Talent," has been booked for mid-week at the Westholme Theatre by Manager Sell. Those who have viewed this much-talked-of comedy-spectacle agree that it is one of the best productions that has emanated from the Sennett studios in many months. The episodes in which the genius of Albo as a "still" photographer converted "the movies" is revealed, relate to a story of the slave mart of ancient Rome and in them is shown the ensemble and individual beauty of the Mack Sennett feminine corps of pulchritude. This part of the picture, if it is claimed, will be a revelation to picture patrons as well as to picture experts, for in sight, nothing approaching these scenes has been accomplished in the line of revealing, decorous disclosures of feminine beauty. Phyllis Haver, appropriately, has the leading feminine role and is supported in the beauty contingent, principally by Hazel Hammond, Mildred June and Kathryn McGuire. The principals in the comedy episodes are Ben Turpin, Charlie Murray, Eddie Gribbon, James Finlayson and Kalla Pasha. One of the most "gorgeous" fights ever screened is shown in a Roman setting with Eddie Gribbon in a legitimately heroic and splendidly sustained characterization.

MACDONALD'S

STAR PERFORMER IN APPLYING FOR JOB

Humorous Application Received by City in Answer to Advertisement

The following letter was received by the city in answer to its advertisement for applications for city treasurer and collector:

"With reference to your advertisement in the daily papers calling for applications for the post of City Treasurer and Collector, I would apply for this position in the most humble manner, in fact I can humble myself enough to satisfy the most exacting of your mayors and aldermen. I consider am qualified for this post by reason of my great experience in the lines required. So far as treasurer is concerned I have treasured the memory of my father and mother for some 20 years and in a manner most becoming to their honourable memory, never allowing a day to slip by without doing my best to get plastered. I treasure the recollection of once having managed to do in a "Bull" who was endeavoring to arrest me after a little robbery, and as for collecting, well, say, I am the star performer owing to my taking little ways. I have collected things for the past fifteen years, and regret to say I have been caught several times, on the last occasion being given five years which I have just finished serving.

"I am perfectly certain I can give satisfaction to all your aldermen, for whatever changes they might desire to have made in the keeping of books, alteration of figures, or any any little matter connected with my department, it would be carried out immediately and I feel sure that they would be no wiser after the alteration than I should be beforehand.

"As to wages, I'll leave that to you, as I expect to make sufficient on the side to retire in a very short time.

"Thanking you in anticipation of an early reply.

"Yours very faithfully,
Signed D. S. WINDLE."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills The Great Liver Regulators

The duty of the liver is to prepare and secrete bile and serve as a filter to the blood, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons.

Therefore when the liver is inactive and failing to secrete bile in sufficient quantity constipation and other liver troubles soon follow.

Mrs. H. D. Hutchinson, Peterborough, Ont., writes:—"I have been using your Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and they have done me a lot of good.

My liver bothered me a great deal; I was drowsy and tired all the time and didn't feel like doing anything, let alone my housework. I tried everything, but your Pills seemed to do the work far better than anything I had ever taken."

MONTREAL VICE RING PLAYED

Paper Demands Changed Conditions in Canada's Largest City

Following an address by the superintendent of the Montreal General Hospital to the Canadian Club at Montreal, the Star comes out with a strong editorial demanding action. It follows: "Montreal, the metropolis of Canada, has the only recognized Red Light district in North America. It tolerates commercialized vice and by the inaction of its officials and the indifference of its citizens, it encourages crime, fosters the drug traffic and disseminates disease.

"The indictment which Major Haywood made at the Canadian Club yesterday must come as a shock to his hearers and to the wider audience that has since read his address. There was no attempt at rhetoric, no effort to thrill his hearers or to paint conditions in a more lurid light than the facts warranted. The statistics were marshalled with extreme care and accuracy, and the examples cited were largely taken from the personal knowledge which the Superintendent of the Montreal General Hospital is in a unique position to secure.

Not Nice Reading

"The conditions which Major Haywood uncovered do not afford nice reading. They were not prepared for a lesson in a girls' school; they deal with a world so far outside the ken of a healthy boy that they have no interest for him. They were a sober, carefully prepared statement of facts for the men and

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" SAVED HER LIFE

This Fruit Medicine Always Gives Relief

917 DUNDAS ST., MONTREAL.
I suffered terribly with Dyspepsia. I had it for years and all the medicines I took did not do me any good. I read something about "Fruit-a-tives" being good for all Stomach Trouble and Disorders of Digestion, so I tried them.
After finishing a few boxes, I was entirely relieved of the Dyspepsia, my general health was restored, and I am writing to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives".

women of this city, and the only excuse which Montreal can have for their existence is that not one man in ten thousand knew until yesterday of the depravity, the disease and the shame of this vicious area.

"Major Haywood charged the officials of the city responsible for the checking of a crime with a supineness and an indifference to conditions, if not with connivance. He has placed many of the police and officers of the detective force under a cloud by his revelations and if the force is to retain the confidence of the people it must clear its name of the charges thus directly brought.

Direct Challenge

"The facts presented by Major Haywood are a direct challenge to the Recorders of the city. These Magistrates could, if they would, end this deplorable state of affairs by stiff jail sentences and they have not seen fit to do so. The citizens of Montreal, proud that the matter has been brought to their attention in clear, unmistakable language, will expect the Recorders to give answer to the charges of Major Haywood.

"The close connection between vice and the drug traffic, the evidence produced that the houses of prostitution are a harbor for thieves, murderers and criminals of all kinds should force upon the citizens of Montreal an appreciation of the importance of the facts. Even on the basis of dollars and cents, commercialized vice is a ruinously extravagant luxury.

Wretched Inmates

There was a touch of pathos in the picture which the doctor drew of the wretched inmates of these houses, virtual prisoners not only in moral slaves, but physically. It is the young girl who pays the price of the epidemy of "madame" and the lust of the beast-freighters.
"Montreal can have no excuse now. These conditions, appalling as they are, are laid before her. What are we going to do about it? The matter is too serious to be allowed to rest."

TOLMIE OPPOSED TO NEW POLITICAL PARTY

Farmer Governments Had When Elected Abandoned Policy

VANCOUVER, Jan. 22.—"There is no shortcut by forming new political parties, to a solution of the many problems confronting Canada today," declared the Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M.P., at a largely attended Conservative meeting in Dominion Hall. "The only solutions are application of sane business methods and a certain amount of time. If I thought new parties were a solution I'd join a dozen of 'em tomorrow."
Hon. Dr. Tolmie said that farmer governments elected on platforms of economy had abandoned that policy as soon as elected. He stated that if farmers' organizations had elected farmers to parliament supporting the existing parties they would have accomplished more in their own interests.
