S. S. Alameda will call at this Port Regularly North and South Bound

Announcement is made by the Alaska Steamship Company that the S.S. Alameda of their line will call here on November 10, inaugurating a regular service between Seattle and Prince Rupert and also between this city and points in Alaska. The announcement is made through E. C. Gibbons, president of the board of trade, who has received a notification from the company to that effect.

The Alameda is a large steel vessel, gross tonnage 3158, and net 1939. She was built in 1883 at Philadelphia, is 314 feet long, 44 foot beam and 17.3 draft. Her engines develop 3,500 horse power.

BEER CAUSES CONTROVERSY IN ALBERTA

Legislation Will be Allowed to Formulate Own Bill for Liquor Control

CALGARY, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from the liquor plebiscite held Monday are not yet available but it is estimated the majority for a moderation act remains at 30,000. A special session of the legislature is not likely but the ordinary session will be called earlier than usual and Government leaders indicate that no hard and fast bill will be presented but the Legislature will be rather expected to frame its own bill, especially as the interpretation of the clause on the ballot calling for the sale of beer on licensed premises is already giving rise to bitter controversy as to who shall sell beer.

Despatches from Regina and Toronto indicate that Ontario and Saskatchewan both intend to petition the Governments at an early date for a vote on liquor.

BLOOD INDIAN DIED TODAY

Believed Tried to Blow Own Head off with Powder from His Mine

LETHBRIDGE, Nov. 7.—"Two Stab," the Blood Indian alleged to be the slayer of Winnie Tollesup of Raymond, died this morning. It is believed that he met his death at his own hand and that powder from his coal mine was used in an attempt to blow his head off to avoid capture.

It is not likely that the mystery connected with the crime will ever be solved definitely though the police believe the evidence against the Indian is complete.

Before he died Two Stab denied he murdered the girl.

CHILDREN INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT DURING DENSE FOG

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—Two children were seriously injured and four other people slightly injured when an auto stage collided with a street car in a dense fog on the outskirts of Vancouver last night. Marion Nesbitt, aged four, and her two year old Brother Gordon of 1017 Coquitlam are unconscious in the hospital but are expected to recover.

SHINKOKU MARU AGAIN ADRIFT

Hawser of Tug Algonquin Parted Carrying Towing Rail and Poop Deck

HUMACONNA TO RESCUE Second Tug Was Fog Bound In Duncan Bay Again Enroute North

SEATTLE, Nov. 7.—A new one inch hawser with which the United States coast guard cutter Algonquin was towing the freighter Shinkoku Maru, disabled by the breaking of her tail shaft, parted, the Algonquin reports in a message here.

The Shinkoku, which had been picked up 100 miles south of the Aleutian Islands was in no danger after the hawser parted, the message said. The Algonquin remains standing by until the arrival of the tug Humaconna which left here Sunday night to go to Dutch Harbor whether the Shinkoku was being towed. The tug at more or less regular intervals. While only 400 tons has been forwarded by the new route so far, shipments will become more frequent as the business develops until it is expected a steady stream of ore will be flowing through the port of Prince Rupert bound southward.

The Duthie mines are now controlled by the Federal Mining and Smelting Company, one of the Guggenheim concerns.

J. B. Lambert, district engineer for the federal public works department, returned to Haysport on last night's train.

SHIPPING ORE TO CALIFORNIA BY THIS PORT

First Consignment Has Been Forwarded From Duthie Mine to Selby

SMITHERS, Nov. 7.—The first shipment of ore from the Duthie mines to Prince Rupert en route to the smelter at Selby, California, has gone forward and will be followed by other shipments at more or less regular intervals. While only 400 tons has been forwarded by the new route so far, shipments will become more frequent as the business develops until it is expected a steady stream of ore will be flowing through the port of Prince Rupert bound southward.

The Duthie mines are now controlled by the Federal Mining and Smelting Company, one of the Guggenheim concerns.

P.G.E. Finances are Improving Rapidly Hon. J. D. McLean States in Legislature: $300,000 Better

VICTORIA, Nov. 7.—The operating expenses of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway during the past year were cut by $252,000 in the finances of the government owned line, Hon. J. D. McLean announced to the legislature yesterday afternoon in his first report as minister of railways.

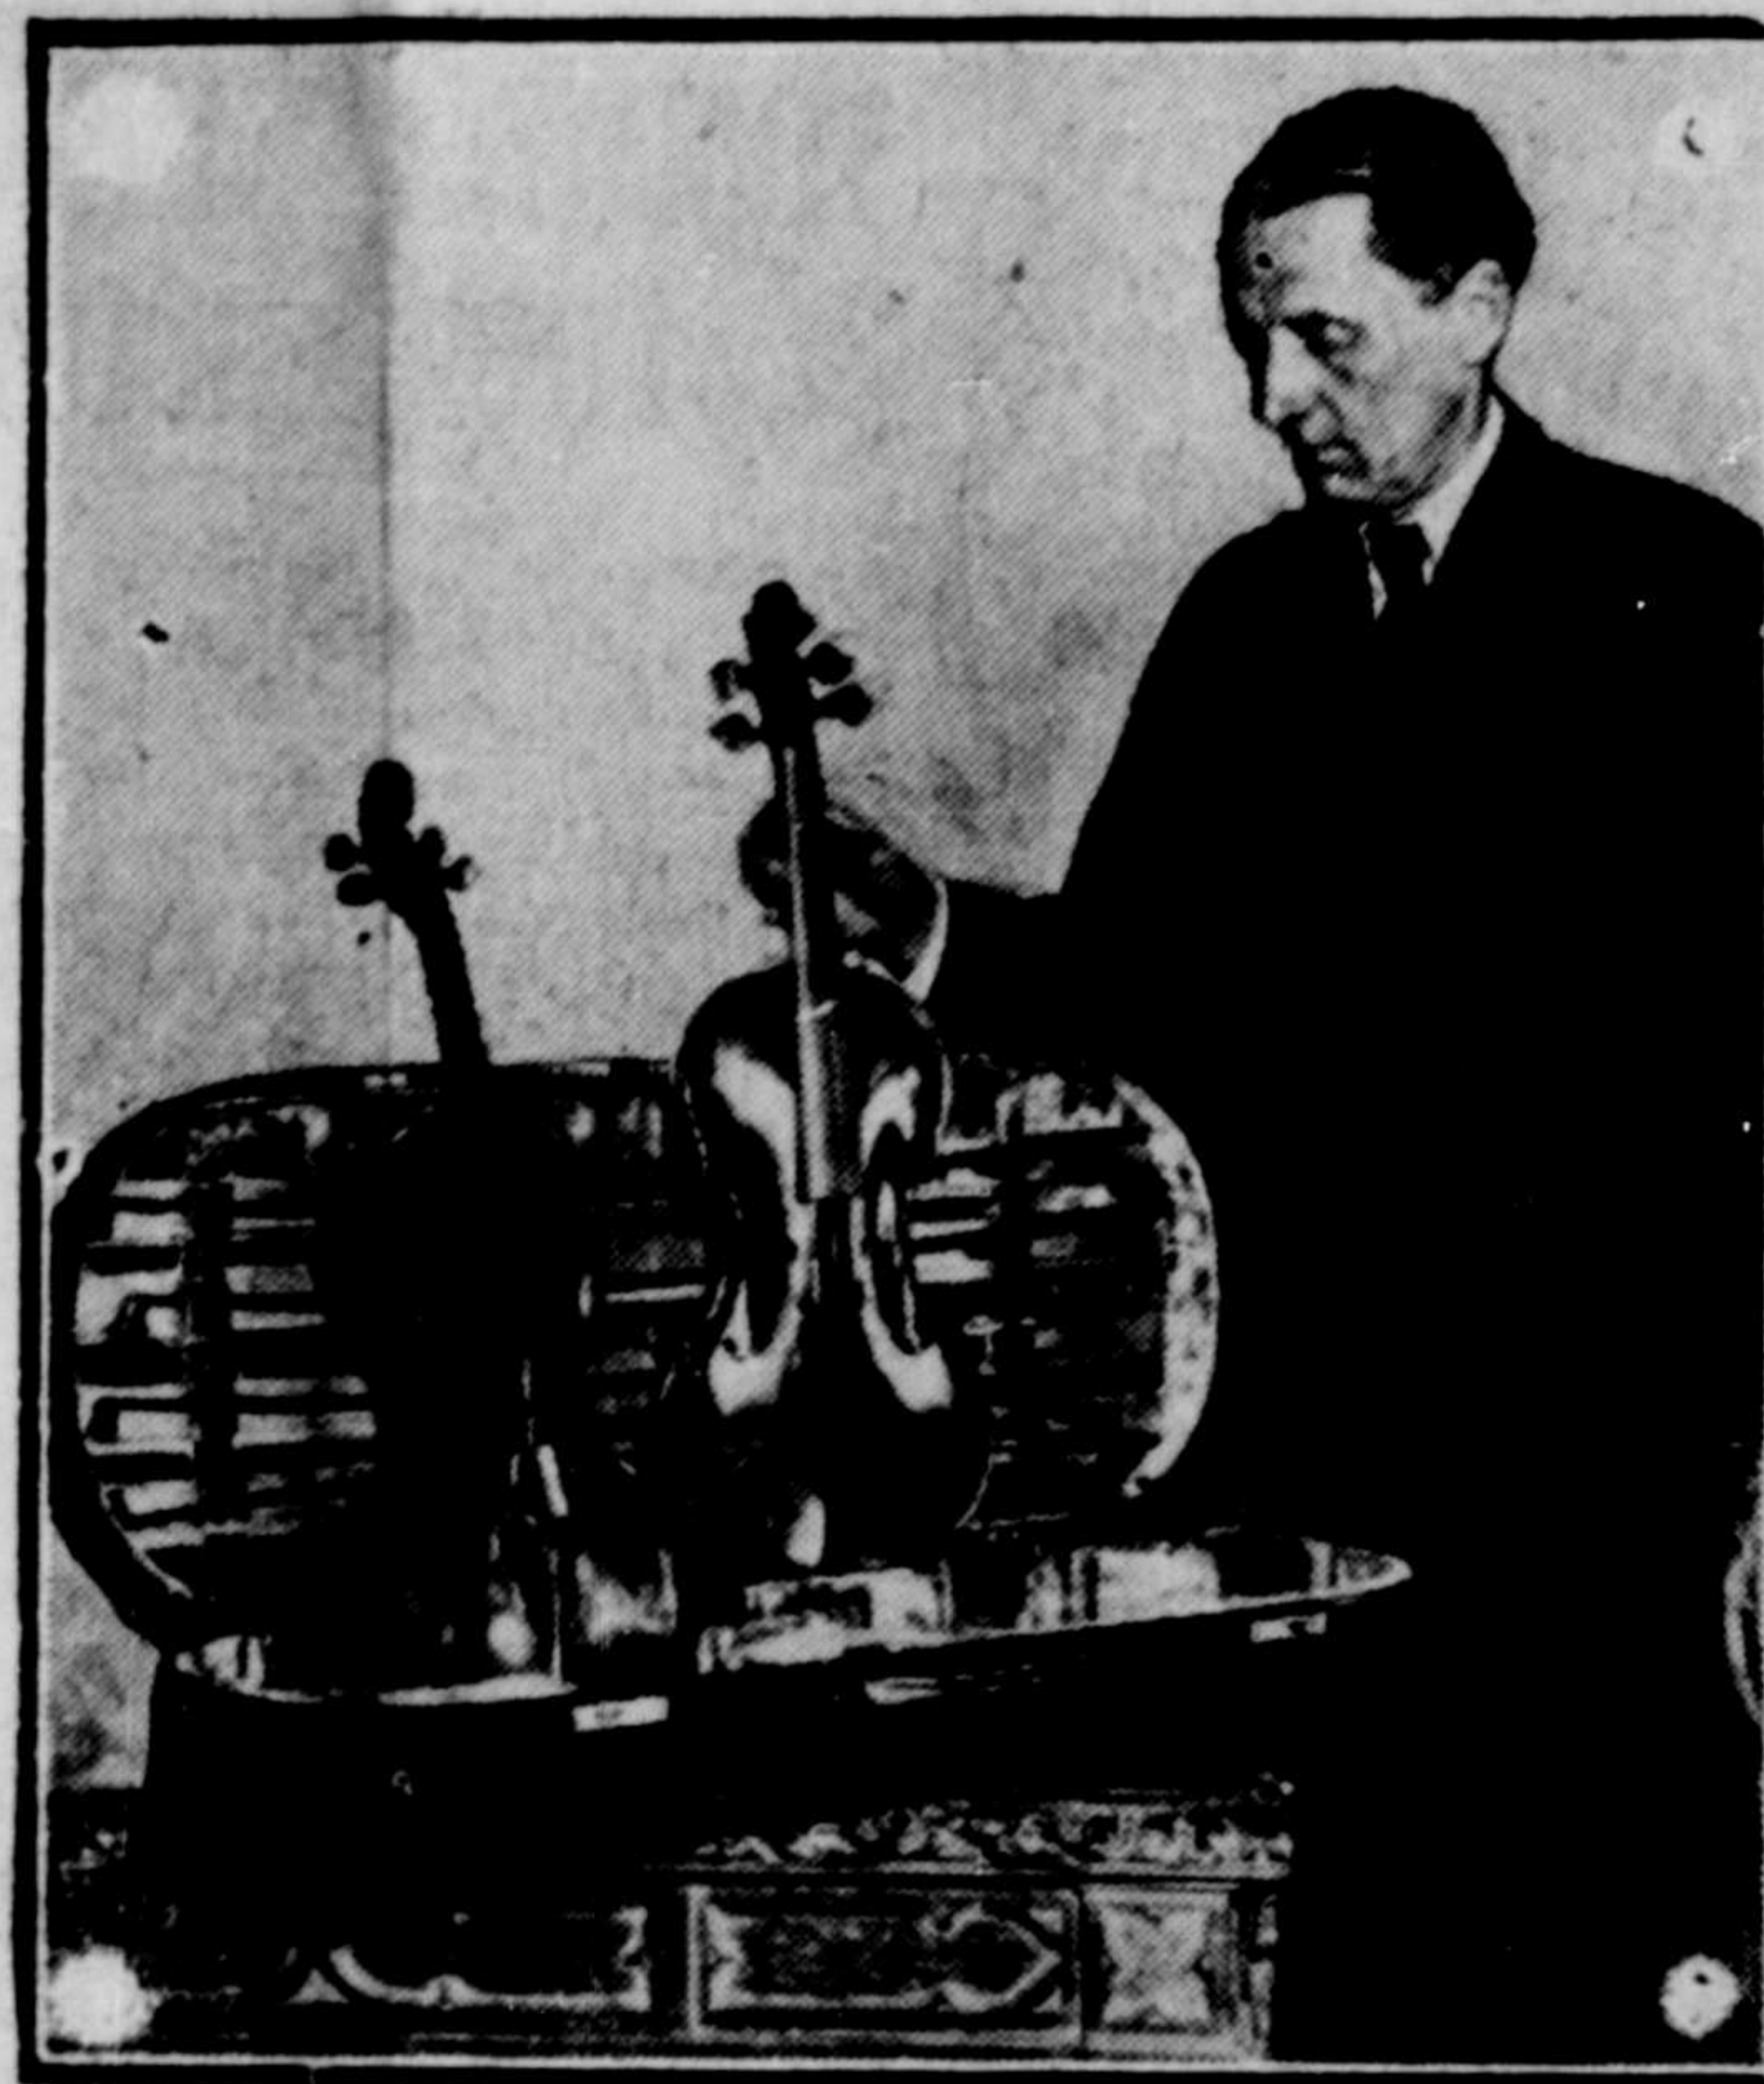

The Pacific Great Eastern line should be built north into Prince George, Dr. McLean declared. Engineers are now investigating the advisability of changing the route of the line around Quesnel so as to avoid a stretch of unsatisfactory roadbed, he announced. As a director of the P.G.E. he could not recommend that the line be built into the Peace River country now, a project which would cost $20,000,000, Dr. McLean told the House. Efforts are being made to induce the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National Railways to get into this area, however, and surveys with this plan in view were carried out last summer he stated.

The P.G.E. directors are not yet prepared to announce their financial policy in the extension of the line, the minister explained. Meanwhile it is planned to reduce operating losses further, to colonize the lands tributary to the line and to "exhaust all the possibilities of relieving the tax-

FRANCE AND BRITAIN LIKELY TO AGREE ON REPARATIONS QUESTION

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Prospects for an agreement between France and Britain on the text of the invitation to the United States to join the conference of experts for the examination of the reparations question is regarded in diplomatic and French official circles today as bright.

Rudolph Wurlitzer has brought to America two rare violins worth $116,000. One of the instruments is a "Belts" Stradivarius, made in 1704, and the other the "Le Duc" Gaurnerius, made in 1743. The latter is known to have the largest tone of any violin in the world.

United States Election Shows Little Change in Strength of Two Parties

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Democrats were elected yesterday in all three states where gubernatorial elections were held, Kentucky, Maryland and Mississippi.

Vermont where only a senatorial contest was held returned republicans.

In the contests for the House of Representatives the Democrats won four and the Republicans three.

In New York state Republicans retained control of the General Assembly but the Democratic judiciary ticket in Manhattan and the Bronx were swept into office.

Mayor Rolph of San Francisco was re-elected.

The results of the elections leave the two houses of Congress Republican with small majorities.

House of Representatives is made up of Republicans 225, Democrats 204, Socialist 1, Independent 1, Farmer-labor 1, vacancies 3. The Republican majority is 18.

The Republican majority in the Senate is 6.

MRS. BRAYFIELD OF TELKWA DIES AND FUNERAL TOMORROW

Archbishop DeVernet has received a telegram stating that Mrs. Brayfield, wife of Rev. J. S. Brayfield of Telkwa, died yesterday.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at Telkwa, Archbishop DeVernet officiating, assisted by Rev. R. W. Biddell of Smithers.

The Archbishop leaves this evening on the train for the interior centre.

GERMAN PRINCE WANTS RETURN

Objection to Move Taken by Both and England for Political Reasons

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Indications are that France and England are both desirous of preventing former Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany from returning to his estate in Silesia, where he would be in a position to intrigue with German royalists for a return of the monarchy.

The Prince still lives at Wieringen, Holland, where he has been exiled since the Armistice. Royalist newspapers are urging that, on humanitarian grounds, he should be permitted to return to Germany to reside, but it is significant that the agitation comes at a time when the present government is threatened with collapse.

TWENTY-TWO KILLED

WARSAW, Nov. 7.—Twenty-two persons were killed and a score wounded in riots and bombing growing out of a strike of railway workers.

Eight Witnesses Heard Today in Japanese Murder Case of Buckley Bay Before Mr. Justice McDonald

Eight crown witnesses were heard at the Supreme Court assizes this morning at the murder trial of G. Nishida, Japanese of Buckley Bay. Shortly after 10 o'clock the Grand Jury returned a true bill.

Accused pleaded not guilty to the charge of unlawfully killing and murdering his countryman, B. Harata, at Buckley Bay on August 18. Sadao Suga of this city was sworn in as court interpreter and the jury was empanelled as follows: Robert W. Cameron (foreman), George C. Walker, Joseph Greer, James Sturgeon, George Waddell, John M. Buckley, Herman Capstick, Morton M. McLachlan, Thomas Sproat, Frank St. Armour, James Hampton and Harry W. Birch. Mrs. Rebecca Keith and J. A. Smith were challenged. W. E. Fisher prosecuted and L. W. Patmore of Patmore & Fulton, is prosecuting. The defence also has an interpreter from Vancouver. Court adjourned at 1 o'clock until 2:15 this afternoon when Dr. J. A. Briggs was the first witness called.

Accused, who is well dressed and of favorable appearance sat in the dock with bowed head almost entirely throughout the proceedings, raising his head only when addressed and glancing occasionally at the witnesses.

Before the trial commenced, Mr. Justice D. A. Macdonald excused from duty the Grand Jury and any report on public conditions it has to make will be handed to Sheriff Shirley, through the foreman, J. C. McLennan. Members of the petit jury, other than those acting in the trial now in progress, were excused from further duty.

It is expected that the Nishida trial will conclude late this afternoon.

Case Outlined

In making his preliminary outline of the evidence, Mr. Fisher briefly indicated the witnesses that would be called for the crown and the nature of the evidence they would give. It would be shown that accused had waved a knife over the dead man who was in his bed and that simultaneously there had been a bottle broken by some person not definitely established.

The man, now dead, had sprung from his bed and leaped over nearby persons towards the door but had turned around and had come back and dropped. Evidence would also be produced to show that accused had made two visits to the bunkhouse on the night in question. The first time he had had a quarrel with the dead man and, though efforts had been made in the meantime to calm him, they had been unsuccessful, and he had returned.

Murder Provincial Constable R. P. Ponder, the first witness, produced plans drawn by himself to seal off the bunk house and its surroundings. He had reached the scene before the body of the dead man had been removed from the bunk house where he fell near the stove. This was on the morning following about 10.30.

Were Quarrelling N. Inabe stated that he knew accused who had worked with him at Buckley Bay. He (witness) had come into the bunkhouse about 9.30 p.m. on Aug. 18, and had heard Nishida and Harata talking. The tone of their conversation was low and he did not know what they were talking about but they were apparently quarrelling. Harata was lying in his bed. This quarrel

IS SENTENCED TO HANG FOR JONES MURDER

Chong Sam Bow Found Guilty at Vancouver: Reprieve to Be Asked

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—Chong Sam Bow, Chinese, was sentenced to death in Mr. Justice Gregory's court last night for the murder of John Clayton Jones, electrician, on July 19 last.

Counsel for the defense will apply to Ottawa for a reprieve before February 8, which is the date set for hanging, contending that Chong Sam Bow was subject to fits of insanity and that in one of these he shot Jones, while not responsible for his actions.

The jury, in finding the Chinaman guilty, apparently accepted the contention of the crown prosecutor that blind rage rather than mental insanity prompted the Chinaman, who drew a gun and shot blindly at Jones, whom he had never seen on the crowded street here at noonday.

The evidence showed that Chong was subject to fits of anger.

PREFERENCE TO THIS COUNTRY

British Government Suggests Imposition of Duty on Canned Salmon and Apples

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The British government is making preference proposals to the governments of the Dominions. At this morning's meeting of the economic conference it is understood the British representatives expressed a willingness to extend the recent offer of increased preference by the addition of a number of articles, the most important, so far as Canada is concerned, being fresh apples and canned salmon.

The offer is stated to be one for the imposition of a duty on foreign products with 100 per cent preference to empire products.

REPARATIONS TO BE DISCUSSED ONCE MORE

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The reparations commission decided to comply immediately with the German request on the reparations question as proposed by the Berlin Government on October 24, if the several Governments, including the United States, are unable to agree regarding setting up of an advisory investigation committee.

Government Control Alberta Province.

The province of Alberta has gone on record in favor of sale of liquor by the government under somewhat similar conditions to those obtaining in British Columbia. It has turned down prohibition after a fairly long trial.

Alberta is taking the cycle of human variability. Prohibition was not quite what they expected and neither will government control quite come up to their expectations. They will probably make several more changes before they get back to prohibition again.

It is found that in this province the people are becoming a little restive under government control, one section wishing to return to prohibition and the other section asking for more laxity in the sale of beer and light wines. To adopt the latter would probably speed up the time for the adoption of the former.

The demos is a seething mass that is always squirming and writhing and twisting and changing, trying to emerge into something better but being dragged back often into something worse. Government by this seething mass is what we term democracy. It is subject to many changes and sometimes the changes are for the better and sometimes for the worse.

Making Profits in United States.

American capital is being invested in Canada and many of the Canadian industries are controlled from the cities of the republic. On the other hand the Canadian nation owns a great many miles of railways in the United States and these made profits over and above running expenses amounting to about six million dollars for the first eight months of the present year. That is almost a dollar each for the people of Canada. This profit relieves the Canadian taxpayer a great deal. It looks to us as if the annexing of the United States by Canada has commenced.

Germans Are Very Progressive.

The Germans are certainly a very progressive people. They do not fail for want of trying. A few days ago there came to the editorial desk an advertisement sent out from a German city of a new ladies journal printed in French, "Suzanne." The cover piece is quite artistic and on it are the sub-titles "La Plus Elegante Revue de Modes," and "300 Creations Bernier Grl." The proposal is to circulate it everywhere that French is spoken.

While the French are making an effort to extort the last possible dollar from the German people for reparations, the Germans are planning to invade the French publishing field and put out French journals controlled by German capital and published in a German city.

Electioneering Commences Early.

Electioneering has commenced early this year. With two mayoral candidates announced and a third looked upon as certain, and with several other possibilities there should be an interesting time during the next two months.

No announcements have yet been made in connection with the council but doubtless there will be a pretty good crop of candidates later on.

For a person who is well known there is not much advantage in being in the field early, but for one who is not known generally to the citizens it is well to declare the candidature early so that the electors may get accustomed to the name and have an opportunity of studying the candidate's record.

PACIFIC COAST HALIBUT IS OF HIGH QUALITY

Preferred by People of New York to Atlantic Product and Given Preference

FISHING IS DISCUSSED

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—According to the records of the Canadian National Express the people of the Eastern United States are showing preference for Canadian fish. This is particularly true of Boston and New York, to which markets large shipments of fish from Prince Rupert, the Gaspé coast and the Maritime Provinces are made annually.

Although the discovery of new halibut beds in the Atlantic has, to a certain extent, cut down the trade in this fish from Prince Rupert, so far as Boston is concerned, it has not interfered with the trade to New York. Pacific Coast fishermen disdain the quality of Atlantic halibut, which they claim is much inferior to that which inhabits the Pacific, and their taste seems to be shared in by connoisseurs in fish in New York. Shipments of halibut and salmon by the Canadian National Express from Prince Rupert to New York average from 80 to 100 cars monthly the year round. Pittsburg and Philadelphia are also large buyers of fish from this market.

Mackerel Elusive

Salmon, mackerel and smelts from the Gaspé coast find a huge and ready market in Boston and New York, and during the seasons large shipments of these fish are made from that point. The salmon are at their best during June and July and smelts are ready at about this season of the year. The mackerel is a fish with a penchant for roaming and he causes the express officials plenty of worry. There is no certainty as to the spot in which he will school. One summer they were found in large quantities off the Gaspé coast. The next summer they had moved to the Straits of Northumberland, and before returning again to the Gaspé coast they spent a summer schooling off the Halifax harbor. Wherever they are found there is a great rush of fishermen for the meat brings a good price in the American market.

Sword Fish

Trade in swordfish is one which comparatively few Canadians realize is an important one in this country. These fish are caught in large quantities off the coast of Cape Breton, near the entrance to the Bras d'Or Lakes, and always find a good market in Boston and New York. According to G. E. Belrose, traffic superintendent of the Canadian National Express, these are a difficult fish to handle, as they are packed in crates that often weigh more than 500 pounds.

PREMIER BRUCE AND PROTECTION

Head of Australian Government is Conducting Campaign in Britain

LONDON, Nov. 6.—While Premier Baldwin is undoubtedly a protectionist and is sincere in his advocacy of the scheme for free trade within the Empire and protection against all outsiders, much of the credit for forcing the issue at the present time is given to Premier Bruce of Australia, who, in season and out of season, has been advocating the plan. It seems to be his mission in London today.

Australia like Canada is a large producer and requires markets. Premier Bruce tells the British people that he would like hundreds of thousands of them to go to Australia to settle up the vacant lands of that country, but it is useless to go unless they have markets for their products. His method of providing that market is to have free trade within the Empire and protection against the rest of the world.

The campaign for protection is now well under way and all the prophets are confounded as to what will be the outcome. Officially labor has declared against it but individually nobody knows yet which way labor will swing. If the workmen think they see profit in protection they will vote for it.

TOMMY ATKINS FOUND GUILTY

On Charge of Stealing $121 Banjo — Sentence Reserved Till Thursday Morning

Tommy Atkins, charged with the theft of a banjo valued at $121 from James Prevost, Indian, was found guilty by the jury at the Supreme Court assizes yesterday afternoon and was remanded for sentence until Thursday morning. The case was a brief one and lasted hardly an hour, the jury being out only about ten minutes. The jurymen were J. G. Moody (foreman), Frank St. Armour, John W. Moorehouse, James Hampton, Herman Capstick, C. O. Rowe, Ben Self, David Scott, Robert Gordon, John Sundberg, Thomas Sproat and Frank Brochu. Mrs. Agnes Glennie was challenged by accused who had no counsel.

James Prevost, the owner of the banjo, was the first witness. Stating that his home was at Metlakatla and that he lived in Prince Rupert, Prevost told of the banjo being stolen from his room in the King George Hotel on August 19. He had given no one permission or authority to remove it. He did not know accused and had never seen him before but he identified the banjo. Questioned by Mr. Justice Macdonald, witness stated he had next seen the banjo in the city police court after having missed it.

Hester Ryan, Indian, said she was living at the King George Hotel on August 19. She knew accused and also knew Prevost. Accused often came to her room. She had seen accused in Prevost's room at the King George Hotel with the banjo in his hands. She had told him to put it back or he would get in trouble. He had asked her to claim the banjo but she had declined to do so fearing she would get into trouble. She identified the banjo. In answer to a question by accused, witness said that he (accused) had acted like he was drunk.

Pawned Banjo

James Trinder, chief of the Casino Cafe and residing at the McMorrie Apartments, testified that accused had come to his place on the Sunday evening in question and had offered the banjo as security for a loan of $10. He had said that he had just reached the city and was short of funds. Witness gave accused $10 and took the banjo. On Monday accused did not turn up and on Tuesday he (witness) heard that a banjo was missing. He notified the chief of police that he had a banjo and had handed it over. He next saw accused in the dock at the police court. Witness identified the banjo and stated that accused was sober, reaffirming this statement when asked by accused if he was not drunk.

1—Falls about 5 miles from Hope. 2—On the trail. 3—The Summit. 4—Defiance Camp.

The little village of Hope, situated on the Fraser River about one hundred miles from the coast, is the starting point for all mountaineers wishing to reach the interior of British Columbia by the trail route. It is a scattered village of about two hundred inhabitants but possessing both an abundance of natural beauty and a truly romantic past. The village is flanked on one side by the noble Fraser river, while from the other side one looks up three wide draws in the mountain ranges. The one to the left is the beautiful Coquihalla valley through which the turbulent Coquihalla river cascades from a pass unmatched for rugged grandeur. Through this pass too, under innumerable snow sheds and tunnels the Kettle Valley Railway goes to Princeton and the interior. In the centre is an opening for the Nicolum river, to the right is the Silver Creek draw and beyond it the snow-capped peaks of the Cascade range.

The mountain trail over the Hope Pass is the old one known as the Dewdney which was surveyed and partly built for twenty-five miles out of Hope, by English Sappers in 1861. It winds up the Coquihalla River for a short distance, then branches off with the Nicolum, a tributary of the former river. The way lies through Sylvan glades, past rushing waterfalls and over rustic bridges, the old dry "cribbing" of which is as firm as the day when it was laid.

The first feeding ground for horses is at 12 Mile Lake—otherwise known as Divide Lake at an altitude of 2300 feet. This lake is the head waters of the Nicolum river. Here there is a beautiful hay meadow owned by a trapper and prospector who is patiently awaiting the day when the transprovincial road will give him a means of transporting his wealth, in the shape of hay, to outside points.

At 22 Mile there is another beautiful camping spot. Here there is a large cabin situated in the forest's heart on the very banks of the Skagit river. The owner of it carries on prospecting and mining operations in the vicinity. He appropriately calls his cabin "Defiance Camp" and his mine "The Silver Daisy."

From here on for many miles the scenery becomes more wonderful, if that were possible, but at the same time more wild and rugged. The Pass, a narrow hallway bounded by cliffs thousands of feet high, is a sight of never-ending marvel. At one spot, known as Skagit bluffs, the trail (a bare 18 inches wide) winds around the shoulder of a cliff which towers above and drops away a sheer one thousand feet to the bed of the river below. Then the trail once more drops down to the next feeding grounds at Cayuse Flats which has a sister spot three miles farther on—Cedar Flats. Beyond Cedar Flats lies a long strip of heavy cedar timber, a true "forest primeval." Strawberry Flats, a pleasant open field on the Skagit river at a height of 3700 feet is the last stopping place before the actual ascent to the summit begins. Here, in spite of the high altitude, wild strawberries grow in abundance.

In the next 2300 feet (of the perpendicular of course) one is led to the summit by a series of switchbacks zig-zagging up the face of the mountain. The river, which at the foot appeared a torrent, is here a tiny stream, a mere trickle over the stones. Below, the ever-lasting hills unroll themselves for a hundred miles of valley and peak.

When the summit itself is attained a sight never to be forgotten appears. A wide open meadow lies in an inverted crown on the mountain top. Around its edge rise whitish cliffs scarcely distinguishable from the many snow banks. And everywhere, even beside the snow, grows a bewildering variety of wild flowers.

In the centre of the depression lie two lakes, the dividing of the waters, for from the one goes the Skagit river towards the sea and from the other flows the Whip Saw Creek towards the interior lakes.

As soon as the descent of the eastern slope is begun a great change is noticeable. The grade is easy and steady, the country becomes more open and is clear of the under-brush and ferns so characteristic of the western slope.

The last camp is twenty miles from Princeton but the last nine miles of that distance are covered by a good motor road, the beginning of the proposed Transprovincial-highway from Princeton to Hope.

About eight miles from Princeton is a wonderfully interesting spot where stratified rocks yielding excellent fossils remains are located on the side of the hill.

Shortly after this the valley opens out before one. Princeton snuggled peacefully into a friendly circle of hills and its two rivers, the Similkameen and Tulameen keeping guard over it. Beyond it, rises a splendid vista of rolling green foothills with more rugged mountains closer in, indicative of the districts most flourishing industries, ranching and mining.

SHIPBUILDING IS ON DECREASE TODAY SAYS SHIPPING NEWSPAPER

The shipbuilding returns of Lloyd's Register for the quarter ended September 30 show a decrease of about 67,000 tons, as compared with the figures for June, in the nominal amount of shipping under construction in Great Britain and Ireland, and of about 346,000 tons as compared with the corresponding figures of a year ago.

The present nominal amount under construction is 1,271,195 tons, but the Register points out that this shipping includes 242,000 tons on which work has been suspended for a long time or is in abeyance owing to the dispute now affecting the yards. Deducting this tonnage in order to enable comparison to be made with the figures for normal times, the tonnage actually under construction is reduced to only 1,029,000 tons, which is the lowest amount recorded for a period of nearly fourteen years. The average tonnage under construction during the twelve months immediately preceding the war was 1,890,000 tons, or more by 861,000 tons than the present total.

YEAR OF THE PIG IS BAD FOR CHINESE AND THIS IS THE SEASON

SHANGHAI, Nov. 3.—Business conditions in China are not so good and Chinese merchants are undecided whether to blame politics or the jinx of the present year.

The Chinese calendar is divided into cycles of 60 years. According to their reckoning, there have been 77 of these cycles since time began, dating from 2697 B.C. during the reign of Huang Ti. The cycles are divided into twelve sections of five years each and each section is known by some special designation such as the years of the sheep, the years of the cock, the years of the monkey, the stork, the pig, etc.

This happens to be the last or fifth year of the pig. The years of the pig are always bad and the last year of the pig is especially bad. In the final year of the pig the last of the Celestial stems meets the last of the terrestrial branches, to use the terms of the sages.

No Surprises

Nothing could happen that would surprise the average Chinese in this year. Bad as it was the Japanese earthquake did not disturb the Chinese calm. Influenced by this old tradition Chinese merchants are buying only what they need to keep going. One Chinese banker pointed out that exports had virtually ceased and imports of foodstuffs greatly increased. Customs revenues, records show, decreased 4,000,000 taels during the first half of 1923. No improvement is shown in the spinning industry and even the mah jong business has fallen off.

On the whole the people are glum and resigned.

The Tramp with 7,000 pounds of halibut was the only fishing vessel in port today so no sales was held at the exchange. The catch will be held over and sold tomorrow.

The Commercial Grads, Edmonton's star ladies' basketball team, have emerged victorious from a long series of games with various cities of the United States and Canada including London, Toronto, Cleveland and Chicago and have earned the right to compete in the basketball games at the Paris Olympiad next summer. They will uphold the honor of Canada against all other contending nations and, judging from the records they have made this winter, they will have as good chances as any of their opponents in their ambition to bring the world's championship basketball honors to the Dominion. Winning their last game from Warren, Ohio, national champions of the United States, last week, the Grads completed a season with a record of twenty consecutive victories.

Boxing champions must defend their titles in bonafide championship bouts at least every six months under a new championship ruling adopted by the New York States Athletic Commission. Failure to do so will result in indefinite suspension for the champion and possibly the forfeiture of his title. Forfeiture of titles will apply chiefly to cases where a champion is unable to make his class weight or is adjudged to be otherwise unable or unfit to defend his crown. Henceforth in cases of forfeited titles the commission will conduct a tournament open to all contenders and award the title to the winner.

The Grotto Athletic Club has sent away for a copy of the international boxing rules and, in future, all contests held under its auspices will be governed by those rules. Thus it is hoped to avoid such disputes as arose Largest moose every seen in the district was the verdict of the residents of Hutton when Gordon S. Wood, the local druggist, brought in the head of a bull moose which he shot five miles from Hutton station says the Burns Lake Observer.

The moose weighed 1,100 lbs., was 6 feet 3 in. high at the shoulder, had a 19 inch bell, antlers with 23 points and a spread of 45 1/2 inches. The weight of the head is over 100 pounds. BUSINESS OF LIBRARY WAS INCREASED VERY CONSIDERABLY OCTOBER

At Present are 1341 Borrowers and 3,200 Books on Shelves.

At the meeting of the public library board held last night, President Barker in the chair, it was reported that the result of the campaign for funds had been that the sum of $805 had been collected to date and one or two further donations are expected. It is hoped to have the amount raised to $850 before the fund is closed.

In addition to the money collected there were 202 used volumes donated to the institution, all of which are now on the shelves, making at present in use 3,200 books. This number includes some new volumes purchased from the funds collected. Other books are expected to arrive soon.

Miss Grant reported an increase in the number of books loaned during the month. The total for October was 2,370 an increase of 114 over September. During the month 52 new members were added and six cancelled, leaving a total of 1,341 members at present.

Owing to the storm, repairs had to be made to the roof and chimney of the building. Happily no books were injured by the rain.

Those present at the meeting were President Barker and Messrs. Fuller, Sutherland, Wilkins, Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Miss Grant.

The Court of Last Appeal

YOU are the judge and the jury. Your verdict is final. There can be no appeal--for this is the High Court of Public Opinion

The wares of the world must appear before you--the product of every factory--the merchandise of every store. Those things that fail to measure up to your requirements are quickly condemned to oblivion

The manufacturer who advertises deliberately places his merchandise on trial. He openly courts your inspection. He invites comparison. He directs your attention to his goods and then forces those goods to stand on their own merits.

If he were not sure of his wares he would not dare to advertise. For advertising would put him to a test he could not meet, and thus hasten the end of his business career. It would be business suicide.

You can depend on the man who advertises. He knows his product is good.

That's one reason why it pays to read the advertisements you find in this paper. It is through advertising that you are able to keep in touch with the good things that progressive business men are spending their money to introduce and to keep before you.

EIGHT WITNESSES HEARD TODAY IN JAPANESE MURDER CASE OF BUCKLEY BAY BEFORE MR. JUSTICE McDONALD.

lasted about five minutes until Fujimoto came over and took Nishida outside telling him not to quarrel. After Nishida went out witness undressed and went to bed. He was awakened about 11:30 by an altercation. He looked out of his bunk and saw that Harata and Nishida were the two men who were quarrelling. Their tone was moderate but quarrelsome. He could see clearly. Nishida was standing beside Harata's bunk, the latter lying on his left side facing witness. He saw Nishida slap Harata twice with the palm of his hand. The argument proceeded and witness lay down in his bunk again. He heard the noise of broken glass and put the bed clothes over his face. About the same time somebody passed over his bed. He saw Harata descend from his bed to the floor running instantly towards the foot of his own bunk. He disappeared for about a minute and, returning to view, fell near the stove. Witness's bed clothes were covered with blood.

On cross examination by Mr. Patmore, witness said that Nishida was between Harata and himself. He did not see Harata strike accused with the bottle but admitted that he had seen Harata with the bottle. He did not know how the bottle had been broken.

Saw Man Fall

Y. Fujimoto, who slept in the same bunk house, told of being engaged in general conversation with others near the stove on the night in question. At 9:30 loud talking was heard between Nishida and Harata and witness went over to the latter's bed and told them not to talk so loud. He told Nishida not to quarrel and took him outside to Mrs. Inoyue's house. They met Mrs. Inoyue at the entrance of the bunk house and, on being told of the quarrel, Mrs. Inoyue told witness and accused to come over to her house and rest. Nishida said he was sorry, and would not fight. They had a something to this effect, however.

Nishida's Partner

Kujima, Nishida's partner, said he saw Harata and Nishida in the bunkhouse that night. He had seen Harata leap from his bed and drop and had also seen Nishida disappear.

Cross-examined, Kujima told Mr. Patmore that Nishida had come into the bunkhouse to get him (witness) to go home to the other bunkhouse which they shared. He had been engrossed in a game they were playing and had told Nishida to go home and that he would follow later. The trouble started just after Nishida had come to him the last time. The knife produced did not belong to Nishida, witness stated. Neither did it belong to him. They had no knife in their cabin.

Further particulars of the scale map were given by Constable Ponder when he was recalled. The last witness before the noon adjournment was Jeremiah Chase, mill superintendent, who told of finding the dead body of Harata in the bunkhouse and subsequently arresting Nishida at Mrs. Inoyue's house. There had apparently been a wound on Nishida's face.

cup of tea and witness then returned to the bunk house where he went to bed and went to sleep. He saw Nishida no more that night. About 11 o'clock he heard somebody running outside and awakening looked towards Harata and saw him fall to the floor. He did not know who was running outside. He had known Nishida for about three months but had not been told of a quarrel between him and Harata.

Cross-examined, witness did not know whether Nishida had come into the bunkhouse to get his partner Kujima to go to bed. He had seen Nishida speak to Kujima. Accused was in his night gown with his coat over it. Questioned by Mr. Fisher, witness said it was customary for the Japanese, after the day's work, to take a bath and wear their night gowns with their coats thrown over them if they went out.

Woman Witness

Mrs. Y. Inoyue told of Fujimoto bringing accused to her house on the night in question. They had a cup of tea and Fujimoto had left first and accused about seven or eight minutes later. About 11:30 accused returned to the door of her house. He was covered with blood and witness, in alarm, called her husband who, on inquiry, was told by Nishida that he had had a quarrel with Harata. Nishida complained of a head ache and her husband told witness to get him a change of attire. When Nishida came to the door he had a knife in his hand. It was bone handled but witness was unable to identify it as the knife produced in court. She had been too frightened to observe closely. Nishida came in and sat down for a while and then followed her husband out. When he returned in a few minutes he had nothing in his hand.

Under cross-examination, Mr. Inoyue stated that Nishida had a number of bad cuts on his hands and face and the blood was running from his face to his clothes. She had wiped the blood off accused's face and hands and put him to bed in her house. A little while later, Mr. Chase, the mill superintendent, came and took him away. Witness admitted that accused was in a rather dazed condition when he came to her house at 11:30.

Saw Glass Fly

T. Tanabe told of the first quarrel which had been stopped by Fujimoto. Nishida returned about 11:45 and started another argument. A moment later he saw pieces of glass flying and simultaneously he saw a knife waved in Nishida's hand. He had heard words between Nishida and Harata. The former had said "Come outside, come outside," and Harata had replied "Go home, if you have something to talk about we will talk about it tomorrow." The bottle broke and the knife waved it seemed all in the same moment and he could not say which occurred first. He saw Harata leap from his bed and later fall. Nishida disappeared after the waving of the knife.

K. Takayama testified that Nishida had told him of former trouble between himself and Harata. He had said that Harata was a bad man and he should be sent away. Asked why, Nishida had said that Harata made trouble with the women. Witness was not in the bunkhouse when the trouble occurred.

Cross examined, Takayama denied that Nishida had told him of trouble between Harata and himself over accused's sister in Vancouver. Harata had told him
