PRINCE RUPERT IS DISCUSSED AS A SHIPPING PORT

ESPATCH TO VANCOUVER SAYS C. G. M. M. VESSELS MAY PLY TO ORIENT

Merchant Marine Boats May Ply Out of Prince Rupert to Ports of Orient: Will Develop West

(Special to the Daily News).
VANCOUVER, Feb. 8.—The World here today carries the following special despatch from its Ottawa press gallery correspondent:
The Pacific route for grain and freight is receiving great impetus from the discussion now in progress in the House, and all the Alberta members strongly approving the government plans for the development at Vancouver, and suggesting return cargoes be facilitated by the increase of the British presence.
Representations are being made for the development of British Columbia outlets including Prince Rupert. It is not improbable that certain boats of the Merchant Marine may be put in service between that port and the Orient.

SITUATION AT SMYRNA EASED

Thought That Turks Will Withdraw Ultimatum When They Find Allies Firm

TWO MORE WARSHIPS

LONDON, Feb. 8. (noon).—The situation at Smyrna eased considerably today, according to British official quarters, where it is thought to be extremely unlikely any fighting will occur. It is believed the ultimatum issued by the Turkish chief of staff, who is on a tour of inspection in Anatolia, will be withdrawn as soon as the Ankara authorities understand that the allies are not resisting the demands of the allied warships quit Smyrna Harbor.

The British super-dreadnaughts Resolution and Emperor of India arrived in Mitylene yesterday, ready to steam the short distance across to Smyrna if the Turks take action on their threat to force the allied warships from port.

OLD ATTEMPT TO ROB BANK

Men Opened One Safe But Failed to Get Cash From the Other

VANCOUVER, Feb. 8.—A determined but unsuccessful effort to rob the Royal Bank at Steveston was made early this morning by five armed men, in an attempt to open two safes, badly cracked the building and then escaped in a motor car.
The small safe was opened but contained no money. The second safe remained intact.
In making their escape the robbers fired several shots at Japanese who were in the streets. The telephone wires were cut by the men, who left in a hurry.

REPORTED COLLISION OF MILITARY TRAINS

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—A Dusseldorf despatch to a local newspaper reports two French military trains collided Tuesday on the Dusseldorf-Kettwig line and that the bodies of 28 soldiers were removed from the wreckage. The report lacks confirmation.

Control of Department Here Transferred Back Under Management of Dining and Sleeping Car Department

The commissary department in connection with the C.N.R. coast steamship service is being transferred back to the management of the dining and sleeping car department of the railway, according to announcement made this morning by Jas. Gorman, C.N.R. sleeping and dining car superintendent, who is visiting the city. Mr. Gorman says the change is of no consequence and is only a matter of book-keeping. The supply department will be maintained here as before with L. R. Parry in charge.

KILLED GAS EXPLOSION

NEWCASTLE, Wyoming, Feb. 8.—Three men were instantly killed in a gas explosion in the Osage oil field near here.

Should use Drydock at Prince Rupert Before Building Other Docks

OTTAWA, Feb. 8.—Prince Rupert was again mentioned in the debate on the address in the House of Commons yesterday, the subject of the use of the drydock being mentioned by the member for Lunenburg.

William A. Duff pleaded for economy, declaring enough rope reposed in the Halifax dockyards to fit out the British navy, vessels of the Canadian marine and all the ships that would dock at Halifax for the next 25 years. "There was an excess of material."

Twenty million dollars, Mr. Duff said, had been spent on the Halifax terminals, which could have been built for two millions in another part of the city.

At Prince Rupert, the member asserted, one of the best dry-docks in the country was not being used, while money was being demanded for a drydock at Victoria. The Prince Rupert drydock should be used before another was built.

BOXING BOUT FOR MAY NEXT

Willard Will Meet Johnson in Fifteen Round Decision go at New York

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Jess Willard and Floyd Johnson, aspirants to the world's heavyweight boxing title, were matched today to meet on May 12 in a fifteen round bout to a decision in the Yankee Stadium for the benefit of the milk fund of the mayor's committee of women.

Chairman William Muldoon of the state boxing commission, has approved the Willard-Johnson bout because the net proceeds go to charity. The boxers are guaranteed $25,000 each.

The bout may lead the winner to an encounter with Dempsey.

COPPER UP TO FIFTEEN CENTS

Demand for Metal is Strong and President Harding Speaks of an Eighth Higher Paid

GOOD NEWS FOR NORTH

Effect on Granby Will be Beneficial Where Wages Depend On Prices

VANCOUVER, Feb. 8.—The price of copper has advanced to 15c. a pound and there have been sales made at even higher prices, according to the bulletin issued by Burdick, Logan & Co., Ltd. This will have a great effect on the mines work on a close margin and where at Anyox the men are paid on a sliding scale according to the price of the metal. It is believed that the fifteen cent level has been well established. The bulletin says:

Eighth Advance

Price of electrolytic copper has advanced 1/4 cent a pound to 15 cents delivered as the result of strong buying of last week. Fair sales have been made at this price, but buyers are still marketing around trying to find under the market copper before making further commitments in quantity.

Aside ship and c.i.f. prices also have advanced in sympathy with domestic. While strong domestic buying of last week was the main cause of the advance, the fact that European prices of practically all the metals have increased despite the Ruhr situation, also had its effect.

The domestic demand continues mainly for February, March and April shipments, and is strong from both wire and brass mills.

While European buying is off somewhat as a result of the advance, France and England continues to make fair commitments. Last week French buying was unusually good. German purchases have been small since Thursday. Chinese bought moderately Saturday, but did not exercise nearly all the options outstanding. With the rise of price it is believed the Orient demand will become active.

Price Established

While domestic consumers are still hunting for copper under 15 cent, delivered, they are meeting with little if any success. It would appear that the 15 cent level has been established. This time to be maintained, especially if continued strength of metal prices on London Metal Exchange in face of the Ruhr situation is well founded on accurate diagnosis of the European situation. Some domestic producers are already holding for 15 1/2 cents.

The price of electrolytic copper for domestic shipment is 15 cents a pound delivered to the end of June. The price of Lake copper is 15 cents to 15 1/2 cents to the end of April. The price aside ship New York is 13 1/2 cents with 14.85 offered. The price at Tacoma is 14.95 cents. Prices to European destinations are at levels corresponding with 15 1/2 cents c.i.f. Hamburg or London.

Export Business

Boston, Feb. 8.—For the year 1922 the U.S. and Canada exported 725,000,000 lbs. of copper, an increase over 1921 of over 100,000,000 pounds. Germany was the largest buyer taking 240,000,000 pounds in the first eleven months of 1922. The exports for 1922 were in excess of 1918, and only exceeded by 1917.

CONGRESS HAS FINANCE BILL

President Harding Speaks of Britain's Effort to Validate Financial Obligations

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—President Harding in presenting an agreement which had been prepared by the executive, arranging for the repayment of the British debt, told Congress yesterday that the settlement was the "first clearing of the war-clouded skies in a debt burdened world, a sincere commitment of one great nation to validate the financial pledges in discharge of its obligations in the highest sense of financial honor."

Action was taken immediately after the presidential address. The bill was submitted to both Houses of Congress in an effort to secure passage as soon as possible.

WILL DEFEND IF ATTACKED

British and French Give Turkey Defy Over Smyrna

LONDON, Feb. 8.—After conversations between the British and French governments, it was agreed in terms proposed by the French, to reject the Turkish demand that allied warships leave Smyrna. The British and French have sent the reply to Ankara to the effect of warning that government that the Anglo-French warships have been instructed to defend themselves if attacked.

DEATH PENALTY FOR SABOTAGE

French Issue Notice That They Will Deal Drastically With Germans

DUSSELDORF, Feb. 8.—The death penalty will be inflicted on Germans caught in the act of tampering with railway equipment or signal boxes, or other acts of sabotage endangering the lives of travellers, the French authorities announced. This is the first threat of capital punishment since the French occupation of Ruhr commenced.

Copper Company produced 14,766,000 pounds of copper at an average cost of 5.9 cents a pound in the last quarter of 1922. Net profits are expected of $1,500,000 for the last three months of 1922.

Even with the purchase of the Chile Copper Company, the Ryan-Anaconda group has yet slightly less copper producing capacity than the group of companies controlled by the Guggenheims. Anaconda controls an annual production of 639,000,000 pounds against 691,000,000 by the Guggenheims.

Terk-Hughes shareholders are invited to authorize an increase of capital from four to five million dollars to provide funds to purchase the One Gold Mines.

Mine on Fire

The great Morning mine, the mainstay of the Federal's smelting domination in the Coeur d'Alenes, is reported to be on fire. Several lives have been lost, and property damage is not yet determinable.

Social Idealism Based on an Appeal to Reason was Subject of an Address by Archbishop

That authority should always be based on truth and reason, was the burden of an address given last night by Archbishop DuVernet at the men's annual banquet of the Anglican Church here. There were a number of interesting addresses and a good program but it was the Archbishop who crystallized the thought of the gathering and expressed it so well that Rev. Archdeacon Rix, who was to have followed, decided to postpone his address to another time.

The Archbishop spoke on "social idealism" and set out by stating that the principle of authority had lost its appeal today, thing all could understand. The history of the principle of authority had to be based on truth. The ten commandments were based on social perors and kings, popes and welfare and without social conchishops, patriarchs and priests (rol there could be no social well- and ministers kept hammering fare. God's will was for the way on the principle of authority. People must accept a dogma obeying that will made for the or believe a doctrine. This highest good of mankind. The mering on the principle of authority gave rise to a revolution either in secret or openly. Authority had been put forth boldly istering member of society as ly itself when it should have shown by the Christ of the gospels.

Galaxy of Thinkers

Those in the church and state looked on thinkers with suspicion because they thought thinking undermined the principle of divine right. In the eighteenth century arose a galaxy of brilliant thinkers, not athletes but men who were more or less sceptical and unfortunately antagonistic to the church. In his letters Voltaire referred to the "infamous church." There were Rousseau, David Hume, Tom Paine, Emmanuel Count, all of whom appealed to the principle of reason but attacked the church with the result that in self defense the church fought back.

It was much to be deplored, the archbishop said, that this attitude of the thinkers threw the church into the attitude of attacking the appeal to reason. At that time the masses were under the control of the church and the church led the people to look with suspicion on anyone appealing to reason. The result was that today groups of workmen jeered at and attacked the church. On the other hand there were some within the church who held up their hands in horror when the appeal to reason was made.

The appeal of the free thinkers was to abstract reason and this could never influence or control the masses of the people. Self-regard, sex regard and social regard had more appeal than abstract reason.

Changed Appeal

During the past fifty years, said the archbishop, the appeal to reason had changed to an appeal to social idealism, some-

Halt, Lame and Blind Flocked to Miracle Man at Chicago for Healing; many went away cured

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—The halt, lame and blind besieged Emil Cune, the French exponent of auto-suggestion, for treatment of their ills. They overflowed the stage here today at his lecture and were quieted only after the smiling little pharmacist had halted all the cures, while the police were called to clear the stage.

Hundreds of cripples in wheel chairs, on crutches and with canes or in the arms of friends, had gathered when the demonstration started. Noting the success of his treatment in the cases of several cripples and paralytics, who got up and walked, the clamoring horde surged forward for treatment and the police intervened.

An overflow crowd knelt on the pavement outside the hall waiting for the "miracle man" to appear.

FOOTBALL RESULTS

LONDON, Feb. 8.—Following are re-plays in the second round of the English Cup:
West Ham, 1; Brighton, 0.
Southampton, 1; Chelsea, 0.
Huddersfield, 3; Millwall, 0.

INJURED SHIPS GO INTO PORT

Motorship Sierra and Liner Wilhelmina Limp Into San Francisco After Collision

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—The motorship Sierra with a heavy list and deckload of lumber awash, was towed into port of San Francisco today after a collision in a fog with the liner Wilhelmina.

The Sierra, though nearly on her beam ends, was stiffly manned by a skeleton crew when she reached here, the remainder having been taken off by the guard cutter Shawnee.

The Wilhelmina, with a dent in her port bow and leaking, came into port earlier after she had stood by the Sierra until the work of rescue had been completed.

Prince Rupert In Public Eye.

Prince Rupert is very much in the public eye these days. The place was often mentioned in the provincial legislature and now already the Dominion parliament is hearing of the existence of the port. All this is good for the town, for we have to let people know that we are on earth and that we are a factor in the life of the Dominion. There undoubtedly is an important future for us. Few places even today offer greater opportunities for a young man than does this city. There will be no sudden access of riches but the man who grows up with the city, works diligently and is always an optimist will eventually land on top. Brainy men are needed here as much as anywhere.

Looking To Others Instead Of Ourselves.

We are a helpless lot, we people in the world today. We are always looking to someone else to help us instead of helping ourselves. Here in Prince Rupert we are just as bad as the people elsewhere. We are always looking to the outside.

Emil Goue is in the United States trying to show the people of this continent the value of self help. He is meeting with some success but the many look to him as a saviour and want him to heal them. Then he tells them what was told to men and women two thousand years ago, that what they must do is help themselves. The word picture given in the news columns today of the halt, lame and blind crowding around the French teacher at Chicago clamoring to be cured, carries the mind to the other word pictures we have read of similar scenes enacted by the Sea of Galilee.

Help yourself, is the motto of today. Exert your individuality instead of leaning on your neighbor for support. Nothing is so despicable as a young man or woman who will not earn a living and possibly the time will come when we shall consider nothing so despicable as a man or woman who refuses to cure himself or herself.

Fascisti Period Of World History.

Advancement in the history of the world goes by waves. For many years there was growing up in the world a social movement which tended toward a better condition but that often got going in the wrong direction owing to too great haste. People thought they saw the millennium ahead and they hurried toward it to find it was only like the pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow. It was not there when they reached for it.

Now we are passing through a period of backwash. The Fascisti in Italy have taken in hand the affairs of the country, wresting them from the socialists who were moving too fast in one direction. We are told there is a similar movement in Mexico, in Russia and also in other countries. In the United States the same tendency is shown as well as in Canada. There is a steady up influence which is in danger of sweeping us backward half a century just as the waves recede the farthest after the big breaker that comes highest up the beach.

In spite of all reactions, the world is moving steadily ahead, with a momentum that cannot be stopped. Changes will come little by little. There will be advancement step by step, but the revolutionary little whirlwinds will have to be swept away in order to allow the steady surge forward toward a better condition.

Splendid Work Of Public Library.

The public library is doing splendid work. Even in the little old Red Cross hut it proved that it could be a vital force in the community, filling a need in this rather isolated district. Miss Grant is to be congratulated on the manner in which she has commenced the work. There is a general extension of interest going on all the time and it continues to grow it will be difficult for one person to manage. Already the work is heavy.

"I Had Terrible Backache From Kidney Disease"

Mrs. M. A. McNeill, Canaan Sta., N.B., writes:

"I was troubled for years with terrible backache, resulting from kidney disease. At times in each month I remained in bed, the pain was more than I could stand, and to walk was almost impossible. I used about $50.00 worth of other medicines, but with little results. Now I am completely better, after using only five boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."

BARRIE LOSES HIS RIGHT ARM

Was Amputated at Hazelton Hospital Yesterday Following Accident at Terrace Mill on Tuesday

Bud Barrie had his right arm amputated above the elbow at the Hazelton Hospital yesterday morning following the accident in the Terrace sawmill on Tuesday afternoon. A telegram from Dr. H. C. Wynch, superintendent of the Hazelton Hospital, giving this information and stating that the patient was doing well was received last evening by Bert Morgan, manager of the Grotto Cigar Store.

Further details of the accident reaching here last night indicate that Barrie fell against the circular saw in the mill and had his arm hopelessly shattered at the elbow. The arm which has been amputated was the one which Barrie had badly injured in war service and which had given him trouble ever since.

Witnessed Accident

Harry Gawnthorne, who was an eye-witness of the accident, returned to the city last night from Terrace. He reports that the accident occurred in Little & Gigg's sawmill 3 1/2 miles back from Terrace where ties are being cut for the railway. Timbers were being brought along the conveyor from the band saw to the circular trim saw. Barrie was assisting in shoving them along when an unusually heavy one had to be handled. He was thrown against the circular saw and his elbow was practically severed. Only his own weight caused him to pass the saw without being dragged into it altogether.

Immediately after the accident occurred, a tourniquet was applied to his arm and he was taken to town where Dr. Bleeker gave first aid attention before he was put on the train for the Hazelton hospital accompanied by his friend, Joe Dean. Although suffering great pain, the young man bore up under it well and did not collapse until he reached the hospital.

A telegram received at the Grotto Cigar store this morning says that Barrie had a bad night last night.

MEMORIAL TO MISSIONARY

New Building at Gittlakdamix to House Printing Presses of Late J. B. McCullagh

GITTLAKDAMIX, Naas River, Feb. 8.—Except for some slight inside finishings a new McCullagh Memorial Press Building has been completed here in which the printing presses left by the late missionary are housed. The building is not a very large one but it has been made by the hands of those who feel that the civilization they have is largely due to the untiring labors of the veteran Irish clergyman who gave up everything to go to this peaceful valley and teach the natives the arts of modern life and the religion which he professed.

At his death his printing presses and other gear were scattered, but shortly before Christmas through the energy and zeal of Anthony Adams, who called the boys to the work, a new building was erected and the presses are there and have published an edition of "The Trail Cruiser," the missionary leaflet which Mr. McCullagh issued from time to time.

Church Army Hall

The Church Army is now working on the erection of a new hall at the village and hope to have it completed shortly. Most of the men in the village are giving their services to the work and the women are preparing the meals in Victory Hall for the workers.

The January number of "The Trail Cruiser" is a very well printed and interesting record of the religious happenings of the place. It gives a picture of the president of the church council, Andrew N. Mercer. Other members of the council are vice-president, Andrew K. Naas; secretary, Charlie W. Brown; treasurer, Jonathan Mercer; lay readers, Charlie Morven and Jonathan Mercer; members, Robert Pearl, Luke Grandison, Dennis Woods, John Davis, Amos Gosnal, Peter Adams, James Smyth, Michael I. Bright, and Alfred Johnson.

These members were chosen by former managers of the Ocean Falls plant, are visiting there this week and will be returning to Vancouver on the Prince George tomorrow. Both Mr. Burden and Mr. Martin are now located in the south in senior positions in the company service.

TERRACE NOTES

PASSING OVER COLDS WITHOUT DANGER

Keep Reliable Remedy in Home At All Times

When you catch cold there are three points on which you should guard yourself. Colds generate systemic poisons, which should be carried off so as to keep the natural channels open. The temperature should be kept at normal and the fever always generated by colds allayed. The soreness of the muscles, especially in the back, should be relieved. If these three points are given prompt attention, and treated properly, your cold will be passed over without danger.

Grip-Fix is a home treatment for colds which accomplishes just the above results. Its action on the system is prompt, and its record of relieving a cold in a night has been established for over 10 years. A person with a box of Grip-Fix in the house is as safe from bad results in connection with colds as it is possible to provide.

Start taking Grip-Fix as soon as the cold develops, as prompt work on any sickness is always advisable. You can get it at Ormes' Drug Store Ltd. 32c per box.

BRIGHT ADDRESSES

Judge Young Gives Hints to Young Debaters Who Took Part on Occasion

A splendid spread with varied fare of music and speech was enjoyed by a large number of men of the Anglican Church in the Church hall last night. Addresses were given by Judge Young, Archbishop DuVernet, Consul Wakefield, Mayor Newton and H. E. Pullen and five minute speeches were made by four members of the debating club, George Hill, H. A. Philpott, J. W. Nicholls and A. W. Healy. S. K. Campbell sang two solos and also led the community singing which was one of the features of the evening. J. Austin played a selection on the piano and also accompanied the others. Archdeacon G. A. Rix closed with a few words of appreciation of what the others had done.

The ladies who provided the supper and waited on the tables included Mrs. Whitehead, convener, Mesdames Tremayne, Pillsbury, Wright, McNicholl, Orlhard, Groves, McNicholl, Philpott, Duncan, Lee, Beaumont, Cade, Evelt, Barnsley, Kemp, Mills, LaTrace, Woodland, McLennan, Bone-Stephens, Greer, and Miss Smith.

In replying to a toast to the press Mayor Newton complimented Archdeacon Rix on the work he was doing in connection with the church. He spoke of the fine banquet and the good attendance and mentioned some of the difficulties of a clergyman which he said resembled the difficulties of the editor of a newspaper.

H. E. Pullen replying to the same toast spoke with appreciation of the work of Archbishop DuVernet, who like a good newspaperman, wrote only when he had a message for the people. He said that the Archbishop would be long remembered for carrying the civilizing influence of the church to the uttermost corners of the vast diocese over which he presided, a diocese comprising half the province of British Columbia. He would be remembered for his broadmindedness and divine tolerance but he prophesied that he would be remembered longest for the discovery he had made in proving the influence of mind or "radio mind" as he preferred to call it. This would have a far reaching influence in the world.

The Debating Class

Each of the four members of the debating class had a subject, speaking respectively on the contribution of Ireland, Scotland and England to Canada and the result.

George Hill mentioned some of the great Irishmen who had been leaders of Canadian life and said that the Irish were foremost in everything. He mentioned the ready wit of the Emerald Islanders and suggested that the dour Scotchman, the stolid Englishman and the irrepressible Irishman was the basis for a splendid race.

H. A. Philpott spoke humorously of the haggis which was made up of fish, flesh and fowl and was supposed to be food; of the haggis which were supposed to produce music and of the kilts which were supposed to be clothes. There was also a liquid about which he was aware they

System Run Down
Blood Out of Order

Many people become run down, but don't know just exactly what their trouble is, when, as a rule, it is improper circulation of the blood.

All they need is a good tonic to build up the system and put the blood into proper shape.

For this purpose there is nothing on the market today to equal

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

It regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, purifies the blood and tones up the entire system.

Mrs. H. Poole, Port Dover, Ont., writes: "My system was run down and my blood out of order, and I suffered a great deal from pains in my head which made me feel very miserable. A friend told me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got a bottle and before it was used I found it was doing me good. I kept on until I had taken three, and now I feel like a different woman."

My husband also took it and it has built him up."

knew nothing. It was not difficult to say things about the Scotch, when remembering their principles and products. They were the finest colonists in the world and Canada had always proved attractive to them. He mentioned many great Scotsmen and said that people of that country always held the high positions in life.

J. W. Nicholls spoke of the self-assertiveness of the English. There was a part of the history of Canada of which they were not proud and that was when the country provided a sort of practice football game for the House of Commons in England. After Montcalm's brave army had been overcome by the brave British army, England had contributed politically, socially and financially to the upbuilding of the country. Canadian laws were founded on English laws, her constitution was founded on the English constitution dating back to Magna Charta. English home life had had an influence on Canadian home life. At least 85 per cent of the money used in developing the country came from England. Ecclesiastically the Anglican church was almost identical with the English church. In closing Mr. Nicholls quoted from the English poet Keating.

A. W. Healy said Canadians were on a pinnacle by themselves. They represented the perfect man. He would not detract from the qualities of the others.

He spoke of the men of other nationalities and said that their characteristics had to be blended to make the perfect Canadian. The British Empire when it needed assistance called to Canadians to carry on. There were Honor Law, Greenwood and Beaverbrook. The people who came from those small islands with their limited vision to this greater country with its wider vision became a bigger people and then some of them went back to take on the work when needed. He had to admit however that it was the heritage from the English, Irish and Scotch that made Canada great.

Judge Young told a number of witty stories and spoke interestingly of what to do and not to do in public speaking. This was the age of brevity when long speeches were not tolerated. It was wonderful how much could be said in one minute and how little in three hours. The only way to make a good speech was to work hard in preparation. Public speakers should build up a reservoir of information on which they could draw at will. This came from reading and observation. They must train the memory. All first class orators prepared their speeches carefully.

Consul Wakefield spoke of the joint heritage of the two countries, Canada and the United States. Upon the welfare of these two countries the continent depended and they had a mighty influence on the world. The future of democracy depended upon the action which individuals were taking now. National greed and avarice must be overcome and the countries must act internationally in such a way as to bring the world back to the plane in which it was before the war. They were facing serious problems.

The Archbishop then gave his address as reported elsewhere and the gathering broke up after singing.

"I Was a Fright!"

"Nothing I Could Take Made Me Any Fatter."

"Up to the time I was seventeen years old, I believe that I was the most miserable and unhappy girl that ever lived. Honestly, I was a sight. I was the most ungainly looking creature you ever saw. I was thin and scrawny—straight up and down. My height was five feet nine inches and I weighed exactly ninety-one and three quarter pounds. No matter what kind of clothes I put on I looked like a fright. I used to stand before the glass and study my features. I found I had a good nose, good eyes and a good mouth, but my cheeks were sunken and my face looked like a skull with a piece of parchment stretched over it. But nothing I could do or take made me any fatter. Men rarely even glanced at me. When they did, they merely gave me a casual, amused or pitying look—an expression which I am sure meant, 'why is a being like that allowed to live?' I used to lie awake at night for hours at a time wondering why there were so many beautiful girls in the world and I was so hideous. I met a friend of mine one day, Elsie W. and I hardly knew her. While she had never been as thin as I was, a year or more ago she ran me a close taken on flesh and had developed into a fine handsome girl with one of the prettiest figures I had ever seen. I asked her what had caused the big change. She said Carmel. She told me she had been taking it regularly for the last three months and that had begun to put on flesh. I was so encouraged by what she said that I couldn't get to the druggist fast enough. I bought a bottle and since then I have been taking it regularly. It has made the greatest change in me you ever saw. I now weigh 165 pounds and all my friends tell me what a wonderful figure I have and I know that I am admired."

Carmel is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money.

Sold by Orme's Drug Store and McCutcheon's Drug Store.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS OF ELKS AND ROYAL PURPLE

Was Occasion for Delightful Evening in Elks' Home Last Night

Joint installation of officers of Royal Purple No. 8 and Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Lodge No. 56 was the occasion of a delightful evening at the Elks' Home last night.

The installing officers were

Grand Lodge, and Ralph V. G.
LePine, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, assisted by Mrs. Fred Gilhuly and W. F. Roberge respectively. The work was put on in a very successful and impressive manner.
In the course of the proceedings
Mrs. J. C. Knight read a poem of her own composition to Mrs.
LePine re-elected to head of the Royal Purple for another year.

After the installation ceremonies, the 150 or so persons present sat down to the refreshment tables over which M. M.
McLachlan, the new Exalted Ruler of the Elks, presided. Around him seated at the head of the table were Mr. and Mrs. LePine, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Gilhuly, Dr.
Grant, and E. A. Wakefield. The addresses of the evening were by Dr. Grant and Mr. Wakefield while all the others at the head table also spoke briefly.

After the refreshments had been dispensed with dancing was enjoyed to the strains of music provided by the Westholme Orchestra under the leadership of Charles Balagano M. M. McLa-chlan acting as master of ceremonies.

The ladies' committee in charge of refreshments consisted of Mrs. LePine, Mrs. Smith, Mrs.
Maguire and Mrs. Gilhuly.

BRITAIN PAYS.

Daddy Neptune, one day, to Freedom did say:
If ever I lived upon dry land
The place I should hit on, would be little Britain—
Says Freedom: "That's my little Island."

Her bills, so they say, are the devil to pay;
And her people are taxed to the limit;
But she never weiled yet; it's a cinch you can bet
Whatever she owes she will pay it.

There's a lot of kind folk do their best to provoke Old John; when he's in a muddle;
But he's still going strong and before very long They'll be coming to him with their trouble.

So don't worry, you know, about what she may owe Though her debtors may never requite her;
Just smother your Hearst for fear he may burst,
Or drown the impossible blighter.

She's not perfect, we know, but I think I can show
That the game she plays on the level.

The people who matter will grant her the latter
And others can go to the devil.

In the land of the free; of Democracy;

You folk of the great U.S.A.

Dig down in your jeans, and bet
all your beans

That what Britain owes, she will pay.

W. E. YARD, Anxox.

of people look like it.

PUNCTUATE this:

A funny old man told this to me
I fell in a snowdrift in June said he

I went to a ball game out in the sea

I saw a jelly fish float up in a tree

I found some gum in a cup of tea

I stirred my milk with a big brass key

I opened my door on my bended

knee

I beg your pardon for this said he

But 'tis true when told as ought to be

'Tis a puzzle in punctuation you see.

Sport Chat

It is interesting to note the fact that the Colts' basketball team which this season has won the championship of the Senior League is practically the same Colts' team that won the Intermediate League last winter.
Similarly the Colts' Intermediate team of this year, which now bids fair to emerge at the top of a series of games that has displayed quality almost equal to that of the Senior League, is practically the same aggregation which sustained the banner of the Colts in the Junior League last year. It is very gratifying to observe such healthy progress in the ranks of the younger athletes of the city even though the older ranks have been weakened a great deal during the past few months.

The Gilhuly Cup, Senior League basketball trophy, has been won this winter by the Colts.
The Elks were the winners of the cup last winter. The Grotto Cup, significant of Intermediate League championship, won last winter by the Colts will probably be held by the new aggregation bearing the same name this winter. The Adanaes and Maple Leafs have yet to settle the dispute as to the ownership of the Benson Cup for the next twelve months. The Meteors were the winners last winter. The Tiny Tims are now in the lead for the Junior League or the McMorde Cup. This organization won the cup last winter.

ASSESSMENT DISCUSSED

Court of Revision Sits Today But Gives No Decision as Yet

BASIS OF VALUATION

J. C. McLennan Explains System
Adopted in Carrying Out
His Work

The municipal court of revision opened session this morning in the city council chamber. After sitting from 10 o'clock until 12.30 adjournment was made until 2 this afternoon. Several appellants were heard but no action was taken in connection with any of the protests, this being deferred until the arrival of the new city solicitor. Appeals were heard today in the order in which they came on the official list before the court. Mayor Newton, Ald. Stephens (chairman) and Ald. Smith were present and were sworn in by Acting City Clerk Allistone. Ald. Mackenzie and Ald. Collart, who are also members of the court, were not present, the latter being on a trip to Stewart.

Number Present

Among those present at the session this morning, either presenting protests for themselves or appearing on behalf of others, were H. S. Wallace, W. E. Fisher, W. E. Williams, L. W. Patmore, G. H. Arnold, James Hampton, E. C. Gibbons, E. A. Woods, J. A. Edwards, F. W. Bart and D. Jahnour. W. McLarnon, of Winnipeg, was also in attendance representing the G.T.P. Development Co., Ltd. which is appealing assessments on much of its property throughout the city.

H. S. Wallace was the first appellant to be heard. He complained that his property was generally assessed too high and that the valuations were greater than the prices that could be obtained by sale.

Valuation Basis

Mayor Newton stated that if the basis of assessment was cor-

Had Bad Pains in Her Heart

Nerves were very bad

Mrs. John Case, R. R. No. 4, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—"I wish to say that I have been bothered very much with my heart and nerves. I doctored with two different doctors, but did not find much relief. I would have such bad pains in my heart, at times, I would be almost afraid to move or breathe, and at night could not sleep. If the pains in my heart were gone, my nerves would be so bad I could not lie still and would only get a little sleep by being tired out. My stomach was also very bad and I could eat but very little, and then only certain things or I would have so much distress which always made my heart worse."
I had been suffering for nearly two years until one day I was talking to our druggist about the way I felt. He advised me to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a fair trial. I have now taken five boxes and am feeling so much better. I am able to do my own work, and can eat anything I wish. I cannot praise too highly."

reel, Mr. Wallace's property was not valued out of proportion. It was difficult to ascertain basis valuations for no property was selling at present at prices that might be expected by the owners. Speaking generally, the mayor expressed favor for the policy of high valuation and low mill rate rather than low valuation and high mill rate. The main thing to be obtained was equality. A high mill rate would be a bad advertisement for the city and might prove a bad thing in the future if real estate values began to rise. A low mill rate would preserve the city's borrowing power against a future time when increased development and prosperity might make increased expenditure necessary.

Explains System

In making a general explanation of the assessment roll, Assessor McLennan stated that he had started from the Alder block corner which he had placed at $25,000. The Helgerson corner was valued at $22,500. He had assumed that the most valuable property in the city was that between Wallace's corner and Sixth Street on Third Avenue. Inside lots there had been let stand at $9,000 which he thought was a fair valuation. Prices between Wallace's corner and McBride Street had been tapered down as they went farther out and some values had been considerably reduced. The moving of the post-office had occasioned a difference in some values. The Alder block corner had been raised considerably while other property had been reduced as much as 40 per cent. Mr. McLennan said that it was his opinion that the assessment was reasonable. He had attempted to do justice to all, making reductions or increases as he saw conditions warranting them.

Abnormal Times

Chairman Stephens said that the times were abnormal and it was a difficult matter to ascertain actual values. Few people would agree on values in the absence of an actual market. It would be unusual to have an assessment with which all agreed and which was absolutely correct. Mr. McLennan had given a great deal of time to the 1923 assessment and on the whole he thought it was a great improvement over previous assessments. It was the function of the court of revision to deal with any inequalities or errors and rectify them. It must be remembered, however, that the whole townsite and surrounding property must be considered in dealing with individual cases.

Mr. Wallace expressed the opinion that there should be true valuation based on saleable prices, even if the mill rate went up to 100.

The court was considering the cases presented by Mr. McLarnon for the G.T.P. Railway Co. when adjournment was taken.

VICTORIA IS PLEASED WITH WORK HERE IN VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

J. Pinder-Moss Interviewed Authorities and Received Encouragement

Returning yesterday from Victoria after reporting on the work done here in connection with the Polytechnic Institute, J. Pinder-Moss declares himself to be much encouraged. He met Hon. Dr. McLean, minister of education, Superintendent S. J. Willis and John Kyle, organizer. All expressed satisfaction at the progress in the north and compared the enrolment here favorably with that at Vancouver and Victoria. Vancouver has 1100 students or .55 per cent of the population. Victoria has 400 students or .072 of the population, and Prince Rupert has 234 or 3.27 of the population.

Dr. McLean said the present work was indicative of the possibilities of this class of education according to Mr. Pinder-Moss. The general opinion there was that the fees were insufficient and should be advanced. Vocational education in the northwest part of the province is placed in the hands of Mr. Pinder-Moss with power to start classes anywhere he may think advisable. He is also given the privilege of starting day classes and correspondence work for those living in inaccessible places.
