BIG DROP IN WHEAT

New All-Time Lows Recorded at Winnipeg Today With Some Recovery Before Close

MARRIED LAST EVE

Miss Mabel McIntyre R.N. Becomes Bride of Ray Commons at Quiet But Interesting Ceremony

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jack, Fraser Street, was the scene at 9 o'clock last night of the quiet but interesting marriage ceremony of two well known and popular local young folk in the persons of Miss Mabel McIntyre R.N., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McIntyre of Smithers, and Ray Commons, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Commons of Fernie and accountant in the local branch of the Royal Bank of Canada. Only relatives and a few intimate friends of the contracting couple attended the ceremony which was performed by Rev. C. D. Clarke, pastor of First United Church.

The couple were unattended and the bride wore a brown travelling dress with hat and footwear to match. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses.

After the occasion had been briefly celebrated, Mr. and Mrs. Commons sailed on the steamer Prince Rupert for a honeymoon tour which will take them as far as the groom's home at Fernie. They will return to this city to take up residence.

The happy couple will have the hearty congratulations and best wishes of many friends in the city and district. The bride, who is a Smithers girl, graduated a year or so ago from the Prince Rupert General Hospital training school for nurses. The groom, who has been accountant in the Royal Bank here for the last couple of years and is also prominent in athletic circles, has also been stationed at various interior points.

MAYOR TAYLOR

Congratulations to Louis D. Taylor on his re-election for his eighth term as Mayor of Vancouver! Considering the very strenuous opposition he received and the money which must have been spent in the effort to dislodge him, he certainly must have a firm hold on the electors of the big city.

PROUD OF COUNTRY

British people walked a little straighter yesterday and held their heads a little higher in the knowledge that their native country had paid over those tons of gold which they owed the United States. It is always pleasant to pay debts as long as doing so does not cripple the debtor. It is probable that before another payment comes due some arrangement will have been made for cancellation or reducing the amount to be paid. British people are a proud race and they are today proud of the country from which they came.

The Letter Box

THE OTHER SIDE

Editor, Daily News:—
I have read several letters recently about the government relief, and today another from Dorreen, and although I sympathize with the unemployed in lots of ways especially in the cities and think married men have been cut in a very unfair proportion as compared with single men, who can shuck up together and live pretty comfortably and smoke just as much and more than before.

I also happen to know a great many people who have been and are very well off on relief who used to live on the country. Also I think everyone ought to be better satisfied with having to work for what they receive, and not having to accept a dole.

As regards clothes, up to now there has been a very substantial allowance for clothes to be worked for and I notice men in these parts much better dressed than those who are working for wages. I happened to see a page in the Daily Province where a menu for five persons was worked out at $5.00 a week, of course in Vancouver prices, but then can they catch fish, shoot goat, grouse and snare rabbits, or grow their own vegetables, or pick berries in Vancouver as they do in the country? And I can see in lots of cases the people working for a wage picked the most berries, probably you'll find the chief grumblers didn't trouble to pick berries at all.

I think it's very unfair to grouse in these times, and if you stop to figure it out, it's the working man who always has to pay.

A WORKER.

CHRISTMAS OBSERVED

Program at Borden Street School is Much Enjoyed

Yesterday in Borden Street School the pupils and teachers paid honor to the Christmas season with Christmas songs and carols. In spite of the limited space nobody wanted to be left out of the Christmas sing-song but Miss S. R. Mills, the principal, who was absent through influenza, was much missed.

During the program Joyce Gawthorne and Zilla Sherman, both in Grade 2, caused some amusement by asking a Christmas guessing story and they were visibly thrilled when some of the Grade 7 and Grade 8 pupils could not guess it.

The program was as follows:
Carol, "The First Nowell," School.
Carol, "Good King Wenceslas," Lower School.
Song, "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," Grade 1.
Song, "Deck the Hall," Upper School.

Trios and choruses, "List Our Merry Carol," Isabel Hackett, Harriette Phillipson and Patricia McClymont.
Carol, "The Twelve Days of Christmas," School.
Guessing story, Joyce Gawthorne and Zilla Sherman.
Carol, "Christmas Bells," Lower School.

Carol, "Shepherds, Shake Off Your Drowsy Sleep," School.
After the singing of the school song, "If We Would Be Strong," the pupils went to their different classrooms for Christmas Tree good cheer.

Orme assured the delegation of all possible assistance. Government Agent Norman A. Watt was out of town.

The parade was an orderly one and took place in a pouring rain down Third Avenue which had an icy surface following recent frosts. Leaders of the parade and spokesmen were Messrs. Chapman, Murphy, White and Scully.

ORE FROM SKIDEGATE

McMorris Arrives From Skidegate—Sample Shipments Show High Values

W. G. McMorris, manager of the Skidegate Sunrise mine, after a visit to Skidegate, to make arrangements for shipment of high grade ore from the mine, sailed last night in the Prince Rupert from here to Vancouver.

A recent sample shipment of one ton of ore from the 25-foot level returned $2500 in gold while a six-ton shipment realized $750 or $125 per ton.

It is believed by experienced mining men that the Queen Charlotte Islands may become before long an important producer of gold. Inquiries have been received from some of the prominent mining companies in the United States regarding gold possibilities of the Islands.

It is rumored that a San Francisco company and one of the largest mining companies in Western Canada are endeavoring to secure the well known Prince Rupert group of claims on the west coast of Morosby Island. These claims are owned by Skidegate people.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

CONCERT IS ENJOYABLE

Pupils of Booth Memorial School Present Program Before Parents

The Christmas concert which had already been given for the pupils of the Booth Memorial School on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, was presented last evening to a large number of parents. In welcoming the parents, Miss E. A. Mercer, the principal, thanked the parents for their co-operation and explained that originally the program had been prepared for the pupils alone but was now being given at the request of many of the parents. No expense had been incurred in providing costumes or elaborate staging. That the audience thoroughly enjoyed the varied program was very evident from the hearty applause greeting all the items.

Action songs, sketches, playlets, dances and choral numbers were all very enthusiastically received and the staff and pupils are to be congratulated.

The program: Principal's welcoming address. "O Canada."

Choruses—"The First Noel," "Shepherds, Shake Off Your Drowsy Sleep," choir.

Mother Goose Rhymes and a Brownie song and dance, Grades 1 and 2.

"Jack Be-Nimble and Miss Polly," Grades 1, 2 and 3.

Boys' Chorus, "Who Killed Cook Robin?"

Christmas in other lands, Grades 4 and 5.

Girls' Chorus, "What Child is This?" "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks."

Scene from "Alice in Wonderland," Grade 6.

Chorus and solos, "King Wenceslas."

Scotch dance, Jean Watt.

Bird's "Christmas Carol," Grade 7.

Chorus, "The Camel's Hump," National Anthem.

BANCROFT FEATURED

Burly Star Heads Cast in "Lady and Gent" With Able Assistance From Wynne Gibson

"Lady and Gent," a drama starring George Bancroft and Wynne Gibson, is being presented as the week-end feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here.

With one of the most amusing and at the same time human roles of his picture career, Bancroft takes the part of a self-styled "big shot" from the big town. Suddenly he is called upon to decide between continuing this life in the city or becoming the foster-father of the 12-year old son of a dead friend. His ultimate decision brings results which are at once whimsical and dramatic.

Playing opposite the husky star, Miss Gibson has the role of a sharp-tongued, quick-tempered night club proprietress who assumes with Bancroft the task of wardship for the child. She shares Bancroft's life both before and after the decision is made. Despite a rather callous characterization, she plays her part with fine sympathy.

An excellent supporting cast for Bancroft and Miss Gibson includes Charles Starrett, as the grown-up orphan, and James Gleason, who gives a neat performance as Bancroft's pal.

Her BACKACHES have GONE!

Quick, sure relief with Fruit-a-tives

"Your splendid remedy acted like a tonic to my entire system. I can't believe how I suffered from backaches due to kidney derangement. When I would bend down it seemed that I couldn't straighten up again. I was continually awakened at night from the same cause. Dizzy, sick headaches and a weak stomach made me feel perfectly wretched. Now thanks to your wonderful 'Fruit-a-tives,' I am enjoying life again."

LADIES WERE DINNER GUESTS

Rotary Club Given Musical Entertainment at Commodore Cafe Last Evening

Members of the Rotary Club last night were dinner hosts to members of the Ladies' Music Club and members of the Music Club entertained Rotarians and their wives with a very delightful program of negro spirituals at the Commodore Cafe. George Woodland, president of the Rotarians, presided.

When dinner was concluded Mr. Woodland called on Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, president of the Music Club, to take charge. She briefly addressed the members and visitors, expressing the pleasure the members of the club felt at being guests there that evening. She then handed over the conduct of the meeting to Mrs. Shelford Darton who had prepared the program.

Mrs. Darton read a very interesting paper on the subject which the club was about to illustrate musically. Soloists were Mrs. Ernest Anderson, Mrs. W. M. Blackstock, Mrs. William Cruickshank, Mrs. F. W. Allen and Mrs. F. N. Good. Instrumentalists were Mrs. G. A. Bryant and Miss Elizabeth Currie, Miss Margaret McCaffery, Mrs. Robert Bartlett; part singers, Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. F. W. Allen, John Davey, A. J. Lancaster, Mrs. Robert Blance, Mrs. James Farquhar, Mrs. G. A. Woodland and Miss L. Halliwell. Accompanists were Mrs. C. E. Cullin, Mrs. W. M. Blackstock and Mrs. W. L. Stamford.

At the conclusion, Mr. Woodland expressed the pleasure it had given members of the club to hear the splendid program that had been prepared.
