NATIONAL RAILWAY MANAGER OPTIMISTIC

PROMISE OF RECORD YEAR IN HALIBUT SHIPMENTS IF BUSINESS HOLDS UP

Great optimism as regards prospects for the port of Prince Rupert and the development of the railway business in this direction was expressed by A. E. Cameron, assistant general manager for British Columbia, and F. Price, chief of car service Montreal, arrived here yesterday from Vancouver by the steamer Prince George. Their intention was to meet here S. J. Hungerford, vice-president in charge of operation and maintenance, Montreal. Mr. Warren and his party went out to Kwinitsa where they met Mr. Hungerford's party, returning east with them. With Mr. Hungerford were A. H. Eager, general superintendent of motive power and equipment, and H. A. Dixon, chief engineer.

Mackenzie King Gives Interview on Arrival in Great Britain

LITTLE UNEMPLOYMENT

Favors Closer Relations With France and Other Countries of World

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 29.—Premier Mackenzie King of Canada arrived here this morning to attend the Imperial Conference in London. His first words on English soil were an appeal to English capital to consider opportunities which Canadian industries afforded.

Premier King informed interviewers that unemployment in Canada had fallen to the lowest level of the last three years. He added that Canada desired in the largest measure that her farms and industries absorb men and women of the British stock. "She needs capital, however, as well as settlers. To find an opportunity for more thousands of men millions of pounds are required," he said.

In regard to the Imperial Conference Mr. King made no statement. This he reserved for the conference but he said he thought it likely when defense problems were under discussion he would favor first a rapprochement between Great Britain and France and second extensions if possible of the Washington Treaty for the limitation of armaments.

The question of whether the Crows Nest Pass towns shall be affiliated with Alberta and British Columbia branches was finally left to the various towns themselves to decide by a system of local option.

Twenty-Two and Half Million Pounds of Halibut is Marketed so far this Season; Poor Month

Halibut landings at Prince Rupert during the first nine months of this year have totalled 22,591,000 pounds as compared with the totals for the years 1922 and 1921 which were 25,590,950 pounds and 25,600,000 pounds respectively. With average totals during the remaining three months of 1922, therefore, it is already certain that records of past years will this year be beaten.

During the month of September closing today 2,114,600 pounds have been marketed at this port as compared with 2,412,400 pounds in the same month in 1922 and 2,555,500 pounds in September 1921. The smaller total this month is due almost entirely to the fact that very rough weather prevailing throughout September has mitigated against the operation of the fishing schooners. The highest price paid this month was 85c and 11c to the schooner Reliance on September 26. The highest price in September 1922 was 16c and in September 1921, 17.9c. The scarcity of fish was responsible for the higher prices this year. The lowest price for the month was 10.8c and 9c to the Heleland on September 21.

The following are the totals of halibut landings here month by month since the first of the year:

	Pounds.
January	1,906,900
February	1,700,000
March	2,043,600
April	3,010,000
May	2,541,700

BARROW BOOSTS CENTRAL B.C.

Gives Interview in London In Which he Tells of Oppor- tunities in This Province

"I consider the prospects for a man with practical knowledge of agricultural work who goes out have gained experience to British Columbia now are Where there have been failures better than they were in 1892, in our province they have generally in transportation facilities and the use of mechanical appliances in farm and dairy work. "Of course," continued Mr. Barrow, "I don't mean to suggest that men who come with capital do not possess an advantage, always provided that they wait to invest that capital until they have gained experience in the province at the age of 25." So living and so gaining experience said the Hon. Edward Dodsley of conditions and comparative Barrow, M.P.P., who has been land values, have invested in minister of agriculture in the properties where they had a poor provincial government of British Columbia since 1918, in an interview in London with a representative of "Canada."

Lay By Nest Egg
Asked how prospective suitable settlers without capital should make a start, Mr. Barrow replied: "They should get away from the cities or towns as soon as possible. By applying to one land, which the experience I had of the provincial government gained enabled me to select with her bureaus which exist in almost good judgment, and became president of the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association and director of the Chilliwack Producers' upon themselves—their exchange before entering the ter, habits, industry, and capacity provincial legislature in 1916 as for hard work until they have member for the constituency of laid by the necessary nest-egg Chilliwack."

As minister of agriculture, Mr. Barrow has to deal with all the settled lands in the province, or its equivalent in stock and Crown lands coming under the control of the minister of lands and forests, the Hon. T. D. Patullo.

Northern Interior

Mr. Barrow said that he had made his present visit with a view to looking into agricultural conditions in Great Britain and the opportunities for increasing the imports of the farm dairy and comprehensive exhibit of fruit products from British Columbia's agricultural Columbia. "I may," said Mr. Barrow, "address a few local as of its mineral and forest resources, on view at the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley next year."

CONDITIONS NOT VERY PROMISING IN ENGLAND

Strikes Too Frequent and Not Enough Co-operation from Other European Countries

A private letter from a letter in England who has many opportunities of getting first hand information in regard to the industrial conditions says:

"Unemployment is pretty bad here and the men don't help things forward much. Strikes are too frequent and too long. A few people hold up a large number. Most of the strikes are not against employers but against some of their own fellows in another union. I fear we shall have a thin winter and that there will be a harvest of hunger. It is all very unfortunate for the prosperity of the country. Our continental neighbors don't help much to push the cart along and we can hardly do all the shoveling."

BRINGING UP FATHER

VANCOUVER SUN IS RAKED OVER

While Victoria and Prince Rupert ignored Vancouver Paper Calls on Seattle

In an editorial article, the Victoria Times criticizes Vancouver's action in ignoring that city and Prince Rupert in connection with grain shipments. It says:

"Has the Vancouver Sun overlooked the fact that the Port of Victoria, the capital city of the Province of British Columbia, the first and last point of call for all trans-Pacific liners, has not yet disappeared beneath the blue waters of the ocean but is still increasing its local and maritime business? One would almost think that our Mainland contemporary had never heard of this place if its suggestion that Seattle assist Vancouver to handle the grain that is going to the markets of the world by the Western route can be taken as a fair sample of its community of interest."

Seattle's Triumph

The Seattle Daily Times gives the following news item a front page position in Sunday's issue:

"Because terminals of the Canadian railroads on the Great Lakes are congested with wheat from one of the largest crops the Dominion has ever harvested, and because Vancouver, B.C. may not be able to handle all the grain that seeks an outlet to the world's markets through the western gateway, Vancouver business interests yesterday sent the Seattle Chamber of Commerce an urgent request for aid in relieving the congestion by diverting a portion of the wheat to this port for export. The request was made through a Vancouver newspaper. The Sun, which sent the chamber a lengthy telegram explaining the situation and the chamber immediately called a conference of leading grain merchants and flour millers, with the result that a few hours later an answering telegram was sent saying that Seattle grain shippers heartily favored the diversion plan and would be glad to co-operate with Vancouver and the Canadian and American railroad lines in bringing Canada in bringing the Dominion wheat to this port for shipment to Old World markets."

Both Ignored

"Our neighbors to the South of the line are go-ahead people and never overlook an opportunity for greater business." That is precisely as it should be. But it strikes us as extraordinary for any interest in the City of Vancouver, or anywhere else in this Province, to ignore deliberately one of its own family when measures of co-operation, in which the business of British Columbia and the business of the country as a whole are involved, demand the complete conservation of every ounce of available Canadian effort before going farther afield. Are Victoria and Prince Rupert to be ignored hecause the Vancouver Sun would prefer American ports to get the business that belongs to this side? Climatic conditions send it to Eastern United States ports. But what is all this fuss about the Western route if an artificial handicap is to be imposed upon Canadian participation in the business that will eventually offer in this connection?

BUCKLEY AND EASTERN TIMBERMEN ON VISIT TO BUCKLEY BAY MILL

F. L. Buckley, president of the Massett Timber Co.; Wood Beal, vice-president of the Lacey Timber Co., Chicago; C. A. Lyford, manager of the Lacey Timber Co.'s Seattle office, and Fred Bowles, lumberman of Chicago, arrived from the south on the steamer Prince George yesterday afternoon and were met here by the Massett Timber Co.'s yacht Espanola on which they proceeded to Buckley Bay, Mr. Buckley being on one of his periodical visits of inspection. They will be back in the city again next week on their way south.

Mr. Buckley declared that operations were going on very satisfactorily in the Buckley Bay mill. Double shifts were being run full blast and some 700 or 800 men were finding employment there.

LONDON BLACKBERRYING RATHER NOVEL SIGHT

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Blackberry Sunday was this year one of the institutions of the city. Just as the berries, which grow in millions on the hedgerows throughout the country, were ripe, a special day was set aside when all London went out and gathered them. Motor buses carried thousands of people into the districts around the metropolis and in the evening many of them returned laden with luscious berries while the children with smeared faces showed that they had been indulging themselves.

The 1923 world baseball series will open in the Yankee Stadium, New York City, on Wednesday, October 10. Col. Jacob Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees, at the meeting where this was decided, won the toss of the coin to decide where the series should open. It was determined that if the New York Nationals won the pennant in the senior league, the games would alternate between the new Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds. Should the Cincinnati club win the National League pennant the first two games will be played at the Yankee Stadium and the second two at Redland field, Cincinnati.

Pining James Seator, player of the National Lacrosse team in Winnipeg, $20 for assault arising out of a fight on the Stadium grounds recently. Police Magistrate Sir Hugh John Macdonald delivered the following lecture to accused:

"During the past season there have been numerous fights in the lacrosse game played in Winnipeg in which some person might easily have been injured severely. The officials of the lacrosse league have endeavored to revive the game, which was threatened with extinction and to keep the sport clean. On account of these in despairs. Offences of this kind have become too frequent and must not go unpunished. The charge against you is very serious."

The first game of the finals for the Mann Cup, emblematic of the amateur lacrosse championship of the world, will be played this afternoon at New Westminster between the Victoria Capitals, winners of the Vancouver Island series, and the New Westminster Salmon Belles, captors of mainland honors. Competition in the final series calls for home and home games, total goals to count. The Capitals only had competition with one other team on the Island this season namely Nanaimo. The two other teams besides the Salmon Belles in the mainland race were Vancouver Native Sons and Squamish Indians.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

The Admiral of the Mosquito fleet reports that while waterfront business at the beginning of the week was light, as far as fish arrivals were concerned, the prices offered for the actual landings of halibut jumped considerably. With 112,700 pounds landed on Monday the prices on the Fish Exchange stood at 16.9c and 11.5c, for American first and second class catches, while Canadian drew 15c. and 10c. On Tuesday, when only 36,500 were marketed, the prices jumped to 18c. and 11.5c for American first and second class catches and to 15.8c and 11c for Canadian first and second class landings. Prices reached the peak on Wednesday, when arrivals again proved light with 47,100 pounds of halibut offering. On this day the American schooner Reliance picked off 18.7c and 11.5c for first and second class while the Canadian boat Toodee pulled down 16.6c and 11c, for similar classes the highest price paid for some considerable time past.

Thursday morning there was a slump in prices on the Fish Exchange when five American and five Canadian boats arrived in port with a total of 186,750 pounds. Americans were high at 15.7c and 10c, and low at 14.8c and 9c, while the Canadians were high at 11c and 10c and low at 13.7c and 10c. Three Canadian boats brought in 6,500 pounds of halibut yesterday morning but owing to a land slide at Kwinitsa and the consequent holding up of railway traffic no sales were made.

According to the reports of incoming skippers the weather conditions on the high spots have varied considerably. While some days have been particularly good for fishing other days have been very bad owing to high winds and heavy seas.

To a boat the trollers from the outlying points have put into port during the week the season's trolling having been closed. From opinions gleaned from the skippers of the various incoming boats the season has proved a very remunerative one and the boys have a little "something" to see them comfortably through the winter.

The efforts of the small boat owners, who have been engaged in trolling and other pursuits during the summer, are now being bent toward refitting their floating homes in preparation for the trapping season. Provisions, lumber, gas, traps and the other one hundred and other odd requirements for these lengthy and lonely trips are being piled in various quarters along the water boulevard. The coming month will see a number of the members of the Mosquito fleet proper hitting out for the north and south to their respective happy winter hunting grounds.

What the last words of the deer were, has not been definitely stated or as to whether it was or was not a brother of the first deer has not been conclusively proven. Suffice to say that it was a happy pair of hunters who returned to port that same night. Dear reader, you might get in on a chunk of fresh venison if you telephoned nicely to either of the above mentioned remarkable marksmen.

Yes, we have no Bananas

The origin of the popular song "Yes, we have no bananas" is here told by Walt Mason, junior. If you don't like it cross it out! It was Xmas day, the sun was hot and beer was selling cheap, when a woman chanced to pass along with her baby, which did weep. A Greek was standing at his door with his daughter Pollyanna. He cried "Oh! stop those dreadful tears and give the kid a banana." But it was just the baby's luck, for that very self same day, Barney Google had been in the store with his pockets full of pay. And Anna, quite a pretty lass, had made a hit with him so he'd bought up nearly all the fruit with his last piece of tin. The sequel is not far to seek, the song was really Anna's, who in answer to her dad's commands cried "Yes, we have no bananas."

Tulip Hits Rock

The Indian boat Tulip is on the Suga ways for repairs as the result of coming into contact with some rocks which floated up from the bottom of the sea in local waters. The speed at which the boat made contact with the rocks was so great that the entire keel was torn off the hull. The stricken boat was able to make port without further mishap. Necessary repairs will shortly be completed.

Louis Amadio Returns

Louis Amadio, the electrical wizard, returned to port on Wednesday evening aboard the power boat San Vito, from an intended hunting trip to Banks Island and Kitkata Inlet. The weather was the great drawback to the success of the hunt and in addition to a flock of ducks amounting to two, Louis got a nice cold. The hunter did see a wonderful herd of deer but he refrained from shooting any otherwise such action would have spoiled the colored picture in the book he was reading.

The Launch Vaquero, owned by Col. Stewart at present touring in Alaska, has been taken from her Cow Bay anchorage and moored at New Holland in care of Capt. Henry.

Jennett in Port

Capt. Perry, aboard the good ship Jennett, arrived in port from the Wark Canal trolling grounds early in the week after a successful season's fishing. Having stayed for a few days in port Capt. Perry put out for his winter quarters on Porcher Island but all did not go well on the trip. When a few miles out of port the engine began to show signs of distress and developed a bad attack of misses. Upon investigating the cause of the complaint it was discovered that the clutch had quietly quit functioning and was in two equal parts, as though cut with a knife, while the shaft was securely wound around the flywheel. Capt. Perry is still an ardent advocate of the old fashioned windjammer type of boat, having handled quite a few of these in the good old days out of Halifax. Its a million to one that Jennett will be sporting a full rig of sails in the very near future.

Capt. Thomas

Capt. Thomas, of the Violet, ran into mechanical difficulties while coming in from the Wark Canal district recently. The box of tricks did not work up to expectations, the clutch being mainly responsible. Consequently Violet was taken in tow by the Iain and brought safely into port.

During the week 383,050 lbs. of halibut has been landed. Americans were high at 18.7c and 11.5c and low at 14.8c and 9c. Canadians were high at 16.6c and 11c and low at 13.7c and 10c.

Paddy is Back

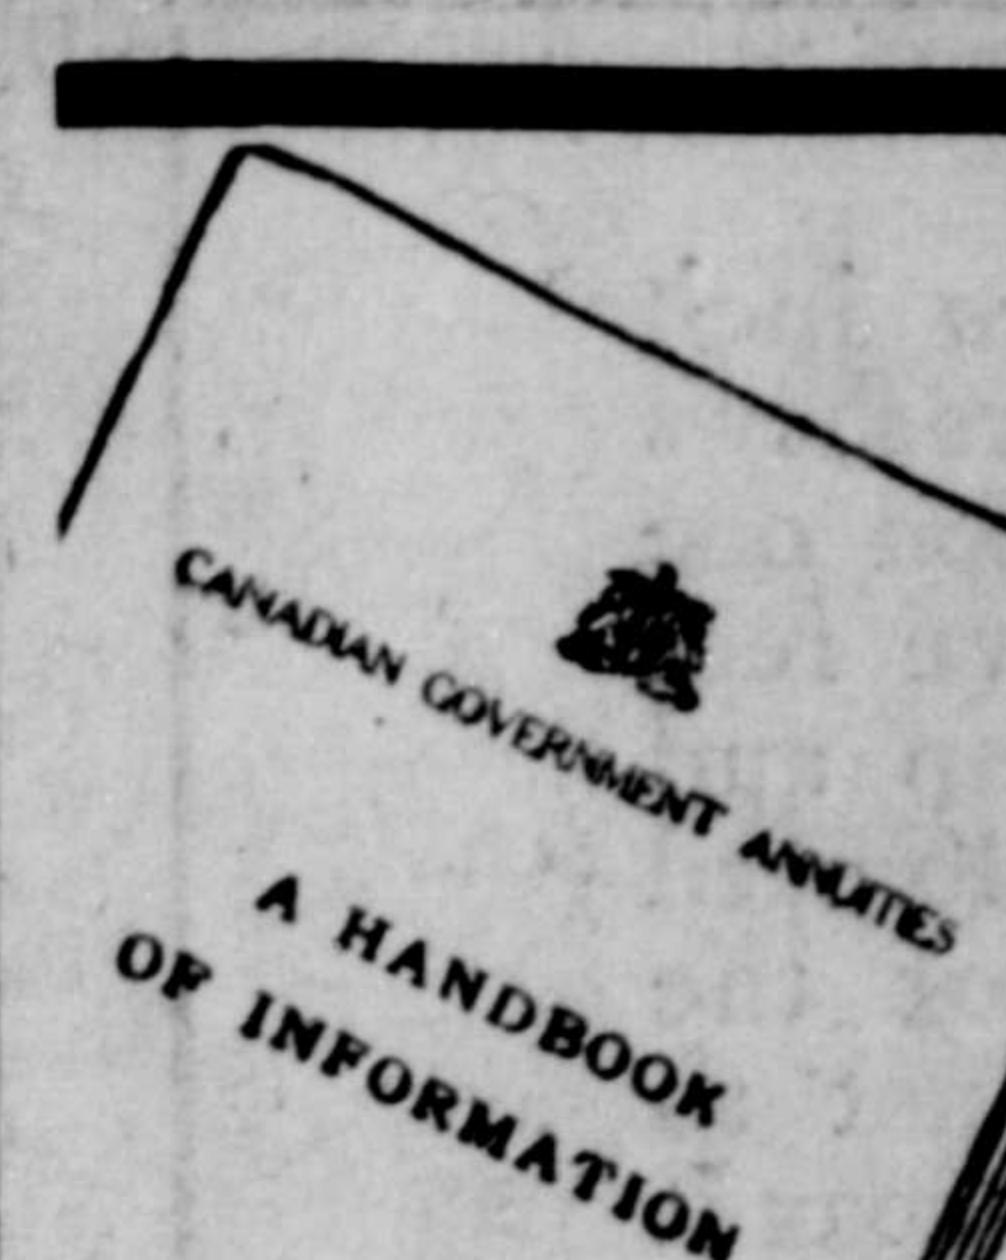

Paddy Raymond, vice-admiral of the Dundas Island "trolling fleet," is at last back to take the wheel at his Irish colony on Lookout Point, after a prolonged absence on the trolling grounds. According to all accounts there were great rejoicings by the Irish of that neighborhood when Paddy stepped from his trusty craft. The brass band of the settlement was scheduled to appear but in tossing the coin as to who should have the drum a fight arose in which this most important musical instrument was broken. Building operations upon the vice-admiral's new residence are to take place immediately. The high hoot squad welcome Paddy back to the fold.

The arrivals were: June, Crescent, Restitution, Imperial, Rolfe, Sherman, Annie May, Lillian M., White Lily, Kaien, Malamute, Inez H., Teddy J., Emblem, Tramp, Fanny F., Atlantic, Bravo, Reliance, Edward Lipsett, Toodee, Westerner, Panama, Alaska, Majestic, Hi Gill, Tatoosh, Dorreen, Minnie V., Scrub, Plot, Volunteer.

Toner Back from Juneau

Jack Toner, the original, has returned to town from a visit to his old stamping grounds at Juneau, Alaska. Jack met with a great welcome in the north and was enabled to renew many old acquaintances. The Alaska Daily Empire gives Jack quite a write-up and says in part: "J. Toner, old-timer of this section, who lived here eight years ago and part of that time was operator of the big derrick on the hill at Thane, arrived on the Admiral Rogers from Prince Rupert for a visit. The last time Toner was in Juneau was in 1919, and today he said that he will return south with a firm conviction that those who have been saying Juneau is not a busy town, prosperous and still growing, are only knockers." Jack gave quite (continued on page six)
