Challenger for Heavyweight Championship Unknown Two Years

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 .- (By the) Firpo, ex-stevedore, the son of an Italian emigrant to the Argentine has scaled the pugilistic heights to challenge for the world's heavyweight title after one of the strangest, most picturesque careers the prize ring has ever known. Unheard of two years ago, he is matched to fight Jack Dempsey, the champion, at the Polo Grounds on September

Big ,strong and possessed of a powerful punch, Firpo is recognized by boxing critics here as a dangerous contender for the title, but back in his native Argentine, Luis is more than that—he is a national hero.

Firpo's early career in the land of the pampas gave little forecast of the athletic prowess he was to gain. Born October 29. 1895, nearly 28 years ago, in
