C.N.R. PRESIDENT IS GUEST OF CITY TODAY

BRITISH NEWSPAPERS MAKE FUSS OVER UNITED STATES LIQUOR SEIZURE

Large Railway Party Arrived on Train and are Busy Seeing the City and Meeting People

Sir Henry Thornton expressed himself as very pleased with the country he had seen and with the harbor here to a Daily News representative last night shortly after his arrival. He has spent his time seeing things, mixing with the people and getting to know them and also he has been enjoying a little recreation by the way, recreation of a kind that keeps a man fit. He arrived last evening on a special train accompanied by three directors of the railway, a number of officials, Hon. T. D. Pattullo, and several Prince Rupert men who had gone to Terrace and Lakelse to meet him, notably J. S. McLeod, M. P., McCaffery, George Nickerson, and C. B. Orme. He was met at the station by Mayor Newton and F. G. Gibbons, president of the Board of Trade, Fred Stork, member for the district, as well as a representative group of citizens, local railway and steamship officials and others and immediately boarded the fishery, protection steamer Marfish and was taken around the harbor all the way from the Marine Depot to the Cold Storage plant.

CANADIAN CLUB LUNCHEON TODAY

Sir Henry Thornton is Speaker And All Railway Visitors Are Guests

Twenty guests were today entertained at a Canadian Club luncheon served by the St. Regis Cafe in the Elks Home. Rev. Archdeacon Rix, vice-president of the club, presiding in the absence of L. W. Patmore, president. There were also present Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Hon. A. M. Manson, Hon. Dr. Sutherland, Fred Stork, M.P., Mayor Newton, and a representative group of citizens all gathered to do honor to the head of the railway.

The central event was the address by Sir Henry Thornton, who was in good form. At the close he was accorded a vote of thanks.

THREE PROVINCIAL MINISTERS ARE HERE

Hon. A. M. Manson and Hon. Dr. Sutherland Arrived This Morning. Hon. T. D. Pattullo Yesterday

Hon. A. M. Manson attorney general and member for Omineca, accompanied by Hon. Dr. Sutherland, minister of public works, arrived this morning on the Princess Alice to meet Sir Henry Thornton. They attended the Canadian Club luncheon this afternoon and Mr. Manson will be one of the speakers at the Board of Trade meeting this evening.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands, arrived with Sir Henry and party last evening and will leave for Prince George this evening, accompanied by Dr. Sutherland. On his return he will probably visit Queen Charlotte Island.

The Canadian National steamer Prince John, Capt. Harry Sedden, arrived from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands at 1:30 this afternoon.

LINER MAKURA IS IN FROM AUSTRALIA WITHOUT LIQUOR

VANCOUVER, June 25.—The Australian liner Makura arrived here today some dry for the first time in the history of the Canadian Australasian line. In view of the application of the United States liquor laws to the port of Honolulu, the commander of the Makura decided to leave at Suva all liquor in excess of supplies sufficient to carry them to Honolulu.

provided, Sir Henry said: "Well, I came to meet the people and that is the only way to do it." He dined at Burns Lake and Smithers, and at Lakelse he swam in the lake and fished the lake and stream, about one hundred fine trout being secured by him and the members of his party. "I have not fished before for ten years," he said, "and it was a great treat. I caught some in the stream and some in the lake but the stream was the best." The fish were served at several meals at the lake and on the train and a number are being shipped east in ice.

"You have a splendid harbor," Sir Henry remarked. "Why, you could park the whole British navy here" was the saying of a member of the visiting party. "You have a fine townsite, a splendid place for a city," said a third. And so it went all along the line. The visitors seemed to like what they saw of Prince Rupert and were not slow in expressing themselves. To J. E. Dalrymple, vice-president of the road in charge of traffic, it was not new for he was one of the men who helped to lay the plans for the port and who seemed familiar with every detail. He was able to discuss matters with a background of knowledge that the others did not possess.

According to Schedule F. G. Dawson, director of the railway, who had arranged the trip and who was responsible for its carrying out, said everything had gone off according to schedule with the exception of a drive from Fraser Lake to Endako, which had to be cancelled owing to a little too much time having been taken in the Vanderhoof district. Otherwise all the places had been visited as arranged. The train had been delayed slightly in the last lap of the trip owing to the desire of Sir Henry to spend a little more time at one or two points.

Director of the Canadian National Railways who is conducting Sir Henry Thornton on a tour of the west.

expressed a desire to take a swim in the Salt Lake. Incidentally he arranged a game of tennis for this afternoon and heard many particulars about the local institutions and conditions. In everything he evinced the greatest interest.

The president of the railway was particularly pleased with the scenery along the line of railway and more particularly with the gorges of the Skeena River over which he enthused. He expressed himself as very delighted with Lakelse Lake and thought someone should build a hotel on the shore of the lake and pipe the water to it from the hot springs. He thought it would be a good commercial venture. He suggested it was not a big hotel that was wanted but a medium size place with hot baths as the feature. The scenery there was wonderful.

Enjoyed Visit When one of the members of the party suggested the people along the line would be surprised at him dancing till morning at Smithers and taking such an active part in the other amusements

According to Schedule

F. G. This morning the party visited the drydock and inspecting the railway terminals, and this afternoon they attended the Canadian Club luncheon, met a committee of the city council and tonight will meet the Board of Trade in the council chamber. All sail for Vancouver on the Prince Rupert, leaving at eleven.

The party consists of: Sir Henry Thornton, K.B.E., president.

The Canadian National steamer Prince Rupert, Capt. D. Donald, is due in port on time at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

SIR HENRY THORNTON, K.B.E.

Head of the Canadian National Railway System, who is visiting the city today for the first time.

Prince Rupert will be Great Port says Sir Henry Thornton

"Prince Rupert represents one of the most ideal harbors that it has ever been my good fortune to see," said Sir Henry Thornton, at the luncheon tendered in his honor today by the Canadian Club. Continuing, Sir Henry said: "It also occupies a position of great strategic importance in that you are close to the Orient, and although so far north the port is open all the year. I venture to say that we shall all of us live to see the day when Prince Rupert will be one of the greatest ports of the Pacific, and certainly the Canadian National System has every reason to join with you in bringing that about. I have received a most instructive and illustrative statement from your Board of Trade setting forth various propositions which that board wishes me to look into.

"I can assure you that there is nothing which you can suggest, which is feasible and reasonable, that the Canadian National system will not join hands with you and assist you to achieve. To a large extent the prosperity of Prince Rupert, and its development, must depend upon the development of Canada as a whole. The more the back country prospers and develops the more the natural wealth will pass through this city as the gateway. The country between here and the prairies must be developed, a country which has been bestowed by nature with every conceivable gift. I believe that with a progressive immigration policy we will be able to provide that population which will help to make Prince Rupert a great port."

HYDER MINER WINS COMMISSION ON MINE

Court Gives William Bunting $12,000 as Result of Sale of Unicorn Near Stewart

Mr. Justice Murphy has given judgment in the Supreme Court at Vancouver in favor of William Bunting who claimed 10 per cent commission on the purchase price of $120,000 paid by A. B. Trites to John Hoyland and Louis Watkins for the Unicorn group of claims adjoining the Big Missouri at Stewart. His Lordship held that Bunting had fulfilled the act of an agent in bringing together the buyer and seller and was thus entitled to commission. Defendants claimed that Bunting had not really effected the sale. Agreement between the parties on March 22, 1922, provided for payment of a commission to Bunting for the Unicorn at a price in excess of $100,000. In August, Trites agreed to buy the Unicorn for $120,000, payments extending over three years.

British Newspapers are Outspoken in Criticism of United States Action

Lloyd George Defends Seizure of Liquor and Urges More Sympathy with America in Prohibition Enforcement

LONDON, June 25.—Lloyd George, addressing the congregation in the Welsh Baptist chapel here yesterday, urged that the United States should get more sympathy in trying to enforce prohibition, which he said was a law passed by a greater majority than any other law ever passed. It attempted to deal with the greatest curse of civilization.

The ex-premier urged that America was within her rights in seizing liquor aboard liners from some of which bootlegging had certainly been perpetrated.

The London Times discussing the seizure by the United States of liquor on British ships, said the failure of the British government to protest officially against the liquor seizures was inviting the United States to trample upon British rights and the amenities of civilized existence.

Most of London's daily newspapers scathingly denounce the liquor seizures, claiming the action to be meddlesome and absurd.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The British liners Godric and Caronia, the French liner Providence, and the Italian ship Verdi docked yesterday with liberal supplies of liquor under seal. After they have filed their manifests today the authorities are expected to seize any liquor over and above the amount certified for medical purposes. There were no new developments in regard to the matter yesterday.

Note of Anxiety

LONDON, June 25.—(later)—Seizure of liquor aboard British liners in New York continues to be the outstanding feature in the press. In several editorial articles there is a decided note of anxiety lest the controversy lead to serious ill feeling between United States and Great Britain. Papers express the hope that people here will refrain from intemperate and uninformed criticism of what is held to be purely a legal question. Several papers suggest arbitration and suspension of the new regulations pending the decision of a chosen tribunal.

Premier Speaks

Premier Baldwin stated in the House of Commons there was no ground for protest if British customs seals were broken within territorial waters by the United States customs service. This was in answer to a question asked if the right of America to break seals of liquor aboard ships were recognized. Foreign customs seals, the Premier said, were habitually broken when necessity arose in British territorial waters.

TRAIL UP SIDE MOUNTAIN

Road Superintendent Says Proper Route Lies on Other Side From City

The proper route for the proposed trail up the mountain back of the city is not on this side of the mountain but on the other side, according to P. W. Anderson, road superintendent. Repeated agitation for such a trail has always had the premise that this side was the natural side.

Mr. Anderson explains that this side of the mountain, the shady side, is always wet and is also steep and rough. The other side is the sunny side, is quite dry and the country is easier. In addition to this, there is an easy slope all the way up and a road could be easily built for use of automobiles and other vehicles right to the top of the mountain. Mr. Anderson has examined the country and states that the most suitable place for the branching off of the trail up the mountain from the proposed road to Gallo-way Rapids would be about 2 1/2 miles from the centre of the city on the other side of the base of the mountain.

PRAIRIE CROPS LOOK UNUSUALLY FAVORABLE

Rains Falling at the Right Time Made up for Backward Spring

From almost every section of the prairies the report comes that during the critical early period of growth moisture has been ample for the grain, says the Bank of Montreal telegraphic report. Weather conditions are generally favorable, prospects are good throughout Manitoba and Saskatchewan, while in Alberta they are more favorable than they have been for many years. In Quebec and the Maritime provinces crops are backward but now growing rapidly. In other territory good growing weather has made up for the backward spring and fall wheat is already heading out, a good average crop being assured. In British Columbia crops, orchards and pasturage are all in good condition.

Welcome Sir Henry To Only Canadian National Port.

It is with great pleasure we join with the rest of the community in welcoming Sir Henry Thornton to Prince Rupert, the only-exclusively Canadian National port in the West. We have looked for the visit for some time and are glad that it has come at a time when he is able, not only to see this port but to look into the resources of the country to which the railway will look for sustenance. For this we are indebted largely to the local director, F. G. Dawson, who always has the interest of the whole of northern and central British Columbia at heart.

It is unnecessary for us to state that the people here have full confidence in the ability of Sir Henry to handle railway affairs in the best interests of the country. In doing that we are all ready to support him. We think that the best interests of the country will be served by developing this port as an alternative to Vancouver and by making it an outlet for the products of the country and an inlet for the goods which have to come from the Orient. We also have an idea that a profitable through traffic could be built up which would help relieve the overburdened Canadian taxpayer from the interest charges and operating deficit of the railway.

Lay Case Before Sympathetic Listener.

When the Board of Trade meets Sir Henry this evening and lays before him suggestions for mutual benefit, we feel sure they will receive a sympathetic hearing, something that we have not always been used to. Being a big man in every sense, Sir Henry will be glad if we can help him to solve some of the railway difficulties and at the same time benefit ourselves. We depend upon the railway for our very life. It is only by mutual service we can hope to prosper. Co-operation must be our watchword all the time, for it is only by helping each other that either the railway company, or the city can make a success of business here.

Sometimes Sir Henry will see too much selfishness in our suggestions. Sometimes he will think the suggestions unwise. If he does, we hope he will tell us in order that we may try to get the correct outlook on the problems to be solved. We do not want to beat the air. We want to strive for the attainable and we look to Sir Henry to tell us where we are wrong so that we may set ourselves right. Frankness between people with similar aims is most beneficial.

Will Get New Outlook On Rupert Problems.

The present visit will give the president of the road a new outlook on the railway problems of Prince Rupert. Without seeing the place and the people it is difficult to realize the conditions here. It is difficult for him to visualize our fine harbor, our resources, our waterfront needs, and to establish a proper vision of the future. When he looks at our city building problems he will realize what it meant to us to give the railway ten years rebate of taxes in exchange for a hotel which was never built and which is still a debt the railway owes to the city. By mixing with the big men of the city and district he will realize what such men might do under proper conditions, and what an aid they will be to him in the work he is just commencing.

On the other hand it will be a great inspiration to us to come in contact for a few hours with one of the big men of the world, a man who has proved that he can do big things in a big way and who is able to estimate people and things at their true value.

novel or sensational in the way of acrobatics. Not that we personally care much about this sort of thing. It is a motion picture of bigness first of all, it is constructed carefully enough to keep its theme pretty steadily in the minds of its audience, and it affords some of the finest photographic effects which we have even seen, it will be a success. For the same reason that Barnum and Bailey's Circus is a success, it is big and colorful, and furious.

LIGHT IN THE DARK IS STORY OF LOVERS

Hope Hampton is Charming Heroine and Story Dominates Everything

The play is the thing in the case of "The Light in the Dark," coming here Wednesday, for no one person, not even the beautiful and talented star, dominates all the scenes. Lon Chaney, as the thief who steals the cup believed to be the Holy Grail, is given a wonderful opportunity to portray one of his great characterizations. E. K. Lincoln is convincing as the aristocratic but fickle lover. An the performance of Miss Hampton stands out as the work of a true artist, for she makes a most charming and appealing little heroine.

The story deals with the experiences of Bessie MacGregor, a poor Vermont girl who goes to New York to make her living following the death of her parents. She obtains employment as a checkroom girl. Injured in an automobile accident, she is taken into the luxurious home of Mrs. Templeton Orrin, where Mrs. Orrin's bachelor brother, J. Warburton Ashe, soon becomes infatuated with the convalescent girl. When Bessie learns of Ashe's insincerity she leaves the house, finding refuge in an East Side tenement. Unable to locate the girl and realizing what a cad he had been Ashe tries to forget the wrong he has done by taking a hunting trip abroad. In the ruins of an abbey in an old English forest he finds a cup of strange design which he brings back to America and which figures prominently in a great human drama that has a happy and romantic culmination. Three times the mysterious cup is stolen in America before it finally disappears to the bottom of the East River with one of the thieves, but it serves to bring the lovers together in a denouement unrivalled in dramatic power on the screen.

ROBIN HOOD IS COMING FRIDAY

Famous Fairbanks Film Said to be Big, Colorful and Furious

Robin Hood, the big Fairbanks film, was recently shown for two weeks on end at the Capitol Theatre, Victoria, to capacity audiences. One of the Victoria newspapers in reviewing it says:

Robin Hood is just what the program calls it—a show. The only reason we cannot agree with Mr. Fairbanks in saying that it is "the greatest film show on earth" is that there is not space here to explain the difference between "great" and "big." We think this really is "the biggest film show on earth." And it is going to be fine entertainment for almost everybody almost everywhere it is shown.

The photoplay, which has been under way in California for more than six months, and which employed 20,000 persons in its cast, is in two parts—and very different parts. The fore part comprises largely the leave-taking of King Richard as he marches out from England to lead the Holy Crusade, accompanied by the Earl of Huntingdon (Mr. Fairbanks), who has won the king's favor by his championship at tournament. The meeting between the Earl and the beautiful Lady Marian Fitzwalter and their parting as the knights ride gallantly away to war also are important events in the first hour of the film. As these scenes are thrown across the screen there are remarkably fine photographic "shots" from the towers and the castle walls. Interior scenes made of the gigantic royal banquet room and outdoor views showing the winding trail of the soldiers as they melt away into the distant shadows of the mountains are exquisitely done.

Plenty of Action

It is the latter half of the photoplay which seems to us to be far more interesting to the Fairbanks followers. Here Douglas, as Robin Hood, the leader of the outlaw band which resolves to restore the throne to Richard after he has fallen into the hands of the tyrant Prince John, is a dashing, daring, devil-may-care adventurer with jumping-jack legs and a smile that's bound to get the girls. Picturesque in his little tufts of beard and mustache, his Robin Hood hat and his tattered uniform, he is a most interesting and amusing figure. Despite the fact that there is little except action in this last half, still it seems to us that Mr. Fairbanks has done nothing new.

"The Man Unconquerable" is a Swift and Exciting Picturesque

It seems natural to associate the South Sea Islands with days and nights of languorous ease and an unbroken succession of untroubled thoughts. But there are other viewpoints, a fact to be most forcibly illustrated at the Westholme Theatre this evening, when "The Man Unconquerable," a Jack Holt Paramount picture will receive its initial presentation.

Mr. Holt has the role of a young man who believed that peace and kind words could accomplish anything and who was not inclined to change his views even when he found his pearling grounds being despoiled by ruffians. But the scorn of a girl whipped him into action and her smile at his success was the reward that came to him.

Atmospherically, the picture is almost as good as a trip down into the Southern Seas, for it has the settings and locations of that part of the world reproduced with an adherence to detail that is quite delightful. In action it is swift and exciting while the story is logical and convincing.

J. F. Duthie, head of the Duthie Mines, arrived last night from Smithers. He is here to confer with Sir Henry Thornton in connection with the possibility of shipping ore from his mine to southern smelters by way of the C.N.R. and this port.

The Man in the Moon SAYS

SPEED is all right as long as the income comes as fast as it is spent.

THERE is one thing about Sir Henry, a step ladder is not needed in order to see him in a crowd.

"THANK heaven he his human" was a remark heard about Sir Henry Thornton last evening when word went around that the big man could dance, fish, play tennis and swim.

"GETTING an education in the west," was the way one man described the trip of the railway president.

BEING married is like playing a ball game. All your errors are checked up against you.

DETOURS on the road to success are so common, one gets to think they must be part of the highway.

ONE would hate to have to sit behind Sir Henry at a show.

ALL the other big men of the town were out to meet the big visitor but somehow they forgot to ask me. How curious.

IF Sir Henry goes swimming, beware of the tidal wave.

NO wonder they have to pay the president of the railway a big salary. He needs it to buy shoes and clothes if area counts for anything.

THERE is a chap down east named Will Dammit. He would be very useful in a newspaper office as an aid to expression.

ONE cannot help wondering if any woman really ever had Sir Henry under her thumb and if so how big her thumb was.

THE other day a young lady blushed and it was so unusual that it has been the talk of the town ever since. Such action on the part of a lady has not been known for years.

OF course there will be some knockers around today who will be saying that the railway president is too big for his job.

MARRIED men do not usually commit suicide because they have not time to think about their troubles.

ONE of the senior members of the Grouchers' Club takes exception to the way the president of the national railway wears his hat. Possibly a deputation should interview Sir Henry on the subject and get him to garb himself in a soft fedora.

Liver Trouble Pains in Stomach

Most of the misery and ill-health that humanity is burdened with arise from disorders of the liver, stomach or bowels.

If you are feeling out of sorts, have pains in the stomach, especially after eating, sour stomach, bilious spells, sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, water brash, etc., you should take a few doses of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills. They will loosen up the liver, regulate the bowels, and ease up the stomach.

Mr. T. C. Hallman, Highgate, Ont., writes:—"I have had liver trouble and pains in the stomach for a long time. I started to use your Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills, and in a short time I noticed they were helping me. Now I would not be without them and cannot recommend them too highly."

VALHALLA PICNIC TO DIGBY ISLAND

Affair Yesterday Afternoon Was Most Enjoyable and Some 40 Persons Attended

Valhalla Lodge held its annual picnic yesterday on the sunny shores of Digby Island, some 40 or so members and their friends being in attendance. The trip was made in the Prince Rupert Boat House launch "23" which left the city at 10.30 a.m. and returned in the evening at 8.30. Games and races were enjoyed and the time was most enjoyably spent by all.

The committee in charge comprised Mrs. George Fritz, Mrs. L. Anderson, O. A. Johnson and A. Akerberg.

Mr. Phillip and Major Taylor, district engineer, will make a tour of the interior with Dr. Sutherland, Mr. Pattullo and Mr. Manson.

The C.P.R. steamer Princess Alice, Capt. Orniston, was in port this morning from 10 to 12 northbound from Vancouver to southeastern Alaska ports. Arrivals here on the Alice included Hon. A. M. Manson, Hon. Dr. W. H. Sutherland, P. Phillip and Anton Dybhavn. Altogether the vessel had 225 passengers, most of them being tourists.

She must be a Good Cook Pacific Milk Co. Limited

Every can of Pacific Milk is almost half cream. It is this richness that makes cakes so smooth and lovely. Mrs. Mansfield says she wouldn't think of trying to bake without Pacific Milk. She uses less shortening and gets better results. "While I am not a particularly good cook, many people mention how nice my cakes always are." We suggest Mrs. M. is over modest about her baking, though we do know Pacific Milk makes a great difference.

Many local people enjoyed the swimming at the Salt Lakes yesterday. The water was fine but lack of ladders with which to climb out of the water was the cause of some complaint, the swimmers in some cases suffering from injuries to their knees in raising themselves to the floats.

Jack Barnsley and Norris Pringle had a successful weekend's fishing trip at Butedale arriving home on the Chelohsin with good catches of cut-throats and Dolly Varden. They went south on the Princess Beatrice Saturday afternoon and fished the lake at Butedale yesterday morning.

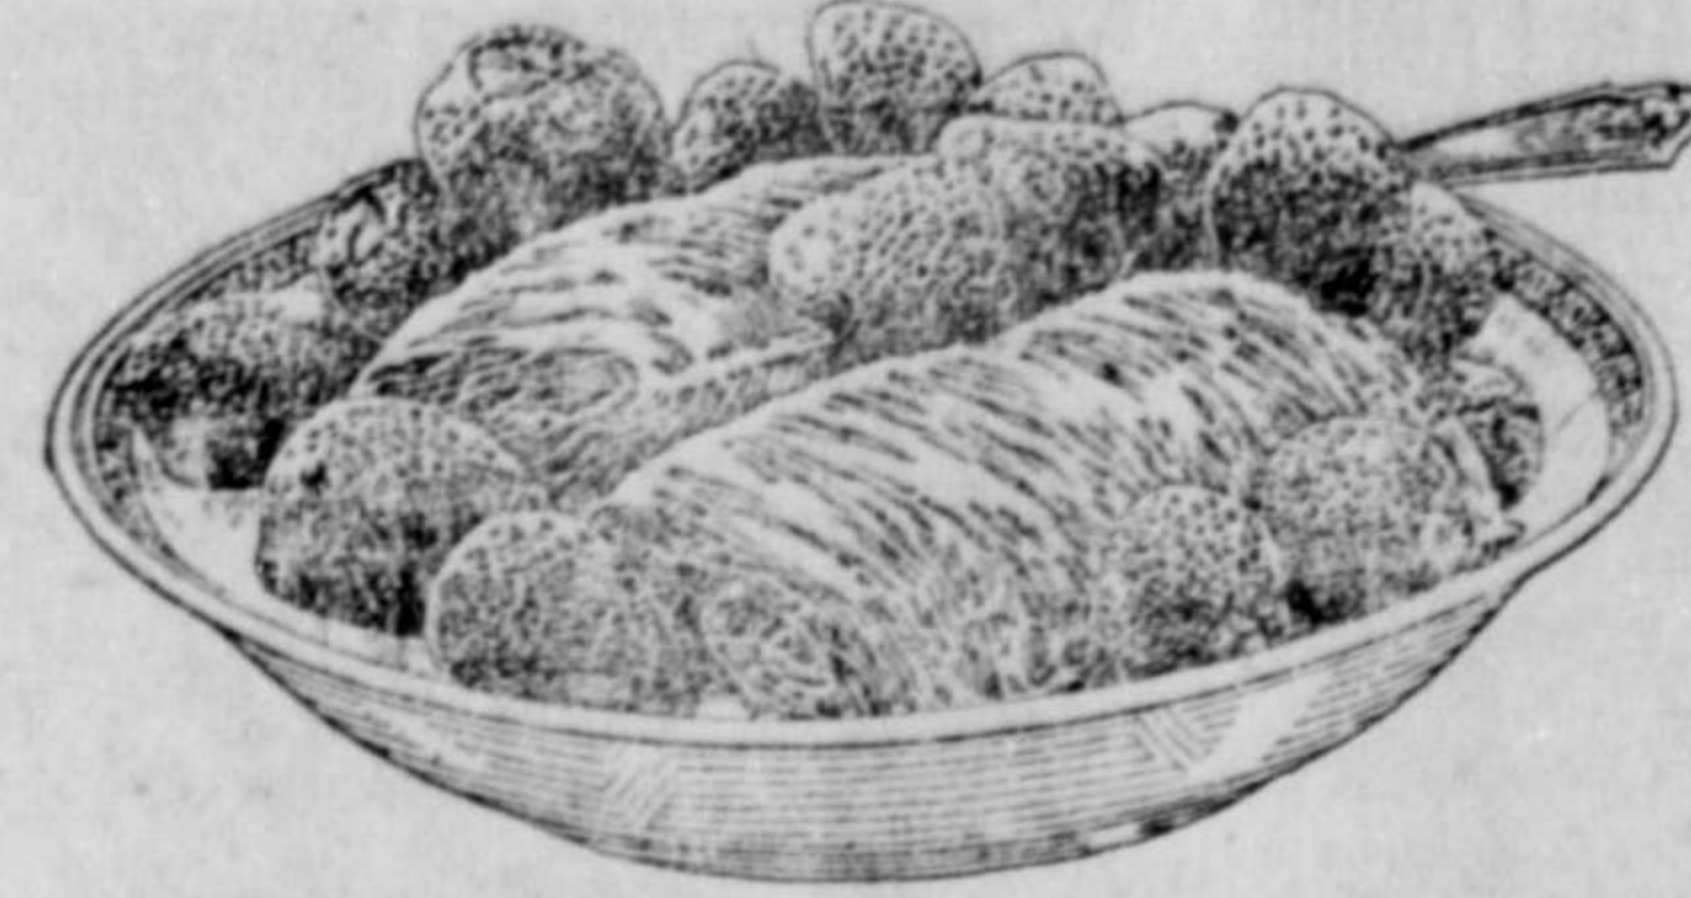

The fire department had a call at 10.15 yesterday morning to the residence of W. Harry Evans, Dyer Apartments, turned in the alarm.

He expects to spend about three weeks in the district.

The Union steamer Chelohsin arrived from the south at 4 o'clock this morning and sailed for Anyox and Alice Arm at 6. This, it is expected, will be the last trip of the Chelohsin on the Prince Rupert service for she will be replaced next week by the new steamer Gardena, Capt. Dickson. The Chelohsin and her master, Capt. Stacey, will go to the logging camp run after the vessel has undergone overhaul at Vancouver.

For the Summer days

Light, wholesome, satisfying—all the meat of the whole wheat cooked by a process that makes it 100 per cent digestible—topped with red-ripe strawberries, or other fruits and served with cream. You might eat a full course dinner and not get as much real food as you get from two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with berries. Contains just enough bran to keep the digestive tract clean and healthy. Shredded Wheat is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat—a wife-saver in the Summer days.

TRISCUIT

is the Shredded Wheat cracker—a real whole wheat toast—eaten with butter, soft cheese or marmalades.

City Police Constable Alex Macdonald sustained painful but not serious injuries on Saturday afternoon when the motorcycle fouled in a soft spot on Third Avenue near the corner of McBride Street and he was precipitated onto the street with the machine on top of him. His cuts and bruises were dressed by Dr. Gade and he is still on duty.

The Canadian Girls in Training of the Methodist Church held a very successful tea and sale of ice cream and home cooking at the Red Cross Hut on Saturday afternoon and a substantial sum was realized for the Camp Fund. The affair was well patronized and everything went off splendidly, the girls taking care of the various departments very capably.

Coast shipping men give Capt. P. G. Groves, formerly of this city but now manager at Vancouver for the Empire Stevedoring Co., credit for loading vessels at Vancouver faster than was ever done before. Under Capt. Groves' supervision the steamer City of Victoria is now being loaded with lumber at Vancouver for H. R. McMillan and a new fast time record will be set, it is expected.

Life is Give and Take Proposition
No Man, Under Modern Conditions, Can Live Entirely Unto Himself
EACH DEPENDENT ON OTHERS.
Citizen Who Does Not Aid in Building up Community Cannot Expect to Have Prosperity Himself
There was a time in the world when a man could do pretty much as he pleased. What one man did was of little concern to anyone else, for it had little effect on anyone else. Those days are gone, however, and they never will return. Today, no man can live entirely unto himself. Life is a complicated affair under modern conditions. No one man in any community is entirely independent of all others in that community.
Organized society, in the form of governments, national, state and local, have recognized the new conditions and have decreed that every man must observe certain rules in his relations with his fellow men. He must not do certain things that would endanger the health of other people in his community. He must not do such things as would disturb the peace and quiet of his neighborhood. He must remember that he owes a duty to his community.
Not Question of Right
A man may say that he has the right to spend his money where he pleases; that no man can stop him if he wants to buy his groceries, his clothes and his furniture in some city miles away from where he earns the money to pay for them. He is right. There is no law to prevent him from doing so, unless it is the law of self-preservation. The man who has the right to send his money away to some distant city instead of spending it at home, also has the right to send his children to that city to be educated in the schools, which his money helps to support, but he doesn't exercise that right. He sends his children to the local schools, the maintenance of which is made possible by the men who spend their money at home.
Life in any community today is a give-and-take proposition. A man cannot take everything and give nothing and get away with it for any great length of time. He cannot take his living from a community and give nothing back to help the other fellow make a living. If he cuts off the other fellow's living, he is bound eventually to cut off his own, for unless the other fellow has money to buy his labor or his goods he cannot make a living himself.
You may say that what you buy doesn't amount to much and the money that you send away to the mail order houses in other cities cannot have any great effect upon the general business conditions in your town. Maybe it doesn't amount to much and maybe it won't have any great effect upon the community's prosperity in itself, but what will be the result if every person in the community, or half of them, or a tenth of them, take the same view of the matter. It amounts to the difference between a prosperous community and a "dead" one. It amounts to the difference, in the end, between good times and bad times for yourself and your own family. If you lived on a desert isle, it would make no difference where you sent your money, because it would make no difference whether you had any money at all or not. But you are not living upon a desert isle. You are living in a modern community. To do everything possible to build up that community is not only a duty which you owe to the community, but—more important still—it is a duty which you owe to yourself.

Taxes Will Increase
You have children to educate. You want your community to have good schools so that your children may have the same advantages that the children in the big city have. You may say that you pay your share of the taxes out of which the school houses are built and the roads constructed. Maybe you do pay your share, in proportion to the value of your world's goods, but where is the other fellow to get the money to pay his share of the taxes if, after you pay your taxes, you send the remainder of your money to some other community to help build their schools and construct their roads. The merchants of any community pay a very considerable part of the taxes collected in that community.

MANY TRANSFERS SALVATION ARMY

Staff Captain Jaynes Makes Announcement Before Leaving For Wrangell

There will be many transfers among Salvation Army officers in the north this week according to announcement made this morning by Staff Captain Jaynes, head of the Army for Northern British Columbia and Alaska, who left on the Princess Alice for his headquarters in Wrangell after having spent some time touring the district in his charge. As a result of these transfers, next Sunday will see a large gathering of Salvation Army officers in Prince Rupert en route to their new posts.

Staff Captain Jaynes announced the following changes: Capt. McKay, of Anyox, will go to Juneau, Alaska, and Lieut. Leighton, of Anyox, will go to Vancouver to take up women's social service work. Capt. Chank is coming to Anyox from the East to succeed Capt. McKay, and a lieutenant from the training college at Winnipeg will succeed Lieut. Leighton. Another new lieutenant will come from the East to assist Capt. McKay at Juneau.

Capt. Barker and Lieut. Elliott of Prince George, are going to Ketchikan and Capt. Garnet and Lieut. Fiddler will go to Prince George from Juneau. Capt. Sheppard and Lieut. Rydberg are being transferred from Ketchikan to Vancouver.

Their many friends will be pleased to know that Capt. and Mrs. Goleman are remaining in charge of the work here.

Dr. H. R. Mustard, Dr. J. W. Woodley and W. Butterworth, of the travelling medical board of the department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment, reached the

It is alleged that Mittenen, in giving evidence for the crown in the Tibbetts case, told and swore to different stories at the preliminary and appeal trials. His arrest was ordered in the court room by Judge Robertson who was hearing the case.

Evidence was given this morning by Walter Gale, Mrs. Eva Williams, W. Cameron, J. C. Murray and John Haahli.

TALKED MONEY INTO HIS OWN POCKET

New York Man Wins Case in Court Netting Him Much Cash

NEW YORK, June 23.—Moses Jacobs, who ten years ago had ear fare and an idea, today is drawing checks on a $90,000 account and has visions of substantial increases in that account in the immediate future.

The latest addition to his tidy fortune was made when Supreme Court Justice Erlanger and a jury recently awarded him $10,000.

Jacobs came here in 1913 after his business as one of the "Six Little Tailors" of Boston was dissolved. Walking through Herald Square—he couldn't ride as he had not sufficient money for a cab—he was struck with the idea that the old Herald Square Theatre at 35th Street and Broadway, aside from being an unsightly pile, might prove an opportunity to rehabilitate his fortune.

Practically penniless, he talked the owner, Charles E. Johnson, into agreeing to permit a purchaser to raise $1,500,000 by a first mortgage on the site. From that point Jacobs worked and talked fast. Bonding companies, contractors, architects, building material concerns and a purchaser were "talked into" doing their share toward the erection of the big office building that now occupies the site. But none of the investors signed agreements with him.

Then, Jacobs complained, everybody began to make money out of the proposition but himself. So he went to court. He has now won three suits, lost one and still has pending actions for sums aggregating $100,000.

TO THE PURE ALL THINGS ARE PURE

Senator Borah said at a banquet in Washington: "Europe arms extravagantly and at the same time tells us with reproachful looks that we ought to be ashamed of ourselves for not letting her off her war debt."

"Europe reminds me of the milkman. A lady said to him one morning: "Really, this is the limit. Your milk gets worse and worse, I verily believe it's nothing but chalk and water. How dare you advertise it as pure?" "Madame," said the milkman reproachfully, "to the pure, all things are pure."

When you buy advertising you buy CIRCULATION, and see that you get it.

The pupils of the Smithers school received a "severe shock" on Friday when it was announced that school was "over" and done with for two months. To prove that the "bad news" had not a lasting effect and in appreciation of their services, the children presented their respective teachers with small gifts. The teachers retaliated by "forming" ice cream, candies, etc. upon their charges, and it is said that the youngsters actually did hate to leave school. Many mothers were in attendance and participated in the games put on by the teachers for the children.
