BIG CANNERY FIRE AT PORT ESSINGTON CAUSES GREAT LOSS TO DISTRICT

Steamers to Call Here Monthly to Carry Lumber to Orient from Mills of Prince Rupert District

G. W. Nickerson, local lumber broker, announced this morning that early in June a Canadian Government Merchant Marine freighter will call here to load the first shipment of lumber from this district for Japan. Two hundred thousand feet of hemlock lumber have been sold by the Royal Mill at Hanall and the George Little mill at Terrace to H. R. McMillan, of Vancouver, and 500,000 feet monthly is now wanted which will mean the calling here monthly of a C.G.M.M. boat to take the lumber across the Pacific Ocean.

A. W. Steventon, representing Mr. McMillan, arrived in the city on Saturday and left on the morning train for up-river where he will inspect the lumber already purchased and place orders for the 500,000 feet monthly. The shipments will be made over the lumber assembly wharf which is now being put in shape for its handling. The lumber to be shipped will be in form of what is known as "baby squares," 4 by 4 and 4 by 4 1/2, 10, 13 and 20 feet long.

Today's announcement represents the bringing to a head of the announcement made recently by B. C. Keeley, manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, that a special rate had been offered to Mr. McMillan for the shipment of lumber through this port to the Orient and also the announcement by R. E. Allen, manager of the Royal Mills, that a trial shipment was to be made this year. It marks an important step in the export lumber business of the north which may develop into large proportions annually resulting in the operation of all the mills in this district and a large shipping business through this port.

REFUSE OFFER OF GERMANY

France and Belgium Will Not Consider Thirty Billion Marks

GOVERNMENT WHARF HAD SLIGHT BLAZE

$50 Damage Was Done When Overheated Stove Pipe Ignited Roof of Shed

Slight damage amounting to probably $50 was occasioned by fire which broke out at 8.45 last night on the roof of the government wharf shed from an overheated chimney. Quite a hole was burned through the roof and it was necessary for the fire department to cut in from the interior to get at the fire which was soon extinguished with the use of a chemical extinguisher.

MASSETT LUMBER GOES TO SEATTLE

Spruce and Hemlock to be Used in Box Manufacture on Lake Union

SEATTLE, May 7.—Marking the debut of the northeast section of Lake Union as an active factor in Seattle shipping, arrangements have been completed, it was learned today, by which the steamships of the Los Angeles Lumber Produce Steamship line will supply the plant of the Puget Sound Lumber & Box Company with spruce and hemlock from Buckley Bay, Massett Inlet, British Columbia. The Los Angeles company are allied corporations, being owned by the same interests.

The Puget Sound Company's plant is at 12th Avenue North-east and Northlake Avenue, fronting on the arm of Lake Union that lies almost in front of the campus of the University of Washington. Heretofore that arm of the lake never had participated in Seattle waterborne commerce.

Two of the Los Angeles company's steamships, El Gieuto and El Abeto, already have delivered cargoes of spruce and hemlock to the Puget Sound company's plant. A third steamship, El Cedro, also will bring lumber for the plant when required. The vessels ordinarily operate between Buckley Bay and San Pedro but are being diverted to Seattle when the Lake Union plant requires spruce and hemlock.

The arrival and departure of the lumber carriers in that part of Lake Union has attracted wide attention in shipping circles. It marks another step forward, it is pointed out, in the development of Seattle's great fresh water harbor.

The extension of premises indicates that the company has faith in the future of Prince Rupert and expects a considerable extension of the whole business.

Steamer Caught in Ice Pack and Passengers Scramble Thirteen Miles to Shore from Str. Kyle

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S., May 7.—After scrambling for 13 miles over one of the roughest ice packs ever piled up off Sydney Harbor, 12 passengers and 11 members of the crew of the steamer Kyle reached shore Sunday afternoon, making the last few hundred yards in dories which put off to meet them. The steamer Kyle struck very heavy ice floes eight miles off Cranberry and abandoned all efforts to reach here until the wind changes and breaks up the pack. Some 53 passengers had been on board for a month or more since the vessel left St. John's, Newfoundland.

Cannery at Essington Goes up in Smoke with Estimated Loss $100,000

The British American cannery at Port Essington, owned by H. Bell-Irving & Co. Ltd., of Vancouver, was totally destroyed by fire which broke out at 9 o'clock last evening from defective electric wiring. It was impossible to stop the blaze after it was started and the plant, dry and grease-saturated, was soon a mass of flames. Fortunately there was no wind and the boats and adjoining buildings were saved although the gear and nets were all lost. The loss which is estimated at $100,000, it is understood, was well covered with insurance. It includes 11,000 cases of fish of last year's pack.

The plant was being prepared for the salmon canning season which is about to open. At this late date it will be impossible to rebuild for this year but a camp, it is understood, will be continued and the boats will fish as usual. The North Pacific cannery, in the slough, owned by the same company, will put up the fish that would have otherwise been canned at Port Essington.

The British American cannery, which was the largest at Port Essington, has been in operation for nearly thirty years and was located at the east or far end of the town. It was a two line cannery. A. M. Kipp was the manager.

MORRIS CONDON DIED YESTERDAY

Well Known Local Man Expired at New Westminster After Long Illness

Morris Condon died yesterday afternoon at Westminster for which city he left here about ten days ago. Mrs. Condon and son George and W. Burke, a half-brother of deceased's, sailed last night on the Prince George for the south to attend the funeral.

Mr. Condon, who had been in failing health for some months, was about 45 years of age and was a native of California. After having been in San Francisco, he came to Victoria where for many years he was in the hotel business and where he also acted as original promoter and manager of Joe Bailey, one time champion lightweight boxer of Canada. Deceased came to Alice Arm in 1918 and was engaged in the club business there for some time moving about three years ago to Prince Rupert where he assumed the management of the Trail Club which he conducted up to his leaving the city recently. The late Mr. Condon was a member of the local Elks' Lodge.

The funeral, it is understood, will take place in the south, the body to be later shipped to California.

RATE TO ONTARIO FOR COAL FROM ALBERTA

Nine Dollars Quoted When Train Loads Are Taken at One Time

OTTAWA, May 7.—Lower rates on coal from Alberta and the Maritime provinces are in sight, according to a telegram to Senator J. S. McLennan, chairman of the special committee of the senate on fuel supply. Sir Henry Thornton states that the National roads are ready to quote a rate of $9 a ton on Alberta coal leaving in train lots to Ontario and similar consideration to the coal fields of the maritime provinces.

EDMONTON, May 7.—That the lower rate of $9 a ton for Alberta coal to Ontario will not be sufficient to allow any big development in the Ontario market by Alberta is the unanimous opinion of the Edmonton coal operators, commenting on Sir Henry Thornton's announcement.

CALGARY, May 7.—Nine dollars a ton on Alberta coal to Ontario by the C.N.R. is too high by two dollars and would be useless, coal operators say here.

Press For Rights North Country.

All northern residents will do well to get behind the northern members in pressing for the rights of the north in the matter of roads and bridges and other improvements. It is the place where money is needed just now. New settlers are coming in and more will come if they can be assured such improvements as will make for decent living conditions.

Take for instance the Lakelse valley across the river from Terrace. Already a good deal of the land is taken up and being farmed with more or less success. The great handicap against it is the fact that for weeks at a time it is impossible to cross the river. Both that farming district and the Lakelse Hot Springs are handicapped through the lack of a bridge.

While the cost of the bridge would be a good deal, and it is quite easy to understand the reluctance of the government to spend up to $150,000 in one spot, yet the improvement is necessary. The whole Lakelse valley will be one vast agricultural section within a generation and that can be hastened by providing proper facilities.

Trunk Road From Prince George To Coast.

A trunk road from Prince George to Prince Rupert is one of the objectives for which the whole north country must press. We are all interested in it, and so are our members, Hon. T. D. Pattullo and Hon. A. M. Manson. They are in the difficult position of representing the whole province as well as their particular districts. For that reason we have to be always pressing our claims and making sure that we get our full share of the public money that is to be spent.

We strongly favor the building of the road from Burns Lake to Endako and also another part of the same highway in this direction from Terrace. Add to this the commencement of the road out of Prince Rupert and we see the trunk highway under way.

A good deal of the road will have to be much improved before it can be considered of great value but that will be done a little at a time. We must expect it will be some years before we shall be able to drive through to Hazelton or even to Terrace. If we get a proper share of the income derived from the natural resources re-invested in roads and bridges there will be nothing to worry about. If, on the other hand, we are not getting our proper share, it is for us to let the government see that we know it and that we must get fair treatment.

Queer Argument Of Manitoba Minister.

The former Attorney General of Manitoba has taken up the cudgels against British Columbia in the matter of freight rates. He says if we get lower rates the people of Manitoba will have to help pay the loss to the country. If that is the former method of reasoning we do not think much of it. Suppose we are treated unjustly he would have us treated unjustly for all time for fear it might cost him more if we were properly treated. He is willing that Manitoba shall benefit from our disability. If that is former morality, deliver us from a former government in this province. We, in the West, do not wish to benefit from anybody's handicap, but we do want justice.

Rid Ourselves Of All Excesses.

Manitoba is doing one good thing. It has decided to rid itself of the obsolete grand jury system. Like the senate it has come to us from a different age when it may have been needed. Today both the grand jury and the senate might well go along with the indecent and idolatrous system of kissing the Book when administering an oath. Even law and legislative machinery have eventually to give way to modern methods but the old customs die hard and a vigorous kick is necessary to rid the body politic of incumbrances.

It has done wonders for me and I want to recommend it to everyone."

Anthems were sung at the service by the junior choir and the combined junior and senior choirs.

Sport Chat

With the opening games of the season in the Senior and Junior Football Leagues and the Junior Baseball League scheduled to take place this week, outdoor sport for the summer will get under way. The first Senior Football game will be next Friday evening between the Grotto and Callies and the Junior opener will be on Saturday between the High School and Public School. Final plans for the Junior Baseball League had not been perfected at the end of the week but it is understood that the teams will all be organized for the opening game on the McBride Street grounds some time this week. As usual, the baseball leagues are a little later in getting started with opening games scheduled for May 24 in the Senior division and in the intermediate on May 29.

When the first Senior Football game takes place on Friday, the competition for the Jubilee Cup, significant of the city championship, will start. It being arranged this year to have the Stuart Benefit series run through the season interspersed between the league games before and after July 1. The final for the City Cup is scheduled again for July 1, with the play-offs previous to that date. The Gilbey Cup final will be on Labor Day as in the past, followed by the Exhibition series later in September if this competition is to take place again this year. The holders of the football trophies at present are: Mobley Cup, Sons of Canada; City Cup, Callies; Stuart Shield, Sons of Canada. The trophy for the Junior Football League which starts on Saturday is the Rochester Shield. This trophy was won by the Dry Dock team in 1921 and was not in play last year.

The Nickerson Shield, the Senior Baseball trophy, has been won by the Sons of Canada twice and if that club again emerges on top this year it will obtain permanent possession of the silverware. In addition to the Nickerson shield, Spalding watch fobs will go to each of the members of the champion Senior team, Spalding balls will be in use in the games. The Golts Cup, now held by the Grotto club, will be the trophy again for the Intermediate League. Beach balls being used in the games, some trophy is expected from that company as well. The Junior Leaguers, as yet, have no trophy for which to play.

W. J. Alder Sees no Reason For Pessimism: Everything Developing Well

NO PLACE BETTER

Urges Team Work in Carrying on Development of the City

"I cannot see any reason for the depression in people's minds over the future prospects of this city," declared W. J. Alder, who arrived from Victoria on Saturday, in an interview with a Daily News representative this morning. "There is not a bit of cause for pessimism in Prince Rupert. Neither the railway or the government are going to put in money for development work here unless there is somebody to use the facilities, but it is certain that all the facilities will be given as they are needed."

"The whole district is developing with rapid strides, so how can Prince Rupert help from benefiting unless the people are so slow that they will let everything pass their doors to Vancouver? The mining and lumbering activities of the district, to say nothing of fishing and agriculture, will yet make a great city here."

Look to Government

"Personally, I still do not know of a solitary place on the Pacific Coast where I would rather put in money for investment purposes than Prince Rupert. We have got to have teamwork, however, by the citizens for the development of the city and its business. We have got to keep up our optimism and take the lead for business and things will right themselves. The people here have too long looked for the government to do everything and have not done enough for themselves by teamwork."

Mr. Alder said it was a great mistake to put obstacles in the way of Alaskan business especially as regarded the fishing industry. The Alaskan communities should be encouraged to make Prince Rupert their railroad centre and a most friendly spirit should be stimulated. Sir Charles Hays had said, when the Grand Trunk Pacific was under construction, that one of the greatest possibilities for the road lay in the carrying of Alaska trade. Once Prince Rupert was looked upon as the centre of the north country she would commence to get to her feet.

Referring to the recent outflow of population, Mr. Alder said that Prince Rupert had just suffered as Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle and other north coast cities had suffered in losing population to California. There was simply an unusual prosperity in California caused by a building boom. It could not go on forever and the people who had left would be coming back before long, he predicted.

Mr. Alder is spending a few days in the city looking after his many really interests here.

WAS HEALED AT MEETING

Victoria Doctor Pronounces Miss Ruby Dimmick Cured of Curvature

A letter has been received in the city by J. W. Ledlie from Rev. J. F. Dimmick, formerly of this city, telling of the healing of his daughter, Miss Ruby Dimmick at a meeting in the Metropolitan Church, Victoria, during one of Dr. Price's meetings. According to the letter Miss Price had a curvature of the spine, and her right leg was drawn up so that it was an inch and a half shorter than the other. Her ankle joint had gone out and was separated so that there was fluid in the socket. This could be seen by the X-ray. This made the ankle so weak that she could not stand on it alone. She wore steel braces in her shoe to hold her ankle in place. On April 20 she went with her father to the meeting and arrangements were made to pray over her, but before the time came, while the meeting was in progress just after the singing of a hymn the girl turned to her father, threw her arms around him and cried: "Oh, Dad, He's coming to me now; I feel Him through me." She praised and glorified God and thanked Him, and then pointing to the foot said: "Just look at my foot. It is going right out. Look at it." Her father looked and saw it go down into place. Miss Price says she felt her spine suddenly snap into place and she was healed. The following Sunday Dr. Ernest Hall, who had been treating her, called to see her. He examined her spine and foot thoroughly and pronounced her in perfect condition and authorized a public statement to be made of the cure.

The Saving on Shortening

Mrs. G. Z. Edwards writes asking for a recipe, which has been sent. In her letter she says: "You make it easy to patronize home industry. When you announced an improvement in Pacific Milk it seemed like it could not be right, but I find that I save almost half the shortening I was accustomed to use. Actually, with milk, I have to be loyal to the local product, for no other milk seems so rich and certainly Pacific has the most natural flavor."

It would be impossible to mention by name all the kind donors of gifts for the various stalls; but special mention must be made of the Home League of the Salvation Army and the merchants of the city who gave most generously. CRITICIZES BYLAWS Editor Daily News: In answer to the statements made by the Mayor and Chairman of Finance at a public meeting held in the city hall last Friday night, in support of the money bylaws about to be voted on. It was stated by both speakers that if the Booth School by-law was not endorsed by the voters, that $55,000 extra would have to be levied on this year's taxes to pay for the repairs of that school. That statement is incorrect. Last year's council provided about $50,000 from last year's taxes for that work. The School Board this year has provided for the remaining $5,000 in their extraordinary estimates to be raised by the school rates this year. The city council of this year has not to provide one dollar in their general levy for the repairs to Booth School.

increase Debt If this bylaw is indorsed, the city debt will be increased $55,000. We will have to pay 6 per cent interest on that amount for 26 years. This year's council has no right to submit this by-law, the policy of a council capitalizing a previous council's general expenditure should not be endorsed. As a rate-payer, I will vote against this by-law in the best interests of the city. I believe that if last year's council had not spent that money on Booth School, it would have been spent on something else possibly not as useful.

Mays Creek Bridge The rate payers are entitled to more information on this bylaw than has been supplied to them up to the present. In fact, we have no trustworthy information supplied to us, as to plans, cost, or whether the steel bridge contractors have fully relinquished their contracts or not. Rumor

FOUND WONDERFUL RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION BY USING Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills

Constipation is one of the most prevalent troubles the human race is subject to, and is the greatest cause of many of our ailments, for if the bowels cease to perform their proper functions all the other organs will become deranged. Keep your bowels working gently and naturally by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and thus do away with the constipation and all other troubles caused by it. Mrs. A. R. Spence, Springhill, N. S. writes: "I have suffered for some time from constipation, and was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. After taking a trial of them I have found wonderful relief, and would advise all those who are constipated to give them a trial, for I feel sure they will also receive the same benefit I did."

states they have not. We have a right to know why a steel bridge should be substituted with a wooden bridge. The mere piecemeal statements by laymen on such questions is to be deplored. When the city engages experts to advise on such subjects we have a right to hear from them direct.

The way the council has dealt with Hay's Creek bridge question does not appear to me to be good public business, they have wasted about five months of time and now recommend a temporary structure instead of a permanent structure. I consider the difference in price all in favor of the steel bridge and as this question is merely a plebiscite, I shall stay with the steel bridge. W. H. MONTGOMERY.

SHARPEN INTELLIGENCE

Archbishop DuVernet Tells Vancouver Paper of His Experiments

Archbishop DuVernet, now in the city, has carried out a number of experiments of telepathy by means of a pendulum, says an article in the Vancouver World, headed by a photograph of the archbishop.

The archbishop used a green pencil to which a green string with a key tied at the end of it was attached. The simple mechanical contrivance by which the archbishop communicated with other human beings who were in other towns, was a pendulum. He claims that concentration is one of the things that many children lack, and with its absence the work at school becomes more a burden than it should be. From the primitive little instrument the archbishop at present uses for the scientific demonstration of his ideas, there is a very short step to a mechanical machine, which not only could be used to gauge the intellect or the faculty for concentration in children, but also could be of considerable value in sharpening their intelligence by short telepathic lessons.

The device of the equipment, the archbishop uses is this pendulum and is distributed in a sheet of paper on a sheet of paper. The pendulum will be held over the centre of the circle, he shows how upon a given command, without any conscious movement of the arm, the swinging in any direction indicated on the paper. Furthermore, any person standing beside him or 100 miles away from him, in a distance does not exist in these experiments, can by concentration make the pendulum swing in any direction of the thoughts of the person holding the pendulum. Archbishop DuVernet explains that "A thought in my conscious brain sets upon by subconsciousness, which then acts on the nerves and then on the muscles. The movement is indicated by the hand holding the pendulum appears to the naked eye as if it were still."

Provides Proof
The pendulum itself has been known for about one hundred years, the scientific proof of the force of thought has never been made. During recent years Archbishop DuVernet has carried out a number of experiments and has even gone so far as to register the various positions of the pendulum to the different letters.

With the proof of these experiments is evident, he contends, that all thoughts, or at any rate, subconscious thoughts, are part of a great human complexity. "We constantly receive messages from this immense complex of which we are but a part. It explains why at times a person simultaneously can be away by a uniform. It also explains the fact that many minds have worked out scientific truths at the same time, the genius who first expressed for it in history, given the entire credit to himself."

Prevents Chaos
This is so, could a law-abiding man who was accused of some crime, engage a group of strong minded men, to deliberate upon the jury, during the counsel for the accused made his speech, and by the thought, "He is not guilty," by a telepathic trick, convince the jury that such was the case, and eventually free the accused, he was asked, "Oh, no, that could never be done at all," the Archbishop answered. "There is something that I call the 'barrier of the mind,' a power which guards against unsound conviction. If we were so sensitive to other people's thoughts, the world would be a chaos."

At the convocation of the Anglican Theological College in Vancouver last week Archbishop DuVernet conferred the degree of Bachelor of Divinity on Rev. J. Goddard, B.A., the first student of the college to receive this honor.

Dead Town Very Seldom Recovers

Community That is Not Prosperous Cannot Attract New Residents

IS LIKE BIG CORPORATION

People Are Stockholders and When They Spend Their Money Away From Home They Deplete Its Capital

There is nothing deader than a dead town. Try as hard as it may to conceal the fact, the truth is written all over it so that he who runs may read. No camouflage of bluff and bluster can conceal the true situation from anyone who comes within the limits of the community. A dead town is dead and that's all there is to it.

The worst of it is that once a town dies it stays dead. There have been exceptional cases in which dead towns have been revived, have taken on new life and prospered, but these are merely the exceptions that prove the rule.

The fact that a town can seldom "come back" is easily explained. The growing and prosperous town today is the one that can attract new residents and new capital. It is one that can offer attractive inducements for the location of new industries. The dead town offers no attraction to outside capital. A man looking for a place to launch a new business or a new location for an old industry, is not going to pick out a dead town. He is going to select a town in which money is plentiful, a town whose business men are progressive and whose residents, as a whole, are prosperous and contented. There are too many live and thriving towns in the world for a man to risk his future in one that is dead. This is the reason that a town, once dead, almost always remains dead.

There is just one thing, ordinarily, that kills a town in the first place and that is a lack of money. A town is just like a corporation and the money possessed by its inhabitants is its capital. If this capital is depleted the town will fail just as the corporation, whose capital is depleted through poor management or other causes, fails. And just as the corporation which has once failed can seldom retrieve its lost fortunes, the town which has failed cannot often "come back."

The capital of a community is depleted when its money is spent away from home in a way that brings no return benefit to the community. It takes no great amount of thought to be able to realize that the town, like the individual, cannot last long, if it is paying out more money than it takes in. That does not mean that a prosperous town is one in which the people do not spend any money. On the contrary, a prosperous town is one in which the people do spend money, but it is one in which they spend the money at home. As long as the money is spent at home the town gains by having it kept in circulation, but when it is spent away from home, either by being sent to the mail order houses or by shopping trips to other cities, the town's capital is impaired to that extent and if enough money is spent away from home in that way, the town collapses and virtually goes into bankruptcy just as does the corporation which dissipates its capital.

The people of a community are apt to overlook the fact that they are stockholders in their town and that their fortunes are bound up with those of the community as a whole. They do not realize that if their town fails they will fail with it. They—or many of them at least—send their money away to the mail order houses in the great cities, without realizing that they are impairing the capital of their own corporation and that if enough of them pursue that course they will force their corporation into certain bankruptcy.

The home merchant will not be the only one that will be hurt when the town "goes broke." The merchant can reduce his stock and cut down his expenses and get along some way or he can sell out and move to some other town which has not been so blind to its own welfare. It is the great body of the people of the community, including all those who have sent their money away to other cities instead of spending at home, that suffers most when the hard times come.

Wicked old New York, its unsavory dives, its white lights, its cafes and cabarets, is shown as a voracious dragon slaying all adventurers in the screen version of F. Scott Fitzgerald's novel, "The Beautiful and Damned," featuring Marie Prevost, which will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight.

Especially the New York between Forty second and Seventy-second Streets on one side, and Fifth Avenue and Broadway on the other, where all the theatres and cabarets are centered, and where is found the most motley collection of humanity ever thrown and huddled into one spot.

Gloria Gilbert, the beautiful flapper, and Anthony Pateh, the idle young man waiting for his grandfather to die and leave his millions, are shown swept into the vortex of these cruel streets thronged with sharpers, criminals, adventurers and demi-mondaines, where harlot and virgin jostle each other, where clerk and millionaire rub elbows, where beggars gaze enviously at the gorgeous splendor of diamonded overdressed ladies.

The picture, an adaptation from F. Scott Fitzgerald's novel of the same name, is the story of Gloria and Anthony and their adventures in the maelstrom of madness that is New York at night. They live riotously but the day of reckoning comes when they are discovered by their grandfather during a wild party at their home, and disinherited. As high as they have flown in pleasure, as deeply are they plunged into poverty and wretchedness, and their mutual salvation brings on the strong climax of the picture.

ROBIN HOOD HAS AN UNUSUALLY LONG RUN

VICTORIA, May 1.—The Fairbanks play Robin Hood is being shown a second week at the Capitol Theatre. A second week's run in a city this size is a most unusual thing. It indicates some unusual condition. Manager Robertson has had much success with this picture that he has made special arrangements to keep the film a second week instead of returning it to the exchange.

TINY DUST PARTICLES SIX MILLION TO INCH

CHICAGO, May 4.—It requires more than 6,000,000 tiny dust particles to cover a glass plate one inch square according to investigators at the Structural Materials Research Laboratory of the Lewis Institute here.

Although it would seem a hopeless task to count these millions of dust particles and measure their exact size, these Lewis Institute investigators have carried out a series of tests in which these operations were performed.

STRONG MESSAGE HAS 'NICE PEOPLE'

New William de Mille Picture Not a Sermon, However

Cocktail drinking, promiscuous flirting, "crap shooting," and the wearing of daring feminine clothes, used to mark the doers as "fast." But not in this day of "jazz." Nowadays really "nice people" do all these things without censure.

The danger of this attitude, with particular reference to young girls, forms the theme of "Nice People," William de Mille's latest Paramount picture which comes to the Westholme Theatre at the week-end.

"Nice People" isn't a sermon. It's a particularly entertaining story with a fascinating romance and real dramatic power. But with these it carries a powerful theme directed against the attitude of a large portion of modern society.

An all-star cast headed by Wallace Reid, Bebe Daniels, Conrad Nagel and Julia Faye portrays this story which was adapted by Clara Beranger from Rachel Crothers' play of the same name.

WEDDING BELLS TO RING ON WEDNESDAY

The picture, Wedding Bells, featuring Constance Talmadge is based on the hasty marriage of Rosalie and Reginald. After two days of wedded life, a most trifling incident causes Rosalie to become angered and she runs away, fully expecting her heart-broken husband to follow. All would have been well had Reggie not been stricken with a most irritating case of measles and confined to his bed. To follow was impossible, so Rosalie goes to Europe to forget and then to Reno to get a divorce.

The separation is not lasting, however, when each discovers that the other should not be married to any one else.

The picture will be seen here Wednesday.

GRAZING
Grazing Act, 1919, for systematic development of livestock industry, provides for grazing districts and range administration under Commissioner. Annual grazing permits issued based on numbers raised, priority for established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free or partially free permits for settlers, campers or travelers, up to ten head.

"THE STREET SINGER" WILL BE TITLE OF NEW PICKFORD PLAY

HOLLYWOOD, May 7.—After considering several hundred titles submitted in a contest within her own organization, Mary Pickford has decided that "The Street Singer," which was the first name to be presented is most suitable for her new photoplay.

This picture—a colorful romance, highly dramatic, built against a background of early early nineteenth century Spain—has been in the course of production at the Pickford-Fairbanks studios in Hollywood for the past eight weeks, and summer will probably be well spent before the film is complete.
