CANDID SPEECH MADE BY AFRICAN PREMIER

DISTURBANCES THROUGHOUT GERMANY; REPUBLICANS LOSING IN RHINELAND

Rhineland Republicans are Losing Ground but Much Rioting Reported

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Reports received in Berlin indicate that Rhineland republicans are losing ground, says a despatch to the Central News this afternoon. They have been ejected from Coblenz, the message stated and nine persons were killed. The republicans were driven from Dusseldorf and Greifeld, the despatch adds. Half a dozen were killed and scores were wounded as the loyalists regained possession of Aix-le-Chapelle.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—Heavy fighting is reported in advance advices from Hamburg this morning to be proceeding in the populous Barneck district north-east of that city. From numerous parts of Germany reports of strikes and rioting are reported. At Erfurt street fighting followed demonstrations, one policeman being killed and two injured in addition to other casualties. At St. Grimma, Saxony, fighting occurred and at Annaburg, Saxony, the communists occupied the town hall.

PREMIER URGES PROTECT HOME BANK DEPOSITS

Acts Quickly in Response to Petition From Miners at Coal Creek

VICTORIA, Oct. 24.—Premier Oliver has written to Hon. W. S. Fielding, acting premier at Ottawa, urging him to take whatever steps he can to protect the depositors in the defunct Home Bank. The premier's action followed the receipt of a petition from the residents of Coal Creek near Fernie asking him to request Ottawa to have the Home Bank depositors paid the amount of their deposits.

FIRE FAILED HIDE TRAGEDY

Woman, Five Children and Man Lose Lives Probably From Man's Act

BEND, Oregon, Oct. 23.—After killing his sister, her baby daughter, and his own three children, Eli Chasse, a French Canadian farmer of Deschutes, Ore., set fire to his home and then ended his own life by shooting.

The coroner's jury gave a verdict yesterday that death was caused by parties unknown, following the discovery of charred bones in the burnt house showing the wounds were caused by a bloodstained hammer found in the burnt house.

FISH CAMPAIGN BEING STARTED

Grant of Ten Thousand Dollars Made Toward Fund to be Raised

OTTAWA, Oct. 24.—A campaign to increase the consumption of fish and to stimulate the Canadian fisheries is being fostered by the Canadian government and a grant of $10,000 for publicity and educational work along this line this year has been made with the approval of the privy council. This amount will be taken from the vote for conservation and development of the fisheries.

While it is expected to extend the campaign for three years, a preliminary six months campaign is being conducted. It is being carried on along co-operative lines, all fish firms and dealers contributing.

Premier Smuts Makes Sensational Speech in which he Scolds Three Nations and Urges Conference

GETTING LIFE INTO DRY BONES

Opposition to Oliver is Now Concentrating on Conservative Party

(Special to Daily News)
VANCOUVER, Oct. 24.—What is to be done to down the Oliver Government? That is a question that has been worrying Conservatives for some time. At the last Conservative convention an attempt was made to ditch Mr. Bowser and bring H. H. Stevens into the position of leadership, in the hope that he would lead the party to the promised land of power. It failed.

The next move was to form a provincial party that would sweep the province on non-party lines and oust the present regime. That failed. At first it was acclaimed by the Conservative newspapers in double headlines, but today it is relegated to similar positions given a ladies' aid society report.

Having ditched the provincial group, the next step was to get life into the old Conservative dry bones. Backers of the movement have been found and, with a proper sized sack, there was no difficulty in getting a good organizer. Joe Merrifield, formerly of Prince Rupert, said to be a master of the organizing art, has been secured and has already commenced the work. He is to be the spark of life that will set the Conservative machine once more revolving. He is on the job and the old guard Tories are sitting back watching for things to begin to move.

The announcement of John Oliver that there will be no election for some time has put somewhat of a wet blanket on the movement, but yet it is thought the new money sack is deep enough to carry the party on even until next year when Oliver and Bowser will once more go to the mat, the result of the contest meaning political life or death to one of them.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Premier Smuts of South Africa, attending the Imperial Conference here, handled the European situation without gloves. Speaking at a dinner attended by the South African delegation, Smuts attacked France for her policy and warned Great Britain and the United States against any "excessive generosity" in the remission of inter-allied war debts, which might aid in further militarizing the continent.

The South African premier asserted he had not only the right but the plain duty to speak frankly. He declared that a gallant attempt to save Europe without patching or temporizing was necessary and this could be done only through a conference of the powers mainly interested in the reparations question. The situation was too desperate to be dealt with by subordinate authorities or even a reparations commission or council of the league of nations.

The speech created a great sensation here.

FIRST DIVORCE FOR KLONDIKE

Mrs. Margaret Erskine Thornback Secures Release From Capt. Thornback

DAWSON, Oct. 24.—The first divorce case ever tried in the Klondike court concluded yesterday with the granting of a decree nisi to Margaret Erskine Thornback against her husband Capt. Charles Rodney Thornback. John Black, who was acting judge in the absence of Mr. Justice McAulay for the winter, found that Mrs. Thornback had a sound claim on statutory grounds to a divorce from her husband and the custody of her two children.

The Thornbacks were married in England in 1916. No defence was entered.

Police Raids in Victoria bring Number of Illicit Liquor Vendors into Close Contact with the Law

VICTORIA, Oct. 24.—The proprietors of two downtown hotels, two clubs and nine blind pig resorts were caught in a police dragnet here last night as the result of a series of raids carried out under the personal direction of chief John Fry. The men arrested were charged with selling beer or whiskey and were released on bail of $250 each.

Proposal to Divide Alaska is to be Voted on and Convention is Called to Meet November 15

JUNEAU, Oct. 24.—A concerted effort is being made throughout the panhandle of Alaska to have that section divided from the rest of Alaska and made into a separate territory. Preparations are being made here for a civic election on Tuesday, November 6, with a view to taking the opinions of the voters upon the question, the city council having unanimously adopted it.

A convention has been called to sit here on November 15, at which every section of the territory interested will be represented. One delegate to every 300 voters will be allowed. This gives Juneau a delegation of four, last year's registration being 935.

Names of possible delegates are being taken by the city council and if the proposal is endorsed by the electors on the Fifth, the delegates will be chosen from among the names filed.

The movement for dividing the territory started in Ketchikan where it was pointed out that southeastern Alaska had nothing in common with the rest of the territory and by dividing they would have better control of their own affairs.

ELECTION ON AT WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Oct. 24.—Undaunted by the first storm of the season voters of North Winnipeg bye-election went to the polls today when a heavy poll was indicated.

The election followed the appointment of Hon. E. J. McMurray to the position of solicitor general, whose elevation to the cabinet has to be confirmed by his constituents. The minister is being opposed by Alderman A. A. Heaps, independent labor candidate, who is his chief opponent. J. A. Larman, labor with affiliation, and Paul Gigejosuk, independent, are also running.

KU KLUX KLAN WINS FIGHT IN UNITED STATES

Governor Walton Who Defied It is Impeached by Legislature and Deposed

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 24.—Governor Walton was impeached by the Legislature and suspended from office by a special bill adopted yesterday which charges him with corrupt practices. The meeting of the legislature was forbidden by the governor, but upheld in a plebiscite of the states electors. The action is an aftermath of an old quarrel over the governor's action against the Ku Klux Klan.

MAY BE DELAY SCHOONER RACE

Columbia Not Likely to Arrive in Halifax in Time to Race Saturday

UP TO THE COMMITTEE

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 24.—An accident which prevented the sailing for Halifax yesterday of the schooner Columbia, the United States challenger for the international fisheries trophy now held by the Nova Scotia schooner Bluenose, may cause postponement of the first race of this year's international series scheduled to take place off Halifax on Saturday. The Columbia returned to port after she had started for Halifax.

The American race committee, it was stated last night, will not ask for postponement, as the Columbia will be under the jurisdiction of an international committee made up of three members from the country in which the race is being held, and two from the challenger's country.

It is expected that if the Columbia reaches Canada too late to get her rig ready for Saturday the committee will order postponement for a day or two.

Have We Time For Cultural Subjects?

In a new city under more or less crude conditions almost the whole time of the community is devoted to making a living and to changing the place from a backwoods village into a modern city. There is little time for music and art and literature. People's thoughts turn more to action than to culture. The men prefer poker and the women a game of bridge rather than reading or listening to beautiful music. The jazz craze still has us by the heels and it shows itself in all phases of our busy life.

Yet in spite of this there is a haven that is gradually spreading and affecting the whole community with a desire for better things. There is a musical society that in a small way tries to induce the study of the masters of the musical art. There is a library where some of the best things in literature are offered free of cost for the taking. There are also many individuals and groups who yearn for the best there is in life and who, although far removed from the centres, spend much time in keeping in touch with cultural subjects.

As the city grows and people who are established here find they have more leisure, the tendency toward the cultivation of the arts will increase and Prince Rupert will take her place among the best. As it is, there is a very large percentage of well educated men and women in the city. The difficulty is that often the people who have been used to better things find it the most difficult to make a living. The result is fatal to their aspirations, for making a living is the first necessity.

Feeling Old Is A Crime.

None of us can stay the hands of time. Age is constantly creeping on us and we all know that the reaper with his scythe awaits us somewhere along the route and that he is always active. These are not things to ponder over too much, however. They tend to make us old. The duty of the average man or woman is to make the marks of time a mellowing influence.

It is said that man is as old as he feels and woman as old as she looks. This is true and so is its converse. There is no need for any of us to feel old or look old. Our looks will be very largely the effect of how we feel. We can all cultivate the youthful feeling and the buoyancy of spirits that comes of perfect health of mind and body. The Gone fad was but a passing one, yet the Gone principle was absolutely correct. We are largely creatures of our own imagination and as long as we imagine ourselves young and well and happy we shall continue to be so.

British Policy Proves Interesting.

There is much speculation as to what the effect of the suggested new British protectionist policy will be. If the Unionist party of Britain decides to stand for protection, as is forecasted in the despatches, it seems as if it might have the effect of throwing together all the opponents of protection into a strong free trade party. The two Liberal groups and the labor group would have a bond of union that would make them strong with the country and possibly may carry them to power.

On the other hand it must be remembered that industrial conditions in Britain are at a very low ebb. There is much unemployment in the country and the panacea of protection may at this time appeal to the workers. The backers of the protectionist party will point to United States and Canada as examples where there is today no unemployment and where wages are high and industry is flourishing. They will say: "These are the results of protection; while at home we have the results of free trade." Just what will be the outcome of such a campaign no one can foresee. It will possibly result in the present government being returned to power with a strong protectionist mandate.

SCHOOL AFFAIRS SHOW PROGRESS

Considerable Improvements in Buildings and Opening of New Divisions

GOOD WORK BEING DONE BY TEACHERS

Inspector Fraser Reports First Attempt at Consolidation Made in District

While there are not many new schools being opened in the Prince Rupert inspectorate this year, there have been considerable improvements in buildings and several new divisions have been opened at the larger centres stated H. C. Fraser, school inspector, in an interview yesterday afternoon. The first attempt at consolidation in the district has been carried this year at Telkwa on a small scale where the students from Tye Lake and other nearby points are transported to the centre school, a second division having been opened there. Mr. Fraser hopes that consolidation will also be effected at Bella Coola this year of the three schools—Mackenzie, Bella Coola and Lower Bella Coola—which are five miles apart.

Mr. Fraser is especially pleased with the work that is being done by the teachers in the district. He states that there are more first class teachers in the inspectorate this year than ever before and many of them are showing great promise. There are also a few University graduates who are doing excellent work. There is not one teacher in the entire district holding a temporary certificate. A large proportion of the teachers are men and the majority of them hold first class certificates.

High school work is being carried on in many of the smaller public schools and the teachers are co-operating in a splendid manner by giving extra time to the work.

New Schools

A new school has been authorized at Dorreen near Pacific and it will be opened about November 1. Miss Irene Kelleher, formerly of Usk, is coming from Matsqui to take charge.

Aiyansh has just obtained its first school with Miss Christina Anderson of Victoria in charge.

A new school has been applied for at Perow between Telkwa and Burns Lake.

A new three-room school is now under construction at Burns Lake and it is hoped to open a new division after Christmas. It is also the hope of the residents there to obtain the eight pupils requisite for the establishment of a Superior School. There are already five High School students there.

Uk School Opened

Uk opened its new two room school at the first of the present term.

A new one room school is being built at Streatham on Ootsa Lake. For the past six months classes have been held there in temporary quarters.

New $1,500 one-room schools will be built at Forestdale and Francois Lake it is expected. Hitherto the Anglican Church buildings have been used at both these points.

A new school is also under construction at Kispiox where temporary quarters are now being used.

Smithers High School

The new one room High School at Smithers has been opened and also a new division in the public school.

Stewart has attained the status of a Superior school and there are now two Public School divisions there.

Ocean Falls has opened a second division in the High School.

The High School and Public School have been separated at Anyox.

The school at Grassy Plains between Ootsa and Francois Lakes has been closed because of low attendance.

A. Prince, fisherman, is contemplating the erection of a $3,000 six-room semi-detached style residence in the west end of Section Two.

Michael Snow was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate McGlymont yesterday afternoon in the police court on a charge of intoxication under the Indian Act.

Nova Scotia Interior as Moose Pasture

Nova Scotia is a country of lakes and streams, offering many ideal canoe trips, and the interior is a great moose pasture. Ideal, too, is the moose hunting, because both the canoe and automobile are used by hunters and guides, thus saving many miles of weary hiking through the wilderness. On the Liverpool chain of lakes reached from South Milford via Annapolis Royal or Digby, and on Lake Kedegamakooke, Lake Rossignol, Lake Munro, Loon Lake and the Liverpool River expert Indian and white guides use the canoes for long distances and even call the moose to the shore with their birch bark horns. When some distant point is to be reached from "Del" Thomas' South Milford camp, canoes, guides, hunters and duffle are loaded upon a big motor truck for the journey.

South Milford is 15 miles from Annapolis Royal and is a favorite outfitting point. So is the Kedegamakooke Rod and Gun Club, on famous Lake Kedegamakooke, in the heart of the wilderness 36 miles from Annapolis Royal. Both of these camps have ample accommodations and plenty of canoes and reliable guides.

The Nova Scotian moose season lasts from Oct. 1 to Nov. 15. Deer are as plentiful as moose, and the open season for this game lasts from Oct. 16 to Nov. 31.

Although the moose season is short each year, many with magnificent "spreads," the annual increase is said to equal the kill. Such guides as Louis Harlow, half-breed Micmac and Sam Globe, full-blooded Indian, are expert moose callers and stalkers and rarely disappoint the hunter. The cleverness with which they simulate the call of the cow moose with a simple roll of birch bark fashioned into a horn, is sure to fool the wisest old bull in the wilderness. When the calling season is past, the moose no longer comes to the hunter and the hunter must go to him. Neither canoe, nor automobile figures much in this phase of moose hunting except that one, or both, may help the hunter near the place where the quarry is supposed to be and carry him home when the hunt is over.

Paul Allen and J. Ryan, Indians, were each fined $15 and costs by Magistrate McClymont in the police court this morning for drunkenness. Anthony Adams, answering to a similar charge, was assessed $10. The cases were under the Indian Act.

W. A. Found, assistant deputy minister of fisheries, Ottawa, and Major J. A. Motherwell, chief inspector of fisheries, Vancouver, passed through this morning on the fisheries protection steamer Givenchy bound for Vancouver after visiting the Naas River.

Carl Gustavsen, who was sentenced yesterday afternoon by Judge Young to serve nine months at Okalla prison for having stolen goods in his possession, was taken south on the Gardena last evening by Special Constable George Crate. Before being sentenced yesterday, Gustavsen told Judge Young that he had been in Canada for six years, having beat his way across from Shelby, Montana, without going before immigration officials.

EXAMPLES OF MIND MESSAGES

Number of Testimonies to Ability to Communicate With Absent Friends

FEELING A PRESENCE

Message Through Subconscious Mind May Affect Optic Vision and Cause Sight

(By F. H. DuVernet, Archbishop of Caledonia)

One result of publishing an account of my scientific experiments in radio-mind has been the receiving of a number of telepathic testimonies from far and wide. A classified selection of these is due to the cause of science.

An Episcopal clergyman in the United States writes that on several occasions, when absent from his house and, visiting in his parish, his wife, by telepathy, has succeeded in getting him to call her by telephone.

A Presbyterian minister in Western Canada says that when his wife has forgotten to give him a commission to buy something while down town she has sent him a thought message and he has gone to a shop and asked for the needed article.

Thought Messages

A wireless telegrapher in England testifies that several times he has arranged with his wife at a distance to write down at a pre-arranged moment the thought which then comes to her, and it has usually coincided with the thought he has sent her.

My nephew in Ireland writes that at an inquest recently held near where he lives the following facts were given under oath: A father and son were in a boat which capsized not far from the shore. At that moment the wife and mother, some miles from the spot, told another son who was at home what had happened. This son gathered together a crew and arrived at the scene in time to rescue his father, but his brother was drowned.

Shot in Breast

A woman in Alberta who had a son in charge of a machine gun at the front had the following experience during the war. Whether asleep or awake at the time she does not know, but she found herself loading a machine gun, though she knew nothing about its mechanism. After she had loaded it she sat down behind it. Suddenly there was a sharp pang in her breast. She put her hand up and as she drew it away she saw it was dripping with blood. Later she received word that her son had loaded his machine gun, and having been given the command not to fire until ordered, he sat down behind it and while in this position was shot in the breast and killed.

Felt His Presence

A friend in Ontario, who is an earnest Christian woman, writes: "My brother Maurice was very ill in Alberta and we were receiving daily telegrams reporting progress. We heard one day that there had been a change for the better. That night I was awakened by feeling that he was beside my bed saying: 'I have just come to say goodbye.' I thought that I would say nothing about it to anyone, but in the morning my mother said to me: 'Maurice was in my room last night. I felt as though I could almost see him.' Some time after this I ran across the daughter of an old lady with whom my brother had boarded when he was in a bank in a small eastern town, and referring to that same eventful night she said that her mother, whom she was nursing, was very ill. The next morning her mother said to her,

WRIGLEYS

Take it home to the kids. Have a packet in your pocket for an ever-ready treat.

A delicious confection and an aid to the teeth, appetite, digestion.

Maurice was here last night and wanted me to go away with him. They had not then heard that my brother was ill, but a little later in the day the banker came to tell them that he had died that night.

In all these examples we observe that there was communion of spirit aided by sympathetic relationship. There is a remarkable difference in the degree of receptivity as well as in the power of concentration. The importance of the message has an evident bearing on this. In the first three cases the message was trivial, in the last three it was tragic.

Mind Energy

There is nothing magical or superstitious about these telepathic experiences. The vast majority of people are slaves to the thought that the same body cannot be in two different places at the same time, but his law applies only to a material body, and mind energy is a spiritual entity, where it acts there it is, regardless of distance in space.

When we have indisputable proof that our friend's mind energy is penetrating our subconscious mind and influencing us, as my experiments have scientifically demonstrated, we are quite right in saying that we feel the presence of this friend. This is not a delusion. In very truth he is "nearer than hands and feet" because the energy of his mind, which is the essence of his personality, is active within us.

Seeing Mentally

When a material object or sound stimulates our optic or auditory nerve, and this nerve conveys the movement through a series of nerves to our physical brain and the vibration in our brain cells awakens our spiritual perception we say that we "see" this object, or "hear" this sound. Instead of the stimulus coming from without through the physical senses it can come from within through the subconscious mind, especially when two persons are in perfect communion of spirit. It is possible for us to think and see and hear and feel in utero in complete union with our sympathetic friend. Of course it is very seldom that such perfect communion can be attained in this life, but there are various degrees leading up to this, until we enter into the fullness of the fellowship of the Spirit of God.

When St. Paul, a prisoner in Rome, wrote to the Colossian Christians: "Though I am absent in the flesh yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness in your faith in Christ," he was not simply using a metaphor of speech, he was expressing a psychological fact. His physical body was in Rome, but his mind energy was in Colossae, operative in the subconscious minds of his sympathetic friends.

LOCAL HALIBUT BOAT MAKES GOOD PASSAGE UP TO KODIAK ISLAND

M. M. Christopher Goes North With Crew for Cedric which Will Return to Port

Covering the 4,000 miles distance from this port in eight days in spite of stormy weather and making a call at Ketchikan en route, the local halibut schooner Mary Christopher, Capt. Henry Hendricksen, reached Kodiak Island yesterday with Capt. Hughie Miller and crew of six who will take over the schooner Cedric which will return to this port after being away for a year or so. On the way here, the Cedric, which is owned by local interests, will fish and it is expected she will have a catch to market when she arrives.

ALICE ARM

Camp buildings at the Homestake mine are now completed and development work is proceeding with very satisfactory results.

Sixteen men are working at F. Miller's logging camp where logs are being taken out for the Big Bay mill at Georgetown. A big boom of 26 sections is now ready to be towed south.

Several Alice Arm people have joined the Anyox Moose Lodge and it is possible a branch of the order may be established here before long.

Another shipment of thirty tons of ore is being made from the Esperanza mine.

Harry Owen has returned from Vancouver and expects to spend the winter here.

Mrs. J. Johnson and family have arrived here from Greenwood to join Mr. Johnson who is contracting at the Homestake mine.

Provincial Constable Harry Martin of Prince Rupert spent last week here and then left for Stewart.

GERMAN-MADE ZEPPELIN IS TO FLY SOON

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The German built airship ZR 3 under construction in German yards, is expected to make her trial flight next month. It is planned to have her fly direct from Friedrichshafen to the United States, after which she will be placed in the passenger and mail service between New York and London under a two-day schedule. Her home hangar will be at Lakehurst, New Jersey.

Under Allied regulations forbidding Germany to build for war purposes, the ZR 3 is designed for commercial use. She will have the space and equipment to carry in addition to her own crew of 24 men 30 passengers with their baggage.

The seating and sleeping arrangements compare favorably with the finest American Pullman cars. These quarters are arranged in the main cabin, which is rigidly secured to the keel under the forward end of the ship. The passenger cabin is also equipped with a modern kitchen fitted with electrical stoves. The guest room is divided into five compartments, each compartment seating five persons comfortably. The windows are large, so as to give the passengers an excellent view of the world beneath.

Mile a Minute
Four engines of 100 horsepower each will drive the big vessel at a maximum speed of about 80 miles an hour. Carrying more than 33 tons of petrol, together with oil and spare parts, water and provisions for passengers and crew, the ZR 3 will have at her ordinary speed of a

MAGISTRATE SLATES RED AGITATORS WHO URGE MEN TO CRIME

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The Thames police magistrate made some pertinent remarks in sentencing a man to four weeks' imprisonment. "One could not help," he said, "having some pity for men like the prisoner. You are," he added, addressing him, "made to believe that you are the victims of the social order. The whole world is suffering the terrible sequel of the war, and the thing that fills me with burning indignation is that the men who live by inflaming your passions and put you in the position that you are in today, keep a whole hide and their personal freedom. Do you really think you are free to kick police officers and imprison citizens without restraint?"

OBJECTED TO WASTE ON AMERICAN WARSHIP

German Reporters Cared Little For Guns and Armament But Much For Food

DANZIG, Oct. 24.—A group of German newspapermen recently visited the United States cruiser Pittsburgh in this harbor, and joined in saying the most astonishing thing they saw was the tossing overboard of a quantity of white bread left from the noonday meal of the crew. "It was the first white bread most of us had seen in years," one reporter declared.

None of the visitors wrote much about the cruiser's armament. It was the kitchens, the food and ways of serving meals that held their attention.

ROYAL PURPLE CARD PARTY AND DANCE IS AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The Ladies of the Royal Purple were responsible for one of the most enjoyable and successful affairs held this season in their bridge and whist drive and dance held last evening in the Elks' Home. There were seventeen tables of whist, 15 tables of bridge, and some 200 persons enjoyed the dance that followed the card playing. The splendid refreshments served were a feature.

Mrs. Gillen and G. E. Gullek were first prize winners at bridge, consolation awards going to Mrs. R. P. Ponder and R. P. Ponder. Mrs. J. S. Johnson won the first prize at whist and Mrs. W. Shaw the consolation, the winners of the men's prizes being A. Akersberg and John Bulger Sr.

Mrs. H. F. Glassey and Mrs. B. F. Self comprised the card committee and Mrs. C. H. Elkins and Mrs. W. Reid were in charge of refreshments.

Pryce's Orchestra furnished the music for the dance, Chris Elkins was master of ceremonies and W. H. Derry was on the door. J. Howe won a pair of bath towels raffled by the lodge.

CABINET OF SILVER PRESENTED J. WEIR

A presentation of a beautiful cabinet of silverware was made last night by the staff of the Rupert Table Supply and the Universal Trading Co. to one of their members, J. Weir, who is about to be married tomorrow to Miss Ruby Casey. The gathering took place at the home of Mrs. Tupper, Thompson Street, where an enjoyable evening was spent.

George Spike acted as spokesman for the party and made the presentation in a neat speech. In receiving it, Mr. Weir was so taken by surprise that his tongue almost failed him and he was able only to express his appreciation in faltering words.

On the previous evening a number of ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Tupper, the occasion being a miscellaneous shower for the bride to be. Miss Casey received a great many beautiful presents for her new home.

PET SHEEP HERE

Maggie Arrives From Osland and Seems Quite at Home on Vacant Lot

Maggie, the pet of Osland, Smith Island, arrived in port yesterday afternoon by power boat in care of V. Grimson, consigned to Fuller & Atkins. Maggie is a pet sheep and seems quite at home in her new pasture situated opposite to the Atkins' store. The sheep has created much interest to the passers by. As to Maggie's final disposition no decision has yet been made but it has been suggested that a raffle will be her final undoing. This is one of a flock of sheep which is being reared on Smith Island. From experiments already made, it has been proved conclusively that sheep do particularly well on the island and this is fully borne out by the prime appearance of the first arrival. It is the intention

The Grotto Athletic Club has just about completed arrangements for the presentation of a real live card of boxing to local fans at a tournament which is to take place on the evening of November 5. There will be six bouts to a decision with the headliner a six three minute round affair between Tommy Sherman and Tommy Fraser. The former has been well known to local fans for some years and young Fraser has been coming on rapidly of late. It will be the first formal meeting between the two and should prove a great attraction. R. B. Skinner of the Fire Hall and Bert Morgan have been taking an active part in putting on the tournament and local enthusiasts of the fisticle art, with memories of several snappy affairs last winter, will undoubtedly reward their efforts with a good measure of patronage. Conducted along the proper lines, events such as these will be appreciated by the local sporting public generally.

United States and British navy seaplanes engaged in an international race at Cowes for the Schneider Cup. The contest was a poor one and the Americans were easy winners. The French Navy was also to have entered a couple of machines but both met with mishap before the race. The lighter floats used by the Americans were a responsible factor in their victory. Both were Curtiss machines. The winner, piloted by Lieut. Rittenhouse, had an average of 177 miles an hour which was 20 miles an hour more than the best British boat. The second American machine was only four miles an hour behind the first.

Referring to the recent battle between Georges Carpentier and Joe Beckett, the Manchester Guardian says:

"Beckett's last fight will certainly be historic. If he retires with a heavy purse he retires with a heavier heart. It was said that he cried afterwards, and if this is true it would not be out of keeping with the picture. As he stood up to Carpentier Beckett looked like an ox pitted against a tiger. The helpless remark he made after the fight: 'I am sorry; he was too quick for me,' was pathetically true. The vast multitude, which had remained breathless and bewildered, at last recovered its sense of realities, and burst into an ugly boogie of Joe Beckett. Rage, disappointed appetite, and perhaps a spurious feeling of national humiliation combined to produce an outburst of rather beastly emotion. A frantic woman screamed: 'And this is British!' Disgust was stamped on the faces of the men."

BOOTLEG JOINTS ARE FOUND IN BERLIN

Take Place of all Night Cafes Which are Being Repressed: Banker's Place Used

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—Since reformers started out recently to put an end to the all night cafe life in Berlin, ingenious bootleggers have conceived all sorts of schemes to outwit the police. Despite the regulations, all-night cafes have been exceedingly popular here, and bring in handsome profits for their managers. Clandestine cabarets and drinking places have been springing up like mushrooms, chiefly for the benefit of profiteers and their friends who usually do not feel like going to their homes when ousted by the police at midnight.

from the downtown licensed cafes. The bootlegging joints are easily found. To the late diners in the regulation cafes, the addresses of the secret resorts usually come unsolicited in whispers from the waiters. Many of these waiters have an interest in the illicit places, or else receive fees regularly for their "good will."

Six weeks ago Karl Schlesinger a banker, left his apartment in a fashionable part of Berlin and started on a long planned vacation with his family in an automobile. When he returned a policeman answered the door bell instead of the butler. Schlesinger's supply of champagne, Rhine wines, liquors and cigars were gone, and his butler and servants were in jail accused of having operated a full fledged all night resort.

CHURCH PAYS FINE TO KING OF ENGLAND

Was Imposed During Reign of Henry VIII. For Allowing Pilgrims to Come

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The record for a long distance fine appears to belong to the office of vicar of the Church of Our Lady of Willesden, which ancient edifice stands in one of London's suburbs, for that personage is required to pay an annual contribution of one pound, two shillings and a sixpence to the king, and he has been paying it for almost 400 years.

This fine was imposed after the Reformation by Henry VIII. on the medieval vicar because he allowed pilgrims to come to his church and bathe their eyes in the water of a well which is supposed to contain curative properties. The pilgrims in gratitude often left sums of money, which aroused Henry's ire, and the vicar escaped the stake only by handing all the money thus collected over to Henry, and agreeing to pay an annual fine, and vesting his sins on his successors. Although Henry instituted many such gentle methods of increasing the kingly exchequer, this is the only instance of the fine still being paid. The well on the church property still attracts many pilgrims who come to bathe their eyes with the miraculous waters, many of whom claim to have been cured thereby.

GERMANS STAND AS MARSEILLAISE IS PLAYED BY BAND

ZURICH, Switzerland, Oct. 24.—There was a tense moment during the congress in this city of the International Cycling Union—when German and Austrian delegates met the French representatives—but it came out all right. CHINESE ARE TRADING UNDER BRITISH NAMES

Henderson Brown Company Turns Out to be Der Hong

VICTORIA, Oct. 23.—A certain feeling of mild surprise was observable in the demeanor of Magistrate Jay, when, in response to the charge called against the Henderson-Brown Company, of failing to carry a rear light on its motor car, Der Hong came forward and said he desired to plead guilty to the offence.

"What, are you the Henderson-Brown Company?" asked the court.

Through the mediation of Wing, the court interpreter, Der Hong wished it to be understood that he was the Henderson-Brown Company, and that the Henderson-Brown Company was an association of Chinese farmers in the Gordon Head district.

"It is becoming more and more the custom for these men to do business under English names," explained City Prosecutor Harrison; while R. C. Lowe, intervening in the capacity of amicus curiae, pointed out that another Chinaman in the city was doing business under the name and in the style of Sunshine & Company.

"The Henderson-Brown, me say," volunteered Der Hong; and the court decreed that the Henderson-Brown corporation should pay a fine of $5.
