KING HERE

President Again Shows His Independence and Confidence---Not Big Interests but People Only Will Influence Him

MONTREAL, July 31 .- In about three years' time, the Canadian National Railways may be expected to have ceased to be a burden on the pockets of the taxpayer, Sir Henry Thornton, president of the government railways, declared here yesterday afternoon, following his return from a Western tour. He added, however, the proviso that such would only be the case if no unforeseen disaster struck Canada.

Sir Henry explained that different lines making up the Canadian Government system, formerly rivals and mostly weak,

Bronchial Pneumonia Develops and President Harding Having Fight of Career Against Death

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.-Having developed bronchial pneumonia on Monday night when his condition was reported to be grave, President Harding is today fighting the greatest battle of his career in which his life is at stake. Besides pneumonia, there is danger of other complications but he has in his favor his calm determination to recover, the subsidence of his earlier abdominal trouble through ptomaine poisoning and the hopes and prayers of the nation.
