RUPERT DELEGATES GET GOOD RECEPTION MET PREMIER AND OTHER MINISTERS AT OTTAWA AND WILL SEE THORNTON

Government to Carry out Original Policy in Prince Rupert Local Delegates are Told at Ottawa

OTTAWA, March 27.—The Prince Rupert delegation consisting of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Fred Stork, E. C. Gibbons, C. H. Orme, S. J. McLeod and Olof Hanson had a meeting yesterday with Premier Mackenzie King and some of the cabinet ministers and were given a very cordial reception. The ministers stated they were very much surprised that any of the Prince Rupert people should think that the present government had in any way changed its mind in regard to having the original policy of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway carried out.

Premier Mackenzie King was very sympathetic toward the claims put forth by the delegation and in asking them to see Sir Henry Thornton stated that the government was anxious to develop the port of Prince Rupert and that the railway board could depend upon them to support any undertaking that would help to do this.

The acting minister of railways is investigating the offering for sale of some of the lands held by the G.T.P. Development Company. He said he had no idea such a course was being undertaken.

The delegation was also received by Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, and Ernest Lapointe, minister of marine and fisheries, and discussed various phases of the Prince Rupert situation with them.

The delegation is remaining for a few days in order to interview Sir Henry Thornton who is at present out of the city but who is expected to return in a few days.

THRICE A WEEK SERVICE FROM ALASKAN PORT

Bellingham to Ply Between Ketchikan and Prince Rupert Carrying Freight

MAY TAKE PASSENGERS

Capt. Bartholemew in Port With Lloyd C. Tells of Plan For Ferry Boat

The Ketchikan syndicate owning the big power schooner Bellingham intends this year to inaugurate a permanent thrice-a-week ferry service between Ketchikan and this port according to Capt. Bartholemew, of the Ketchikan tug boat Lloyd C. which was in port this morning loading wire for canneries in Alaska. The Bellingham will bring here from Alaska canned salmon, herring and fresh halibut for shipment over the Canadian National Railways to the United States. Returning north it is expected to develop a shipping course for freight from the United States to Ketchikan. To make the service an all the year around proposition, it is proposed to carry frozen halibut in the close season during the winter. In saving the long water haul to Seattle by coming to the railway here, it is anticipated that the new service will be profitable to the Alaska fish interests in freight saving, the railway rates from Seattle and this port to the East being practically equal.

The schooner Bellingham, which will operate in this trade, was last year a barge and she made several calls here with cargoes of salmon. This winter she was fitted out at Seattle with diesel engines providing her own propulsion. The vessel has a carrying capacity of about 350 tons of freight.

It is understood the Bellingham will carry passengers as well as freight.

ARREST OFFICER FORMER U BOAT

Lieut. Otto Steinbrink Was Commander of Craft That Sank Sussex

LONDON, March 27.—The French forces in Ruhr today arrested Lieut. Otto Steinbrink named on the allied extradition list as the commander of U Boat 28, which torpedoed the passenger steamer Sussex in March 1916 without warning, causing the loss of 50 lives. The Sussex was a cross channel boat.

JAPANESE DIET BREAKS UP WITH FREE-FOR-ALL

TOKIO, March 26.—The Diet prorogued early today in the midst of a free fight precipitated by a motion of the opposition to impeach the government.

Thophilus Wessen, Swedish Consul, created a sensation recently in St. Paul when he took his fiancée, Miss Magdalene Biggar of Montreal, for a drive in this curious Norwegian sleigh.

Minister of Labor Confirms Conciliation Board Replying to City Council's Resolution

The conciliation board to investigate the wage dispute between the civic employees and the city of Prince Rupert will stand in spite of the attitude taken last night by city council when it repudiated the step taken by Mayor Newton in bringing about its formation. This was indicated in a telegram received this morning from the minister of labor by the city clerk in answer to the council's resolution passed last night which was submitted by wire to Ottawa.

The following was the telegram received from Ottawa today: "Your message received and terms of council resolution carefully noted. Members of council appear however to have mistaken nature and intent of statute and of conciliation board which has been established. It has not been my intention when establishing conciliation boards to pass in any way upon the merits of the dispute. It would be most proper and in accordance with practice in inquiries before conciliation boards that all aspects of the dispute should be placed before board and board will then be in position to weigh carefully evidence adduced and to exert its influence to bring about an amicable adjustment and if it is found impossible to make an adjustment in this way then the board will, in accordance with provisions of statute, make recommendations for settlement according to merits and substantial justice of the case.

Should Relieve Situation

"My view is that the efforts of a conciliation board composed of three citizens of Prince Rupert in good standing and presumably already acquainted with the main features of dispute and all equally interested in general welfare of community cannot fail to relieve difficult situation which existed during the past week as indicated equally in message received by the undersigned and in the resolution of council now to hand. Under the circumstances I do not feel justified in taking any action which would in any way modify intended procedure but it may be presumed that the conciliation board being made aware of the position taken by the council will naturally desire to exercise even greater care if this were possible that its inquiry shall be

City Council Repudiates Action of Mayor Newton Re. Conciliation Board

Mayor Newton's individual action in bringing about the establishment of a conciliation board under the Industrial Disputes Act to deal with the wage dispute between the city of Prince Rupert and the Civic Employees' Union was repudiated by the city council last night. A lengthy resolution of several hundred words to this effect was moved by Ald. Stephens, seconded by Ald. Gollart, and carried by a division of 6 to 2 after all correspondence leading up to the establishment of the board by the mayor had been read. This resolution has been forwarded by wire to the Premier of Canada, the minister of labor and the member for the district at Ottawa. As a follow up the mayor has also sent a telegram asking the minister of labor to pay no heed to the council's resolution. The division of the council on the resolution similar to divisions that have taken place heretofore on negotiations with the Civic Employees' Union, was as follows:

Aye—Ald. Stephens, Ald. Gollart, Ald. Smith, Ald. Currie, Ald. Munro and Ald. Peery.
Nay—Ald. Macdonald and Ald. Mackenzie.

Following is the resolution:

The Resolution
Whereas the mayor without the consent of or any authority on behalf of the city council of the city of Prince Rupert did ask on behalf of the city of Prince Rupert for the appointment of a board of conciliation by the minister of labor to arbitrate a dispute between the civic employees union and the city of Prince Rupert and, Whereas the said W. E. Fisher is not considered an impartial arbitrator by reason of having taken part in or having been party to a petition recently presented to the city council protesting against the rate of pay to those affected and,

Resolved that the city council do hereby repudiate the action of the mayor as a high handed and unauthorized act, and that the mayor be and is hereby ordered to telegraph copies of this resolution to Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Premier, Hon. the Minister of Labor and Fred Stork, M.P., Ottawa, tonight.

Discussion Followed
As might have been expected, some rather heated discussion followed.

Repeal of Act is Demanded: Sending Troops to Europe Condemned

OTTAWA, March 27.—A resolution demanding that the Bankruptcy Act be amended or abrogated was brought in by P. F. Casgrain, Liberal member for Yamaska and occupied the House of Commons most of yesterday with arguments for and against. Finally the resolution was withdrawn at a late hour when Major C. G. Power of Quebec, South, brought up the question of whether Canada ought to send troops to European war. He strongly condemned the principle by which Canada should take any part.

After a lengthy speech the debate was adjourned by P. F. Casgrain.

SMALL IS NOT LEGALLY DEAD

Application to Have Him so Declared by Widow is Refused by Judge

TORONTO, March 27.—Ambrose Small, millionaire theatrical magnate, who has been missing since December 1919, is not "legally dead." Judge Gotsworth this morning dismissed the application for Mrs. Small for a declaration to this effect. The application was made so that the estate might be administered and Mrs. Small is the beneficiary. The judgment says no evidence was submitted to justify the making of such a pronouncement.

STEAMSHIP RATES CONTROLLED IN NEW YORK SAYS WITNESS

Even Canadian Government Lines Subject to Ruling of Weekly Private Meeting

OTTAWA, March 27.—The greatest curse of transportation is this: Shipping rates are made in New York on the first Thursday in every month behind closed doors.

This testimony was given by W. H. Chase of the Nova Scotia Apple Shippers' Association before a special house committee on agriculture this morning. "Do Canadian lines belong to this conference?" asked Chairman McMaster.

"All," was the reply, "not excepting the Canadian Government Merchant Marine."

The Passing Of A Wonderful Woman.

Sarah Bernhardt, the "Divine Sarah," greatest emotional actress of her age, who died yesterday, was known throughout the world, better than any other artist. A French woman she was also known in England, the United States, and Canada, as well as in many other countries which she visited.

Henry Ford And His Book.

Henry Ford has written a book in collaboration with Samuel Crowther. This means that the ideas are Henry's but the form is Crowther's. The greatest part of this book is the introduction and it is worth reading two or three times.

"I am not a reformer, I think there is entirely too much attempt at reforming in the world and that we pay too much attention to reformers. We have two kinds of reformers. Both are nuisances. The man who calls himself a reformer wants to smash things. He is the sort of man who would tear up a whole shirt because the collar button did not fit the buttonhole.

And again: "The very young critic is very much unbalanced. He is strongly in favor of wiping out the old order and starting a new one. They actually managed to start a new world in Russia. It is there that the work of the world makers can best be studied: We learn from Russia that it is the minority and not the majority who determine destructive action. We learn also that while men may decree social laws in conflict with natural laws, Nature vetoes those laws more ruthlessly than did the Czars. Nature has vetoed the whole Soviet republic, for it sought to deny nature. It denied above all else the right to the fruits of labor. Some people say 'Russia will have to go to work,' but that does not describe the case. The fact is that poor Russia is at work but her work counts for nothing. It is not free work. In the United States a workman works eight hours a day; in Russia he works twelve to fourteen. In the United States if a man wishes to lay off a day or a week and is able to afford it, there is nothing to prevent him. In Russia under Sovietism the workman goes to work whether he wants to or not. The freedom of the citizen has disappeared in the discipline of a prison-like monotony, in which all are treated alike. That is slavery. Freedom is the right to work a decent length of time and to get a decent living for doing so; to be able to arrange the little personal details of one's own life. It is the aggregate of these and many other items of freedom which make up the great idealistic freedom. The minor forms of freedom lubricate the every day life of all of us."

Ford Warns Against Reactionaries.

Ford also warns against reactionaries. He says: "One of the counsels of caution is to be very certain that we do not mistake a reactionary turn for a return to commonsense. We have passed through a period of fireworks of every description, and the making of a great many idealist maps of progress. We did not get anywhere. It was a convention, not a march. Lovely things were said, but when we got home we found the furnace out. Reactionaries have frequently taken advantage of the recoil from such a period and they have promised 'the good old times' which usually means the bad old abuses, and because they are perfectly void of vision they are sometimes regarded as practical men. Their return to power is often hailed as the return of commonsense."

There are a lot of other interesting things in the chapter that will be worth considering another day.

Mother and Her Baby Are Relieved of Eczema

Mrs. Peter A. Palmer, Salt Burn, Sask., writes: "Dr. Chase's Ointment has completely relieved me of eczema and piles. I also used this Ointment for my baby, who broke out in eczema. A few applications were all that was necessary in her case. Dr. Chase's Ointment has been worth a hundred dollars to me—before using it I had spent a great deal more than that in unsuccessful treatment from doctors. We have also used Dr. Chase's other medicines, the Nerve Food having restored my health after suffering from severe nerve trouble when a girl."

WOULD ABOLISH METER RENTS ELECTRIC LIGHT

In View of Present Financial Situation, Report of Utilities Committee Is Referred Back

The city council has now under consideration a report from the public utilities committee recommending the abolition of meter rents and the establishing of a $1 a month minimum charge for lighting service. The report was brought in at last night's meeting but representations were made that the present financial condition of the city did not warrant the cutting off of any revenues so it was left over for a week to be further reported on by the committee.

Ald. Macdonald in speaking to the report, said that the abolition of the meter rents would mean a loss in revenue of $1,700 a year but most of the users had more than twice paid for their meters already so it was felt some reduction was due them in view of the fact that the collection of these rents could not be forced under the bylaw anyway. A reduction was also due the consumers in view of the fact that the operation of the department had now been reduced by some $12,000 yearly.

CITY RELEASED FROM HAYS CREEK CONTRACT

John Harris, of Atlas Boiler Works, to be Paid $500 in View of Change in Plans

In consideration of the sum of $500, John Harris, manager of the Atlas Boiler Works, has released the city from its contract in connection with the Hays Creek Bridge, the original plans of which are to be changed by the council to a less expensive structure. A report from the city solicitor stating that such an agreement had been reached was adopted by the council last night. The matter of E. H. Shoekley's contract in connection with the bridge will be dealt with next week by the council.

CASH WAS SHORT SO MAN SHOT HIMSELF

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

The St. Andrew's Society formally opened the commodious new club rooms in the Little Block on Second Avenue last night with a very successful social. Prizes at cards were won by Mrs. J. H. Kelly, W. M. Brown, Miss Katrina and Walter Longwill. Refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed to the strains of music provided by McMeekin's Orchestra.

The sale of lots on Port Edward townsite by Harrison & Gamble is progressing satisfactorily. There are several local buyers and many inquiries have been received from the outside. W. B. Baer, who is in charge of the sale, reports.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.'s schooner Zibassa, Capt. W. Parsons, arrived from the fishing banks yesterday with 49,000 pounds of halibut representing six days fishing.

CITY FATHERS THROW OUT VERBAL BOUQUETS

New Departmental Heads Are Considered to be Acme of Value to Municipality

Despite the rather heated moments that prevailed for a time at last night's council meeting, the city fathers also took occasion to pass a few flowery bouquets of verbal nature when they plumed themselves on the acquiring of such splendid departmental heads as now have taken their places in the city service.

Ald. Stephens spoke of the able defence of City Solicitor Jones in connection with the G.T.P. Development Co.'s taxation appeal and congratulated that official on the success that had resulted.

Ald. Macdonald complimented the new city engineer on the way he had taken hold. The council had secured a man that it was well justified in appointing. He would be ready to support any of his recommendations.

Ald. Stephens thought all the new department heads, city solicitor, city engineer, superintendent of utilities and city treasurer, would measure up to the responsibility and confidence that had been vested in them. It was only to be hoped that they would not be involved in any of the differences of a rather disputant council.

CHURCH KINDERGARTEN HAD AN OPEN SESSION

Work of 50 or so Children at Methodist Church Was Viewed by Interested Mothers Yesterday

There was an open session of the Methodist Church kindergarten yesterday afternoon when about a score of mothers visited the class and watched with interest and appreciation the work and play of the fifty or so children attending. The youngsters played games, had marches, told stories and sang motion songs. Miss Haddock, the instructor, had prepared a sand table loaded with Easter rabbits, chickens and eggs and gave an illustrated Easter story. The children have exhibitions of paper weaving and card sewing and, at the conclusion of the session, took home their work and tokens of the Easter season with which they had been presented.

The work of the Methodist Kindergarten opened in January and had been carried on with great success. Miss Haddock and Mrs. Baeker have been conducting the classes, valuable assistance being given by Miss Stella Nickerson and Mrs. Einar Larsen.

When the blood becomes impure it is only natural that pimples, blotches, boils or some other blood trouble will manifest itself by breaking out of the system.

I tried many different medicines, but none seemed to help. A friend told me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I have used three and a half bottles, and now I have a clear, rosy complexion."

TAXATION CASE AGAIN APPEALED

G.T.P. Development Co. Has Taken Case Against City to Court of Appeals

The Grand Trunk Pacific Development Co., Ltd. has given notice that it is taking to the Court of Appeals the appeal against the city assessment which was decided upon in favor of the city last week by Judge Young in the County Court. The Court of Appeals sits in Victoria on June 5 and the case will likely come up at that time. In the meantime the collection of taxes for the year by the city is held up and estimates as well. The mill rate cannot be struck until all assessment appeals have been settled. To tide over the city must resort to temporary financing.

GRADING IN SECTION FIVE TO COST MORE

To make fills at the west end of Fourth and Fifth Avenues in connection with the Section 5 rough grading project it will be necessary to expend some $1,000 or $5,000 more than the original estimate for the work cost. This was reported to the city council last night. It was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the city solicitor to report as to the validity of adding to the original local improvement by-law.

On query of Ald. Currie, Ald. Munro, chairman of the Board of Works, told the city council last night that it was the proposal of the committee to completely burn up the garbage dump on Park Avenue and seek some other means of garbage disposal. The city engineer said he would have a report on a new system as soon as possible. Ald. Collart objected to garbage being dumped indiscriminately about the rock fill on Eleventh Street.

The city council on recommendation of the finance committee, last night declined the offer of A. E. Ames & Co., Victoria stockbrokers, to sell some $5,000 of city bonds to the city in exchange for Victory bonds. Last week it was decided to sell $1,000 worth of January 1924 to the company, but it was later found that the city had no bonds maturing then. Therefore the action was rescinded.

In a tame contest featured by much clinching, Soldier Wood and Joe Manila boxed six rounds to a draw at Kelchikan last week. Wood was the aggressor all the way and the draw decision was not received with unanimous acclaim for the majority of the fans seemed to think that Wood should have been declared the winner. A challenge has been received at Kelchikan from Pete Allard, of Sitka, offering to meet the winner of the Wood-Manila contest. Wood has now left for Seattle and it is not known when he may be back.

Three major league baseball teams, two in the American and one in the National League, will start the 1923 season with new pilots, all faced with rebuilding and reorganizing clubs which finished in second division depths last year. The new managers, all of whom gained playing fame as infield stars, are: Frank Chance, erstwhile "peerless leader" of the Chicago Cubs, who has taken over the direction of the Boston Red Sox from Hugh Duffy; Owen Donnie, Rush, veteran shortstop, who has replaced Clyde Milan as Washington's pilot; and Art Fletcher, another veteran shortstop, who has succeeded Irving Wilhelm in charge of the Philadelphia Nationals.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, regarded by John McGraw, as the most dangerous rivals of the world's champion Giants, will start their first season under the leadership of Bill McKee, who replaced George Gibson in mid-season last year and converted the club into a strong pennant contender. The Boston Braves will have a new directing influence in Christy Mathewson, club president and part owner as a result of a change in ownership bringing the former pitching star of the Giants back into

Ulcers

"After the way Zam-Buk saved my leg, I consider it a duty to let others know of its wonderful healing," writes Mr. Edwardingham of 118, Brant Avenue, Brantford. "Ulcers broke out on my right ankle, after typhoid, and the limb got so swollen and inflamed and the pain so intense that I was too disabled to move in any way. After using lotions, ointments, and what Zam-Buk could do, the application of this in a hot water bath, and as I continued with Zam-Buk the discharge ceased, and the limb began to be 'healthier looking' and less painful. In a week or two, Zam-Buk, the last of the medicine had gone and the ankle was healed with firm new skin."

CITY COUNCIL REPUDIATES
ACTION OF MAYOR NEWTON
RE CONCILIATION BOARD.

veloped in connection with the consideration of the matter. The council divided itself even more distinctly into two camps, the mayor and Alderman Stephens taking the lead in the discussion. The public section of the council chamber was practically filled with spectators, the group sympathizing with the Civic Employees' Union being most vociferous in their plaudits when the mayor made a thrust.

The fireworks opened with the second item on the agenda paper which called for the reading of the correspondence leading up to the establishment of the conciliation board. Mayor Newton asked the city clerk as to who had authorized the placing of the matter on the agenda. Mr. Jones replied that it had been Ald. Stephens. The latter immediately took to his feet then to state that the matter he considered was one for the whole council to deal with and not the mayor alone.

Agenda Paper
"That may be your opinion on the matter," replied His Worship, "but I think I am but due the courtesy of knowing what is going on the agenda paper."

"I would suggest that you have no right to keep anything off the agenda paper which a member of the council wants thereon," declared Ald. Stephens.
"I am satisfied now I have my answer," said His Worship.
"And if you are not satisfied you can leave it to the council," from Ald. Stephens.

The reading of the correspondence then proceeded. Immediately after it had been concluded Ald. Stephens rose to his feet and moved the resolution. Ald. Collart seconded the resolution.

Backs the Mayor
Ald. Macdonald expressed his opposition to the resolution. He believed that the mayor had power to call a board of conciliation if he believed it would protect the city from rising trouble. The mayor had called a meeting on Friday afternoon to put the situation before the council but there had been no quorum. In then bringing about the creation of the board of conciliation to avoid the impending strike, he believed the mayor had acted in the best interests of the city. In view of this it was his opinion that there was no justification for such a resolution condemning the mayor. His action had not been illegal or without the limits of his jurisdiction and prerogative.

Ald. Stephens said that it was at least not very courteous for the mayor to withhold information from the city council when he had received it.
His Worship then proceeded to recite the circumstances leading up to the calling of the council committee meeting prior to the creation of the board.
Ald. Stephens interrupted with the statement that His Worship was commencing to talk in his usual wandering manner.
"I want to start this thing from the beginning in my own way without any interruption from you, Ald. Stephens," from His Worship.
"All right then shoot," urged Ald. Stephens.
"I want to tell you that I will not be aggravated and told to shoot by you, and I would ask you to take your seat until I am finished. Neither you, nor any other alderman or citizens can bull-dose me," ejaculated Mayor Newton amid the rousing cheers of the section of his sympathizers seated to the rear of the public section. "I am here to give the aldermen an explanation of why I acted as I did."

Mayor Explains
His Worship then went on with his explanation. He told of the failure of the aldermen to respond to his call for a meeting after the strike had been threatened. Then he had concluded that it was best to avert a strike and had wired to Ottawa accepting the Board of Conciliation and appointing a representative for the city on the written understanding with the employees that the strike would be called off. He had done all he could to get the council together and failing that had considered it his duty to avert the strike. As for the meeting of the council on Friday and his notice to the aldermen thereof, shortly after Ald. Stephens had received his notice he (Ald. Stephens) had come to the mayor and asked for the purpose of it and he (the mayor) had read him every line of the notification of the strike committee. What was his surprise then when he arrived for the meeting in the council chamber to find only Ald. Munro, Ald. Macdonald and Ald. MacKenzie present. For some reason the majority of the council had failed to come together. Realizing then that the matter could not then be dealt with by the council until tonight (Monday) and the strike was called for Saturday night, he believed it in the best interests of the city to take action in averting the strike and he had done accordingly.

Not Justified
"For these reasons, I do not think that the motion now proposed to censure me is justifiable since I did all I possibly could in order to get the council together," continued the mayor.
"However, if the majority of the council may see fit to pass the resolution, I can assure you that my relations with you will in the future be just as straightforward and frank as they have been in the past. I do not think that I defied the majority of the council when they failed to answer to my call. I do not think that it is fair that motion of censure should be passed upon me though I can easily bear the ordeal."

Ald. Stephens declared that from what the mayor had just said it was evident that no 48-hour notice had been given the council as to the meeting. There had been time to call the council together in a properly constituted meeting. Even if the council had come together when the mayor had called it no legal action could have been taken.

Cross Questions
"You proposed this Board of Conciliation on Thursday night, did you not?" queried Ald. Stephens.

"No," replied the mayor.
"Then why did you notify Mr. Fisher that night and ask him to represent the city of the Board?" again queried Ald. Stephens.

"I learned late Thursday night that there would likely be a confirmation of the strike vote," replied His Worship. "I then called up Mr. Fisher asking him if he would act if necessary. Finally, he agreed, but I told him, and he will bear me out on this, that I still hoped there would not be a strike declared."

"In view of the fact that all the requests for a Conciliation Board came addressed to the mayor and council, did you not believe that the council had a right to choose its representative to such a board?" from Ald. Ald. Stephens.

"Yes, if they showed the inclination to deal with the situation," replied His Worship.

Dignity of Chair
Ald. Stephens—"I would also like to ask why Your Worship objected to this matter being placed on the agenda without being authorized by you. Did you not intend to report to the council tonight?"

Mayor Newton—"The step was taken by me after the council had failed to come together and I felt the matter was closed. I also feel that I might at least have been consulted regarding such matters coming up. I did not object to the matter coming up but I did feel that it was not treating the chair with ordinary dignity in not consulting it on the matter."

Ald. Stephens—"Speaking of discourtesy, do you think that it was courteous to pass up an elected council and have them read of the act of you as mayor in your own daily paper before you had consulted with them? Does that not make you yourself guilty of the very thing of which you complain—discourtesy and indignity?"

Mayor Newton—"I published it in my paper for the enlightenment of the people and not as a matter of discourtesy to the council. The city council had a chance to get the information before it was published."

In reply to a criticism by Ald. Collart regarding getting the council together on 24 hours notice, Mayor Newton said that when less important questions than this had been coming up he had not stood on the formality of a 24 hours notice.

Macdonald Explains
Ald. Macdonald rose to explain that he had no brief for the mayor for he was able to take care of himself. Neither did the fact that he was an employee of the mayor have any bearing on his attitude. He merely felt that, in fairness to the Mayor, the urgency of the situation had justified him using his prerogative in averting a strike and he should not be condemned for it. He could not see where his methods had been high handed.

Ald. Munro said he would have been satisfied to allow a Board of Conciliation if the men affected had applied for it and not the Civic Employees' Union. He felt that the petition, presented last week asked for better working conditions for the men and stated that 50¢ an hour was not high enough to pay for labor and had in its intent nothing to do with the Civic Employees' Union, however, they had chosen their course and he would not hesitate in saying that he would oppose naming a member of the board representing the city to deal with the Civic Employees' Union.

Ald. MacKenzie defended the action of the mayor and said he failed to see why the Civic Employees' Union had to be taken into the matter, anyway.
The resolution was then put and carried on the division of 6 to 2.

Mayor Also Wires
"You have passed a motion which is to be wired to the Minister of Labor. Let me be open with you. I shall also wire to the Minister of Labor myself and shall ask him to pay no attention to your resolution."
"At your own expense, too," interjected Mr. Collart.
"No, the bill shall be presented to the Finance Committee of this city for payment. If they refuse to pay it, however, I am not so nearly broke that I cannot afford to pay for a telegram, let me tell you."

Later in the evening, the mayor explained to the council that his action in further wiring to the Minister of Labor was not intended in the sense of defiance. In bringing about the appointment of a Conciliation Board he had received the written undertaking of the employees that there would be no strike. He would merely point out that he had fulfilled this requirement and that he had been no party to the undertaking being now broken.

ESKIMOS SAY GHOSTS HOLD NIGHTLY REVELS

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Mar. 27.—Some natives of Alaska profess to believe that the angry spirits of the Aleuts massacred at the behest of the early Russian discoverers and traders under Shelikoff, Baranoff and Chirikoff, are lurking in the volcanoes of the Valley of the Ten Thousand Smokes.

Beneath the thin crust of the earth covering the lower Alaskan peninsula and the Aleutian archipelago, these spirits, the natives assert, are holding nightly revels and emerging periodically to hurl fire, smoke and thunder at the heads of the invaders.

The fanciful recital of the natives is that on Chirikoff Island, long famed as haunted, a half hundred natives were lured into a log compound, set upon by savage enemies under direction of the Russians, murdered and despoiled of priceless sea otter skins. Their spirits are appearing again in protest. The eruption of three volcanoes in January is, they say, a revivification of these spirits, and will continue until they are avenged.

For many years Chirikoff Island has been a place seldom inhabited by natives or whites. Many harrowing tales from Chirikoff were brought here by Captain Niek Gaikema, who has visited almost every nook and harbor along the Aleutians. Last summer the skipper braved the Valley of Smokes, emerging with the shoes burned from his feet, and with many stories to tell.

SHIP LIQUOR LUMBER CAR

Consignment Seized at Winnipeg Valued at $20,000 from Vancouver

WINNIPEG, Mar. 27.—Completely surrounded by lumber and consigned as such, a car of assorted liquors was seized by provincial police on a spur track in the yard of the Dominion Lumber Company, the liquor was unloaded and carried to a vault in the law courts. It is valued at more than $20,000.

There were 225 cases in the car, each under lumber. Of this number about 50 cases consisted of wines, Burgundy and champagne, the balance consisting of Scotch whiskey. Temperance officials say the liquor was shipped from Vancouver and trans-shipped at Calgary. All the liquor is said to be of good quality.

The raid was carried out by the provincial police officers, headed by Acting Inspector William Smith and Sgt. John Dineen. False information received by the police led them on a wild goose chase to the Canadian National lines and a whole carload of shingles was unshipped before the discovery was made there was no liquor in the car. Shortly afterward the correct "tip" was received and the car was located on a spur track of the Canadian Pacific railway.

Four trucks were required to convey the liquor to provincial police headquarters, where it is now stored. An order for confiscation will be applied for in provincial police court and police officers said prosecutions probably would follow.

Malcolm McInnes, manager of the Dominion Lumber & Fuel Company, in a statement said: "Wednesday afternoon a car was shunted to our siding, billed to the Dominion Lumber & Fuel Company and shipped by the Dominion Lumber & Fuel Company. I reported to the railway authorities that the car was not for us. This morning I found the car had been broken open during the night and later learned it had been raided by the provincial police. Where the car came from or who the owners are I have not the slightest knowledge."
