RAILROAD POLICY HAS BEEN DECIDED UPON

MACKENZIE KING DEFENDS POLICY OF LETTING PARLIAMENT DECIDE ON WAR

Mackenzie King Defends Policy of Government Regard to British Ultimatum and Railway Matters

OTTAWA, Feb. 2.—Following a criticism of the government by Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, chiefly directed at the railway policy and the attitude of the government toward the British communication regarding the Near East crisis, Premier Mackenzie King replied at length. Parliament was packed for the occasion and he told them that the Lloyd George query in September whether Canada would wish to be identified with the British ultimatum of threatened war against Turkey came to Ottawa only after the press had carried despatches saying New Zealand had signified a desire to send troops.

The premier said he cabled to London for an opinion as to whether the crisis was grave enough to warrant the summoning of parliament. London replied that it was not and the cabinet decided they could declare war on Turkey only with the consent of the full parliament, therefore they could not participate in the ultimatum.

Mr. Mackenzie King said the British government still refused permission for Canada to publish the text of the original message but Premier King said he was willing to let Mr. Meighen, as a member of the Privy Council, see the message. He would also show it to the leader of the Progressives.

The premier, discussing the railroads, said Mr. Meighen's charge that the Grand Trunk and the Canadian National were not yet amalgamated in spite of the government's promises was not true and amalgamation had already taken place.

These were the high lights of the day which saw the opening of the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne.

The debate on the address is being continued in the House of Commons today. Robert Forke, Progressive leader, being the first to speak. The Senate debate will be carried on by Senator Bennett of Calgary.

Visiting Lumbermen Given Fine Entertainment by Board of Trade and the Lumbermen's Association

The genial good fellowship displayed by the prairie visitors and the generous hospitality of the local citizens made the smoking concert tendered last night in the Elks' Home by the Prince Rupert Board of Trade and the Northern B.C. Timbersmen's Association to the touring members of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association a lively and most entertaining event both for the hosts and the guests. The affair was a very informal one and business was entirely forgotten in the enjoyment of the many features of real Western entertainment provided.

These were some 200 men present, including 60 or 70 of the visitors and the program was in progress from about 7 o'clock until nearly midnight. There were boxing bouts, orchestral numbers, vocal and instrumental selections and two or three short addresses and opportunity was also provided for a free mixing together of the local people and the visitors. The guests went away thoroughly delighted with the reception that had been accorded them by the farthest West Canadians which they will meet in the course of their tour.

General Policy C.N.R. Finally Decided upon at Directors' Meeting

TORONTO, Feb. 2.—Richard P. Gough, director of the Canadian National Railways, in a statement, announces that the Board of Directors had decided to recommend that the general office of the system be placed in Montreal.

It was decided for purposes of administration that the system be divided into a certain number of districts, sufficient to admit of economical management, but not so numerous as to create unnecessary expense.

The western district will be extended from Port Arthur and Fort William in the west to the Pacific coast in the west with headquarters at Winnipeg.

The western section includes a larger mileage than either of the other districts but on some parts of it the traffic is exceedingly sparse.

It is the intention to have each district presided over by a general manager and a traffic manager, assisted by general superintendents, engineers, and general freight agents. With due regard to the efficiency of the system, each district will be self-contained, the traffic manager being in charge of all matters relating to passenger fares, freight rates, claims, and all other matters that usually fall within the functions of a traffic department. All details of the respective departments within their territories will be left to them entirely.

It is the intention of the executive officers located at the general offices to deal largely if not entirely with matters of policy and general administration.

that the Pacific Coast had been operating in the export trade for some time but Prince Rupert, through not having proper facilities, had not been able to participate. That condition was also to end soon, he declared, and then Prince Rupert would be in the export business like the south was at present.

Mayor Newton, in a welcoming address, said that though Prince Rupert was a small place at present no one could say that her citizens were dead ones. He referred to the great timber wealth of the district and predicted that some day the middle west dealers would have to come here to get their stocks. He trusted that at some time in the not too distant future the visitors of today would be coming here on business here.

President Dutton

President Dutton, of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association, in replying thanked the Board of Trade and the Timbermen's Association for the entertainment which they had enjoyed so much. It reflected a great spirit that such an entertainment would be put on not for business reasons but just because the Prince Rupert people wanted to help them have a good time. Though this did not seem to be a business meeting, he was glad to hear of the resources and potential possibilities of the north country. A good many of the people in the prairie provinces already knew much about this district and were watching it closely. The thing that struck him about this meeting was the quality of the men. The farther west they went, the better they found the people and Prince Rupert was the farthest West.

The Entertainment

Through the assistance of the City's Athletic Club three boxing bouts were put on in the course of the evening. They were three two-minute round affairs and were all lively encounters. The fighters were as follows: Battling Kelly vs. Cyclone Warrior; Spider Frizzell vs. Tiger Buller, and Kid Fraser vs. Knockout Stewart. Eddie Griggs was referee and Joe Scott timekeeper. All were declared drags.

Vocal Solos were rendered by R. James, S. K. Campbell and Will Edmunds, the latter also contributing a cello solo. R. James and Tommy Smith gave recitations and the Elks' augmented orchestra were generous in the musical numbers provided.

Community singing, under the leadership of S. K. Campbell, was another feature. Refreshments and smokes were abundantly provided throughout the evening.

With the singing of the National Anthem and an exchange of cheers between the hosts and the visitors the concert came to end about midnight.

WELSH COAL OWNERS WANT CANADIAN TRADE

Making Effort to Retain That Secured During U.S. Strike

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(By Canadian Press)—Welsh coal exporters are making great efforts to retain the Canadian trade which they captured during the coal strike in the United States; a report to the Department of Commerce from the U.S. Consul at Swansea, Wales, declares.

This is indicated, the consul says, by the fact that several leading coal export firms in Wales recently sent representatives to Canada to lay plans for the retention of the Dominion market "in spite of the fact that formerly it has been almost exclusively held by U.S. coal exporters."

"The local press reports," the consul adds, "that one of the largest firms of coal owners and exporters of South Wales has arranged for the erection of a large crushing and screening plant for handling Welsh anthracite at Montreal. The plant is to be completed for operation soon after the opening of navigation in 1922 and is to embrace the building of an unloading wharf and erection of cranes."

EVANGELIZING NATIVE PEOPLE

FOUND WONDERFUL RELIEF
FROM CONSTIPATION

BY USING

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills

Constipation is one of the most prevalent troubles the human race is subject to, and is the greatest cause of many of our ailments, for if the bowels cease to perform their proper functions all the other organs will become deranged.

Keep your bowels working gently and naturally by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and thus do away with the constipation and all other troubles caused by it.

Mrs. A. R. Spence, Springhill, N. S., writes—"I have suffered for some time from constipation, and was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. After taking a vial of them I have found wonderful relief, and would advise others who are constipated to give them a trial, for I feel sure they will also receive the same benefit I did."

THUNDERCLAP SAID TO BE SPECTACULAR

Sporting Life Illustrated in Picture Being Shown at West-

New York newspapers say that two of the most spectacular scenes ever registered on the screen take place in "Thunderclap." One is the hair-raising passage of the hero down a tempestuous rapids on the top of a board, and the other is the race track scene.

The story deals with sporting life and the gaming tables, and "Thunderclap" takes its title from the race horse upon whose victory the fortunes of the hero and the heroine rest. Plots and counterplots are set in motion to keep "Thunderclap" from winning, but with the aid of a good jockey, the crooked gambler's efforts are frustrated. The beginning of the picture discloses the suffering wife anxious to bring her child home from the convent and her husband, the child's stepfather, refusing to have the "brat" around the house. In a moment of desperation, the mother threatens to disclose the crooked methods of the gaming-house keeper if he does not grant her wish. The gambler strikes her and she becomes paralyzed from the shock losing the use of her limbs and her speech.

An orphan boy drifts into the employ of the gambler, who is now running a fashionable establishment in a large city, and brings with him his horse, "Thunderclap." The racer was bequeathed to the boy by the only kind employer he ever had. The gambler finding his business failing off ruinously, sends for his beautiful step-daughter to act as hostess of the gaming-house. Complications arise, and in desperation the gambler promises his daughter in marriage to an old reprobate with the understanding that $40,000 is to be paid to the stepfather within a specified time. From then on the picture works up to its great climax, a clinch as unusual as it is thrilling.

Busy mothers, housewives and all workers up on their feet the day long, should realize that the worst forms of leg trouble are as likely to start in a simple knock, scratch or bruise as from varicose weakness. Zam-Buk has an unequalled record of success in treating sores, ulcers and poisoned wounds even though they have existed for years. Soothes, Purifies & Builds-Up New Tissue.

Though Mrs. Jeffrey's leg ulcer defied the best of medical treatment for years, it soon yielded to Zam-Buk.

"Thirty-three years ago an ulcer appeared on my ankle," she says, writing from 31, French St., Methuen, Mass. "In spite of all remedies, it gradually spread up towards my knee and developed into an awful open sore. Twenty-five years of medical treatment brought nothing better than temporary relief."

"The pain was something terrible and for years my leg was in such a shocking state that I couldn't leave the house."

"One day I read a newspaper account of a bad ulcer having been cured by Zam-Buk. Although very sceptical after having spent money on so many useless remedies, I decided to give Zam-Buk a trial. To my delight the limb soon began to show signs of improvement."

"Gradually Zam-Buk drew away all inflammation and corruption and I began to realize that, at last, I was on the high road to recovery. Further perseverance with Zam-Buk resulted in the awful sore being finally and completely healed."

"During the last three years there has not been the least evidence of the trouble returning."

DOCTORS REQUEST DRUG SUPPRESSION

Winnipeg Medics View With Alarm Prevalence of Drug Addicts

WINNIPEG, Feb. 2.—Viewing with alarm the increase in the number of drug addicts in the Dominion, and in Manitoba, the council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Manitoba, at a special meeting in the Medical College, passed a resolution requesting the Dominion government to stop the promiscuous use of narcotics. The resolution passed by the council was framed as follows:

"That the council of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Manitoba look with grave concern on the tremendous increase in the use of narcotics, and request the Dominion government to take steps for the prevention of the promiscuous use thereof."

Stringent Regulations

In the discussion which was provoked on this question, it was unanimously felt by the council that stringent regulation should be put into force in regard both to the prescription and the use of narcotics in view of the statistics which show that the use of drugs is becoming a serious menace to Canada's civilized life.

Latest available figures show that there are 2,000,000 drug addicts in the United States and some 60,000 in Canada, while in a diagram to illustrate the comparative sizes of the European countries from which immigration is coming it is indicated that between 5,000 and 6,000. Statistics also show that the drug habit is more prevalent among Orientals than among Europeans.

Acquired by people between the ages of 15 and 25 years. It is also felt that the variations in immigration, the different years showing very different results in this respect.

Immigration, Mr. Hacker said, was largely a western problem. Very few settled in the East. British Columbia had received thirty per cent British and twenty-seven per cent foreign while in Saskatchewan the foreign preponderated over the British. It was desirable to get worthy settlers.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL MAY BE DROPPED

Advocates Are Losing Hope; Lower Railway Rates Demanded

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(By Canadian Press)—In recent conferences, including a conference at a dinner given by Senator Capper of Kansas, who is chairman of the farm bloc, the agricultural group in the Senate framed its legislative program for the rest of the session, ending March 4.

This program is such as to make it more than ever unlikely the ship subsidy bill will be passed. Influence of the farm bloc is such in the Senate that once it agrees on a program, successful resistance thereto is improbable.

It is believed that the two farm credits bills now before the Senate, the Capper bill and the Lenroot bill, will be passed. The truth-in-fairies bill, aimed at the use of shoddy in the guise of pure wool, will be taken up also and likewise what is known as the filled milk bill, of great interest to dairymen. The ship subsidy bill will be laid aside while these bills are pending.

With about a month and a half left of this session and with agricultural measures sure to take up half or more of that time, the advocates of subsidy are rapidly losing hope of their measure. What will be done about the merchant marine in case subsidy legislation fails, is an uncertainty.

Railroad legislation, looking to lower rates, is strongly demanded by the farm bloc but will have to wait on the new Congress.

SKIDEGATE JUNIOR BAND HAD CONCERT

Young Musicians Acquitted Themselves Very Creditably and Fine List of Numbers Was Provided

SKIDEGATE, Feb. 2.—The Skidgate Junior Band and Orchestra gave an entertainment in Town Hall on Friday night last week. The young musicians acquitted themselves most creditably and were assisted, in vocal selections, by the Misses Richardson and Severs. Mrs. James McKay contributed a club swinging exhibition which was much appreciated. Solomon Wilson's vocal solo received well deserved applause.

IMMIGRATION YESTERDAY AT ROTARY CLUB

Rev. G. G. Hacker Gives Interesting Address in Regard to Timely Subject

There is to day a good deal of talk of building large cities in Canada but this will not be done until the vacant lands of the country are filled up said Rev. G. G. Hacker in addressing the Rotary Club yesterday. When people come here and cultivate the land, the railways and business houses will prosper. There is room here for millions.

Immigration has in the past been subject to a number of booms, said the speaker. Growing pains were healthy but indigestion and dispesia were not.

He suggested selected immigration as the solution of the difficulty. He said he was not championing any political party but he thought Hon. T. D. Patullo had the right idea in regard to this. People should be brought from the right countries and the right class of people.

Bulk are British Canadians sometime get the idea that they were overrun by foreigners. Mr. Hacker showed in a diagram to illustrate the comparative sizes of the European countries from which immigration is coming and indicated that they could all be placed in Canada between 15 and 25 years. It is also felt that there would be lots of room left. He also showed the variations in immigration, the different years showing very different results in this respect.

Immigration, Mr. Hacker said, was largely a western problem. Very few settled in the East. British Columbia had received thirty per cent British and twenty-seven per cent foreign while in Saskatchewan the foreign preponderated over the British. It was desirable to get worthy settlers.

Orientals In regard to the Chinese, the speaker showed the disabilities under which they labored, yet from a disease standpoint they compared favorably with others. For fifty of other foreigners in the hospitals there were four Chinese, one Japanese and one Hindu. Chinese were at the foot of the list in regard to disease, compared with the population.

In the matter of crime, out of every ten thousand Italy provided 38, United States 22, French 24, Austria 10, Russia 9, Germany 9, Britain 7, Scandinavia 7, Chinese 5.

Most writers claim that the objection to Oriental immigration is economic rather than racial. In Ontario there was once a cry against the English coming in.

Mr. Hacker told how the Japanese had overrun the Hawaiian Islands until they were sufficiently numerous to control the vote should the territory be admitted to statehood. In California they had crowded out the American farmers but the situation was much exaggerated. Much of their success had been due to co-operation. The middle name of the Japanese race was co-operation. While much was heard of the Japanese in California there were just as many in proportion to the population in Washington but the situation there had been handled better. Labor Unions had recognized them and elevated their economic status.

On Par With Whites

In Canada British subjects were largely to blame for the creeping in of the Oriental. The element of hatred had done a lot of harm. In Washington they had been forced to obey the laws the same as white people and observe the same hours. The problem did not need to be as aggravated as it is.

If the police commissioners of Vancouver had taken the advice of Chinese who wished to clean up Chinese who wished to clean up six years ago, that city would have been all right. Instead of doing so they tried to belittle the efforts in that direction. The newspapers later made a big play in regard to the matter. It was admitted that there were worse place in Vancouver than Chinatown.

Mr. Hacker spoke of the high birthrate of the Japanese on this continent, much higher than in their own country.

He thought the solution of the problem was the establishment of a minimum wage which should be higher than the standard of living. Orientals were used because they could be employed cheaply. People should demand living conditions as good among immigrants as among ourselves. Organized labor should fight this thing to finish. As it was white population was the surplus population.

Deal Frankly

In the United States the cities that ignored the foreign element had a terrific time but others that educated him had not suffered. He spoke of instances where they gave banquets to foreigners. Most of the trouble in regard to the Oriental question came from the men who had not a vote. If they dealt with the foreigner frankly and in a friendly manner it would do more to solve the problem than by letting it drift.

How often can We Advertise?

NOT How often should we Advertise?

WHY are the Canadian and American Manufacturers appropriating fifty per cent more dollars in Newspaper Advertising for the year 1923 than in 1922?

There's a Reason BECAUSE they have implicit faith in the pulling power of Newspaper Advertising and in the future trade conditions for the coming year.

The daily newspaper has proved itself worthy of this tremendous responsibility and trust.

Men who spend millions of dollars on Newspaper Advertising yearly know what it has done for them in the past and feel safe in trusting their future fortunes to the advertising columns of the daily press.

Breakfast Served

Immediately after the ceremony was performed the bridal party and a goodly number of the large assembly repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a wedding breakfast was served. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Dr. Grant and responded to by the groom.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march played by Miss Blanche Curtis. During the signing of the register Mrs. R. A. Harlow sang very sweetly "O Promise Me."

Mr. and Mrs. Gonzales left on the G.T.P. steamer at 9 o'clock for Victoria enroute to Los Angeles where the honeymoon will be spent. Returning to the city in about three weeks, they will take up their residence on Fourth Avenue West.

Both bride and groom are very well known and very popular with a wide circle of friends. Having resided here for the past nine years, Mrs. Gonzales has always taken a leading part in the social life of the younger people. For the past three years she has been engaged as a stenographer in the Land Registry office. The groom, though not so long a resident of the city, is no less popular. He came here three years ago to become a member of the law firm of Williams, Manson & Gonzales and is regarded as one of the city's most promising young professional men.

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE OF CITY MARRIED TODAY

Miss Nina Pringle Becomes Bride of Milton Gonzales at Pretty Early Morning Ceremony

One of the prettiest and most interesting weddings which has been solemnized in the city for some time took place this morning at 6:15 o'clock before an assembly which crowded the beautifully decorated Presbyterian Church Hall when Miss Nina Pringle, elder daughter of Mrs. T. E. Pringle, Fifth Avenue and Emerson Place, was united in marriage to Milton Gonzales, son of Mrs. L. Gonzales, of Vancouver, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant officiating.

Charming Bride

The bride was indeed charming in her costume of navy blue chiffon velvet with touches of gray squirrel and navy blue hat with silver trimmings. The bridal bouquet was of pink Ophelia roses and maidenhair ferns. The bridesmaid was Miss May Pringle, sister of the bride, who wore a beautiful gown of gray brocade Canton crepe with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink roses and violets. The bride's mother wore a lovely gown of navy blue Canton crepe with feathered hat, while the groom's mother had a smart costume of black charmeuse and radium silk with touque of black candy cloth. The bride was given away by her older brother, Howard Pringle, and W. F. Robarge attended the groom. The church was tastefully decorated with spring flowers and ferns.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march played by Miss Blanche Curtis. During the signing of the register Mrs. R. A. Harlow sang very sweetly "O Promise Me."

Immediately after the ceremony was performed the bridal party and a goodly number of the large assembly repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a wedding breakfast was served. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Dr. Grant and responded to by the groom.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march played by Miss Blanche Curtis. During the signing of the register Mrs. R. A. Harlow sang very sweetly "O Promise Me."

Breakfast Served

Immediately after the ceremony was performed the bridal party and a goodly number of the large assembly repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a wedding breakfast was served. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Dr. Grant and responded to by the groom.

WHO WILL BE U.S. PRESIDENT

Campaign Managers and State Makers Already Busy in The States

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Presidential politicos is stirring more and more in both parties. Leaders are keenly alive to the fact that presidential candidates will be nominated in but little more than a year and they are looking the grounds over and laying plans accordingly.

Not only have such prominent democrats as William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, and William Jennings Bryan been in Washington, consulting friends this week, but there is plenty of activity among the Republicans.

Although it is commonly assumed that President Harding will be renominated by the Republicans, there are distinct signs developing that he will encounter strong opposition. Curiously enough, this opposition is by no means confined to the progressive republicans. Some of the foremost of the regular or "Old Guard" republicans are furnishing up their weapons and are getting ready openly to oppose the re-nomination of Mr. Harding.

They are working against it already under cover. Had Governor Miller of New York been re-elected by the Republicans, there can be little question he would now have a formidable presidential boom, backed by great numbers of the Old Guard republicans. Just who those of the regulars who oppose President Harding will center on is not clear. It is plain, however, that a first-class political struggle is likely to develop within the republican party over Mr. Harding's nomination.

The consequence is that the Old Guard leaders who oppose Mr. Harding welcome presidential primary laws in the different states on the theory the primaries will bring out one or more candidates stronger with the people than the President. Pas-
