WOODSWORTH ROUSES STORM OF PROTEST IN HOUSE OF COMMONS OTTAWA

Storm in Commons over Woodsworth's Speech in Exonerating Germany

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—A storm broke loose in the House of Commons last night when J. S. Woodsworth, labor member for Centre Winnipeg, submitted a motion that Canada should withdraw all claims on Germany for reparations.

Woodsworth held that the Germany of the war lords and the Germany of the bulk of the people were responsible for the war. In his argument he declared that other nations including Great Britain had drawn up plans for military aggression on each other before the war.

The speech of the Winnipeg member brought angry replies. Hon. R. J. Manion held that if Germany was exonerated, according to the trend of the resolution, the action of the allies of the United States during the war would by the same act be condemned.

The debate was adjourned.

DANISH SEAMAN BADLY INJURED

Little Tugboat Brings Man Into Port Following Accident on Lumber Schooner

Bringing into the local hospital a Danish seaman named Carl V. Hagen, who fell down the hold of the lumber barkentine Alicia Havside, Capt. Chas. R. Campbell, while that craft was proceeding from Seattle to Ketchikan in tow of the Seattle tug Daniel Kern, Capt. McMullen, the latter vessel put into port this afternoon at 4 o'clock, clearing again immediately to pick up the bark which had been anchored in the harbor of Kennedy Island.

It appears that Hagen fractured his skull when he fell down the hold of the Havside for he was still unconscious when admitted to the hospital, the accident having occurred some hours before. The Daniel Kern wirelessed the city beforehand and on arrival was met by the city ambulance, Consul Wakefield and a doctor.

Infant Child of Usk Resident Perished in Fire when Home is Destroyed: Stove is Responsible USK, Feb. 16.—The one year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scully was burned to death yesterday in a fire which destroyed the home and all the belongings of the bereaved couple.

The fire started from a heater about noon when the mother was out at a neighbor's house. A neighbor made a most heroic attempt to rescue the child but was unsuccessful on account of the excessive heat and smoke.

The infant was asleep in one of the rooms when the blaze started and the fire had got such headway that it was impossible to get to the room after the blaze had been discovered.

The Scully's home was about a mile from the station and no insurance was carried. Mr. Scully is an employee of the Kilselas Copper Co.

The people of Usk are doing everything possible for the bereaved parents and the sympathy of the whole district goes out to them.

Official Report

Constable Manceor of Terrace telegraphed Chief Minty this morning that he had received a report from Usk of the burning of two of the Bayward Mill cabins occupied by the Scully's and that the infant child had been burned to death.

HOWLED DOWN IN COMMONS

Suggestion that Duke's Allowance be Cut Not Received With Favor

LONDON, Feb. 16.—The House of Commons was plunged into uproar yesterday afternoon as a result of the suggestion by David Kirkwood of the possibility of economizing in the allowance of £25,000 which the Duke of York will receive when he marries Lady Bowes Lyons.

Amidst cries for order Kirkwood shouted that this was a glorious opportunity to start economizing at the top while the labor class were starving. He tried to speak further but was howled down.

WEATHER ROUGH FOR FISH BOATS

Several Marketed Catches at Ketchikan Instead of Coming Here—Two Boats Sold

Several halibut boats, which usually sell their catches at this port, marketed at Ketchikan yesterday because the weather was too rough to cross Dixon Entrance to this port according to advices received along the waterfront here this morning. There are also quite a few boats due and overdue at this port now but they are believed to be in shelter off the fishing banks and will likely be in as soon as the weather moderates.

Two schooners sold 36,000 pounds here this morning as follows:

Presho, 13,000 pounds, at 17c and 9c, to the Royal Fish Co.

Johanna, 23,000 pounds, at 15.2c and 10c, to the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.

The matter of making another appointment will likely be dealt with at next week's council meeting.

SITUATION IN RUHR SERIOUS

Unemployment is Becoming Prevalent and Strikes Still Continue

CANAL IS BLOCKED

ESSEX, Feb. 16.—The strike situation and accompanying unemployment in various parts of the Ruhr are becoming very serious. Eight thousand miners in the Bottrop district struck yesterday and four mines were closed, one pithead being taken over by the Belgians.

Traffic through the Rhineverne canal, the important transportation artery for fuel has been blocked by a barge sunk in it by Germans.

RAILWAYS TO AID SETTLING COUNTRY

Reduced Fares and Freight Charges to Settlers Offered

WINNIPEG, Feb. 15.—The Canadian National Railways, as an additional attraction for possible settlers from the United States, announce that the Canadian Railways now have under consideration the desirability of re-instating some of the concessions formerly granted prospective settlers at western border points, in the way of further reduced fares and also freight charges on their effects. It is expected that announcement will be made at an early date as to the basis of fares and freight rates. Undoubtedly this will have tangible results in the way of stimulating immigration of a desirable class.

STORM LIFTED ROOF FROM ANYOX HOUSE

ANYOX, Feb. 16.—Anyox was visited by a brisk wind on Wednesday night. All the mosquito fleet drifted about the harbor for a time, while a section of the snifter roof sustained slight damage. A remarkable instance of narrow escapes was a product of the storm. Mr. and Mrs. A. Dryden were entertaining some friends in their home when the entire roof was lifted by the wind and deposited some thirty feet distant. The chimney went with it. Luckily no one was hurt, and no loss of furnishings was sustained through fire as the stoves were put out quickly owing to great presence of mind on the part of Mr. Dryden and his guests.

Rich Strike of Silver Ore at Stewart Indicates Probability Another Premier at that Place

STEWART, Feb. 16.—The recent strike made on the B.C. Silver property here is considered by many mining men to be the most important development in the local mining field since the value of the Premier mine was discovered. It is confidently expected that the mine will ultimately be just as big a proposition as the Premier.

In cross cutting the Premier lead, a forty foot vein of rich silver-gold ore was tapped and present development operations consist of drifting along this. New camps are being built and a larger compressor than the present one is to be put in.

Major G. B. North, formerly of the Dolly Varden, is superintendent and about 25 men are now being employed.

C. A. Banks, managing director of the Selukwé Gold Mining Co. of the Rand, which controls the property, is at present here and expects to remain for a month.

British Columbia Case is before Commons and will be Discussed soon

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—Two resolutions declaring for reduction in the railway rates in the prairie provinces and British Columbia have been placed on the order paper in the House of Commons and will be debated probably on the next private members' day next week.

J. A. Clark proposes that the rates westward from the prairies to the Pacific be reduced to equalize with the rates on the prairies for similar goods and distances.

D. M. Kennedy, progressive member for West Edmonton, asks the removal of discrimination against British Columbia and that the excessive mountain scale be abandoned unless justified by actual water competition.

BRITISH WILL NOT PERMIT FRENCH TO PASS THROUGH ZONE

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Premier Bonar Law at a conference with the French is reported to have refused transportation facilities for the French occupation authorities throughout the British zone at Cologne. It is understood he offered instead to transfer a small section of the zone to complete French control.

The conference ended this afternoon. The French mission leaves for home tonight. Secrecy is maintained in British official circles regarding the discussions.

TUSCAN PRINCE NOT REPORTED

Doubt Expressed as to Authenticity of Messages Received Regarding Her

VICTORIA, Feb. 16.—The fate of the large British freighter Tuscan Prince and her crew of 43 men is still unknown today, 36 hours after she sent a faint wireless message saying the vessel was sinking. No further word has been received from the vessel except that she struck a ledge on Vancouver Island and the crew had been rescued. The message is unconfirmed and it is thought to be erroneous.

Steamer Santa Rica is still aground and is being pounded to pieces. The Nika which burned to the water's edge Saturday, has disappeared.

B.C. APPEAL IS ALLOWED

Will Place Liquor Taxation Case Before Privy Council in Britain

LONDON, Feb. 16.—British Columbia has today been granted by the judicial committee of the Privy Council the right to appeal from the dismissal by the supreme court of Canada of a test action to determine whether the Dominion parliament has power to impose a customs duty or excise sales tax on goods imported for the provincial government in British Columbia from outside Canada.

The action arose in connection with the purchases of whiskey in Glasgow under the British Columbia Liquor Act, which upon arrival at Victoria was seized by the Dominion collector of customs pending the payment of duty.

The province contends that the Dominion lacks the power to impose such duties.

MEDICAL MEN GO ON STRIKE

Prince Edward Island Hospital Doctors Object to Treatment

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Feb. 16.—All medical members of the Prince Edward Island hospitals are on strike as a result of a grievance which they consider should have received more prompt attention. They set a definite time during which a doctor should practice in the city before being eligible for membership on the staff. Also in major operations they require five years' practice or a post graduate course to have been served as an interne in a private hospital.

The trustees declare the action of the doctors comes as a complete surprise.

GRANBY EMPLOYEES INTERESTED IN DEAL

ANYOX, Feb. 16.—The announcement that arrangements for the taking over of the Canada Copper Company's holdings at Copper Mountain, B.C., by the Granby Company were completed caused considerable speculation among employees of the company here, a number of whom believe that the time has come when faithful service will be rewarded by promotion to some position connected with the operation of the company in its new field of endeavor.

Struggle Going On In Germany.

There is a great struggle going on in Germany. The Germans were overwhelmed a few years ago by allied arms and now they are putting up a strong silent protest against occupation of their territory. Their tenacity of purpose must be admired, while their refusal to pay the indemnities makes them deserving of punishment, especially in view of the fact that the taxes in that country are much lower than those in any of the countries that are said to have won the war. The winners are the ones who have been the chief sufferers from the war, both during the time it was being fought and since. Still, in spite of that, the sympathy of a great number of people goes out to the Germans on account of the way in which they are struggling and holding together in spite of the adverse circumstances under which they find themselves.

Engineer's Report On Interior Mines.

The report of J. D. Galloway on the mining conditions of the interior proves most interesting reading, not only to those who are directly interested in mining but also to those who feel that the success of the mining industry means the development of the whole country. Mr. Galloway is optimistic and says there will be a good deal of activity this year. That means much employment of miners and others in the district and consequently increased market for farm products.

What is true of the district of which Mr. Galloway is in charge is also true of the coast district where George Clothier is the district engineer. There will be more than usual activity in that district according to all the forecasts which have come to hand. This is especially true of Stewart, where a good deal of work has been going on all winter and where there will be much development in the spring.

Need Of Opening Up Coal Mines.

If Sir Henry Thornton wishes to make the G.T.P. pay dividends, there seems to be no surer way of doing it than by opening up routes to the coal properties along the line of railway. The great secret of Britain's success is the abundant and excellent quality coal measures that underlie large sections of the country and the ambition and energy which makes them develop the latent wealth. If the local coal measures were opened up and could be shipped to the coast at a reasonably low rate, we should see great developments here. The railway would find that the coal business brought other business and prosperity would follow. It has been proved in some cases, that the coal is there. What is needed now is the well directed energy that is necessary to the carrying on of any great work.

Sad Accident To Usk Residents.

The sad accident which befell Mr. and Mrs. Scully at Usk yesterday brings before us again the need of special care in the matter of fire prevention. It is easy to forget to shut off the draught in a heater or to allow loose papers or other inflammable material to lie around. It is difficult to control the fire once it starts. What is needed is great care to prevent such occurrences. Losses by fire are great and often unnecessary. The sympathy of the whole northern country will go out to Mr. and Mrs. Scully in the loss of their little child. It was bad to lose everything they had in the way of house and clothes but the great loss in the little child, that was peacefully sleeping when death overtook it, is impossible to retrieve.

Every day we read of fires destroying lives and properties and many of these, with reasonable care could be avoided.

"My Hands Trembled and I Could Not Sleep"

Mr. Thomas Honey, Brantford, Ont., writes:—

"When I began taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I was so nervous that when I picked up a cup of tea my hand would tremble like a leaf. I could not sleep well, could not remember things, and there were neuralgic pains through my body. After taking seven boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am in perfect health."

REDUCTION IN POLICE FORCE

Two Men to be Cut Off End of March, Commission Decided Yesterday Afternoon

The police commission decided yesterday afternoon to reduce the police force from six to four members including the chief. The officers whose services will be dispensed with, will be given thirty days notice from March 1.

Chief Vickers, in reporting on the proposal of reduction to four men, said that it would be difficult to run the department with that number and it would probably be only a short time until it would be necessary to put another man back.

Mayor Newton explained that the reduction proposed would be in the nature of an experiment. Public sentiment seemed to be in favor of a reduction and he would favor trying it out. If it proved unsatisfactory and adequate protection was not being given thereby, the citizens would be responsible. In the meantime, the chief always had the power to take on specials if necessary.

Strong Sentiment

Commissioner Cameron felt that there must be protection and questioned the advisability of leaving it to the citizens to detect crime which was the duty of the police force. Not every body in the city was in favor of reduction although he admitted there was a strong sentiment that way.

Commissioner Shockley said it was not a question of what the commission wanted but what it could afford. If subsequent reports showed that more than four officers were necessary they would have to be provided. Many people were in favor of reduction and as far as he could find, there were few against it.

Moved by Mayor

Since he had fathered the proposal for reduction, Commissioner Shockley suggested that Mayor Newton make the resolution. Accordingly His Worship withdrew from the chair and moved that the chief be asked to readjust his department along the line of a four man service including himself and in that way give the best possible service with the men at his disposal and if special circumstances warrant it the chief be empowered at any time to engage any temporary service necessary to meet the requirements. The resolution was seconded by Commissioner Shockley and passed unanimously. Commissioner Cameron stating that he was not strongly opposed to it feeling that sentiment of the public was in that direction.

ORATORICAL CONTEST PLANS ARE PREPARED

Seven Students Expected to Enter and Event Will be Open to Public

At the Rotary Club yesterday the chairman of the committee having the matter in charge reported that about seven speakers were expected to take part in the oratorical contest to be held on the evening of Friday, February 23, under the auspices of the Rotary Club in Booth Memorial School. Three of the club members would be chosen to act as judges. There would also be music supplied by students of High School.

The contest will be held in public and it is expected there will be a large attendance to hear the young speakers, especially in view of the splendid manner in which some of them acquitted themselves last year on a similar occasion.

PROTESTANTS IN POLAND DISAGREE

WARSAW, Feb. 16.—The Protestant churches of Poland have been authorized by the government, under the Polish constitution, to draw up their own statutes covering the administration of the church. Under this decision a Protestant synod was summoned and has been sitting for some time.

Due to the fact that there are great differences of opinion between the German and the Polish protestants, it was suggested that two protestant churches

Foot Saved in 4 Days!

"Nothing but Zam-Buk could have done it," says Mrs. A. Berryman, 190, John Street, North, Hamilton, in describing how her right foot, crushed by a wagon wheel, was healed. "The flesh was terribly bruised, blackened and inflamed, and I fainted away with pain. When it was quite impossible for me to move about, my husband's mother got me to try Zam-Buk. It was surprising! Within TWO DAYS all swelling and discoloration had disappeared and pain was banished. In FOUR DAYS, through the timely use of Zam-Buk, I could get about as usual; the injured foot was thoroughly healed."

The last session of the synod was particularly animated. The Polish members found themselves in a slight minority and left the hall as a sign of protest.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

February 16, 1913.

The Omineca Miner says that the mineral development of the interior district will be one of the most important factors in the future progress of the city of Prince Rupert.

While Prince Rupert is enjoying clear, balmy spring weather Vancouver is in the throes of a snowstorm, the beautiful now lying four feet on the thoroughfares of that city.

GUNSHOT WOUND SELF-INFLICTED

Coroners' Jury Fails to Determine Whether Corner's Death Was Premeditated or Accidental

"We, the undersigned, find that accused came to his death by a gunshot wound self-inflicted while under the influence of liquor. Whether this was premeditated or by accident is not brought out in the evidence. We recommend that the proper authorities institute a thorough investigation of places such as that in which deceased met his death."

The foregoing was the verdict brought in yesterday afternoon by the coroners' jury inquiring into the death of the late Robert Corner who shot himself on Wednesday morning in Lena Silver's house on First Avenue. Coroner J. H. McMullin presided and the jury members were C. V. Eviit, G. A. Bryant, Thomas McMeekin, Jack Judge, Bert Morrison and J. C. Gavizan.

Witnesses heard yesterday afternoon were Henry Letourneau, plumber, and William Millar, government liquor vendor.

Mr. Letourneau testified to having visited the premises of Lena Silver on Wednesday morning to repair burst water pipes. He had seen deceased who seemed to be in the best of spirits.

Bought Much Liquor

Mr. Millar testified that deceased had bought 11 bottles of whiskey and six dozen bottles of beer between February 1 and 13. He believed that he had possibly been buying liquor for Lena Silver, a regular customer, who had not been to the store since Feb. 1. Deceased had never shown any signs of intoxication while in the store and always acted in a strictly sane manner. He would say he was not a drinking man.

Deceased's bank books were brought into court. He had three accounts and there was a total of something over $600 on deposit. There had been no withdrawals since January 22.

All The Family Had Bad Colds

"Did you ever notice that if one of the family contracts a cold it generally runs to all the other members?"

Many people when they contract a cold do not pay any attention to it, thinking perhaps it will pass away of itself in a day or two. This is a great mistake for before they know it, it has become settled on the lungs.

Never neglect the first symptoms; get a bottle of

and see how quickly your cold will disappear. Mrs. A. Corbhan, Marmora, Alta., writes:—"Last winter we all had bad colds in our family, and I didn't know what to do. Now we always keep a bottle on hand in case one of us might catch a cold."

SENDOFF GIVEN
FORESTRY HEAD

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Manning Entertained on Eve of Departure; Presentation Made

The home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Sharkey, Fifth Ave. West, was the scene of a very delightful gathering last night when the members of the local Forestry Service entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Manning on the eve of their departure for Victoria where Mr. Manning is taking over the duties of Chief of Management to the Provincial Forestry Branch Head Office.

During the evening Mr. Sharkey, on behalf of the members of the local Forestry Service, presented Mr. Manning with a very beautiful scroll on which was artistically engraved an appropriate address signed by the individual members of the Prince Rupert Forestry staff. In addition to the scroll Mr. Manning was also presented with a magnificent silver set consisting of a large tray, entree dish, and casserole. In making the presentation Mr. Sharkey, on behalf of the staff, expressed deep regret at being forced to part with such an esteemed chief who had always had, not only the welfare of his department, but the welfare of the members of his staff at heart. While regret was expressed at Mr. Manning's departure they were all very much pleased to see Mr. Manning get the promotion which he so richly deserved.

Mr. Manning, who was taken completely by surprise, made a fitting speech of thanks in which he touched upon the good fellowship that had always existed between himself and staff. He said how sorry he was to leave not only his staff but also his many friends in Prince Rupert.

After the presentation the company sat down to delightful refreshments served by Mrs. Sharkey and the happy occasion was brought to a close by the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. Sharkey, Miss May Pringle, Miss Dorothy Stephens, Miss Roma Caldwell, Miss Nancy Bore, G. B. Redding, H. G. Shepherd, J. B. Scott, W. B. Penney, and Capt. Archie.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning were given a royal send off by the members of the Forestry Branch staff on the departure for the south of the steamer Prince George this morning.

HIGH SCHOOL LIT.
HEARS OF MAKING
OF A NEWSPAPER

George Wilson Addresses Students, Telling of Various Phases of Work

The High School Literary Society at their weekly session yesterday afternoon were addressed by George Wilson, business manager of the Daily News on Newspaper Work. A description of the three divisions, editorial, mechanical and business office of a modern newspaper was given, and the openings for young people were pointed out together with the necessary requisites on their part. The story of the making of a newspaper, from the news gathering point to its final selling on the street and the ultimate payment of the nickel proved interesting to the students and absorbed their attention. The address was severely practical and was based upon painfully acquired knowledge.

The economic side of the business was explained, the lecturer stating that any community will get just as good a newspaper as it pays for. He showed the fallacy of expecting to get something for nothing, which, according to Euclid, is absurd and that without the adequate support of the whole community, both in subscription and advertising revenue no newspaper could grow.

Sergeant-Major Instructor A. Youngman, who has been here for several weeks giving instruction to local candidates for military officership, returned to his headquarters in Victoria on the Prince George this morning.

Cash and Credit

A person without money or property usually has little credit, even if his integrity is well known. Credit is based on capital, and capital is the result of saving. Credit is not a gift; it is a growth. It comes through earnest effort long continued. Some day you will need it.

Saving is the first step to good credit.

EUROPE GREAT MISSION FIELD

Presbyterian Church of Old Hemisphere Needs Assistance From America

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 16.—“If the Protestant Church of Europe is to aid in the rehabilitation of that continent we must help them to do it—they are too weak to do it themselves. The greatest mission field of our churches today, next to our foreign and home missions is the continent of Europe.” Dr. James I. Good, of Philadelphia, spoke thus today in a report made to the conference of the World Presbyterian Alliance, now in session here. Mr. Good is secretary of the Committee on “Work in Europe.”

“The religious condition of Europe is very much the same as a year ago,” Dr. Good’s report goes on to say. “There is the same story of need everywhere. The need of money for church buildings is increasingly imperative. This is true in France and Belgium, but especially so in Bohemia. If they are to be helped, our churches must do it. And what is done must be done quickly.”

“Several new needs are becoming more prominent. The first is the need of supporting their students for the ministry. There is a lamentable dearth of ministers in those lands, except in Germany and Hungary proper. Only four ministers to 40,000 Lithuanians, only five ministers to 20,000 Poles, Bohemia could use 50 more ministers than she has. In Yugoslavia more than a quarter of their congregations are vacant, and there is danger of disintegration. Some of these Churches will die out unless they get more ministers. Then, too, three of these European countries have no theological schools for the education of their young candidates. They are Lithuania, Poland and Yugoslavia.”

“So finally, a plan has been evolved by your committee on Clothing in Europe. They sent an appeal to each of the Theological Seminaries of our family of churches in America, asking them to take at least one continental student, educate him, pay his necessary and travelling expenses, and send him back to work in those churches. Four of our Theological Seminaries have already done this. Princeton has four, Lancaster three, Central has two, and Western of Pittsburgh has one—ten foreign students in all. Five more Theological Seminaries are now ready to take a student. Louisville, Union Seminary of Richmond, Columbia, the United Presbyterian Seminary of Pittsburgh, and the Dutch Reform of New Brunswick.”

Books Are Needed

“Still another need is also emerging—the need of theological books for the libraries of their theological universities. One of the theological professors of one of the oldest of the Hungarian universities, Saros-patek, said to us last summer: ‘I have not bought a new book since before the war. How can I prepare my lectures on dogmatics if I do not keep myself abreast with the times? Another bright young private student in Budapest said to me: ‘Unless we get books for our libraries we are in danger of cultural decadence and intellectual starvation.’ Can

“A third and last new feature of the present is that the field is enlarging, because Russia is just coming into the range of our vision. Last summer we were told in Lithuania that there were 100,000 of our faith in Russia. We also learned that they did not have a single pastor as all had left the country. We also learned from the congregations in Moscow and Odessa that they were starving and wanted food drafts.”

POUND STERLING IS APPROACHING PAR

British Foreign Trade for 1922 Showed Marked Improvement

The pound sterling is steadily approaching par. This London cable gives the fundamental reason says Burdick, Logan & Co.’s bulletin.

“British foreign trade in 1922 showed marked improvement in all its features. Domestic exports increased £17,000,000. Imports declined £83,000,000.

Shrinkage in adverse balance effected was £100,000,000, or 26 per cent. The balance fell to within £10,000,000 of the £213,000,000 import balance of 1913. Heavy gains in the proportion of wheat and similar requirements obtained from Canada and other dominions marked 1922 trade. A larger proportionate trade indebtedness than in 1921 was incurred within the empire.

Imports of 1922 exceeded domestic exports by only 30%, compared with a 54% excess in 1921 and one of 16% in 1913. On trade volume, adverse balance was the smallest in recent history of British commerce. “Invisible exchange,” made up of services and investment returns, left substantial surplus after providing for the trade balance.

Of the increase of £235,000,000 in 1922 over 1913 imports, £177,000,000 was in food, drink and tobacco. High wheat and cotton make the showing less favorable than was expected early in 1922.

FORD PRODUCTION OF CARS WAS VERY LARGE

In 1922 the Output was 1,351,333 Cars and Trucks With Record in August

DETROIT, Feb. 15.—Final figures of Ford production are 1,351,333 automobiles and trucks in 1922, an increase of 300,000 over 1921. Highland Park plant produced 1,232,209 cars last year and 50,166 were built in the Canadian plant at Ford, Ontario.

Production of foreign plants was: Manchester, England, 27,194 cars and trucks; Buenos Aires, 11,871; Copenhagen 40,552; Bordeaux 10,548; Cadiz, Spain 5,331; and Sao Paulo, Brazil, 3,362.

The total number of tractors built last year was 8,985, an increase of 100 per cent over 1921. Political disturbances in Ireland did not interrupt production of tractors at the Cork plant.

The peak month in 1922 was June with 147,770 cars and trucks built. The record day last year was August 29, with production of 5,699 cars and trucks.

FIRST CLASS MEN NEEDED

Speaker at Rotary Luncheon Yesterday Urged Claims of Boy on Members

“You cannot make an A1 nation out of C3 men,” was a quotation from Lloyd George used by W. E. Galloway to illustrate the need of seeing that the activities of the boys were directed in such a manner as to make the best class of men. He was addressing a largely attended luncheon, of the Rotary Club yesterday in the St. Regis Cafe upstairs dining room, Harold Campbell presiding. Paraphrasing the poet Wordsworth he spoke of the privileges of the young men today in these words:

“What bliss it is in this day to be alive; but to be young, with all the opening doors of opportunity in Canada, is very heaven.”

Mr. Galloway said that the conversation of boyhood was vital and necessary to Canadian life. He recalled the sacrifices that had been made by the war and inroads made into young manhood. The challenge was today flung out to the younger generation to fill up the gaps and to measure up to the ideals of the young men who have gone overseas. A great many responded to the challenge, but others did not. Some drifted away and had gone down hill, losing out in the great game of life and becoming C3 men. They had drifted away from the highest and best influences.

Wrongly Directed

The speaker mentioned that there was an increase in the offenses committed by juveniles and it was significant that many of the offenses were against property rather than against persons. It was not very long ago when men were hanged for sheep stealing. Offenses were committed in a desire to get even with someone whom they disliked but often it was just the love of fun and the inspiration of the crowd that caused the delinquency. It was the irrepressible energy of youth constantly seeking expression.

There were two methods of dealing with juvenile delinquency. One was that of repression and the other was that of directing the activities. The same impulse which led to the stealing of bases led to the breaking of the law. If the outlet was provided in one direction it would not go in the other. Giving proper direction to the activities was the great thing. This was a challenge to every man to find the channels into which the activities of the boy were directed and see that there was the right tendency. The responsibility rested chiefly on the fathers, although a great many tried to throw it on the teachers, the Sunday Schools and the Church. There was a tendency to shuffle out from responsibility. Many were not measuring up. They were not taking time to look after their boys and make friends with them.

Mr. Galloway suggested the outline as provided by the standard of efficiency of some of the churches. This dealt with the intellectual, physical, devotional and social training of youth. There was no program of work which called for leadership so persistently as this. He urged members of the club to make friends with the boys and suggested methods by which they might aid in the work being carried on.

One Got Full Report of Police Commission Meeting Even Though Excluded

VICTORIA, Feb. 15.—Making a volte face from the previous meeting when the press had been excluded and the major portion of the discussion held in private, the Police Commission excluded the general public from the confidential portions of its agenda and allowed the press representatives to remain. Sessions in camera were useless anyway intimated Commissioner Staneland, insisting, however, that the privilege extended be limited to matters which would not affect the characters of the men of the force under discussion.

“The last meeting we held in camera,” stated Mr. Staneland,

How often can We Advertise?

NOT How often should we Advertise?

WHY are the Canadian and American Manufacturers appropriating fifty per cent more dollars in Newspaper Advertising for the year 1923 than in 1922?

There's a Reason

BECAUSE they have implicit faith in the pulling power of Newspaper Advertising and in the future trade conditions for the coming year.

The daily newspaper has proved itself worthy of this tremendous responsibility and trust.

Men who spend millions of dollars on Newspaper Advertising yearly know what it has done for them in the past and feel safe in trusting their future fortunes to the advertising columns of the daily press.

BETTER TIMES GREAT BRITAIN

President of National Chamber of Trades Sees Improvement Coming

LONDON, Feb. 15.—An encouraging forecast for improved British trade in 1923 is made by Felix J. Blakemore, president of the National Chamber of Trade. "I am convinced that our industrial conditions will improve," Mr. Blakemore writes, "and while paying due regard to the importance of our pre-war European markets and their present stagnant condition, the prospects of a greatly increased trade with our overseas dominions, crown colonies and dependencies are distinctly reassuring. It will be remembered that early this year our overseas dominions floated large loans in London for purposes of development. These were mostly over-subscribed, and now that the schemes are maturing, large orders for plant and machinery are being placed in Great Britain which will gradually expand as the work proceeds. The foreign markets of the world—other than the United States—are increasingly active in their inquiries for British goods due in the main to the failure of Germany to execute orders, and also somewhat to the raising of the United States tariff wail by the passing of the Fordney Tariff Bill. If only we can reduce our costs of production, and therefore our prices, we shall be able rapidly to convert those inquiries into orders.

Cost of Production.
Mr. Blakemore predicts that cost of production will be reduced by a fall of 5 points in the living price about March, and a further considerable reduction 12 months hence. "This is based on the appreciation of the value of the pound sterling in America, which will enable American produce to be reduced in price to the consumer, and America is so important a factor in the supply of food goods to this country, that American prices of food rapidly become world prices."

"The increased food supplies, together with appreciation of sterling values, will undoubtedly bring cheaper goods to the consumer, and if, by reducing the cost of living, it does not immediately reduce production cost of manufactured goods, it will at once increase the purchasing power of the British public and so stimulate the home demand for the goods we make."

TREASURES IN GRAVES EGYPT

Reasons For Ancients Placing Articles in the Burial Places

LONDON, Feb. 15.—As the weeks reveal more and more of the treasures which crowd the tomb of Tutankhamen many are doubtless asking themselves the pertinent question, Why were all these objects placed in the grave of the dead monarch? To answer this one must grasp two facts at the outset. The first is that Egyptian beliefs at this period regarding death and the next life were not the momentary product of a single inspired sage, but the accumulated outcome of two thousand years or more of wondering. The second is that, despite all that some of the ancient Greeks have stated to the contrary, the Egyptians were a thoroughly unphilosophical people; those who read their writings are continually impressed with their ability to hold in the mind at one and the same time two totally inconsistent beliefs without any apparent sense of contradiction. The consequence of these two facts is that in trying to explain the presence in the tomb of an elaborate funerary equipment we must take account of the historical development of ideas concerning life and death, and we must not be surprised if the correct explanation combines beliefs which to us are obviously inconsistent.

Dead Man's Use

In the very earliest Egyptian tombs, perhaps as old as 3500 B.C., we already find placed with the body a certain number of objects and weapons which the dead man had used during life, together with a store of food and drink. This does not imply any conscious reflection on the nature of the life beyond the grave; on the contrary, it merely betrays an inability to imagine physical life as having really come to an end. In other words, the primitive Egyptian believed that his dead brother continued to exist in some purely physical sense, and still to have need of food, drink, clothing, and weapons. Strange though it may seem, this point of view persisted throughout Egyptian history, and was at the bottom of the whole funerary cult in all periods. The inscriptions make it perfectly clear it was believed the dead enjoyed a continued physical existence of a modified and hazily-conceived type in the tomb itself, and the evidence of the tombs themselves confirms this.

Burial Chamber

The Egyptian tomb in its complete form consisted of two parts, an underground chamber containing the body in its coffin, and an offering-chamber above ground. Even the Pyramids, the tombs of the kings of the third to the twelfth dynasties, and the great rock-tombs of the later kings in the Valley of the Kings at Thebes were no exceptions to the rule. In the Pyramids the burial-chamber was generally cut in the solid rock beneath the pyramid, more rarely in the masonry itself, while the offering-chamber was developed into an elaborate series of rooms constituting a regular temple on the east side of the pyramid proper. In the Valley of the Kings we find only the burial-chambers, the offering-chambers taking the form of elaborate chapels standing outside the valley much nearer to the river, most of which have now perished. In the burial-chamber lives the dead man, and in the offering-chamber above or near it his relatives come to bring him the daily supply of "bread, beer, fowl, and flesh" without which he would be compelled to "eat ordure" or to "die the second death in the tomb." Thus the Egyptian literally believed, howbeit in a perfectly unreflective manner, that the dead man came up from his burial-chamber into the offering-chapel to receive the food there placed for him; in the earlier chapels there is actually at one end a false door cut in stone before which stands a statue of the deceased actually represented as just-emerging from it to partake of the food. The visitors came not to worship the dead but to feed him.
