WHAT OF THE C. P. R.?

Officials of the C. N. R. and C. P. R. recently made a fents in each ward. thorough joint investigation of the terminals at Port Arthur and Fort William. They were silent as to the reason for their inspection but it is generally understood that it is part of their scheme of co-operation under which it is planned to undertake economies jointly at the lake ter-

What people are wondering is whether there will be a joint inspection of the terminal at Prince Rupert with a view to joint operation, better use of grain elevator and greater use of the ocean dock and the shipyard. Great economies might be brought about by having these operated to a greater extent than they are today. These economies would not only benefit the railways, especially the C. N. R., but would also benefit the whole province and make the railway an asset to Canada.

It is to be hoped that when final settlement is made of the use to which the port of Prince Rupert is to be put by the two national railways, complete plans will be made for joint operation of the section west of Red Pass Junction or for running rights and terminal facilities for the C. P. R. as well as the C. N. R. This would enable the line to quitted itself very creditably in the be used sufficiently to pay overhead expenses and also a profit to the companies operating, neither of which it Large and J. S. It is generally accepted as fact that the C. P. R. could by G. V. Wilkinson and Dr. R. G. use the port of Prince Rupert with advantage, especially Large. in connection with their silk transportation and the present seems to be the suitable occasion for making arrangements for the joint use of the road and port.

BARRYMORE FEATURED

'The Washington Masquerade" Being Shown at Capitol Theatre This Mid-Week

"The Washington Masquerade," drama concerned with the lobbyist racket in the capital of the United States with Lionel Barrymore in a dominant role as a senator who falls victim to a woman's wiles, is the mid-week attraction on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here.

The senator becomes a national power and a leader in the fight for public ownership of utilities. The vested interests "plant" a woman to "vamp" him. After he marries her, she tricks him into being the tool of the lobbyists. Disillusionment comes and a dramatic climax occurs in the Senate chambers where Barrymore, in an impassioned speech, tears asunder the structure of "inside" politics.

Karen Morley has the principal feminine role as the woman who attempts to dupe Barrymore. Diane Sinclair, Philadelphia society girl and a new screen "find" makes her debut in this picture as Barrymore's daughter. Nils Asther has a sinister part as a foreign affairs lobbyist.

The weekly revival feature tonight presents Seth Parker in "Way Back Home."
