TURKISH THINK NEGOTIATIONS WILL FAIL MILITARY RULE INITIATED BY FRENCH IN OCCUPIED AREA OF GERMANY

Proclaims Military Law German Occupied Area French Preparations

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 27 (8 a.m.)—What practically amounts to martial law was proclaimed in the occupied area by the French yesterday. Cafes, hotels, theatres, cabarets, were ordered closed at ten o'clock and the French arrested twenty more nationalist leaders during the day for non-cooperation. Dr. Greutzner, president of Rhenish Prussia, was arrested but released after three hours.

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 27 (noon).—Another strengthening of the German resistance generally was anticipated by the French today as the aftermath of yesterday's meeting of the Ruhr police chiefs, burgomasters and other officials at which it is said measures for parrying the occupation was discussed.

The French are ready for any developments and with additional troops on the scene have the city practically under martial law. Public places, hotels, cabarets, and theatres were closed last evening at ten by the occupationists while French soldiers walked the beats of the German police.

Reports that the French contemplate summoning several military classes suggests the extent to which the Paris government is prepared to go in forcing the Germans into line. It is thought that the next important move will not take place until January 31, the time limit for the five hundred million gold marks reparation payment.

MUNICH, Jan. 27.—Bavaria is under a modified form of martial law today as a means of preventing weekend meetings of national socialists and fascists.

The building formerly occupied by the public works department in this city which has been given to the library for use at the nominal rental of a dollar a year by the provincial government has been remodelled inside and it is proposed to move the books from the Red Cross hut on Monday and Tuesday. Consequently the library will not be open to the public on those days but it is expected will be ready for business as usual in the new premises on Wednesday.

While the library board has not been able to renovate the interior as they would wish or to paint the exterior, owing to lack of funds, the building will be found commodious and improved will be made as funds become available.

HAYSPORT IS TO BE A LIQUOR CARRIER

Former Fishing Craft Which Left Here Recently Being Refitted

The gas schooner Haysport No. 2, which is here being fitted to carry 2000 cases of liquor, has a history, says the Vancouver Province. She was originally the Roosevelt, but was bought some years before the war by a British syndicate which intended to colonize a tract on the Skeena River. This outfit planned to establish Englishmen on farms and establish industries on the coast, fishing and packing, to keep the farmers busy in slack months. The Roosevelt was bought with two or three smaller boats and was named Haysport No. 2, after the town that was to be established on the Skeena. Then the war broke out. The Haysport No. 2 was sold and has been fishing since. The site where British capital planned to establish its industries is now occupied by the cannery of the Maritime Fish Company.

HOSPITAL BOARD IS ELECTED AND REPORTS ARE READ AT ANNUAL MEETING CITY HALL LAST NIGHT.

Nurses' Home Question

"The one pressing need is a Nurses' Home and there is no reason why this should not now be undertaken. We have on hand for this purpose approximately $6,500.00 of which $2,000 was received from the Red Cross, this largely through our good friend Judge Young; $100 from the late Mr. Mcintosh; $25 from John Carroll, and the hospital share of the last distribution of liquor profits.

"In conclusion, I wish to thank the members of the Board for their loyalty and support through the year. The Prince Rupert General Hospital has for twelve years been doing a noble work for the people of this city and surrounding country, a work that only those closely affiliated with the institution can fully appreciate. Its mission has been to minister to the sick and afflicted and of these, whether rich or poor, none has ever been turned from its doors."

Financial Report

Presenting the financial report for the year, D. C. McRae, chairman of the Finance committee, said there had been reductions in some departments and increase in others. Salaries had totalled $20,202.83. This was larger than it should be because it seemed impossible to get pupil nurses and consequently graduates had to be employed thus considerably bringing up the expenses. Mr. McRae expressed the expectation that, with a Nurses' Home provided, there would be no difficulty in securing pupil nurses. He reported that kitchen supplies, $11,810.74; fuel, $3,539.37; laundry, $2,919.80; maintenance and equipment, $2,511.50; light and power, $1,582.08; advertising, printing and stationery, $189.23, and graduation of nurses' expense, $33.35, had been less than the preceding year, while surgical supplies, $5,376.68; telephones, $178.75; ambulance, $38.30, and water rates $85, had been more. Other general expenses stood around the same figures as in 1921.

Accounts written off during the year had totalled $27,483, as compared with $11,000 the year previous. All outstanding accounts had been written off in order to provide a clear and definite balance sheet that would show the exact state of affairs in a conservative manner. The grants due from the provincial government, city and workmen's compensation board, were still left in the assets, however, for they were worth their face value. There would also be some of the written off outstanding patients' accounts that were still quite good.

Income Was Less

The provincial government's per capita grant of $8,392.35 had been $558 less than the year previous and the city grant of $11,096.10 was $525 less. The total income had been $804 less.

Mr. McRae urged a canvas of the city for new members. He also declared that the hospital had never been better conducted than it was today under the management of Miss Black and Major Gibson.

In moving the adoption of the financial statement, Judge Young said he doubted if any hospital in Canada was able to show a better report. There was general satisfaction with the work and service at the hospital and credit was due the board of directors, the matron and the secretary. Referring to the work promised by the Red Cross, Judge Young said that unforeseen circumstances had prevented the entire program being carried out but he was confident that it eventually would be. The Red Cross Society and the hospital alike suffered from lack of public support.

Judge Young Modest

President Stewart said that Judge Young had been modest, telling only of what had not been done without mentioning the $2,000 grant for the Nurses' Home and the steady expenditures being made at the hospital.

E. G. Gibbons questioned the valuation of $20,202.83 placed on the hospital's 18 lots. Ex-Mayor Rochester also differed with credit for a certain portion of the liquor profits given to the hospital being placed with the provincial government instead of the city.

T. Ross Mackay maintained that the provincial government should bear more of the hospital burden than it did at present. The hands of the board would be strengthened in the future by giving the provincial government full credit for everything it gave today. The liquor profits would not likely be a permanent source of revenue.

Good Civic Support

President Stewart mentioned that the city deserved great thanks for the assistance it had given the hospital. No other city in B.C. treated its hospital better. By means of the city's assistance the hospital had also been able to carry out its policy of covering deficits from the state rather than by public appeal. Appreciation was due to Ex-Mayor Rochester and last year's council.

Mrs. S. Darton presented the financial report of the Ladies' Auxiliary showing that receipts for the year had been $716.68 and expenditures included $247 paid for hospital supplies. The report was adopted on motion of D. C. McRae and M. J. McNeill. The former said the Auxiliary had given the board splendid assistance for which it was very grateful.

Matron's Report

The matron's report showed that there had been 736 admissions during the year and that hospital days had totalled 15,723. There were 133 births, 32 deaths and 218 operations. The nursing staff consisted of 17 nurses, 9 graduates and 8 student nurses. Miss Black urged the building of the nurses' home as a means of making the training school more attractive. Better preliminary education for prospective students was now demanded and some applications had been rejected during the year for this reason.

Home for Nurses

Stating that the sum of $6,500 was already on hand towards the erection of the Nurses'

Home, President Stewart suggested that the Association vote an advance of $5,000 for the purpose. He thought that the balance of the requisite $15,000 might be obtained through public subscription. The suggestion, however, did not find favor and the Nurses' Home matter was finally referred to the incoming board for action. H. B. Rochester and W. E. Williams felt that they could not advance money when they did not have it and K. Campbell felt much the same way although he would like to see a more definite step taken than simply referring the matter to the new board. T. Ross Mackay felt that the time might be more opportune for the raising of money in the spring. He also thought the Association should have at least 300 or 400 members and suggested that the membership fee be raised from $5.00 to $10.00. People might take more interest in hospital affairs if it cost them more to become interested.

With the election of directors and auditor for the year, the meeting closed. Besides the directors elected last night, the city representatives on the board this year are Ald. Collart and Ald. Mackenzie. The provincial government appointees are yet to be announced.

JOLLY DANCE LAST NIGHT AT INLANDER

Popular Boarding House Was En Fete When Guests Were Entertained

One of the jolliest dances given here for some time past was held last night at the Inlander, Second Avenue, when the young people of that popular institution entertained their friends, the occasion being the departure of one of their members, Frank Montgomery, of the Forestry department, who is leaving at the end of the month for his home at Smithers. "Monty," as he is generally called, is very popular at the Inlander where his musical activities are much appreciated. He is severing his connection with the Forestry department.

Dancing commenced sharp at nine to the strains of the Inlander orchestra consisting of F. Montgomery, piano; Harry Wolford, violin; and Clarence Woodruff, traps and drums, and continued until two o'clock. Supper was laid in the dining room, the boys of the institution acting as hosts. Harry Wolford was master of ceremonies, assisted by Jimmie Farguhar. E. P. Jenner mixed the punch, while Miss Isabel McLeod acted as hostess.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Steve King, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Bone, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Wallace, Misses McKinnon, Stephens, Ryan, May, Pringle, Scott, Keup, Ludgate, Cameron, Nickerson, Louden, Donaldson, Minus, Barrow, Macleod, Weller, Palmer and Caldwell and Messrs. ### PROVINCE GETS SOME PUBLICITY IN LONDON

"Business Organization," a monthly magazine published in London, England, has an article "An Experiment in Economic Administration" by Anthony Glue which deals with the department of industries of the British Columbia government. It tells of some of the results of the experiment and also mentions some of the needs of the province in the way of new industries. He deals with the basic industries and speaks of the water powers.

While the references to ship-building are not perhaps very fortunate and might easily be misleading, the article tends to draw attention to British Columbia and her resources, which is a good thing at a time when we are looking for industrial expansion.

GASSED OVERSEAS SHELL SHOCKED and RHEUMATISM

Mr. F. M. Blaquiere, Morinville, Alta., writes:—"After three years service overseas I returned to Canada almost a complete wreck. I had been gassed, and was suffering from shell shock and rheumatism, and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. I tried many medicines and doctors, but none of them did me any good for any length of time. I got so bad, in the Fall of 1919, my hands were so shaky I could scarcely hold anything, and it seemed as if I had a steel hand pressing on my head. The least excitement would almost drive me into fits, and my whole system seemed to be in disorder. I had cramps in my legs nearly every night, and hot and cold chills running up and down my back nearly all the time. One day I decided to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I had taken six boxes I began to feel better. I kept on using them and after a while I was completely relieved." ### ANYOX HOLDS SCOTCH NIGHT

Splendid Concert Honor of Immortal Bard Given in Smelter Town

ANYOX, Jan. 27.—The event of many weeks in Anyox entertainment circles was the concert staged in Recreation Hall Wednesday night, by Rev. J. Herdman, pastor of the Union Church, with the aid of a number of willing and enthusiastic entertainers. It was a bonnie night, a real Scotch night from every standpoint, the standard of Scotland being displayed from vantage points on the stage and auditorium. Scottish songs, music and story held the boards for two hours and a half, and the many who attended for the purpose of honoring the memory of Scotland's darling bard spent a delightful evening, for every taste was catered to, the program being a most diversified one. There was band music, bagpipe selections, recitations, dancing, humorosities (if you can imagine anything Scotch being that), and a number of song selections.

Brass Band
 The Anyox brass band continues to be of splendid service to the community in assisting at affairs of this character and received well-merited applause for the selections played on this occasion. The outstanding feature of the concert was the dancing of the Highland Fling by little Miss Edna Herrin, trained by Mrs. F. M. Kelley, and accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. Sam Herrin. She danced with the assurance of a professional, her footwork being in perfect time with the music and had to repeat the whole dance for an encore.

Another number particularly worthy of notice was Miss Violet McKay's rendering of "Jock O' Hazeldean." This was very well done, indeed, Miss McKay has a strong voice, and for a girl of sixteen years uses it very capably. With the proper training she would undoubtedly develop into a singer of considerable ability. Mrs. John Conway's well-trained voice was heard to good advantage in "Angus McDonald," while Mrs. Tamkin and Mrs. Herrin were other lady songsters who gave a good account of themselves in their several numbers.

Program
 The program in full was as follows: Band selection, Anyox brass band; solo, "My Ain Folk," Mrs. Tamkin; solo, "My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose," Mr. D. McKenzie, accompanied by Miss Zeigler; banjo solo, "Annie Laurie," Mr. James Provost; duet, "Bonnie Doon," Mrs. Herrin and Rev. J. Herdman; reading, "Spartan's to the Gladiators at Capua," Mrs. J. Lawrence; monologue, "The Black Watch," Mr. Autterson; solo, "Angus McDonald," Mrs. John Conway; bagpipes, "Cock O' The North," Piper J. McLinnen; solo, "Jock O' Hazeldean," by Miss Violet McKay; Highland Fling, Miss Edna Herrin; solo, "Loch Lomond," Mrs. S. Herrin; band, "Scotch Medley"; solo, "Bonnie Bessie," Mrs. Tamkin; solo, "The March of the Cameron Men," Mr. D. McKenzie; bagpipes, Piper J. McLinnen; band selection, Anyox brass band. W. F. Eve was to have sung "The Battle of Stirling," but owing to a severe cold was unable to do so, Miss Leitch acted as accompanist for Mrs. Conway's selection, while Mr. Southam played for Mrs. Tamkin, Miss McKay, Mrs. Herrin and the Rev. J. Herdman.

During the evening, the Rev. J. Herdman thanked all those who had so generously assisted him with their time and talents, and at the conclusion requested the

BASKETBALL OPENS ANYOX THIS WEEK

First Match on Wednesday Proved to be Victory For Mine

The basketball season was inaugurated in Anyox on Wednesday night, January 24, when the Mine and Smelter teams clashed in the new Recreation Hall at the Mine, the result being a win for the Miners, the score at the finish standing 34 to 30. The game was devoid of sensational playing, both teams being fairly well balanced as the score attests. The passing of Anderson and Brown for the Smelters was the only outstanding feature in a game where all were so nearly equal in skill and staying powers. The teams lined up as follows:

Smelter
 Centre, R. F. Wooster.
 Guards, Dr. Simmons, A. Hunter, first half, and R. A. Berry, second half.
 Forwards, Anderson and Brown.

Mine
 Centre, Bob Stewart, first half, and Ed. Swanson, second half.
 Guards, Geo. Corlie and C. Ferguson.
 Forwards, Ed. Swanson, first half, and Bob Stewart, second half, and Frank Mealey.

"A. W. Hutchinson handled the whistle in a satisfactory manner and the fans were well satisfied with the evening's entertainment. Now that the both Community League halls are in shape for practice and playing, the league will get away with a rush. Although late in starting, the enthusiasts are going to make up for lost time by crowding in all the games possible. Schedules for senior, intermediate and ladies' leagues are about ready for posting.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

Business Conditions

Admiral of the Mosquito reports that with a number of the small boats recently on the high spots the fish increased over those of last year and business generally on the waterfront is feeling the effects of the annual impetus to nautical trade.

There is still a marked activity around Gow Bay in boat repair business and the well-known shipyards of N. M. McLean have two boats on the ways undergoing a general overhaul.

A marked improvement in the arrivals has been noticed this week and several boats have put into port with cargoes of valuable furs including martens, otter and wolf.

Excellent Fur Catch. G. Steethorse arrived at Porcher Island on Wednesday last.

Monday last aboard the power boat Red with a cargo of fine quality furs. The cargo comprised mink, marten and otter which were sold locally.

Skipper Boomes K. Freeman, of the launch Narbhong, cleared port on Tuesday with a full load of groceries and other necessities of life bound for southern ports of call.

The halibut boats Caygeon and Kayosa, which recently completed a thorough overhaul, cleared for the high spots early in the week.

The Alta Changes Hands. The secret service report that the power boat Alta, owned by Capt. Jimmy Thomas, of political fame was recently sold to Ben Boliver, the local waterfront contractor.

Pure White Gull is Seen. Pete Solem is seeing things again. This time he is quite certain that he saw a pure white live sea-gull flying around the fish houses.

After Herring. The halibut boat N. M. & R., the flagship of the N. M. & R. Fish Co., recently returned from a herring prospecting trip.

the high boat squad and there may be something in the yarn after all. A pure white sea-gull is a very rare specimen in fact such a bird has never been seen before in this locality.

Big Bay Lumber Busy. The power boat Wake arrived from Georgetown on Wednesday with a snow load of fish boxes for the local fish houses.

It is rumored that the Big Bay Lumber Co's wharf is to be repaired in the near future but enquiry failed to ascertain who will handle the work.

Repairs are being done on the Government wharf building by Capt. Walford of the coastal cruiser Dreamer. Wire netting is being artistically nailed over the windows to prevent the sea gulls from pecking and breaking the glass and otherwise annoying the busy occupants.

The Provincial forestry boat Embree, of Thurston Harbor, is on the N. M. McLean ways undergoing hull and engine repairs. The engine is to be entirely rebuilt and considerable repair work is to be done to the hull. The interior is also being entirely remodelled.

The halibut boat Marguerite, owned by Capt. Jack Morrison, is also in the same spot ready to be overhauled.

Is Paddy Raymond Red. Grave doubts are being expressed in waterfront circles as to whether Paddy Raymond, of Lookout Point, is or is not transferring his affections from red, white and blue to entirely red. Several local mariners have reported seeing a red flag flying from the masts of Paddy's home and it is thought perhaps the Irish colony down that way is turning a little Bolshevik in its ideas.

After Herring. The halibut boat N. M. & R.,

the flagship of the N. M. & R. Fish Co., recently returned from a herring prospecting trip and reports having located a nice little swarm of herring in the not-far distant waters but just where is the fleet secret.

On her next trip to port the steamer Prince John will bring 300 tons of coal and 20,000 feet of lumber for Albert & McCaffery.

While engaged on repair work underneath the railway dock Mr. Blackhall had the misfortune to fall into the salt chuck. It appears he was working underneath the dock in a small boat, and while reaching above his head to give the nail its last flush home the boat quietly slipped away with the result he was submerged in the wintry waves.

A Beautiful Gift. It was a case of better late than never with Bill Knight's Xmas parcel from Seattle. Bill received a beautifully illustrated volume of "The Young China," from Seattle by the last mail.

The volume is artistically bound in newsprint and contains several very wonderful engravings of oriental origin. The front page contains a beautiful illustration of a couple bottles of beer, before opening, drawn by Ki Sang Wet. Evidently Mr. Wet is no friend of Pussysfoot. On the inside page is a pen and ink sketch of the Slang Sling Hotel, by Slang Sling Slang, which is evidently a hostel where slang is taught free. The opposite page is decorated with butcher knives and shears, drawn by Pong Dong Ding, which makes a most befitting picture for the name of the artist. On the back page appears a steel engraving, it says someone stole it, of Slong Chop Suey, the man who patented the confection known as chop suey. The whole is printed in Chinese of which no one understands a word. It will know for certain who sent it there would be a good job going in Seattle for someone.

Podge is going to school on his hands to save his boots. I was out to a jamboree last night given by Mrs. Smuffitt at her home on Home Street. We had a great time and lots of bread sandwiches. This is a patent dish. They were made of pieces of bread between two pieces of bread and go down good with a pinch of salt on the middle piece which makes it taste like hain. Sandy Finlayson Falls
Skipper Sandy Finlayson was down the coast during the work prospecting for herring but returned to port with a nil report. However he is not a bit discouraged and intends to take another trip in the very near future. He says that "Faint heart never won fresh herring."

Fishinn Results
During the week 388,200 lbs. of halibut has been marketed through the local Fish Exchange, an increase of 203,700 pounds over last week. The highest price paid was 19c and 9.5c, and the lowest price 14.5c and 6c.

The arrivals were: Scandia, Virginia, Imperieuse, Carolen, Livingstone, Corona, Flora, Eids-vold, Gonah, Texas, Alice B., Nomad, Thelma H., Harding, Chimera, Kaien, Defence, Pair of Jacks, Agnes, Forward, Presho, Lumen, North, Valid, Sadie K., Labanon, Uranus, Pioneer III, Cape Spencer.

Capl. Myhill-Jones was up to Port Simpson with the launch Oh Baby with several school officials on Tuesday.

Marguerite and the Radio
The halibut boat Marguerite, skippered by Jack Morrison, a brother of the notable Jim Morrison, is on the N. M. McLean ways ready for a "general overhaul. Among other things the bow is to have a layer of gun-wood fixed thereon to prevent the ice from climbing into the interior of the craft. A novel feature is to be fitted to the engine which will permit of Jack starting it up while lying in bed. The idea originated with the radio stunt and the skipper's quick brain soon devised a scheme whereby by turning a switch radio waves started the engine up so that it was all nice and warm when he chose to appear on the job."

The halibut schooner Scandia, Capt. H. Vatun, arrived in port on Monday with 67,000 pounds of halibut. Capt. reports having experienced the finest kind of weather and says that the fish seemed very keen on being caught. The entire catch was sold at 18.3c and 9.5c, to the Atlin Fisheries.

Dedicated to Harry Daggott by Walt Mason, Junior, by request: What is life without a woman? Harry was heard once to say, "Why did I ever let her leave me on that cold and frosty day. Beans for breakfast, beans for dinner, really boys they got my goat. I wake at night with starts and groanings, beans are sticking in my throat. Home is cold and oh so cheerless. Life is but an empty dream, flies reel in the jampot, mice are weltering in the cream. But the dawn is dawning brighter, life more like a friendly sphere, the wife and boy are soon returning, I'm so happy I could cheer."

Burdock Blood Bitters

Relieved Her of Headaches

Headache seems to be habitual with many people, and some, if any, are seldom free from it, suffering continually, and wondering why they can get no relief. In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to the removal of the cause, and with the cause removed the headaches will vanish.

It is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of every description that can equal B. B. B., acting as it does on every organ of the system.

Mrs. Douglas Hiseborough, 280 McKenzie St., Sarnia, Ont., writes: "Having suffered from severe headaches for a considerable length of time I decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and found that it helped me wonderfully. It relieved the headaches, and I noticed a decided improvement in my health."

Burdock Blood Bitters is a remedy that has been on the market for the past forty-four years, so you don't experiment with some new and untried medicine. It is put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
