REPORTED KILLED ABOARD PRINCE ALBERT CONSERVATIVES GO OFF TO GOOD LEAD IN BRITISH ELECTION NOMINATIONS

Two Men Killed on Decks of Steamer Prince Albert when off the Coast of California

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 27.—A tale of a fight in which two men were killed on the decks of the steamer Prince Albert, alleged to be a rum running vessel and which is now lying outside this port, was related today to prohibition agents by William Sloan under arrest on a charge of smuggling. Sloan told the officials that members of the crew of the rum running vessel were always armed but he was not certain whether the fight on the Prince Albert was between members of that vessel's crew or with high jackers. He had been informed, however, that two men had been killed and their bodies had been thrown into the sea.

Western Freighters Ltd., owners of the Prince Albert, which was purchased by them from the Canadian National Railway Coast Services a few months ago after having been used in the north coast service for several years, said this morning that they had heard nothing of trouble on the steamer Prince Albert.

Before starting the Lakelse Hotel, Mr. Johnston was for a time superintendent of the hatchery at that point. Latterly after disposing of the hotel management to Dr. A. H. Bayne of Prince Rupert, he was foreman in George Little's sawmill at Terrace.

The late Mr. Johnston is survived by a wife and family.

See Ourselves As Others See Us.

Sometimes it is wise to try to see ourselves as others see us. When we read accounts of visits to Prince Rupert or district and they seem to be a little critical, we must always remember that we are biased in our views and also we are sometimes a little touchy on some points. We cannot expect visitors to agree with our viewpoint. While here they usually avoid saying anything which they think will hurt our feelings but when they get away they become less careful and we are apt to hear things which we do not always like.

We welcome all criticisms. They help us to see things in the right light. Our own close vision is bound to be distorted and by getting the view of the independent person, even though we may know it to be only a partial view, is instructive and tends to help us set right some of the things which at present are a little awry.

Drifting Around In North Pacific.

For over three weeks the big freighter Shinkoku Maru was drifting in the north Pacific and in close wireless touch with the rest of the world, yet eventually she was allowed to go ashore and at the time of writing it is not known what was the fate of the greater part of the crew.

In order to pick up this big vessel it was necessary to send south for a big tug. This absorbed a lot of time and meanwhile the big vessel was at the mercy of the waves and winds eventually driving ashore on a hostile coast, exposed to all the winds and storms.

Had there been a big tug here and had that big tug been called on at once, the vessel could have been saved and there would have been no risk of losing the crew. This seems to be the reasonable location for a salvage plant. The one at Victoria is subsidized by the Dominion government and it is a useful institution. The question whether Prince Rupert should not also have a salvage station with headquarters at the local dry dock is one that will have to be considered before long. It seems a disgrace to lose a vessel that has been drifting for three weeks.

Future Of City Depends On Election.

This is the time the civic elections are fought. Putting candidates in the field is a large part of the work of the election. Just now there seems to be a good deal of doubt who is in the field and who is not. There are rumors of some withdrawing and others offering their services. The time is getting short and electors are wondering who they may be called upon to vote for. It seems only fair to the electors that the men who intend to be in the field should declare themselves soon. Much depends upon the quality of the men offering for the offices of mayor and aldermen. Without good men offering it is impossible for the electors to make a wise choice.

REFUND OF TAXATION IS NOT ENTERTAINED

Council Has Report From Finance Committee With Respect to Cold Storage Property

In connection with an application from the Canadian National Railways for refund of alleged excessive taxation on the waterfront land occupied by the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., the finance committee reported to the city council last night that nothing had been collected improperly and therefore there was nothing to refund. The report was adopted.

Ald. Stephens explained that the matter had arisen out of an assessment made three or four years ago which had resulted in higher taxes. No appeal had been made at that time and the finance committee took the position that it had no right to pass judgment now after the assessment had once been accepted by all parties concerned.

CRUEL SLANDER OF BRITISHERS

Japanese Publish Tale Against Officers and Men of P. & O. Vessel

The Hook, the Vancouver weekly published by J. S. Cowper, formerly editor of the Prince Rupert Daily News, publishes the following:

Do you know that some malevolent persons have made the recent earthquake in Japan the occasion for the most shocking piece of racial enmity propaganda between England and Japan that has been known in the last decade.

Do you know that English officers and sailors are charged—on the alleged information of "the American Navy"—with the wickedest kinds of crimes against helpless women? If you do not, ask any Japanese in this city. They all know about it through their language newspaper, the "Fairiku Nippo," published at 135 Cordova Street, Vancouver.

Rapine and Murder

We will tell you the story, so that it may come to the notice of the authorities and be silenced by official Japan before it does any more of its deadly work.

You will recall the noble work done by Capt. Robinson and the officers (including the underpaid ones) of the C.P.R. steamer Empress of Australia during the earthquake at Yokohama. The world rang with the story of their gallantry. Other British crews did similar noble work on a smaller scale.

But under the heading (freely translated "Violation by English Ship in Yokohama Discovered by the American Navy" the Fairiku Nippo tells the following story in the form of a San Francisco dispatch:

"One of the P. & O. steamship company merchant vessels took an outrageous action against defenceless Japanese women sufferers in the recent catastrophe in Japan. The S.S. Tairo Maru, which is now in the harbor of San Francisco, gives the following news to the newspapers in San Francisco and to this paper: "This P. & O. freight vessel was in the harbor of Yokohama in the recent earthquake of Japan. This ship took six hundred sufferers to the Bay of Shimidzu safely and gave the sufferers every possible assistance. Therefore, the Japanese government thanked the officers and crew of this ship from the bottom of their hearts.

Immoral Happenings

"But unfortunately on the second trip, news of immoral happenings was wired from the American Navy to the Japanese government. As the American Navy was heading to Yokohama, one of the crew discovered a Japanese woman crying for help in the sea. After picking up this woman, she gave the following information to the American officers: She said that the officers and men of the P. and O. vessel had commenced acts of violation against the Japanese women as soon as they had their vessel clear away from the coast. Both officers and men were concerned in these excesses. Women who consented to be their victims were allowed to live, and later released; those who refused were thrown alive into the sea.

"The officers and crew of this boat were arrested and are now in prison in Kobe. We cannot publish the name of the ship on account of police regulations."

A Cruel Slander

The shocking nature of this charge may be negated in our own minds by its manifest evidences of worthlessness—its anonymity, its origin, credited to a woman rescued from the sea amid horrors that turned thousands insane, the impossibility of such rapine occurring on a British ship of any kind let alone a P. & O. line, whose discipline is akin to that of the Navy. There are other internal evidences to discredit this story, which will suggest themselves that the story is receiving the widest circulation and discussion among the Japanese people on the Pacific coast. Officials of the Canadian Japanese Association who are convinced that the story is a baseless and foolish one, are doing what they can to quiet their people here. But ask ten Japanese people whom you meet, and nine of them will shake their heads and answer gravely "Very bad business." One man volunteered the information "English

A wider food intelligence means an increasing demand for whole wheat products. Modern milling processes do not produce whole wheat flour. It can rarely be found in this country. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent whole wheat, and so thoroughly cooked that every particle of each crisp, tasty shred of flavory baked wheat is digested and converted into muscle, bone and brain. sailor very bad lot." Worst of all, a professor from Taideia University, Professor Takayanagi, who passed through Vancouver a couple of weeks ago, was seen by the local newspaper and according to a brief statement it makes "confirmed the story and said it was "a very bad and how his opinion given off-hand could be made to look like a complete confirmation of this preposterous, cruel and mischievous story." Prosperous advertising means continuous advertising.

Why Men "Crack"

When on the Highway to Success

What Do These Things Tell You?
"SLEEPLESSNESS" Doctor Kennedy tells us, "is one of the commonest signs of nervousness. Another is physical unrest. You are showing signs of nervousness when you cannot keep from twitching your eyebrows, shrugging your shoulders, swinging one foot when your legs are crossed, or when you cannot sit at a desk or table without continually tapping with the fingers."
 "The nervous man very often finds that he cannot concentrate on one task, but continually goes from one thing to another. He is also very apt to lose interest in the work and recreations that formerly gave him pleasure. And he is easily fatigued. Nervous fatigue is most commonly indicated by a constant feeling of tightness around the head."

THE worry and strain of recent years has been too much for many business and professional men who have not been able to break away from the details and anxieties associated with their occupations.

In a moment you will recall many who have broken down suddenly just when they appeared to be in their prime. Some have had their lives snuffed out while others have lingered as invalids, lacking the energy and nerve force necessary for the pursuit of their vocations.

The warning symptoms as outlined above by Dr. Kennedy in the American Magazine for October are well worth a careful study, because with this knowledge you can then detect the indications of failing nervous energy while yet there is time to prevent serious results.

A few days away from the scene of your worries, rest and moderate exercise in the open will help to get you started on the way to better health. Your recovery will be greatly hastened by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Your digestive system has failed to supply proper nourishment to the nervous system. And when thus exhausted the nerves fail to control the digestive fluids of the stomach. On this account outside help is necessary, such as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, before you can get back your strength and vigor.

You will not be using this restorative treatment long before you will find yourself sleeping and resting better. And this is what you need above all else. The old energy and vigor will be felt throughout your system and you will be encouraged to keep up this reconstructive treatment until you feel entirely yourself again.

I was ashamed to go anywhere, and the itching and burning caused such a terrible sensation I could get no relief day or night. One day a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I used one bottle and felt quite a relief, and by the time I had taken 3 bottles I was completely relieved. Joe Bent returned this morning by the Gardena from a business trip to Anyox.

On recommendation of the Board of Works, the city council last night decided to call for tenders for 500 pounds of pig lead.

Union steamer Gardena, Capt. A. E. Dickson, arrived from Anyox and Stewart at 11:30 this morning and will sail for Vancouver and waypoints at 5 this afternoon.

The court of revision on the civic voters' list will sit in the council chamber on December 10, at 10 in the morning. The court comprises Ald. Collart, Ald. Perry and Mayor Newton.

Moose Bazaar, under auspices Women's Mooseheart Legion, Metropole Hall, Nov. 28-29, followed by a dance Thursday night 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. Admission Gents, 75c; Ladies, 50c.

Accounts up to November 24 totalling $11,433.88 were passed for payment at last night's council meeting. Mayor Newton explained that the majority of them were in connection with the Borden Street school repair work.

In addition to 15,000 feet already on order, the city council is purchasing 10,000 feet of one inch hemlock boards cut in four foot lengths from George Little of Terrace. The lumber will be used for building sidewalks. The price is $26 per thousand. The Board of Works last night recommended the purchase.

Tenders will be called by the city council for 30 tons of coal for use in the various civic departments. Ald. Macdonald suggested last night that the city council, school board and hospital board combine its orders in the interest of economy but Ald. Stephens explained that this had been attempted but had not proven practicable.

W. Turnbull, formerly of Prince Rupert, has been appointed acting lumber commissioner with headquarters at Victoria at a salary of $3,120 during the absence of Loren L. Brown who is preparing and taking charge of the lumber exhibit for the province at the British Empire exhibition in London.

A by-law providing for the floating of debentures for the payment of the local improvement street work recently completed on Fourth and Fifth Avenues in Section 5 was introduced and given its first readings at last night's council meeting. The amount will be $33,000 or $34,000 and the debentures will bear 7 per cent interest.

Members of the city council have been supplied by Ernest Love, superintendent of utilities, with copies of the inventory and valuation of machinery and equipment in the Cow Bay steam plant which it is proposed to sell. Ald. Macdonald stated at last night's council meeting that there was nothing new to report in connection with the disposition of the equipment.

Additional street lights will be put in by the city on Musgrave Place lane between Fifth and Sixth Avenues, on the Thompson Street lane between Sixth and Seventh Avenues and at the corner of Second Avenue and Seventeenth Street in Westview. The utilities committee recommended that the lights be put in and the report to this effect was accepted by the city council last night.

Taxation figures presented to the city council indicate that there are to be difficulties in civic financing next year. Tax collections for the year have been less than sixty per cent of the estimated amount and the loss in revenue by reason of reversion amounts to more than $56,000. The next council may have to choose between a marked advance in the rate of taxation upon lands or the levy of an improvement tax.

Executive of Basketball Association Gives Penalty for Fielding Unregistered Player

For fielding R. B. Skinner, an unregistered player in the game with the Teachers last week, the Sons of Canada were fined two points in the Senior Basketball League standing by the executive of the Association at a special meeting last evening and no replay will be allowed. The executive decided on the rule that, where any team fields an unregistered player in future, two points will be deducted from its standing whether it wins or loses.

On account of the St. Andrew's Ball on Friday night, the games scheduled for Friday night this week will be played on Thursday instead. On account of the Elks' and Royal Purple carnival and bazaar next Monday, the games for that night have been cancelled, a new date for their playing to be set later.

WHY YOUR DOCTOR ADVISES TONIC AT THIS TIME OF YEAR

There are lots of people who seldom really feel their best at this time of year. Certain foods do not agree with them; they suffer from indigestion after meals, sleep poorly nights and wake up feeling dull, tired and often constipated. Frequently their systems are so run-down they cannot throw off colds and such wintry ills. As a result there are many needless days of suffering. Take a good tonic and build yourself up! Try just a spoonful of Dr. Thacher's after the next few meals and notice the quick difference in the way you look, eat, sleep and feel. Tone up your system and feel your best. Have rich, red blood to keep you warm this winter. Druggists are authorized to return the small cost unless you are completely satisfied.

Sold by Ornes Limited in Prince Rupert, and by leading druggists in every city and town.

FINE GAMES BASKETBALL

Sons of Canada Beat Colts; Adanaes Beat Teachers; High School Wins Over Grotto

Sons of Canada, 39; Colts, 18. High School, 32; Grotto, 22. Adanaes, 15; Teachers, 12.

Three more snappy basketball games were served up at the Elks' Home last night to the delight of the large number of fans assembled. Standard of play was quite up to the high mark that has already been established this season.

In the opening game between the Adanaes and Teachers, play was extremely even throughout but the Adanaes took advantage of their openings in the second half and, by winning, sent the Teachers into the cellar position in the Ladies' League. Miss Margaret Lindsay of the Teachers and Miss Annie Kelly of the Adanaes were both forced to retire through receiving accidental injuries.

R. B. Skinner refereed and the scoring was as follows: Adanaes—Miss Pete Tremayne (4); Miss Willa Dyer (1); Miss Annie Kelly, (4); Miss Leona Parker, (1); Miss Vera Shockley; Miss Dorothy Stephens, (1)—Total 15.

Teachers—Miss Helen Hibbard (3); Miss K. Harvey, Miss N. Pryce (4); Miss Margaret Lindsay, Miss Caroline Mitchell (1), (12); Miss Mary Sim.—Total, 12.

Intermediate Game

The High School boys put up another good exhibition against the Grotto in the Intermediate game and had to thank their superior shooting for winning the game, the Grotto having just as much of the play but finishing poorly. A good game should now be assured for Thursday night when the winners meet the Colts. The latter team, it is expected will get a real test-out at the hands of their young opponents.

R. B. Skinner refereed the Intermediate game last evening and the score was as follows: High School—D. Matheson (2); A. Mitchell, 18; G. Bulger (3); A. Phillips (1); D. Gurnich, 10.—Total 32.

Grotto—W. Gray (2), 5; Tommy Fraser (1), 2; W. Wrathall, (2), 10; L. Anderson, G. Hill (2); W. Lambie, 5.—Total 22.

Senior Game

The Sons of Canada certainly made no mistake in beating the champion Colts for the second time this season in the Senior League match. At no time did the Canucks show any signs of losing and their play was exceptionally good throughout. The Colts never got a chance to settle down and lost many good opportunities by being over-anxious. Better team work will be required if they are to beat the Sons in present form.

E. A. Mann refereed and the scoring was as follows: Sons of Canada—Eric MacKintosh, 18; V. Menzies, (2); Harry Menzies, (1), 9; Harry Astori (3), 4; Don Graham, 8.—Total 39.

League standings to date:

Great success is attending the deer and bird hunters these days and very few parties have been returning home of late without good bags to account for their absence. Some records for quantity of geese taken have been set up, it is said. While the stormy weather may not be altogether comfortable, nevertheless it seems to improve conditions for bird hunters. The advent of snow on the mountain tops is also making it easier for the deer hunters to capture their quarry. Parties going both to far and near points report better bags.

The Hockey Year Book, which has just made its appearance and a copy of which has reached the Daily News office, is a credit to the game and to its publisher, George King of Toronto. The book is a masterpiece both typographically and pictorially. From cover to cover it is embellished with group photographs of champion teams including the pioneers of the game. ### COULDN'T SLEEP HEART WAS BAD NERVES A WRECK

Mr. H. A. Reid, Upper Musquodoboit, N.S., writes:—I am very thankful for the benefit I have received by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.
"When I came home from overseas, in 1920, my heart was very badly affected by concussion, and my nerves were a dreadful wreck. I was very short winded, and could not possibly sleep at night. In fact, I was in such a condition I felt as if I did not wish anyone to speak to me. I thought I would try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and before I had taken two boxes I could enjoy a good night's rest as well as anyone.
There are lots of returned men who are suffering the same as I did, and I feel sure that if they would only try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills they will receive the same relief that I have."

ELECTION MAY HAVE ANY END

Return of British Government by Reduced Majority One of Eventualities

ISSUE CLEARLY DEFINED
No Tax on Wheat or Meat but Offer to Dominions is Factor in Contest

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(By Canadian Press)—The British General Election, which was sprung so suddenly upon the people of the United Kingdom by the Baldwin Government, is in full swing this week. The contest is exceptionally short and it is probable that it will be proportionately sharp. Whether the result of the voting will be decisive is another matter. As to this the politicians differ naturally.
Already claims of success are being made by the party in power, the Conservatives; also by the re-united Liberals, and likewise by the Labor Party, but to independent observers it looks like a scramble in which anything may happen on election day—either the return of the government of Premier Stanley Baldwin by a reduced majority, the possible success of the Liberal Party, or of the Labor Party, or of a split-up in which none of the parliamentary groups may have sufficient strength to carry on a government without the assistance of some other group or individual members of another group. At present it is anyone's guess.

Standing in House

The state of the parties on the day of the dissolution of the House of Commons was as follows: Conservatives or Unionists 342; Labor, 144; United Liberals (comprising 59 Asquithians and 59 Lloyd Georgians), 118; other parties, 7; vacant seats, 4. The government's majority over all was 73.

A little more than a year ago, Nov. 15, 1922, the Conservative or Unionist party, with Bonar Law at its head, was voted into power with a majority of 79. The standing of the parties then was: Conservative, 347; Labor, 142; National Liberal, 59; Asquithian Liberal 59; independent, 5; nationalist 2; Sign Fein 1; total 615; government majority 79. Since then there have been some changes, with the result that the Conservative majority in the House was reduced to 73, as stated.

The last general election was unusually tame. It followed the dramatic resignation of Lloyd George from the premiership and the Conservative party's selection of Bonar Law as premier only a short time previously to the election, and was merely a fight by the party newly in power to stay in and a fight by the Lloyd Georgians to regain the position they had lost, while at the same time a feud between the Georgians and Asquithians was raging and each faction of the split Liberal party was trying to down the other.

Issue Clear

In the present contest the issue is clearly defined as between the Conservatives and Liberals, the two warring wings of the Liberal party have come to amicable terms and battling side by side for victory, the issue being protection versus free trade. On the Tariff question, which involves the Baldwin Government's offer to the Dominions at the recent Imperial Conference of a preference along certain lines do not mean a tax on wheat or meat. Both H. H. Asquith and Lloyd George are opposed to protection out-and-out and they are fighting the government party on this issue with all their strength.

The Labor Party's appeal to the electorate is a challenge of the government's tariff policy and the whole conception of economic relations underlying it, and a claim that a remedy for unemployment can be found through the operation of national schemes for productive work, with adequate maintenance for those who cannot obtain employment to earn a livelihood for themselves and their families. Labor's platform also includes the much talked of capital levy.
Question of Leadership
Former premier H. H. Asquith is the titular leader of the re-united Liberal party in the contest, and Lloyd George is his recognized chief lieutenant. How long this relation of Britain's two famous statesmen will continue to solve. A considerable number of people think the solution is not far in the future, and the prediction is freely made that it will not be long until Asquith retires from the arena of active politics and Lloyd George heads the party. It was in 1916 that the latter succeeded Asquith as premier. Ever since, until a week or so ago, they have been political enemies.

First steps towards incorporation of Stewart under the village act have been taken by the Citizens' Association. A committee consisting of H. W. M. Rolston, E. R. Workman and G. C. Andrew has been delegated to look into the matter and report.

Large bodies of high grade and milling ores which have been developed on the Indian mine indicate that the property will take its place on the shipping list this winter.

Owing to difficulties on the flume which supplies the property with water, operations on the Dunwell mine had to be discontinued for 17 days until repairs were made.
Development work is to be continued this winter on the Daly-Alaska mine and William Sloan will arrive from the south next week to take charge.

The first span on the Bear River bridge has been completed and the second is well under way. The high level bridge across Cascade Creek will be finished by the end of this month.

William Cameron, postmaster and customs collector, is on a trip to Vancouver. During his absence Walter Broad is attending to the customs office and Miss Phyllis Cameron is in charge of the post-office.

LONDON GIVES ITS OPINION PREMIER KING

The Magazine Canada Published at the Metropolis Speaks of Him and His Address

Mr. Mackenzie King, with good judgment, selected the banquet given in his honor by the old Canada Club to make a great and important speech says Canada. He took this most suitable opportunity of fully and frankly explaining matters of international politics involving a new procedure which has caused some apprehension both in Canada and the Mother Country. It is the first time in our memory of speeches by Canadian statesmen at Canada Club dinners during the last 25 years that a speech of such weighty Imperial importance has been made, and the Canadian Premier is certainly to be congratulated both on the selection of his subjects and the fine quality of his address. It was unfortunate that the most important speech at the Canada Club was made at such a late hour—that no adequate report of the Premier's speech appeared in the London Press.

In regard to the special Hall-Fisheries Treaty, concluded

CRIPPLED BY RHEUMATISM

Began to Improve After Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

The Medicine Made From Fruit
You can get rid of Rheumatism. You can be free of pain—of swollen hands and feet—of aching arms, legs and back.
"Fruit-a-tives" will drive the cause of Rheumatism out of the system and give you permanent relief.
"For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. Finally I decided to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Before using half a box, I noticed improvement. I continued taking 'Fruit-a-tives' improving all the time. I can now walk about two miles and do chores around the place."

directly between Ottawa and Washington. Mr. Mackenzie King showed that the matter is one of purely domestic concern to the citizens of the Pacific sea-board of the two countries, and he took particular and explicit care to emphasize his cordial adherence to the policy that no individual action should be taken by any part of the British Empire on matters of vital concern to other parts of the Empire "without the full knowledge and consent of all."

Broad and Scholarly

His speech was noteworthy also for the broad and scholarly way in which he traced the growth of Canada up from the beginnings of its history as a Crown Colony to its present national status, and he took the example of the different Provinces of the Dominion working out their representative institutions as "emblematic of the League of Nations which makes up the British Empire." From the racial and other diversities he claimed that the leaders of Canada had "learnt, how to bring out of these differences a unity which emphasises the things which we have in common rather than the things which divide," and from this, he claimed, "we have learnt how to live and let live and how to forget and forgive."

Mr. Mackenzie King in his policy and in his speeches, evidences a pride in and love of Canada equal to that evinced by any of his predecessors, and in this speech he showed the imagination of a statesman, rather than of a politician, in the value he attached to the historical archives which have been so splendidly augmented by the gifts of Lord Durham and Sir Leicester Harmsworth. The Durham papers he regarded as so important that "a not inconsiderable part of their history would have to be re-written from these original records." Mr. Mackenzie King profoundly realises the powerful influence which knowledge of and pride in Canada's early constitutional history can exert in raising the Canadian people to their fullest national stature; he feels that their well-justified belief in the enormous possibilities of Canada's future development will thus be best informed and tempered.

The Canada Club well justifies its existence when it thus provides an occasion for public utterances so authoritative and friendly before an audience that can appreciate their import.

CUBA CUTS DOWN INFLUX OF CHINESE

Restrictions Imposed on Entry Bars all Except Students and Others

HAVANA, Nov. 27.—Restrictions imposed upon the entry of Chinese immigrants into Cuba have cut down the influx so that within the last ten months only 212 have entered as compared with 1,212 during the previous ten months. The present Cuban law is similar to the United States law and bars laborers, but admits under restrictions merchants, students and tourists.

Several thousand Chinese were admitted under special legislation during the world war to work in the cane fields but most of them soon drifted to Havana where they made their living by operating laundries, keeping small shops and peddling vegetables and merchandise. A number of them also conduct truck farms in the suburbs.

Havana has developed a "Chinese Quarter" that extends for several blocks and it is estimated that the city has about 50,000 Chinese.

TEMPORARY FREEDOM IN ORDER TO MARRY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The cell doors of the District of Columbia jail have swung open twice for Miss Gladys Peyton, 19—once to permit her to marry, the second time to give her temporary freedom.

Miss Peyton, a stenographer, was sentenced recently to a year's imprisonment for forgery. Frederick Ewers, salesman and her fiancé, married her by special permission. The bridal party, as arranged, returned to the jail and Mrs. Ewers went to her cell.

An hour later the bride received her first wedding present, the Criminal Court permitting her to leave under the custody of her attorney when she changed her former plea of guilty to not guilty.
