Big Party Here Last Night; Went South on Rupert to Vancouver

Their special train arrived here at 8:15 and, after being shown informally the sights of Prince Rupert, the party sailed by the steamer Prince Rupert at midnight for Vancouver where it will disband. The large crowd just about took up all the steamer's accommodation and there was little if any left over for local traffic.

Strike Leaders Planning to Extend Operations and Carry on: Habeas Corpus is Issued

SYDNEY, July 10.—With votes for a hundred per cent walkout of miners in three new districts on the mainland and promises of support from several locals in the Alberta and Eastern British Columbia division of the United Mine Workers, strike leaders here last night were confident of their ability to carry on the strike.

The miners of the mainland were addressed by strike leaders from Sydney and by provincial cabinet ministers before voting. All leaders were now agreed that outside support was coming in, not for a sympathetic strike on behalf of the striking steel workers, which was the original reason for Cape Breton miners striking, but in protest against the occupation of Cape Breton by troops and the imprisonment of two strike leaders on a charge of sedition.

There were a few minor disturbances in the strike area itself during the day but no damage was done.

A writ of habeas corpus was issued late Monday night by Judge Chisholm of Halifax ordering that Livingstone and MacLachlan, arrested strike leaders, shall be brought before him.

HALIFAX, July 10.—Dominion Number Two, in the heart of the colliery district, is being occupied today by infantry and cavalry, assisted by airplane scouting overhead, it is reported here. It is alleged they met with opposition from the men.

Extremely hospitable in his way, Mr. Garside was always ready to discuss his favorite subjects and was delighted to find anyone who knew anything about them.

PLANK ROADS IN BAD SHAPE

Ald. Munro Tells Council Million Feet of Lumber Will be Needed Next Year

"We will need a million feet of lumber next year to repair our plank roadways if they continue going the way they are now," stated Ald. G. H. Munro, chairman of the Board of Works, at last night's council meeting in the course of a general discussion of the city's thoroughfares. "Unless we can extend our rough grading work, the costs of keeping the roads in repair will be prohibitive."

Ald. Collart suggested that some relief might be obtained by eliminating plank roads for rough grading where they are now set close to the ground.

Ald. Perry said that it might seem easy to do that by making a cursory examination but, on closer scrutiny, it would be found that it was a more difficult and costly matter than was at first expected.

However, if the money could be found, the Board of Works was ready to proceed with such work.

Money could undoubtedly be saved that way but to save money it was necessary to invest it.

Ald. Mackenzie felt that the price of grading would not be greater than keeping up the streets with plank.

Ald. Munro said that the Board of Works had been looking into certain places which seemed easy. For example, it would cost between $2,500 and $3,000 to grade McBride Street between Fifth and Sixth Avenue where the plank road was now in bad shape. More exact estimates would be secured if there was any hope of getting the money for the work.

Ald. Stephens felt that nothing could be done if the work was not included in the Board of Works estimates for the year. They were already facing a deficit.

Bridges Soon Finished

Ald. Munro stated that the new Hays Creek bridge would be finished in about six weeks' time and a discussion of the Fifth Avenue route to the east end followed.

Fifth Avenue was in none too good a shape, Ald. Munro stated, and it would soon go to pieces when heavy traffic was put on it again. Seventh Avenue was no better.

Ald. Mackenzie suggested that if one million feet of lumber would be required for street repairs next year it might cost $50,000. It might be wise to ascertain how much rough grading could be done for that sum.

Ald. Stephens suggested that plank roadway might be eliminated in Section 2 on Moresby and Atlin Avenues and short side streets put in instead. Ald. Collart thought that the completion of Second Avenue grading in Section 2 to Seventeenth Street would be even a better measure for the relief of plank roadways in that end of town.

To Seal Cove First

Ald. Munro said he would favor the building of a trunk roadway east towards the Cold Storage plant before proceeding in the Section 2 direction. Ald. Mackenzie concurred. Ald. Collart pointed out that Second Avenue in Section 2 was already nearly finished and it would not take much to complete it. He felt it would be a good way to save money on plank roads.

Stephens agreed.

The discussion ended without anything definite transpiring on the matter.

BILLY PRENTICE IS VICTIM OF SHOOTING JUNEAU COLORED MAN

KETCHIKAN, July 10.—Billy Prentice, well known in Southeastern Alaska, was shot five times at Juneau on Wednesday night, according to Marshal George D. Beaumont who arrived on the Unalga to assist in the reception to be accorded President Harding. Harry Lott, a colored man of Juneau, did the shooting and while Prentice was still alive when the marshal left, his wounds were so serious that it was believed that he could not recover. One bullet entered the chest, another the stomach, two under the heart and one in the back.

Meagre reports indicate that the shooting took place as the result of some charges alleged to have been made by Lott to Prentice's wife regarding Prentice.

MUNICIPAL UNION INCREASES FEES

Council Decided Last Night to Meet Prince Rupert's Share of $127.86

The Union of B.C. Municipalities notified the city council by letter last night that a change in the method of membership assessment had been adopted on basis of population making Prince Rupert's fee $127.86. In view of the fact that the convention of the Union was to be held here this year, members of the council felt favorably disposed to paying the assessment and it was ordered that the Union be so notified.

Leading up to the notice of increased assessment, the letter from the Union referred to the good work that had been already performed by the organization and the gigantic tasks that still

CARNIVAL COMPANY WANTS SUSPENSION OF CITY'S LICENSE

Would Play Here But Fee of $200 a Day Too High

J. Watkinson, representing the Pacific-Alaska Shows, appeared before the city council last night with a request that his company be relieved of the city's $200 per day impost required of circuses playing the city. He said that the company proposed playing Prince Rupert but the license required was prohibitive. There was a lengthy discussion of the matter and the result was the appointment of a special committee consisting of Ald. Stephens, Ald. Macdonald and Ald. Munro to investigate and report.

Mr. Watkinson explained that his troupe consisted of 35 persons, 29 of whom were Canadian. The most of the equipment, including Ferris wheel, merry-go-rounds and carnival tents housing games of skill, was also Canadian. The company had engaged to play all Alaska but, on reaching Ketchikan, had been faced with the necessity of putting up a $19,000 bond because it was so largely Canadian. This had made necessary the cancelling of the Alaska engagement. The company was now returning and it wished to play Prince Rupert but could not do so if the license were not reduced. The company had already played Nanaimo, Courtenay, Ladysmith, Merritt and Salmon Arm.

Ald. Stephens felt that the matter should be investigated. The city's experience in the past with circuses had not been favorable. There were features that were not needed here. He was not favorably disposed to the suspension of the city's license fees and authorization of the use of the city's streets for games of chance and exhibition of undesirable shows. The company that followed such shows was not always the best. The city had enough vice to contend with already.

Clean Company

Mr. Watkinson explained that his company was unique in that it was absolutely clean. It would provide entertainment that would be appreciated by a large section of the community.

Ald. Macdonald felt that it might be well to get Ketchikan's opinion about the company. He was certainly not in favor of encouraging the company to bring in games of chance when the city was legislating against them.

The decision was then made to appoint a committee to investigate and report to the council at a special meeting tomorrow evening.

Authorization was given by the finance committee by the city council to pay the account of E. C. Gibbons, president of the Board of Trade, for $675 covering his expenses to Ottawa recently as a delegate of the city. Ald. Mackenzie felt that the city was fortunate in getting off with this amount when up to $1500 had been sanctioned. Ald. Stephens stated that the provincial government had taken care of the expenses of Hon. T. D. Patullo, the city's second delegate.

On her last eastward voyage the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Canada" established a new trans-Pacific record of 8 days, 10 hours and 55 minutes from Yokohama to Vancouver. The previous record, 8 days, 18 hours and 31 minutes, had been held since 1914 by the "Empress of Russia" of the same line.

If public deposits in banks and loan companies can be taken as a fair indication, the Canadian is the world's richest man, according to a statement made by F. A. As evidence of the wool production from this species, Mr. Harvey's annual clip is 120,000 pounds.

That Canada was gradually becoming more and more of an industrial country, and that Canadians themselves were not truly aware of the fact, was the opinion expressed before the Winnipeg Rotary Club by Prof. R. He stated that during the past twenty-five years the population of Canada had increased 80 per cent, the railway mileage 120 per cent, while the industrial life of the country increased 700 per cent.

An organ recently shipped by Cassavant Freres of that place to Paris, France, is absolutely the first to leave the American continent for Europe, the movement having heretofore been in the opposite direction, and was so shipped because the purchaser desired the finest and most up-to-date instrument that could be secured.

Ald. Macdonald, Ald. Collart and Ald. Stephens were the principals in a little verbal duel at last night's council meeting which for a few minutes precipitated vociferous remarks and unparliamentary epithets the like of which have not disturbed the serene air of the council chamber for many a long day. It all came up in a seemingly innocent discussion as to whether or not Miss Hilda Beale, successor to Miss Hiltchey as clerk in the treasurer's office, should receive a salary of $60 or $80 per month.

The finance committee presented a recommendation that Miss Beale be engaged temporarily at a salary of $60.

Ald. Mackenzie, saying that $65 was the minimum wage allowed for women by provincial statute, moved that the salary be made $80. This was seconded by Ald. Macdonald.

Ald. Collart said that the statute in question applied only to women over 18 years and Miss Beale was not that age. In any case, it did not seem proper to pay the beginner just learning at the same scale as the trained employee who had left.

Learners Not Wanted

Ald. Macdonald felt that the new employee would have to do the same work. He did not believe in having learners in the city hall. If the girl was competent she should be paid enough to keep herself.

Ald. Collart felt that any person, regardless of age or experience, would have to learn and could not possibly give the same service as the predecessor.

Considerable discussion of a consultative nature followed culminating in a question by Ald. Macdonald if overtime was now being paid to more skilled officials to do the work formerly performed by Miss Hiltchey. Ald. Stephens answered in the affirmative.

"It seems poor economy to employ new labor and pay skilled labor overtime to do the work," remarked Ald. Macdonald.

Four Flushing

"I fail to see the consistency of your argument and, speaking candidly, I would say that you are four flushing," answered Ald. Stephens.

This brought an immediate retort from Ald. Macdonald to the effect that he had been speaking conscientiously and no one better try to stop him. Ald. Stephens had been trying too much.

"Is there only one girl in the city who could be appointed?" asked Ald. Macdonald.

"There were only two applied," replied Ald. Stephens.

Heated Remarks

The Macdonald-Stephens argument subsided but Ald. Collart came into the debate with similar criticism of Ald. Macdonald's attitude. Ald. Macdonald intimated that he would take no back talk from Ald. Collart. He was "too small" and was "a liar." Ald. Collart came right back with an adjectival to the liar phrase coupled with the statement that Ald. Macdonald was no gentleman. Ald. Stephens, as acting mayor, suggested that Ald. Macdonald take back the liar accusation. Ald. Macdonald said he would retract this statement if Ald. Collart agreed to retract that he (Ald. Macdonald) was no gentleman.

"I retract nothing," said Ald. Collart.

"Then I will retract nothing, either," replied Ald. Macdonald. Recommendation Adopted

The wordy debate then fell flat and the amendment for $80 salary for Miss Beale was put. It was lost, only Ald. Mackenzie and Ald. Macdonald voting for it. The finance committee's recommendation for $60 salary was then adopted on a similar division.

A recommendation from the finance committee that the application of Miss Mary Astoria for an increase from $80 to not be entertained was also received and was adopted, Ald. Mackenzie and Ald. Macdonald voting against it. Ald. Mackenzie wanted to know why the treasurer had recommended an increase for Miss Astoria but Acting Mayor Stephens refused to have the treasurer drawn into a discussion of a contentious nature. He explained that the treasurer had made a recommendation probably not understanding the nature of the recent readjustment in the city hall. Ald. Macdonald agreed that the treasurer should not be drawn into the discussion but felt that it was only fair the council should know of such a recommendation. Ald. Collart felt that it was no use reducing salaries if they were to be increased only three months later. The recommendation was accepted on the division as already stated.

A by-law to regulate clubs in the city was introduced at last night's council and the second reading was set over for a special meeting to be held on Wednesday evening. The clauses of the by-law have not yet been finally drafted by the city solicitor.

The city solicitor was authorized by the council last night to take the necessary steps including advertising towards having a private bill passed by the legislature to cover the Section 1 street surfacing bylaw, approval of which and consequent sale of debentures has been withheld by

BOY SCOUTS TO HAVE OPEN AIR DANCE ON EVENING OF JULY 19

The city council last night granted permission to the Boy Scouts' Association to use a block of street on Second Avenue on the evening of July 19 for an open air dance that is to be staged as a conclusion to the water carnival on that day at the Salt Lakes by the association. The application asked that the block be used to be closed to traffic for the evening. The event will take place either in front of the old court house or on the block between Seventh and Eighth Streets. Coupled with the request was an invitation for the council to attend the carnival at the Salt Lakes. Acceptance of the invitation and granting of the desired permission was included in the same resolution moved by Ald. Collart, seconded by Ald. Munro and carried unanimously.

On the Mountain Top

CLIMB the mountain--stand on the peak--and before you there unfolds a panorama extending as far as your eye can reach. Stay in the valley, and your view is restricted by the surrounding hills.

This newspaper, properly used, will guide you to the mountain top. Read it and your vision is enlarged. You get a bird's-eye view of world events. You glimpse the doings of the day.

Fail to use it, and your view is limited--you remain in ignorance not only of events at home and abroad, but of much that concerns you even more vitally--news of the very things that have to do with your personal, everyday life.

Some one might be selling a new, better and more economical food; or a utensil that would add immeasurably to your comfort and well-being; or some better material for shoes or clothing--but you would never know, because of your restricted view.

You may read every line of the news columns, but if you overlook the advertising, you are still living in the valley. You remain uninformed about many things you ought to know in order to live a happy, useful, profitable life in this age of progress.
