Canadian Bandit was Shot and Captured in Gun Fight with the Police Front Minneapolis P.O.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 15.—Norman "Red" Ryan, an escaped Canadian convict, was shot and captured and four other persons wounded in a gun fight between police and alleged bandits in front of the post office here last night.
Four of the bandits, three of whom are said to have escaped from Kingston penitentiary on September 10 with Ryan, escaped after exchanging shots with the officers.
Ryan confessed that he had escaped from Kingston and that he held up the Grand Avenue state bank at St. Paul on November 3 and got $5,000. He was traced here by Canadian officers.

REDUCE PAY OF PUPIL NURSES

Proposal Made at Hospital Board Meeting and Held Over; Other Changes

At the meeting of the hospital board last night D. C. McRae, on behalf of the finance committee, presented a report recommending a reduction of the amounts paid to pupil nurses by five dollars a month for each grade. It has been the custom since the war to pay $20 a month for the first year, $25 a month for the second and $30 for the third. If the recommendation is adopted the amounts will be $15 for the first year, $20 for the second and $25 for the third. The matter was laid over for consideration at the next meeting but members of the board present practically all expressed themselves in favor of the change.

Other recommendations are that the plaster casts which are now charged at a flat rate of $3 should be made to vary in cost according to size, the fee being from $2.50 to $5; that the charge for the use of the case room should be $10, while for minor operations the charges should vary from $2.50 to $5.

The final recommendation was that the salary of the secretary should be increased from $150 to $175 a month. All the recommendations were laid on the table for consideration at the next meeting of the board.

Higher Than Others
It was explained that several of the changes were for the purpose of bringing the local hospital in line with others. S. K. Campbell thought the only variations to this should be where local conditions made it desirable.

In discussing the reduction of the monthly allowance to pupil nurses D. C. McRae, chairman of the finance committee, said he had written to a number of hospitals and found that the salaries $80 and $85 a month paid graduate nurses were about the same as at other places but the pupil nurses here were paid away higher than anywhere else. Accordingly the committee recommended a reduction all round of five dollars a month. This would still leave them higher than other hospitals. The increase had been made during the war owing to the difficulty of getting pupil nurses but it was recognized that the time would come when they would have to pay the same as other places. At present the rate was double the average of other places in the province.

D. G. Stewart, chairman, said he was in sympathy with the motion but thought it should not affect those now employed.

Alex. Mackenzie said notice of so important a motion should have been given. He would like to see it laid over.

Calgary Next
T. Ross Mackay said that Calgary was the highest rate they had found and there the rate of pay was $10, $15 and $20 for first, second and third years respectively. Vancouver was only $6, $8, and $10 so that when the reduction was made they would still be two and a half times higher.

CITY GETS CASH FROM LICENSES AND PARI-MUTUEL

(Special to Daily News)
VICTORIA, Dec. 15.—A check for $8,310.19 is being forwarded to the city of Prince Rupert by the Provincial Government, this being the city's share of the motor license and Pari-Mutuel taxes. The share for motor licenses is $4,718 and from Pari-mutuel $3,592.

LETTER FOR DEAD MAN IS OUTLINED

Phillip Welker, Who Was European, Had Sister Residing at Raymore, Saskatchewan

That the late Phillip Welker, whose body was found drowned on Thursday morning last, was a European is indicated in a letter for him which was obtained from the post office by the city police yesterday afternoon. The letter was written in German and was from a sister of deceased, Mrs. Lizzie Jawowski of Raymore, Saskatchewan. Chief Vickers immediately communicated with Mrs. Jawowski for advice as to interment.

Yesterday afternoon the police received a telegram from John Welker, a relative of deceased at Jensen, Saskatchewan. The message stated that deceased was a returned soldier and was entitled to a decent burial. This would be given him at Jensen if the body was forwarded prepaid. The message asked for a full account of the disaster.

CONCENTRATE ON SELLING

That is Urge of Sir Henry Thornton to Traffic Club in Address

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Sir Henry Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways, in a speech before the traffic club yesterday, urged the executives to concentrate on the selling end of their business and let expenses take care of themselves. "We should pattern our policy more after that of the great industries," he said, "and instead of cutting down on the selling end when times begin to look hard, concentrate on efforts along that line, giving more attention to gross receipts and less to expenses."

The time was coming, Sir Henry said, when the railroad industry should be regarded as professional. He proposed the establishment in North America of an institute, similar to the institute of transport in England, along lines of the American Association of civil engineering.

First Shot of Provincial Minister Sent into Camp of the Enemy McRae Would Grab Province

VICTORIA, Dec. 15.—The determination of the provincial government to hold an investigation into the allegations made by Sir Charles Tupper at a recent meeting of the Third Party followers when he reiterated charges in the Searchlight, the organ of that party, was further emphasized in the Legislature yesterday when the second reading of the bill to amend the Public Inquiries Act and to widen the scope of any commission appointed thereunder, came up for consideration.

Hon. William Sloan, minister of mines, who with W. J. Bowser had been charged with having accepted $50,000 from the P.G.E. interests in 1915 and 1916 for campaign purposes, again on the floor of the House denied the charge. The minister was bitter in his remarks and attacked General McRae, head of the new party, and the latter's adherents unsparingly. He asserted that General McRae's desire was to "grab the province of British Columbia." Sir Charles Tupper had declared "I'll help you," E. P. Davis' cry was $100,000 for me," and John Nelson was after $6,000. Beaumont Boggs of Victoria, the minister declared, was looking for anything.

The bill was given its second reading and within a day or two announcement will be made of the personnel of the commission which will investigate the P.G.E. question.

LIQUOR PROFIT IS INCREASING

Municipalities Will Receive Nearly Half a Million Divided Among Them

VICTORIA, Dec. 15.—The profits from the sale of liquor in British Columbia Government stores for the six months ending September 30, 1923, amounted to $1,402,499.50 as against $1,250,195.38 in the previous six months period, an increase of $152,304.12, according to figures laid before the Legislature yesterday afternoon by Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney general, under whose department the administration of the Liquor Act comes.

Since Government control came into force, the liquor profits have totalled $5,642,531.49.

The municipalities will receive $466,331.08 out of the liquor profits for the last six months period. This is an increase of $50,641.20 over the amount received by the municipalities in the previous six months period, when $415,689.88 was distributed among them.

The sum of $129,856.18 will be taken out of liquor profits for the last six months and put into a special account for aid to hospitals and other institutions. In the previous six months period $178,152.80 had been placed to that account.

Since the Government liquor control came into force in British Columbia, Mr. Manson stated, the municipalities had received $1,574,789.91 out of the liquor profits. Other amounts paid to the hospitals were deducted.

Investigation Will Prove Popular.

Supporters of the provincial government will undoubtedly have been pleased to hear that an investigation into the P.G.E. charges is to be made. When they were repeated by a man of such prominence as Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper it was time that the government took action to clear its own skirts. If it was a bluff on the part of the Provincial Party, the bluff has been called.

It is also satisfactory to know that wide powers are to be given the Royal Commission of inquiry in order that those who have made the charges against the government or against individuals may be forced to divulge the source of their information and the reasons that caused them to make the charges.

The commonest form of political campaigning of late has been to make indiscriminate charges against those in power. Sometimes these charges may be backed up by a basis of fact, but in most cases they are simply suppositions. No party is free from sins of this kind. All have indulged freely but the newest, and supposedly the cleanest party, has been one of the worst offenders in this respect. It will now be given an opportunity to make good. Already the most prominent firm of auditors in the world is engaged in auditing the books of the P.G.E. with a view to satisfying the government and the people in regard to construction transactions. This will now be followed by a public inquiry by a Royal Commission. If it is found that there has been robbery or wrong doing, the people will demand that the offenders be punished, and such a demand is right. If, on the other hand, it is found that there has been no wrong doing, the Provincial Party, that has been basing its campaign on this issue, will have to hide its head and bury itself. What is needed is a thorough investigation and the punishment of any wrong doers, if such there be. Premier Oliver has undoubtedly taken the right step in granting the commission under the circumstances, although an audit would have satisfied the ordinary person.

Ill-advised Strike Ended Fatally.

The ill-advised Vancouver waterfront strike has ended fatally to the men. They were led by irresponsible persons who cared for nothing but causing friction between employers and employees and trying to make political capital of it. They made unreasonable demands and the result is that they are beaten, discredited and the union is practically useless. That is usually the end of unreasonable action on either side. The same sometimes happens to employers who are unreasonable.

It must not be thought that the Vancouver stevedores are the only people who make mistakes. In the past employers have been overbearing and selfish and have begrudged their employees even a decent livelihood. By combining, the employees have been able to improve their position and enforce their demands. The difficulty has been in some cases that the same attitude, which formerly brought discredit on some employers, has also actuated groups of employees. They have sought to take advantage of conditions to try to enforce unreasonable demands.

It will take years for the waterfront men at Vancouver to recover the ground lost through action taken on the advice of a few radical leaders. Now, if they work, they have to do so alongside the men whom they blame for their defeat. The union has lost its influence and the leaders who caused the trouble will find themselves given the cold shoulder both by their fellows and by their employers.

Fisheries Meeting Got Nowhere.

The fisheries meeting held in the city hall Thursday does not seem to have done anything except show that there are very pronounced differences of opinion here in regard to what, if anything, should be done to remedy local difficulties. The matter has been discussed from time to time during the year by the Board of Trade, although on several occasions the press has been asked to make no reference to the discussions which have taken place. It seems hardly likely that by adding a committee of fishermen to the two committees already dealing with the matter, anything will be gained. It will be worth trying, however.

The chief reason the businessmen did not attend the meeting last night in large numbers was because they are already tired of discussing the main question which was to come up and they seemed to be revolving in a circle all the time, just as did those who debated the question last night. Also just now they are very busy with the Christmas trade.

CITY COUNCIL WILL SELL AN ENGINE IN OLD STEAM PLANT

Offer Made to Firm Now Moving Planting Mill at Cow Bay

The A. R. Williams Machinery Co. of Vancouver was given till Monday evening next by the city council last night to purchase a 100 horse-power engine and two belts going with it in the city's old steam electric plant at Cow Bay for $975. The city is prepared to accept this figure for the engine as it stands, the purchasers to move it. It is one of the three engines operating generators in the plant. The superintendent of utilities has recommended that all the machinery in the plant be disposed of as it is his opinion that further production of electricity there would not be economical.

Ald. Macdonald, chairman of the utilities committee, told the council that the superintendent had advised that the cost of maintaining the old steam plant would be prohibitive and that, if demands for additional power such as for a pulp mill should arise, it would be better to secure it from the dry dock.

Superintendent's Opinion
Enlarging on his opinion, Mr. Love told the council that a demand from a pulp mill up to 450 horse-power could be supplied from the Shawatlans plant. If more were required it would be a paying proposition to secure it from the dry dock auxiliary plant. He considered it advisable to dispose of the Cow Bay plant.

In answer to a question by Ald. Munro, Mr. Love said that the disposing of the one engine in question would not tie up the Cow Bay plant, anyway. There were two other 100 horse-power engines there besides. The superintendent's estimate on the value of the entire Cow Bay plant was $14,000.

Finally, it was decided on motion of Ald. Stephens, seconded by Ald. Munro to offer the A. R. Williams Co. the engine and belts for $975.

PRESENTATION WAS MADE LAST NIGHT

Sons and Daughters of England Honor Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Westaway Who Are Leaving City

As a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Westaway, who are leaving after the New Year for Salmon Arm where Mr. Westaway will go into business, a whist drive and dance was held last night by the Sons and Daughters of England. Voicing the general regret that would be felt through the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Westaway, who had become highly popular during their residence in Prince Rupert, Mayor Newton presented the honored guests with a handsome leather suitcase on behalf of the lodges. Though taken quite by surprise, Mr. Westaway replied suitably, expressing the appreciation of himself and Mrs. Westaway and stating that their pleasant associations in the city would be long remembered by them.

The prize winners at cards were: Mrs. Whatman Sr. and Mayor Newton, firsts, and Mrs. Frank Clapp and Meth Davies, seconds. Refreshments were served and a dance followed by the lodge orchestra comprising H. C. Higgins, Arthur Silversides, Jack Bond and S. Gawthorn.

The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Mrs. Joe Howe, Mrs. George Leek, Joe Howe and W. G. Hughes.

DYSPEPSIA WAS SO BAD COULD HARDLY EAT ANYTHING

Mrs. C. Stone, Nanaimo, Ont., writes:

"Some time ago I had a very serious attack of dyspepsia, and was also troubled with gas on my stomach. I could hardly eat anything, and very often had pains after meals. I had used different medicines, but they didn't seem to do me any good. At last I happened to run on the track of Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using it for a short time I felt a lot better. I continued its use until I was completely relieved and now I am ready to recommend it to anyone troubled as I was."

HOUSE COMMITTEE OF HOSPITAL DEALS WITH ROUTINE IN REPORT

Reporting on behalf of the house committee S. K. Campbell, chairman, reported to the hospital board last night that the sterilizers had been ordered but had not yet arrived. The wiring changes had been let to D. Brown, the lowest tenderer, at a cost of $565 and he said there might be an extra of $30 owing to a slight oversight of the inspector in the original specifications. In regard to the improvements to the X-Ray machine, the representative of the firm would be here next week when the order would be placed.

In the hospital everything was going on well but there was a shortage of linen and other materials. He was of opinion that this was a matter for the women's auxiliary to look after. More china was also needed. A small expenditure was needed in the laboratory as soon as the funds would allow for it and a graduate nurse should be employed to look after this instead of a pupil nurse as it was very important work.

"NOTHING EQUALS VICKS FOR A COLD"

Manitoba Lady Says This New Vaporizing Salve is Wonderful

The quick direct treatment for colds of children and grown-ups, too, is an application of Vicks over throat and chest at bedtime. Not only is Vicks absorbed through the skin, but its healing vapors of Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Turpentine, etc., are breathed all night directly into the affected air passages. Relief usually comes by morning.

Just as good, too, for cuts, burns, bruises and itching skin troubles.

Mrs. Byckman, 817 10th Street, Brandon, Manitoba, says: "I have used Vicks Vaporub with the greatest satisfaction, and think there is nothing to equal it for a cold. As soon as I feel a cold coming on I just rub a little of Vicks on my throat, nose and chest when I go to bed at night, and my cold is all gone in the morning. I really think it the most wonderful remedy I ever used, and I will always have it in my home."

At all drug stores, 50c a jar. For a free test size package, write Vicks Chemical Company, 344 St. Paul St., Montreal, P.Q.

Though Vicks is new in Canada it has a remarkable sale in the States. Over 17 million jars used yearly.

At the meeting of the hospital board last night D. C. McRae told of meeting Wm. Goldbloom at the hospital. He had been a patient there and was particularly pleased with the treatment he had received. He said he had no idea there was such an institution. He would like to become a member. He then paid ten dollars for membership, double the regular fee, amid many expressions of good will. It was reported that Father McGrath, who had also been a patient, had expressed appreciation of the treatment he had received there.

AT 80 YEARS OF AGE WAS TROUBLED WITH

SHORTNESS OF BREATH
PALPITATION OF THE HEART AND FAINTING SPELLS

Mrs. M. O'Connor, Whitestone, Ont., writes:—I have been troubled, most of my life, with shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and fainting spells. I was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I did, and at once found relief, and I have never had a really bad spell since.

I am 80 years of age and always keep them in the house, and when I feel any symptoms of my old trouble coming on all I have to do is to take a few doses. With the help of your Pills I expect to see many years yet. I always recommend them to any one who is suffering from heart trouble.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

PORT SIMPSON

Most of the residents are now in the village for the winter.

Furs are coming in from various sections of the country.

Most of the men of the village are busy working on a field for sports which is now almost complete.

Rev. W. H. Pierce from Port Essington has been spending a week in the village. He gave a magic lantern exhibition and several very interesting addresses, especially so, was the one along temperance lines.

There is a general impression in the village that every man must use his influence to remedy the deplorable condition prevailing owing to Government control, which, instead of controlling has removed all safety valves and strong drink flows freely. It is the opinion here that every voter who is not willing to be called a partner in the abominable whiskey business, should be registered as opposed to it.

Sales have been the order of the day lately. The one in support of the mission church netted $269.00.

CARD OF THANKS

The Ladies' of the Royal Purple and the B.P.O.E. desires to convey their sincere thanks to all those who assisted in preparing for the Carnival, and to the public for their support in making it such a success.

Not too late to have those photos taken for Christmas at the Benson Studio.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:-

JAZZ is an indication of a reversion to type.

A MAN or woman without a waist line is pretty sure to be a steady spender.

A SMILE and a grapefruit are both pretty good things to start the morning with.

MAN likes the auto top down and woman likes it up. The result is the top slays up.

A CROW sat high
In a hemlock tree,
And kept his eye
Turned down on me.
Who are these fools
He croaked that play
At politics
The livelong day?

I cocked my eye
To the hemlock tree,
Where that old crow
Still peeped at me.
These fools, I said,
Are lacking brains
Like you they croak
Their sad refrains.

"The world is bad."
They always say
"While that party is in, Alackaday!"
And nothing will cure
But to turn them out And let us in Turn and turn about."

THE mayor held the first of his promised monthly public meetings on Thursday night, Jake says.

GRUESOME PICTURE

Editor, Daily News.
Our church is back again to where it was before Martin Luther ushered in the zenith and crowning epoch in human history. Exploits were done; kings fell off their thrones; the stable conditions of centuries were rent asunder. Continents were explored, the gospel was carried in the seven winds of the heavens, to the four corners of the earth, Commerce flourished;
God was pleased, and in effect
He said "boys, here's the earth, take it," and the boys went in and took it—and forgot God, and lost it.

A five hundred year epoch is completed; the clouds have again rolled over the landscape, and a world entering into a state, a thousand times worse than ever it experienced before.
A legacy of hate in the church;
a legacy of hate in industry;
a legacy of hate between white nations, and seething rivalry; an account to be settled in full, owing to the colored peoples of the earth. Night has fallen, the great scientific anti Christ, will soon show his lying wonders.
He will stamp upon the last few embers of the fire of christianity.

ANGEL VISITORS

Editor, Daily News.
To all those mothers who lost their boys in the Great European war, I would like for their comfort and glorious hope to tell them the following:

In connection with the story that came to us, namely, "The Angels at Mons," having had two sons in the great war, I also am interested. A few Scottish Highlanders were in the trench. The German artillery were coming down upon them and would have cut them all up.
Suddenly a band of those ministering spirits of which the grand old book speaks came to their help and stood in between them and their enemies and scattered the would be murderers in wild confusion.

It has come to my knowledge that grand soul, President Lincoln, was the leader of that angelic band.

All Bible readers will remember the story of Daniel in the lion's den. "O king, live forever. My God has sent his angel and stopped the lion's mouths."
We are reminded at this season of the year of that angelic band of the year of that angelic hosts as they sang "Glory to God in the highest, peace on earth, good will to men."

There are no dead. Their hands clasp yours and mine.
When the son of man cometh shall he find faith on the earth.
JAMES L. BREWSTER.

TONY CHRISTIAN'S BILL

Editor News:
Let me explain my position in reference to my account against the School Board which up to the present time they have failed to pay. Trustee McLennan asked me to examine the Borden Street School. I did so and attended the next meeting of the board. There I was invited by Dr. Kergin (the chairman) to give my opinion. He and Trustee Montgomery asked several questions many of which were very foolish. Mr. Montgomery, for example, wanted to know if an eight by eight cedar post was stronger than a solid concrete wall. Surely such a childish question shows their need for expert advice. The Board School proves their need of practical advice. They received and paid for considerable "office" advice with the result that now only five rooms leak. They discussed different plans with me and the method adopted was just what I recommended.

The school board wish to give the public the impression that they are very economical yet this work has cost 100 per cent more than it should have done.
Messrs. Parker and McLennan always considered the estimate of the city engineer too much to spend. Perhaps the board calls it economy but I call it "cheap stuff" to ask a man to examine a big building, ask for his advice, adopt his plan, and then hesitate to pay a very modest fee.

Thanking you for your valuable space.

TONY CHRISTIAN.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

The admiral of the fleet reports that the halibut arrivals this week have been scarce. The sales for the week have been marked by the small number of Canadian boats making landings. The stormy weather outside the harbor has been responsible for the light fish business this week. During the winter months, while the storms are so frequent, it is usual for the small Canadian fishing schooners to tie up, and already a number of them have done so. It is impossible for them to fish during the week to look over the remuneratively—in heavy seas little old floating home. Hugo and the running expenses at says he is feeling fit and that this time of the year as against his teeth are working fine.

Hugo Around Again

Hugo Sandstrum, of the good ship Aununga, who has been a patient in the hospital for several weeks as the result of an accident sustained at the Dry Dock in November, has progressed sufficiently to be allowed out occasionally. He has paid several visits to the waterfront and is planning to look over the place during the week to look over the remuneratively—in heavy seas little old floating home. Hugo and the running expenses at says he is feeling fit and that this time of the year as against his teeth are working fine.

Caygeon in Dry Dock

The Canadian halibut schooner Caygeon, Capt. Jim Morrison, has been put on the Dry Dock for general overhaul and engine repairs. The whole darned work is being gone over and the entire craft is to be recaulked. Particular attention is being paid to the machinery end of the business and everything necessary to put the box of tricks in first class shape is being done. Cap will not be going out again on his periodical dashes for halibut until early in the New Year.

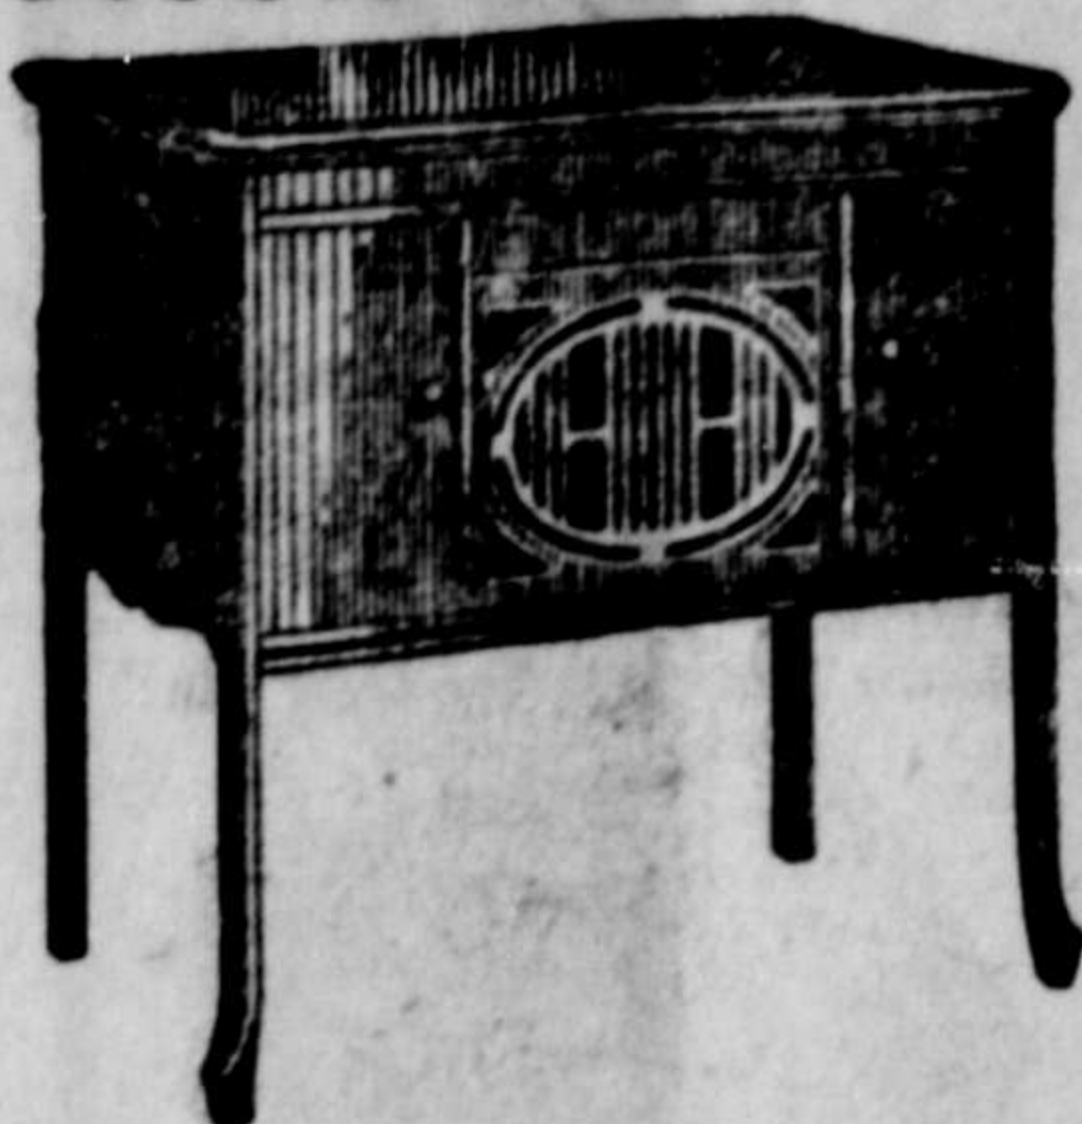

Art Oswald, skipper of the Canadian schooner Kayosu, is wintering in the south where the chickens bring the ham and eggs up to the bedroom door.

of the schooners Mayflower and Muirneag, returned from a prolonged visit to Nova Scotia on Sunday last. Jud is looking much younger for his sojourn in distant lands, and has been studying the political situation in that part of the Dominion. The admiral of the fleet is contemplating negotiating with the skipper to give a political talk to the high boat squad.

It was with much regret that the waterfront boys learned of Doc Clapperton's indisposition which necessitated his removal to the hospital on Tuesday. However, it is gratifying to know that the crib skipper is progressing satisfactorily and it is sincerely hoped he will be back to the gang in a short time.

Boat Repairing

The N. M. McLean yards are full to capacity. The Canadian schooner Eagle is now on the ways for a general overhaul and will be completed and in the water again early in the coming week. The new Dorreen Brothers' halibut boat is making big strides and the boys are putting in full time on her. It is expected that the hull will be completed and launched before Christmas. The Canadian halibut boat Ringleader, Capt. Sol-lows, is the next patient for the ways. The Ringleader is to be recaulked all over and put in readiness for the spring dash to the high spots.

A big steamer stirred things up quite a bit on Sunday afternoon last around Cow Bay. The big boat passed the Mosquito fleet base at a good rate of speed and close in thereby causing quite a backwash. The force of the wash jammed several of the small boats together and the nauticals had an exciting few minutes.

Soya in Port

The power boat Soya, Capt. Frank Armstrong, put into port this week from Anger Island where she has been engaged in hand logging. Cap is very disturbed about the weather which has prevented him from getting out a boom of logs. He says the weather clerk is no friend of his. The boom is all ready for towing to the Georgetown mill and as soon as the weather clerk smiles more favorably upon the nauticals the Soya will jump in to the towing end of the business.

The White Collar Fiend

The white collar fiend is not the title of a new blood and thunder book but the new name given around the Booth Fisheries to Pete Solem, chancellor of the exchequer. It came about in this way. Jack Donnelly, a handy man with the hammer and saw, thought he would put up a few shelves under the counter in the office in order that he would have a place to put his many and valuable business papers. At colossal expense Jack borrowed the necessary wood butchering tools and spent several leisure hours drawing up plans for the necessary shelving. The plans having been passed by Manager Kirkendall Jack started in the early hours of the morning and the late ones at night to follow out the blue prints. Imagine the look of annoyance on Jack's face, when he found a bunch of Pete's stiff white collars, both clean and dirty, reclining on the top of his valuable papers. Throwing the collars upon the floor the shelf builder thought he would teach Pete a lesson, but nothing of the sort happened. The next day the shelf was cluttered with not only collars but other wearing apparel and this proved the last straw. Jack thought the best way out of the mess was to get Pete married off and thus he would have someone to keep the collars in a proper place. To this end Jack is securing the territory for a suitable mate for Pete. In the meantime a notice adorns the shelves to the effect that all collars found thereon will be summarily dismissed.

The power boat Dart, Capt. Bill Holland, arrived in port on Thursday morning from Port Essington. Cap is in town for medical treatment.

The Shooting Starr

Charles E. Starr, manager of the Pacific Fisheries, has shot down south on a prolonged holiday trip, having boarded the Gardena on Tuesday night. It is understood that Charlie will make a motor tour in California in company with his brother. During his absence Lance Styles will do the honors at the well known fish house.

The following conversation was overheard on the waterfront on Thursday morning. An old timer in the fishing game was evidently talking to a new comer about his first trip on a schooner. Said the old timer: "How do you like fishing?"

To which the new comer replied: "Guess I'll work into it all right, but I got my hand muddled up badly on the first trip. You see the skipper yelled 'all hands on deck,' and when I put mine on deck, some fool trod on 'em."

J.P. Loves the Water

If there is one man in the north who delights in a little winter aquatic recreation it is Doctor J. P. Cade. No matter what time of the day or night it may be or whether it is hailing, blowing or snowing, if Doc feels like a refresher into the salt chuck he will jump. Only this week the fact was forcibly brought home to his bosom hunting chum Dave Stuart when the two were about to start out on little hunting expedition from the P.R. Yacht Club wharf. The lunches, refreshments, and hunting equipment had been safely stowed aboard and Dave had taken his post at the switch when, upon hearing a splash, and looking over the side, he was surprised to see his comrade gaily swimming around in the drink with his coat collar turned up to enhance the comfort of the icy waters. It was with much reluctance that Doc gave up the swim. It was only after Dave had brought up several forceful arguments that he would permit himself to be dragged out. It appears that J.P. had not intended to take the plunge at that particular moment but treading upon a portion of the wharf that wasn't there he was compelled to go in. However, clothes were soon dried out and the swimmer was none the worse for his submer-sion.

The moon shone on the cabin door. The skipper, he was mad. When sniffing at the bottle Found the contents had gone—bad.

Bill Knight in Sitka

W. W. Knight, familiarly known as Bill, formerly accountant with the local Booth Fisheries Company and who was promoted to manager of the Ketchikan branch, is now at Sitka relieving Mr. McNeil, the resident manager there, who is on holidays. Bill says that Sitka (Continued on page six)

At the hospital board meeting last night the report of the building inspector, T. Ross Mackay, showed that the work on the new nurses' home was well advanced and it was expected to open in January. Arrangements for a formal opening was left in the hands of the building committee composed of S. K. Campbell, T. Ross Mackay and D. C. McRae. It was suggested that the building would be open to the public in the afternoon and tea would be served then and that in the evening the nurses might entertain their friends.

Mug-up Passes

The old original waterfront stand known as the Mug-up for several years past has gone for ever. The building has been purchased by N. M. McLean and is now known as the Seaside Lunch Counter. While the lunch counter has only recently been opened the bill of fare put up by Cy Nickerson, a man of many dishes, has proved so popular that extensions are already contemplated. Cy is a cook of the old guard and takes his hat off to no one when it comes down to cooking. To pass the Seaside lunch counter on an empty stomach is one of the real impossibilities of this life. Cy is conjuring up all sorts of dainty dishes daily and his latest concoction of devilled turkey and clam chowder sauce is one of the masterpieces of the culinary art.

Fish Business

During the week 267,000 lbs. of halibut has been marketed on the Fish Exchange. Americans were high at 18.10 and 11c and low at 17.10 and 9c. The arrivals were: Helegland, Seattle, Summer, Sunset, Mildred, Constitution, Atlantic and Tattosh.

At the regular meeting of the Hospital Board last night a letter was read from the Hospital Association telling of their activities at Victoria. It was ordered to be replied to and the association assured of whatever assistance it was possible to give locally.
