CIVIC CANDIDATES PRESENT CASES TO INTERESTED PUBLIC MEETING

MRS. ARNOLD AND MR. DAGGETT CLAIM CREDIT FOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS—BUS DEAL TO FORE

Independent candidates emphasized their independence and Labor candidates declare their devotion to Labor without political affiliations at a public meeting last night in which 12 of the 13 candidates for office in tomorrow's civic elections presented their cases to an audience of 250 in the Civic Centre auditorium.

Common denominator among the list of speakers was the declaration of most of them that they had "no axe to grind," a phrase used so frequently that the later speakers handed it to the audience somewhat apologetically.

The meeting was organized by the Junior Chamber of Commerce "Get-out-the-Vote" committee under Carson Wallace and was under the chairmanship of A. P. Crawley, Junior Chamber president.

Greatest time allotment was given to the mayoralty candidates, Mayor Nora Arnold and Ex-Mayor Harry M. Daggett, both of whom sought recognition for recent civic accomplishments, Mayor Arnold on the strength of her current term and Ex-Mayor Daggett for "groundwork laid during my three terms of office."

MR. DAGGETT IS CRITICAL

Mr. Daggett, who spoke first, asserted that in an earlier campaign speech, Mayor Arnold had "enunciated no new policies" and declared that, "if the handling of the bus franchise is an example of the ability of the independent candidates, they are pretty poor business men."

MAYORALTY CANDIDATE DAGGETT

"I've lived in this city since 1909 and no one can say I am a C.C.F. member—but I am a Labor man as far as the city is concerned."

MRS. J. S. BLACK

"While I am aware of the many major improvements and replacements needed in the city, as a woman I see a great many small ones that would improve the look of our city not to mention the safety of our children and women folk."

GEORGE HILLS

"The tax rate of 50 mills is not too high when you consider the topography of the community and the difficulty of building in rock and muskeg."

ALDERMAN T. N. YOUNGS

"I have no financial gain to make whether Arrow Bus Lines get a franchise or not."

allowed five minutes to speak, aldermanic candidates eight minutes and mayoralty candidates 15 minutes. Time limits were rigidly enforced by the chairman.

Mr. Johnston is expected to become Premier of British Columbia in succession to Premier John Hart who will formally present his resignation week.

Mr. Johnston, addressing the delegates after his election, expressed appreciation of the confidence that had been imposed in him and thanked those who had supported him.

The vote was taken at 2:10 p.m.

LIGHTED XMAS TREES RISKY

OTTAWA—There has been an average of one fairly serious fire in Army emergency quarters for every 80 lighted Christmas trees set up by soldiers to brighten their Yuletide. This is shown by records. To reduce this average a central command order limits lighted trees to one 24-period only—Christmas Eve to Christmas night. The lives of women and children in married quarters and of the soldiers themselves, must be safeguarded.

Vancouver Convention Wants Highway Finished

VANCOUVER (CP)—The British Columbia Liberal Association convention today approved a resolution calling for completion of the eighty-mile gap east of Prince George in the transprovincial highway between Prince Rupert and the Alberta boundary.

COUNCIL TABLES BUS PETITION

A petition, bearing more than 2,000 names, urging that a bus franchise be granted to Northern Transit Co. was presented to city council Monday and was tabled by the aldermen until after the referendum on Thursday. The petition was presented by Frank Johnson, Fred Pitt-Cross, Robert Houde, Art Haigh, Fred Jancowski, Bruce Love and Len Birch, members of the company.

Three Days' Leave For Army At Yule

OTTAWA—Members of the Navy, Army and Air Force will be granted a three-day Yuletide holiday. Time given each man will include Christmas or New Years but not both and will consist of the statutory holiday, plus two working days. Servicemen, if they wish, may take one or more days annual leave at the same time they take Christmas leave but must arrange departure and arrival back at camp so that the leave does not cover both the Christmas and New Year's periods.

Industry's Needs Force Armed Forces Reduction

BRITAIN WILL CUT STRENGTH TO 930,000 BY NEXT SPRING; STILL TWICE PRE-WAR SIZE

LONDON—Britain's armed forces next March 31 will still be almost twice as big as before the war—but military experts say they will be badly out of balance and lacking in efficiency.

THE WEATHER

Rain is falling on the British Columbia coast in advance of an active storm which is expected to move into the interior during the day. Strong southeasterly winds are now buffeting the exposed coastal waters and are expected to shift and decrease to moderate southwesterly by this afternoon.

SACRIFICE HOME STRENGTH

To maintain overseas commitments, greater since the war because of the need for large scale occupation in Europe and the Orient, home defence requirements have been temporarily set aside. One military correspondent reported the demobilization speed-up was ordered "on the assumption that war is unlikely for 10 years" from 1946.

Skilled Workers Only Are Needed

JUNEAU—There are twice as many requests for skilled workers as there are for unskilled workers, the Territorial Apprenticeship Board says. Sometimes in autumn, there are three times as many requests for skilled as for unskilled workers.

Christmas Buying Trends

CHRISTMAS GIFT SHOPPERS this year are buying cautiously—and practically—with one eye on the zooming cost-of-living and the other on slimmer pocketbooks.

Main reasons for lack of splurge or sales rush include increased cost of day-to-day household needs, commodity taxes, recent customs restrictions and higher duties.

Gift purchases are at par or below with those of last year while luxury goods are slow in finding homes.

With only two weeks of shopping before Christmas this is the buying trend as generally reported in Canadian cities:

One merchant said that, during the war, the stock phrase was, "I want it—how much is it?" Today, its just, "How much is it?"

Gift-seekers are aiming at articles that were short during the war while investing in more practical goods—such as clothing.

NEWSPAPERS TOP MEDIUM

DAILY NEWSPAPERS still are the top medium for conducting advertising campaigns, according to a new survey. Moreover, newspapers were chosen by a substantially larger percentage of those questioned than in similar surveys conducted in 1938 and 1940.

According to Sales Management, "better than half of the recommendations" of type of media to be used were for newspapers. And since the earlier surveys, "newspapers have increased in mentions at the expense of practically all other media."

Results of the survey were compiled from interviews with 156 experts in the field. Those interviewed included sales managers, advertising managers and promotion managers in the offices of advertisers, and media directors and research directors in advertising agencies.

In answer to the question, "What advertising media would you use for test campaigns?", here is how the experts lined up:

Newspapers	56.3	39.4	46.9
Radio	21.6	14.9	17.1
Outdoor	5.6	2.2	4.1

DR. NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER

NOTED PRIMARILY as president of Columbia University, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, whose death is recorded, was an extramural man of affairs, taking part in local, national and international activities, ranging from presidency of the New York Philharmonic Society through candidacy for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1920 to a leading part in the movement for world peace.

Trained in philosophy and education, he made his opinions known by voice and pen on almost every subject of public concern, speaking his mind bluntly and decisively and without reference to the exigencies of the movement. He was specially outspoken in his opposition to the 18th amendment and the Volstead Act, fought in 1928 for the adoption of a "wet" plank in the Republican national platform and, when that failed, carried the endeavor over to the 1932 campaign.

On the latter occasion he predicted "the biggest political smash-up in the history of any American now living" if repeal of prohibition was not included in the platform. The "smash-up" came with the defeat of Herbert Hoover. Repeal followed under a democratic administration, bringing to Dr. Butler the gratification of having been an ardent champion of the change.

World peace, with arbitration and conciliation supplanting war as the outcome of international disputes, was a cause that enlisted Dr. Butler's best efforts for many decades. The Lake Mohonk conferences on arbitration, of which he was chairman in 1907, 1909, 1911 and 1912, were followed by years of activity as trustee and president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. After he became president of that foundation in 1925, he made periodical trips to Europe, opposing trade barriers and armaments and advocating internationalism. He believed strongly in the League of Nations and the World Court of International Justice at The Hague and advanced his views before conferences, in chancelleries and in parliamentary circles.

But always he believed in the efficacy of education and educational methods to steer the nations on calm courses of peace and contentment. As he completed 30 years as president of Columbia in 1932, he said:

"Colleges and universities of the world are more powerful than governments, armies and navies."

Civic Candidates Present Cases

clared that the city is now realizing a 40-year dream and is in need of good city management. He urged the electors to support himself and the other independent candidates.

George Hills struck at Alderman T. B. Black, whom, he said, Mayor Arnold had declared her first choice on the aldermanic board. Alderman Black, he said, was one of the council members whom Mayor Arnold had "dressed down" for lack of attention to the bus franchise deal. Yet he is now one of the men whom the Mayor wants with her on council.

J. Ralph Morin asserted that he had no political affiliations and that he would support or oppose any measures "as I see fit."

Alderman T. N. Youngs said that two years on council had given him an insight into the needs of the community and suggested that the $143,000 received this year would carry the city until 1951 if properly handled. At that time the sinking fund would be paid up.

"I have enjoyed meeting the ideas of the aldermen and the citizens and voting on them intelligently. We owe something to Prince Rupert in return for what it is giving us. The independent candidates are independent, and will do a good job for the city."

LABORITE AND INDEPENDENT

August Wallin declared that he "wished to see a more prosperous Prince Rupert, but there cannot be a prosperous Prince Rupert if labor is dissatisfied."

"I am sponsored by the Trades and Labor Council, but I am independent," he asserted. "The Trades and Labor Council has members of all political parties in it."

Mrs. J. S. Black said that Labor candidates were nominated democratically and that they would "make every effort to reduce taxation by municipal ownership and having the government assume responsibility for social service and education costs. She urged repair of streets, lanes and parks in the city."

Alderman T. B. Black supported Mayor Arnold in denying that she had influenced the aldermen in changing their opinion on the bus franchise. He read a document which he said, had been drawn up in conjunction with Aldermen Ham, Brooksbank and Nickerson which stated in part "that Mayor Arnold did not consult the aldermen mentioned, or was consulted by them at any time in regard to the bus franchise" and it "was felt that, although the council had previously agreed unanimously to grant a franchise to Veterans' Stage Lines, there was actually no unanimous intent behind the action."

"Because of the above reasons," he said, "I personally concur in the issue being reopened for clarification and I could see no other alternative than a referendum asking the electors to instruct next year's council whether they are prepared to grant a franchise to anyone."

Alderman George Rudderham declared that he had been on council since 1943 and during that time the council had "kept sizzling" its demand for money for rehabilitation of the streets. The $143,000 was not obtained by the current council, but "by every council since 1943." Political affiliations, he said, "are no crime. I have them and I believe the so-called independents have them. But I don't bring them into city business. The independents may be Liberals or Conservatives but they are a unit in spite of their claims to 'independence.'"

SCHOOL BOARD CANDIDATES

School Board Candidate W. Joseph Scott congratulated the other candidates for putting up their names for office and appealed for support at the polls.

School Board Candidate George Dawes declared himself opposed to Roosevelt Park as a site for a new school and urged that a qualified First Aid instructor be placed on the staff of each school.

School Board Candidate A. J. Dominato was not present at the meeting.

ARMY NURSES KEEPING BUSY

Minister to Soldiers' Families —Some Get Into Far North

OTTAWA—It does not follow that, because there is no war, the army nurses are unemployed. As a matter of fact, they are busy. They have endeared themselves to the wives and children of service men as they did to the soldiers themselves overseas.

Today, at camps all across Canada where families of servicemen are living in married quarters, it is the army nursing sister who is looking after their health. Pre-natal clinics, vaccinating and inoculating, curing colds and patching up cuts and bruises, she is generally looking after the welfare of all children of pre-school and school age. If mother is sick and in need of medical care, the army nurse is the first one she visits.

A few nurses have even followed the army into the fastness of the far north where quite often their patients, in addition to personnel, are Indians and Eskimos. Eight are stationed at Whitehorse and three are at Port Churchill.

SECOND CANSO COMING HERE

Will Ensure Uninterrupted Air Service Between Prince Rupert and Vancouver

To ensure uninterrupted passenger, mail, express and air freight service between Prince Rupert and Vancouver, a second Canso flying boat is now on its way here from Winnipeg. It was due in Edmonton yesterday and should be here any day now.

Pilot of the new plane for the flight out from Winnipeg is North Sawle, chief check pilot for Canadian Pacific Airlines, and James McGuire of the Port St. John-Vancouver run is acting as first officer.

What disposition will be made of the Barclay-Grow seaplane, which has been used as a relief plane here for some time but which has not carried passengers, is not known.

Canadian Pacific Airlines are so equipped now that only adverse weather conditions will interrupt the regular flight between Prince Rupert and Vancouver via Sandspit and Port Hardy.

REWARDED FOR LONG SERVICE

Three Ranking B.C. Police Officers Honored At Ceremony Yesterday

Long and meritorious service of three local officers of the British Columbia Police was rewarded yesterday afternoon at a pleasant ceremony in the courtroom when 20-year medals together with envelopes containing welcome cash bonuses were presented to Staff Sergeant G. A. Johnson, Sergeant G. D. Mead and Sergeant L. A. N. Potterton. The presentation was carried out in the presence of a gathering of officials and was followed by the serving of refreshments in the barristers' room.

Inspector F. B. Woods-Johnson presided, explaining how the long service medal had been conceived by the former commissioner, T. W. S. Parsons, as a recognition of 20 or more years service in a "semi-military and hazardous occupation." The Inspector said the Commissioner, John Shirass, had been unable to be present but desired that his congratulations and best wishes be extended to the three officers.

The actual presentation was carried out on behalf of the government and the attorney general by Government Agent Gordon Forbes who commented that efficient and faithful service in any organization over a period of 20 years or more was a notable achievement and, particularly so, in a body such as the police. He then invested the officers with their medals.

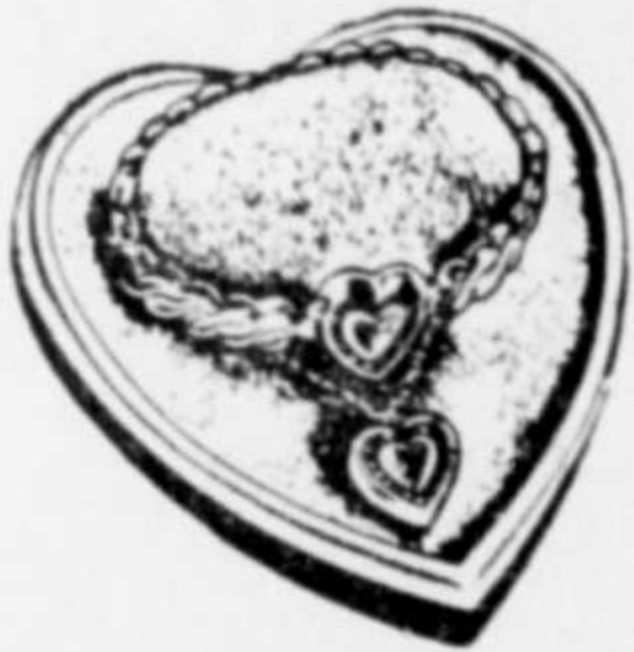

In addition to the participants, those in attendance were Judges W. O. Fulton and W. E. Fisher, Registrar Andrew Thompson, Magistrate W. D. Vance, Mayor Nora Arnold, J. T. Harvey and Roderick McLeod, representing the legal profession, and G. A. Hunter, representing the press. Jack Wrathall was in attendance to record the proceedings by photography.

Staff Sergeant George Arthur Johnson was born 54 years ago in Yorkshire, England, and coming to Canada in 1911, joined the British Columbia Police in Victoria in 1916. He served in Vernon and Enderby, breaking service there for two-and-a-half years, rejoining and serving at Courtenay, Burns Lake, Nanaimo, Fernie, Duncan, and then coming to Prince Rupert where he has been district chief for several years. During the First World War he served overseas as a trooper with Lord Strathcona Horse (RC) and was invalided home in 1916 after being severely wounded.

Sergeant George Davidson Mead, born in Vancouver in 1899, was raised at Creston and essayed banking as a young man being with the Imperial Bank at Cranbrook, Fernie and Vancouver. He joined the British Columbia Police at Fernie September 1923 and served in Fernie, Cranbrook, Ashcroft, Kamloops, Vernon and Vancouver, coming to Prince Rupert in 1941 as chief divisional clerk. He enlisted in the 54th Battalion in World War I but was invalided out before he had the opportunity of leaving Canada.

Sergeant Lawrence Albert Newton Potterton was born in 1884 in Yorkshire, England, within the same year as S/S

CANDIDATES AT STEWART

Jack Wolstenholme and Mrs. Fred Young in Field

STEWART—Two candidates filed their nomination papers yesterday for the office of village commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by W. L. Newell declining to seek re-election. First in the field was Jack Wolstenholme, merihant. Mr. Wolstenholme is 27 years of age and was a lieutenant in the C.I.C. during the last war.

GETS VISIT FROM SINGING STAR—Jean Purdy, 18, of Moose Jaw, Sask., who lost both legs when she was accidentally run over by a train last December, shakes hands with Claire Gagnier, Montreal singing star. Miss Gagnier visited Miss Purdy during a recent trip to Moose Jaw. Moose Jaw residents have contributed over $12,000 to a trust fund for Miss Purdy's education and to provide for a career.

No One Is Wanting Work In Peachland

PEACHLAND—There are various jobs to be filled in the municipality but no one can be found to perform them. The available work is all of minor nature but no one seems to want employment at all.

Lighter Materials For Ladies' Wear

LONDON—All over the world there is a noticeable tendency to make materials for women's dresses and coats lighter without reducing their ability to keep the wearers warm. Experts in Britain's textile industries research laboratories are concentrating on the solution of this problem by new methods of treating the yarn and new methods of weaving.

Johnson and within seven miles of the latter's birthplace. He served for two years with the Rochdale police in the Old Country before coming to Canada and, after being employed with the Booth Fisheries following his arrival in Prince Rupert, joined the old city force in 1918. In 1920 he was absorbed with the city force when the provincial police took over. He was then transferred to Stewart where he served 11 years, then going to Ocean Falls for seven years and later being stationed at Vernon and Smithers before coming back here November 27, 1946, as city chief. Observing recently that practically his entire police career had been in Northern British Columbia, he commented that he had always been happy in this part of the country and was, at least, one who did not mind remaining.

'SHE' WILL MAKE GOOD PET FOR SOME FAMILY

She stands about two feet high, has a tawny coat and an intelligent face and it looks as if she is going to be shot unless someone claims her soon. The police don't want to do it to this nameless lady—for she obviously is a lady even though she is in jail—but they can't go on feeding her forever.

"She" is a female police dog, a good one, too, quiet, alert and gentle. She has no pockets to carry her pedigree in but her looks and bearing indicate a thoroughbred. She's got the jailhouse blues.

She was picked up a week ago—her misdemeanor, vagrancy. During that time, the police but they know the time must have become attached to her come when she will have to be disposed of. Meanwhile, she lives in the police office, getting occasional exercise in the enclosed revolver range. The prisoners feed her scraps.

Solution to the difficulty, according to Constable Alex Davidson, is for some one to come and get her—to give her a good home.

"She is a good, gentle dog, about a year old," said Constable Davidson. "She would make someone a good pet. Anyone who can give her a good home is welcome to come and get her."

AWAITS WORD OF HUSBAND'S FATE—Sitting beside a radio in her Oakland, Calif., home, Mrs. James A. Kaye anxiously awaits news of her husband on the ill-fated army transport Clarksdale Victory. The ship broke in half off the rocky coast of British Columbia. The Coast Guard reported that all but four of the 51-man crew probably had drowned. She hoped her husband was a survivor.

IGNORANCE IS BLISS NEW CASTLE, Australia, (C)—When this city flew hundreds of borrowed ships' flags to celebrate its 150th anniversary, there unwittingly appeared some startling messages in international code. One firm signalled "I am out of control," another warned "Do not approach," while others flew messages that modestly declines to mention.

NO KNOWLEDGE OF OUTBREAK

Local public health and Indian health services today disclaimed any knowledge of outbreaks in this area which would necessitate the rushing of medical supplies to Prince Rupert. An explanation given at the Indian Health Service office was that they were expecting a quantity of whooping cough and diphtheria serums for their routine immunization work. However, neither they nor the Prince Rupert Health Unit could give any lead as to the need for "rushing medical supplies" as Vancouver reports have suggested.

Named Instructor In Safe Driving

Peter D. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Allen of this city, is expected to be appointed safe driving instructor at the naval dockyard at Esquimalt. The appointment is to be made in connection with a general program throughout Canada of instructing the Dominion's sailors, soldiers and airmen in safe driving.

Scottish Seaweed Draws Interest

LONDON—The Scottish Seaweed Research Association has expanded its operations by opening new headquarters at Inveresk Gate, Musselburgh. Here, inquiries will be directed to discover the food value and digestibility of seaweed as fodder for sheep, pigs and poultry, and usefulness of seaweed as a fertilizer.

IPSWICH, Eng. (P)—Centre of an argument caused by his green trousers, yellow-and-red tie and light fawn coat, James Lynch was bound over for 12 months for disturbing the peace.

HOW CAN I ???

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove white marks from furniture?
A. Spread a thick coating of vaseline jelly over the white spots. Allow to remain on the spot for 48 hours or more. Wipe off the jelly and the white spots will have disappeared if they are only on the surface.

Q. How can I remove the taste of scorch from food?
A. If food becomes scorched, remove the cover immediately and place the pan in a vessel of cold water. Allow it to remain for 15 to 20 minutes and the scorched taste will disappear.

Q. How can I improve the complexion?
A. Decided improvement in the complexion is often noticed within a few weeks if a quart of buttermilk is taken daily.

SAVOYS NARROW CO-OP LEAGUE TOP POSITION

Savoys narrowed the margin of leadership held by the Co-ops in the Senior Basketball League last night by defeating them by a score of 45-42 in the breath-taking climax to the mid-week hoop session in the Civic Centre gym.

The hotel men marked up the winning basket in the final quarter after both teams had completed the third quarter with a 28-all tie.

The intermediate game saw Morgan's and Fashion Footwear tie each other for bottom position in the league when Fashion roused itself to win its first game of the season, defeating the clothiers 33-14.

People's Store took a narrow victory from Bo-Me-Hi in the ladies' game, emerging in the long end of a 25-23 score. Bo-Me-Hi came back in the third and fourth quarters after struggling through a scoreless second quarter.

In the Junior League, 65 Taxi strengthened its dominant position by handing a 29-17 defeat to Stones.

Modern Etiquette By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Are silver crumb scrapers still in use?
A. They are sometimes used if the tablecloth is of plain damask, but are not practical for lace or embroidery. One may fold a napkin to the thickness of a pot-holder for this purpose.
Q. Is it improper for the bridegroom to see the bride on the wedding day before the ceremony?
A. There is nothing improper about it. There is merely an old superstition that this is bad luck.
Q. Should one say "thank you" to a servant?
A. Certainly and why not? A sincerely spoken "thank you" is never out of place.

COWS NO "HEP CATS"

SHORT SPORT

The downfall of the once-proud Montreal Canadiens—pride and joy of the National Hockey League for the last four seasons—may be just around the corner. At least that is the consensus of most hockey observers after watching the six teams battle to the season's one-quarter mark. But the Flying Frenchmen can't be counted out when they have a goalie named Bill Durnan and the trio aptly named the "Punch Line"—Elmer Lach, Hector (Toe) Blake and Maurice (Rocket) Richard.

Durnan, three times winner of the coveted Vezina trophy for the No. 1 goalie of the N.H.L.—judged by number of goals scored against—gives all indications of being just as hot as ever despite a pre-season injury that almost forced him to watch the opener from a rail seat. They just don't make them any tougher than likeable Bill, seriously injured above the eye in a game with Rangers recently, but back between the pipes a few days after against the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Toronto-born Bill is fast approaching his 33rd birthday although he has been in the N.H.L. for only five years. Many hockey fans—not all from Montreal either—rate him with the best puck-stoppers of all time. The rating on Durnan's behalf brings up the never-settled argument about the relative merits of old-time hockey—or at least 15 and 20 years ago—and the present-day brand. The oldsters won't deny that Durnan is good but maintain that George Hainsworth and company were better.

As for the "Punch Line" there is little doubt in the minds of hockey fans everywhere that they rate with the best. This year they are continuing where they left off and all three are near the top of the scoring parade. Last season, the trio accounted for 88 goals and picked up 151 scoring points despite the absence of centre-man Lach through injuries for half the season.

Richard, most prolific scorer of the three, was born in Montreal 26 years ago and last season tallied 45 times. Blake, native of Victoria Mines, Ont., now is 35 but manages to keep pace with the speedy Rocket. The line's western member, Lach hails from Nokomis, Sask., and this year is making a comeback at 29. He suffered a fractured skull last year when heavily checked by Toronto's rugged but clean Don Metz in mid-season.

With these four players as a nucleus—Durnan, Lach, Blake and Richard—and defencemen like Keeny Reardon and Emile (Butch) Bouchard, coach Dick Irvin has a fighting team which he expects to soon hit its stride. If they have already hit their stride, Les Habitants have reached the end of the trail.

First Civic Election Recalled—They Took Real Interest Then—Stork Elected Mayor

Tomorrow those entitled to cast ballots for mayor and aldermen will vote. And right here, one can almost hear somebody murmur: "and if they don't, they should." Interest has not been exactly feverish. The bus franchise issue would appear to be the liveliest issue.

Prince Rupert's first municipal election had plenty of pep. Weeks prior to official nomination, the campaign was well away. Prospective candidates never tried to hide the urge for public service that was commencing to stir within them. They did not hesitate to solicit support. The approaching election was the real—if not the only—subject to command general attention and, through the arguments and letters to the papers, could be traced the hand of partisan politics. It was not openly visible, yet nevertheless there.

The first of all the civic campaigns here was in May, 1910. It was a beautiful day for any kind of a fight—calm and clear, with a few surprises at the finish.

Fred Stork and William Manson ran for the mayoralty, and Fred won. When the result became known, someone got off a pleasantry—to the effect that as Prince Rupert needed population as soon as possible, it was advisable to have a stork for mayor.

Here are the names of the first council:
Mayor, Fred Stork.
Aldermen—V. W. Smith, T. D. Pattullo, Frank Mobley, W. P. Lynch, Arthur Barrow, George Naden, Dr. A. A. McIntyre, J. H. Hilditch. They were all representative men and, on the whole, measured up well to the weighty responsibilities that were shouldered.

GUNS TO BE ON ACCESSION DATE

OTTAWA—A royal salute of 21 guns will be fired tomorrow to mark the eleventh anniversary of the accession to the throne of King George VI. The salutes will be fired on the 12 saluting stations across Canada. The time will be the noon hour and the places, London, Toronto, Kingston, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, Halifax, St. John, Winnipeg, Regina, Calgary and Victoria.

NEW SERVICE IS REVEALED

Complaints Being Made at New Run to Queen Charlotte Islands

Under drastic and complicated schedule changes being made by Union Steamships Ltd. for its vessels on the Vancouver-Prince Rupert run, the Queen Charlotte Islands service will be combined with the Inside Passage run and the service to Ocean Falls, Bella Coola, Alice Arm, Stewart and Port Simpson will be cut from weekly to fortnightly. Already some protest is being heard in local business circles, particularly at the Islands service which, it is declared, will they claim make the Islands almost entirely tributary to Vancouver instead of Prince Rupert as far as ordering and delivery of supplies is concerned. Council of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce has been called into session this afternoon to consider the situation.

RATIONING IS COMING BACK

Legislation Proposed by Government to U.S. Congress
WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP)—The government yesterday submitted proposed legislation to Congress which would permit rationing of meat, gasoline and other commodities in the United States and would also permit the government to buy the entire crop of wheat.

NEW SERVICE IS REVEALED

Union Steamships is withdrawing its new corvette vessels entirely from service for the remainder of the winter and is also taking the veteran Cassiar off the Islands service in which she has operated for nearly 40 years. Report has it that the Cassiar has already been sold and will go to China waters to finish out her days.
The new service will be maintained by the steamers Catala and Cardena. One week the Catala, leaving Vancouver Friday night, will come north by way of Bella Coola, Ocean Falls and numerous other coast points, arriving at Prince Rupert early Tuesday mornings and sailing from Tuesday mornings at 10 o'clock on her return south. Alternate weeks the Catala will arrive from the south early Monday mornings, sailing at 10

PREMIER ATTLEE GOING INTO ECLIPSE; CRIPPS IN ASCENDANT

By JAMES McCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON—Prime Minister Attlee continues his heart-breaking grind of engagements—large and small—but he moves more and more into the background as Sir Stafford Cripps, in economic affairs, Herbert Morrison, in Parliament, and Ernest Bevin, in foreign affairs, take and hold the limelight in British politics.

Recently there has been a revival of speculation that 65-year-old Attlee may offer his resignation to the Labor Party. No one expects that such an action will be forced upon him. But the key to his career has been personal modesty. If Attlee thinks someone else can do the job better he is apt to throw in his hand without ill feeling.

The Labor leadership picture has changed radically in recent months. Attlee became leader and prospective Prime Minister when the party hesitated to elect either of its two dominant figures, Bevin or Morrison.

Attlee has kept the balance perfectly. Bevin and Morrison and other ambitious and able ministers have worked with him loyally. But now a few speak of Morrison or Bevin as successors to Attlee. The man of the moment is Sir Stafford, who, like Conservative Leader Winston Churchill, is able to give the impression of being above politics when he appeals to the country in time of economic crisis.

LEADERSHIP IS NEEDED

Labor supporters who have been in touch with recent by-elections say that what they need above all is the fire of inspiration and glowing leadership to explain and invigorate government policies. Under the amiable Attlee they see a moderate but deadly decline in Labor votes in by-elections and increasing interest in Conservative suggestions that some austerities might have been averted.

Attlee is the first to admit that he is not the type to make rip-roaring speeches and stir the country with rousing words. But he is faced with a demand within the party for something to offset the grumbling among hard-pressed Britons.

In face of the Labor set-back in the recent municipal elections, local party workers find little comfort in Attlee's attitude that some losses are inevitable when an economy program, imposed by world conditions, is inescapable.

All his troubles are not known to the public. Some Labor members feel that Hugh Dalton's resignation as Chancellor of the Exchequer and his departure from the cabinet was too severe a penalty for his lapse in giving a reporter information on the interim budget before it was presented to the House of Commons.

Others think the government would have been well-advised to proceed with the nationalization of the iron and steel industry at the present session and avoided stirring up a controversy by the comparatively gentle gesture of reducing the period of the House of Lords' veto power over Lower House legislation from two years to one.

Elements within the party protest direction of Labor, continued compulsory military service, cancellation of basic petrol ration, some feature of foreign policy and other items of the government program.

Keeping harmony among these groups as well as within the cabinet is part of the strain on the soft-spoken Prime Minister whose face shows lines of fatigue that weren't there a year ago.
