PEAL TO STEAMSHIP COMPANY AGAINST SERVICE CURTAILMENT— EAST AND ISLANDS TO SUFFER

Concern was expressed at a special meeting of executive council of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon over the serious possibility that would result both in inconvenience and hardship for smaller communities along the coast as those of the Queen Charlotte Islands and

Will Be New C. Premier

Johnson to Be Presented
Mr. Hart—Anscamb
Maintains Silence

JOHNSON — Byron Johnson's fifty-seventh birthday, which he celebrated yesterday, marked a twin event in the history of the British Columbia Liberal party. Within hours in the final session of a two-day party convention the New Westminster Librarian had been chosen as Premier John Hart announced that he would resign to the Lieutenant Governor before Christmas and ask that the leadership of the government be transferred to the new chief-

Minister of Finance General Gordon Gray by a vote of 475 to 467. Mr. Wismer's motion, which was unanimously adopted, declared its intention to proceed with the proceedings in the afternoon.

PORT EDWARD FISHERMAN CHARGED WITH THEFT

A preliminary hearing of Leslie E. 25-year-old Port Edward fisherman, on three charges of breaking and entering and theft, began in district court Wednesday afternoon. The case is being heard by Magistrate W. D. Bay in his capacity as stipendiary magistrate for the district of Port Edward.

Bay is charged with breaking and entering three native fishing camps at Keegan Bay in Gardner Canal August.

After a search warrant, provincial police entered Wilson's fishing camp at Port Edward on December 1 and seized a number of articles alleged to have been stolen from the Gardner Canal fishing camp. These included a number of household articles and a shot gun.

PORT EDWARD BUILDING BURNS

Former United States Army house at Port Edward owned by Nelson Bros. Ltd. and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hines of Massett, who had arrived a couple of days from Vancouver, was gutted by fire yesterday afternoon. The family were absent in Prince Rupert at the time. They lost their effects.

HUGE RAFT OF LOGS LEAVES

More Than Million and Half
Board Feet Off to Ocean Falls

The biggest flat raft of logs to leave Prince Rupert in years—more than a million and a half board feet—was scheduled to get away from its booming ground near the elevator today under tow for the Pacific Mills pulp plant at Ocean Falls.

Made up of more than 40 sections, the raft covered about four-and-a-half acres of water as it trailed behind the tug Wireless, Capt. Bale. The raft had a width of 200 feet and was almost 900 feet long.

INDIANS CLAIM ANNETTE ISLAND

Want Rent For Air Field
Which Has Destroyed Natural Resources

The Metlakatla Indians of southeastern Alaska have been negotiating with the Federal government at Washington, over the question of rental of one of the most valuable air bases in the territory—the former army field at Annette Island. For five years, the army paid $3,600. Now the Indians say, in view of the Civil Aeronautics Association having taken over the field, they should make a settlement.

It was in 1891 that President Grover Cleveland assigned Annette Island to the Indians as a reservation. The natives claim the airfield destroyed hunting and trapping areas and damaged fishing grounds.

LONG EXTINCT

The ancestor of the elephant, the mammoth, was much larger than his modern counterpart and was covered with long hair.

Conrad P.T.A. is "Definitely Opposed" To Roosevelt Park Site

Conrad Street School Parent-Teachers' Association has gone on record as being "definitely opposed" to selection of Roosevelt Park as the site of Prince Rupert's proposed new high school.

At its monthly meeting, the association expressed itself as favoring either of two alternative sites—the present Booth Memorial High School location or one at the corner of McBride Street and Sixth Avenue.

Decision of the meeting followed a lively discussion in which opinions were expressed by the members and a vote taken.

CHARLES JONES ELECTED MAYOR FOR VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER — Acting Mayor Charles Jones today dropped the "acting" after gaining a majority of 4,265 votes over both his opponents in yesterday's civic election. He defeated Mrs. Effie Jones, no relation, polling a total of 24,133 votes. Peter McAllister, Independent, had only 1,456.

Ald. A. W. Fisher and R. K. Gervin of the Civic Non-Partisan Association, which was headed by Mayor Jones, were re-elected along with former Ald. Halford Wilson of the Civic Improvement Group, and Mrs. Laura Jamieson, C.C.F.

The Non-Partisan Association made a clean sweep of the school board elections, winning four vacancies, while the C.C.F. took two of three Parks Board vacancies.

SHOT AT POWDER MAGAZINE—DEAD

CORDOVA—Jimmy La Gassa, a navy veteran, felt curious last week. He happened to be near the powder house of the Mount McKinley Mines, Alaskan Station, twenty miles from here. He thought he would fire a rifle at a powder shack "just to see what would happen." The shack held 450 cases of dynamite. La Gassa fired. All that was found of him was a leg. The blast was terrific.

Outdoor Writers To Visit Alaska Again

JUNEAU—Members of the Outdoor Writers Association of America, who visited Alaska last summer, plan on journeying north next summer.

Agreement Reached On Main Points of Pact

Bulletins

PARLEY TURNING POINT
LONDON—Firm United States demand upon Russia to halt removal of reparations from Eastern Germany confronted Foreign Minister Molotov today and, upon his answer, may hinge success or failure of the Big Four conference here.

BRITISH WITHDRAWAL
LONDON—The British government's intention to withdraw all troops from Palestine by August of next year was officially announced today in the House of Commons by Colonial Secretary Arthur Creech Jones at the opening of a two-day debate on the Holy Land.

ONLY SIX SURVIVORS
WESTOVER FIELD, Mass.—The United States Air Transport command announced today that there were only six survivors of twenty-nine military men who were aboard the transport plane that crashed in Labrador wilderness Tuesday at midnight. A doctor, who landed at the wreckage eight miles north of Goose Bay, reported that twenty-three had been killed in the crash.

TRAIN COLLISION
NEW BRAUNFELS, Texas—Two Missouri-Kansas-Texas passenger trains collided head-on near here last night and exploded into flames, killing two trainmen, injuring nine other persons and leaving three men missing. Two of them were crew members and the other a railroad inspector.

NOT ALL STRIKING
ROME—A paralyzing leftist-directed general strike gripped Rome today but many workers, apparently by their Christmas pay envelopes in mind, reported for duty and stood by in the hope that the work stoppage would be called off by night fall.

Anti-Coalitionist Is Liberal Prexie

VANCOUVER—Arthur Lang, after a contest with Donald McDonald of Trail, was yesterday elected president of the British Columbia Liberal Association, succeeding Dr. W. J. Knox. Mr. Lang, a young Liberal, is an opponent of coalition in principle and his election to the presidency is considered as a triumph for anti-coalition forces.

BETTER THAN A MINK COAT—Little Stephen Andrews, 4, cuddles up to his collie pup, "Snowball," in his Germanville, Md., home, just as "Snowball" cuddled up to him with his other dog when Stephen was lost in the woods near his home. The dogs are credited with saving the youngster from freezing during the night he spent in the wood while a posse of 50 sailors and marines and 150 civilians were searching for him. The searchers themselves managed to get lost before they found the boy.

VOTING HEAVY AS CIVIC POLL OPENS TODAY

Number of people who had cast ballots this morning in the civic election was far greater than for corresponding times a year ago when snow blanketed the streets, making it difficult for pedestrians and motorists alike. Up to 11:30 this morning, 256 voters had cast ballots, as compared with 135 for the same period at the 1946 elections. At noon, the figure stood at 333, as compared with 204 at noon last election day. Polls close at 8 p.m.

Prince Rupert voters make their annual visit to the polls today to fill seven elective positions of civic government from a panel of 13 candidates. The polls opened at 8 o'clock this morning with few beside election officials present.

During the 12 hours of voting at the Civic Centre, the citizens will elect a mayor, four aldermen and two school trustees, all for two-year terms of office.

For the first time in the history of the city, the office of mayor—which is being sought by Mayor Nora Arnold and ex-Mayor Harry M. Daggett—will be for a two-year term. The mayor's term of office was extended from one year to two years by an amendment to the Municipal Act this year.

Returning Officer H. D. Thain and his five deputies—William Long, Mrs. S. A. Kielback, Mrs. Stanley Saville, Mrs. H. D. Thain and Mrs. Percy Pierce—were on duty well before 8 o'clock.

First voter to enter the polling booth in the Civic Centre auditorium was Don Forward, Civic Centre managing secretary, who received his ballot promptly at 8 o'clock. He was followed by Alderman George Rudderham. Mayoralty Candidate H. M. Daggett and Alderman Candidate George Rudderham and School Board Candidate George Dawes were on hand when the polls opened.

NO PARTICULAR CONCENTRATION

There was no great concentration of voters at any time this morning. They came in a continual stream, on foot and by car, many taking advantage of transportation offered by the candidates.

With the biggest voters' list in the recent history of the city, coupled with moderate weather, observers anticipate the largest vote in years.

Heaviest balloting is expected to take place in the late afternoon and early evening when workers are freed from their jobs.

The Premier Designate

GENIAL AND DEBONAIR Byron I. Johnston, 57-year-old Victoria-born native son of British Columbia, by the scantiest margin of delegates' votes, has been elected to the leadership of the British Columbia Liberal party in succession to Premier John Hart who will submit his formal resignation as head of the government to the Lieutenant-Governor next week. The new leader is also expected to succeed to the Premiership of the Liberal-Progressive-Conservative coalition government formed by Mr. Hart in 1941. Mr. Hart has already stated that he will present Mr. Johnston to the Lieutenant-Governor as the Premier-Designate.

The result of the convention voting yesterday came as surprise to many and, undoubtedly, as a disappointment to some. Numerous observers had thought that Mr. Wismer would be elected and some of his supporters were extremely confident. However, that is all over now and, in the best interests not only of party but of good government in this province, the loser and his supporters now fall in line. The choice has been made along democratic lines after a fair if keen campaign and the thing now is to bet back in step together since, after all, support and maintenance of good government is the consideration of prime importance.

The untired, popular and yet urbane Mr. Johnston has been chosen over the seasoned, experienced and hard-hitting Mr. Wismer. Discussion of the whys and wherefors of the choice of the convention is neither appropriate or necessary at this time. The fact that the vote was so close and the preference of the rank and file of the party so evenly divided makes it all the more important that they should bury their differences now and proceed ahead together that the Liberal party may continue in stature contributing its part to a continuation of good government in British Columbia.

Mr. Johnston succeeds to worthy predecessors, notable among them Mr. Hart and Prince Rupert's own T. D. Pattullo. He has our best wishes that he may measure up to such fine records as were theirs. His job will not be an easy one and he will need all the support he can get.

Debts are expanded by contracting them.
What is the use of hurrying, if you are on the wrong road?

NEWSPAPERMAN OF NORTH DIES

Charlie Settlemeir Was Well Known In Prince Rupert As Well As Other Places

SEATTLE—Charles R. Settlemeir, 74, one of the most widely known newspapermen in Alaska and Yukon, was found dead in a hotel room here, from heart attack, it is assumed. He was regarded as one of the best informed men in the north, on mining affairs. Three months ago, his son, Weston died.

Mr. Settlemeir was born in Oregon, and went north early in the Klondike stampede. Among the papers he was identified with were the Dawson News, Fairbanks News Miner, Anchorage Times and many others. At the time of his death, he was publishing the Alaska Weekly in Seattle. He was well known in Prince Rupert.

MAY ENLARGE KINSMEN CAMP

More Buildings and Ground Improvements Considered By Executive

The possibility of erecting more buildings at the Kinsmen Kiddle Kamp at Lakelse Lake was discussed by the club's executive last night during their regular meeting, and with the approval of those present, President R. G. Moore asked the camp committee, consisting of George Dibb, R. E. Montador and Herbert Young, to prepare a map of the property and to propose a layout plan for the grounds.

A letter from the Kinsmen Club of Terrace gave assurance of co-operation in meeting the operating costs of the camp and in supplying a certain amount of labor if the need should arise. Questioned as to the possibility of the road being completed to the camp by next summer, George Dibb expressed his doubts although he had been informed that a trail had been bulldozed through.

Plans for the initiation of two new club members, Russell Cameron and Bill Smith, were discussed at the meeting. As the next general meeting is the regular evening of entertainment, Sgt. L. Potterton has been invited to show the club his excellent movies taken in the Prince Rupert area.

Final arrangements were made for the Kinsmen movie party to be held in the Civic Centre on December 23. It is expected that up to 500 children under the age of 15 will attend. Whether the jolly gentleman with the expansive waistline and red fur-trimmed suit will be there in person has yet to be confirmed.

GRIGGS CLEARS UP A MYSTERY — The mystery of "John Griggs," supposedly the author of a Paris newspaper report that the Russians had exploded a small atom bomb in Siberia, was more or less solved by none other than the author himself. John Griggs (above), was the official "Voice of America" for the office of war information for five years and who five times daily broadcast to Europe by short wave transmitters and by transmitters of the British government's BBC, said that since the people of Europe knew his name as an American author, it would be easy for the Russians to use his name to attract readers to a story that they would like the world to believe. Hence, they attached his name to the "A" bomb report.

CANADIANS BACK ON STIFF WAR-TIME TRADE RESTRICTIONS TO SAVE U.S. DOLLARS—Stiff wartime restrictions have been placed on Canadians in every walk of life as a means of saving U.S. dollars. Prime Minister Mackenzie King and Hon. Douglas Abbott, minister of Finance, teamed up to give the bad news in national addresses. Jewelry imports from the U. S. have been banned to help save dwindling dollars; radios, refrigerators, washing machines are also on banned list. Cost of Ford and Mercury cars in Canada, is up and Lincoln cars and Ford buses are no longer being imported into the Dominion as a result of import ban on U.S. cars.

We never used to be able to be deceived me. He said he was wearing granny's glasses, but now going out of town and he didn't just leave 'em where she go."

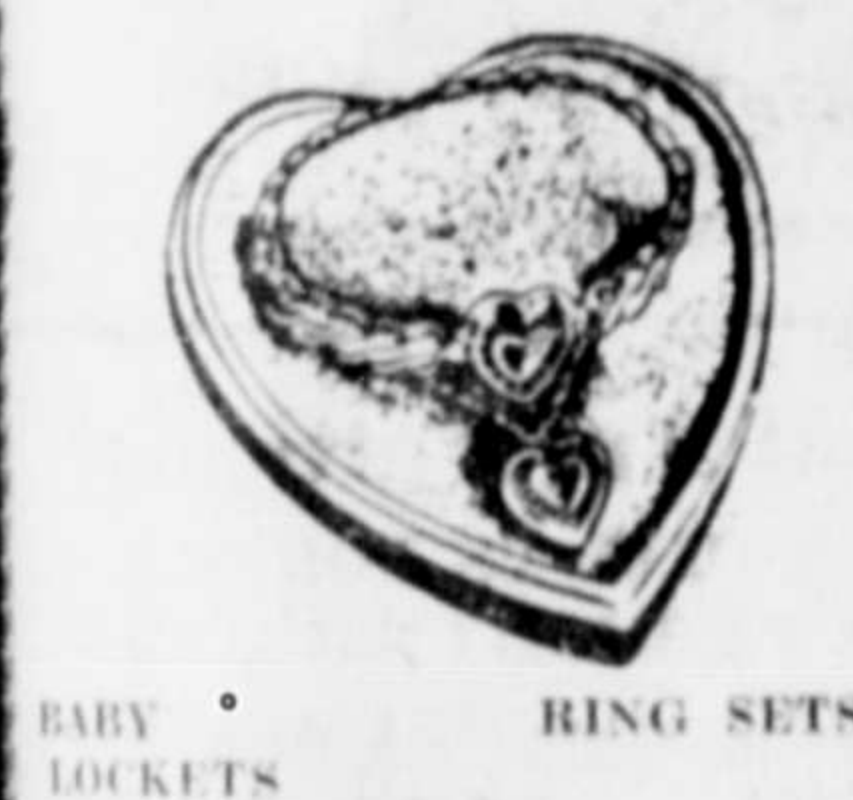

It is not generally known, but Millard Fillmore, the thirteenth president of the United States, gave Samuel F. Morse his earliest and most potent support. In gratitude, Morse named the two Morse code characters after Fillmore's children: for Dorothy, dot; and for Dashiell, dash.

A real executive is a man who can hand back a letter for the first time to a red-headed stenographer.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

FROZEN FRUITS AND VEGETABLES DEFINITE ASSET TO HOMEMAKER

Frozen fruits and vegetables are a definite asset to the homemaker whether she takes them from her own freezer or buys the packages from a retail store. This old way of preserving food has been brought up-to-date so that foods packed and frozen by modern methods retain all their natural fresh flavor and color.

Retention of these natural qualities and also of texture depends greatly on the way the food is handled from freezer to table. Vegetables, with the exception of corn-on-the-cob, should be put on to cook while still frozen. Those packed in brine require only sufficient boiling water to prevent scorching as they begin to thaw. One to two tablespoons is usually enough. No additional salt should be necessary.

When vegetables have been dry-packed, 1/2 cup of water is used for a 13-ounce package of all vegetables except cauliflower. For cauliflower, 3/4 cup of water is better. Corn-on-the-cob should be thawed, then covered with boiling water.

A tightly fitting lid on the saucepan is essential. To hasten thawing and ensure uniform cooking, the melting mass may be broken apart with a fork. This applies particularly to spinach, asparagus and broccoli.

The cooking time for frozen vegetables is about one half that of the fresh product. Time should be counted from the moment at which water reaches the boiling point. Over-cooking spoils texture and color.

Frozen fruits are usually served raw. Most fruits are better if a few ice crystals still remain when served. Therefore, they should never be thawed until needed for serving. Fruit should be thawed in the unopened container, either in the refrigerator or at room temperature.

Fruit Ketchup
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
Or
1 1/2 cups pastry flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 egg
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup milk
1/4 cup melted fat
1 16-oz. package frozen blueberries, gooseberries or rhubarb (approx. 2 cups)
Sugar (see note below)

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Beat egg until light. Gradually beat in 1/2 cup sugar. Stir in milk and then melted fat. Add dry ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pat into a well greased 8-inch square pan. Break frozen block apart and spread fruit while only partially thawed over the dough. Sprinkle with sugar. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 45 minutes. Serve hot with cream. Six servings.

Note: The amount of sugar required to sweeten the fruit will vary from 1/4 to 1/2 cup depending on the fruit used. If the fruit has been frozen without any sugar use the same amount as for fresh fruit.

Strawberry Whip
3 egg whites
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 16-oz. package frozen strawberries
Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in sugar. Add salt and lemon juice. Add juice from berries (1/2 to 3/4 cup if syrup pack is used) and beat slightly. Old in thawed berries. Pile whip lightly in individual dishes and serve at once. Six servings.

Reminiscences By W.J. and Reflections

Fred Stork, Prince Rupert's first mayor, hailed from Brampton, Ontario, but much of his active life was spent in western Canada. Prior to coming here he served as first mayor of Fernie in the Crow Nest Pass country. He established a hardware store in Prince Rupert, and in subsequent years represented Skeena at Ottawa. He died a year or so ago at Brampton.

William Manson, Stork's opponent in the first election and himself second mayor, was born in Scotland. Long identified with public affairs he had been mayor of Nanaimo before coming north. He served as government agent at Port Simpson, later filling the same office at Prince Rupert. Since leaving the north he has made his home at Vancouver.

V. W. Smith, of the staff of Foley, Welch and Stewart, who headed the first aldermanic poll here took a highly responsible part in the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific, chiefly in the Pacific territory and at Prince Rupert. He died years ago in Edmonton.

T. D. Pettullo, who now makes his home in Victoria, had been living in Yukon before deciding to locate in Prince Rupert. He was through the Klondike stampede. In this city, he established a realty and brokerage business, and later entering public life, attained much success. He served as premier of the province and as cabinet member in a number of administrations.

Dr. A. A. McIntyre put up the block, bearing his name, on Third Avenue, just west of Sixth Street. He was among the first to demonstrate his faith in this substantial way. Years later Dr. McIntyre moved to California, settling not far from San Francisco.

Frank Mobley, like others of the first council, lived in Yukon before moving this way. He resided here for years, being associated with D. G. Stewart in the wholesale trade. Mr. Mobley passed away in the south.

J. H. Hilditch, general contractor, was born in Crewe, England, took a whirl at the Klondike, then settled down in Prince Rupert, where he passed away years ago. Among the buildings he erected here was the Triple Island lighthouse.

George Naden conducted an insurance and realty office here and was long identified with general business and public affairs. From here, he moved to Victoria.

Arthur Barrow was a land surveyor. He is an Englishman—witty and good company.

W. P. Lynch was active in grocery business. He put up the first building out at the junction. This was a department store. Now it is an apartment house.

The recording officer at Prince Rupert's first election was Arthur Cuthbert, and the first city clerk E. A. Woods. The latter, however, was not present at the first meeting. The first sittings took place in the building used originally by the Bank of Commerce, in the neighborhood of the present railway station.

Miss Helen R. Hurd, United Church Women's Missionary Society worker for this area, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon on the Prince Rupert to engage in extension of church work here for the next few weeks. Miss Hurd is a veteran of church missionary work in Japan. Since returning to Canada in 1941, she has worked with the Japanese at Lemon Creek relocation centre near Nelson.

THOMAS MEILLAS IS GOING SOUTH

Elderly Man, for Whose Assistance Campaign Was Held, Is Leaving Tonight

Arrangements having been completed for him to receive treatment at the Canadian Institute for the Blind clinic at Vancouver as a result of which it is hoped that his sight will be at least partially restored, Thomas Meillas, inmate of the local Pioneers' Home, will leave tonight on the steamer Prince Rupert for Vancouver. A campaign for funds instituted by Mrs. Ross Richardson helped in making it possible for Mr. Meillas to go south for treatment.

Mrs. R. S. Sargent arrived from Vancouver yesterday and will spend the holiday season with her sister, Mrs. St. Amour.

GENEROUS TIPPERS

According to waitresses, best tippers are movie directors and race horse owners; the worst are baseball players barbers and women.

CHRISTMAS CANDIES

Let the whole family join in the fun of making homemade Christmas candies. There's plenty of dipping chocolate about so you can make "Raisin Nut Confection." Rich with golden raisins and chopped roasted almonds, this confection is always a favorite among holiday sweetmeats.

Raisin Nut Confection

1½ cups golden raisins
1½ cups chopped roasted almonds
1 pound dark dipping chocolate
Rinse raisins in hot water and drain. Melt chocolate over warm water. Beat until smooth. Pour half in wax paper-lined pan (about 7 x 11 inches) and sprinkle with raisins and almonds. Pour remaining chocolate over raisins and nuts. Set in cool place until hard. Cut into squares.
Makes about 6 dozen 1-inch squares.

SHIP OF HOPE—New Canadians to the number of 800, displaced persons and other immigrants, will arrive in this country with each voyage of the diesel-electric liner Beaverbrae, seen above (left) alongside her refitting berth at Sorel, Que., when she enters service early in 1948. Formerly the German vessel Huascaran of the Hamburg-America Line, she was captured virtually undamaged by Allied forces in a Norwegian fjord, where she had acted as repair and "mother" ship to U-boats seeking their toll of shipping in the North Atlantic, and handed over to Canada as part reparations payment. Master of the Beaverbrae is Captain G. O. Baugh, O.B.E., R.D., seen at right in the ship's wheelhouse holding the Nazi rear-admiral's flag which was found aboard the ship. Capt. Baugh is himself a veteran of the Battle of the Atlantic and quite possibly during the war tangled with some submarines which had been based alongside his new command. The blackboard for marking bilge and water tank soundings, seen behind the captain, still carries its German wording. (Canadian Pacific Photos.)

BASKETBALL CONDUCT

Sports Editor, Daily News—

Articles in recent editions of the Daily News indicate the presence of increasing dissatisfaction in local basketball circles.

In Monday's paper some courageous columnist wrote an article of substance under the heading of "Hoop Talk" which apparently added further fuel to the fires of controversy.

In the next two editions of your publication two authorities, evidently speaking on behalf of the referees' and basketball associations, made weak attempts to pour oil on storm waters and then evade the real issue.

Being neither columnist nor official, I write on behalf of many spectators whose contributions to the game are merely a lively interest in the sport and some hundreds of dollars paid annually in basketball gate receipts.

Monday's "Hoop Talk" columnist is, of course, absolutely right. As he intimated, the real issue is whether the local referees' and basketball associations run Prince Rupert basketball or not. The real question is whether these associations possess the courage of their convictions or not. For an association to go on record as being absolutely opposed to "flagrant fouling and unsportsmanlike conduct" one night and then to completely ignore two obvious cases which occurred on practically the next night illustrates all too clearly that these associations must have very few convictions and even less courage.

If such is the case, the sooner this fact is understood by all, the sooner these associations will be accorded the respect and attention they deserve.

Spectators like to watch clean competitive basketball and are willing to pay for the privilege of watching. They will not pay for long to watch games marred by flagrant fouling, endless squabbling with referees and unsportsmanlike conduct.

As for the Arney-Forman case, possibly Forman has been in trouble twice recently for fouling but he has been punished on the floor for the fouls he committed. Arney has been guilty twice within recent weeks and evidently has paid no penalty for his action. When President Art Murray "looks into" these matters, he would be well advised to look both carefully and twice.

If Arney feels that every time he hits the floor, he has got to come up fighting, then his game is the fight game. If Forman cannot check without, in the referees' opinion, committing fouls, then it is time he learned to be more careful. And if Lind-say, Dominato and MacPhee cannot accept adverse decisions without weeping crocodile tears all over the place—well, there might be a nursery somewhere built big enough to accommodate the three of them.

SPECTATOR.

Canadian Legion Endorses Veterans' Application—Would Cancel Convention

The local Canadian Legion meeting last night supported an application being made to the B.C. government by the Veterans' Brewery (Holding) Ltd. to establish a brewery at Prince Rupert, as well as representations recently made to the Dominion government for an increase in the basic rates and qualifications for pensions and veterans' allowances.

In view of a report from the Legion's B.C. Provincial Command that it has been found impossible to secure hotel accommodation for a convention in either Vancouver or Victoria until September or October, 1948, the meeting voted unanimously in favor of the 1948 provincial convention, scheduled to be held the early part of April.

bel—cancelled so that branches can concentrate on a good attendance at the Dominion convention which will be held at Saskatoon at the end of May.

Last night's monthly meeting of the Canadian Legion was not as well attended as usual although many important matters were up for discussion.

Plans for the Christmas season were the leading topic and included arrangements being made for Christmas hampers to be distributed to widows of war veterans and needy war veterans and their families, while members of the Legion who are forced to spend their Christmas in any hospital will also be remembered. Names of children have been coming in steadily for the past few days for the Legion Christmas tree which will be held on Saturday at the Navy Drill Hall for youngsters of all war veterans 12 years of age and under. Moving pictures have been secured to entertain the young folk while Santa is on his journey and a plentiful supply of presents for all is assured.
