British Troops on Rampage In Tel Aviv-Jews Attack Regiment Headquarters

JERUSALEM. (P) - An attack was launched yesterday on headquarters of the Hampshire Regiment. Hand grenades and mortars were used and one of the attackers was killed. No announcement was made concerning military casualties, if any. The regimental headquarters is only 200 yards away from the building of the Jewish Agency.

The attack came after British soldiers and Palestine police had launched a twin investigation of shootings Thursday night in the all-Jewish metropolis of Tel Aviv when five Jews were killed and scores of others injured.

Ketchikan's Good News

NOWING OURSELVES the thrill and satis-I faction of anticipating major industrial development, Prince Rupert can understandingly congratulate Ketchikan which, as a result of legislative action at Washington in the making of territorial timber available, seems assured now of a $10,000,000 bleached sulphite pulp plant.

We are happy for Ketchikan. We can appreciate what it will mean for the "First City" which had been having some reverses this year such as loss of halibut handling business due to the Seattle fleet tie-up, the removal of the coastguard and the closing down of the fisheries research bureau and had been feeling in the dumps quite generally.

From all accounts, Ketchikan, as a community, had to work hard to gain congressional approval of the resolution which authorized the Department of Agriculture to dispose of timber to paper mill operators under fifty-year contracts. They had to do a lot of agitating in the right places to organize the support necessary. But the Americans have the knack of getting things like that done.

A big pulp mill project will, of course, set Ketchikan up as a city of no little importance, the principal metropolis of Alaska quite likely, and that will mean considerable to Prince Rupert which has some time since come to realize the increasing significance of its position in respect to Southeastern Alaska and Ketchikan in particular.

BOARD OF TRADE WEEK

LEXT WEEK WILL indeed, be "Board of Trade Week" in Prince Rupert. The big "B.C. Products" show is coming on Wednesday when important business men members of the Vancouver Board of Trade will be here to show many of the wares that are made in British Columbia. From all accounts, it will be an impressive enough display and, during the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, the citizens will, no doubt, be out in large numbers to see it.

Then on Thursday and Friday the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia will be here in annual convention to discuss problems concerning the welfare and development of the district as a whole and to decide on taking such action and making representations as are deemed necessary. Prince Rupert will be welcoming men of affairs not only from this district but from Alaska and from the important centres down south. Beneficial mutual understandings and fellowships should, as a result, be developed.

The Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade movement will be seen in action here next week.

For the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, which has been experiencing one of the most active and in many respects one of the most successful years in its history, the events of the ensuing week will be culminating achievements.

SOCIALIST VS. SOCIALIST

AN INTERESTING labor relation situation has A arisen in Saskatchewan where the Woodworkers' Association strikers in a government box factory at Prince Albert have found themselves locked out after pulling a walk-out.

Oddly enough this is the same plant which - Premier Douglas' government solicitously took over two years ago to protect the union after its management refused to sign a collective bargaining agreement.

Under the new British Columbia law, which has drawn such mighty protests from organized labor and the C.C.F. in particular, employers can be prosecuted for turning a strike into a lock-out just as the union can be prosecuted if it starts a strike before conciliation and arbitration provisions have been exhausted. Who is going to prosecute the owners at Prince Albert for the "walk-out?"

As the Vancouver Sun points out Saskatchewan is giving an object lesson on the regimentation aspects of socialism and the union is finding that a socialist government can stamp a lot harder on organized labor than any private employer would dare or desire to do. "Under the planned economy so highly extolled by political opponents of free enterprise, a union can have a pretty thin time unless it behaves itself as the government dictates."

A coniferous tree which prefers fresh, well-drained, porous, deep, loamy soils, avoiding saturated poorly-drained, heavy soils. Most gigantic tree of the Pacific Coast forests, with the exception of the great Sequoias of California. Commonly grows from 150 to 200 feet in height with diameters from 3 to 6 feet. Has wide range in the interior of B.C., but chiefly confined to lower part of coastal region.

Very valuable for construction timbers. Also suitable for normal lumber products, finishing lumber, spars, veneer and pulp.

Her exact time of arrival was not contained in the information received at H.M. C.S. Chatham nor where she will come from although it is presumed to be Seattle. The Blenny's visit will be the first to be made by a submarine to this port, although Prince Rupert has often played host to major warships of the British, American and Canadian navies. Under command of Commander E. P. Madley, U.S.N., the Blenny is 312 feet long, and carries a complement of six officers and 54 men. Her war record is not known here. The Blenny will be the third American warship to stop at Prince Rupert this summer during navy reserve cruises. Earlier in the summer, the destroyers John W. Thomason and John W. Bole made seperate visits. The

We will not accept goods at prices that we know will not give you FAIR VALUE

No, we're not superman but we do know how to run our business. FIRST: We spend over half each year searching the market at direct factory sources until we secure the best values for quality goods. SECOND: We try not to cater to charge accounts because charge accounts in any volume can only mean additional cost of operation. THIRD: We do not have Budget Accounts as, from our experience, somebody must pay the extra expense of budget accounts.
