Decentralizing Population

THE massing of population and industry in one small corner of British Columbia cannot go on definitely without detriment to the coastal cities themselves and the province as a whole, said Hon. L. H. Eyres in a recent address.

Something, Mr. Eyres rightly said, must be done to develop the great neglected spaces. There are thousands of prospective settlers, large and small industrialists, investors, farmers, tradesmen and people of means, but the trouble is that the great majority all want to locate on the coast, in the Fraser Valley or on Vancouver Island. And it is in these areas that already 89 percent of all the people of the province are living.

KNOW YOUR LAW

A MAN bought several hundred very expensive cigars and had them insured against fire. After he had smoked them all, he put in a claim that they were destroyed by fire. The insurance company refused to pay and the man sued. The judge decided that as the company agreed to insure the cigars against fire, it was financially responsible. As soon as the man accepted the money, the insurance company had him arrested on a charge of arson.—Mauston Kiwanis News.

'WHEN I WAS YOUR AGE . . .'

MANY YOUNG PEOPLE consider that today's most persistent irrelevancy is the thinly-veiled advice which opens up with "When I was your age . . ." and it seems as if it will never stop. The scowling expression on the listener's face usually reflects the opinion that what happened then is of no significance now, and not even interesting. The expansive look of the one who ladles out the advice shows clearly what he thinks of the good old days and particularly of his stout-hearted and altogether commendable part in it all.

Comparisons are odious, and anyone who thinks of the enormous changes of the last forty years or so knows that comparisons between then and now are almost useless, or only approximate at best, whether you're delving into wages, morals, transportation or what-have-you. So, if he accepts the probable laughable assumption that wisdom always comes with age, the listener is forced to the conclusion that the sally into the past actually stems from a desire to talk about oneself—one of the most often denied and frequently felt urges of man.

This has been going on for centuries, satisfying the talker, nettling the talkee. People, however, persist in disliking advice unless they are giving it, which is probably why the young scowl at it, and eventually wind up saying, "When I was your age . . ."

LIFE in this Prince Rupert

by BIDDEE JINKS

It was a question that had bothered me off and on since those days when housecleaning was my favorite hobby. It was some time ago I must admit, so long that it seems now a fuzzy part of a shining dream. They did shine, floors and furniture and mirrors, all vying for excellent brightness and I the judge and I the driving force behind it all.

Sometimes I liked doing it better than others but, should the urge slacken, a forth coming party was all that was necessary to bring back full vigor. In those days, I believed in X-ray vision to the N-th degree. Although guests might never leave the living-room, clothes-closets received their scourging and back cupboards similar treatment. Leaving me, servant of Mighty House, a scrap of nervous weariness.

The change came gradually. Dirt was no lovelier but one day an elderly gentleman said: "You know, I always told my wife that the hands that washed the dishes were more important than the dishes themselves." And another day another gentleman suggested gently—one hour before guests arrived—"Woman, take a book and go to bed and clear your mind of all this fuss!" The suggestion alone nearly floored me but I did think about it later.

So . . . when I heard someone on the radio say: "How clean does a house have to be anyway." I fastened the last jar of bread-and-butter pickles and echoed, "How Clean?" And while I wiped the jar and glanced quizzically at curtains that should be a little more fresh the speaker had said: "Just clean enough to be clean and sanitary and -com-fortable to live in."

Her name escaped me and it didn't matter. She would not mind either for she is a person more concerned with giving than that her name should be remembered. Hers won't be in all likelihood but it has always been people with selfless ideals whose names eventually cut their way into stone. The laws of life have a way of working backward.

Being a woman, she lived in a woman's world. She is a mother of a young boy and girl so that, when she spoke of children, she was not quoting memory work. And when she mentioned economy of the food shelf and energies too, she was likewise at home. She and her husband went through the depression in poverty no less glamorous than the kind that hit you and me. (Which may explain why she chooses now to do her own work—and raise her children.)

It caught them unawares, her especially, for as she said, "I still had but one aim in life and that was to be 'husband's little helper'. I worked hard all day to have everything in apple-pie order, plus an apple pie for dinner. And for his coming, I felt I had earned the right to be a bit untidy and as tired as I pleased. Only, if I were dull and irritable, he was more so—and I began to see something was awry."

With her husband's job rolling off and taking their last dollar with it, they faced each other with the realization that team-work was the basis of real marriage. And that the home, shining or not, but housed it. Accepted notions of propriety were not necessarily right. So while her husband kept house and watched the first child, she taught school. In his spare time, he studied architecture and designing the start of a new flourishing business.

By the time their economies had righted themselves and the second child arrived, the speaker had noticed that women who give a plaintive, "Just a housewife," to the census-taker, or her best friend were frustrated females. She had also decided that a mother is more interesting and capable toward her children if she thinks in terms beyond 'house'. Her husband liked her still . . . maybe a little better.

Too often, said she, working is made an excuse for neglecting children. This couple agreed not to sacrifice their family. If her husband was to be away all day, then she would invest her energies so as to be home when the children were. And seldom are they left alone evenings. Meals are kept simple and wholesome; dinner an interesting cheerful rehearsal of the days events.

LETTERBOX

GETTING ON VOTERS' LIST

Editor, Daily News:

I understand that approximately six months ago our provincial government enacted a decree whereby no resident of this province has the right to vote at the next provincial election unless he takes certain steps to have his name placed on a new voters' list which is being compiled at the present time. While you have stated in various editorials that everyone should exercise their right to vote, I have not seen where you have warned your readers that the previous provincial voters' list is null and void and that they have no vote, unless each, individually, takes the necessary steps to get his name on the new list.

No doubt, many of your subscribers would like to know what they have to do in order to get their names on the new voters' list before it is too late.

THE NICKEL WORKER

depend on each other

In a single year more than 52,000 barrels of Portland Cement are used by the Canadian Nickel industry. 240 carloads of brick and high temperature cement are used for repairing furnaces and converters. The purchase of this material means jobs for large numbers of workers in the cement industry.

The cement industry, in turn, uses a great deal of equipment containing Nickel. Inside the kilns illustrated here, for instance, scores of buckets made of Nickel steel are used, because Nickel steel stands under the terrific heat necessary in making cement.

So the Canadian Nickel worker produces the Nickel the cement industry needs; the Canadian cement worker produces the cement required by the Canadian Nickel industry. Each every industry in this country creates employment in other industries. No matter how we earn a living, we are all one family each depending on the other.

LIBERALS ACTIVE
LAKE DISTRICT

Would Have Given Support to Kenney for Premiership

BURNS LAKE — The Lakes entry was the centre of considerable regional political activity as Liberal party supporters gathered to decide who they would back for the premiership of the province. The activity attracted both the Burns Lake and Francois Lake Liberal Associations.

E. T. Kenney, whose name was recently mentioned as a possible candidate, was favoured by a group consisting largely of relative new-comers to the district while veterans of the region took a more cautious stand, holding that opinion in the northern part of the province clarified before any commitment is made in the central interior.

The choice of a Liberal candidate to contest Omineca riding in the next provincial election was left in abeyance by common agreement.

The Francois Lake Liberal Association re-elected its old officers at a recent meeting, topping the list with E. T. Kenney as honorary president. Active officers are Bert S. Durban of Grassy Plains, president, William H. Hie, vice-president and Lys Mulvaney, secretary.

Work of the Burns Lake Liberal Association is being spurred by President John Berg and secretary John S. Brown.

Mr. E. T. Kenney, reporting for the radio committee, said that an interference detector which is being made by Mr. Chesher would be finished by Christmas time and would be put to use as soon as possible. No action has been taken by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to install a booster station at Terrace, he said.

Mr. Norrington asked to resign from the pamphlet committee and Harry King was appointed to replace him. Other members on the committee are Mr. Stevenson, H. Spencer and W. C. Osborne.

A discussion concerning the wheat and coarse grain situation resulted in Mr. Campbell and Mr. King being instructed to take action in support of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture in seeking replacement of government controls on

ROAD ALONG
COPPER RIVER

Will Serve Mine—Terrace Board of Trade In Session

TERRACE—Construction of a road along the Copper River to the site of mining operations of the Omineca Gold Quartz Co. will be undertaken in a few weeks, the Terrace and District Board of Trade was informed at its December meeting by Will Robinson, chairman of the highway committee. The work will be carried on by the provincial public works department.

The Board was also advised in a letter from Hon. E. T. Kenney, Minister of Lands and Forests, that a high wire fence will be erected around the hot springs at Lake Lakelse. This is considered necessary to protect the purity of the water now that a highway has been completed almost to the springs and also as a safeguard against accident around the boiling pool.

In an effort to combat adverse reports about the northern highway, the Board decided to have an engraving made of a map showing the route from Vancouver to Prince George to Rupert, and turned the matter over to Steve Howlett for action.

TEACHING STAFF IS NOW FILLED

TERRACE—All members, except one, were present at the district school board meeting held in Secretary Alger's office on Thursday evening.

After the routine board business the secretary announced that the teaching staff for the whole district was now complete with the appointment of Mrs. Griffiths to the New Hazelton school.

It was decided to have the elementary school at Terrace wired for electricity and this work will be done in the Christmas week.

coarse grain as well as wheat. Need for a telephone in the C.N.R. freight and express office was expressed by several members, and the railway will be approached in this regard. Lack of a telephone there results in inconvenience to merchants of the district, the Board was told.

Posters and Literature dealing with the United Polish Relief fund was turned over to the village commissioner after the Board decided that the proposition was to large for it to handle.

Will Robinson was appointed to the finance committee of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central B. C. Work done by the Associated Boards was explained by the president.

Annual meeting of the Board will be held on January 16.

TERRACE PLOTS
WAR ON RATS

TERRACE—The rat "menace" has become so great here that the village commissioners will be asked to appoint a sanitary inspector to cope with them. Harry King took verbal pot-shots at rodents at the December meeting of the Terrace and District Board of Trade.

Not enough attention was being given to their extermination, he said, in introducing the subject which later branched out into a discussion of the village garbage collection system.

Board members termed the current garbage disposal operation as "unsatisfactory and practically non-existent" and moved that the village commissioners be asked to bring forward a bylaw to cover "plumbing, sanitation and health and to appoint a sanitary inspector.

NEW MILL AT BURNS LAKE

BURNS LAKE—Installation of a new sawmill by Wheeler Bros. has lightened the work of the Francois Lake ferry somewhat because the Wheeler fleet of trucks is hauling from the Fay Short ranch, near Colleymount, which obviates the necessity of crossing Francois Lake. They are pouring a steady stream of lumber to the co-operative lumbermen's planing mill at Burns Lake.

Reminiscences
By W.J. and Reflections

When the Hotel Central was riding high wide and handsome, the spacious dining hall was a favorite place for banquets, dinners, luncheons, parties and what not. One night a politician was down for the speech of the evening and he was in crack-erjack form. He had a full house and deep attention. The speaker reached a rare pitch of eloquence and conviction, finally winding up with shining eyes, purple face and to an accompaniment of ringing cheers and all that sort of thing. Then, as the clamor died down, and there was silence, the little cuckoo clock on the wall stepped out and said: "Cuckoo! Cuckoo! Cuckoo!"

When Doukobors, singing strange hymns, first landed at St. John, N. B. from a C.P.R. steamship about forty-five years ago, Canadians in general seemed disposed to welcome them. They were, presumably, peaceful people. They understood agriculture which is very true. All they wanted was to dwell in amity and devote themselves to fruitful industry. They would make such sturdy western settlers! Sturdy western headaches, rather!

Things are looking up in Prince Rupert. This city is the home of many of the finest babies on earth. So, logically, the baby carriage industry must be flourishing. Take a stroll any fine afternoon and note the numbers. They are practically everywhere. Three in a row on the sidewalks. Clustered around the post office entrance and parked by the half dozen at store doors. Watch Prince Rupert grow; increase and multiply! O.K.! What a baby carriage-cost? Frankly, we have not

Q. Of what should one be careful when planning to take a guest for an automobile drive?
A. See that the car is tidy. Old shoes lying on the floor, packages scattered here and there, soiled rags or newspapers on the seat, indicate carelessness and disregard for the guest's comfort. Also, see that the windshield and windows are clean and do not in any way obscure the guest's vision of the scenery.

Q. What should a man do if he is doubtful as to whether or not he should remove his hat?
A. A good rule to follow is, when in doubt, remove the hat.
Q. What should one send the mother of a new baby?
A. Flowers, or a letter of congratulations, or both.

Ormes Drug Store

This accident, at the intersection of Cook Street and Fairfield Road, Victoria, on November 18th, caused injury to one driver and damage to three cars, including one parked at the curb.

DEATH AND DAMAGE on the Highway have made necessary the new "Safety-Responsibility" law.

"In this very year, to the end of September, there were 127 people killed in motor accidents. There were 2,940 people injured. There were 8,135 motor accidents of all kinds

"To that date, the record shows one person killed in this Province every other day."

Extract from a radio address delivered on November 27, 1947, by the Honourable Gordon S. Wismer, K.C., Attorney-General of the Province of British Columbia.

The record of traffic accidents has become so serious drastic measures are necessary. To curb this mounting toll, your Government has passed legislation providing heavy penalties for all who fail to accept their full driving responsibilities.

There is nothing experimental about the new British Columbia "Safety-Responsibility" law. Similar legislation in Manitoba and in the States of New Hampshire and New York has succeeded in gaining two objectives. First—it protects responsible motorists and pedestrians against irresponsible drivers. Second—it establishes in the mind of every motorist a greater awareness of his responsibilities and makes him do something about it. This it achieves by providing offenders with such severe penalties as license cancellation and vehicle confiscation.

Prevention is the keynote of the new legislation. Compulsory insurance laws, suggested as an alternative, are not preventive. They provide compensation only after the damage is done. B.C.'s new law assures all who walk or drive the roads a greater degree of safety.

The "Safety-Responsibility" law becomes effective on March 1st. A summary of the provisions will be published in the next statement of this series. You are asked to study the details of this legislation. Complete co-operation by everyone is essential to make the Act work.

The Christmas atmosphere was accented at the tea and sale held by the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association in the Odd-fellows' Hall Friday afternoon when the tea tables were decorated with tiny Christmas trees as centre pieces and the stalls were ribboned with red and green streamers. The numerous guests were received by Mrs. J. P. Moller, worthy mistress of the lodge.

General convener was Mrs. E. A. Evans, assisted by Mrs. William Field and Mrs. Frank Ellison in the kitchen. In charge of the tea room were Mrs. A. Lund, Mrs. William Way and Mrs. E. McLeod.

The home cooking booth was in charge of Mrs. A. Guyan and Mrs. H. Muncey, while in the candy booth were Mrs. C. Adams and Mrs. A. Newton. The sewing and novelty stall was in charge of Mrs. V. Menzies and Mrs. J. G. Anderson.

Mrs. J. Johansen was in charge of the raffles and Mrs. Hugh Killin was cashier.

The raffles, which were drawn by tiny Marion Evans, resulted as follows:

- Doll, Mrs. W. H. Hill.
- Cake, Mrs. Frank Ellison.
- Box candy, Miss M. Vincent.
- Miller Bay.
- Crochet apron, Mrs. G. Rud-derham.

"White Christmas" Theme Keys Holiday Flowers

Designers in flower shops urge more individuality in floral gifts for the home. (At Top) This all-white Christmas centre-piece is dazzling by day and spectacular by night. Equally suitable for the buffet, regal candles rise from clusters of mums and pompons, amid silvered pine cones and snow-laden evergreen. (Below) For the story telling touch in a Christmas mantel or buffet arrangement, a modernized cathedral angel amid snow balsam, white pine cones and sparkling red ornaments. (Inset) Inside story on Christmas door swags is more and more custom design. Example here, for an apartment door knocker, is snow-laden balsam with a beaming Santa to greet the visitor with outstretched arms.

BURNS LAKE NURSE LEAVES

Miss Doris Allin Honored Prior to Departure

BURNS LAKE—Miss Doris O. Allin, a member of the nursing staff of the Burns Lake Hospital since 1942 and matron of the institution since 1945, has resigned because of ill-health, and plans to leave in the near future to return to her home at Brantford, Ontario.

A farewell party was held in her honor at the community hall here last week. It was attended by friends from all parts of the Lakes district. An attractive purse, donated by Dr. T. C. Holmes, was presented to her jointly by Matthew E. Nourse and Mrs. D. M. Gerow. It contained a substantial check, the gift of the district Welfare Clubs and contributions from many other sources.

Mrs. Andrew Brown has been acting matron during Miss Allin's illness, and will accompany her east as far as Jasper. Two experienced nurses are expected to arrive shortly from New Westminster.

Les Florence, Ketchikan chain store manager, and Mrs. Florence were passengers aboard the Camosun yesterday going through for a trip to Seattle.

TERRACE P.T.A. HEARS DEBATE

Character Building Subject—Preparing for Christmas

TERRACE — The December meeting of the Terrace Parent-Teachers' Association was held in the Grade I classroom of the primary school on Thursday evening and there was a good turnout of members to hear and participate in a panel discussion following four different addresses on "The Building of Character" in children.

As the P.T.A. have been asked this year again to fill the bags with fruit and candy for the Community Christmas Tree, the same committee will carry on this year. The supplies will be sent to the Civic Centre and members are to meet in the clubroom there on Thursday evening previous to Christmas to fill the bags, as the Christmas Tree will be held in the Civic Centre on December 19.

Mrs. E. Hamilton, program convener, conducted the discussion and the speakers were

The meeting decided that President Mrs. C. R. de Kergommeaux convene a dramatics committee and that all arrangements for the production of a play early in the season be left in her hands.

Father Racette, O.M.I., Roman Catholic Church; Rev. V. G. Graham, Pentecostal; Rev. J. McAllister, United Church, and Rev. R. Hills, Anglican Church. Fifteen minute addresses by each were greatly enjoyed and although the fringes of such a broad subject could be but lightly touched in such a short time, all speakers were in agreement that the foundations of good character building are in the home. Toy guns, poor literature and present-day comic books and crime films were very often the source of juvenile delinquency and should be banned. The business of the evening included the granting of a five dollar donation towards the Community Christmas Tree Fund and ten dollars to the Clif-

Mrs. G. Haugland was appointed publicity convener on the resignation of Mrs. Pamp from that office.

The hot lunch program was very successful, with the parents co-operating wholeheartedly with the committee in the serving of the soup. A few difficulties had crept in, but these were quickly and satisfactorily cleared up and there seemed to be no reason why hot lunches cannot be served over the winter months.

Miss Eena Rouson, ways and means convener, announced that contests had been started in four of the stores in town and these will close on December 20. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

FAREWELLED AT TERRACE

TERRACE—in congratulating Sgt. T. D. Brunton on his promotion to the district of Smithers where he will have five constables under him and, at the same time expressing regret at his departure from Terrace, Commissioner Emil Haugland voiced the sentiments of the Terrace people at a farewell party given for the Sgt. and Mrs. Brunton and son Tom last Tuesday evening in the Oddfellows' Hall.

presented a plastic handbag. Miss Helen Somerville, as manager of Teen Town, also had a gift for the Sergeant and his wife and for Tom.

There was a good turnout of friends and well wishers and the evening was spent in playing games under the direction of Rev. Roland Hills. Community singing was led by Mr. B. A. Barr at the piano with Mr. Baker playing the violin. Refreshments were served and a large cake, inscribed with "Goodbye, Sgt. and Mrs. Brunton" was cut by the guests of honor.

The Sergeant thanked everyone for himself, wife and son for their gifts and good wishes and the party closed with "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "Auld Lang Syne."

Convening the party were Mrs. Brunton, Mrs. Emil Haugland

TOPS LEAGUE WITH BOWLING SCORE OF 404

Linda Erickson of the Savoy Swingers bowled a crashing 404 to win top individual honors in this week's Ladies' Five Pin League, a score that has rarely been duplicated in any league in the city this season. Despite her virtuosity, however, Savoy was defeated by Sweet Sixteen 3-0.

Top score for three games was won by Elsie Morse of Rosa Lees, who bowled 162, 274 and 290, totalling 736 and averaging 242, a standing acceptable even in the men's league, which incidentally do not always out-class the ladies.

Six of the 20 teams in the league won clear victories. Here are the team results:

- Big Sisters 3, Comets 0.
- Westview 3, Mansons 0.
- Orange 3, Coasters 0.
- Sweet Sixteen 3, Toilers 0.
- Rosa Lee 3, Savoy Swingers 0.
- Watts & Nickerson 3, Miller Bay 0.
- Cosmos 2, Variety 1.
- Lucky Strikes 2, Blowers 1.
- Annettes 2, Moose 1.
- Scuby's 2, Bankers 1.

Basketball—Savoy Wins Close Game

Squeeze Out Narrow Victory Over Brownwoods—High School Wins and Loses

Battling furiously all the way Savoy hammered out a narrow 57 to 52 victory over a fighting Brownwoods squad in the Senior League basketball tilt on Saturday night down at the Civic Centre gym. It was one of the roughest melon-tossing affairs this season although only twenty-six personal fouls were dished out by Referee Fred Calderone and Alex Bill, thirteen against each squad.

The game started out with a fine display of team play but as play progressed things began to liven up and by the end of the match it was a near riot. For man of Brownwoods and Arney of Savoy climaxed the play when each were tossed out in the closing seconds. This was the first instance this season of

RAINMAKERS STILL WINNING

The Bo-Me-Hi Rainmakers continued their Intermediate League winning streak by downing a hard-working Morgan's aggregation by a 53 to 30 score. This game was never in doubt as the students snatched an early lead and just kept adding to it. Jim Flaten of the green and gold squad bounced 16 markers from the backboards to lead the scoring spree in the tussle.

Moving mightily down the floor in their new uniforms of gold and green, the campus boys had the time of their lives but Morgan's never gave up the fight and were driving right through until the final whistle.

The first frame was disastrous for Morgan's as the Rainmakers romped through for a 16-4 lead at the end of the first quarter. Again in the second stanza Bo-Me-Hi drove furiously through the weak defense of the clothiers to close up the first half out in front 26-8. In the last half Morgan's began to get some drive into their offensive in 12 points but still the students marched on, sweeping the floor for their last period drive which sewed the game up tight.

The students got a little of that school spirit into the game when three lovely cheer queens led part of the student body in some spirited yells for the old alma mater.

Bo-Me-Hi—Shir 15, Lavigne 9, Flaten 16, Boulter 4, Carlson 5, Scherk 2, Davidson 1, Olsen 9.

Morgan's—Watson 8, Scharff 6, Jones 3, Hill, Lien 1, Rothwell, Carlson 6, Webster 2, Isaac 4.

LAST-MINUTE DRIVE WINS

Stone's had to put on a lively last quarter drive before the High School Juniors bowed down to defeat by a low score of 19 to 14. It was a close-checking game right through to the last frame when Bill McChesney burst out with a 6-point scoring spree on some nice breakaways to put the House of Stone in the lead.

Stone's sky high guards were given plenty of work to do as the students from Junior High fired away at the rim—but the ball just would not stay in where it was supposed to. These two Junior squads put on a fine display for an eye-opener to the other two scrimmages on Saturday.

Stone's—Sharon 2, Walsh, McChesney 6, ...

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

A score of Fisheries Department inspectors met Friday afternoon and Saturday in the district fisheries office here to receive instruction in fisheries department work from Frank Warne, assistant chief supervisor of fisheries, Vancouver, and former supervisor at Prince Rupert. The sessions began at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, and continued all day Saturday. That evening, the session was concluded with a banquet at the Commodore Cafe.

Making her final voyage of the season in the Alaska service, Union steamer Camosun, Capt. Harry McLean, arrived in port at 8:30 yesterday morning from Ketchikan, Petersburg and Wrangell and sailed at 2 p.m. for Vancouver. The vessel had all Alaska space filled with passengers and had all accommodation crowded on sailing from here. On conclusion of this voyage, she will be tied up for the winter at Vancouver under the company's "austerity" program which is expected to call for further curtailment in coastal services in the near future.

Second Union Steamship Co. vessel of the day to reach port was steamer Coquitlam, Capt. J. Halcrow, which arrived in port at 8 o'clock last night from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing at midnight for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail at 1:30 p.m. for the south. It is expected the Coquitlam will be withdrawn from service before the end of this month and replaced by the Catala.

The Philippine Islands are composed of 10 large and 970 small islands.

Moose Whist Party And Dance Enjoyed

Successful and popular as usual was the Saturday night weekly program of card playing and dancing at the Moose Temple. It was enjoyed by scores of members and their friends. Card playing took up the early part of the evening and was directed by William Terry. The winners at cards were Mrs. O. Breimo and Helen Tweed, for the ladies, and H. G. Jensen and C. G. Brechin for the men. Dancing to music by Stevens' Orchestra commenced at 10:30. Following the serving of refreshments and the distribution of prizes to the winners at whist, the drawing of the raffle in aid of the children's Christmas Tree was made. Miss Frances Hiltz was the winner of the handsome wallet.

ENFIELD, Eng.—Mary Taylor, who recently celebrated her 100th birthday, was known locally as the "lady who never grumbles."

HOOP TALK

With the possibility of one or more game suspensions facing them, Ted Arney of the Savoy squad and Jim Forman of the Brownwoods gang are the centre of current basketball gossip. After the big mix-up on Saturday night in which Forman was banished for a flagrant foul and Arney for unsportsman-like conduct, both players are at the mercy of the basketball executive and the Referees' Association.

Last week, previous to Saturday night's game, the Referees' Association held a meeting and the main topic on their agenda was the clamping down on flagrant fouling and unsportsman-like conduct on the part of players in the senior loop. It was decided that, if basketball in Prince Rupert was to be improved, the first and most important step needed was the taming down of the roughness in play. All three teams were brought into the line of fire during this discussion.

Now with Arney and Forman the first victims of this drastic action, the Basketball Association and the Referees' Association are facing their first test. Can they do what should be done or will the lackadaisical attitude prevail? Tuesday night will be the proving ground! If Arney plays, the play in this city will face one of its greatest setbacks in many years.
