Voting on New Basis To Settle

VANCOUVER (CP)—Possibility of an early end to the 17-day-old transit strike loomed today as street railwaymen, following a day-long meeting yesterday, between the mayors of Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria and company and union officials in an effort to reach a basis of settlement.

The union membership is expected to vote on a new offer Saturday and, if accepted, the trams may resume operations Monday. No official announcement for the basis of the compromise formula has been made, but it is understood that it offers the men a 10-cent hourly increase and a 40-hour week immediately sufficient trained men are available to handle the additional required shifts.

Burns Lake Liquor Store Is Going Up

BURNS LAKE—The work of constructing the new government liquor store is being carried along on a cost plus basis. It will be of frame and stucco, eighty by thirty feet. The contract is in the hands of the B.B.C. Construction Co.

JERUSALEM HAS MORE VIOLENCE

JERUSALEM (CP)—An unexplained explosion near a motion picture theatre in mid-town Jerusalem set off a fifteen-minute general alarm yesterday. Police said there were no casualties or damages. On Monday assassins had killed a Jewish police sergeant and that night a Jewish civilian was slain and three British constables wounded in a flare-up of violence.

Drunkenness Is Alleged

POWELL RIVER, (CP)—Charges of heavy drinking by one officer and crew member of the ill-fated Gulf Stream a few hours before it met disaster on October 11 on Dinner Rock, eight miles from here, were made before a coroner's jury here Tuesday.

Salmon Selling Restrictions Off

VANCOUVER—The chief supervisor of fisheries for British Columbia, A. J. Whitmore, recently announced that the export of salmon is now permissible in all varieties, in any form and to any destination. All previous restrictions are removed because the canned salmon pack is sufficient to meet the demands of the domestic market.

VETERANS ARE RE-ENLISTING

OTTAWA—In the spring of 1947, thousands of army veterans of World War II received pamphlets soliciting their re-enlistment in the army. In response, there have been more than 11,000 replies to date. Of this number, more than half were found suitable for service in the post-war active force. A total of 2,900 of those accepted, were qualified tradesmen.

HOPE FOR MISSING PLANE DWINDLING—Hopes that nine persons aboard an R.C.A.F. plane missing for over two weeks on a flight from Calgary to Penticton are dwindling. Crew of the missing plane includes, from left: F.O. G. Lebel, D. Babcock and Ross Curtis, not on plane, J. N. Sabourin, W. H. Molyneux, B. E. Bowman, A. Holst, not aboard; F.O. A. Robertson, G. ### OIL RESERVES BEING LIFTED

VICTORIA—The last oil reserve in British Columbia has been cancelled. During the war and until the spring of 1947 all of the province was held in reserve by the provincial government but, with the passage of the new Petroleum and Natural Gas Act, the general reserve was cancelled, with the exception of a certain area in the Peace River district. And this has now also been cancelled. It includes Commotion Creek where drilling was performed some time ago, but without success.

Firemen Put Out Blaze Despite Truck Breakdown

Despite the fact that the fire truck broke down, city firemen last night managed to put out a blaze after they had to leave the vehicle immobile and run a block to the scene of a chimney fire. The truck broke down while the fire crew were on their way to answer a call to the residence of G. Franklin, 1352 Overlook Street, where a chimney fire had started. They extinguished it before it did any more than scorch the adjoining walls. The fire truck remained on the street overnight and was taken to a garage this morning where it was learned that the rear-end gears were broken. The truck will be out of operation for two or three days while repairs are being obtained.

CANADA SHOULD PURCHASE MORE

LONDON (CP)—Minister of Trade and Commerce J. A. MacKinnon of Canada, here on his way back to the Dominion after completing a 23,000-mile goodwill trip covering twelve countries including South Africa and Europe, said yesterday: "Never before have I been so impressed by the need of Canada to buy more from the countries which buy so much from us, especially those of the British Commonwealth."

BATTLE OF KASHMIR

NEW DELHI—Reinforcements were today pouring non-stop into the airport at Springar, capital of Kashmir, but there were not enough yet to launch an offensive against an oncoming force of Moslem tribesmen threatening the city from the west. Troop-carrying aircraft are landing almost on each other's tails while tribesmen are believed to be encircling the airport in the effort to cut it off from the rest of the city.

MACARTHUR, PRESIDENT

BALTIMORE—A story in the Baltimore Sun said yesterday that General Douglas MacArthur was planning a "triumphal return to the United States" next spring to "capture the Republican nomination" for president in 1948. It said: "Private advices from Tokyo received today stated flatly that General MacArthur would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for President." MacArthur himself would say nothing at Tokyo.

LONDON (CP)—Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, Polish Opposition leader, who fled here from his Communist-dominated homeland, said today he was going to the United States soon "to see friends." He said, however, that he had not decided to join the international peasant party organization in Washington.

Mikolajczyk predicted that Poland "will come more and more under Communist control and more pressure will be put on the people following the coming of the Comintern."

"If," he said "there could be a free, unfettered election, I am quite sure the Communist bloc would not get five percent of the votes."

SNOW BLANKETS SKEENA ROAD

An overnight storm brought the first snow to the Skeena River Highway, piling it eight inches deep near Kwinitsa and more than six inches on the summit between Prince Rupert and Tye. C. L. M. Giggey, Terrace sawmill operator, reported this morning after arriving from the interior town.

M. Giggey left Terrace at 5:30 this morning, arriving here three and a half hours later after breaking trail through soft snow that slowed him occasionally but caused no other trouble.

According to a truck driver with whom he talked in Terrace last night, there was no snow on the road Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Giggey came to the city to meet his wife who arrived on the Prince Rupert after a trip to eastern Canada. He planned to return to Terrace this afternoon.

CONSIDERING PALESTINE

Canada Is Playing Part Of Mediator In Special Committee of United Nations

LAKE SUCCESS (CP)—Canada took the role of conciliator yesterday in an effort to compromise United States-Russian differences over implementation of the proposed partition of Palestine into sovereign Jewish and Arab nations. At the suggestion of the Canadian delegation, a special working committee consisting of representatives of United States, Russia into session to take up immediate consideration of the American and Russian plans for Palestine in an effort to reconcile differences. The meetings were in private.

L. B. Pearson, representing Canada, had warned that delay in effectively dealing with the situation in Palestine could only result in chaos there.

Prosperity or Recession

PROSPERITY OR RECESSION—these are the two contradictory themes heard in Canadian business quarters today with the prosperity note loudest but with a rumbling "wait and see" in the background.

An observer finds it difficult to be pessimistic as he listens to things like this:

The steel industry is producing twice as much as before the war and still is faced with an almost insatiable demand.

Newsprint men, their all-time high production also unable to meet demand, plan to spend millions of dollars in rehabilitation and expansion to make more complete use of forest wealth.

Lumber production is at a record and this industry, too, needs to spend large sums in rehabilitation, though worried about its export market.

Oil companies, unable to supply their would-be customers, are embarked on plant expansion costing millions and are exploring for new fields.

Most industries tell a similar story. Development programs for mines are forecast and there are long-term contracts for the yield of Canadian farms.

Population gain is at its greatest yearly rate since Confederation, and industry, especially the forests, is crying for more men. There are predictions that Canada may at length drive ahead through immigration for the 25,000,000 or 40,000,000 population often forecast for her, and thus build up a home market for her own goods.

Where then do the pessimists come in? Mainly they are afraid of collapse of the export trade, not because of lack of need but through inability of the world to buy; and also they fear an inflation spiral which must come to an end.

Canadians make more than a third of their individual incomes from the export trade, and any slowing up of that would be felt quickly, though there may still be sufficient unsatisfied demand at home to take care of a temporary drop.

Some already see signs of a drying up in demand from individual Canadians who were short of nearly everything at the war's end.

Others warn against panic-thinking which could turn a dip into a major recession or depression and caution that business must be ready to take minor set-backs in stride.

There are different views on the increased price and wage situation. Some see it as another "boom and bust" inflation spiral while others think that if kept within bounds it is simply a new level of prices and wages which is here to stay.

Optimists and pessimists alike express the following views:

Wartime habits formed when production was the main essential regardless of cost, and whereby goods were bought where they could be had with little consideration of price or quality, must be abandoned; efficient competitive business methods must be restored; a man must earn a job to hold it.

Hopeful thinking seems to take this line:

All forecasts of recession since the end of the war have been wrong. Only a collapse of world trade will be able to slow down the expansion on which Canadian economy is embarked; otherwise demand will continue for a long time.

Higher prices and wages are still in sight but careful management can keep the inflation spiral in control and slow it down to a state of equilibrium; the average wage or salary earner who with farmers comprise the bulk of the Canadian population won't be satisfied unless he gets an increasing share of what is produced; this is possible and prices can still be kept within control if management is efficient and if the individual worker gives his best production.

Others hold that this is wishful thinking. A recent monthly letter of the Royal Bank of Canada said:

"This country of all in the world has its chance to make good in its constructive efforts, and in this country, if anywhere on the globe, is opportunity; not alone because of the natural resources of which we are too prone to boast, but because here of all places there is a sane balanced way of life in which we may develop nature's—and our own individual—gifts. And as Canada develops so will all her industries."

WHAT TILLY SAYS

THERE ARE SOME PARTS of Europe, evidently, where life does not consist of mournful faces and semi-starvation. Tilly Jean Rolston, M.L.A., Canadian tourist and observer, has been travelling in Switzerland and Italy. Her recollections make cheerful reading. In Lucerne, for example, she revelled in good food, the best of service, sunshine and scenery. The Swiss, being able to eat their cake and also keep it, were prosperous. She found corn and wine, peaches and tobacco in Italy—along with people who frequently sang and often smiled. The Italians usually took an hour's rest in the morning, never making the error of confusing speed with progress. At any rate, that's what Tilly says. She was there.

Education Week

By Mrs. E. W. Becker
(Pres. Prince Rupert P.T.A. Council)
This week as we affirm our freedom in this fortunate land of liberty, let us ask ourselves: "Is just savoring our freedom enough to save it? What can we do to help build a world where freedom can grow and encompass the earth?"

In many countries today the achievement we call civilization has been beaten into an unconscious state by the horrors and exigencies of modern, total warfare and little is being done to revive it.

In other lands masses of people are taking literally the promise of the four freedoms and are revolting against the predatory powers who would keep them in subjection for centuries more. In a recent book entitled "Revolt in Asia" by Robert Payne, the author states that by the year 2000 there will be more Asiatics than the present total population of the globe. It will be utterly impossible, he believes, to outbreed or eventually outproduce or outweigh politically the awakening hordes.

And, in the face of all this, the voices of injustice, greed and lust for power grow louder and more quarrelsome.

People who had hoped for, believed in and even fought for that One World are becoming confused. They are growing contemptuous of our leaders and distrustful of each other. The popular mood is cynical and even stark truths are regarded as lies and propaganda.

The solution to the world's problems probably lies with each and every one of us. The one way to a personal sense of freedom and decency is to search inward and cleanse our own hearts and minds of the faults which we dislike in others. Unwavering adherence to our aspirations, self-respect, faith in ideals and in each other—these things we must have in this tumultuous age.

It is disastrous to lose our faith in the goodness of mankind, to give up to despair and cynicism because in that way we rob our children, among whom are the future leaders, of inspiration, initiative, courage and a spiritual inheritance it has taken centuries to build.

Just as education of past generations gave us our present leaders, so education today must prepare our future leaders. While the teaching in home, school, church and community are all responsible for our civilization it is the home which is the basic institution. If home life is weak, society cannot be strong.

No ill season lasts forever, either in the affairs of Nature or Man and somewhere ahead, on some calendar of events lies the time when our children will reap the fruit of the seeds we sow today.

Consider the coral creature. It has an inner urge to build. Often no bigger than a pin's head, it

LOOKING BACK TO YEAR 1856

It Was a Sin Then to Smoke Cigars, Go to Dances

(From the Journal of Accountancy)

In looking through some old papers I found some office rules dated 1856, which included such items as the following:

"The employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish cigars, being shaved at the barber's, going to dances and other places of amusement, will surely give his employer reason to be suspicious of his integrity and honesty."

"Each employee must not pay less than $5 per year to the church and must attend Sunday School regularly."

"Men employees are given one evening a week for courting and two if they go to prayer meeting."

"After 14 hours of work in the office, the leisure time should be spent most in reading."

"Now, in 1896, we feel that we allow our people every possible freedom. Fifty years from now it will be impossible to impose upon the employees of our office some of the restrictions that we are now imposing, such, for instance, as our general requirement that our young ladies should wear sleeves to the wrist and dresses to the ankle, with an appropriate number of petticoats."

PRINCE RUPERT YEARS AGO

November 3, 1922

The logging tug Masset, Capt. Robinson, was towed into port by the G. T. P. tug Lorne, Capt. Barney Johnson, after she had lost a Davis raft containing 1,300,000 board feet of logs while crossing Hecate Straits in a storm. The Masset became disabled when she lost her rudder in the blow.

The Canadian Government Merchant Marine freighter Canadian Observer, Capt. Cooper, arrived in port to go into dry dock. The vessel was scheduled for overhaul.

OVER THE FENCE

REGINA — Possibility of a substantial reduction in building costs in Saskatchewan was recently indicated here. There are, said to be prospects of using native balsam shingles at a cost of 50 per cent lower than the expense of importing shingles from British Columbia.

"Here is another quote for you," said the Old Timer this morning. "It reads this way: 'We have a fifth column in our midst more dangerous than Fascism ever was.'"

"Who said that? It was James McGuire, an official of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, and he said it because he was convinced the Comintern had been revived throughout the world with definite instructions to sabotage the trade union movement."

"Speaking for myself, I would say there is plenty of evidence to support Mr. McGuire. Why is it that the ordinary trade union, not under control of Communists, can sit down with management and usually—not always, of course, but usually—arrive at a settlement of wages and working conditions, whereas unions led by Communists stage strike after strike, as often as the leaders think they can hold the support of their members?"

"Do Communists want union men to be reasonably prosperous, contented, able to pay their bills, keep their families, have a car and a garden? Not much. Communists—and you have only to read their propaganda to know it—want people discontented, poverty-stricken, hopeless. They want them to feel, as they used to say, that the workingman has nothing to lose but his chains. And they manipulate trades unions cunningly to try to put the workingmen and women in that frame of mind. If a union led by Communists ever goes more than two years without a strike it is a miracle."

(The views of the Old Timer are presented weekly in this newspaper under the sponsorship of the British Columbia Federation of Trade and Industry.)

New Building Is Near Completion

It is possible completion of the Lindsay garage, Second Avenue and First Street, will be effected by the Christmas season or early in the New Year at latest. It will be one of the city's most important new and permanent buildings, meeting not only a definite need but also presenting an attractive appearance.

RELIGIOUS FILM TO BE SHOWN

A sound film entitled "Golgotha," telling the story of the crucifixion and resurrection of the Lord, will be shown at the Civic Centre under sponsorship of the Prince Rupert Ministerial Association some time within the next few weeks, it was announced following a meeting of the Ministerial Association Monday.

The film is being offered for display locally by a Los Angeles company prior to its circulation throughout Alaska. Approval of the Civic Centre for the showing has been received and an attempt is being made to obtain a specific date for the showing.

Business of Monday's meeting was concerned largely with the setting of schedules for the daily radio broadcasts sponsored by the Association. The meeting also welcomed Paul Barber, new pastor of the Pentecostal Tabernacle.

Present at the meeting were Rev. Basil S. Prockter, chairman, Archdeacon E. D. Hodson, Rev. R. A. Wilson, Rev. Fred Antrobis and Rev. Paul Barber.

EXPERIENCE ON HIGHWAY

Lieut. and Mrs. Ernest Santurbane, who were here recently enroute to Alaska, the former having been transferred north in the United States Army service, had a trying experience on the highway while coming here. The Omineca Herald mentions that, when in the neighborhood of Cedarville, there was a spring breakage and Lieut. Santurbane got under the car and proceeded to make repairs. But the jack slipped and his head caught, leaving him pinned under the automobile and quite helpless. Fortunately Scotty McRae, well known Skeena resident, came along and gave the required aid. Medical attention was provided in Terrace and the following day Lieut. Santurbane, though somewhat bruised, and wife, resumed the journey to the coast.

Groom Is Nephew Of Former Primate

Quiet but pretty was the marriage of Miss Gloria Clipperton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Clipperton of Hayter, Alberta, and Alan Christie Matheson of Grande Prairie, Alberta, which was solemnized early Monday evening in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral by Rev. Basil S. Prockter. The bride, who has been a clerk in the Canadian National Telegraphs office here, wore a rose wool dress with corsage of pink roses. Attendants of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lunn. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Matheson entrained for a honeymoon trip to Hayter and Winnipeg following which they will return here to reside. The groom is a grand-nephew of the late Most Rev. S. P. Matheson, Archbishop of Rupert's Land and Primate of all Canada for the Anglican Church.

OBSERVING OF EDUCATION WEEK

At the monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association held last night at the Civic Centre with J. S. Wilson, president, in the chair, final arrangements were made for the public meeting to be held in the Civic Centre auditorium Friday evening on the theme of "Education for the Seven Freedoms."

A. M. Hurst, high school principal, and Mrs. J. Harry Black, delegate to the national convention of the P.T.A., will be the principal speakers. The program will also feature short displays by students of the four city schools. As this meeting is primarily for adults, only children, accompanied by their parents, will be admitted.

It was decided that the next meeting of the Association, on December 2, will take the form of a dinner, to which the members of the school board and their wives, the secretary, the inspector and his wife, and the wives or husbands of teachers, will be invited. A social hour will follow the dinner.

Various committee reports were presented, including one by J. Densmore, on behalf of the school planning committee, outlining initial plans concerning a new high school.

CANADIAN CLUB HEARS REPORT

A resume report of the regional conference of the Canadian Clubs of B.C. held in Vancouver during July and attended by Mrs. T. Norton Youngs, president of Prince Rupert branch, featured the meeting of the Women's Canadian Club held in the Civic Centre Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Youngs reported that James B. Corley, president of the Association of Canadian Clubs, who addressed a dinner meeting in this city not long ago, also spoke at the conference. He stressed the objectives of the Canadian Clubs, which are to create an informed public opinion and to build a united Canada. He declared that many people do not realize that Canadians are only one-third Anglo-Saxons, one-third being French and one-third foreign. He advocated the teaching of two official languages in primary school so that in 20 years it would become unimportant whether English or French were spoken.

Geographic location accounted mainly for the lack of prominent speakers in Prince Rupert. They were usually sent out regularly by the Council, according to Mrs. Youngs, who discussed this problem with the regional officers.

A short business session followed Mrs. Youngs' report.

Mrs. D. McD. Hunter, honorary president of the club, spoke to new members, bidding them welcome and expressing the hope that they would enjoy "carrying on the work" as much as she had done for many years. Afternoon tea was served.

There's a proper light or lamp for every spot in the house

A torchère lamp provides a very attractive glow in a dark hallway or a dull corner of a room... but not to read by! Floor or table lamps placed to give a proper reading light to several people are both economical and cheerful. Make sure that you have plenty of wall outlets... use bulbs that provide a comfortable working light—neither too dull nor too glaring... use light-colour shades... dust lamps and bulbs frequently. Look around your home: is there adequate light for the children's study? For Mother's sewing, kitchen and laundry work? For your own reading requirements in the living room or in bed?

Savoys continued winning in the Senior Basketball League last night by defeating the Co-op hoopers by a score of 48 to 41. It was a fair brand of basketball for the first canto. Sco's then was 13 to 12 but from there to the finish it was a referee's field d' Comadina. Bill and Montgomery dished out 55 personnel. The fishermen lost four players via the penalty route and the innkeepers lost one.

The game was rough and in some spots it was a bit ragged but it was the first time that the fisherman had played together this season and they should improve as they go along.

The Intermediate fixture between Merchants and Morgans was one of the best games of the evening. The Merchants had to go all out to squeeze a 38 to 36 win over the Clothiers. At the finish of the first half it seemed like a walk-over for Sid Woodside's squad, but during the rest period, Doc Montgomery gave his ball tossers a pep talk with the result that the suit sellers overcame a 23-11 half time score to lose by only two points.

Both teams are a fairly well balance so the fans should be seeing some good games each time they get on the floor together.

The Ladies League started last evening with Peoples Store defeating Sweet Sixteen 15-11.

The game was somewhat lopsided in the first canto. The score at the quarter was 7-0 favour of the Peoples Store, but from there till the finish the game got faster and the issue was in doubt until the last few minutes. Jordan and N. Youngman starred for the Sixteens while N. Bill and Betty Hamilton grabbed most of the points for the Peoples Store.

Gyros and Stone's made their debut in the Junior League last evening the clubmen lost to a heavier aggregation by a score of 8-25. The Clothiers grabbed a two point lead in the first quarter and were never headed. Half time score was 9-0 and full time score was 25-8. It was a fast game from start to finish. As soon as these young lads get accustomed to large floor they should put up a better brand of ball. Hartwig was the sniper for the clubmen with a total of 6 points for his evenings work.

Lassiere and McChesney were the big guns for the tie and shirt merchants. They got 12 and 7 points respectively.

SHORT SPORT

Entry of a Canadian hockey team in the 1948 Winter Olympics in all probability has been welcomed with hand-rubbing glee by some European clubs, especially Czechoslovakia and Sweden. These are the "Big Shots" of continental hockey and they're anxious to play the Dominion. This attitude was evident at the Prague championships and the International Ice Hockey Federation Congress last February and also at the I.I.H.F. meeting at Zurich, Switzerland, in September.

The Czechs cleaned up the Prague titles—Canada didn't send a team—and they boasted openly they would give the Dominion a good battle if ever afforded a chance. Many sneered that Canada was "afraid" to enter.

Mike Buckna, Czech coach and Trail Smoke Eater player in the '30s, alone was cautious — he thought his club would lose by perhaps three goals to a top-class Canadian senior club. At Zurich, when George Dudley of Midland, Ont., secretary-manager of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, declared the CAHA would not accept the Olympic definition of an amateur and that his Association would not nominate a club for the January 30-February 8 Olympics the Czechs and Swedes were "sad." But Canada's reversal of its decision, announced in mid-October, should have cheered them.

The Czech team is imbued with a will-to-win spirit, probably unmatched in any other hockey-playing country in the world. They take on all comers while their fans hunch on benches around open-air rinks in 15 to 20-below-zero weather. If the champs can ring up a 40-0 score the freezing supporters go home deliriously happy. The rise to a man when their team scores a goal—whether it's the first or twenty-first of the game—and there is ominous silence when one is scored against them. It's worth your life to cheer at this crucial moment.

Czech delegates, interviewed at the Zurich Congress, said the team would be "much stronger" for the Olympics. Practice started November 1 and when the games open it is a certainty this country will have a well-trained and superbly-confident club. The Swedes, second to Czechoslovakia in the Prague tournament, openly jeered at the United States entry, an inexperienced and weak club, and wondered out loud why Canada didn't enter. The Swedish Hockey Federation weeks ago sent invitations to 60 of the country's best players to try out for the Olympics and they will have plenty of pre-games competition.

Removal of Controls Seen On Local Market
Released from price control and rationing on Monday, sugar has joined the parade of commodities on the march to higher price levels while butter, which has been subject to the law of supply and demand for a considerable time, dropped a cent a pound.
In some local stores, sugar advanced one cent a pound from the 10-cent level which it maintained throughout the war and the two immediate post-war years. White sugar is now 11 cents a pound and golden yellow 12 cents. The increase is expected to be general today or tomorrow.
Following a trend which has been more marked in Eastern Canada and on the prairies, butter has undergone a slight price reduction, dropping from 69 cents a pound to 68. Tendency on the part of this strategic commodity to go down in price leads some people to hope that this may indicate a general levelling-off of prices. However, there is the fact that its price is based on seasonal production. At the end of the summer, which is the grazing period for livestock, Canada's butter storage coolers are usually pretty well filled.
When housewives scan grocery store shelves for ingredients for their Christmas cakes, which many will be planning in the near future, they will find that there is considerable glazed fruit of high quality that was not available last year. While some glazed fruit was on the market all through the war, the shortage of sugar precluded the manufacture of many of the top quality lines. Now, many of these have returned.
Among these are glazed pineapple rings, which haven't been seen for years, as well as top quality mixed peels. Another article which will be welcomed on its return is the puffed, seeded muscat raisin, which has shown up at last. This has always been a favorite for baking and reaches its pinnacle of flavor in pies.

Prince Rupert's 1947 civic voters' list will receive a substantial boost which will make the largest in the history of the city with the inclusion of the 340 names of purchasers of wartime houses who will be listed as owners.
The list carries the names of purchasers of 181 houses which were sold by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation prior to October 31. Of these, 159 were bought jointly by husband and wife, thus placing on the list the names of that many women who previously had no vote.
A number of men, City Clerk H. D. Thain believes, also failed to register as voters while they had the status of householder, even though they had paid their poll tax.
Of the 181 houses sold prior to October 31, 159 were sold to joint owners—in all cases husband and wife—and 22 were sold to single purchasers.
The voters' list is being prepared for publication on November 10, the date required by statute to make it available for public inspection for five days prior to the sitting of the court of revision on November 15.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

SS. Prince Rupert, after next week's voyage, will go off her northern run for general overhaul and will resume the service from Vancouver on December 8. The work is to be done in the south. The Prince Rupert arrived in port from Vancouver at 2 o'clock this afternoon and will sail at midnight for Ketchikan.

C.P.R. liner Duchess of Bedford, a vessel with a distinguished war record, is to re-enter peacetime service early next summer, resuming the St. Lawrence route. She will not bear the same name. In future it will be the Empress of France.

An oceanographic survey is to be undertaken off the coast of British Columbia by the little ex-fishermen's naval reserve ship H.M.C.S. Ekholi. The vessel, which has been recommissioned, is expected to involve a study of tides, currents, temperatures and other data concerning offshore seas.

A teen-age seaman serving aboard the freighter Manoran, recently made a very large seizure of narcotics, is being held by the Vancouver immigration authorities. The vessel sailed some days ago.

There are indications of slackening of general travel along the coast now that the tourist season is over and it is still rather premature to think about Christmas travelling activities. For the present, some of the boats continue rather light.

The making of cedar salmon net floats, originally started in Prince Rupert by George McInnis and Fred Hill and now being carried on in Terrace, is understood to be coming along very well indeed. There are sufficient orders to keep delivery active for a long time. The bundles of floats are shipped by truck to Prince Rupert.

What is said will be the largest boat in coastal fishing is now being overhauled and out-fitted in a Vancouver shipyard. It is the 94 foot ex-R.C.A.F. transport vessel Squamish, recently purchased by veterans of the R.C.A.F., who will use her in the fishing industry.

Not in three years has the British Columbia herring pack been higher than the record shows for 1947. The green pack, says the figure released at the department in Vancouver, totals 8,575 tons. The most of it is from the waters of the lower east coast of Vancouver Island.

The yacht Corsair, built originally for J. Pierpont Morgan, multi-millionaire, and now to cruise the Pacific Coast as a luxury cruiser, will serve this winter between Long Beach, California, and Acapulco, Mexico. Commencing next May, her schedule will be between Vancouver and Alaska. The vessel is now owned by the Pacific Cruise Line of Seattle. There is lavish accommodation for 85 passengers. The ship is registered in Panama, with AA rating from the American Bureau of Shipping.

LEGION PLANS BUSY WEEK-END

Prince Rupert branch, Canadian Legion, is looking forward to a busy week-end as its members and officers prepare for the annual observation of Poppy Day and Remembrance Day. Local merchants already have begun to instal Poppy Day displays in their windows.

Annual Poppy Day sale will be held on Saturday with children acting as taggers during the morning and members of the Legion Women's Auxiliary selling the bright red flowers on the streets in the afternoon.

Sale of poppies among children in the city's schools will be held on Friday.

On Sunday, the Legion will hold its annual church parade, with members of both the Legion and the Women's Auxiliary taking part.

On Monday, the Auxiliary will hold its fall tea and sale of home cooking in the Legion rooms.

Next Tuesday—Remembrance Day—will honor the dead of both world wars and will feature the annual parade and wreath-laying ceremonies at the Cenotaph. In the evening, there will be a smoking concert for Legion members and other war veterans.

SONS OF NORWAY LODGE GROWING

As far as internal extension is concerned, the Sons of Norway Lodge here is flourishing. No fewer than forty new members are awaiting initiation which has been set for a meeting on Thursday night of this week. In addition to the initiation, an interesting program with varied features has been arranged and the occasion will also be celebrated in a social way.

HOT LUNCHES IN TERRACE SCHOOL

Soups Being Served To Sixty-three Children

TERRACE—Parent-Teachers Association hot lunch program got under way on Monday morning when hot soup was served to the Primary School children. Sixty-three children were served.

For the present, canned soup is being used and two volunteer helpers are in the kitchen every day to prepare and serve it to the children.

With the co-operation of Mr. Larsen, the school janitor, and the school board, represented by Mrs. Hall, a compact kitchen has been made out of what was formerly an army wash-room.

The soup is served to the children at their own desks in the classroom.

The parents' response has been most gratifying and each child has shown an eagerness not to be left out.

The P. T. A. hopes to keep up this hot lunch program all through the winter months.

Timely Topics from Terrace

Mrs. Zorn and baby daughter arrived from Smithers on Saturday to spend the week-end with Mrs. Zorn's parents Mr. and Mrs. Osborne.

Mr. Griffiths of Kispiox was in Terrace Thursday for a School Board meeting and proceeded to Prince Rupert to dispose of a carload of potatoes.

Last Saturday, George Hull and two sons, accompanied by Bob Alger and Lawrence Baker left Terrace by car on a moose hunting trip to Houston.

The Brownles had a very enjoyable Halloween party last week at the home of Mrs. Kennedy. Games and contests were played after which refreshments were served.

MASONIC RITES HELD AT TERRACE

TERRACE—Impressive final rites for the late W. Riley of Terrace took place at the Knox United Church on Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. McAllister officiated at the first part of the funeral music. Hymns—"Faith of our Fathers" and "Rock of Ages" were sung after which the Kitselas Lodge A. F. and A. M. took charge with Worshipful master W. Oliver in charge and the hymn "Abide With Me" was sung. Interment took place at the Kalum Cemetery. Pall bearers were A. Attree, H. King, G. C. Sessions, J. Halland, J. McLeod, and D. Brunton. Principal mourners were Miss Dorothy Riley with Mrs. A. Kirkaldy, Mrs. N. Osterlund and Mrs. Mills.

The late Mr. Riley was born in Dunneville, Ont. 67 years ago and was reared on a farm. He graduated from the Ontario Pharmaceutical College. He operated a drug business in Victoria and in 1922 came to Terrace when he bought the drug store business of the late Dr. Bleeker. Two or three months ago ill health forced him to retire and he sold his business to R. B. Dodds of Prince Rupert. He was a Mason for many years and was worshipful Master at Terrace.

Besides his widow and daughter Dorothy of Oakland, California, deceased leaves two brothers and a sister in Dunneville, Ontario.

TEACHERS' PAY BEING IRONED OUT

TERRACE—Last Thursday evening the Terrace and District School Board met in Secretary Alger's office. All were present but School Inspector Levirs who was unable to attend. Routine business was disposed of, and after some discussion it was decided to make a monthly grant of $10 to any pupil within District No. 53 who must attend high school away from home but within the district.

With regard to the present salary difference, all difficulties are to be ironed out by the local Board members and a teacher's salary committee.

William Langmead, former I. W. A. union organizer at Terrace, spent the week-end here returning to his home at Burns Lake on Monday.
