"Him or Me" Eckels Police After Meehan Death

Indicating that William Harry Eckels was defending his own life when "beat up" Patrick Joseph Meehan was charged with the hotel room murder of Meehan on Monday afternoon at the Assize Court trial on July 25.

Accused Takes Witness Stand

William Harry Eckels took the witness stand in his own defence at noon today in his trial for the murder of Patrick Joseph Meehan, describing events which preceded Meehan's death on the floor of a room in the Central Hotel on July 25.

This afternoon's session will hear argument by counsel and the case probably will go to the jury late this afternoon.

Eckels told the court that after Meehan had struck him on the head with a beer bottle, he (Meehan) had said "I'll kill you," and repeated it several times as they grappled in the darkened room.

Accused declared that he "had no intention of killing Meehan, but just put him out of action so I could get out."

"What impressed me particularly about this post-war push northward is the quality of management in these frontier enterprises. Earnest level-headed people with great skill in their professions are developing the mine, the forest and the fisheries."

BOMB BLAST JAFFA GATE

General Alarm in Jerusalem—No Casualties in Two Incidents

JERUSALEM, ©—Explosion of a bomb outside an Arab shop near Jaffa Gate touched off an eight-minute general alarm today in Jerusalem, still jittery from the bombing of Haifa police station in which 10 persons died yesterday.

No casualties were reported from today's bombing which police were said to believe was intended to intimidate Arab shop-owners who have broken the Arab boycott against trading with Jews.

Simultaneously a report from Haifa stated that an engine tender and two coaches of the Egypt Express were derailed by a blast on the Cairo-Haifa line. There were no casualties in this incident either.

SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS BRING ELEVENTH-HOUR REPRIEVE IN LOGGING CAMP SLAYING CASE

OTTAWA (CP)—Davis Houston, 28-year-old Pacific Coast Indian, scheduled to hang tomorrow, will be granted a reprieve because of developments in the case, it was learned today. Walter Hodgson, counsel for Houston, has wired the Department of Justice a confession purportedly signed by the father of accused admitting responsibility for the slaying on November 3 last of Beatrice Smith at a Belize Inlet logging camp on the British Columbia coast.

Hodgson's last minute effort to save Houston from the gallows came Monday night as he produced the confession purportedly signed by the convicted man's father, Ernest Houston, admitting responsibility for the slaying. The Vancouver lawyer produced the 26-word document less than 33 hours before his client was scheduled to hang at Okalla Prison tomorrow morning.

It is not known here as yet whether a new trial will be granted as a result of the developments.

Young Houston faced trial four times and at the last trial was convicted by the jury.

GREAT BRITAIN'S ECONOMIC CZAR

LONDON—Sir Stafford Cripps last night was named minister of economic affairs in a new post created to centralize in one man broad powers for dealing with Great Britain's economic crisis.

Cripps will be succeeded as President of the Board of Trade by James Harold Wilson, 31, "boy wonder" of the Labor government.

Prime Minister C. R. Attlee himself will head a new ministerial committee on economic planning "in view of the gravity of the situation which forced Britain to suspend convertibility of sterling and curtail purchases of necessities abroad."

BASING LIQUOR DEFENCE UPON LOCKER RENTALS

Whether or not the operator of a parcel checking locker establishment is liable for liquor left by patrons in the lockers will be the basis for defence of Art Murray, charged with keeping liquor for sale following a police raid on his 99 Taxi headquarters Saturday night.

An information charging him under the Government Liquor Act was laid by the city police Monday following a raid in which 18 bottles of liquor and two cases of beer were seized.

Murray said last night that the liquor had been placed in the lockers by people renting them and that most of the bottles have been claimed at police headquarters by their owners.

He doesn't know whether the remaining bottles — which he said number "four or five" will be claimed but, nevertheless, they had been placed in lockers for safekeeping by persons unknown and that he felt no legal responsibility for them.

The police feel otherwise.

"It may be that some Indians rented lockers and placed the bottles in them for safekeeping," Murray said. "If that is the case they won't stick their necks out by coming back to claim them. They would be charged under the Indian Act."

"Those bottles were all in rented lockers, so I can't see how the owner of the lockers can be held responsible for what people put in them without his knowledge," Murray asserted.

His defence is being handled by T. W. Brown.

Prince Rupert Recognized

VANCOUVER, New Westminster and Prince Rupert were cited as British Columbia's principal ports by the vice-president of the Vancouver Board of Trade at an International Port Day luncheon of the transportation and customs bureau of the Vancouver Board last week.

The reference to Prince Rupert was typical of the recognition that is now being generally accorded this port and it was particularly interesting that it should be made in Vancouver by the vice-president of the Vancouver Board of Trade before such an important aggregation of shipping authorities.

AT LONG LAST

IT WAS a rather important announcement, and one of interest too, which was made yesterday to the effect that the four lots on Third Avenue, held for more than thirty-five years as a prospective Post Office site, had been finally released by the government and were being offered for public sale through the War Assets Corporation machinery.

The action of the government in declaring the lots surplus will make available a business property site unexcelled in the city and is particularly satisfactory from the standpoint of the city in that it will put the property on the tax roll.

That there will be considerable interest in the possibility of buying the property, now that it is possible to do so, goes, of course, without saying.

A DEFINITE ASSET

FIGURES, like actions, may sometimes speak louder than words and this might be said of Prince Rupert's Civic Centre. Is the Civic Centre an asset to the community? Some figures which have been compiled would suggest a very definite "yes" in answer.

During the past year 108,492 people attended 1974 events held in the Civic Centre, 34,977 enjoyed dances, concerts and other events in the auditorium, 44,462 were participants, or spectators at 1,032 gym classes, basketball practices or games, boxing and wrestling bouts, or badminton groups, in the splendidly equipped gymnasium, 29,953 took an active part in the meetings, forums, and other group activities held in the lounge rooms, meeting rooms, and the committee rooms.

Thousands of others used the many facilities of the Civic Centre, through the Public Library, the Lounges, the Canteen, and the Rest Rooms.

LOCAL PIONEER DIES IN SOUTH

Jack Jones, Formerly of Local Home, Passes Away In South

Sheriff M. M. Stephens has received word of the death of his old friend Jack Jones, who died in a New Westminster hospital last Thursday.

Jack Jones had been in the south for about three months. For some time prior to that he was residing at the Prince Rupert Pioneers' Home. A resident of Porcher Island for fifteen years, he was in his earlier days a prospector both in this area and around Alice Arm and other parts of the British Columbia north coast.

At one time during the operation of the Granby Mine at Anyox, Jack Jones worked for the company as shift boss.

BIG BUS RUNS OFF HIGHWAY

Object of considerable interest to motorists travelling the Kaien Island highway the last few days has been the sight of a large passenger bus stuck with two outside wheels off the road. The bus, which was brought here this summer and operated on sight-seeing tours and on the scheduled run between Port Edward and Prince Rupert, apparently slipped partly off the road near a gravel pit east of city dump last Sunday while carrying passengers to Port Edward. This morning Art Murray, proprietor of 99 Taxi, was on the scene of the accident endeavoring to get the big vehicle back onto the road.

MISSION BOAT RUNNING AGAIN

The Northern Cross, Anglican Church mission boat, was seen again this year making her way on the once familiar beat that included any spot where man has made his home in the northern areas of this British Columbia coast. During the period of war years the little craft lay idle when no hand could be spared to tend her helm and carry on the work of ministering to the people who inhabit the out-of-way places of the north coast.

Now Rev. C. L. Lomas who served with the Imperial forces during the recent world war and who has been made an honorary chaplain of the British Army, is in charge of the Northern Cross and he intends to follow as closely as possible the schedule of calls as once made by Canon Rushbrook, pioneer missionary who took command of the original Northern Cross in 1912 and carried on marine missionary work for many years.

Mr. Lomas has put in many weeks of hard work readying the mission boat for the tough trials of winter. The boat, which was built in 1931 at the local dry dock, was badly run down after her long idleness but now Mr. Lomas thinks he has attended to all her ailments. The engine was sent to Vancouver for a complete overhaul and, with funds provided by the Women's Mission Society of the Church, he has purchased, among other things, a handbook on diesel engines. The wiring has been checked and repaired, bilge pipes replaced and all other needed repairs attended to including an overall paint job.

Reuben Morgan, well versed in local knowledge of these waters is acting as pilot to the Northern Cross and he Mr. Lomas' co-worker.

The mission boat will leave this week for the north calling at Port Simpson, the Naas area, Alice Arm, Stewart, Green Island, Lucy Island, Lawyer Island and any other points where people may be living. Aside from this run Mr. Lomas expects to take in Skeena River points including Essington.

Bill 39 Assailed

Organized Labor Will Go Into Politics to Eliminate It

Sanction of Bill 39 by organized labor in British Columbia would place the workers in the position of being "a party to their own destruction," declared Ernest Dalskog, acting president of British Columbia's International Woodworkers of America, addressing a meeting of local workers at the Oddfellows' Hall last night.

"Workers," said the speaker, "will never be a party to a policy that will eventually lead them into a concentration camp."

Mr. Dalskog contended that Bill 39 was an attempt to shackle the organized labor movement and that it was no accident that this anti-labor legislation was brought into British Columbia. He stated that British Columbia has the strongest and most militant labor unions in Canada and this province was picked for that reason by big business as the starting point in the campaign to wreck the unions. With the British Columbia labor organizations smashed, the campaign would be bound to succeed in the rest of Canada.

In the opinion of the speaker, big business is out to wreck the labor movement of Canada even to the extent of using their economic influence to force the passage of anti-labor laws. He pointed to the press as another influencing factor and referred specifically to an editorial that appeared in the Daily News September 25, 1947. He said that the German press wrote in support of laws that robbed the workers of their freedom when Hitler's controlled labor front was being formed.

In dealing with Bill 39, Mr. Dalskog said one of the worst features about the bill from the standpoint of labor was the practically limitless time allowed for negotiations and reconciliations. According to him this period could be extended forever if the employer and the government so wished. He said that, even under the smoothest conditions, the shortest time between a request made by a union and settlement could not pos-

OVER THE FENCE

"I see by the papers," said the old timer as he leaned on the fence, "that one of the head lads in the C.C.F., Professor Underhill of Toronto, has been lecturing the socialists about their talk of controls. I'm not much interested in his scolding of the C.C.F., but I was struck by one thing he said.

"He said what the world needs chiefly at present is enterprise and imagination, initiative and vision. And he added: 'The defenders of capitalism are quite right in maintaining that these qualities were given full scope in the capitalism of the past and that this was the reason for the great material progress of recent generations.'

"Well, it seems to me that any system that gives full scope to enterprise and imagination, initiative and vision, isn't a bad system to go on with. I can see, now and then, ways of improving it, for it certainly isn't perfect yet. But doesn't it seem a mite foolish to talk about overturning a system that, as the professor says, gives full scope to all these qualities the world needs?"

"Maybe we could teach Utopia by overthrowing our present ways and putting Socialist bureaucrats or Communists in full authority. I doubt it—and I have yet to see any convincing demonstration that it works."

"Over the Fence" is presented in this newspaper each week under the sponsorship of the British Columbia Federation of Trade and Industry.

sibly be less than 96 or 97 days. In the matter of government supervised votes in the unions, the speaker likened this procedure to that carried out in Germany when Hitler was gaining control of labor movement in his climb to power. He said, when Hitler overran most of Europe and the underground forces were the only ones to fight back, we did not condemn them for breaking the laws set up by Hitler, we praised them for they were attacking something that threatened human rights."

If the concentrated efforts of the organized labor movement in British Columbia was not enough to force the repeal of Bill 39, stated the speaker, labor would be forced to enter the political field to elect men who would represent their case and who would strive for adjustments for pensioners, veterans and such.

Speaking of the gains made by labor during the war years, Mr. Dalskog said membership of unions had risen to 750,000 by the end of the war as compared with 350,000 prior to the start of the last great conflict. Mr. Dalskog declared that wages and prices were not tied

FAREWELLED BY CONGREGATION

Presentation Made by Presbyterians to Rev. and Mrs. A. F. MacSween

Rev. and Mrs. A. F. MacSween and family left on last night's train for Melfort, Sask., where Mr. MacSween has accepted a call. A large number of the congregation and friends gathered at the train to wish them God-speed.

Rev. MacSween preached his farewell sermon to his congregation Sunday evening and, after the service, there was a social hour in the Church Hall. Refreshments had been prepared by the Ladies Aid and J. A. Teng, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. and Mrs. MacSween with a picture of one of Prince Rupert's famous sunsets, expressing the regret of the congregation on their leaving. Mr. MacSween responded suitably, mentioning the pleasant times they had enjoyed here.

Rev. MacSween has occupied the pulpit of First Presbyterian Church for approximately six and one-half years. He was also active in the Junior Chamber of Commerce as well as many other activities.

IMPRESSED BY NEW PRIMATE

F. E. Anfield Reports to Anglicans on Saskatoon Meeting

Stressing the fact that what goes on in the highest councils of the church is a concern for every parish and every church member in his home, F. E. Anfield presented to an after-service gathering in St. Andrew's Cathedral Sunday night a vivid and inspiring picture of the meetings of representatives of the whole Anglican Church in Canada at Saskatoon early this month. The Saskatoon meetings were to have been purely of a routine nature but the death of Most Rev. Derwyn Trevor Owen last spring meant that the representatives had the responsibility of functioning as an electoral college to choose a new Primate.

The man elected to guide the Faith and work of Canada's two million Anglicans, Archbishop George Frederick Kingston, Mr. Anfield is convinced, is a man of deep humility and first and foremost a man of God. Comparatively youthful at 58 and perhaps not yet arrived at his full development as a leader and father in God, yet great things may be expected from him in this high office both from his past record and from the fact that he still has time and the capacity to grow. He asked for the prayers of all the people of the church, Mr. Anfield said. He was chosen by all the people of the church through their elected representatives. It remained for the people of the church everywhere in Canada to pray and to work, led by this man, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

A large part of the congregation and several Anglicans from out of town gathered in the hall for the fellowship hour. Refreshments were provided by the ladies of the Women's Auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Parker are spending a couple of weeks at Terrace in the residence of C. M. Adam, theatre operator there who is at present on a business trip to Vancouver.

Smiles and Chuckles

Let's Have Another "How tlyme ties" observed Mrs. Spinney at the end of the cocktail hour.

Sure Cure

A woman lay very ill. Having brought up a clever orphan girl, the sick woman called the orphan to her and said:

"I shall soon leave my little children motherless. They know you and love you and after I am gone I want you and my husband to marry."

The young woman, bursting into tears, said: "We were just talking about that."

The woman recovered. "It isn't the size of the dog in the fight, but the size of the fight in the dog, that counts!"—Howell.

The Real Thing

A touring actor has played the part of Lincoln so many times that he has assumed the habits of the great president, even going so far as to adopt characteristic garb.

Recently, dressed in the cape and tall hat of Lincoln's day, he nodded gravely to another repertory actor.

Waiting until the Lincoln-minded Thespian was out of earshot, the other murmured: "That fellow will never be satisfied until he is assassinated."

Countries are well cultivated, not as they are fertile, but as they are free.—Montesquieu.

LOCAL BUILDER MAY GET JOB AT BURNS LAKE

Construction of a new provincial government office building at Burns Lake, at an estimated cost of about $50,000 may be undertaken by R. C. Mutch, Prince Rupert contractor, who has just completed contracts at Smithers and Telkwa.

Mr. Mutch's bid for $47,000 was the only one received for the new structure but this figure may have to be revised to take care of increased material costs since the tender was presented. Negotiations on the adjustment are underway at present.

Final work on a large garage for W. J. "Wiggs" O'Neill is being completed by Mr. Mutch who has been working there since June. He also completed a school near Telkwa during the summer.

BRITAIN IS CONFIDENT

Austerity Not Much in Evidence to Casual Observer, Says Fred Read

General living conditions in the Old Country, as actually existing, and impressions gained through letters, broadcasts, commentaries and correspondence and the press as a whole by no means agree.

This sums up the conclusions of Fred Read of the Capitol Theatre staff, who returned late last week from a five months' visit to England. Much of the time was spent in London. A sister is living overseas.

"It was not my experience to notice anyone looking hungry," he remarked. Everyone appeared to have money and I can also say that, generally speaking, people were well dressed.

There are, of course, public questions such as the coal mining industry, modernization of the pits, the strike, food rationing and various other issues and problems for the government to cope with and which are inevitable as a consequence of war. Britain, however, is on the way back but, naturally, it will take time.

The public remain busy and full of confidence in the ability to restore the country to her old prosperity which, of course, is a large order indeed. Yet the people are in good spirits and manage to enjoy life just as far as circumstances will permit. Theatres are crowded and there are many fine new shows. Movies keep exceedingly popular and, whenever opportunity comes to get away from London on excursions, seaside trips or something like that, the most is made of the chance.

There are reminders of the war but not what one might expect. The marks of air raids are gradually becoming less obvious. There are numerous new and handsome cafes and a service that may be said to be the last word in courtesy and quiet efficiency. The average price of a meal is little more than a dollar, if that much. Entertainment, such as music, of course, costs a little more.

Speaking of liquor in the Old Land, he remarked that he failed to see anyone intoxicated while there.

The Labor government can remain in office until the end of next year anyway but, of course, changes could come before then. Winston Churchill, Leader of the Opposition, is just biding his time. He remains a commanding figure and there is no telling what situation might arise in which Britain's war leader could again be in the forefront.

Go True
A: "I think a sharp nose usually indicates curiosity."
B: "Yes, and a flattened one indicates too much."

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

At the conclusion of the present voyage, Union steamer Coquitlam, which was in port this morning southbound from Stewart to Vancouver, will be withdrawn from service for annual overhaul. Relieving the Coquitlam will be the Chilcotin which operated during the past summer as a special cruise ship. Capt. John Boden will transfer from the Coquitlam to the Chilcotin during the relief period. Later the Chilcotin will relieve the Camosun on the Ketchikan run.

TELLS OF LIFE IN FAR KENYA

A good sized congregation assembled in the Citadel last evening to meet Brigadier Annie Fairhurst, the Territorial secretary for the Salvation Army Women's Organization known as the Home League. She had arrived that afternoon from Vancouver, following a journey across Canada. There meetings in Manitoba, in Regina, Medicine Hat, Lethbridge and other prairie communities, all of them being most helpful and encouraging.

Last night's gathering was presided over by Mrs. Gillingham.

Brigadier Fairhurst, in the course of her interesting career, spent some time in Kenya, East Africa, and described to the meeting life in that far away land, paying particular attention to home management and the responsibilities and duties of the native women and their families. Everything might be said to be on the primitive side. The comforts and conveniences taken as a matter of course in Canada were practically unknown. About everything given attention in home affairs was performed the hard way, mainly because no better method was known.

A feature of the program was the presentation of "Mothers of the Bible," among those taking part being Mrs. Scherk, Mrs. Timmins, Mrs. Levitt, Mrs. Waksdale, Mrs. Geo. Tenner, Miss Mary Calder, Miss Carlson and Mrs. Norden.

This dramatic sketch, shown in costume and telling again the Biblical stories which have come down through the ages and with which all are so familiar, was given with fine effect and received hearty applause.

Instrumental numbers were rendered by Sergeant - Major Waksdale, there was a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Senerk and solo by Mrs. Chambers. Miss Clara Pierce was pianist. The meeting door of room 72 when the proprietor entered.

Initial witness of the afternoon session was Mary McKinnon, an 18-year-old native girl, who had been one of two Indian women with Eckels and Meehan in the hotel room.

She identified Eckels as the "Bill" she had been with in room 72 in the early morning of July 25. She said that she had "got to the door and got out" after Eckels had turned his attention from her to Jessie Clayton, who had been with Meehan since the four entered the room.

Corporal A. H. Taylor and Detective-Corporal A. T. Lashmar identified a written statement, admitted as evidence, but not read at Monday's session, as one which Eckels had made in their presence a day or so after his arrest. The statement had been completely voluntary, they both testified.

Photographs of scenes in the death room and others taken at the morgue, were identified by A. Van Meer as those taken by him in the early morning of July 25 while he was a constable attached to the city force.

concluded about 10 o'clock. Brigadier Fairhurst will be in the city for the next few days.

POLICE STAGE LIQUOR RAIDS

In a series of raids Saturday night, the city police entered four alleged bootlegging establishments and one suspected gambling house, garnering evidence which up to Monday morning had resulted in liquor charges being laid against two persons. Other charges may follow.

Following the entry by police into a house at 528 Seventh Ave. West, Mary Robinson appeared in city police court yesterday morning on a charge of being in possession of liquor, under the Indian Act.

Alonzo Cook, same address, appeared on a charge of supplying liquor to Indians and was remanded to October 6.

Charges in the other raids had not been laid yesterday morning police said, but it was likely they would be.

Sixteen persons also appeared in police court on charges of intoxication following one of the busiest week-ends in recent police history.

JUDGE DISSOLVES TWO MARRIAGES

Two divorces were granted by Mr. Justice J. O. Wilson in Assize Court Monday afternoon. He dissolved the marriage of Thomas Andrew Shaw, petitioner, and Fredella Shaw. Charles Robinson was co-respondent.

The second divorce was that of Arthur Lloyd McKinley, petitioner, from Maxine McKinley. Robert Henry McFarlane was named co-respondent. The law firm of Brown and Harvey acted for petitioners in both cases.
