Railway Chief Admits Growing Importance of Port; Railway Here Is To Be Improved

Definite information is available to the Canadian National Railways in regard to enlarged activities through the Port of Prince Rupert," said W. R. ... vice-president Canadian National Railways, in an interview yesterday. He was referring to the possibility of early use of local port ... including ocean dock installations as the United States warehouse. ... National Railways are very much interested in the development and improvement of the port. ... have noted with interest and pleasure the increase in activities in Central British Columbia. These increases, however, have not yet reached a point where there is justification for extending the passenger train service at the present time. We are all looking forward very much to the inaugural trip of the new modern steamship under construction for Vancouver, Prince Rupert and Alaska service and, bearing that in mind, plans are being studied for correlating improved train service with the inauguration of the tourist season next year when this fine ship is expected to be in service. "The establishment of the Celanese Corporation Plant at Port Edward, with Prince Rupert as headquarters, is a major advantage for this territory, which will mean much to the City of Prince Rupert and to the Railways for many years to come." In Western Canada trade conditions continue on a satisfactory level as indicated by railway car loadings and volume of freight moving, said Mr. Devenish. There does not appear to be anything indicating a boom but rather a steady volume of sound business. During the last few months the balance of the 1946-1947 crop had been moving to ocean ports quite rapidly and, insofar as the Canadian National Railways are concerned, it is expected that the available balance of this crop will be moved completely by July 31. All of these grains are, of course, being moved under the direction of the Wheat Board and the railways supply the transportation in accordance with billing instructions from the Board. Insofar as the crop prospects for the 1947-1948 crop are concerned, it is a little early to speak, the railway executive said. Certain factors were fairly definite though. One is that the crop will be late as the seeding on the prairies, due to a backward spring, was from two to three weeks behind normal dates. There was an ample supply of moisture in most of the prairie territory and, in fact, too much for comfort in some sections. What would appear to be desired now would be a good period of warm weather to hasten the growth. The next month or so, of course, would determine what the final outcome would be.

JUNE BUILDING TOTAL $55,000

Two Major Projects Are Included In List
Building permits issued at the City Engineer's office in June reached the highest peak since July, 1946, buoyed by a wave of construction that included two major industrial projects and several homes. Total for the month was $55,510, as compared with $9,325 in May. Largest permit taken out during the month was $26,000 for construction of a new repair garage by Lindsay Motors at the corner of Second Avenue and First Street. A substantial boost was given with issuance of a $14,500 permit to H. S. Cobb for construction of the new Rupert Freezing Co. premises on Second Avenue. Total value of building permits issued for the first six months of this year is $115,627, as compared with $99,417 for the first six months of 1946. Here is the list for June: Mitchell and Currie, $150. Percy Berg, $250, Second Avenue, repairs. P. E. Haan, $350, $900, Fourth Ave. East, repairs. H. Thorkelson, $150, Ninth Ave. West, addition. B. Hill, $400, Eighth Ave. West, addition. A. Holbrook, $2,500, Alfred St., construction. B. Johnson, $85, Eighth Ave. East, repairs. Smiles Cafe, $200, Cow Bay, repairs. H. S. Cobb, $14,500, Second Ave., construction. J. E. Adelman, $2,000, Alfred Street, construction. Lindsay Motors, $26,000, Second Ave., construction. Harold Grindstad, $200, Fifth Ave. East, addition. Hans Hanson, $250, Fifth Ave. East, repairs. Mrs. H. Perkins, $50, Hays Cove Circle, septic tank. A. Fossheim, $360, Second Ave. West, repairs. Strike In Coast Lumber Industry Averted; Agreement Is Worked Out

MANITOBA TORNADO

Windygates Lives Up to Name—One Man Killed
WINNIPEG, (C)—A tornado, apparently originating near the border town of Windygates, Manitoba, killed a man there, before sweeping south into North Dakota where it claimed nine more lives and sent 14 to hospitals. M. Mikolaski, a Windygates farmer, was killed when crushed in his dwelling. His house, barn and granary were demolished.

KETCHIKAN CELEBRATES

Fireworks One of Features of Day at First City
KETCHIKAN—Today's celebration in Ketchikan will include fireworks, staged from Pennock Island opposite. Nine inch bombs will announce the opening of the display, which will build up to the final spectacular show, and blaze of color, made possible by display sets, batteries of rockets, parachute shells, butterfly wheels and color bombs.

DEEP SEA CARGO SHIP COMING TO LOAD TUGBOATS FOR INDO-CHINA

Hawaiian-American Ship Due Here Tomorrow From San Francisco
First deep sea ship to enter the port of Prince Rupert to load cargo in 19 months is due to arrive in port tomorrow from San Francisco. She is the Hawaiian, of the Hawaiian-American Line, which will load two tugs for shipment to Indo China. The two tugs arrived in the city this morning over Canadian National Railways lines from Owen Sound, Ontario, where they were built. They are being sent to Indo China by the French Purchasing Commission which had them built for use on the Asiatic coast.

BRANDON IS UNBELIEVABLE

Thunderstorm Last Night—Meat Running Short
BRANDON, Man. (C)—Thunderstorms overnight dampened any hopes Brandon residents had of immediate relief from the floods which continue to inundate the large low-lying section of the city. Three hundred more people have been forced to flee from home. Brandon residents are facing a meat shortage now as a result of the rampaging waters. The city's principal source of meat, the Brandon Packers Ltd. plant, is threatened with complete shutdown as roads leading to the building are blocked. There is only enough meat on hand to last until Monday.

Local Unions Being Asked For Approval

Another Meeting Being Held Today On Minor Details
VANCOUVER (CP)—Threat of a possible strike in the coast lumber industry faded Thursday with the announcement that the International Woodworkers of America and operators' representatives had signed an interim agreement to be submitted to union locals for ratification. Loggers receive 12½% wage increase and forty-hour week with time-and-a-half over forty hours. Another meeting is being held today to work out details.

BULLETINS

INDIA FREEDOM BILL
LONDON—A Bill giving freedom to the people of India was introduced in the House of Commons today. Premier Attlee presented the Bill, which was given its first formal reading. It provides for the setting up of two independent Indian states of Hindustan and Parkistan, which temporarily will be members of the British Commonwealth. Speedy approval of both Houses is assured.

BIG FIRE IN PEORIA
PEORIA, Ill.—Fire, followed by explosions, caused an estimated $500,000 total damage to eight business houses along the Illinois River front last evening.

MISSISSIPPI FLOOD
GRAND TOWERS, Ill.—Flood waters are coursing through the breach in the five-foot sandbag barrier. The flood covers the greater part of this Mississippi River town. The population is 1,000. Women, as well as children labored to put up barriers, but what they accomplished gave way last night. Residents reached higher ground safely. The business area is covered with between two and three feet of water.

ELECTION BILL
OTTAWA—The final report of the House of Commons election committee was tabled with a draft of the bill Thursday. It contains a lengthy list of proposed changes in the Election Act. The committee rejected the suggestions that the voting age be reduced from 21 to 18 years, and that Japanese in British Columbia be given the right to vote. The Redistribution Act will increase representation from 245 to 255 members.

Says Present Alaska Highway No Good-- Urges Coast Route

SEATTLE (CP)—The present highway to Alaska is, in the opinion of Brigadier-General James G. Steese, a former president of the Alaska Road Commission, "no damned good." The retired General said it was plain nonsense not to have a coastal highway into Seattle.

TRANSCRIPTIONS ARE GOING NORTH

OTTAWA—The United States War Department will continue to ship armed forces radio transcription units northwest for rebroadcast over station CFWH at Whitehorse, Ottawa authorities disclosed today. Recent reports had suggested that this service would be discontinued. In addition to Canadians living in

Truman Talks Out Plainly

Surely Need For Co-operative Economic Planning For Europe Can Be Seen
CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va. (C)—President Truman today described as "folly" refusal of any European country to take part in the co-operative plan for the continent's economic recovery. With mentioning the Soviet union by name, he struck out at "organized mistrust" which, he said, leads the world's people "away from peace and unity." He called for an end to propaganda attacks upon other nations. The President continued: "Surely, after two world wars, the nations should have learned the folly of nationalism and the desirability of block co-operative economic planings among the nations for peaceful reconstruction."

FUNERAL OF N. MacDONALD

Funeral service for the late Neil MacDonal, who died last week, was held Thursday afternoon at First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Fred Antrobus of First Baptist Church officiating. Honorary pallbearers were old friends who had known the deceased since his arrival in Prince Rupert in 1908. The congregation sang the hymns "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me." Miss Gwen McRae was organist. Interment took place at Fairview Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were William McLeod, Kenneth Campbell, Murdo MacKenzie, Dan McLeod, and David MacKenzie. Active pallbearers were Masons from Tsimpsan Lodge—M. M. Stephens, S. E. Parker, Arthur Brooksbank, James H. Thompson, S. V. Cox and J. R. Morin.

Customs Receipts For June $22,000

Customs receipts at the port of Prince Rupert during June were $22,422.18, bringing the total for the first six months of 1947 to $148,785.69. Receipts in June 1946 were $29,176, and the six-month total for last year was $129,157.

LOCAL EMPLOYMENT PICTURE IS ROSIER THAN SINCE WAR'S END

The employment picture in Prince Rupert is rosier today than at any time since the end of the war and it faces the prospect of increased activity in the late summer and fall, according to National Employment officer E. V. Whiting, who says that employers are short of men "in all lines." At the same time, the situation in the whole of the Pacific region has shown a rapid improvement so that the labor surplus in British Columbia is 60 per cent lower than it was at the same time last year. "The employment rate in Prince Rupert is high at the present time," Mr. Whiting said. "We are short of men in all lines—logging, skilled miners, construction workers, waitresses and practically every type of work except office help." The demand for office workers has been relieved largely by the current class of High School graduates who have taken positions since the close of the school term, Mr. Whiting says. One attractive position that Mr. Whiting has been unable to fill so far is that of an accountant with executive background to manage a large business. So far, no properly qualified man has made application to fill it. Telephone and electric wires were torn out. Scores of farms were levelled. Many head of livestock were killed and dozens of towns and villages were hit by the twister. Hardly a tree remained upright along the windy trail. The heaviest death toll was at Auburn, N.D., where six are dead. They perished when the wind made their farm home collapse. Two victims were babies. Only a church and town hall remained standing at Warsaw, N.D. Frank Rogalla was killed and his wife reported missing.

Construction work on the Celanese Corporation's pulp mill at Watson Island, which the company has announced will start this summer, will maintain the employment level throughout the coming winter, Mr. Whiting feels.

In the Pacific region, the upswing in employment has reached a point where jobs are available for all who can meet requirements with respect to ability and location. There is every indication of increasing labor shortages in all primary industries. In the Prince Rupert area, the fishing industry which is approaching peak-operation, has absorbed scores of workers whose employment will probably continue into the fall. Construction contractors report difficulty in getting carpenters and other necessary workers.

Better Family Life

THE GROWTH of the divorce rate in Canada would indicate that the family, the foundation upon which the political structure of democratic government is built, is disintegrating.

It will make little difference what economic methods are employed if the social structure of a nation is unsound. No government has ever found the means of maintaining higher standards than its citizens maintain in their homes and occupations.

Sufficient law cannot be written to compel bad people to be good citizens. The character which is required to make good homes and to raise good families is based upon a sound faith in the principles which underlie good living. Without faith in good principles, and without good faith in living up to them, there can be no moral basis for human relationship.

There is no way of curing the divorce evil except through the improvement of people who marry and who undertake the sacred obligations of family life. Divorces granted or frivolous and trivial reasons reveal that some parties to the divorces are trivial and frivolous people. Many of them are undoubtedly perjurers.

Several years ago, Bishop Page of the Episcopal Church of the United States made a comprehensive study of divorce for his church. He found at that time, that only one out of every hundred divorces in the United States occurred between husbands and wives who were active in the same church, and only two out of a hundred divorces occurred where both husband and wife were members of a church. Statesmen and scholars generally agree that only a great finding of faith will avert the collapse of the family, the foundation of our society. (The Scene).

JOB SHOULD BE FUN

IF YOUR JOB IS WORK, not fun, you will probably be wise to get out of it," counsels William

J. Reilly, career consultant, in American Magazine. "Work is something you don't enjoy doing. Your life is too short and too valuable to fritter away on a job that bores you, forces you to be with people you don't like, or calls for a knack you haven't got."

Dr. Reilly's article holds that a majority of people are dissatisfied with their jobs. Accountants want to be teachers; salesmen want to be cabinet makers; men who are dealing with things want to be dealing with people, and vice versa. Health and happiness for such misplaced persons depends on a change of career. The usual excuses: "I don't have the money"—"I don't have the time"—"My family won't let me"—should never be allowed to prevent a shift of jobs.

Conceding that it is often difficult to make an abrupt change of work, the author urges "testing your desire by studying and experimenting in another field during spare hours. If the new field looks promising, draw up a plan whereby you can shift from one career to the other over a period of time." Sticking to the plan is important—"when you start making excuses for postponing action, you are doomed to stay where you are."

Reilly gives three factors as paramount in estimating your chances of success in any job: your ability to do the job, your capacity for getting along well with your associates on it, and your actual desire to do it. The last is held "overwhelmingly the most important."

While industry "almost universally ignores the desire factor in hiring men," those corporations which have studied individual desires and placed employees in congenial work have found job turnover much reduced.

LETTERBOX

MAIL SERVICE

Editor, Daily News
 Your paper recently contained an interesting piece of news under the heading "Local News Items," concerning a letter which reached Prince Rupert from Scotland, bearing only a postal box number and the name of the city. The fact that the name of the person for whom the letter was intended was omitted did not cause surprise but the fact that the letter arrived "without slip or delay" did interest me.

I write a weekly letter to my mother in your city, address the envelope completely and correctly and mail the letter in ample time to insure its being placed on the Canadian National steamship leaving here regularly on Tuesday evening. The letter should reach my mother on Wednesday. But it doesn't!

Apparently a four-cent stamp entitles a letter to a much longer journey or several days' lodging in one or more post offices before being placed in the postal box to which it is directed. This is by no means an extraordinary happening. In fact, it appears to be almost a habit. Aside from the fact that my letter may contain an important message for which my mother is anxiously waiting, it is very inconvenient and annoying.

The person who received the letter from Scotland should consider it one of the wonders of the day that the letter came direct and without delay.

Thank you, Mr. Editor, for the space in your paper.

COL. CY PECK TO VISIT CITY SOON

Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., beloved old soldier of World War I, who took the first contingent out of Prince Rupert in the fall of 1914 and a few of whose boys are still around here, is expected to visit Prince Rupert this summer. With Col. S. D. Johnston, he is expected to make a trip into the interior by motor. Many old friends will look forward to seeing Col. "Cy" again.

JUDGES HONORED BY ROTARY CLUB

Fulton and Fisher Honored Guests at Luncheon Yesterday

The incoming and retiring judges of Prince Rupert's County Court were honored Thursday afternoon at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club when tribute was paid to Judge W. O. Fulton on his recent appointment to the bench and Judge W. E. Fisher was congratulated on his retirement at the age of 77.

Tribute to Judge Fisher was paid by Bishop J. B. Gibson who lauded the "sterling character and wisdom which he has displayed in his years on the bench." Bishop Gibson was introduced by program chairman E. T. Applewhite who acted as master of ceremonies.

Col. S. D. Johnston, in a brief speech on his fellow Rotarian, Judge Fulton, said that his most outstanding characteristic was his ability to create warm friendships.

Judge Fisher expressed his high feelings of respect to the members of the bar in Prince Rupert, all of whom were present at the meeting. Their high sense of values and accurate references to the law, he said, had inspired him to a high degree of respect.

Judge Fulton declared that he would endeavour to sustain the tradition inherent in Canadian judgeship with fidelity similar to that shown by Judge Fisher in his years on the bench. Guests at the meeting, welcomed by club president Lee London, were T. W. Brown, Mrs. Willa Ray, J. T. Harvey, Dr. R. G. Large, Charles Howe, Capt. Henry Slayton and son Dick, of Tampa, Florida, P. E. Robertson, of Prince George.

Alaskans Using Skeena Highway

More Alaskans are disembarking at Prince Rupert to motor east. For example, when the Princess Louise was here last, three Juneau residents with a new automobile aboard, commenced a journey by land, that will take them to the chief cities of the west. The three were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams and Norman Banfield, the latter a barrister. They will first visit Jasper, Banff and Lake Louise, and from there proceed to Spokane. Later they will attend an Elks' convention in Portland, and, subsequently, be in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Salt Lake, before returning homeward by way of the Skeena Highway and Prince Rupert.

Thomas Christoff is leaving tonight for Smithers where he will spend the next two months on a holiday. Mrs. Christoff and family are already at Lake Katlyn.

RECALLED TO SURVEY

Of the 3,056 persons x-rayed in the Prince Rupert area by the health tuberculosis van early in June, 90 have been requested to return and be x-rayed again, according to the monthly report of the Prince Rupert Health Unit released today by Dr. R. M. Lane, medical director.

The greater proportion of those called to return will not have tuberculosis but have been called back because the films were fogged, double exposures and other technical difficulties. A complete report on the results of the x-ray is expected to be ready by the end of July.

After leaving Prince Rupert, Dr. Lane x-rayed 1,300 people in Terrace-Hazelton district.

Dr. Lane expressed appreciation of the work of the Kinsmen Club, Women's Co-ordinating Council and others who canvassed, kept records and performed other volunteer work which made the survey possible.

For several months a few cases of a mild fever, with a measles-like rash have been noted among children up to three years, Dr. Lane's report stated. None, however, have been seriously ill and no complications have been noted.

Robert Parker left by Canadian Pacific Airlines plane this afternoon on a business trip to Vancouver.

Outbound passengers on today's C.P.A. flight were George Martin, Cpl. L. N. Brett, L. Stanley, G. Turnbull and Robert Parker for Vancouver and William Glass for Sandspit. Arriving here Thursday afternoon were A. R. Barber, E. S. Richardson and W. A. Millsap from Sandspit.

SCHOOL BOARD SEEKS TEACHERS

Of 17 teaching positions in the Prince Rupert school district from which teachers have resigned or face the possibility of resignation due to the lapsing of their temporary certificates, eight have already been filled for the coming term, according to information presented at Wednesday night's School Board meeting.

Largest casualty list was at Booth Memorial High School where 13 teachers have already resigned or whose certificates may lapse. However, at Booth, already six new appointments have been made.

In the elementary schools, one of two resignations from Borden Street has been filled by the transfer of Miss Gladys Foster from Digby Island, causing that school to be without a teacher. At King Edward, where two teachers resigned, one position has already been filled by the appointment of Miss Patricia McRae of New Westminster. So far there have been no other resignations.

An atmosphere of uncertainty hangs over Booth High School where several teachers, who earned their certificates in other provinces, are teaching on temporary British Columbia certificates. These certificates will be renewed if there are not enough teachers with permanent British Columbia certificates to fill the number of jobs available. Until it is known how many permanent B.C. teachers seek jobs, it cannot be decided how many temporary certificates will be renewed.

New appointments at Booth to date are those of Alan M. Hurst, to the principalship; Peter W. Sbrocchi, of Vancouver, French teacher; Miss Edna McHollam, Vancouver, junior high; Miss Muriel Townsend, of Hartney, Manitoba, home economics, and P. Adlem and J. Densmore, Vancouver, industrial arts.

Enrolment at the city's four public schools during June was 1,056 students with 57 attendign the four schools in the district. Attendance percentages were higher than in other months owing probably, to the fact that final examinations were written during June.

At Booth School, enrolment was 437, with attendance of 93 percent. Principal "W. W. C. O'Neill reported.

King Edward's enrolment was 245 with attendance of 94 per cent, according to Principal R. G. Moore.

Conrad Street's enrolment was 185 and attendance 94 per cent. Principal T. G. Bateman's report stated.

At Borden, according to Principal J. S. Wilson, enrolment was 190 and attendance 96 per cent.

Enrolment at Digby Island was 18, Port Simpson 11, Port Essington 14, and Port Edward 14, reports from teachers of those schools showed.

Capt. Henry Dolron arrived in the city by plane this week from Vancouver.

CAPT. A. HANSEN OFF TO DULUTH

Capt. Andrew Hansen, pioneer Prince Rupert fisherman, who has spent the last six months in hospital suffering from a stroke, will leave on tonight's train for Duluth, Minnesota to receive further medical treatment. The well known fishing captain, who formerly operated the boat Alken, will be accompanied by his brother, Charles Hansen, who came out from Duluth some time ago. While travelling, he will be under the care of a medical attendant. Capt. Hansen is one of the best known skippers in the district, having resided here for the last 30 years.

Donald Bain, who has been acting as flight agent for the Canadian Pacific Airlines on the run between here and Sandspit, left yesterday afternoon for Vancouver to which city he has been transferred. William McKinnon, from Vancouver, has arrived to take over the duties of flight agent on the local run.

COMMISSION IN SESSION

Arrangements Completed for Regular Schedule of Fastball

At a regular meeting of the Prince Rupert City Fastball Commission, arrangements were completed for the carrying out of the rest of the season's schedule. In order to complete the schedule in the Men's League and give time for play-off games it was decided to make the Wednesday evening games a "double bill." Two games will be played each evening with each game consisting of seven innings. The Monday and Friday evening games will be single nine-inning games.

Discussion took place regarding the two weak teams, the Navy in the Men's League and the Khatadas in the Ladies' League. However, both these teams realize that they must strengthen their line-ups and, on that understanding, they will continue to play.

BALL GAME WASHED OUT

Rain Again Hits Fourth of July Series

The weatherman was the winner of the baseball game scheduled to be played between Ketchikan and Prince Rupert at Ketchikan on Thursday when he sent down rain which washed out the game. The two teams planned to play a double-header today—this afternoon and this evening—weather permitting, as part of the Independence Day celebrations in the Alaskan city. The boxing card, which was originally scheduled for last night, will be fought tonight. Three Prince Rupert fighters, Len Hitchens, Bobby Anderson and Jordan Smith, who trained under Joe Ward at the army, are lined up on the card. Hitchens may fight a man from an American destroyer which is in Ketchikan at present.

Believed Extinct, Odd Fish Found

GRAHAMSTOWN—South African scientists are organizing a hunt to catch a "modern dodd," a fish believed extinct for the past fifty million years.

First clue that this fish, a coelacanth, still survived came when a trawler brought up a mysterious object five feet long, steel blue in color and weighing 127 pounds. It died in three hours. A fisherman with 30 years experience said he had never seen such "a queer looking object—it had arms."

WEDDING VETERAN MARRIED IN SOUTH

FRANCE—A wedding of much interest was solemnized Tuesday last in St. Paul's Roman Church, Vancouver, by Henry Eugene Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Ross Thompson of Horsehoe Ranch, who was united in marriage to a young woman, Winifred Conlon, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Conlon of Lloydminster. The bride wore a suit of turquoise blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Attending the young couple as best man and groomsmen were the bride's cousin and the groom's brother-in-law, the former attired in a smart brown wool suit with a white shirt and tie and the latter wearing a corsage of yellow flowers. Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. G. Gower. Following the marriage a wedding breakfast was held in a private restaurant and later the happy couple left for a honeymoon in Victoria. On their return they will reside in Vancouver. The groom, Henry Thompson, who was in the Canadian Air Force during the war, is taking a course in the machine trade while his bride is a nurse at St. Paul's Hospital.

Married at Burns Lake

FRANCOIS LAKE—A wedding of widespread interest in central British Columbia was held at St. John's Anglican Church of Burns Lake last Friday afternoon when Grace Virginia Keefe of Francois Lake became the bride of John Andros O'Meara of Vanderhoof. Bride and groom are both descendants of real pioneer families and both are Second World War veterans, the bride having served with the Royal Canadian Air Force and the groom with the Royal Canadian Navy. The bride is remembered in Prince Rupert as the beautiful Miss Tweedsmuir Park at the Carnival Queen contest. Rev. A. W. Atkinson officiated. The pretty little chapel was crowded to the doors and the attendance overflowed the beautifully decorated church. The altar and chancel were a mass of wild flowers, lilies and choice house plants, artistically arranged by Mrs. Walter Wilson of Burns Lake who also presided at the organ. During the signing of the register, Phillip Kelly of Southbank rendered "O Perfect Love" in a melodious baritone. Many relatives and friends of the popular couple attended from Vanderhoof and points east. The bride was charmingly gowned in a flowing dress of white nylon velour and wore a Mary Queen of Scots headdress with a floor-length veil, caught with sprigs of myrtle for good luck. Her long train was carried by pretty little Sylvia Parting-

TERRACE CORNER TO BE OFFERED

Execution of Phiscator Estate Makes Valuable Property Available
TERRACE — Possibility of a change of the appearance of the centre of Terrace presents itself with instructions from the executor of the Frank Phiscator estate that all local properties be offered for sale. The most important piece of land is the southeast corner of Lakelse and Kalum—the spot where the trees are and where seats accommodate those who wish to view the passing scene. This has been sought after by several business concerns who wished to make use of one of the four corners of the town hub. It is announced that this and the other properties will be offered for sealed tenders and it may be that the result will be another advance in the business set-up of the town.
The bride's gift from the groom was a beautifully combined locket and pin. The bridesmaids each received a string of pearls from the bride. The bride presented her train bearer with a pretty set of matched pearls, necklet and bracelet.
The groomsmen were Clifford Andros, cousin of the groom, and the ushers were John Keefe Jr. and his brother Ralph.
The bride's mother, Mrs. John H. Keefe, was tastefully attired in a tailor-made suit of camel-brown herring-bone wool, with white and brown accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.
The mother of the groom, Mrs. O. V. O'Meara of Vanderhoof, chose a pale blue wool crepe dress with corsage of pink and white carnations.
The bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Henkle, attended both the church ceremony and the reception at the home of the bride where moving pictures were taken.
For the bride's going away outfit she chose a youthful poplin suit with grey tanger coat and white accessories. The happy young couple will spend a short honeymoon at Prince Rupert renewing acquaintance with a host of friends before returning to Houston where the groom will resume his duties with the Canadian National Railways.
The gathering both at the Keefe ranch and at the dance which followed was composed entirely of old friends of the young couple who wished them both a long life of health, happiness and success.
During the reception at the Keefe home at Francois Lake Rev. A. W. Atkinson proposed the toast to the bride, which was vociferously applauded by all the

TERRACE CORNER TO BE OFFERED

Execution of Phiscator Estate Makes Valuable Property Available
TERRACE — Possibility of a change of the appearance of the centre of Terrace presents itself with instructions from the executor of the Frank Phiscator estate that all local properties be offered for sale. The most important piece of land is the southeast corner of Lakelse and Kalum—the spot where the trees are and where seats accommodate those who wish to view the passing scene. This has been sought after by several business concerns who wished to make use of one of the four corners of the town hub. It is announced that this and the other properties will be offered for sealed tenders and it may be that the result will be another advance in the business set-up of the town.
The bride's gift from the groom was a beautifully combined locket and pin. The bridesmaids each received a string of pearls from the bride. The bride presented her train bearer with a pretty set of matched pearls, necklet and bracelet.
The groomsmen were Clifford Andros, cousin of the groom, and the ushers were John Keefe Jr. and his brother Ralph.
The bride's mother, Mrs. John H. Keefe, was tastefully attired in a tailor-made suit of camel-brown herring-bone wool, with white and brown accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.
The mother of the groom, Mrs. O. V. O'Meara of Vanderhoof, chose a pale blue wool crepe dress with corsage of pink and white carnations.
The bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Henkle, attended both the church ceremony and the reception at the home of the bride where moving pictures were taken.
For the bride's going away outfit she chose a youthful poplin suit with grey tanger coat and white accessories. The happy young couple will spend a short honeymoon at Prince Rupert renewing acquaintance with a host of friends before returning to Houston where the groom will resume his duties with the Canadian National Railways.

Douglas Transport Flies To Sandspit

Twenty-eight passenger Douglas Transport was operated for the first time this week on the Vancouver-Sandspit section of the Prince Rupert-Vancouver scheduled air service. However, it is not yet permanent and the 14-passenger Lockheed Lodestar is on again. Days when the Douglas is on makes it possible to handle more passengers from here by the air service.
The dance which followed the reception was held at the Francois Lake Farmer's Institute Hall, the Serenader's Orchestra of Burns Lake furnishing the music. R. E. Lord, Secretary of the Farmer's Institute, was master of ceremonies and started the dance off with the Wedding March, led by the bridal couple.
Towards the end of the supper walk the bride threw her bouquet among a group of waiting and ambitious girls. It was caught by Agnes Noble.

ARRANGING CONVENTION

Plans For Big Event to Be Held Here a Month Hence Are Now Under Way
With the important event now little more than a month off, arrangements for the annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Central British Columbia, to be held here commencing August 6, were shown to be well in hand yesterday afternoon when the general committee on convention arrangements, W. J. Scott, chairman, was in session. It is already evident that the number of delegates and dignitaries coming to the city for the gathering will be the largest on record. They will come from all parts of central British Columbia and there will also be a strong delegation from Alaska.
Co-incidental with the convention will be a display of the British Columbia Products Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade. L. M. Felsenthal has accepted the chairmanship of the committee making local arrangements for that event.
PIPES AND DRUMS ALL OUT TODAY
HAMILTON—Upwards of 400 pipers and drummers played together in the largest massed band ever attempted when the Hamilton Scottish games opened here today. Eighteen pipe bands, a brass and bugle band will round out what is expected to be the greatest Scottish gathering on the continent. Over 25,000 are expected to take in the event.

WAR-ADAPTED HORSE STORY
Action of the fighting Seabees, combined with the stirring drama of a youth's devotion to his pet horse, offers unusual entertainment at the Capitol Theatre this Friday and Saturday in "Gallant Bess," filmed in natural color. The story opens with Marshall Thompson, young orphaned rancher, and his neighbor, Charles Trowbridge, awaiting the arrival of a foal from "Bess," the former's beloved mare.

Shortly after, at the general store owned by Cem Bevans, Thompson is given a patriotic speech by a fast-talking Navy recruiting officer. Chill Wills, and signs up for the Seabees. Just before his outfit ships out for the Pacific, "Bess" catches pneumonia and dies. Thompson is inconsolable until he saves the life of another horse on a Pacific atoll and makes another "Bess" of his new equine pal.

In a skirmish with Japs, Thompson is severely wounded and is about to be hospitalized home without his beloved horse. At the last minute, however, when the faithful animal swims after him, Thompson's commanding officer relents and orders the horse to be helped aboard the craft. Back home, the new "Bess" has a foal and Thompson's dream of owning a horse ranch is on its way toward reality.
