

LION CUBS BORN AT ZOO—Without one smile among them, the four survivors of quintuplet lion cubs born at the Baltimore, Md., zoo pose for their first photograph. The fifth cub failed to live more than a week. Proud parents of the four sleepy cubs are Kansas City Kitty and Soux City Sue, otherwise known as Jim and Sis. Two of the kittens are males and two are females, weighing between three and four pounds apiece.

FAMOUS TOTEM COLLECTION IN MUSEUM AGAIN

After an absence of several years, the famous Cunningham collection featuring beautifully carved slate totem poles—no less than fifty-five in all—and other items of native handicraft has been restored to the Prince Rupert Museum, thereby greatly enhancing its attractiveness. Valued at $5000 it was again put in the museum on loan yesterday. It had been stored in the vault of S. D. Johnston Co. Ltd.

PIONEERS ARE APPRECIATIVE

The men at 'the Pioneers' Home have asked the Daily News to express their gratitude to all the kind people of Prince Rupert who never seem to forget them. Recently, the Sunbeam Club, escorted by Mrs. Beak, paid the home a visit and presented table silver, pillowslips, door mat and corridor mat. They concluded their visit by singing several songs which were much appreciated by all. Since moving to the new home, the pioneers are being visited more often and these visitations appear to be much appreciated.

TOY MONEY MAKER "TOO GOOD"—Almost too good to be true is the dinky wooden money maker built by Jerry Jacobs, 30, New York City. Jerry got his inspiration for this "toy" while listening to a radio story of a con man who bilked his victims with a money-making machine. He created this six-inch-high device which turns plain paper into money—for amusement purposes only. When the secret service heard of this miniature rival for the mint it invited Jerry to a talk with Assistant U.S. Attorney Lauritano, who pointed out that while there is nothing illegal about selling the machine as a novelty it isn't exactly advisable.

A CLASSIFIED AD IN THE DAILY NEWS WILL BRING RESULTS

Reminiscences By W.J. and Reflections

Mount Morse, serenely brooding across the harbor, used to attract climbers years ago. The peak may do so yet although we have not heard of anyone ascending in a car. If you decide to start out, first of all know your shaggy mount! It can be deceiving. Begin the ascent near the site of certain cannery buildings up the inlet and it won't be long before the going is easier.

You hike to the summit to see all Prince Rupert and the Skeena spread before you. Paste this in your hat. Don't go too far up the inlet. Otherwise, when you reach the top, from another point of commencement, you will behold scenery, but only more peaks. Rupert would be "over there," but you do not see it.

This is the circus season. Believe it or not, Prince Rupert has had big tent shows when there was far less reason for such a display of nerve than now. Once, away back when a dime looked like money, darned if an alleged big top did not come to town, parade down Third Avenue and bring up with a bang where the court house now stands. People needed amusement and had no particular objection to being mildly stung. For sometimes, a shown can be so bad it actually is good.

Prince Rupert has always been road-conscious. Even before the railway was in full operation, this yearning for a highway was born. People discussed the desirability of a "road around the island." No one seemed to care a picayune about cost, necessity or engineering considerations. Once, it almost seemed as though the public would get away with it. Back in the woods, opposite a point between the wireless station and marine department buildings, a start was made. But, it was little more than a gesture. However, "a road around the island" is on the way. If not partly accomplished. In one way or another, the past 35 years witnessed a lot that worked toward fitting in with the early dreams of those who came first.

PLAYGROUND ACTIVITIES

By M. E. ANDER
Seal Cove children had their elephant sale yesterday and it was a big success. Parents and friends gave it such generous support that all the articles were sold in fifteen minutes. The sum of $8.50 was cleared. Articles were neatly wrapped and the fact that the buyer could not be quite sure of what she was getting added touch of delightful uncertainty. Of course it is difficult to make a book look like anything else.

Those taking part were, Amazons—Dot Marshal, Jean Sharpe, Annette Windle, Vera Wouden, Hazel Paulsen, Norma Montgomery, Marge Tattersall, Florrie Bagshaw and Bernice Hood. Annette Windle and Jean Sharpe alternated as pitcher and catcher.

At McClymont Park swimming attracted twenty-two, although these were not all the same twenty-two as were there on Saturday. The children are being made to feel at home in the water. They are being shown that the water will support them if they give it a chance and the confidence thus gained gives them every encouragement to go on to further feats.

In a girls' fastball game something of a record must have been made by the Amazons. They scored 21 runs in an inning. The adding machine nearly gave up! But all were quite happy. With more directed practice the girls will do better and the teams will be reorganized so that they will be more equal in playing ability and size.

The Alderettes were Barbara Moore, Roberta Paul, Agnes MacIntosh, Lorraine Garvich, Darlene Olsen, Carol Moorehouse, Jackie Moore, Anita Brew, Lynne Nickerson, Marjorie Howe, Jean Grimble and Dorothy Hibbard

Battery was broken by Anita Brew and Final score—Alderettes 6.

There will be a Friday afternoon.

Olier Besner Suggests Government-Owned Site Across From Post Office

Olier Besner, who is spending a few days in the city, says he is satisfied the establishment of a cellanese plant at Port Edward will mark a real turning point in industrial and general business affairs here. That there can be no doubt of it is already noticeable.

The coming changes, remarked Mr. Besner, cannot but strengthen the impression of the growing need for another hotel. In a reference to sites he spoke of the location on Third Avenue, across from the post office, which, he thought, could serve with advantage.

WED QUIETLY AT CATHEDRAL

At a quiet ceremony solemnized recently by Rev. Basil S. Prockter in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Miss Anna Sunberg, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sunberg, 314 Sixth Avenue West, became the bride of Bunnie Karesosky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Karesosky, of Nordeq, Alberta.

Wearing a gown of white satin with shoulder veil, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses. Her attendant was Miss Hope Laidlaw, gowned in floor-length blue sheer, carrying a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Attending the groom was his brother, Mike Karesosky.

A reception followed in Valhalla Hall, the guests being received by the parents of the bride and groom. The former wore an afternoon dress of mauve, with matching hat and corsage of yellow carnations. The groom's mother wore an afternoon dress of pale green with corsage of pink carnations. About 150 attended the function.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Prockter with response by the groom. Refreshments were served by Miss Mary Murray, Mrs. William Geddes, Mrs. O. Martin and Mrs. T. Yule. Dancing was enjoyed with music by Roberts' orchestra.

QUIETEST SPOT ON EARTH?—According to engineers, this ultra-soundproof room at a telephone laboratory at Murray Hill, N.J., may be the quietest place on earth. Even the beat of your heart breaks the silence in the completely sealed, but air-conditioned chamber. It will be used in acoustical research. All surface that would reflect sound—the walls, ceiling and sub-floor—are lined with saw-tooth wedges of fibreglass to a depth of five feet to eliminate sound. The unique working floor resembles the stringing of a tennis racket and consists of high-strength steel cables only one-hundredth of an inch thick, strung in two-inch mesh from the walls. It can safely support tons of equipment and feels like a heavy rubber mat when walked on.

Canada and Marshall Plan

THE FAILURE OF RUSSIA to agree with Britain and France on the Marshall Plan to aid European reconstruction carries away many hopes for the "One World" that would assure peace.
The question now in our minds is "How much can be salvaged from the Marshall Plan?" Can Europe, an important key to peace, be reconstructed without the co-operation of Russia? Britain and France must now take the lead in the nations of Europe who have joined them in working out, for presentation to the United States, an economically and politically sound plan that eventually will make Europe self-sustaining.
The importance to Canada of the Marshall Plan to spend billions of U.S. dollars for the rebuilding of Europe is recognized although perhaps not fully appreciated. The area concerned has been a very great market for Canadian goods and will again when it becomes self-sustaining. This investment is in addition to Canada's general interest in world peace, prosperity and happiness.
For these reasons Canada must do her share in partnership with the United States in any workable plan that is devised. It may cost Canada $500 million per year for five years. But this will be a small price to pay for a measure of insurance against a future war.

World's Biggest Fish Pond

CANADA is the largest fishing ground anywhere in the world, says Financial Post. Is it sea fishing that interests you? You don't need to feel cramped.
From Grand Manan off New Brunswick to Labrador on the Atlantic coast, disregarding all the hundreds of smaller bays and inlets, there is a coast line of 5,000 miles. The Bay of Fundy alone offers 8,000 square miles of fishing grounds, and the St. Lawrence ten times as much. Off shore, Canada's share of the ocean fishing grounds is 10,000 square miles, or four-fifths of the total North Atlantic fishing areas. On the West coast, British Columbia's fisheries have a parish of 8,180 square miles.
For the inland fisherman, Canada's lakes contain half the fresh water on this planet.
If it's fishing you want, get yourself a hook and line and get going. The place is here.

British Sportsmanship

THE BATTLE OF WATERLOO, we understand, was won on the playing field of Eton. Since then the old school tie, worn in conjunction with a brass hat, has fallen into popular disrepute, but the influence of the playing field remains. The young Briton of all classes, with or without his "shoes, is heir to the tradition of "fair play," the "sporting chance," and the irrefragable judgment, "It isn't cricket!"
Now British sportsmanship is put to a new test. Foreign athletes coming to Britain for the 1948 Olympic games can bring with them the 25 pounds allowed to all travelers entering the country to supplement meager British rations. But Lord Strachey refuses to relax the strict rationing system one jot or one tittle for British athletes. They will stick to their weekly quota of 10 eggs and 24 cents' worth of meat.
This is a hard blow to the sports-minded Briton, who has been told by the experts that the way to Olympic victories is through the stomachs of British athletes. Well may he murmur A. E. Housman's lines:

With rue my heart is laden
For golden friends I had,
For many a rose-lipt maiden
And many a light-foot lad.

Mr. Strachey may be putting an extra hurdle before the light-foot, light-fed lads, but he shows the scrupulous spirit of the playing field in subordinating considerations of national prestige to the strict rules of the national emergency.

Prince Rupert Years Ago

July 24, 1922
The Hon. J. M. P. addressed the council on the current unemployment situation, saying that the situation had been found to be serious.
The Hon. J. M. P. suggested that the council should send an unemployment commission scheduled to be in Prince Rupert.

Two money bylaws, one for $35,000 for construction of a bridge across Hays Creek on Sixth Avenue and one for $15,000 for repairs to Booth Memorial School, were passed by council with a view to submitting them to the ratepayers at an early date.

July 24, 1912

The Bank of Montreal, as the city's financial agents, came up for discussion at a meeting of the city council. The bank would not definitely state that it would refuse to sell stocks to city customers but was "tying the situation up, instead."

The Section Two street improvement bylaw, which authorized building of a bridge, passed the city council.

OSCAR FOR SIR LAURENCE—Laurence Olivier (right), who received a knighthood in the King's birthday list, is presented with his special Hollywood Academy Award for "Henry V" by Ray Milland, winner of last year's academy award for his performance in "Lost Week End." Looking on (centre) is Roger Furse who designed the costumes for "Henry V." The ceremony took place on the "Hamlet" set in London with Olivier dressed in the costume of the title role of his second Shakespearean film.

THE RAIN

We listen each day to the rain pitter-patter, We're so cold in July, our teeth fairly clatter, But, between you and I, what does it matter When the sun shines again, the clouds will scatter.

We hear people say, again and again: "O Gee I'm so sick of this nasty rain I wish the sun would come out and shine "Whenever on earth is it going to be fine?"

Sometimes as I sit and look out o'er the sea, So many thoughts come drifting to me. Have we ever paused and stopped to think If the rain ceased to fall what would we drink?

Supposing the sun shone all the while, It wouldn't be long ere we lost our smile. Without our rain, what would we do? Can you give me an answer? I'm asking you.

Have you lived in a city? As you walked on the street The heat from the sun burned the soles of your feet. At night it's so hot you're forced out of bed, In the morning you feel you are just half dead. How often we wish for cool, fresh air, A rain shower to us is an answer to prayer. The weather in winter is so very severe, If it isn't your feet freeze, then it's your ear.

So when we have given some time for thought, Are we taking our blessings as much as we ought? We can't have our cake and eat it too, But there are many things that we can do. We can be like the bird that sings in the tree.

When it rains, he's happy, he's free. He knows the rain will keep him alive. If he didn't have it, he wouldn't survive.

Perhaps, indeed, with more sun we could do But has it ever occurred at least once to you: How much we appreciate each little ray When the sun shines upon us some sunny day?

NEED FOR PUBLICITY

An appeal for more publicity for the beauties of the Prince Rupert-Terrace district was the parting word of J. Norman Somerville, Toronto Educationalist, who left the city Saturday afternoon by bus after spending 10 days here during a 10-month tour that has taken him to all parts of the continent.

"I regard this visit as a splendid introduction to my next one, and suggest that you provide Toronto with more news about the district, as does Alberta," Mr. Somerville wrote Chamber of Commerce Secretary E. T. Applewhite.

Mr. Somerville traveled as far as Smithers in the bus chartered by the Prince Rupert Baseball Association to take its team to Smithers on Saturday.

"I found that the 95 miles of mountain scenery to Terrace was magnificent. The dense, massive vegetation is outstanding. The continuous mountains are stupendous."

Local Lady Is Honored

BURNS LAKE—Mrs. M. Skinner, wife of R. B. Skinner of Prince Rupert, who sold one of the winning tickets for the Tweedsmuir Park Rod and Gun Club, on the time of the break-up of the ice on Francois Lake, has been visiting friends in the Lakes District, where the Skinner family is widely acquainted. With her two children she was a guest at the Bickle ranch at Grassy Plains. Then, with Mrs. William Bickle, they visited the McDougall Farm at Tatalrose, returning to Burns Lake where they were guests of Mrs. Margaret Bickle at the town residence.

An impromptu party was staged and many old friends of both the Bickle and Skinner families responded to the call. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Mabel Skinner and Mrs. John Bostron, while the visitors included Mrs. Peter Olson, Miss Thelma Lund. Those who dropped in included Roy Chamberlain, Carman Nyste and John Hart. Last arrivals were Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Johnson, old timers of Grassy Plains, which they left some thirteen years ago. With their two children they motored up from New Westminster.

YOUTHFUL 'ADVENTURE TRAILS' PARTY VISITS HERE ON CONTINENTAL TOUR

"Adventure Trails" it is called and, by the sound of it, it concentrates enough of the heady stuff into 62 days of travelling and camping out to keep any student contentedly at his or her books for at least a full school term after it is over. It's the sort of thing that all young people, and most adults, too, dream about but rarely achieve.

That is the way Miss Madeleine Geller of Chicago made it sound Wednesday afternoon when she told of the tour which she and 38 other students from all parts of the United States are taking. It began in New York on July 2 and will end there early in September.

Miss Geller, who graduated from high school in Chicago in June, is one of a party of six who arrived in the city Tuesday night by train, sailing last night on the Prince Rupert for Ketchikan and possibly, farther north. The rest of the party, 34 of them, will arrive in Prince Rupert tonight also by train, and leave on the Prince Rupert for Seattle.

Between their departure from

New York City and their return, the party will have travelled across Canada to Alaska, down the west coast almost to Mexico City and across the United States back to the eastern metropolis, a distance of close to 13,000 miles.

"Fun? I'm enjoying every minute of it," Miss Geller said eagerly. "Everybody else is having fun, too."

By "everybody else" she meant Miss Magdalen Fullum, of West Orange, New Jersey who is in charge of the group. Michael Riessner of Scarsdale, New York; Robert Bateman of Kirbyville, Texas; Ronald Dubin of New York and Leonard Ehrman of New York. All are energetic teen-agers.

All are part of group "B" of "Adventure Trails", student tours arranged by Jack Dengler of New York. Other members of group "B" will go directly from Jasper to Vancouver and Seattle, while group "A", which travels largely by bicycle, will arrive tonight by train here, sailing south immediately.

The group to which Miss Geller belongs travelled from New York to Calgary by train, then by their private bus, which they call a "charabank" to Banff, Lake Louise, Waterfall Lake and Jasper, camping out in each of the parks. They planned to leave Jasper for Prince Rupert on Friday, but missed their train and had to wait until Monday.

Since they have a fairly stringent time schedule to meet if they want to see all the places on the itinerary, it is unlikely that Miss Geller's group will go any further north than Ketchikan.

Fram Seattle, they will travel by train between the various national parks on the west coast, then south into Mexico, camping along the way. Their southern tour will end just north of Mexico City, then they will turn northward toward New York.

"Adventure Trails" tours are not new. They operated before the war but this is their post-war season. They are designed for young people ranging in age from 14 to 23.

Next year, according to Miss Geller, the European tours will be resumed which will include England, France and the Scandinavian countries.

"That's a trip I really want to make," said Miss Geller.

GADGETS HELP FARMERS CONSERVE TIME—Farmers who figure out ways to conserve their time and energy by installing "gadgets" that are short cuts in the routine of their daily work, have more time to enjoy life with their families. Lewellyn Mogan, above, rigged up a simple foot-controlled latch on the poultry yard gate at his farm near Erie, Ill. Entering the yard with bucketsfull of water and feed, he doesn't have to put one paw down while he opens the gate, it works the same way leaving the poultry pen.

TO REBUILD LIGHTHOUSE

Construction of a fully modern light station at Holland Rock to replace the one which was destroyed by fire ten months ago will be begun shortly. The Department of Transport has called for tenders for the building of a light station, dwelling and fog alarm station.

The light station, built in 1913, was destroyed last September 14 by a fire which levelled it to its concrete base and caused the light keeper to flee in a small boat. Since that time an unattended light has warned mariners from danger.

The new lighthouse will tower 75 feet above the low tide level and the complete unit will also include a two storey six-room dwelling for the light keeper, and a separate engine room for the fog alarm system. All the buildings will be of concrete block structure and will be built on the old concrete base.

The light system will be a vapor light, burning either kerosene or stove oil, and its signal will be the same as formerly—a straight flashing light, sea miles from Prince Rupert and actually is the southern entrance to Prince Rupert harbor, which, for administrative purposes, extends that far.

The new light station will have a water system comprised of two large storage cisterns from which the water will be filtered for domestic use.

The original Holland Rock light was built in 1908 and rebuilt in 1913. It was the latter structure which burned down last year.

Is Reopening Shirley Mill

A. Jacobsen Returns to This District From Prairies

After an absence of about a year on the prairies, A. Jacobsen has returned to resume operation of the sawmill at Shirley near Haysport on the Skeena River. It is hoped to reopen the plant in about a month's time. Meantime, Mr. Jacobsen is reorganizing with this end in view. He has been made an attractive offer by the Port Edward Cellulose Co. in connection with its Port Edward project and meantime has a market for all the lumber he can produce.

The Shirley mill, planer equipped, has a daily capacity of about 20,000 board feet and employs some twelve men. It is operated by power from a 100 h.p. turbine. Most extensive project preparatory to resumption of operations will be the restoration of the dam at Rainbow Lake, some two miles distant, which was mysteriously damaged during the past year.

Mr. Jacobsen is leaving tonight on the Prince Rupert for Vancouver but will be back shortly.

MOOSE GIRLS WINNERS AGAIN

Late Rally by Gordon & Anderson in Ladies Softball

In the Ladies' Fastball League Tuesday evening the Moose nine got off to a good start, scoring eight runs in the first three innings and holding the Gordon & Anderson team scoreless for four innings. The store ladies came to life and scored three in the fifth and four in the seventh but Moose scored two in the seventh and the final score was 10 to 7 in favor of the lodge ladies.

North, Thornton and Currie scored in the first for Moose on singles by North, Betty Hamilton and Thain and a double by Arletta Hamilton assisted by a walk and two errors. North and Betty Hamilton scored in the second on a walk and successive singles by B. Hamilton and Thornton. Three more came in the third when Thain walked, Arletta Hamilton and Laird hit singles and Betty Hamilton got her third hit. Clough then took over the pitching chores for Gordon and Anderson and held the Lodge ladies scoreless till the seventh. Then Pavlikis hit safely, Kildal was safe on an error, North was safe on a fielder's choice, Betty Hamilton got on base on an error, Currie hit a single and Thain was on a fielder's choice. As a result, Kildal and North scored.

The G. & A. girls came to life in the fifth. I. Ramsay, Flynn and S. Ramsay crossed the plate. They staged a desperate rally in the seventh when the Ramsay sisters both hit safely Flynn was walked and Duffus hit a single. All four scored with none out. Balagno got to first on an error but the side was retired without further score.

Betty Hamilton gave up four walks, allowed eight hits and struck out ten. Her teammates committed only three errors. Duffus pitched three innings, allowed seven hits, walked three, struck out one and eight runs were scored. Clough pitched four innings, allowed one walk, gave five hits, struck out two and there were two runs scored off her. The team was guilty of seven errors.

KHTADA GIRLS QUIT LEAGUE

With their executive finding it impossible to field teams, the Khatada club Tuesday evening officially informed the Fastball Commission that they were regretfully forced to withdraw from the Ladies' Fastball League.

As a result, recreation director Neil Ross, went into a strenuous session last evening and, after calling on his mathematical knowledge of permutations and combinations, not to mention un-stated amounts of exasperation, aggravation, exclamations perspiration and desperation, straightened out and drew up the new schedule.

LOCAL STUDENTS LEARN POINTS ON RUGBY FOOTBALL

PORT EDWARD—Prince Rupert high school boys working at Carlisle Cannery got instruction in the basic points of rugby football here on Sunday when they accepted a challenge from a group of Vancouver men and boys. Their need for instruction was made clear by the final score—20-0 for the Vancouver challengers.

Although unfamiliar with the game, the Prince Rupert boys accepted the challenge in the interests of sport. It was watched by a diminishing crowd of Moose picknickers for whom the game was also somewhat foreign.

Rules of the game were modified because of a lack of proper clothing, pads, and the nature of the ground. Captain of the Bome-Hi team was Reg Lavigne, while Don Salter, John Caldwell and Bill Lee were co-captains of the Vancouver boys.

The game featured two touchdowns made through two end runs and two passes, one by Jack Tatro and one by Jack Caldwell and two by Don Salter. Other members of the winning team were Bill Hale and Don Smart.
