SUN SHINES JUST AS BRIGHTLY HERE—Among the ruins and weeds of a bombed section of Frankfurt, Germany, this girl finds rest and relaxation. The hammock, traditionally slung between tree trunks, is fastened to a pair of convenient iron pillars, leaning drunkenly on the bomb blast that wrecked the building of which they were a part. But the sun shines as brightly on the roses in the country.

Match Playing Fatal to Child

Little Native Girl Dies In Hospital

Suffering from the effects of burns, Mercy Marlene Daniels, a native child, died in hospital last night. Her age was about a year and a half.

Sunday morning, at their home in Sunnyside, she and her brother, a year older, were playing with lighted matches. Her clothes became ignited and before anything in the way of rescue could be done, she was so badly burned that there was no hope of recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Daniels of Kitwanga are the parents of the unfortunate child.

Refugees Sent Back

Party of 4500 Being Returned To France whence they came

LONDON—Authoritative Whitehall informants said today that Jews without visas, seized Friday at Haifa aboard the refugee ship Exodus of 1945, were being shipped back to France in a new and tougher approach to the problem of handling such blockade runners.

The informants said further that the 4500 or more aboard the craft, the former American ship President Garfield, were being transported in three British deportation ships to their port of embarkation, Sete, near Marseilles.

There is said to be not enough room in the detention camp at Cyprus to take care of such a large number.

War Planes Striking at Forces of Republicans

BATAVIA (CP)—Dutch war planes struck at Indonesian and Republican airfields in Java and Sumatra today in an effort to immobilize Republican anti-aircraft guns and air forces believed to consist of about forty old Japanese planes, many in poor repair.

Dutch troops in Java began local military actions against the Indonesian Republicans at midnight Sunday from all lines in Java. One hour before action began, the troops and police in Batavia swooped down on the Republican utilities and departmental buildings and arrested or took into private custody, the Indonesian vice-premier, A. K. Gani.

Indonesian broadcasts and other sources said a finely equipped Dutch Army of about 120,000 men, using mostly American lend lease and surplus military equipment, was striking simultaneously at numerous points.

Dr. H. J. Van Mook, acting Dutch Governor-General, called the skirmishing "police action."

Lieut.-General Simon Spoor, Dutch commander, said in an order of the day that "our enemies are the elements which try to sabotage the sincere implementation of agreements reached to hinder restoration of law, and establishment of security for all men of good will in this country and to obstruct the rehabilitation and reconstruction of Indonesia."

Meanwhile, the Indonesian deputy premier, A. K. Gani, guarded by armed Dutch soldiers, asked in an interview that the consuls of Britain, United States and other foreign countries assemble to hear an Indonesian protest against the commencement of hostilities by the Dutch.

CAME HOME ON A WING AND A TIE—A mechanic at an airport in Shannon, Ireland, Tommy Campobasso, left, is welcomed back by Charles A. Thompson after his dramatic 2,300-mile flight from Berlin in the small Piper Cub plane in the background. Campobasso was forced down in the Russian zone near Madgeburg, where he made hasty repairs to his engine, using his necktie, and immediately took off, fearful of being caught by the Russians.

LONE SKIPPER SETS OFF TO SAIL ATLANTIC IN SMALL VESSEL—Skipper "Dod" Osborne waves good-bye from his seven-ton Scottish yawl, The Lovely Lady, as he leaves Dover, Eng., to sail the Atlantic Ocean by himself. He has neither maps or charts. The yawl is the smallest ocean-going vessel in the British register, being 39-foot, 6 inches overall and with a 34-foot keel. During the hazardous voyage the skipper expects to have only four hours of sleep out of 24 and only when weather conditions are favorable.

SENORA PERON VISITS VATICAN—Mme. Eva Duarte Peron, wife of the President of Argentina, is shown as she was received on her arrival at the Vatican in Rome. For an audience with Pope Pius Prince Ruspari is shown greeting the visitor in the courtyard of Saint Damascus. He escorted her to the papal chamberlain who presented her to his holiness. Pope Pius awarded the great cross of the Order of Pius IX to President Peron on the day after Mme Peron's visit to the Vatican. The decoration ranks second in importance and dignity pontifical decorations. Vatican sources said the award recognized Argentina's contribution to the relief of war suffering.

Killers Arrested

RANGOON—The Burmese police have killed three followers of former Premier, U. Saw, and arrested him and nineteen lieutenants in a raid in connection with the machine gun massacre of seven Burmese council ministers on Saturday. The police struck at USaw's home Saturday night. A barrage of gunfire marked the arrests.

NATIONAL HOUSING LOANS ARE AVAILABLE NOW IN THIS CITY

At long last machinery has now been made available whereby prospective home builders in Prince Rupert may obtain financing under the terms of the National Housing Act. Announcement was made today by S. E. Clarke of Vancouver, loan manager of the Sun Life Assurance Co. for British Columbia, that his company was extending such loan facilities into Prince Rupert and had already completed local arrangements for their handling. Servicing will be through the office of S. D. Johnston Co. Ltd. which will receive and handle the applications, with J. T. Harvey as legal representative and J. A. Rutherford, B.C.L.S., local surveyor.

Each application will be considered on its individual merits and there will be no grouping requirements. Lots must be at least 37 1/2 feet wide with 50 feet preferred. In the meantime, building sites will be confined to certain acceptable areas such as Westview and the front sides of Section 5 and 6. The minimum type of home must have two bedrooms with living room, kitchen and nook or dinette—the type known as "four rooms plus nook." Easement provision is desirable and there must be a minimum floor space of 750 square feet, all of course, under National Housing Act specifications.

To finalize a loan clear title to property is necessary and cash amounting to difference between amount of loan and cost of house. The loan may amount to 90 percent of the first $4000 of landing value, determined by appraisal of land and building, and seventy percent over $4000. Under present building conditions, it usually works out at $1400 or $1500 being required to put a deal across.

Loans are repayable in twenty years with monthly repayments on principal and interest as well as one-twelfth of annual taxes which the company assumes to pay. Interest is at 4 1/2 percent. Applicants may normally borrow up to about double their annual salary.

AIR MAIL SERVICE

WE CAN ADD MAIL SERVICE to the growing list of Prince Rupert's accomplishments for the year 1947. It is another acknowledgement of how our increasing importance is being recognized. It will be a great boon to local business to be able to have greatly speeded up postal delivery not only between here and Vancouver but, through this service, to and from important centres in the East.

It is also particularly gratifying that the air mail service, as announced Saturday, will apply as well to the Queen Charlotte Islands through the delivery to Sandspit. It may not mean that full advantage can be taken of the service because of the lack of local mail service between island points but it will be some improvement.

Now that the air mail service is being granted to Prince Rupert, it is to be hoped that the local Post Office will be in a position to dispatch and distribute in such a manner that the service will be of the fullest possible effectiveness.

B.C.'S FORESTRY EXAMPLE

THE EMPIRE FORESTRY Conference in London, which the deputy minister of lands and forests from this province has been attending, has gone on record as favoring a system of planned forest conservation in the Commonwealth whereby provision is made when using timber for proportionate reforestation—in other words, a sustained yield policy. Actually, the London conference, apparently, feels that the rest of the British Commonwealth might follow the lead of British Columbia. British Columbia, always known for its progressiveness in social and other legislation, once again shows the way, this time being an example to the whole Empire.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON PLEASURE

IT WAS A FINE, warm afternoon yesterday. Quite a few people were strolling about, taking the fresh air of a Sunday afternoon and enjoying life generally.

It was a happy circumstance that Barbra Peter Lien and his civic band should come swinging smartly up Third Avenue heading for the C.N.R. Totem Park where they stayed for a half hour or so and presented a very creditable program. It just rounded off the enjoyment for the many people who happened to be about.

It may not be a very big band but it is a good band and Mr. Lien and his bandmen may rest assured that they are appreciated and the oftener they can find the time to come out and favor us with their music the better the public will like it. They are doing a real community service in providing the pleasure they do for the citizens and we would like to give them all the encouragement we can.

REPORTORIAL EXPERIENCES

(W. J. R.)

The St. John River which helps form the boundary between New Brunswick and Maine isn't a bit like the Skeena. There is not a mountain worthy of the name.

Hence, no snow caps. Perhaps, here and there can be seen wilderness, but nothing is wild. The region was settled about the time George Washington decided to call it a day, and the Loyalists figured it would be prudent to move north.

There are no grizzlies or annual floods. Goats are all domestic. They live in the barnyards. The St. John is a peaceful, smooth-flowing, safe and sane old river bordered with sleek farms which return a fairly fat living for those with no objection to working.

The steamships have long been a feature of river life and each spring, when ice unlocks the unbroken five months hold, the press turns to special and anticipated duties.

This is to put in print, the story of the boats.

Which goes out first? What changes, if any, among skippers and crews? What of the craft? How about alterations and improvements? Oh, there is plenty to tell.

Busy days, for the fresh water fleet is back. We turn in a story and turn into bed, feeling there was at least one reporter who could be understood and depended on. How priceless it was, in a newspaper office, to be accurate. Mention has been made of a smallpox case appearing among the passengers. This turned out to be correct but I placed him in my report on the wrong vessel. And the part owner of that ship also holds shares in the publication that enjoys the distinction of utilizing my services.

He blows up in the air—literally. Smallpox? Business blasted and ruined for the summer. And all the fault of that . . . going off at half-cock . . . confounded little . . . false alarm of a would-be reporter.

Something seems to tell the latter he is about to be fired—or sunk. Yet, the reprieve and final pardon arrive in time, for reasons none can learn.

In a handy bar, the gang discusses the situation.

"Well," remarks the hard-faced sports writer, blowing the froth off his lager, "if you had to step off on the wrong foot, you sure pulled a Jim dandy."

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mitchell and family returned to the city yesterday from a motor trip to the southern interior.

Letters to the Editor

COUNSEL TO NATIVES

Editor, Daily News:
Being a constant reader of your very interesting and fact-revealing newspaper, permit me to voice my most humble opinion of the present everyday life of my native Indian people. Since most of the requirements of the Indians have been covered in the brief that was presented to Ottawa, I need not voice my opinion on that. But, may I point out to the Indian people of B. C., that there are things that have to be done by ourselves. We cannot expect too much from the Government and our many white friends. It is up to us to progress rapidly.

There is one obstacle confronting us the Indians of B. C. We must not retain our old Indian customs like feasting, superstition and the chieftain titles. They are hindering the progress of our race and should be done away with. We, the Indians of the province of B. C., wish and are hoping to be classed among our fellow citizens of Canada, and we cannot advance if we retain our age old customs. We are now living in the twentieth century and not in the eighteenth or nineteenth centuries. Either we go back to the times of our state of "savagery," as termed by our white brothers, or we can be classed under that precious privilege which I for one, hope will some day be granted to us as being full fledged citizens of Canada. If we be granted that privilege we must not throw away the languages that the forefathers of ours spoke. We the Indians of Canada must show to our fellow Canadians and the world that we are progressing and can undertake the duties of making ourselves worthy of this precious privilege.

As for the home environment in which our younger generation are growing up, I urge all Indian parents that there should be a more strict discipline among their children. Some of these children are running around too freely. Some of these children, who are growing up, will some day lead our poor blindfolded people out of darkness. It is up to fathers and mothers, to teach the children the right things of life. Try and give them the utmost support in obtaining the proper education. Teach them about health so they will grow up to be strong healthy citizens of Canada. Parents are the foundation of the younger generation. In their hands is entrusted that most beloved thing called "Parenthood." They must throw away all worldly pleasure and give their children the first thoughts so the children will be taught the right things of life and will not undergo those terrible conditions which parents have undergone. Some day you will be proud of them, your children.

We the Indians of British Columbia and the whole of Canada must not expect too much from the government. We must try to be independent. In my own humble opinion, I believe we must repay the kindness of the government. They have provided privileges that are not granted to any other citizens of Canada, such as free medical care, free education etc. I do not object in paying "Income Tax." Just think of the privileges which are granted to us from this source! We have enjoyed the help obtained from Family Allowances and employment in cities which has never before been granted to the Indians. And our aged people are going to get the Old Age Pension. In the past they were expected to live on five dollars a month.

As a Recording Secretary of the organization called The Native Brotherhood of British Columbia I urge all Indian people "support your organization." It is your only hope of survival in this world! There have been obstacles confronting our organ-

REBUILDING OF ALTARS

Brigadier Gillingham Preaches in First United Church

Rebuilding altars was the subject of Brigadier J. T. Gillingham's address Sunday morning at the First United Church where he conducted a guest service in the absence of Rev. R. A. Wilson who is holidaying in the south. "Christians of today seem to have swung too far out from God and there is a need to rebuild the altars of worship, reverence, communion and that of the family," said Brigadier Gillingham. Referring to the time of Noah, the speaker related how that followers of God built an altar after the flood and offered prayers of thanksgiving to God for deliverance. According to story this altar was constructed from the remains of one erected by Adam after he had been forced out of the Garden of Eden.

Elijah, when called upon to expose the prophets of Baal, first "repaired the Altar of the Lord that was broken down." So it was with those early, God-fearing patriarchs; wherever they chanced to be, whatever the materials at hand, their first expression of faith was the erection of an altar.

Altars are still very much a part of our religion but the ones that are in need of re-building are those that "God set up in the hearts of men." To re-build the altar of worship God must be sought in spirit and in truth. Reverence of His name, word and day will re-establish another altar that seems in danger of being neglected. The family altar is yet another that needs attention if Christian fellowship is to retain a place in our homes.

Kenny Smith Now Eighty Years Old

Kenny Smith who first came to British Columbia before the Vancouver fire which he helped fight, was eighty years old last week and there were many who were glad to shake hands with him. He has lived in Prince Rupert since the early days. He has a clear recollection of the blaze that wiped out young Vancouver. That was back in the mid-eighties and on a Sunday.

Moderation

WILL SEE US THROUGH

Last year, in one of its several published statements, The House of Seagram said, "Canada's great record of price control was made possible by the wholehearted co-operation of the Canadian people with their Government's anti-inflation methods. This fine record should be maintained . . . by moderating our pleasures, by controlling unessential spending, we continue to serve our Nation and ourselves best."

That statement we repeat today. We need only march steadily ahead . . . with continued emphasis on those habits of moderation, self-control and commonsense which are so happily—and fortunately—characteristics of Canada, and Canadians.

Then this Nation will stand secure on the road to its yet greatest opportunities.

MOOSE PICNIC IS ENJOYABLE

Happy Outing At Port Edward Yesterday

There were a lot of echoes re-awakened at the site of the former American army camp at Port Edward yesterday when a convoy of buses and private automobiles pulled in and deposited some 350 children and adults who were there to enjoy the annual Moose Lodge picnic.

As far as the children were concerned there were three big features to the day. There were races to be run and prizes to be won providing the feet moved fast enough. There were novelty races and games which provided fun for spectators and performers and ball games that worked up appetites.

The second feature was the hot dog stand that did a rush business from the time it opened until the last load of picnickers headed for home in the evening. Last but not least, as far as the younger set was concerned, were the basket lunches that mothers had so carefully and abundantly packed with all the good things she could think of to please health-hunger boys and girls.

Even the adults, to whom the outing was mostly work and supervision, reported a very good time.

Governor W. B. McCallum presided over the outing. Committee chairman was Bill Terry and his committee consisted of A. Welch, Harold Hampton, Douglas Wood, Joe Long, Joe Ratchford, B. J. Bacon and H. LOCAL ALL-STARS LOSE 4-3 TO SMITHERS IN SUNDAY BALL GAME

Prince Rupert's third attempt this season to win glory at the expense of outside baseball clubs ended in defeat at Smithers Sunday evening when an all-star team composed of Moose and Watts and Nickerson players lost by a score of 4-3 to the interior team in a nine-inning session that replaced the scheduled afternoon double header which was washed out by rain.

Showing occasional flashes of sound team work despite an eleven-hour bus trip and the uncertainty of a strange field, the all-stars managed to tie the score at 3-3 in the first half of the ninth, only to see victory waltz into the arms of the Smithers team when Mayer, a previously innocuous batter, clouted a double and was brought home by a single by Fletcher, who also made his only hit of the game pay off.

Playing at their best, an uncertain brand of baseball, the locals trailed the Smithers team throughout the game and it was not until the seventh inning that they exposed their few supporters to the hope of victory—only to see it shrivel when they failed to take advantage of their breaks.

However, from the bleachers, it was a good game even though it was slowed by a soggy field that contained miniature lakes after a wet monsoon which earlier in the day threatened to cancel all hope of baseball. No outfielders were drowned, although all had wet feet.

A detailed account of the errors and lost opportunities on the part of both teams would make dreary reading. In all honesty, however, it must be admitted that while Smithers had the edge in scoring, Prince Rupert definitely out-shone their hosts when it came to making boners. The error tally showed four for Prince Rupert and three for Smithers.

Prince Rupert's fair showing was largely a result of the efforts of Moose pitcher Jack Rosedale whose port-side arm worked accurately until the seventh inning when a wild pitch allowed a Smithers run which drew cries of anguish from the tiny corner for the bleachers that was for the moment a piece of Prince Rupert.

However, if Rosedale had had the field support which he had the right to demand, the game

DESTRUCTION DESTROYS BARN

Fire, which may have been caused by a bolt of lightning, destroyed a storage shed owned by F. A. Gilbert here before 9 o'clock Sunday morning, sending up black columns of smoke as two barrels of dynamite exploded. A heavy rain reduced the danger to property.

Building, partly of wooden sheet metal construction, used as a storage shed for hay, was destroyed. The operator, also containing a quantity of hay.

The fire department, with the blaze was a further indication for a water works which has been approved by the city council, but which so far is under construction.

A thunder storm was on

Hazelton Native Attacked By Bear

Bears have been straying close to Hazelton and that goes for both old and new towns. A native, Sylvester Williams of Moricetown, while visiting at Hazelton Indian reserve, encountered one and was obliged to enter hospital to recover from injuries on head, hands, arms and legs. Bruin was finally shot.

"That driver last night was sure fresh."

"Why didn't you slap his face?"

"I did; and take my advice, never slap a guy when he's chewing tobacco."

When the fire was first noticed and it is believed that a flash of lightning may have struck the building. Another explanation offered was that intoxicated men may have spent the night there and have started the fire with a carelessly-thrown cigarette.

Playground Activities

Children Show Originality and Imagination in Their Activities

(By M. E. Anderer)

The inter-playground sandbox competition was badly interfered with Friday by the behaviour of an uninvited visitor. True he gave a warning of his impending visit. In fact, it was a very noisy warning but all could have very well dispensed with his presence.

The visitor was a thunderstorm. He came at the wrong time. Just when the children were getting things under way, down came the rain. As a result of their inspection of the playgrounds and the upsetting effects of the storm, the judges, Mrs. W. Bussey and Mrs. A. Large decided, with the recreation director Neil Ross, to postpone any decision in the competition and stage one later in the season.

Even at that there was a very interesting display of work. At Alder Park, where Peggy Large is in charge, her small-sized children showed considerable ingenuity and imagination. Their explanations were very helpful to the judges. One idea that would deceive endorsement from many citizens was a tunnel under a hill. This could be a lot easier than climbing the hills in the city. There were houses and orchards, the latter represented by huckleberry sprigs. One house had a fishpond, with a gold fish—represented by a leaf—adding to its charm. The group responsible included Marie Mortimer, Norma Zimmerman, Reg Kroger, Joanne Beruschi, Jimmy O'Toole, Frankie Warner and Irene Frances.

At McClymont Park there was a relief map of Prince Rupert. There was no doubt about it. The name was there. The judges were shown the Civic Centre, the courthouse with its gardens, a wartime housing unit, the cemetery, Roosevelt Park, a creek with a one-span bridge across it. Wild rose petals added much to the color of the display. Included among the "builders of the city" were Kenny McKinnon, Rodney Pierce, Elizabeth Pierce, Donna Moeller, Sonja Hansen, Patricia Pierce, Paulette Turcotte, Jimmy McLean. Margaret Slinn is the playground supervisor here.

Seal Cove playground, where Loverna Linney is supervisor, had a more mathematically arranged lay-out. Houses were very regularly planned, boundaries very straight, gardens very neat. The children chiefly responsible were Geraldine, Ernestine and Ethel Moorehouse. "Bunny" Brentzen, Helen Kendrathuk, Shirley and Parry Kurgin.

The children showed much originality, imagination and application in their work. A later competition, particularly if Jupiter Pluvius and his noisy partner, Thor, do not intrude, should be very good.

Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. DeCoursey are the daughters of Sydney Hamblin, 420 Fourth Avenue East.

BLONDIE

—Virtually Antediluvian.

By Chic Young

DADDY, WERE THERE PEOPLE ON THIS WORLD WAY BACK IN 1940?

SURE, MAMA AND I WERE HERE

DID YOU LIVE IN TREES OR IN CAVES IN THOSE DAYS, MAMA?

DID PAPA PULL YOU AROUND BY THE HAIR AND CARRY A BIG CLUB?

DON'T TALK TO THEM LIKE THEY WERE PREHISTORIC CHARACTERS... YOU MAKE THEM FEEL SO OLD

I'VE GOT A MILLION THINGS TO DO

I'LL CLEAN THE SUPPER DISHES FROM THE TABLE FOR YOU DEAR

YOU LEFT THE SALT SHAKER ON THE TABLE

WELL, YOU DON'T EXPECT ME TO TAKE OUT EVERYTHING IN ONE TRIP, DID YOU?

I'M HUNGRY THIS MORNING... I FEEL LIKE A REAL GOOD BREAKFAST

BLONDIE, I WANT ORANGE JUICE, CEREAL, HAM, BACON, ONE POACHED EGG AND ONE SCRAMBLED EGG, TOAST, MARMALADE AND COFFEE

ARE YOU CRAZY? YOU JUST HAVE THREE MINUTES TO CATCH YOUR BUS!

ANYWAY THAT WOULD'VE BEEN A WONDERFUL BREAKFAST!

INTERESTING MARRIAGE

Ruth Dunay and Bruce Simundson United At Saturday Night Ceremony

Interesting to many friends of the contracting couple was the marriage which took place Saturday evening at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Simundson, Ninth Avenue East, when Ruth Kathleen Dunay became the bride of Bruce Gordon Simundson. The quiet ceremony was conducted by Brigadier Joseph T. Gillingham, Salvation Army, and the attendants were Mrs. Sadie Grindstrand and Conny Simundson. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, S. L. Galloway.

The bride was pretty in brown shepherd's check with corsage of pink carnations. The matron of honor wore a becoming black dressmaker suit and had a similar corsage.

Following the marriage rite, a reception was held at the Valhalla Hall where over 100 friends gathered to offer their felicitations to the couple. Hugh Killin was master of ceremonies and the evening was spent in dancing with music supplied by Andy McNaughton's Orchestra.

The wedding cake was duly cut by the bride. Toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Killin with the groom responding. Toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by S. L. Galloway. Delicious refreshments were served.

CIVIC BAND IN CONCERT

The civic band played a delightful concert at C.N.R. Totem Park Sunday afternoon. Weather could not have been better and the strains of music attracted an appreciative audience.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

Sockeye Packing Holding Up Well—Boat Building at Cow Bay

The development of the oyster industry on the Pacific Coast is believed to be making progress, but the publicity end of it does not seem to be encouraged. Comparatively little breaks into print as far as the average reader is concerned. Or perhaps he has no passion for oysters.

Overcome by a heart attack while at sea, Capt. H. Engdahl, skipper and owner of the halibut vessel Liberty, died a few days ago in a Seward hospital. He had been sailing the Liberty out of Seattle for 36 years, and few fishing operators were better known along the B. C. and Alaskan coasts.

This is the height of the yachting season. Several craft which have cruised out of B.C. waters into Alaskan inlets include the Meander, from Vancouver. Her owner is Edward Lowe who makes an annual visit north; the Enid III owned by J. O. Houk, from Bend, Washington, and the Sea Fun, owned by John Booth from Bremerton, Washington.

Alaskan waters will have two more patrol vessels next summer. The craft, to be provided for the United States Fish and Wild Life service, will be small and fast. They will be forty feet long and be delivered in June.

Briggs Steamship Co. motorship Southeastern arrived in port at 8:30 Sunday night from Ketchikan and other Alaska points. The vessel brought in six carloads of fish for transshipment East over Canadian National Railways. Her outbound cargo from here includes one carload of beer from the Middle West for Alaska.

With a good-sized list of passengers, including quite a number of round trip tourists, Union steamer Coquitlam, Capt. John Boden, arrived in port at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from Vancouver and waypoints, sailing at 8 p.m. for Alice Arm and Stewart whence she will return here tomorrow morning and sail south at 1:30 p.m.

Frank Waterhouse freighter Chilliwack is at present on a voyage to points in this district but will not be calling at Prince Rupert this time. She arrived at Stewart at 7 o'clock last evening and is loading 600 tons of Silbak-Premier ore there before proceeding to Alice Arm where she has considerable freight to discharge. The vessel will call at Port Edward southbound.

The former J. P. Morgan yacht Corsair should soon be seen on the north coast and in Alaskan waters for quite a change has been made in her construction at the Victoria Machinery Depot. The vessel is converted into a luxury cruise ship for Pacific Cruise Lines Ltd. During the winter, she will run between San Francisco and South America.

Fifty boats are reported dog fishing in Queen Charlotte Sound. While the price of liver oil is not what it was last winter, the industry is regarded as well worth cultivating, when there is a good run on. The fishing craft Tordo, for example, landed 200 cans of livers, representing twelve days labor. This gave $600 to each of the three who made up the crew.

The sockeye catch on the Pacific coast continues to be ahead of the catch for the same period last year according to the weekly bulletin issued by the Acting Supervisor of Fisheries. However, on the Naas and Skeena, the 1947 figure is slightly below that of 1946. Up to July 12, according to the latest bulletin, 50,024 cases of sockeye were packed on the coast, as compared with 23,274 cases last year. On the Naas and Skeena, the sockeye season was 19,198 cases for the first two weeks of the 1947 season, as compared with 20,067 for 1946. Total pack of all types of salmon on the coast so far this year has been 64,206 cases. Comparative figures for other years are: 1946—46,854; 1945—94,743; 1944—46,014; 1943—26,802; 1942—75,615.

Sockeye has dominated the pack in all areas, as can be expected until the pink and coho runs begin in August.

At the Cow Bay Boat Works A. P. Crawley is building a 30-foot plywood v-bottomed work boat between repair jobs. At present hull work is being done on Sig Walstad's boat Awaaj which damaged her stem on a rock in the Skeena some time ago.

The American 8,000-ton motorship Pallsana was in port Friday afternoon southbound from the Alaskan ports to unload two carloads of frozen fish for rail shipment east. She arrived here at 11:30 a.m. and sailed at 4 p.m. Her master is Capt. Anthony Nickerson.

In the course of a periodical cruise to cannery points along the coast on company business, Canadian Can Co.'s power cruiser Cancolim, Capt. William Thomas, was in port during the weekend, arriving early Saturday afternoon from Massett and leaving yesterday for Port Edward. The Cancolim may make a trip to Ketchikan before returning to her base at Vancouver.

An old soldier named Ex-Regimental Sergeant Major H. Knight, D.C.M., is at Coal Harbor making ready to go on a voyage around the globe all by himself. He is seventy. He has nursed the ambition for a long time. His boat is schooner-rigged, and said to have cost about $9,000. She is 28 feet four inches overall, built of white oak iron bark and gumbo keel.

"So you say that the drinking water you get here is safe?"
"Yes?"
"What precautions do you take?"
"First we filter it, then we boil it."
