REAL REMEMBRANCE

When you bought and wore a hat on Saturday.
When you sat piously in a Remembrance Day church service on Sunday.
When you are laying in a stock market or beer today for a stimulant relaxation tomorrow.
When you will attend the Remembrance Day cenotaph service on Monday.
When you will go to a smoker on Tuesday night and have a good time with beer and song and remembrance.
When some will go for a long trip. All well and good—well.
Most of us will be taking Remembrance Day off, one way or another.
When we will observe the occasion of Remembrance Day in one way or another but to how many of us will it be Remembrance in true remembrance? How many of us will only be observing perfunctorily or incidentally to our own pleasure or convenience?
For some, of course, there will be the personal pangs of loved ones lost in one war or the other. Remembrance Day will sadly bring back sweet memories. These will have a true sense of remembrance.
There has been much said and much written about Remembrance Day. There have been many platitudes and appeals.
So what shall WE say about Remembrance Day?
If there is anything that we might emphasize it is that on Remembrance Day each of us should give some sober thought and consideration to its implications.
With the world seemingly so restless, of what Remembrance means, there would appear to be more need for serious thinking on the subject.

Remembrance is something that has a meaning and implication for us all. Otherwise there would be no point in Remembrance Day. Remembrance is not something for the other person to think of and do something about. It is yours and ours as individual components of a nation and society professing principles for which our men, and women too, fought and died in two Great Wars. They gave their everything. What did we give? What are we giving? Are we even giving heed or are we just doing what our conscience dictates we should do for appearance sake—or are we just taking advantage of an extra day to relax and enjoy ourselves?
It is something that we can be quite simple and fundamental about. Possibly, there is nothing better than we could do on this Remembrance Day to survey ourselves, satisfy ourselves that we have not been as good citizens and as good neighbors as we might have been and, in true remembrance of those who fought and died that we may retain our way of living, resolve each in our own way, with consideration and firm intent, to become, in true Remembrance better citizens in respect to our neighbors, to our community, to our nation, to our world.
If on Remembrance Day we may just realize that this world can be no better a world than we are citizens of it, we may help in the trend towards a better and brighter day than Remembrance Day, 1947.
First of all, it is something for each of us personally—Real Remembrance is not something for the other fellow. To even suggest that he is not doing what he should do that it is only alibiing for ourselves.

Latest Wage Offer Rejected, Labor Minister to Take Hand

VANCOUVER (CP)—The transit strike in Vancouver, New Westminster and Victoria, which forced more than 200,000 street car and bus riders to seek makeshift transportation, today appeared no nearer a settlement than three weeks ago when the strike began following overwhelming rejection Saturday night by the Street Railwaymen's Union (A.F.L.) of the latest settlement offer.
Striking transit workers voted 2016 to 510 in favor of rejecting the return-to-work offer of an immediate ten-cent an hour pay boost and 40-hour week by September 1948.
The street railwaymen had demanded increases of 20c an hour and an immediate forty-hour week.
However, George Morrison, international vice-president of the Union, called for immediate reopening of negotiations with the British Columbia Electric Co. and the intervention of Labor Minister Gordon Wismer.
The minister of labor, in Seattle today, stated that he would proceed to Vancouver. He was ready to take a hand at any time he was requested. Application for his intervention was expected to be made following a meeting of civic representatives of Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster today.

NEWFIE DEAL IS ATTACKED

Premier Duplessis of Quebec Charges Federal Government With Arrogance
QUEBEC, C.—Premier Duplessis has accused the federal authorities of "anti-Canadian arrogance" in negotiations for what he termed "annexation" of Newfoundland. He questioned the right of the federal government to offer terms to Newfoundland "without consulting the provinces, particularly Quebec."

Duplessis said the proposals to Newfoundland represented an "increase of the taxpayers' burden" at a time when federal income taxation was "excessive and exorbitant."

LEGION HOLDS ANNUAL PARADE TO CATHEDRAL

Canadian Legion and Women's Auxiliary members numbering more than 100 marched behind the Prince Rupert Civic Band Sunday morning in the annual Remembrance Day church parade to St. Andrew's Cathedral where tribute to their fallen comrades in the first and second world wars was made from the pulpit.
Wearing their blue forage caps with badges denoting the number of their Legion post, the 65 Legionnaires—ex-servicemen of three wars—revived the brisk marching style of their military training as they followed the band and the standard bearers from the Legion Hall to the cathedral. J. S. Wilson was parade marshal. Legion President V. G. Houston headed the parade.
Thirty-five members of the Women's Auxiliary followed the men in the march and the whole body filled the left nave of the church as they took their seats.
The parade entered the cathedral as the organ chimes sounded, the standard bearers holding the colors at the chancel steps until received by the clergy during the first hymn.
The Legion colors and Union Jack were borne by Harry Calderwood and Frank Hicks. Standard bearers for the Women's Auxiliary were Mrs. William Rothwell and Mrs. G. V. Hanley.
Following the two-minute period of silence, the "Last Post" was sounded by Bugler W. J. Rance. Then the service began with the singing of the hymn "O God Our Help in Ages Past," a prayer and psalm reading, and the reading of the lesson by Legion President Vic Houston. A choral anthem "Blessed Are The Dead" and the hymn "O Valiant Hearts" preceded the sermon.
With appropriate comparison to military discipline, Rev. C. A. Lomas delivered a sermon in which he declared that Christ was the greatest commander of all time and that his two great "orders" to mankind were "Love the Lord" and "Love Thy neighbor."
Rev. Basil S. Prockter, rector of St. Andrew's, and Bishop J. B. Gibson led in the prayers and psalm reading. The service concluded with the sounding of "Reveille" and the hymn "Abide With Me."
When the parade returned to the Legion Hall, the members held an informal gathering at which Legion President Vic Houston welcomed the members and ladies and addressed tributes to the Women's Auxiliary and the Civic Band.

The work of the Women's Auxiliary in support of the Legion, he said, was beyond evaluation and was the key to much of the vigor of the organization. His thanks were given to Bandmaster Peter Lier, and the band members for their co-operation in Legion functions.

Forty Volunteers Bring Bundles Of Plane Victims Bodies Down Icy Slopes of Tamgas Mountain

KETCHIKAN—Some forty local volunteers are assisting the United States Army in bringing down from the top of Tamgas Mountain on Annette Island bodies of seventeen victims of the recent DC-4 plane crash there. By the end of this week it is expected the grim and arduous task of bringing the bundles down the steep mountainside to Tamgas Lake, whence they are being transported out by plane, will have been completed. Fourteen bodies of the 18 victims have now been identified with only one still unaccounted for.
A report to Commander J. H. Jensen said today that 17 bodies in 16 bundles were ready at the army camp to be brought out. It did not specify the name of the missing passenger.
An Ellis Airlines Bellanca was sent to land in upper Tamgas Lake in hopes it could fly the bodies out from there. If not, Commander Jensen said a skiff and outboard motor would be packed to the small upper lake and would be used to tow the bodies on rubber rafts through the outlet to Tamgas Lake where larger planes have been landing. This plan would save a haul of about three miles overland.
It takes four men to move each body down the icy mountainside, Commander Jensen was informed by Lieutenant Commander F. Scheiber in charge of the crews on the mountain.

Only Russia Not Working With Aim of Restoration

Is Vital to Future of United States and World—Situation As Fateful As In War Years, Declares Marshall
WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—Secretary of State George Marshall today asked United States Congress to supply $957,000,000 emergency aid to meet "real" and "urgent" need in France, Italy and Austria. Appearing before a joint committee of Senate and House of Representatives foreign committees, Marshall said that long-range help for these and other countries may eventually cost the United States from $16,000,000 to $20,000,000. That is higher than 19-man citizens' committee estimated but the Secretary of State said that it was impossible to calculate the amount correctly now.
Marshall told the legislators that decision in the forthcoming special session of Congress, opening December 5, "will be no less important for the future of our country and the world than those of the war years."
The Secretary of State occasionally criticized Russia, saying that, while Britain, France and the United States formed policies to restore Europe to health, it was now clear that only one power, the Soviet Union, does not share this aim.

POLICE HALT POSSIBLE THEFT

What the police believe was a possible attempt to break and enter a west end store Saturday night was forestalled when two constables, acting on a tip, rushed to Heigerson's Grocery at the intersection of Second and Third Avenues where a window had been broken.
They questioned, and later released, two juveniles who admitted breaking the window, but said it was accidental. Apparently no entry had been made into the store.
Occupant of a nearby house, seeing the two youths at the rear of the store became suspicious and when he later heard the crash of broken glass, telephoned the police. The two lads attempted to flee when they saw Corporal Taylor and Constable Davidson approach in the police car, but were caught.
No charges were laid against them.

Labor Council Names Daggett As Its Mayoralty Candidate

Rudderham, Wallin, Hills and Black To Contest Aldermanic Seats
Supported by the Prince Rupert Trades and Labor Council, ex-Mayor Harry M. Daggett will seek to regain the chief magistrateship which he lost at last December's elections to Mayor Nora E. Arnold who also has announced herself as candidate for the forthcoming two-year mayoralty term.
Mr. Daggett's candidature was announced formally this morning following a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council Sunday afternoon in the Carpenter's Hall where delegates from the labor unions in the city also endorsed four aldermanic candidates.
Nomination of Trades and La-only present member of council who has announced his desire to return to office.

Mr. Daggett is bidding to regain the position of Mayor which he held for three consecutive one-year terms under sponsorship of the defunct Civic Labor Federation.
Mayor Arnold announced her intention to run for office for a two-year term a week ago.
Two of the labor candidates, Alderman Rudderham and Mr. Hills, have served several terms since city council took over from the commissionaries in 1942. Alderman Rudderham has served continuously since January, 1944, while Mr. Hills served from January 1, 1942, until he was defeated at the polls last year. Alderman Rudderham was an alderman for several years before commissionarieship.
August Wallin is president of the Trades and Labor Council and was chairman of Sunday's meeting.
Mrs. J. S. Black, president of the Canadian Legion Women's Auxiliary and active in labor circles, was an unsuccessful aldermanic candidate last year.

Gifts Where Needed

ONCE more a Christmas season, which has every prospect of being merry for the most of us, is approaching. We Canadians can look forward with happy contemplation to the joys and the pleasures of the occasion of "peace and goodwill."

We would do well to stop and think that the most of the world is not as fortunate as we. In fact, we are the small minority that shall have joys and gifts in abundance.

There are movements and organizations—yes, here in Prince Rupert, too—which may be the media for us to do even just a little to lighten the lot of people in other parts of the world who still have little to look forward to in the way of Christmas joy. Our sustained contributions thereto would be well justified.

If we would be truly Christmas-like in spirit, we would make provision in the gifts which we lavish this Christmas to see that at least some of our blessings reach peoples whose need and appreciation would be manifoldly greater than those whom we would normally think about and reach.

TIME TO GET BUSY

SHOWING some signs of life during the customary between-election somnolence, the Prince Rupert Liberal Association, at its annual meeting last week, decided that it should bestir itself by at least launching a publicity campaign. It remains to be seen if it is to be just another annual meeting resolution, whether it will have the usual follow-up of such resolutions which usually seems to be just nothing.

The old line parties should by this time be aware that the political activity in season and out, the campaign which starts the day after one election and is carried on throughout the years intervening until the next, is a large factor in the successes that the Socialist party, for instance, may have. If the Liberal party were equally as active, it too could be successful. In fact, it will have to develop and sustain activity and enthusiasm now so lacking, if it is to regain lost ground.

Letters to the Editor

LIBERAL SECRETARYSHIP
Editor, Daily News:
Referring to your recent report of the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association, it should be made clear that S. G. Furk was nominated for the secretaryship in his absence from the city and that his election was subject to his acceptance and, therefore, is not a fact until such time as he has opportunity to accept or decline.
EDWARD T. APPELWHITE,
Acting Secretary.

BACKS MRS. ARNOLD
Editor, Daily News:
I would like to say, like plenty of other people in the city, that we have never had a better mayor than Mrs. Arnold who is going to run again. She is a proper lady, kind and considerate, who always has time to listen to everybody concerning the city and the citizens.
Two years ago I was in need of a place to rent where I would not have to climb upstairs. A kind lady offered me and my little boy a nice cabin but the city engineer at that time condemned the cabin and, when I appealed to Mayor Daggert, he said he could not interfere.
Then I went to Mr. Forbes at the Court House who rented me a cabin on Fraser Street but came to me a few days later and said the city engineer had also condemned that place.
If Mrs. Arnold had been in office then, I am sure she would have found out about these things. She has always been honest and upright in her dealings.

Letter of Ald. Casey

To Mr. and Mrs. Montchall of Pioneers' Home
The following letter has been addressed to Mr. and Mrs. Montchall, supervisors of the Pioneer Home, by Ald. G. R. Casey:

"Kindly allow me to tender my sincere apology for any remarks made by myself on or about October 20 at the Old Men's Home that I have reason to believe hurt your feelings. For that I am truly sorry and admit that I was completely out of order in my procedure although I still affirm interdiction proceedings as taken against the four inmates was too severe a penalty to be imposed for life as the old people are only there awaiting death, the great emancipator of both poverty and wealth.

"Now, Mr. and Mrs. Montchall, I stand second to none in grateful recognition of the faithful service you render at the home in the discharge of your duty but now, as the season of the year approaches of Peace on Earth and Goodwill to Men, in the name of One who gave his life that all might be released from their sins, I think it would be a fitting gesture in honor of that great approaching season of joy for Mr. Montchall, superintendent, and the board of governors to have the interdiction of those four old men removed so they be restored to their full rights as citizens. The incident, I believe, will have served its purpose as a warning to all as to what can be done if the rules of the Home are not observed.

"Kindly give this letter the same publicity as the indictment against me received."
Sincerely,
GEO. B. CASEY.

JAMES HAMPTON LAID AT REST

Final respects were paid yesterday afternoon to the memory of James Hampton, well known pioneer citizen who passed away at his home on Friday after a long illness.

The chapel of the B.C. Undertakers, Fraser Street, was filled, family members and numerous old friends being present. Service was conducted by Rev. Basil S. Prockter, rector of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral.

There were many beautiful floral tributes. Mr. Prockter spoke of the deceased's long residence in Prince Rupert and of the esteem in which he was held. There was reference to the sense of loss—the overwhelming sadness felt when a loved one passes. In life's morning, human existence has brightness. There are joys. But life, as it lengthens, takes on age and weakness. It fades and disappears. Yet there is solace in the divine promise that God makes all things new.

The hymns were "Rock of Ages" and "Lead Kindly Light." The organist was Mrs. J. C. Gilker. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery. The pallbearers were Ralph Walker, R. G. Coles, Ald. Robt. McKay, Gilbert Campbell, Chas. Currie and W. J. Raymond.

Modern Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE
Q. Isn't one justified in asking a boisterous person in a public place to be less noisy?
A. Yes; but as this boisterous person is likewise rude, he is very likely to resent the request, and it is better to complain to some one in authority.

Q. May a young man invite a young girl to a week-end party at his home?
A. The invitation to a young girl who is a friend of the son of the family must always come from the mother, or from his sister.

Q. Should one allow his child to stand up or sit on the arm of his chair in a theatre?
A. No. This is a very selfish act, as it obstructs the view of persons seated behind.

Q. When two persons are not on speaking terms, and are seated at the table, is it necessary for them to talk to each other?
A. Yes. It is rude and ill-bred if they do not. Such action might be overlooked in children, but not in adults.

IN THE COURSE OF A YEAR, the International Nickel Company buys about 7500 tons of sulphuric acid and 2500 tons of muriatic acid. About 2500 tons of soda ash and 1500 tons of salt are used annually, as well as large quantities of xanthate and other chemicals for the flotation process.

In the manufacture and processing of chemicals, Nickel and its alloys are in almost universal use for tanks, kettles, pipe, pumps, valves, evaporators, and practically every other piece of equipment which comes in contact with the corrosive substances.

The wide use of chemicals by the Canadian Nickel industry provides employment in the chemical industry. # REMEMBRANCE DAY...

*Tribute to Our Dead . . .
Salute to Our Veterans . . .*

PRINCE RUPERT will join with all Canada on Tuesday, November 11, in honoring her men and women who marched away to two World Wars—and gave of themselves, even their lives, that we might remain a free people in a free nation.

Many of our gallant soldiers, sailors and airmen did not return to enjoy the rights for which they fought—but they live and will continue to live in our hearts and memories.

As we wear a little blood-red poppy and stand with bowed head for two minutes at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, we will be humbly thanking those who paid the Supreme Sacrifice and pledging ourselves anew to work with our returned Heroes to make this a better Canada in which to live.

November 11, anniversary of the ending of the First World War, become even more significant when we also think in terms of the war which followed it. For each war is always bigger and more tragic than the last. We can create no more fitting memorial to all our war dead and our living heroes than the preservation of this world as a peaceful world and the creation of a bigger and better Canada.

Prince Rupert is rightfully proud of the part she played in both wars and is grateful for the magnificent contributions of her men and women who donned uniforms to carry the fight against the foe.

But it is not enough to buy poppies and gather at the Cenotaph once a year. Our duty to our Veterans and ourselves is to help those of sound body to reap the benefits of their great service and, particularly, to assist those crippled and maimed to find gainful employment and an honored place in our community.

Partially disabled Veterans should be encouraged for they are capable of handling many and varied jobs. Thousands in this Dominion are proving this fact every day. It remains, therefore, for us in Prince Rupert and district to encourage still others to do the same. Our interest in their welfare will give them new faith in themselves and new strength.

They have done their duty nobly and well.

Our duty to them is clear. We cannot hope to match their devotion and service to us—BUT WE CAN TRY.

Prince Rupert! Let us stand in silent tribute for two minutes in honor of our glorious Fighting Forces—and then let us go forward, arm in arm with our Veterans, to a bigger and brighter day.

ORDER OF SERVICE
AT THE CENOTAPH

"At the going down of the sun and in the morning, we shall remember them." "O Valiant hearts, who in their glory, died."

"Lest We Forget"

By ADELE CURRIE HUGHES

A blaze of poppies on an Autumn morn,
A drumbeat and the tread of marching men—
The comrades of the Dead! Remember, then,
The weary trail by blood and sorrow torn;
These gave their lives that peace might be reborn;
To wear the poppy and to sigh again,
Empty remembrance! 'Tis to press again
The crown of thorns upon the Brow forlorn.
Children, well-fed, well-housed serene,
The aged who know they truly may "Fear not";
These be the flowers to honor the dear dead,
These be the gifts that bloody war has bought;
For if its fruits be not a world remade,
Again the crown of thorns is worn for naught.

Suggestions for Fall Use of Cold Frames

Every complete garden needs a cold frame. It is a most useful tool, not merely in the spring, but all year around. If you lack this aid to garden success, fall is a good time to build it, and the illustration shows how it may be constructed and put to immediate use for rooting winter flowering bulbs. Hyacinths, early tulips, narcissi and daffoperennial seedlings. If you planted them late they will no doubt need some additional protection, and the cold frame will provide it. The best all-around method is to pot the plants, and set them into the frame. Such treatment assures them a few more weeks of growth, and will enable them to benefit from extra warmth in the spring and get an early start. They will also be easily transplanted.

Two lovely perennials which are difficult to grow without protection are the foxgloves with their stately spires, and the canterbury bells. Although they are perfectly hardy so far as cold weather is concerned, they are very susceptible to wet weather, and thawing and freezing. There is only one safe dils are the principal ones which need a dark, cool situation to encourage early root formation. Bury them in the frame bed in the pots you expect to grow them in, and when roots have developed sufficiently, bring them indoors for the quick growth of the tops and blossoms. The frosts of late fall bring to mind problems of harboring way to grow them in cold climates and that is by wintering them in a cold frame, where they will be safe from wet and the changes in temperature will be tempered by the glass of the frame. Transplant them to the frame in the fall about 2 inches apart each way.

LIFE in this Prince Rupert

by BIDDEE JINKS

I had a "co'd id the dose." Lots of people get them, know they are coming and, according to Hobart Reiman, M.D., spend a fortune in cough syrups and other remedies in an attempt to help themselves. I'm different all around. Cough syrups are bogus in my opinion, and a waste of good money—and any way I never know a cold is on the way until all of a sudden my breath refuses to be drawn through nature's dual channels but comes in huge puffy draughts through an aperture serving now as stoker and chimney. And as if then by a signal from some dark demon straight out of Greater Discomfort, there are complications. The useless chimney takes on color—lots of color. And water forms furiously behind the lids of both eyes (one far more copious) and tumbles over apologetic rims in warm rivulets. Then, always, I get company.

This last time there were two—two nurses. My upper lip was stiff, but they were certainly a credit to their profession. It was the way they kept right on hem-stitching and embroidering as if in pleasant company. They even looked straight at me, occasionally, without once shuddering or change of expression. They conversed with me, intelligently, too, understanding quite remarkably the thick jargon that would make the mumbler look like an elocutionist.

The next day, in spite of assuring them that "I fee' fide," I reclined miserably in the warmest, comfiest place in the house. Those spring-filled, respiratory mattresses make a few days in their company a thing not to be sneezed at. Only I did. Hours were filled with continuations of sputtering and coughing and it was uncanny how anything as painful as my head could be so other, my eyes went shut—really tight, the other slightly ajar, so that I earned, and got, a frequent "Well, how's Old John Silver today?" from a sympathetic spouse.

In fact, I got so I treated my topknot as tenderly as a gouty foot (if I had one). A balmy blue woolen scarf wound its way around and around it. And I felt better—until the only man who frequents my bedroom asked: "That thing what you call a fascinator?" I nodded in the affirmative and tried to look as perky as I could with one eye, glad he had noticed me lying there. "Well—'twould take more than that to make you fascinating these days, my pet," he said, and withdrew, convulsed with a wicked, perverted sense of humor.

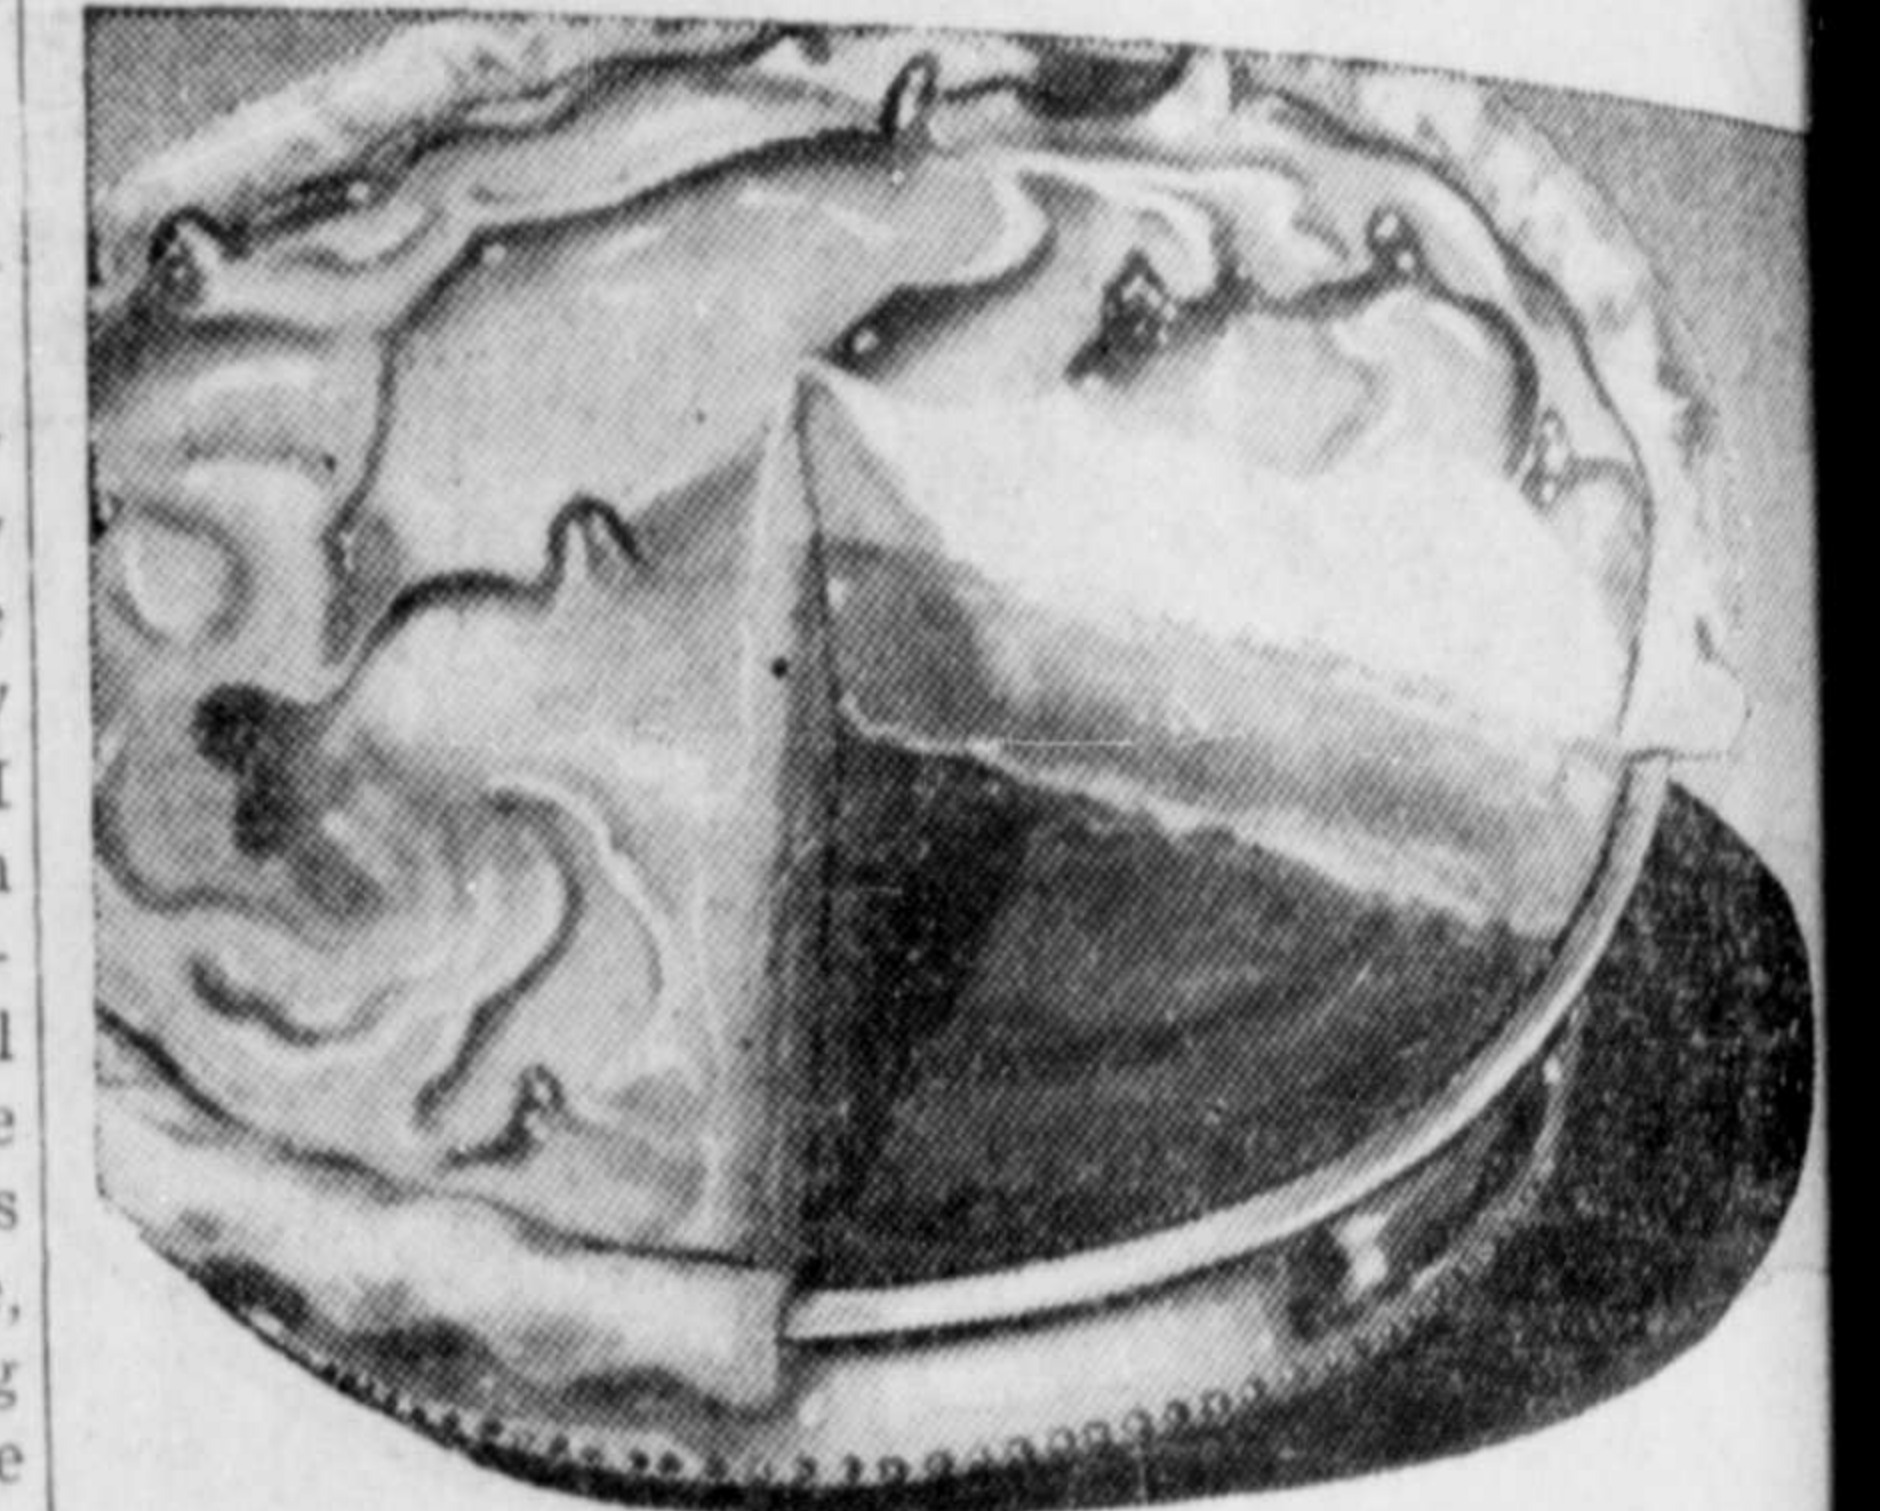

After a few days, with the crisis past, kind friends came to call. They probably knew my funeral will be one marked with "no flowers by request" so they came early, bringing a more lasting, brighter type of blossom. Something like that must have been in mind for the first dear little foot had hardly crossed the threshold when she exclaimed: "My word!—but your room smells like a funeral!" My face just possibly registered some reaction for she hastened to make amends. "Not a funeral, but an undertaker's parlor. The flowers and the inhaling and everything—"

Conversation was lumpy for a moment or two, then was off again at an even keel. Until I mentioned having opened the window to freshen the room. It was a mistake, fastened on immediately by my comforting caller. "I know—I know," she clucked in deep understanding. "I know just how it is. A per-thick as my head could be so breathe. Do you know," she studied me carefully, "my grandfather died gasping for air—just gasping for air—"

Gasping also for one more breath I was practically speechless with terror. "Con-hereditary—I mean, lack of air? My grand-died from the same no air!"

SERVING CANADIANS THROUGH CHEMISTRY

Chemistry?

IT'S MY GREATEST ALLY!

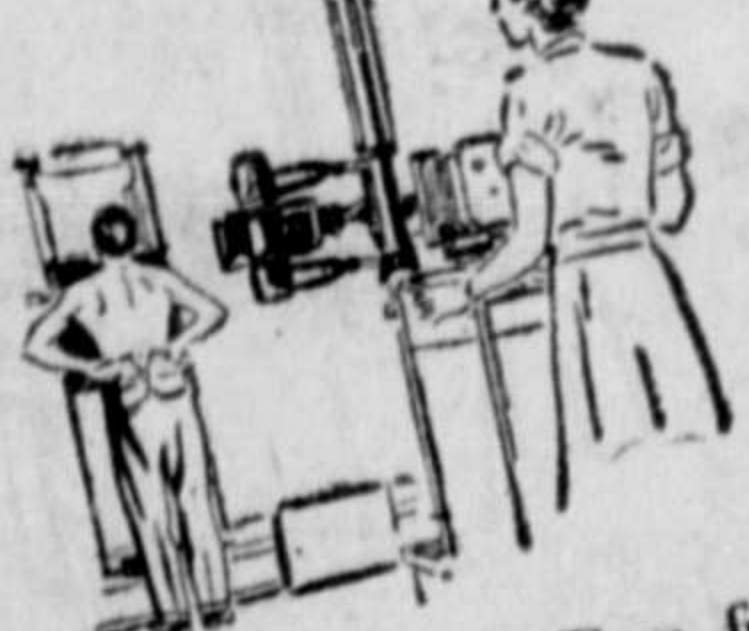

THE DOCTOR is the one man who sees below the surface, who knows from first-hand experience what Chemistry means to health and to our general well-being.

Aside from its great work in water purification through chlorine and in disease prevention through pest destruction, it helps the medical man in countless other ways.

Chemistry produces light-conducting "Lucite" to be fashioned into instruments for internal examinations; X-Ray film, and chemicals for developing it; skin-grafting cement; sutures of nylon monofilament; cellulose sponges; anaesthetics and many other medical and surgical aids.

Yes, Chemistry is with us everywhere, ever seeking and finding new methods and materials. The C-I-L oval is the symbol of an organization devoted to serving Canadians through chemistry.

PRODUCE PLANNING PLAN

Plan to meet Commonwealth's Need For New Dwellings

LESLIE BRODIE
City Press Staff Writer

Australia, 7.—Faced ever-increasing demand for housing, the Australian government plans to mass-produce to meet needs of ex-has been acquired, and service homes division directorate of works and is ready to call for tenders.

Division estimates it must build 10,000 homes immediately, more than half of them produced at costs well below individual construction.

Year there were only 100 service homes compared to a total of 16,250 apartments. These applications are to more than 20,000 men, although the rate of construction remained static.

Estimated that there are about 350,000 houses short of requirements in Australia despite every effort by the federal and state governments to solve the position.

Reason is the accumulation of new factories, hospitals and schools that had to be met.

It is the tug-of-war between labor and employers, with former seeking legal sanction arbitration courts for gains they have been to make while labor has lost, and the latter thinking must fight vigorously to move by employees for 10 hours or higher pay.

ERS
ing workers are split by angle for power between big unions that control them. The left-wing Workers' Industrial absorbs militants, while of-the-roaders throw in with the moderate Builders' Laborers' union.

Federal government has most of the brickbats from the housing shortage although the major power housing rests with state governments.

EDUCATION TALK TO TERRACE P.-T.

Hot Lunch Program at School is Going Over

TERRACE—There was a good turn-out of members at the Parent-Teachers' Association meeting in the Orange Hall on Thursday. Mrs. C. deKergommeaux, president, was in the chair when Bruce Barr, principal of the High School, gave a very interesting Education Week talk the members thoroughly appreciated.

Reporting on the school lunch program which was inaugurated at the primary school this week, Mrs. Campbell, lunch committee treasurer, said that 95 per cent of the children had already paid their 50 cents for the month with the remainder of the money expected in the next week. Even at that, at the present day cost of provisions, the Association would have to meet the extra cost of soup which will amount to over $10 monthly.

Mrs. Phillips, lunch convener, stated that she was short of volunteer helpers and it would help her a great deal if the members, mothers and even those who are neither members nor have children going to school but who are interested in the work, would come forward with offers of help. One day a month for one and a half to two hours at the primary school was all that is asked of anyone. Mrs. Gavan offered to care for the children of any mother who wanted to help out but was prevented from doing so by having small children at home.

From part of last year's funds, $50 worth of library books were to be purchased for the High School, with a sum almost as large allotted for the elementary school library.

It was announced at the meeting that donations of toys or games for the Women's Institute parcel to a family in Holland could be left at the home of Mrs. Dudley Little.

Miss Janet Young's plans for forming a school orchestra in which she asked the support of the P.T.A. were left over until another meeting when Miss Young will be there to talk to the members.

A contest will be arranged for as soon as possible, details of which will be posted up very shortly. At the close of the business session, coffee and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Haaland of the social committee.

Timely Topics from Terrace

There will be a meeting of the Terrace District Teachers' Association at the Hazelton Intermediate School on Tuesday and Miss Robson of the primary school will represent the Terrace teachers there.

A Red Cross executive meeting was held in the Red Cross rooms on Friday evening with a good attendance. President Corey was in the chair. Routine business was disposed of. Attempts to start Home Nursing classes in Terrace have met with no success.

Mr. Corey and Mr. McAdam, president of the hospital board, reported that it is confidently expected to have the hospital opened in the near future.

Nigel Sherwood, Town Clerk, is seriously ill at his home here and Mrs. Sherwood arrived from Smithers on Friday to move him

Mrs. E. Sande and Mrs. C. Holden were passengers to Prince Rupert on Thursday's train returning on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Minard of Vancouver are guests at the Philbert Hotel. Mr. Minard is with the War Assets Corporation and is here in connection with the closing of the former Army camp.

SCOUT LEADER VISITS TERRACE

Gives Demonstrations To Local Troop There

TERRACE—Mr. Thain, B. C. Scout Field Commissioner, who is making a trip through the Cariboo and Northern B. C., spent two days in Terrace last week. He is making the journey to advise and help scout organizations wherever such advice is needed. He stated that he would have visited more places on the way, where he has since learned of scout activities being established, but so many of them have not been registered at Headquarters in Vancouver, that they were unknown to him when he left the south.

On Wednesday evening Mr. Thain took full charge of the scouts in the Anglican Church Hall, and spent the entire evening giving demonstrations of what could be done with a group of scouts.

At a meeting of the scout committee held later in the evening, a number of questions were asked, and answered by him. There was a long discussion about the uniform with the commissioner expressing the opinion that Khaki "longs" should be worn by the boys living where winters are severe. However, permission for the boys to wear "longs" must be given from Ottawa as the Scout Commissioner, Kenneth Jordan, in Vancouver, has no power to make any changes in the uniform.

SHORT SPORT
Officials of the Kent County Football Association in Britain are a bunch of meanies, say the women. And they have a pretty solid reason for thinking so. The association has suspended Referee Eddie Turner because he refuses to quit Kent Ladies' Football Club, of which he is manager and trainer. Their reason: girls' football brings the game into disrepute—although the club plays only to aid charity and already has raised more than $8,000. Turner is sticking to the girls because he thinks they are doing what in normal times would have been classified as a man's job. 'Where would the country be now if the powers-that-be said: 'that is a man's job and girls must not do it—they might bring it into disrepute?'

STONE'S HOLD LEAGUE LEAD

But Thorncliff's Creeping up in Five Pin Bowling League
Thorncliff's scored a clean sweep three games to nil victory over Scotians in the Men's Five Pin Bowling League at the end of the week and moved to within two points of the league leadership now held by Stone's who won two games to one over Maple Leafs. Other winners of the week's scheduled fixtures were Grotto over Thom's Sheet Metal, Moose over Co-ops, Army Signals over Canfisco and Mutts over Fish Dock with two to one scores in each case.

High individual score of the session was by E. Mussalem of Thorncliffs—284—while high three games was 748 by R. Tubb of Grotto. High team game was 1039 by Stone's and high three games—2819—by Grotto. Individual scoring was as follows:

Senior Match Close Affair

Co-ops squeezed out a one-point lead over the Brownwoods in the Senior Basketball League Saturday night. The fishermen took the lead right from the start and held it to the finish. First quarter score was 18 to 8; second quarter, 22-20; third quarter 34-33 and final score 48-47.

It was a case of experience defeating youth. MacPhee and Lindsay went on a shooting spree. Each got 19 points. Beynon turned in one of his best games for many a moon. He made no points but set up all the plays for his teammates. Menzies and Bill turned in a good game in the little while they played.

Gurvich, Ciccone, Lavigne and Forman were the big guns for Brownwoods. Comadina and Calderoni, the recording officials, issued 40 personals, 19 against the Co-op and 21 against Brownwoods. The Intermediate game between Fashion Footwear and Merchants was a thriller. The Shoemen had a good lead in the first quarter of 12-2 but at the end of the first half the Merchants had cut it down, the score being 14-11. At the end of the third quarter the Shoemen were leading 22-19 but they lost the lead in the last few minutes of the game.

The referees, Calderoni and Holkestad, dished out 32 personals, 20 on Fashion Footwear and 12 on the Merchants. 65 cabsters strengthened their leadership in the Junior circuit by trouncing the Gyros 33 to 10. The Taximen took an early lead and were never headed. Individual scoring: 65—D. Bill 6, Holt 4, Ratchford 6, Webster 7, VVan Pyhstra 4, Martinson 6, Sedgwick, O. Olsen, Antone, 33.

Gyros—Marshall, Sather 5, Hills, Hartwig 4, Macara 1, Young, Slater, MacFarlane, Toderas, 10. Intermediate Fashion Footwear—Arntsen 2, Intermela 8, Pettersen, Slatta 9, Teng 3, Shepherd 1, James 3, Johnson, Menzies, 26. Merchants—Hebb 5, Haugen 6, Currie 6, Owen 1, Moore 1, Scher 2, Youngman 2, Sunberg 5, Mercer, 28.

Senior Co-op—A. McPhee 19, D. Arney 1, R. Gill, Lindsay 19, J. Haugen 5, B. Pierce 3, Beynon, R. Menzies 1, 48. Brownwoods—Gurvich 3, Pierce 1, Forman 14, Pettinuzo 2, Thompson 5, V. Ciccone 15, Hartwig, Lavigne 7, 47.

the gals must have a way with them. Since Britain's no-foreign-travel ban in October the Treasury let it be known that unless sporting teams can enhance the country's prestige in foreign countries, or bring back sufficient financial return, they must stay at home. But there's a loophole in the Treasury's armor-plated heart somewhere, and the England ladies' field hockey team found it. Just one week after the Treasury banned a trip to Germany by the Viking Rugby Club, the gals got the okay to go to the United States. Field hockey can't be rated as "big box-office" either in the U.S. or Canada and sports clubs are wondering just what made the Treasury break down.

Somerset County cricket supporters' club is in the doghouse. It has tried to give Somerset $800 but it was turned down because the cricket club has decided it will not recognize the supporters. It hasn't given a reason for this non-recognition—but probably it's the principle, old boy.

POPPIES BLOOM ON CITY STREETS

Poppies, bright red symbols of remembrance, bloomed on hundreds of coat lapels and hats in Prince Rupert Saturday as more than three score children and Canadian Legion ladies sold them on downtown streets in the Legion's annual poppy tag day to aid disabled veterans.

The poppies will be worn again on Remembrance Day, tomorrow, when citizens turn out to attend the ceremonies of the Cenotaph honoring the dead of the first and second World Wars.

Proceeds from the tag day totalled $487, it was announced this morning.

Winners of the five $1 prizes for highest sales were Mary Doane, who turned in $20.50; Bobby Watts, $19.98; Dorothy Hibbard, $10.69; Phillip Lyons, $10.66 and Connie Rothwell, $15.76.

Extra theatre tickets for the next eleven highest sales went to Rolande Turcotte, $11.27; Frances Murphy, $11.02; Shirley Haugan, $10.87; Bert Tipton, $10.50; Mary Olsen, $10.00; Ernie Wallace, $9.97; Pat Tipton, $8.99; Gordon Finlayson, $8.75; Gail Shannon, $8.25; Ed Olsen $8.01; Olive Strand, $8.01.

Saturday morning, 61 children took boxes of blood-red poppies and cash boxes and posted themselves along Third Avenue and in other business sections to exchange them for coins which will aid the disabled soldiers.

the Legion Women's Auxiliary took part in the canvass.

For the children whose major effort was made Saturday morning, the W. A. had posted $5 in prizes, to be divided equally between the five canvassers who turned in the greatest amount of money. The Legion provided theatre tickets for the ten top sellers.

YEAR SENTENCES FOLLOWING THEFT

Two men will spend a year in jail with hard labor and a third six months with hard labor for breaking and entering and theft as a result of sentences handed down in police court at the week-end by Magistrate W. D. Vance.

Sentenced to a year in jail plus hard labor were Roy Innes and Fred White, both of whom had pleaded guilty to break and enter charges. Innes admitted entering the auction rooms of J. H. Mair on the night of October 31 and White pleaded guilty to a similar charge at Little's News Stand on the same night.

William Heavener, who pleaded guilty on Wednesday to entering a private room and taking a case of beer, which he later sold to an Indian, was sentenced to six months at hard labor.

A fine of $100 was levied against John Maksymshyn who was found guilty of a charge of theft from a person. He was charged with taking a sum of money from James Leeson.

Leonard Parnell, who pleaded guilty to a charge of vagrancy after he had kicked in a window in Ello's Furniture store, was sentenced to three months in jail.

Movie Stars Again Visit Jasper Park

When, a few seasons ago, the Emperor Waltz was staged amid the splendors of Jasper National Park, some of the stars promised themselves they would return some day. These promises were kept, to judge from the record of the season just closed. Among the Hollywood people who journeyed north again to enjoy the mountains, the fishing, golf and many other attractions were Victor Young, musical director and wife, Bing Crosby, Wally Westmore with wife and family, as well as others.

IRISH FAMILY SETTLES HERE

From Eire's capital city of Dublin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown and family have arrived in Prince Rupert to make their future home. The children are Mary Ann, aged 10; Therese, 9, and Dermot, 2. For the time being, they are residing at 416 Green Street with Mr. Brown's step-brother, A. W. Brown.

The family had been considering coming to Canada for some time and the name Prince Rupert became familiar to them through the recent visit to Dublin of Bishop Anthony Jordan of this city. Mr. Brown says that he and his family were greatly impressed with the kindness of Canada and particularly those of Prince Rupert.

The two girls will resume their studies at Annunciation School here. Mary attended a school in Dublin where all subjects were taught through the medium of Gaelic. Yet she speaks English fluently since it is still the predominant language in Eire.

$37.48, Borden Street, $13.35, King Edward $8.75 and Conrad Street, $7.75.

Sales of wreaths, and poppies to merchants etc. for decoration of store windows etc. amounted to approximately $300.
