No Further Increases Are Justified, Chancellor of Exchequer Says

LONDON, (P) - Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton, in presenting his budget yesterday, warned that it would be impossible to increase any further increases in food subsidies. Existing subsidies on leather, cotton and wool will disappear next year, he said.

Mr. Dalton also announced that in future three per cent interest would be charged on arrears in income tax, surtax, profits tax and excess profits tax.

There will be no increase in the tobacco duty.

The Bus Franchise

MATH OPINION definitely divided as to who. should be the concessionaire even after the council made a close decision on the matter, there would appear to be possibility, if not likelihood, that the bylaw which it is proposed to present at the civic election on the question of granting a bus franchise may be rejected not because it is undesirable to grant a franchise but because of the differences as to who should have it.

It is not doubt time that the matter of a bus franchise should be settled one way or the other but, if the bylaw should be rejected, it would only be that much more time lost. The council might be well advised to consider if something in the nature of a plebiscite might not be advisable to get a democratic decision on the matter as to whether a franchise should be granted and who should be the concessionaire. Then there might be more likelihood of the franchise being approved not only by the voters themselves but by the Public Utilities Commission as well.

So Writes Roland Wild in "The Ocean Falls is the scene of a People" of London, England

(By Roland Wild) Ever hear of a "Company Town? This beauty spot—Ocean of the world. Falls 400 miles north of the American border and half-way (London, Eng.). to Alaska, is owned and operated by a paper-making firm. It has no mayor, but a "town- CLIFFORD FUND site manager" and a committee drawn from workers in the factory. There are 2,500 inhabitants, of which about half have jobs which directed the raising of a cheaply, complete with steam heat pumped through an immense pipe that runs up the main street from the mill. BRIGHT AND CHEERFUL

There are no private cars because there is only one mile of road, and the mountains crowd the brightly painted wooden houses and apartment blocks almost into the sea.

The company owns all the land. It owns the only store, the movie theatre, the electric plant, the wharves and the three churches. It encourages skiing clubs, tennis clubs, shooting and fishing clubs and sponsors the new school. And it gives you a diamond stickpin when you have sentence? The Ocean Falls experiment began in 1917, and has been watched by students of town management ever since. It's a good life, they say in Pulpanpapertown. The pay is good, and the American company that runs the mill guarantees full employment even in a slump. There is no sign of the world becoming less hungry for paper -newsprint for all the papers the world (boxes and wrapping paper and the paper handkerchiefs which the American women use in thousands. It's a river of paper, they say, starting only 50 miles away in the forests of the Queen Charlotte Islands, where the bears and the wolves run free, and ending with the ships for Australia and the United Kingdom pulling into this natural harbor.

The company boasts of its ski champions, who can train five miles away from December to May. They claim a marksman champion, who can shoot deer and bear within half-an-hour's walk. The indoor swimming pool and the bowling alley are run by the company.

ONE WAY TRAFFIC

There isn't any crime in Ocean Falls, for the two constables say they only have to stand at the gangplank for a few days to catch anybody. There isn't any other way out of town. Back of the mountain there is nothing at all until you reach the Arctic Circle and the Eskimos.

Every nut and bolt, every yard of cloth and pound of sugar comes at least 350 miles from Vancouver by boat, though Clifford Cameron, who runs the general store for the company, says he can keep down to big, city prices in spite of the freight rates. And since nobody can keep a cow alive, Cameron also! runs the dehydrated milk mach-

There are no old people in Ocean Falls. When they are pensioned from the factory at the age of 65 they have to leave, for even in the Paradise of plentiful building timber, there is still a shortage of houses.

In this remote Eden lost in the silent forests, every man knows his neighbor's salary, uses his Christian name and works for the same master.

NATIVE YOUTH BURIED HERE

Requiem mass for Robert Williams, 19-year-old Moricetown youth, who was drowned in a boat accident at Ucluelet, Vancouver Island on October 12 was celebrated this morning at Annunciation Church by Rev. J. Carroll, O.M.I., before a number of friends and relatives of the deceased.

The youg man was one of four people drowned when a boat capsized while the group was returning from a dance near the west coast settlement. He had been employed at the Kennedy Logging Co. mill near Ucluelet. He is survived by a brother, Harold, at Hazelton and a sister, Mrs. Violet Russel at Glen Vowell. Mrs. William Jeffrey of Prince Rupert is an aunt, as are Mrs. Jack Phistle of Smithers, Mrs. Findlay Russel of Glen Vowell. Robert Simpson of Hazelton is an uncle.

Burial took, place at Fairview Cemetery with the following acting as pallbearers: Robert Harris, George Turner, Walter Harris, Oswald Alexander, Horace Angus and Charles Leeson.

STRONG AND HEALTHY

SCIENCE has proved there are certain food elements everyone needs for health. If there aren't enough of them in a child's food, serious things can happen-such as stunted growth, soft bones, poor teeth, faulty nerves, loss of appetite, defective eyesight.

Ovaltine supplements the diet with elements frequently deficient in ordinary foods. Three servings of Ovaltine furnish a significant portion of a child's daily requirements of Vitamins A, B1, C, D, Riboflavin (B2), and Niacin and Minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.

In addition it provides the basic food substances-complete proteins to build muscle, nerve and body cells -high-energy foods for vitality and endurance. It thus acts as an insurance against food deficiencies that retard normal growth.

So if your child eats poorly, is thin, underpar, perhaps nervous, why no: try delicious Ovaltine for norma! growth and better appetite.

FRAMING PICTURES

Pleased as you may be with that newly-acquired painting if you want the neighbors to admire it, make sure the fram is right.

"A picture may be good, but poorly framed it never will be fairly appreciated," said an official of the National Art Gal lery. "The frame should not draw attention to itself . . . the painting--whether scene or portrait---is what should first confront the observer's eye."

modern frames on old pictures which was "something like clothing an old man, or an old woman, in the dress of a child.

Clumsy as they appeared, the heavy ornate frames of the Victorian era suited the paintings of that period just as well a simple wooden frames suit the rictures of today.

As for oil paintings, the expert warned against hiding these behind glass as a protective measure against dust.

"Glass casts such terrible reflections," he said. "The observer never gets the opportunity of seeing the picture from the proper angle!

FURNISHING PROBLEMS

Once the hard-to-get apartment has been found the new housewife will have furnishing problems on her hands. If she's looking for furniture she'll play wise and choose from the plain unornamented styles. Not only are they easier to match, but they don't present such a difficult dusting problem.

In the simple styles, maple and bleached mohogany harmonize well. Walnut goes with dark oak maple or cherry. Because it can be painted to harmonize with a surrounding color scheme. many Canadian householders newadays are buying unfinished furniture. This may be bleached. stained or varnished. but for painting the piece should be made of birch or maple to bring out the best results.

With reasonable care good furniture will last a life-time. Expensive wood should not be bent, near hot-air registers, or

BOB WILLEIT TO HOLLY WOOD

Bob Willett, former free lance writer and broadcaster in Van | couver, has been named produc tion manager of Broadcasters Network Studios in Hollywood. Willett started in radio at Victoria, announced in Toronto while in the R.C.A.F. and at one time was a staff member of the CBCC stationed at CFPR in Prince Rupert. In addition to radio work he has acted as west coast correspondent of the Montreal Standard during the past year. Last year Bob was auditioned at the Selznick Studio in Culver City for the narration of "Duel in the Sun.' As a result of his showing in that competition—placing in the top 10 of 200 aspirants, including many "name" announcers—he was offered the position at BNS
