MAYOR NEWTON CROWNS QUEEN

Ceremony Took Place at Exhibition Building Following Parade this Morning

KISSED QUEEN'S HAND

Queen Grace was invested with her crown and sceptre of office by His Worship Mayor Newton at the Exhibition Building this morning and will be sovereign over the carnival and fair activities for the remainder of the week. Besides Her Majesty, the regal party consists of Lady-in-waiting Nora, maids of honor Mabel and Gladys, and the two dainty little train bearers, Audrey Tremayne and Margaret Smith.

The coronation ceremony performed just before noon was pretty indeed. As the Kitimaat Military Band played a suitable march, the regal party entered from the rear of the hall and took their places on the dais prepared for them. The lady-in-waiting led the way being followed by Maid of Honor Mabel, the Queen and her trainbearers and Maid of Honor Gladys who bore the crown.

The Ceremony

Having taken their places with the Queen on her throne and her attendants seated around, President Joe Greer called upon Mayor Newton to officiate. Making a few preliminary remarks in which he stated that the pretty coronation ceremony fitted well into the splendor of the exhibition and that Prince Rupert had demonstrated itself to be not lacking in feminine beauty. His Worship placed the crown on the head of the Queen and handed her the sceptre amid the applause of the large crowd assembled. President Joe Greer, Vice-president Ben Self and R. E. Benson, manager of the carnival queen contest, then paid their homage to the Queen by kissing her hand.

The ceremonies completed, Her Majesty held court and received the greetings of the assembly. Then the party proceeded to the Prince Rupert Hotel for luncheon.

Floats

In spite of the rather inclement weather, the coronation ceremony was preceded by a very creditable parade from down town. The Kitimaat Band led the way followed immediately by the rear carrying the regal party. Then came two large and effective floats of the Mooseheart Legion and Moose Lodge, the backers of the successful queen contestant. Gaily decorated cars and taxis followed.

Come and hear the Kitimaat Band at the Carnival tonight.

GEORGE GOES TO KETCHIKAN

Will Take Excursionists Home Saturday Night Going Then Direct to Vancouver

GREY FOR ISLANDS

Owing to the fact that the steamer Prince John is laid up for a few days in drydock and will probably not be back on the run before September 22, the C.G.M.M. officials have been much worried as to how to cope with the situation, especially in view of the big excursion coming here from Ketchikan tomorrow. However the steamer Grey is to be sent to the islands carrying freight and mails and a limited number of passengers. She will sail for both north and south islands on Friday night.

Tomorrow the Prince Rupert will go to Ketchikan direct from Anyox and bring the crowd here and on Saturday night the Prince George will take them home, sailing for Vancouver from here by way of Ketchikan and making her other ports of call to the south.

NELSON PLANE FORCED DOWN

American Flyers Arrive at Washington: Escort Carries One of Them

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—American flyers arrived at Washington yesterday afternoon and were welcomed by President Coolidge and members of his cabinet. Lieut. Nelson's plane was forced down near Baltimore and the aviator made the remainder of the trip on an escort plane.

LECTURE ON DOGS THIS AFTERNOON

Stanley Dorrell, judge of the Dog Show at the Exhibition and owner himself of some very valuable stock, will give a lecture on dogs at the Exhibition Hall at 3.30 this afternoon.

Mr. Dorrell, who has been spending the summer at Port Es- sington, will return there on this evening's train.

Fair Opened Last Night By Several Speeches Band Plays Selections

"Not in quality of the exhibits nor in the taste of their arrangement but merely in the greater bulk of the displays do the great exhibitions of London and Toronto exceed that held annually right here in Prince Rupert," declared Fred Stork, M.P., in the course of his address in formally opening the twelfth annual exhibition of the Northern B.C. Agricultural & Industrial Association last night.

The opening ceremonies took place at 7.30 after the crowds had already begun to gather in the large Exhibition Hall. Besides Mr. Stork, Mayor Newton addressed the gathering, officially welcoming the visitors to the city. Joe Greer, president of the Fair Board, acted as chairman and on the platform were Mrs. Stork, Vice-president Ben Self, Honorary-Secretary Frank Dibb, Directors—Dan Jabour, H. M. Daggett, Ald. R. E. Perry and Managing director D. McD. Hunter.

The gathering was called to attention by a call sounded by the bugler of the Kitimaat Military Band which occupied a part of the platform. President Greer, in opening the proceedings, welcomed the many visitors to the city and also took the opportunity to thank all those in the city and district who had lent their assistance and co-operation towards staging the Fair. He also thanked the various committees, the ladies and the city council for support. A program had been arranged which would occupy all the time until the end of the week.

Mayor Newton After extending, on behalf of the citizens of Prince Rupert, a welcome to the visitors who had come to the city for the Fair, Mayor Newton referred to the strenuous work that had been put into it by the Fair Board. The 1924 Exhibition gave promise of exceeding any Fair held in past years and, if it was not a success, it would be no fault of the management. The Kitimaat band, under the leadership of Henry Slatter, late of the Grenadier Guards, was a credit both to the leader, the members themselves and the district at large.

Referring to the exhibits, His Worship said that the building was more crowded with exhibits than ever because of the fact that the directorate had concentrated greater efforts in assembling district displays. In the past there had not seemed to be the co-operation between the city and district that might have been expected. It was gratifying, however, that the 1924 Fair Board had taken a step in the right direction by developing such a spirit that could not help but redound to the welfare both of the city and district. It was to be hoped that it would be further continued and developed and that twelve months hence all the visitors who were here on this occasion would be back again bringing more with them to make a Fair still bigger and grander than this.

Fred Stork, M.P. Mr. Stork thanked the chairman for his introduction which in view of his (Mr. Stork's) long absence from the city seemed indeed well timed. He felt a great deal of joy at being home for his travels had only tended to make him realize the beauties and delights to be found right at home. This city and district was wonderfully free of the disabilities that one found everywhere (continued on page six)

FAIR ATTENDANCE GOOD LAST NIGHT
Exclusive of season tickets the attendance at the fair last evening was 469 adults and 70 children or a total of 539. This compares well with last year when for afternoon and evening the paid attendance was 571. The total receipts amounted to $175.

WOODWARD HAS RESIGNED FROM LEGISLATURE

VANCOUVER, Sept. 10.—Chas. Woodward, who headed the poll in the last election has resigned his seat in the Legislature he announced. He made no explanation.

General Idlum says he thinks the resignation is conditional. He said they had protested against the sale of the Capilano timber by the minister of lands and if the sale went through the only thing to do would be to resign. It is claimed that the removal of the timber would endanger the city's water supply.

EFFORT STOP FIRPO FIGHT

Preparations For Big Crowd But Warrant May be Issued by Courts

NEWARK, N.J., Sept. 10.—Application was made today for a warrant for the arrest of Luis Firpo for violation of the Mann Act and decision has been reserved until tomorrow. The warrant charges that he brought a woman from Atlantic City to New York shortly before the Dempsey battle a year ago.

Wills weights 220 and Firpo 318. Ticket sales, stemmed for days by the threat of deportation for Firpo, increased today and Rickard announced that 800,000 spectators would probably provide 800,000 receipts.

The Argentine will enter the ring a slight favorite, if the fight is short. Wills is given the edge if the fight goes the full twelve rounds, a result which few critics expect.

Life Imprisonment Given To Chicago Lads Who Murdered Young Franks in Cold Blood

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb, scions of wealthy families who confessed to being the kidnapers and murderers of young Robert Franks, were sentenced to life imprisonment today. The youth of the defendants, eighteen and nineteen years, respectively, was all that saved them from the noose. It would have been the path of least resistance to have imposed the extreme penalty on them, said Judge Caverly. Records of Illinois show only two cases of minors who were put to death. He pointed out that under state law it is within the discretion of the department of public welfare that these defendants never be admitted to parole.

"If this course is preserved in the present case it will satisfy the ends of justice and safeguard the interests of society." Robert Franks, 14-year old son of Jacob Franks, retired president of a watch case manufacturing company and a former pawnbroker, was kidnapped while en route to the family home at 5052 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, from the nearby playground of the Harvard preparatory school, a private institution he attended, late in the afternoon of May 21, 1924.

While the family was searching frantically for the boy, a telephone message informed Mrs. Franks that Robert had been kidnapped, that he was safe, and that the family would be advised further as to how to recover him. Early the next morning Mr. Franks received a neatly typed special delivery letter bearing the signature "George Johnson" with the dictation marks "G.K.R." informing him that Robert was held for $10,000 ransom, that the lad was safe, and to stand by for further instructions as to how to pay the ransom and recover the boy.

DAILY EDITION

Wednesday, Sept. 10, 1924.

Auspicious Opening Of The Fair.

The fair opened last night and all who attended were profuse in expressing appreciation of the arrangements this year and of the quality of the exhibits staged in exhibition hall. The tables and stalls are full and the only complaint has been the lack of space accorded exhibitors. There are a number of new features in industrial booths and the district exhibits show a healthy competition that is most encouraging. In the school exhibit, ladies' work, and in fact in almost every department there is renewed interest as illustrated by the exhibits shown.

Many Compliments On Work Of Band.

The Kitimaat band which is playing this week at the exhibition is the recipient of many compliments. Its music last night at the opening of the fair was much appreciated and the opinion was freely expressed that it was superior to any music ever heard here. The band will play throughout the week and will be one of the enjoyable features that will appeal to the numerous visitors.

Prince Rupert People Hosts To Visitors.

While the day is past when Prince Rupert people can make any attempt to entertain all visitors coming to the city, yet this week they are the hosts and doubtless will do everything possible to make the numerous visitors feel that they are welcome. It is a great thing to preserve this attitude toward the people who come here and to be ready to do whatever possible to make the week a success, especially from the point of view of those who are here from outside points.

A welcome will be extended to the Ketchikan visitors tomorrow but there are numerous people here from all over the coast and interior and they should be included in the welcome that is being accorded to those who are here for the annual occasion.

Splendid Work Of Chinese Girl.

There is a picture in the exhibition that is worthy of note, not so much because of its quality as because of the promise it shows of things to come. It is by a little Chinese girl, Mary Gathion Wong, fifteen years of age. It is a still life study of a large basket of fruit drawn from the object.
Mary Wong will develop into an artist if she keeps at the work. The picture in question shows some of the crudities of the amateur but not many and is really a wonderful production considering that Miss Wong has been learning her art only a year. She is developing very rapidly and is enthusiastic over it and anxious to improve. She will probably find it to her advantage later to take up the study at one of the art schools. Her development will be watched here with great interest as she has the promise of being a real artist.

It draws the crowds
And leave's 'em broke.

September 10, 1914.

The Portland Canal Tunnels Co. has run into a big vein of low-grade silver-lead ore at Stewart. It is said that it will make a profitable proposition as the values are from $10 to $12 per ton.

The Westholme Theatre was crowded to the doors last night when a military moving picture program was put on. The buglers of the Irish Fusiliers were present and the entertainment was patronized by the officers of the regiment and their ladies.

The following staff appointments have been made for the local regiment which is being recruited for overseas service: lieutenant colonel, C. W. Peck; major, J. H. McMullin; adjutant, Henry Lee; chaplain, Canon Irix; medical officer, Dr. H. E. Tremayne; quartermaster, P. Godenrath; captains, Dr. W. B. Clayton and D. M. Moore; lieutenants, L. Lumbermen Furnish Main Clientele of Business Firms and Professional Practitioners

A well known B.C. retail merchant remarked recently: "The lumber trade is my business barometer. I regulate my business by advertising and the activities of my sales department by the strength or weakness of the lumber market."

Another prominent Vancouver retail merchant says: "I cannot say, of course, how many of my customers are actually loggers or lumbermen, or their wives, or sons or daughters, but I do know that if I lost the business I do with the people who depend on the lumber industry for their income, I would have to shut up shop and move out of British Columbia."

Forest Industries Motive Power
These two cases go to prove the truth of the statement that the Forest Industries are the motive power of this Province's progress.

One-fourth of the working population of British Columbia are on the payroll of the lumber industry and they, with their families and dependents, must necessarily constitute the main support of the storekeeper in our cities, towns and settlements.
How many of these, but for the business the lumbermen brings them, would also be compelled to "shut up shop and move out of British Columbia."

FOR MINERALS

Judge Says Exhibit This Year is Best Ever Sent In

"The mineral collection this year is very creditable and is probably the best that Prince Rupert ever had. All the large mining companies in the surrounding district have contributed handsomely and deserve special credit," said A. C. Garde, M.E., of Smithers, at the conclusion of judging the mineral display at the exhibition. Mr. Garde stated that the various classes of ore were well represented which spoke well for the whole of northern British Columbia for values and high character of ore. Mr. Garde considers that the mineral sent in this year to the fair goes to show that northern B.C. has taken seriously to mining and has a very bright future ahead for eventual shipping.

guests of the Fair Board. Various social functions are being arranged in their honor this week.

There was a gay and happy crowd at the Auditorium last evening enjoying the dance put on by L. J. Marren. One of the features of the evening was the moonlight dance in which the lighting effects were novel. Refreshments were served and the whole evening was most enjoyable.

The remarks of Alderman Macdonald at the city council meeting Monday night were misunderstood in regard to the investigation into the charge that men were forced to work on Labor Day. He is not satisfied with the statement of Alderman Collard that they were not forced to work and favored a further investigation.

LIFE IMPRISONMENT GIVEN TO CHICAGO LADS WHO MUR- DERED YOUNG FRANKS

workman traversing the Pennsylvania railroad tracks at 118th Street, a wild, uninhabited section just inside the southern corporate limits of Chicago, saw the feet of a nude body protruding from a culvert between two small lakes. The body was taken to an undertaker's establishment where it rested unidentified until late in the afternoon, when a brother of Mrs. Franks went to the morgue on a chance that the body might be that of Robert.

He identified it positively although a pair of horn-rimmed spectacles were affixed on the face. The glasses were found near the culvert and the undertaker thought they belonged to the boy.

Then began one of the greatest manly deeds in the history of Chicago, because of the evident brutality of the murderers and the prominence of the Franks family. More than a score of persons, including two instructors at the Harvard School, were arrested, but released when they were able to disprove connection with the kidnapping and murder.

Lads Confessed

Columns of newspaper space were devoted to the case but the headlines were diminishing in size as hope of apprehending the murderers dwindled when unexpectedly Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, announced on May 31 that Richard Loeb, son of Albert H. Loeb, 5017 Ellis Avenue, vice-president of Sears Roebuck & Co., and Nathan F. Leopold Jr., son of a wealthy paper box manufacturer and shipping man, 4754 Greenwood Avenue, had confessed to the kidnapping and murder.

It developed that all clues with the single exception of the spectacles found near the body had been exhausted. By tracing thousands of prescriptions for spectacles, the state's attorney's force finally eliminated all but four which called for spectacles the same as those found alongside the body. Of the quartette, the officers seized upon Leopold.

He previously had been questioned by the police because of his known frequent trips to the place where the Franks boy's body was found, but was released when he explained that his interest in that locality was based solely upon his study of ornithology, the science of bird life, the region abounding in unusual specimens.

Loeb and Leopold related what at first appeared to be an unimpeachable alibi. Leopold finally admitted possible ownership of the spectacles but had about convinced the authorities that he had lost them while on a legitimate trip to the region.

Boys Broke Down

Their story of their whereabouts on the day and evening of the kidnapping was broken when Sven Englund, the Leopold chauffeur, asserted that the red Willys Knight automobile in which the boys declared they had been riding, had not been out of the Leopold garage at the time specified. Loeb, upon learning that exclaimed "My God, can that be true; give me a glass of water," and within a few minutes was relating a complete confession of his participation with Leopold in the kidnapping and murder. Leopold, told that Loeb was confessing, also made a detailed confession. The two statements jibed in all details except the one as to which actually had wielded the lethal instrument.
Leopold and Loeb both maintained that they had been driving the automobile into which the Franks boy was enticed and killed and that the other had struck the death dealing blows.

The confessions set out that the two were intent on committing the "perfect crime." In detail they ran:
The crime had been planned for several months. No particular victim had been selected. The afternoon on which the Franks boy was chosen had been spent in reconnoitering the Harvard school district for a possible subject. John Levinson, 9-year old grandson of Julius Rosenwald, noted philanthropist and president of Sears Roebuck & Co., was singled out. He escaped, however, in the general rush home at the end of the baseball game in which the boys were participating, and partly because of the presence of an instructor.

Loeb and Leopold were driving slowly down the street, having abandoned hope for the day, when suddenly they espied Bobby Franks en route home. Loeb addressed him, inviting him into the automobile. Bobby demurred. He said he had only a short distance to go home and preferred to walk. Loeb, who had played tennis frequently with the lad, insisted that he wanted to talk with him about a new tennis racquet, whereupon Bobby entered the machine.

Struck on Head

Seated, he was struck upon the head with a taped cold chisel, and rags were stuffed into his mouth. The kidnapers, not realizing that the boy was dead, drove about for a time intending to kill the child when they reached the place they had selected for disposing of the body. They finally reached the rendezvous, stripped the boy of his clothes and poured an acid on his face with the intention of disfiguring it beyond recognition. Leopold donned wading boots, strode into the water and thrust the body face downward into the culvert.
It stuck and he forced it further with his foot, but in the haste in the darkness left the murdered boy's feet protruding. Also in the hurry of leaving the scene, Loeb picked up Leopold's coat bottom up and lost the tell-tale spectacles from the breast pocket. They also left one of Bobby's brown sport stockings and his cap.

Loeb and Leopold then proceeded to dispose of various articles of Bobby's clothing, the automobile robe in which the body had been wrapped and the other things used in the murder.
Some were burned, some were buried in widely separated spots and the cold chisel was hurled from the automobile not far from the scene of the kidnap-ing.
The automobile used was obtained from a rent-a-car agency and was of the same type as

Wrote Letter Before

The ransom letter was prepared well in advance of the kidnap-ing, sealed and the envelope left unaddressed, that feature to depend upon the child chosen for death. The typewriter was a portable stolen from the house of the fraternity of which Loeb was a member before he was graduated from University of Michigan. The letter written, the typewriter was damaged badly and thrown into a lagoon in Jackson Park.

The morning of the finding of the Franks boy's body, but before it had been identified, Loeb and Leopold again telephoned the Franks home but Mr. Franks again was absent. Later they telephoned again instructing Mr.
Franks to ride in a taxi cab to a certain drug store where he would receive other telephonic instructions as to how to pay over the ransom. Mr. Franks knew by then that his son was dead and refused to enter the taxicab. The youths intended to instruct Mr. Franks to board a fast train for the East and at a specified point hurl a cigar box containing the money from the train. Other instructions were in a letter placed in a message rack in a parlor bar. That letter was found later at New York.

Went Over Ground

Upon concluding their confessions Loeb and Leopold agreed to go with officers and prosecutors on a tour of the route they had travelled from the moment the Franks boy was seized until the last article in connection with his murder was disposed of. They

NEITHER TEAM SCORED IN FOOTBALL AT ANYOX

Final Game Has Yet to be Played on Return of Players From Prince Rupert

ANYOX, Sept. 10. — Football has been of a very high order in Anyox during the season of 1924, and some excellent games have been played. In the finals for the cup, the Beach and the Smelter had to play two games for a decision, the Beach getting the trophy on the second attempt by a one goal margin. The series for the medals has still to be decided. In the first half of the season the Mine was the leading team and was looked upon to win the second half, but the Smelter beat them to it, which necessitated a play-off, both teams agreeing to a sudden death game. This game resulted in a tie, and a game for a decision was set for Sunday night last and played. Neither team could score, however, and another game will have to be played on the return of the pig-skin chasers from Prince Rupert.

NATIVE FOOTBALL AND BASEBALL AT ACROPOLIS GROUNDS

Three teams are entered in the Fair Board's annual native football competition for the cup now held by Port Simpson. These teams are Port Simpson, Y.P.E.A., Old Massett and Kitkalla. The opening game is scheduled to take place on Thursday afternoon between Port Simpson and Old Massett.

Two teams are entered in the baseball competition for the $45 cash prize. They are Port Simpson and Greenville who were scheduled to play this afternoon.

Dates of further native football games will be announced later.

ANYOX REGRETS NOT SENDING BALL TEAM

Football Squad Comprises Pick of Players at Northern Centre

ANYOX, Sept. 10. — Owing to the departure of several representative ball players for Vancouver several days ago, the games partially arranged to be played at Prince Rupert during Fair Week, had to be cancelled by Anyox, which was greatly to be regretted, as it was hoped to be well represented both in baseball and football.

The football team visiting Prince Rupert comprises the pick of Anyox players and should give a splendid account of themselves; and whether winners or losers, will play the games for all they are worth.

Sport Chat

BOXING, Empress Theatre, Thursday, Sept. 11, 9.15 p.m. Joe Manilla of Ketchikan vs. Brick Skinner of Prince Rupert. 214

In spite of the fact that the failure of the Anyox baseball team to come here to the Fair this year proves quite a disappointment, the three game series at the end of the week with Ketchikan will be none the less interesting. Ocean Falls was unable to send a baseball team but an aggregations of soccerists is coming instead. What will be the loss of the baseball fans will be the gain of the many local followers of football and the Fair Board should not be affected adversely in the bargain.

Baseball has taken a strong hold in Japan and, in the playing of the game, certain customs have been adopted many of which might well be emulated in this country. The Japanese play the game conservatively, dislike taking long chances and abhor wild base running. Fans are very loyal but they are considerate of the feelings of others and "razzing" is an unpardonable sin. Pitchers have a habit of uttering a war cry as they deliver the ball. The Japs are very lavish in their prizes which include all kinds of merchandise, silverware, jewelry and clothing.

One of the biggest American military reunions since the Great War will take place at Wilbur Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, where the International Air Races are to be held on October 2, 3 and 4. Flyers and officers from the United States Army Air Service in all parts of the country will be permitted to attend. There will be twelve aerial racing events for which $50,000 in prizes have been offered. Many aviators who flew together over the German lines during the Great War will enter the competitions.

Brick Skinner is in great shape for his battle tomorrow night. He has been training faithfully quite awhile and is in better condition now than when he fought Red Campbell. Just how good he is remains to be seen Thursday night. Manilla will know best.

According to Mr. Sharp, Joe's manager, Joe is in the best of shape. Manilla is a tough boy and there is no doubt he will make Skinner go all the way.

Prince Rupert football players will again run up against some of their old acquaintances and team mates in the opening championship game this afternoon with Anyox. Among the former:

local players to be noticed upon the smelter town line-up are J. M. Campbell, Dave Jack, D. Scott and Eddie Craggs. In spite of the fact that these men are opposing us on this occasion, players and fans alike are mighty glad to see them and will do everything to give them and all other members of the teams visiting the city a hearty reception and make their stay here a pleasant one. ANYOX TROUNCED BALL TEAM AT ALICE ARM

Wiped Them up by Score of Nineteen Runs to Three Last Week End

ANYOX, Sept. 10. — On a number of summer week-ends, Alice Arm ball tossers entertained sundry baseball teams from Anyox, and invariably sent the boys home with the short end of the score attached. This was all very well for a while, but a continuous string of lost ball games began to rattle some of the players of the town, and they at last decided to give the fans of Alice Arm a treat and show 'em at the same time. Last week-end was the occasion for the visit and when the game had finished Anyox had scored as many as nineteen runs and the Alice Arm players had managed to count three. The Anyox players who made the trip were Fred Brown, Cy Greenwell, Archie Smith, Frances Fitzpatrick, Bud Sheen, Bob Watson, Dick Ballentyne and O. Hutchings.

Industrial Booths at Fair are Indication of what can be Done Here: Fine Exhibit of Woodwork

The manufactured lumber exhibit of the Big Bay Lumber Company, Georgetown Mills, situated on the main floor near the entrance to the dog and poultry show, is one of rare beauty and is the subject of much favorable comment. The layout of the booth is most artistic and reflects great credit upon those responsible for the magnificent display of the many northern British Columbia finished products. The walls and ceiling of the booth are panelled in cedar V joint and spruce V joint of various dimensions while hundreds of samples of manufactured lumber, cut in artistic sizes, line the shelves. In the centre of the stand is a beautiful model of Sir Thomas Lipton's racing yacht Shamrock, built by Jock Gibson, a member of the Georgetown Mill staff, who worked on the building of the original Shamrock. The dimensions of the model are length 4 feet, beam 12 inches, lead keel, hull of red cedar, deck and rails spruce, spars yellow cedar, sails union silk.

The counter of the stand is built of various samples of finished lumber, the product of the Georgetown Mill. The many pieces of mill dressed and hand dressed lumber displayed include standard mouldings, cedar casing, spruce pen board, spruce porch rail, cedar channel rustic, spruce rustic, cedar shiplap, hand rail, aeroplane spruce, rough cedar, V. joint partition, edge grain spruce stepping, yellow cedar in various sizes, sample fish boxes, D.D. hemlock, mill dressed V joint, hand dressed V joint, boat cedar, etc.

Export Lumber
One of the main features of the exhibit are the samples of export lumber shipped all over the world by the Georgetown Mill. These samples include aeroplane spruce of the finest quality, rough clear spruce, rough clear cedar and rough coast hemlock.

Sample Strut
An interesting piece of aeroplane spruce is on exhibit it being a piece of the new strut made here in April last for Major Martin's aeroplane to replace the broken strut damaged in landing at Seal Cove. The piece of spruce for the new strut was supplied by the Big Bay Lumber Co. and the new strut was made for the aeroplane by Dave Taylor, who, with Ben Delgarno, was responsible for the erection and placing of the excellent exhibit.

The display is splendidly lighted with inverted electric lights which show the interior up to great advantage, and is one which reflects great credit upon the executive and staff of the Georgetown Mill.

ELECTRIC BAKERY
The fine art of the baker is amply displayed in the booth occupied by the Electric Window Bakeries, on the main floor of the exhibition building. The decoration has been carried out in red, white and blue drapery and the many tempting confections displayed testify to the prowess of the Electric Bakeries in their particular line. The many pretty loaves, cakes, buns and French pastries displayed would make the mouth of a wooden idol water. The shelves contain fancy bread, wheat sheaves, old fashioned cheese twists, filberts, cottage loaves, dinner rolls of every description, Irish loaves, whole wheat bread, fancy gateaux, sponge cake trifle, seed cakes, Maderia and fruit cakes, slab cakes, currant bread, etc. The display is one of great credit.

RUPERT BRANDS
The exhibit of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company is a very unique one and is thoroughly representative of their business. It takes the form of a miniature cannery building, in all its detail, built with "Rupert Brand" canned salmon tins. The whole arrangement is well carried out even down to the water at the wharf in which many small live trout disport themselves. This is an exhibit which is well worth seeing and is situated on the main floor to the left of the main entrance. The front of the display is decorated by a net containing 44,000 feet of twine made in Prince Rupert.

W. D. VANCE
W. D. Vance, broker, has a very pretty stand in the exhibition hall, and one which lends plenty of color to the gay interior of the building. The display takes the form of samples of products of the many firms which the exhibitor represents. The most outstanding feature of the display is the many beautifully colored calendars, manufactured by Brown & Bigelow, which adorn the walls of the Booth. In addition there are displayed cases of McCormick's biscuits, samples of products manufactured by the Norfolk Paper Co., Western Dry Goods Co. and scales made by the International Machine Company of Toronto. The display is artistically arranged.

BARRIE'S FURNISHINGS
A real homelike atmosphere has been created in the display arranged by Barrie's Home Furnishings at their booth in the exhibition hall. Rugs of linoleum and Congoleum rugs adorn the walls which have been panelled in many shades of 3 ply fir veneer. Rugs and carpets adorn an open fireplace while the centre is set off with a beautiful dining room suite of McLagan's Grandmaster old English furniture. The floor is laid down with various varieties of rugs and linoleum. The whole display is remarkably pretty.

PHILPOTT, EVITT & CO.
Gorilla logging equipment is being featured in the booth occupied in the exhibition hall by Philpott, Evitt & Co., Ltd. In addition there are many samples of the products manufactured by various manufacturers whom they represent. Among other things displayed is Murray Made Asphalt paint, Fibreweld roofing, Pyrene fire extinguishers, etc.

GROTTO CIGAR
A new feature in booths at the exhibition this year is the stand occupied by the Grotto Cigar Stores. This display, which is of a purely direct advertising nature, makes a specialty of Tuckett's Orinoco tobacco and Buckingham smoking mixture.

F. G. DAWSON LTD.
The F. G. Dawson Ltd., booth at the exhibition, situated on the right hand entrance to the midway, featuring Empress Brand goods and Pacific milk, is a delightful one. The interior is the acme of neatness and is being much admired.

ROWE'S SHEET METALS
Rowe's Sheet Metal Works are well represented with their exhibit in the fair building. The exhibit contains specimens of what can be done in sheet metal work and comprises chimney cowls, sinks and sheet metal work of all descriptions.

SUPREME COFFEE
A very dainty and neat exhibit in the fair building is that of Stewart & Mobley, Ltd., who are featuring "Supreme" Coffee, a local made product. The booth is situated on the main floor next to the mineral exhibit. The stand is artistically arrayed with various sized tins of "Supreme" coffee and beautiful English china cups and saucers, which are given away with coupons contained in the coffee tins. This delicious table coffee is made at the stand and tasty samples are served. Those who are fond of a good cup of coffee should not fail to visit this booth. A feature of the exhibit is the free daily drawing for three separate prizes consisting of china cups and saucers.

SWIFT CANADIAN
One of the many outstanding booths at the exhibition this year is that of the Swift Canadian Co., situated on the main floor next to the Indian exhibit. The splendid arrangement of the many products manufactured by this well known concern presents a pretty picture. One of the interesting features of the display is Swift's Pragnum hams and bacon in "Sealtite" gelatine covers, and are identically the same as supplied to the McMillan expedition to Greenland. This mode of covering keeps the contents free from mould and is proof against all climatic conditions.

SMOKED FISH
A very representative exhibit is that of the Bacon Fisheries displaying the different varieties of fish smoked locally. The display

The Little Red Hen

"PUCK, puck, puck, pucKAYah" cackles the little red hen, as she steps off the warm nest, broadcasting to the barnyard that she has just laid a fine, fresh egg. She makes a product that any "manufacturer" might be proud of, and doesn't hesitate to advertise the fact.

A duck egg might be just as good, but the duck evidently doesn't think so. She doesn't advertise, and duck eggs have no market.

To be absolutely sure in buying ANY merchandise stick to the advertised brands. For their manufacturers believe in them and tell you about them daily in the advertising columns of this newspaper, over their signatures.

The duck-egg brands might be just as good, but you cannot be sure, if the manufacturers themselves will not admit it!

Read the advertisements regularly. Buy from them. You will then know the source of the products, and whom to look to if they don't measure up.

abroad. Coming back after an absence of seven months, he had noticed a great improvement in the city streets brought about by the policy of the city in replacing the old plank roads with graded streets. There was nothing that caused more impression on transient visitors than the appearance of the streets and the members of the city council were to be congratulated on the improvements that had been made.

Stating that the British Empire Exhibition which he had visited was a colossal and magnificent affair in which the Dominion of Canada occupied a prominent position, Mr. Stork declared that the annual exhibition in Prince Rupert was no less a credit to the city and district. The quality of the exhibits here compared favorably with those to be found anywhere in the world. Only in bulk but not in taste of arrangement was the Prince Rupert Exhibition excelled by those of Toronto and London.

Matter of Satisfaction

"It is a matter of great satisfaction to me to see the development of this northern country and the city of Prince Rupert," continued Mr. Stork. "Thanks are due to the committee that have kept this organization aloft and to those persons who year after year have given freely of the energy in that direction. It gives me the greatest pleasure imaginable to participate in the 1924 Prince Rupert Exhibition which I now proclaim formally opened to the public. May it long continue to prosper."

The Kitimaat Band then played "O Canada," while the gathering stood at attention and the Prince Rupert Exhibition was once again launched with enthusiasm and every promise of great success.

FUR MARKET IN THE CITY

William Goldbloom Plans Establishing Auction Sale Here For Pelts

In an endeavor to establish a fur auction sale centre in Prince Rupert, on the same basis as the fur auction sales in eastern Canada, in order that fur buyers in the east can come to the city to trade in furs and thus furnish a more convenient market for the trappers of northern British Columbia, William Goldbloom, one of the largest fur traders in the province will shortly journey to eastern Canada and the United States to interest the large fur buyers.

Logical Market

Mr. Goldbloom claims that as Prince Rupert is the centre of one of the largest raw fur producing territories in the Dominion, producing annually thousands of dollars worth of raw furs it would be to the direct advantage of fur traders and trappers to have a market right at their door in order that they may obtain and sell raw furs to the best advantage. The establishing of such a fur auction market would mean that the trappers could send their furs to the local merchants or fur dealers with the full knowledge that they were getting the highest market price for their goods. Mr. Goldbloom claims that in this way a lot of money that is now finding its way east would be distributed among local dealers and would be a big help to local business during the quiet winter months. On his annual trips to the east Mr. Goldbloom has always advocated establishing this business in Prince Rupert and the fur buyers have expressed their willingness to instal a representative on the coast to attend the sales provided sufficient fur was on hand to make it worth their while to come west.

Present Method Bad

As the business is handled now Mr. Goldbloom claims the trapper is shipping valuable furs east, where prices are continually changing to the detriment of the shipper, and in addition the trapper is obliged to wait a
