Eight Lose Lives When London Paris Aerial Express Bursts Into Flame After Coming Down

CROYDEN, Dec. 24.—When a London-Paris air express crashed at the airdrome here today and burst into flames, the pilot and all seven passengers were killed. The airplane had gained only a slight altitude after taking off when it banked in the variable breeze and fell sideways. A puff of smoke and burst of flame shot up fifty or sixty feet. Before it was possible to render assistance, the machine was enveloped in flames.

With the exception of Dr. Lima, a Brazilian, all the passengers are believed to have been British subjects.

LOGGING DONE AT ALICE ARM

Abbotsford Logging Co. Concludes its Activities for Season and Closes Camps

Logging operations by the Abbotsford Logging Co. at Alice Arm having been brought to a close this year, Eric Carlson, who has been in charge there for J. O. Trethewey, and a party of his men passed through the city on the Garlena yesterday afternoon bound south for the winter.

Since starting operations at Alice Arm a couple of years ago, the Abbotsford Logging Co. has taken 24 million feet of logs off the Kilsniff flats. Most of it has been floated and sent to the Pacific Mills at Ocean Falls. All that now remains to be logged by the Abbotsford Co. is eighty acres of government timber in the centre of the flats and a fringe of timber around the foothills. It is expected operations will be resumed next year.

Those who accompanied Mr. Carlson south yesterday were Joe Washuek, A. Calvin, Ed. Lang, Oscar Ericson, H. F. Day, J. Anderson, T. Sevenhisen, Gus Limburg, J. Jensen and A. A. Mitchell, government sealer.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS GUESTS OF ROTARY

Regular Weekly Luncheon Was Held This Afternoon Instead of Christmas Day

Boys of the Prince Rupert High School were guests at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club which took place this afternoon instead of tomorrow on account of the holiday. Several of the boys spoke briefly. Dr. W. T. Kergin, president of the club, was in the chair.

The passengers were enroute to Paris for Christmas and were hardly aware that they were in the air when the machine suddenly listed in the wind. Two women were among the passengers. The fire department was called but was unable to arrive in time to be of any assistance.

Mr. PATTULLO'S XMAS LETTER
Editor, Daily News.
May I through you, Mr. Editor, wish the people of the constituency of Prince Rupert and all Northern British Columbia generally a very merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.
The past year has been an eventful one in many respects and while many situations of seeming contradiction have been evidenced and while the complexities of social and economic life are each year increasing, I am firmly of the opinion that we are making steady progress towards peace on earth and good will amongst men.

JACK BARNESLEY 12 YEARS OLD

That is What They Said About Local Man in Recent Issue of Toronto Daily Star

In view of the fact that they are calling Jack Barnesley a 12-year-old boy down in Toronto, it might be fitting that either Dr. Donald McMillan, the Arctic explorer, or a reporter of the Toronto Daily Star be given a personal introduction to the local radio expert.

Giving an account of a radio program that came through from New York on the evening of December 14, the Toronto Star, in the course of reporting an address of Dr. McMillan's over the air, goes on to say: "Special commendation was tendered by Dr. McMillan to J. Barnesley, a twelve-year-old boy of Prince Rupert, who had received 16,000 out of the 32,000 odd words sent out during the explorers' absence in the Arctic Circle."

Miss A. M. Barbeau will sail on Friday morning's steamer en route to Oregon and California where she will spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends. During her absence, her millinery store will be closed.

TWO YEAR TERMS CITY COUNCILS

Measure Approved by Legislature Will Apply to all Cities Not Under Ward System

Aldermen and councillors in city and district municipalities in British Columbia, except where the ward system is in effect, will sit for two-year terms after this year as a result of a division reached by the Legislature last week in amending the Municipal Act. In cities like Vancouver, where the ward system is in effect, the aldermanic term will be one year as at present. The term for mayors all over the province will remain at one year.

Clauses which give municipal councils power to auction reverted lands and to allow fixed assessment on improvements as well as on land for a period of years, were also put through. These clauses were proposed by the Victoria City Council, but will now apply all over the province.

Inter-Ally Military Control Commission Finds Germany Not Observed Disarmament Rulings

PARIS, Dec. 24.—The evacuation of the Cologne area of the occupied region in Germany on January 10, as conditionally set by the Treaty of Versailles, is deemed impossible by the French cabinet in view of reports from the inter-ally military control commission. The memorandum is based on the control commission's report setting forth the failure in some respects of Germany to comply with disarmament conditions.

UNEMPLOYED IN DIRE NEED HERE

Help Them by Contributing to Fund For Their Xmas Dinner Tomorrow

"There are a number of men in the city who are unemployed and really in dire necessity," said Mrs. Rea of the Salvation Army, who has been amongst them and knows their exact condition. Mrs. Rea stated that a number of them are at present reduced to a piece of dry bread and a cup of coffee while they have little clothing to their backs. A number of business men have been keeping some of them for the past few weeks, and while they have been able to eat they are in sore need of clothing.

RESERVED FOR BROADCASTING

One Hundred and Twenty Metre Length is Given Over by Department at Ottawa

OTTAWA, Dec. 24.—The radio branch of the federal department of marine and fisheries announces that the wave length of 125 metres has been specially reserved for trans-Canada and inter-Dominion amateurs. Wednesday nights at 12.30 Canadian amateurs will be on the air and the trans-Canada raffle will be moved.

When this despatch had been read to him this morning, S. C. Jackson, chief operator at the Digby Island station, stated that it was apparently the intention to reserve the 125-metre length for amateur broadcasting stations just as the 600-metre length was reserved for ships. It did not necessarily mean that the broadcasting stations would use this length but they would be assured of not being disturbed if they did. The lengths now used by the broadcasting stations were from 250 to 550 metres.

As far as disturbance caused to local receiving stations through the operations at Digby Island was concerned, Mr. Jackson said it would have no effect. He also said that it was almost impossible by any means to remove disturbances caused by Digby Island for the station was so close to the city. The operators at the station were, however, endeavoring as far as possible to leave the air free between the hours of 8 and 10 in the evening and were refraining from cutting in unless it was absolutely necessary to do so.

Contributions will be received up to the time of the dinner tomorrow and all further one will be acknowledged on Friday in the Daily News.

DAILY EDITION

Wednesday, Dec. 24, 1924.

Christmas And What It Means.

Once again the Daily News tenders to its readers and advertisers and the people of this city and district generally that time-honored greeting—"A Very Merry Christmas." Tomorrow, in accordance with custom long since set down, we devote ourselves to joyful festivities commemorating that day nineteen and twenty-five years ago when to "the world a Savior was born." It is fitting that we all should spare a very few moments from the gala Christmas day to ponder over the event—sometimes unwittingly forgotten—that actuates that well known spirit of Christmas which the whole Christian world celebrates and without which it would be a very sorry world for all. In this spirit, again let the Daily News extend its sincere wish that Christmas 1924 will bring comfort and blessing to all.

Cemetery Road Is Badly Needed.

There should be no hesitation in supporting the money bylaw that the city council will present to the ratepayers at the next civic election to authorize the grading of the cemetery road. The estimated cost is but $17,000—an expenditure which, spread over a long period of years, will hardly be noticed. The work proposed is something that has long been required and will insure against danger of accidents which have already occurred but which, fortunately, have not had any very serious results. The money will be well spent and there is no doubt that the work will be authorized by the citizens.

Time To Think About Election.

The annual civic election is but three weeks off and, so far, there is very little stir. It is only occasionally that one hears the subject of the campaign mentioned. The usual excitement seems to be delayed a little later than usual. With the holiday season over, we should see the candidates coming out and the electors beginning to interest themselves in the matter of choosing municipal guardians to whom will be entrusted the affairs of the city for a year in which a great deal of development and expansion is anticipated.

First Make Sure Of The Profits.

The subject of light and power rate reduction is once again before the city council. Some of the aldermen favor it and some are against it. Both sides are undoubtedly sincere in their contentions. The matter is entitled to the careful consideration that Ald. Macdonald asked be given it when he introduced his bylaw. The question to be decided will be whether the principle of using utilities surpluses to enhance general fund and reduce general taxation is to be followed or whether the consumers of power and light are to be given the benefit of the profits that those utilities are alleged to be piling up.

Before this matter of principle can be decided upon, however, it is necessary to establish definitely and authentically that the utilities are really earning all these profits that are attributed to them by those who are championing the cause of rate reduction. Also in this matter it would seem but logical to consolidate all the utilities—electric light and power, telephones and water—and ascertain that collectively they are profit bearing. There has been a good deal of heating around the bush during recent years as to the actual financial condition of the utilities. A certified audit, however, should settle this matter to the satisfaction of all. Then, and not until then, will it be time to decide whether the taxpayers or the utilities consumers are to receive the benefit from such surpluses as may be made from the utilities.

SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS TREE

Enjoyable and Successful Affair in Citadel Last Night

The annual Salvation Army Christmas tree and concert held in the Citadel last night was an outstanding success. The spacious hall was packed to the doors and there was not a dull moment during the whole evening. Violin solo, Miss Nellie Gurvey.

Recitation by Rose Smith.

Selection by the band, "Holly." Recitation by Arthur Smith.

Drill and song, "The Japanese Fan," by ten girls.

Every child in the hall received a suitable present and, in addition, all the good things that go with it at this season.

Much credit is due to Capt. and Mrs. Rea for the splendid success of the evening.

CHINA WAR AND CANADIAN TRADE

If Hostilities Continue, Lumber and Grain Markets Will be Seriously Affected

PEKIN, Dec. 22.—If China's civil war continues much longer, the Chinese market for Canadian lumber and wheat will be seriously affected, according to present indications. The Shanghai lumber market has been heavily overstocked for some months, but shipments from across the Pacific have continued to arrive, with the result that prices have materially declined. Owing to the warfare between the various military factions it has been unsafe to attempt shipment of lumber into the interior, and consequently there is almost unprecedented congestion in the seaports.

Quotations have also tobogganed in respect to the Canadian wheat. Arrivals of wheat in Shanghai have been interrupted, but mill stocks are large. The tightness of the money market is having its effect. If prices should rise, there will be a good opportunity for Canadian shippers to find an extensive market for wheat in China this winter because of the suspension of daily transportation from Manchuria, which is the most important granary in China.

In the past civil wars have not disturbed the flow of commerce in China very much. In fact, during the past ten years a state of warfare, such as usually exists in China, has been regarded as the normal condition. The present strife is different, however, in that it involves Shanghai, the principal trade centre of the country and the entrepot for approximately one-half of China's imports.

Approximately sixty per cent of Canadian and United States export to China consist of raw materials and foodstuffs. Damage to the rice fields from troop movements and the mobilization of farmers at harvest time, it is predicted, will mean a food shortage in China, which must be met by imports of grain from North America.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hanson and family are sailing on the Prince Rupert on Friday morning to make the round trip to Seattle.

Art Lockton, manager of the United Grain Growers' farm at Elbow, Sask., is visiting the company's sawmill at Hutton.

G. W. Davis, former local representative of the Canadian Explosives and now located at Edmonton, has left that city for an extended visit to the coast.

Four Million Dollars to be Spent For Wild Game Preserves in California

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 24.—The Pacific Coast Sportsmen's Club with headquarters in Los Angeles, proposes to begin operations with a fund of $4,000,000 and contemplates an unusual arrangement of wild game preserves in California. The organization will begin an immediate campaign to dispose of 4,000 memberships at $1,000 each, according to the incorporation papers, recently filed. The program includes establishment of huge game preserves in Central California, where members from all over America will be able to hunt wild game of every species.

A letter from the secretary of the San Francisco S.P.C.A. and of the State Humane Association of California says that these organizations "are going on record as disapproving of the objects of this corporation," and "we will do what we can to prevent the unnecessary slaughter of animals." It also states that the greatest cruelty in the proposed plan would be through the capture of the wild animals and bringing them from Africa.

playing football. In getting over the field he uses his shortened leg as a kind of spring, and jumps instead of running. Cole, who is 17 years of age, weighs 150 pounds. He will be captain of the orphanage team next season.

After 31 years' service as trainer of horses for the late King Edward VII. and King George V., Richard Marsh, known as the "Beau Brummel" of the English racing ring, has retired. During his long experience he handled some of the greatest racers in the history of the English paddock, and achieved many noteworthy successes. Soon after Marsh's appointment as trainer to King Edward, then Prince of Wales, in 1893, his horse, Thais, won the Thousand Guineas Stakes for the prince. That same year another horse, Persimmon, handled by Marsh, won the greatest of all English races, the Derby, and subsequently finished ahead of the field in the St. Leger, Jockey Club Stakes, Ascot Gold Cup and Eclipse Stakes all classics. Diamond Jubilee, another Marsh-handled racer, won the Thousand Guineas, Derby and St. Leger, a feat seldom achieved on the turf, and in addition won other great events, crediting his royal owner with $165,000 in stakes before he was sold to an American breeder for $150,000. Marsh is credited with handling more Derby and Stewards Cup winners than any other trainer.

Interesting data on how birds of a feather flock together, and how they return year after year, in the course of migrations, to any port that will provide them with protection and food in a storm, has been obtained by Jack Miner, naturalist, at his bird sanctuary at Kempville, Ontario. Mr. Miner caught 17 wild mallard ducks in a net, and ascertained that six of the older birds had already been marked with his aluminum tags bearing various verses of Scripture. One bird was at least six years old, having been marked in 1918. All the birds were supplied with new 1924 tags.

Having but one leg does not stop Buck Cole as a football player. He is the star right guard of the Methodist Orphanage football eleven in Raleigh, N.C.; has played on the team for the past two years, and is considered a tower of strength. Cole's right leg was badly crushed in an accident when he was seven years old, and was amputated about four inches below the knee. He became so accustomed to getting about on the shortened limb that Jack Cameron, athletic director and coach at the orphanage, declared he is much faster than many boys with two good legs. Cole does not wear an artificial limb while

QUEEN MOTHER STILL ACTIVE

Alexandra Continues to Take Interest in London Affairs Despite Her Eighty Years

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Even at her country home in Yorkshire to which she retired a year ago, Queen Alexandra has not lost her touch with the affairs of London with which she has been associated for more than half a century. The hundreds of hostesses who entertain during the season, like the royal family, always remember the Queen Mother and she receives invitations to all affairs just as she did when she lived at Marlborough House, across the park from her son's home.

Whenever a dinner or party is given by anyone whose position allows, an invitation is sent to the Queen Mother, and this is usually followed by a note of regret and an expressed wish that a little account of the affair, with the names of the guests, the dresses and other details, be sent to her. When the queen first retired to Sandringham most of her friends made regular trips to visit her, but during the last few months her physician has demanded that she give up the fatigue of these visits and it is now only through the post that she can hear of the neighborhood gossip.

Keeps Open House

When Queen Alexandra moved into Marlborough House she continued to keep open house for the many members of the royal family who enjoyed the right of entry to the palace under the genial Edward. The custom is still continued at Sandringham and there is hardly a day when some member of the family is not the guest of the Queen Mother.

The King and Queen spent several weeks with her at Sandringham this year, and each of the princes had paid a visit to his grandmother. Recently before the two sons of Princess Mary came to London they were taken to see their great-grandmother, and at the same time were officially introduced to their great grand-aunts, the Dowager Empress of Russia, the Dowager Queen Olga of Greece, and their aunt, Princess Victoria, who is her mother's constant companion.

Lover of Dogs

Queen Alexandra, who is eighty years old, still takes a daily walk through her gardens to visit her kennels, for she is an ardent lover of dogs and has no less than 15 pets. Reading the newspapers is also another daily task of the aged queen and she usually supplements it by writing a few letters, generally on public matters, for she has never ceased to take an interest in the welfare of the hospitals and children's homes, which she has fostered since she came to England 64 years ago.

COMMUNITY XMAS TREE AT TERRACE

Annual Affair Proved Greater Success than Ever—Performances very Creditable TERRACE, Dec. 4.—The Community Christmas Tree proved an even greater success than ever. The program given by the school did credit to the work being done there.

The program was opened with a chorus by the children in Miss Andrews' room, "Jolly St. Nicholas," followed by a stately duet by the Misses Thomas. The musical ability of the children was further revealed in duets by Misses Mona Grieg and Janet Young; Misses Mary Wilson and Gladys Kenney; and a trio by the Misses Rice. Recitations were given by Rita Taft, Joyce Cole, Lillian Christy, Edna Dover.

Of special length and interest for the dramatic ability was the display "The Legend of Qu'Appelle Valley" by Bessie Moore; Betty Anderson won a storm of applause with her Sacred Dance. The boys of Miss Dobbs' class sang: "To the New Year," and the girls sang "The Sleeping Beauty."

Ester Taft and Walter McCannel gave a very amusing little dialogue, Miss Andrew's class sang "Little Harebell." The program closed with a character sketch "The Photographer," in which Misses Esther Moore, Mary Wilson, Fanny McLean all sustained their parts well.

The distribution of candy and presents took place very smoothly and the children were delighted with their generous boxes of candy and neatly or useful presents which ranged from fountain pens and necklaces for older children down through games appealing to various ages, to rattles for all the babies of the town.

The tree was followed by a dance for the children at which they all had a perfectly glorious time.

SMITHERS BACHELORS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

Al Finnerty and Cliff Warner Were Hosts at Party Saturday Night

SMITHERS, Dec. 21.—Just to show that their hearts were in the right place a couple of Smithers' young bachelors in the persons of Al Finnerty and Cliff Warner stepped out on Saturday night and gave a party to which they had invited some 30 of their young friends. The affair was acknowledged by all to be a real top-notch for an entertainment and good time.

The apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. S. Ehy over the Ehy store had been turned over to the boys for the occasion, and they left nothing in their efforts to give their friends a merry evening.

The rooms were tastefully decorated and an abundance of good things had been provided for the supper that was served at midnight.

Dancing, music and games made the time pass all too swiftly and it was a happy crowd that departed homeward in the wee small hours.

MANY CLAIMS TO VALUABLE LEGACY

Correct Use of Famous Title has Encouraged Pretenders

About the year 1880 the pioneer prospectors of British Columbia discovered a remarkable coal. After many trials and tests it was positively established that this coal represented the acme of economy, efficiency and comfort.

To this fuel they gave the new famous name of "Nanaimo-Welington," representing all that was best in coal.

No sooner was it found that the public insisted on getting this Wonder Fuel than other coals were put on the market under very similar names. So much so that the public were at a loss to say which was the genuine and which the imitation. Of course it was easy after a trial—a single sack will prove it—more lasting and more powerful heat from a few shovelfuls, hardly any ash, no clinker or rock, all these points stand out when you make a practical test in furnace, fireplace, heater or cook-stove.

This famous Nanaimo-Welington coal is sold only by Albert & McCaffery to whom all orders should be phoned direct. Prompt delivery service given by their own teams and trucks. Their phone numbers are 416 and 564.

RADICAL GROUP VERY MODERATE

Issues Statement Showing Its Stand on Number of Public Questions

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The Radical group in Great Britain has just issued a statement which includes its program of reforms. It states that it believes in first things first and makes one of the features of its demands the Henry George system of single tax with absolute free trade with foreign countries. There is little that is new in the statement, which is interesting because of its moderation. It follows:

A Radical group, consisting of representative Liberals and Radicals, men and women, has been formed with a view to consolidating and co-ordinating large bodies of progressive opinion throughout the country and in order to secure adequate expression of fundamental principles. The class-tyrannies involved in Conservatism and Socialism are alike detrimental to the best interests of the people of these islands. The group therefore puts forward in a clear and concise form a program of Radical reform which should form a basis of practical legislation and unite all men and women who believe in ordered progress and love freedom and justice. This group desires to secure "first things first," and would point out the reforms urged in this program have been included in official Liberal programs from time to time.

Free Land, Free Trade

The fundamental policy of true Liberalism is equality of opportunity and the freedom of the individual. The group therefore stands for free land, free trade, free people, and proposes to carry out the policy foreshadowed by Cobden, to bring about complete freedom of exchange by the abolition of all remaining tariffs, and complete freedom of production through the breaking up of land monopoly by means of the taxation of land values.

1.—Definite proposals to secure this are:

(a) A national tax on the value of all land (including minerals) both in the towns and in the rural districts, and

(b) The allocation of part of the proceeds of this tax to the relief of charges which now fall upon the local rates for such predominantly national services as main roads, poor relief education, police and asylums, with the concurrent abolition of all rating upon houses, factories, machinery and other improvements, whether industrial or agricultural, and

(c) The recognition of land values as the basis of assessment to the local rates thus reduced.

It is the view of the group that schemes of land purchase will never form a satisfactory basis for the solution of the land question.

2.—As the value of all land is created by the community such a system of taxation and rating would make the "common fund" available for the "common good."

3.—These reforms would relieve industry of the heavy burden of taxation and rating which is one of the main causes of trade depression. They would open up to productive industry the land which is now withheld from use, or which is capable of being put to a much better use, and so would provide productive work for those now unemployed by increasing production, cheapening building materials, and bringing sites into the market. This would also lead to the speedy solution of the housing problem.

The group also stands for (a) security of tenure for all tenants and leaseholders; (b) the encouragement of agricultural co-operation for the purchase of fertilisers, seeds, etc., the provision of agricultural machinery, and the preparation and marketing of agricultural products.

Political Reform

5.—The group favors the complete democratization of political institutions, and therefore advocate adult suffrage, a measure that will bring about a real correspondence between parliamentary and electoral strength, and a measure of home rule all round.

6.—The group is in absolute sympathy with all efforts for educational advance, and advo-icates better school buildings, reduction in the size of classes, and a wider extension of the provisions for secondary and university education, and such payment of teachers as will attract the best men and women to the profession.

7.—The group favors a measure of Local Option as a democratic means of advancing temperance reform.

8.—The group is in favor of an extension of old age pensions and the abolition of the means disqualification. It also advocates a scheme for pensions for widows, and the more generous treatment of disabled ex-servicemen and the widows and dependents of men who fell in the Great War.

The Post Office Registration and General Delivery wickets will be open from 9 to 10 a.m. tomorrow (Christmas Day). One collection will be made from street letter boxes commencing at 8.15 p.m.

Fred Henning, of the Universal Trading Company, is leaving on the steamer Prince Rupert on Friday morning for Vancouver where he will be married on January 7 to Miss Alice Riley.
