CRERAR ATTACKED IN HOME BANK HEARING ATTITUDE OF KETCHIKAN IN REGARD TO RUPERT CONDEMNED BY OPERATOR

Counsel for Crown is Heard in Argument at Ottawa Enquiry Today

OTTAWA, May 20.—The depositors of the Home Bank have no legal claim against the crown. It is for parliament to decide if they have any claim on moral grounds.

This was the conclusion of Eugene Lefleur, government counsel, who today argued his case before the Home Bank commission.

An attack on Hon. T. A. Crerar, former leader of the Progressive Party and director of the bank from 1910 to 1918, featured the morning sitting. R. A. Reid, counsel for the shareholders, named Mr. Crerar as "one of the conspirators" in the history of the Home Bank and charged him with being a party to the issuance of false and fraudulent returns. He claimed that, when Mr. Crerar found from inside information that the bank was in serious danger, he sold his stock and got out when "the getting was good."

NEW CRUISER ON TRIAL RUN

Vanidis Undergoing Tests Today
—Rivids Was Launched
This Morning

The Vanidis, first of the deisel power boats built at the local dry dock for the department of marine and fisheries, is out on her official trial runs this afternoon with J. W. Allen, supervising engineer for the department in charge. The vessel will make a six hours' continuous run and will probably go as far as Porcher Island. The dock trials, which have already been made, proved satisfactory.

The Rivids is now all ready for commission and will be delivered to the department Thursday to enter service from Vancouver Island. Mr. Allen will go south aboard her.

The Rivids, second of the cruisers built here, was launched at the dry dock at 2 o'clock this morning, everything going off smoothly. She will have her trials in about two weeks.

MINISTER OF MARINE ORDERS NEW HEARING

Canadian Scottish Case in Which Skipper Lost His Papers is to be Reopened

An application of the Canadian Merchant Service Guild has resulted in a new hearing of the case of stranding of the Canadian Scottish being ordered by the minister of marine. The Scottish was wrecked outside of Prince Rupert harbor on March 3 and, in an enquiry following, Capt. Harris, master of the ship, was found guilty of negligence and his papers were temporarily suspended. The pilot, Capt. A. Brown, was not punished. The ground taken by the Canadian Merchant Service Guild in applying for a new hearing was that Capt. Harris had acted properly in turning his ship over to Capt. Brown and was not responsible for the accident.

Capt. C. Eadie, examiners of masters and mates, has been appointed commissioner for the new hearing. He will have two associates whose names will be announced later.

Use of this Port Necessary to Best Interests of United States Boats, Hoatum States

In a letter to the Pacific Coast Fisherman, Capt. O. O. Hvatum, the well known skipper of the American halibut boat Scandia, emphatically states that the use of the port of Prince Rupert is necessary to the best interests of the American fishermen and condemns the attitude taken by certain Ketchikan interests in endeavoring to prohibit the use of this port in favor of theirs.

Capt. Hvatum's letter is as follows:—

"The writer has read with considerable interest an article contained in your February issue concerning the respective merits of handling fresh halibut direct from Prince Rupert, versus from Ketchikan via Prince Rupert.

"It states that Ketchikan interests estimate it costs the fisherman from 1/2c to 1c a pound more to land halibut at Prince Rupert than at Ketchikan. Reflection will clearly prove that this figure is ridiculous. It takes a halibut boat from 10 to 12 hours to run from Ketchikan to Prince Rupert, which means from 20 to 24 hours running time. A vessel which will pack an average of 50,000 pounds of halibut, would cost for fuel, lubricating oil, etc., to run this distance, about $50.00 or one-tenth of a cent per pound. Even though it cost, the fishermen from 1/2c to 1c per pound, someone has to pay for the cost of operating the freighter from Prince Rupert to Ketchikan, and who else would it be but the fisherman?"

"Child's Eyelids Inflamed Stuck Together and Bled"

Mr. E. P. Kimball, Entwhistle, Alta., writes: "Our little girl from birth was troubled with inflamed eyelids and in spite of several remedies, grew worse until at the age of sixteen months her eyes could not be opened after sleep without bleeding, a waxy discharge sticking the lids together and adhering with great tenacity. The child's grandmothers were consulted by mail, and both responded with a little sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. These were used as directed, and lasted until we could obtain a further supply from Edmonton. Improvement was very marked from the first application. The waxy discharge was easier removed and did not reappear. Inflammation subsided and has not returned."

Is An Election Necessary Here?

As far as the provincial election situation in Prince Rupert riding is concerned, the question is not "Will Mr. Pattullo be returned?" but "Is a contest necessary to return him?" The election of the minister of lands by acclamation, it would seem, would only be an appreciation of his efforts on behalf of the constituency.

It may be conceded that Prince Rupert will give a majority for Mr. Pattullo and, furthermore, if the prophesy made yesterday by F. G. Dawson that the Queen Charlotte Islands would poll three-quarters of their votes for him is correct, it would appear that any candidate going up against Mr. Pattullo would only be butting his head against a stone wall.

The indications are conclusive that nothing is to be gained by any one in an election here at this time. With its result a foregone conclusion, it would seem the logical and advisable thing to save the trouble and expense of one.

Should Keep Our Two Portfolios.

Mr. Pattullo has been a strong representative for Prince Rupert constituency and has done all that might reasonably be expected of him. He is not making any rash promises now but is gaining respect by his refusal to do so.

Besides giving his district good service, Mr. Pattullo has done excellent service for the province as a whole in his capacity as minister of lands. Reports received from various parts of the province indicate that there is no chance of the Oliver government being defeated. Rather it looks as if their lead in the legislature will be increased.

There have been no prospective candidates mentioned for Prince Rupert constituency that might possibly be considered as cabinet material. Furthermore, the defeat of Mr. Pattullo, remote though the possibility may seem, might mean the defeat of the government which would result in the north losing two portfolios. It is most important and fortunate that an outlying community such as this should be represented by two cabinet ministers and there is little if any prospect of another party giving two portfolios, or even one, to the north.

Return Solid Liberal Front.

The north has received excellent treatment at the hands of the Liberal administration—better than was given by any previous government and better than may be expected if the Conservatives or Provincials by any chance should be put into power. With two cabinet ministers seeking re-election and strong Liberal candidates otherwise in the field for the north, it seems not only most likely but most fitting that a solid Liberal front should again be returned.

In view of the reasons so apparent, it seems that the logical thing for the north to do is to send back Liberal representatives to Victoria and elect Mr. Pattullo by acclamation.

THIRTY MILLION DOLLARS

INVESTED IN SAWMILLS AND LOGGING EQUIPMENT IN B.C. INTERIOR

Inland Timber Industries Have Payroll of $10,000,000

Approximately $30,000,000 is invested in lumber mills and logging equipment in inland British Columbia.

At a conservative estimate 8,000 men are engaged in the combined timber industries of the interior, with a payroll of close on $10,000,000.

The standing timber of inland British Columbia is reckoned at 150,000,000,000 feet, and 43% of the area is described as absolute forest land.

According to the last official report published, there are about 150 sawmills and shingle mills operating with a daily capacity of 1,000,000 feet.

Heavy Production in 1923
 In 1923 the logging camps in the interior produced 442,000,000 feet of logs of all descriptions and the value of the sawn lumber alone was not less than $8,000,000. In addition large quantities of poles, fence posts, railway ties, shingle bolts, etc., would add many hundreds of thousands of dollars to this total.

The pole and tie industry of Central and Northern B.C. is developing into a most important branch of logging. As yet the pulp and paper industry has no plant operating in the interior although an enormous quantity of the very finest pulpwood on the continent is available. These facts and figures demonstrate the vital importance of its inland lumber industry to the whole province of British Columbia.

This series of articles communicated by the Timber Industries Council of British Columbia.

TUBERCULOSIS TESTS OF CATTLE IS ASKED

City Council Requests Provincial Authorities to Take Action and Give Notice of Results

On motion of Ald. Macdonald and Ald. Clapp, the city council decided last night to ask the provincial authorities to make tuberculosis tests of cattle here at the earliest possible date and report to the city authorities so that proper disposition might be made of any condemned stock. This was the outcome of a discussion along these lines last week when no action was taken. In connection with the sale of any meat from tubercular cattle, Ald. Perry suggested that it be made compulsory for such meat to be so designated so that people would know what they were buying.

LOCAL MAN CAUSES STIR AMONG SHIP REPAIRERS IN SOUTH

The awarding of the contract for repairs to the Norwegian steamship Tatjana, now in dry-dock in Victoria, is awaited with the greatest interest says the Victoria Colonist. Seldom has there been such intense interest surrounding the letting of a repair contract that has centred about this one and, as a result, there are now on the ground fighting on the work no less than nine contracting firms, including the Prince Rupert Dry-dock.

J. H. Pillsbury, representing the Prince Rupert Dry Dock threatened that he would retire from the field in view of the short time that was allowed in which to consider the specifications, the time set for the receiving of tenders being 3 o'clock last Friday afternoon. The fact that the northern company recently was successful in underbidding other coast tenderers on the repairs to the Canadian Scottish and carried out the work with expedition had the effect of making the presence of the Prince Rupert representative somewhat of an uncertain proposition in the bidding on the Tatjana.

Fortune making application to purchase tax sale certificate rights in and to lot 16, block 28, section 5, for the upset price of $35.76 plus interest to date was received at last night's council meeting and referred to the finance committee with power to act. The property will be advertised for sale.

Permission was granted the baseball league at last night's council meeting to use the Acropolis Hill grounds on May 24 between the hours of 1 to 3.30 to stage the opening season game provided the arrangement is satisfactory to other organizations concerned. Ald. Collart and Ald. Macdonald moved to this effect.

DOG CATCHER UNDER FIRE

City Council Rejects Suggestion That his Powers be Increased—Some Criticisms Made

The municipal dog catcher came in for a good measure of discussion and criticism at last night's council meeting in connection with proposed amendments to the license bylaw.

Ald. Casey suggested that it might be advisable to give the dog catcher the full powers of a police officer so that he might have more authority in the matter of collecting fees.

Mayor Newton pointed out that the dog catcher could get the police to issue summons if the necessity arose.

Ald. Casey replied that, somehow or other, that system had not been satisfactory. The dog catcher complained of some people being exempted—in some cases on the authority of the mayor.

Ald. Collart felt that none should be exempted. There should be the same law for all.

Ald. Macdonald agreed that the dog catcher should be given authority in the matter of collecting fees but at the same time he should use his common sense.
He had seemingly been unfair in some cases and it was said that he himself (the dog catcher) had a number of dogs for which he was not paying licenses.

Mayor Explains

Mayor Newton thought that the main complaint against the dog catcher was that he was "too Johnny-on-the-spot." Efforts had been made to have the officer use his common sense in certain cases but without success. His Worship referred to a couple of cases where he himself (the mayor) had paid dog licenses for people who were not in a position to do so. Even after he had done so, in one case, a man was haled into police court the next morning and assessed costs. In another case, the dog catcher had captured the dog of a settler visiting the city and the mayor himself had to go to the pound to get the dog liberated.

Ald. Collart thought that, instead of giving the dog catcher more powers, it might be advisable to check his powers. His duties should be carried out along lines giving fair play to all. He had no criticism to make of the mayor and, after licenses had been paid in the manner the mayor reported, he saw no reason why the dog catcher should offer complaint.

Successful Officer

Ald. Casey said the only charge the dog catcher had made was that the mayor paid licenses for other people. He (Ald. Casey) had no fault to find with such action. The present dog catcher had proven the most successful one the city ever had though he was not popular. He had brought the matter up only with a view of seeing what the council thought about extending his powers.

Ald. Macdonald thought the dog catcher had all the powers that were necessary. If the police were lax it was up to the police commission.

City Solicitor Jones thought the police had only exercised discretion and it was his opinion that good discretion had been shown.

Ald. Collart and Ald. Perry opposed the suggestion that the dog catcher should be allowed to carry firearms.

Transient Licenses

In connection with the license bylaw, Ald. Macdonald asked if it were not possible to charge more than $50 for transient licenses.
The city solicitor said that the statutes provided for a maximum of $50. Ald. Collart mentioned travelling insurance agents and was told that they paid license fees direct to the government.

No action was taken in regard to the proposal for extending the dog catcher's powers and the by-law amendment offered by Ald.
Clapp providing for the elimination of a duplicating refreshment license was reported complete.

NEGOTIATE FOR VENEER PLANT

Effort Being Made to Have Skeena Laminated Come to City Instead of Upriver

Referring to suggestions that had been made recently that the Skeena Laminated Wood Co. Ltd. should establish its proposed plant in Prince Rupert rather than at Salvo, Ald. Evitt reported to the city council last night that C. J. Quig, an official of that company who had visited the city, had now written asking what concessions might be offered by the city. The company would require 250 horse power of electrical energy, 2 1/2 acres of land with trackage and water and reductions in taxation and water rates.

Ald. Perry said he would like to see the company come to the city but he did not see how they were going to get their cottonwood logs here.

Ald. Evitt replied that this had been gone into and it had been decided that they could be floated here.

Ald. Macdonald thought the council did not have enough information before it to start discussing concessions. This industry was yet in its infancy. He thought the time was a little premature to approach the city council.

Ald. Evitt replied that machinery had been ordered and W. T.
Musc had been given the contract to drive piles. It was a question of now or never as far as the bringing of the industry to this city was concerned.

Ald. Collart was in favor of assisting any bona-fide industry to locate here but he wanted more definite information and a concrete proposition. As far as land was concerned, the city had none to give them.

Mayor Newton favored the starting of negotiations.

It was decided, on motion of Ald. Collart and Ald. Smith, to leave the matter to the finance committee to enter into negotiations and bring the matter before the council again at the proper time.

ROADWAY ON TAYLOR STREET IS PLANNED

Recommendation to this Effect from Board of Works Laid Over Pending Receipt of Estimate

A recommendation from the Board of Works that a roadway be built on Taylor Street under the local improvement plan was laid over for a week by the city council last night so that the Board of Works may get an estimate of cost.

Mayor Newton explained that the roadway it was proposed to provide was one that residents of the section in question had been seeking for some time and for which they were now ready to pay. Ald. Collart felt that the cost should be ascertained before any further steps were taken so that financial arrangements could be made. Ald. Perry explained that the estimate had not been provided because the people had first asked for a ten foot plank walk and now they wanted a 16-foot road. He said that the estimate would be available for next week.
