MACDONALD TALKS PLAINLY TO POINCARE

THIRD PARTY COMPLAINS CANNOT GET EVIDENCE BEFORE COMMISSION

Open Diplomacy Policy Begins Between Britain and France Macdonald Speaks Mind Plainly

LONDON, March 3.—Premier J. Ramsay Macdonald, in a desire to create a favorable atmosphere for the initiation of negotiations which he hopes may result from the committee of experts in Paris has had a further exchange of letters with Premier Poincare, the text of which has been issued from the foreign offices both here and in Paris.

The correspondence is noteworthy on Premier Macdonald's side for extreme frankness in stating the British viewpoint and his own opinions on the French policy since the war. Not before has the British suspicion of French action been so candidly stated. The fact that Poincare takes no umbrage at the frankness is considered a favorable sign.

Premier Macdonald again shows that his main hope is to attain such a state of affairs in Europe as to induce the United States to co-operate in the reconstruction of Europe.

Repudiates Annexation

In his reply Premier Poincare repudiates any design to annex a particle of German territory and concerning British suspicions of French motives in giving military assistance to the little entente he declares that the French aims are absolutey peaceful and he only desires that England co-operate with the same group of countries for the purpose of maintaining the peace of Europe.

Mr. Macdonald in his letter says it is widely felt in England that France is endeavoring to create a situation which gains for it what it failed to secure by the allied peace negotiations. The view held is that this policy can only perpetuate uncertainty and danger of war and finally will destroy whatever temporary security France may gain. "Thus it has come that the people of this country regard with anxiety what appears to them to be the determination of France to ruin Germany and dominate the continent without consideration of our reasonable interests and the future consequences to a European settlement. They feel apprehension of the large military and aerial establishments maintained in France as shown by your government in military organization of new states in Central Europe. Finally they question why these activities should be financed by the French government in disregard of the fact that the British taxpayer has to find upward of £30,000,000 yearly as interest on loans and also large sums to pay on interest on the debt of France to us to meet which France as yet has neither made or propounded apparently any sacrifice equivalent to their own."

Security Against War

Mr. Macdonald says that France is thinking only of security against Germany. Britain desires security against war. The interests of the two countries are really identical. Both countries desire reparations but the British people ardently desire reparations of ruined markets, purchasing power, shipping, foreign trade, currency employment. If France and England can but agree, the co-operation of other European countries is assured.

It is Sir Henry's intention, as soon as the company has completed its string of radio stations from coast to coast, to use this medium as often as possible to establish a personal contact with those he terms his "fellow employees" of the Canadian National system.

VICTORIA, March 3.—Premier Oliver declared today that the Government was not contemplating an appeal to the electorate in the immediate future and that there would be no election on the basis of the special April revision of the voters' list. He explained that the idea of the April revision was to have an up to date list in case it should be decided to have a beer plebiscite in the early summer.

The probability is that there will be no election until at least August or early in September.

ANOTHER STEAMER FOR ALASKAN TRADE

Capt. Hofstead to Place 450 Ton Craft in Service and is Being Loaded at Seattle

George C. Burford brought word back, says the Juneau Empire, that Capt. Hofstead, a former local navigation man, is about to place a small boat in service between Juneau, Ketchikan and Seattle, Hofstead ,he said, has purchased a 450 ton ton vessel, equiped with diesel motors, with accommodation for 24 cabin passengers for the run. It is now being loaded at Seattle principally with Ketchikan cargo and will start north at once. The vessel will make between 12 and 13 knots per hour. If the vessel proves to be a paying venture Hofstead told Burford he had a second and larger boat in sight to add to the sevvice.

Officers of the Seattle steamship companies told Burford that they will handle more tourists this season than ever before. All the early season bookings have been exhausted. It is indicated that the season will extend well into September. The demand for round trip reservations with stopover priyileges was said to be unprecedented many of those writing for accommodations expressed a desire to stop on at various Alaskan points at least a week and longer if possible.

Provincial Party Preparing to Back Down from Inquiry by Charging Scope too Narrow

VANCOUVER, March 3.—The Provincial Party today formally requested that the Lieut.-Governor in Council instruct Mr. Justice Galliher, the commissioner examining the P.G.E. railway charges, to go outside his commission in order to permit evidence to be adduced, which they allege will support their charges.

The counsel of the Provincial Party partially withdrew from the probe last week, contending that the instructions to the commissioner were much too narrow to cover all the charges made. General A. D. McRae said the first part of the inquiry was airtight insofar as permitting us to bring out any evidence relative to the charges in our petition regarding the contribution to campaign funds, and after careful perusal of the wording of the document authorizing the commission, it is very doubtful if we would have any more chance of bringing in our evidence in the second stage of our inquiry. However, until we have been advised of what action is taken on the memorial sent to the acting lieutenant-governor, we have no comment to make.

DECLARES INQUIRY TRAGEDY FOR B.C.

Money and Energy Being Spent on Trying to Burrow Way to Power When Work Needed to be Done

Says "The Hook," Vancouver's weekly paper: "What a tragedy to behold! The cream of the forensic talent of British Columbia—like a grub boring into a fat cheese—gathered at the provincial capital to ply their skill. The hotel lobbies filled with eminent K.C.'s, with red bags over their shoulders and blue ruin in their hearts; sifting buried garbage dumps in the vain quest for some token of corruption; snatching at uninformed street corner and poolroom gossip; burning the midnight oil as they cudgel their high-priced legal brains to think of some line of peurile questioning, in the hope that the public confidence may be undermined and their clients, their friends and themselves enabled to burrow their way to power.

While all the time the real P.G.E. question is how to fill up the great aching plains of the Cariboo and the Chilcotin; how to colonize our great inland Empire, garner in the fruits of its timber and mineral wealth, create traffic and freight for our railroad and bring confidence, peace, prosperity and contentment to the people of this province.

And we must pay for the enquiry they have forced.

Register Now If Not On Voters' List.

Everyone should vote at the provincial elections but in order to vote it is necessary to be on the official list. If not already on the voters' list no time should be lost in calling at the Court House and getting registered. Often issues arise during an election which would make a person wish to vote when otherwise he would not be interested. The only safe thing to do is to register. It costs nothing and the vote may be needed.

Leader Of Reds Gloats Over Revolution.

The chairman of the executive of the Third Internationale, the central red organization, gloats over the prospect of a revolution in Japan and suggests that "revolution will march through Europe by way of Germany." Whether the prophecies are to come true or not, none of us can say, but what we do know is that they are aided and abetted by the organization of reds with headquarters in Moscow. They would delight to see one class against another and citizens of the same country killing each other in a struggle over methods of government. The members of the organization have nothing to lose and everything to gain from a change. Most of them are the disappointed ones of the world, the failures, and they look to violence as a remedy where their natural ability to make good failed.

Are Now Working On P.G.E. Accounts.

If there is anything wrong with the financing of the P.G.E., we want to know it. Just now the auditors and lawyers of the Provincial Party are combing the books and accounts and other documents of the railway for the purpose, if possible, of substantiating their charges against the government and of providing for themselves campaign material with which to fight the next election. They have two weeks in which to do the work and they will then have an opportunity of examining witnesses and airing in public their views on the work done by the railway company. It is their last chance. They have failed to make good on their charges against Hon. William Sloan and W. J. Bowser and if they fail in the other charges they may well retire into obscurity. It is on the ground of such charges as these that they have got their party organized. The next sessions of the commission of inquiry will be watched with great interest.

Asking Bids For American Ships.

It may be possible that one or two of the American ships which are to be sold may suit the Canadian National Railways for their coast traffic on this ocean. Out of 1335 offering there ought to be some suitable for the coasting business, but if there are they are likely to be picked up quickly for that is the class of steamer in demand today.

The sale of the American ships is an indication that government ownership of mercantile marine has not been a success in that country, but neither has private ownership. The United States laws do not make for success in the steamship business.

In Canada conditions are somewhat different and today the Merchant Marine operated by the government is doing excellent work in developing commerce between Canada and other countries. It should at least be given a fair trial.

Betty Compson in "Woman to Woman" is said to have made one of the most satisfactory all round motion pictures of the early 1924 season.

"The Extra Girl," featuring Mabel Norman, opened in Los Angeles for a four weeks run but was extended to eight weeks and was still going strong then. It is a Mack Sennett production and like all the Sennett pictures has a strong comedy role.

A play by a Canadian author is "Poisoned Paradise," a story of Monte Carlo and Paris by Robert W. Service, was banned by the police in some of the continental countries because it tells too much.

"The Man Life Passed by" features a wild society party at its jazziest and also shows the underworld at its worst. Of course with such a combination there are fi hts.

Togo Yamamoto is editor of the largest motion picture magazine in Japan and also is an actor playing the part of the proprietor of an opium den in "Pagan Passions."

TOM MIX METHOD OF MAKING LOVE SEEN IN MILE A MINUTE ROMEO

A fascinating Romeo is Tom Mix who is to be seen tomorrow night at the Westholme Theatre in "Mile a Minute Romeo."

Shakespeare would undoubtedly be surprised to learn that profound love tremens can be conveyed to an audience without the use of fumultous sighs, heaving bosoms, lachrymal blandishments and hysterical gesticulation.

TOM MIX in "MILE-A-MINUTE ROMEO"
A WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

Tom Mix as a lover is typical of his age. He is fast and furious, practical and electrical, a man of action finding his love and marrying her without too much ado about nothing.

New Method

Instead of going into a corner to bewail the cruelty of Fate and the verality of man, and offering supplications to conciliate the deities and their disciples in his favor, Tom Mix roars, "Bunk!"—and hops aboard his horse-flesh locomotive Tony. With a bound he is out in the thick of things, playing with Kismet, as if they were his consanguine brothers, teasing, tempting them, yet always keeping them, as if, to keep the figure, they had been his younger brothers, under complete and servile submission.

To a man of Mix's calibre, Fate is a "Fag," something created for no other purpose than one's amusement. This is how he manages the unruly, sometimes rebellions fellows in "Mile-A-Minute Romeo." His name is Lucky Bill and he has had as his target more men than hearts.

Falls in Love

In aiding a friend elope with a beautiful girl he falls in love with the latter's "choice." Later he finds that the particular girl is the "choice" of another fellow, making the aggregate number three. How each man contrives to eliminate his rival gives Director Lambert Hillyer opportunity for staging some of the most comical, thrilling and rending scenes the screen has ever produced.

"WHY WORRY" COMING HERE AT WEEK END

Harold Lloyd in Different Role This Week From Any Seen Before

In "Why Worry?" Harold Lloyd's latest Pathecomedy entry in the race for popular plaudits, and the feature attraction at the Westholme Theatre at the week end, Lloyd again pursues his own theory that to mix them up is to serve the public best. Because one likes roast beef is no reason why it should be served him for every meal. And for the same motive, there is no reason why a star should enact a certain type of picture continuously because he happened to achieve a great success in one of them.

"Why Worry?" is as unlike any picture Harold Lloyd has made before, as any two things could be. It is a South American story, strong in farce but with an ever present vein of satire that should prove delightful to the audience which does not like its entertainment too serious.

It is the biggest picture in Lloyd's category, from the point of production. Big sets, huge crowds, and much fighting add to its production values. Yet above all these stands out the character of Lloyd, as the boy who has naught to worry him but imaginary ills. Another outstanding figure is John Aasen. Eight feet, nine and a quarter inches of Aasen stands out on the screen. He is the world's biggest man.

HUMOROUS SITUATIONS IN MID WEEK PICTURE

Potash and Perlmutter Coming to Westholme Wednesday is Laugh Producer

"Potash and Perlmutter," a First National picture which is coming to the Westholme Theatre on Wednesday, is filled with situations so humorous that it keeps audiences in an uproar of laughter from start to finish.

One of the most laughable sequences devolves about Abe Potash's earnest endeavors to interest a group of clothing buyers in his latest suit styles. Poor Abe, unable to engage a competent designer, evoked merely sarcastic remfarks as he exhibited suit after suit. Being too poor, also, to afford live models, he made use of a mechanical model, which, when wound up, turned slowly.

Abe, sweating and gesticulating, stood beside the model, pointing out the good points of the garments. So oblivious was he to everything else that the outstretched arm of the model would swat him on the head with every turn until Abe subconsciously ducked at every revolution, furnishing his auditors with further amusement.

Barney Bernard plays the part of Abe in the picture, and Alexander Carr has the role of Morris Perlmutter. A third member of the cast is Vera Gordon, who is seen as Rosie Potash.

EXPORT OF LOGS

Editor, Daily News.

Those of us who did not attend the sessions of the Forestry Commission held here recently have no legitimate complaint. The meetings were well advertised and all were invited, even urged to attend.

The views expressed locally would indicate that there is only one side to this question.

In considering the question of allowing the export of logs, we have the advantage of past experience to guide us in deciding for the future. All through the nineties the most vexed problem of the logging industry was the scaling of logs. Practically every mill had its own "scale" and failed to conform with that of other mills either in theory or its application to measuring a given boom. The mill superintendent usually did the scaling for the mill, and it is a fact worthy of note that many such with several years of practical experience to their credit (or discredit) as scalers have failed repeatedly to pass the government examination as government scalers. Many of the B.C. mills were not then enjoying the same rating in Dunn and Bradstreets that they do today.

The mills on Puget Sound used the same scale (Scribners). B.C. Loggers claimed that they got a more satisfactory scale in Puget Sound than they did at home. They also received their check more promptly in Bellingham or Tacoma than in Vancouver. These two considerations had much to do with developing the log export trade at that time.

Rate of Wages

In Vancouver 1892, the prevailing rate of wages for mill help was twenty-five dollars per month and a room in the bunk house. The following year the Ross Maclaren mill at Sapperton, the North Pacific mill at Barnet, the Port Moody mill, the Moodyville mill, the Buse mill of Vancouver, Leamy and Kyle, the Morse and the Royal City mills all of Vancouver, were closed, some of them for five and eight years. While they were closed some of the Bellingham and Tacoma mills were operating steadily night and day, using lareg quantities of B.C. logs and selling a large amount of lumber, moulding, sash and doors in the Canadian prairies provinces. Our mills with the exception of Hastings and Chemanius, whose trade were largely export, were idle.

Not Good Business

This plan of supplying B.C. logs for American mills was not regarded as good business for our province. All classes, merchants, manufacturers and labor, all joined in the effort to stop the export of our logs. Their first effort was to remove the grievance of the loggers, the defective system of scaling.

In this connection the "Old-timer loggers" will tell you that "they were flim-flammed." They will tell you that logs of various diameter and lengths were measured on the log decks of a well known mill by a joint committee of loggers and millmen and then sawn in their presence and the lumber then measured. That measure established the standard scale for that size.

The results however were disappointing to the loggers and many of them clajm that a special saw was used making a "kerf" three-eighths of an inch too wide. This, like other problems where an honest and sincere attempt is made by both parties to reach an agreement, is no longer a subject of contention. We have in B.C. today and have had for years a staff of absolutely competent and efficient scalers. Today it is very seldom that either a logger or a mill question the returns of government scalers.

At the beginning of the present century the organization of the Forestry Department on the lower mainland was not so elaborate as it is today. R. J. Skinner was the office staff and Big Jack Murray was the outside force. Some of the B.C. loggers had developed a good line of customers on Puget Sound and when the embargo first came into effect the (the loggers) were loath to loose good customers. Timber from Crown granted land was exportable and according to returns to the government at that time some remarkable "cuts" were made. Even as late at 1905, the writer held a crown grant of five hundred acres on Jarvis Inlets, which according to reports must have produced about one hundred thousand per acre after the first logging. Now the Government have the men and the launches to see where the logs come from. Our mills are operating and let us not adopt any policy that worked to the detriment of the province before in the vain hope that the result would be different now.

Forest Losses

Reference was made at the session of the Commission here to the over-mature trees in what we prefer to call western not northern B.C. No doubt we suffer an annual loss from this cause, but we cannot cut all our hillsides at once. Our forest losses today is infinitely greater through careless and criminally wasteful logging methods. Often from ten to thirty young healthy saplings are destroyed in bringing one tree to the water. Many ,many logs are left on the ground because they are too large to be handled readily by the donkey in use. Such logs should be split and turned to useful purposes. In a few weeks we will be sending the children out to our garden for a head of lettuce or a few young carrots. In getting this they are not allowed to destroy the rest of the garden.

THE CROW OF CROUP
A WARNING
TO ALL MOTHERS

Croup starts with a dry cough and rattling in the throat; after which the croupy crow gives warning of the disease. The child, after tossing restlessly about, with start up with a flushed face, protruding eyeballs, and a distressing look of terror and anxiety. There is a struggle for breath, and the expectoration of the mucous matter is so difficult to get rid of that the effort appears to threaten strangulation.

On the first sign of the "croupy crow" mothers should administer Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and thus give the child prompt and permanent relief, and perhaps the life saved by taking this precaution.

Mrs. H. A. Langhorn, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"My little boy was very bad with the croup and I could not get anything to relieve him until I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I cannot praise it too highly for the relief it gave him."

As a result of the decisive victory of the Grotto over the Sons of England in Friday night's billiard tournament, the lead of the Great War Veterans in the contest for the Bulger & Cameron Cup has been considerably reduced. The tobacconists once again have fair chances of getting to the top The Veterans will be playing again tonight with a meeting set down between them and the Sons of England. They have a high record to sustain and cannot afford to lose many points. If they do not make more than 937 in the aggregate their average will be reduced.

MISSION BOAT DRIVEN ASHORE AND IS BURNED

Deck of Gasboat Lois Lifted by Explosion and Rev. G. J. Beck Burned

Total destruction by fire of the gasboat Lois, owned by the Presbyterian Missionary Board and operated in this district, was reported from Roonah to Rev. S. Hall Young, superintendent of Presbyterian Missions in the Territory, says the Juneau Empire. Rev. George J. Beck, father of George Beck, of Ketchikan, who had charge of the vessel was painfully burned in the accident.

Mr. Beck, according to reports received by Dr. Young, was standing in the engine room when the accident occurred. The force of the explosion lifted the decks from stem to stern, the pilot house, cabin, masts and steel rigging and hurled them ashore. The accident happened on the night of February 20.

Driven Ashore

The Lois had been driven ashore by a large and heavy ice floe earlier on the same day. Late in the evening, Mr. Beck took his lantern and went across to see if the boat was in a safe position. It was lying on its side on the beach. He entered the vessel through the pilot house and went direct to the engine room. As he went in, he said, he heard a peculiar hissing sound, and in a single instant the whole place was in a mass of flames. He turned to escape and found the steps to the pilot house to be in splinters. Climbing over the gas tank he made his way to where the pilot house had been and to the gunwale. On the land side a wall of fire 50 feet shut off his escape. He finally made his way ashore over floating ice. He was severely burned about the face eyebrows and lashes burned, and the rims of his eyeglasses partly melted. No permanent injury, he said, was done to his eyes. His head, ears and hands were covered and not burned.

The fire, he said, probably resulted from an explosion of gas in the bilge, where it had drained from the broken feed pipes. The hull sank, but was later raised and the engine recovered.

Loss $15,000

The loss, said Dr. Young, is all of $15,000. He did not know whether or not there was any insurance carried. Insurance, in the past, had been looked after by the Board of Missions directly. The loss of the boat, he said, is a serious matter to the work of missions in the territory as the boat has been a vital factor in carrying it on successfully. It is essential that a vessel be available, he added, and he with others interested will start at once to replace the Lois with a suitable craft.

GRAIN HANDLING FACILITIES FOR PRINCE RUPERT

T. M. Fraser, special correspondent of the Vancouver Province, at Ottawa, writing to his paper last week, says:

"A strong effort will be exerted this session by the Progressives and by many of the Liberals to extend the grain-handling facilities at the Pacific port of Prince Rupert. They argue that it is a Canadian National port and nearly 500 miles nearer the Orient than Vancouver.

"Grain rates out of Prince Rupert to Liverpool are the same as out of Vancouver. Another argument in favor of that port is, it is an all-Canadian national port and that all business sent there would assist the government railways. Again, there would be obviated the payment to the C.P.R. in Vancouver of the sum of $15 a car for hauling Canadian National cars to the Vancouver elevator, the government road not having access to the elevator."

YOU CAN EAT ANYTHING YOU LIKE AND NOT HAVE HEARTBURN

In all cases of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by a disturbed appetite, as when too much food is taken into the stomach it is liable to ferment and become extremely sour, vomiting occurs, and what is thrown up is generally sour and bitter. When you are in this condition you will find that Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will give you relief right away.

Mr. Joseph H. MacDonald, Christmas Island, N.S., writes: "Two years ago I suffered all the time from heartburn. I took one vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have never been troubled since.

It is very nice to be able to eat anything you like and not have heartburn any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LEAP YEAR BALL AT TERRACE LAST WEEK

Ladies Took Initiative In Dances While Men Served Supper

TERRACE, March 3.—Everything was reversed at the Leap year ball given here at the week end by the Native Sons of Canada. It was one of the jolliest dances of the season and credit for its success is very largely due to the ladies who entered into the spirit of the occasion and never let things drag a moment.

The men proved most lavish hosts when it came to refreshments. Jack Viger as floor manager was as efficient as usual and the orchestra excelled itself.

Prosperous advertising means regular continuous advertising.

Why?

WHY waste time in useless "shopping around" when the advertisements lay before you the choicest wares of every progressive merchant in town?

WHY use needless effort in an endless store-to-store quest when the advertisements enable you to make your choice of the finest merchandise without even leaving your home?

WHY pay more than you ought when you can stretch your dollar to the elastic limit by taking advantage of the bargains and good buys that are daily advertised in this paper?

WHY risk dissatisfaction by buying unknown, unbranded goods when you can assure yourself complete satisfaction by buying an advertised product, backed by the integrity of a man who spends real money to establish his name and to build up public good-will?

Read the Advertisements. Buy Advertised Wares. It is a safe and sound policy

STAMP OUT LEPROSY IS AIM OF BRITISH

Estimated it Will Take About Thirty Years to Cure 200,000 Cases

LONDON, March 3.—Now that an effective cure has been found for leprosy, the British government is considering the possibility of stamping out the disease, which is at present affecting some 300,000 subjects of the Empire. The government has been asked to expend about 85,000,000, to which various societies will add further amounts to carry on the work which, it is estimated, will take about thirty years.

The cure of leprosy has been declared practical. Several apparently hopeless cases have been cured by the new tratment, which consists of the hypodermic injection of chaulmoogra oil, extracted from the kernal of a nut found on trees in Burma, Assam and parts of India.

Since the disease is not hereditary, those responsible for this ambitious plan hope to make leprosy unknown to the next generation.

About 200,000 cases of leprosy are known to exist in India.

HALF MILLION GOES TO UNIVERSITY AT CITY OF EDINBURGH

EDINBURGH, March 3.— Gifts amounting to more than 8500,000 have been made to Edinburgh University within the last three months. The largest donation was 8250,000 made by the Rockefeller Trustees to be used for laboratory and scientific research. A bequest of 8240,000 was made by an Edinburgh lawyer for the school of medicine and the study of literature and foreign languages.

With the use of this money it is expected that the school of medicine of the university will be the most advanced in the country, as it already boasts of the best faculty in Great Britain.

ALASKA EXPORTED TWO MILLION WORTH OF FURS LAST YEAR

KETCHIKAN, March 3. — The value of land fur-bearing animals shipped out of Alaska as reported to the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture, during the year 1923 was $1,794,159.85, the total number exported being 397,287. While this number exceeds that of the previous year by 2,040, the value is $5,127.55 less, because of the lower prices paid for some kinds of furs.

As usual, the muskrat exceeded all others both in numbers and in total value of skins, 319,611 of these, having a value of $367,552, being the year's export. Next in order come the white fox numbering 7,939, witha value of $297,476; the beaver, with 14,341 skins, worth $258,138; and the red fox, with 10,787 skins, valued at $215,740. The most notable decrease as compared with 1922 is the mink, 31,983 of these being shipped that year and 20,668 in 1923. The most notable increase is the red fox, 5,979 skins being exported in 1922 and 10,787 in 1923.

EDMONTON LABOR IS BACKING EDUCATION

Mass Meeting to be Called in That City to Protest Against Lowering Standards

EDMONTON, March 3.—Labor here is out in protest against the attempt throughout the country to curtail educational privileges and to reduce the standard. A mass meeting is to be called for the purpose of drawing attention to the movement and protesting against it. A resolution was passed by the Central Labor Council as follows:

"Realizing that the present campaign being carried on in an attempt to intimidate the school board is not merely local but is national in scope, and aims to cut down the standard of education that the workers have fought for years to attain; Therefore, this Central Council approves of the organization of a mass 'demonstration' against the present unwarranted attack on the standard of education and that a strong committee of six organize this demonstration and have full power to act."

The committee elected to carry out the demonstration was: Mrs. Mullard, Mrs. Bell and Delegates Russell, Long, Lakeman and Davis.

People Object

"The people of the west end of the city," said Mrs. Mullard in speaking of the resolution upon education, "are with labor in the opposition to this reduction of standards. Many citizens are objecting to the lowered efficiency in teaching by giving more pupils to each teacher."

DANZIG OBJECTS TO POLISH WAR DEPOT

GENEVA, March 3. —The free city of Danzig, which is under control of the League of Nations, has protested to the league against the site picked by the Polish government for a war depot. The site is too near the city and likely to endanger life in the event of explosions, declares the protest.

A neutral commission has been named in an effort to settle the dispute.
