BRITISH HOUSE TO REASSEMBLE TOMORROW

EXTREME COLD WAVE IN STATES CAUSES LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY

Speculation Keen as to Possible Lineups of Political Parties

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Members of parliament are flocking to London today preparatory to the re-assembly of the House of Commons tomorrow.

Among the arrivals are the members of Glasgow's Labor contingent popularly regarded as "The Wild Men" of the Labor movement who were given an enthusiastic send-off in Glasgow. Baillie Dolan, chairman of the group, told the crowd that the new Labor members were not going to London with the idea of becoming cabinet ministers but rather to take their seats in parliament as the missionaries of socialism.

Lingering rumors of some eleventh hour arrangement whereby the threatened action of the Liberals to help Labor into government may be averted, include one given publicity by the Herald, Labor organ. The report is vague but it indicates the belief that a section of the Liberal party has already come to an arrangement with the Conservatives whereby the present government may be saved.

KIDDED HIM SO HE KILLED THEM

North Dakota Farm Hand Makes Gruesome Confession to Police

BISMARCK, North Dakota, Jan. 7.—Because two men with whom he had been drinking home-brew kidded him and would not let him sleep, Joseph Berger, aged 25, a farmhand, today told the police he had killed them as they slept in a straw stack near here last fall. He clubbed them with a pump handle before they were wide awake. Berger escaped undetected but said his conscience bothered him and kept him awake at nights so he decided to tell the story.

STRESSES NEED FOR NEW CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Grant Refers Particularly to Subject in New Year Sermons

Expressing his confident expectation that the Presbyterian congregation would be housed in a more suitable church building before the close of 1924, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant referred at both services yesterday to the great necessity for such an edifice. In the course of his New Year's messages, Dr. Grant particularly stressed the admonition that all members of the congregation should put forth their best efforts this year to that end. The matter will be taken up at the annual congregational meeting to be held this month.

Mrs. H. C. Fraser was soloist at the evening service yesterday.

MARKED GAIN IN DEPOSITS

Royal Bank of Canada Has Made Remarkable Progress in Past Fiscal Year

A gain of fifty millions in deposits, liquid assets of approximately 50% and cash amounting to no less than 28% of liabilities to the public are among the outstanding features of a remarkable strong statement which the Royal Bank of Canada is forwarding to its shareholders for the fiscal year ending November 30. A $50,000,000 gain in deposits is really phenomenal under conditions that prevailed during the past year and must be accepted as unmistakable testimony of the confidence that is everywhere placed in this strong Canadian banking institution. What will make such a large gain still more satisfactory from the shareholders' standpoint is that owing to the general character of the business done by the Bank there are especially large deposits of any nature.

The general business of the Bank continues to show an expanding tendency. Total assets are now $538,358,554, as compared with $479,362,366 for the previous year, or a gain of about $59,000,000. Liquid assets are $233,125,474, as compared with $216,018,331, while cash on hand amounts to $81,604,539, against $71,935,920 a year ago.

In the liquid assets a number of other large increases are shown, the principal being a gain in short term government securities. Dominion and Provincial government securities now stand at $28,783,050, up from $22,950,224, and Canadian, Municipal and British, Foreign and Colonial Government securities, other than Canadian, amount to $15,900,363, against $7,901,927 a year ago. Call loans total $46,372,574, compared with $18,610,020 last year.

Current loans gained during the year. They now stand at $264,722,967 against $242,937,776. Savings deposits increased from $277,595,882 to $311,759,127. The earnings during the past year were $3,909,316 as compared with $3,958,469 in the previous year.

Ald. Munro, chairman of the board of works, stated that this would be done.

Thermometer Reaches Low Level in Middle West at Weekend and Mild Weather Today is Welcome

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—An extreme cold wave throughout the United States is accounted responsible for a number of fires and disasters which have caused the deaths of twenty people and done damage amounting to many millions of dollars.

The temperature elsewhere throughout the Northern States compelled many people to overheat their stoves and take risks resulting in hundreds of fires in dwellings.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—The Middle West welcomed the return of temperatures to normal today. A recapitulation shows a loss of seventeen lives in Chicago due to cold. The reading of 16 degrees below zero reached on Saturday broke the record for cold weather for the past twelve years.

Palestine Under British Rule Prospering but Syria Governed by France is not Doing so well

While conditions in Palestine have greatly improved since the inception of British rule, French government in Syria and Lebanon has not been conducive of very good results in these countries as a whole according to James Jabour, local business man, who returned to the city on Saturday after a visit of nearly three years in Syria, Palestine and Lebanon. Speaking of conditions generally Mr. Jabour said that in 1920, when he arrived in Syria and Lebanon, business and living conditions were not so bad but that they were gradually getting worse under the rule of the French government. On the other hand Palestine was thousands of experienced farmers progressing well under the British regime and the ordinary laborer was receiving $2.50 a day if the path can be smoothed for as against 60c a day paid for the them to get out of their own same class of labor in the French country," said Mr. Jabour.

Since the British took over Palestine the country has been much improved in every way. Roads have been widened and many reforms have been made for the betterment of life for the natives. While the Jews in Palestine are restive and anxious for self-government, the natives are quite satisfied with conditions as they are. It is claimed by the British government that the Jews are not able to protect themselves and for their protection a standing garrison of from 10,000 to 15,000 soldiers is maintained which is paid for by the British taxpayer. The British government has made it clear to the Jews that if they want self-government they must be prepared to protect themselves out of their own pockets.

Duthie Lives Up To Promise.

J. F. Duthie, the Seattle capitalist, who stated last summer when he sold controlling interest in the famous mine on Hudson Bay Mountain that he would spend the proceeds by further investing in this district, is apparently living up to that promise.

Prince Rupert comes now to take even more interest in him since the announcement was made Saturday that he had bought three sections of townsite property. The price reported was low but it at least shows that Mr. Duthie has confidence in the future of the city.

The fact that the moribund holding company has disposed of the property to a real live business man will be gratifying to the city as a whole though it is not expected that Mr. Duthie has anything more definite in view at this time than speculation.

Prince Rupert Is Logical Site.

It is but logical that Prince Rupert should be chosen as the site for the Department of Marine and Fisheries' Pacific Coast practical biological station. Being the centre of all British Columbia's fisheries, there are assembled here the majority of the producers besides many handling interests. The port is also more convenient to the natural element of the fisheries which is an important consideration.

While a biological station may not mean a great deal from a construction standpoint or the number of employees it will possess, it should prove a further attraction to various fishing interests and will also be of much advertising value. The placing of such a station here is an acknowledgment of Prince Rupert's position of importance as far as the fisheries are concerned. The appointment of a local man to the biological board was a similar acknowledgment.

Board of Trade Valuable Body.

The reading of an annual report of a Board of Trade president brings home to the average citizen the importance of the work that is being carried out by that organization not only for the benefit of its own businessmen members but for the community and district at large.

The efforts of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade during 1923 have been diverse indeed and have been resultant in no small measure of results. The organization has functioned in a manner that no other body has done and its work has been very essential. Without the Board of Trade Prince Rupert might not possess many things today that she has. It is an institution that may not be appreciated very greatly while it is alive but once let it die and it would be greatly missed.

While there was a large increase in membership of the board last year, there are still many persons in the city who are deriving benefit from it but are not contributing very materially to its upkeep. The citizens of Prince Rupert should be solidly behind the Board of Trade and the best way of showing support is by joining it. The larger its membership the greater will be its influence also.

The most of the members consider their yearly fees money very well spent—productive of indirect returns in a measure that far exceeds the investment.

Ketchikan Paper Shows Its Hand.

While the Ketchikan Chronicle defends the 2c tariff on Canadian halibut entering the United States and says that the tariff has been of much benefit to the American fishermen, it is still reported here that the same American fishermen are agitating strongly for removal of the tariff. Suggesting that the American fishermen will still further benefit if the Poindexter amendment, compelling all fish to be shipped in bond from an American port, is put into effect, the Alaska paper goes on with its campaign which, after all, it seems is for the sole benefit of Ketchikan business men.

How the Alaska paper believes that the elimination of the port of Prince Rupert as a shipping point for American fish can benefit the American fishermen seems difficult to understand. In fact, the general belief here is that Ketchikan does not believe that such would benefit American fishermen. To back that assumption, we have the statements of American fishermen themselves on the question. A significant point in the course of the recent discussions on the closing of the port of Prince Rupert to American fishermen was the opposition of members of the Deep Sea Fishermen's Union to the measure on the grounds that it would be working a hardship on American fishermen.

While a community is to be admired in working for its own interests, that admiration is lessened when an attempt is made to injure a certain section of its citizens for the benefit of another.

It is not with a view to benefitting the American fishing industry that a resolution went forward from here recently to Ottawa asking that the port be closed to American fishing vessels, even if Ketchikan does tell us that would be the effect.

"When Hazel cut her foot, poison got into the broken skin causing a bad sore," writes Mrs. D. S. Green, of Kingston, Ont. "For some time the limb remained terribly painful and swollen."

"Then I left off ordinary salves and used herbal Zam-Buk. This soothed, cleansed and healed the sore so well, that in a few days Hazel was able to wear her shoe and again attend school. This experience taught me the wisdom of keeping Zam-Buk always handy."

According to a story received the proprietor of a San Francisco hotel noticed a boot boy crouching in the corridor polishing a pair of shoes.

"Here, boy," he said, "don't you know that the rule is to take shoes to the basement to polish them?"

"Yes, sir," said the youngster, "but these shoes belong to a Scotchman and he's got hold of the laces."

INTERESTING WEDDING ON NEW YEAR'S DAY

Miss Drina Fraser Becomes Bride of Donovan Corker at Fort Fraser

FORT FRASER, Jan. 7.—An interesting wedding took place at Government House, Fort Fraser, on New Year's Day, when Miss Drina Fraser, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fraser, was united in marriage to Donovan Corker, of Prince Rupert. A company of sixteen guests was assembled to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Father Cocola, O.M.I. In the absence of her father, the bride was given in marriage by W. J. McAllan, and attended by Miss Ethyl Tittemore, bridesmaid. Mr. Corker was supported by Mr. J. A. Findlay of Prince Rupert.

After the ceremony the party sat down to a delightful wedding breakfast. Mr. McAllan proposed the toast of the bride and bridegroom, wishing them, in the name of Fort Fraser and district, a long and happy wedded life. Mr. Bunting, proposing the toast to the bride's mother, Mrs. Fraser, referred to her kindly and helpful interests in all the affairs of Fort Fraser. Walter Campbell offered the good wishes of all to Father Cocola, mentioning the many hardship endured by him in ministering to his flock in the days before the railway. He also voiced the esteem in which he was held by all.

After the toasts had been drunk, the guests departed to reassemble later in the Public Hall where Mrs. Fraser gave a reception. A large company of friends was gathered there and the time was spent enjoyably until midnight when Mr. and Mrs. Corker left for their home in Prince Rupert, accompanied to the station by a host of well-wishers.

Mrs. Corker has been school teacher here three and one-half years and her efficiency in school work commended her to all parents, while her youthful enthusiasm in all that went on endeared her to the whole community. Mr. Corker was, until twelve months ago, a resident of the Vanderhoof district. He is now a member of the C.N.R. bridges and building department at Prince Rupert.

Herbert Taylor of Usk, who has been visiting in the city over the Christmas and New Year holidays, returned to the interior on Saturday night's eastbound train.

ENGLISH CUP SOCCER SOON

Play For Coveted Old Country
Trophy Starts on Saturday

LONDON, Jan. 5.—(By Canadian Press)—January 12 inaugurates the commencement proper of the annual tournaments for the coveted English Association Football Cup, the trophy which represents to its winners nothing less than the laurels bestowed on triumphant contestants of the ancient Olympiads. For over half a century the yearly battles for the blue ribbon of association football have taken precedence in public interest over all other sporting activities for the period in which the engagements are fought out, and this is true not only of England but of all countries where the association code is played. The spread of the game throughout Anglo-Saxon countries and the increasing popularity of football among peoples who are not Anglo-Saxon serve to make these annual contests features of world-wide interest.

The year 1871 saw the inauguration of the trophy; with the exception of the war years, play for it has been as regular as the seasons. Originally an amateur feature, it passed into the hands of the professionals when the game in the United Kingdom became professionalized. Notwithstanding this, however, amateur clubs can still contend for cup honors, nor by doing so do they lose their amateur status. It is in order to eliminate the weaker aspirants among the "unpaid" that the Football Association in their wisdom conduct the lengthy and more or less uninteresting series of qualifying rounds, the last of which was played December 45. The result this year sees sixty-four teams lined-up for the First Round.

Bolton and Hull

The present cup-holders, Bolton Wanderers, are drawn against a mediocre Second Division club, Hull City. That the title-holders will battle hard to retain their honors goes without saying, nor on their league showing is it beyond probability that they may again go to Wembley this year.

The runners-up, West Ham, whose league play can only be classed as indifferent, confront Aberdare, a Third Division team. The Hammers have not been impressive during the season and at times have succumbed rather easily to teams of lesser pretensions. But cup football is as different from league play as chalk from cheese. The finesse of "soccer" which represents to its winners nothing less than the laurels bestowed on triumphant contestants of the ancient Olympiads.

Aston Villa's Opponents

Aston Villa, the sternest of Cup fighters, have acquired the "pot" six times, theirs being the record in the Football Association. On January 12 they meet Ashton, a Third Division club.

Blackburn Rovers, rur. Aston Villa close in this regard, having secured the trophy five times, but their last title was won in 1891 and since then they have not reached even the final round. Their first game this year will be with the Corinthians, an amateur aggregation who made their first appearance in cup football last year.

Huddersfield Town, who for long have threatened Cardiff City in the race for league leadership and who were the title-holders in the cup contests in 1921-22, confront Birmingham, whose place in the league is sufficiently lowly to justify predictions of victory for the Yorkshires. It is noteworthy that in the draw for the First Round only three games will see senior division teams. The present cup-holders, Bolton Wanderers, are drawn against a mediocre Second Division club, Hull City. That the title-holders will battle hard to retain their will be the Intermediate League match between the Colts and High School. In point of standing, it should prove very interesting. The Colts have yet to lose a game this season but their scholastic opponents are the runners-up and have already given them a couple of good runs for their money. There is every possibility that the High School boys may just show enough speed on this occasion to bring home the bacon. The Ladies' League game will be between the Maple Leafs, league leaders, and the Teachers who performed well enough before the holidays to justify them having something better than the lowly cellar position they now occupy. A turn of the tables would not be surprising here. In the Senior League, the Colts and Teachers will battle. The Teachers in the first half gained a victory at the expense of the Colts and they are now hoping to repeat. High School and Colts are scheduled to meet in the Junior League.

Curling, that manly and clear winter sport, with its long chain of clubs throughout Canada which helps to link the east and the west, has entered upon another season which gives promise of glorious and interesting play on the slippery ice surface.

Curling is a game that affords pleasure and wonderful exercise for men and women of all ages. It is a game that brings together on an equal footing people of all classes and a game that provides more social feeling and true sportsmanship than perhaps any other pastime.

Western Canada probably

reigns supreme in curling owing to the longer seasons and the splendid organization that has helped to popularize the game to such an extent that there is hardly a town of any size in Manitoba and Saskatchewan that does not boast of a curling club, while Alberta is also well supplied with curling clubs. British Columbia has its quota, Fernie and Nelson being the most prominent. Curling has become so popular in towns of 1,000 inhabitants or more that nearly every club which can boast of at least five sheets of ice, has planned a Bonspiel in which entries vary from 20 to 75 rinks.

The game has reached such a high standard that competition is very keen and different winners are turning up at nearly every 'spiel.

The curling club is the meeting place in winter time in many of these small prairie towns and it is suspected that many of the business men during the quiet winter months spend their time trying to figure out the mysteries of the curling game.

Architect Potter Challenges Board to Start Suit or Investigation

Editor, Daily News:

In the Daily News of December 13 I notice an item about J. W. Potter, L.R.J.B.A., wanting to collect over $2,000 from the School Board—an account which is long overdue. The fact that I am holidaying in California will not prevent my return to Prince Rupert to collect what is due me.

I note that the School Board ordered the secretary to state that I was overpaid. If so, the School Board's duty is plain—collect the overpayments.

I have given the School Board every opportunity to start their threatened law suit and also their much talked of investigation—all of which seems to have been for the purpose of fooling the public. Perhaps they did not want to explain the four per cent clause in the building contract or certain other things.

I hear that after all the highly paid advice of government and self-styled experts, the school building leaks as well as the half million dollar court house.

I am surprised that the ratepayers have not started suit to collect these moneys from the members of the School Board.

The letter of Tony Christian published in your newspaper gives a small idea of what anyone dealing with the School Board has to put up with in the shape of foolish questions and endless talk.

I note that you, Mr. Editor, advocate a city manager for Prince Rupert. Get one quick. The ratepayers will receive twice as much for their money and have

YOU CAN EAT ANYTHING YOU LIKE AND NOT HAVE HEARTBURN

In all cases of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach attended by a disturbed appetite, as when too much food is taken into the stomach it is liable to ferment and become extremely sour, vomiting occurs, and what is thrown up is generally sour and bitter. When you are in this condition you will find that Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will give you relief right away.

Mr. Joseph H. Macdonald, Christmas Island, N.S., writes:—"Two years ago I suffered all the time from heartburn. I took one vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have never been troubled since.

It is very nice to be able to eat anything you like and not have heartburn any more."
